GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Assembly Bill No. 223.
Bill read third time.
The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:
Amendment No. 593.
AN ACT relating to state governmental procurement; establishing bidders' preferences for local businesses and local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans with respect to state purchasing contracts; establishing bidders' preferences for local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans with respect to state public works contracts; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.
Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law, with respect only to contracts for public works for which the estimated cost exceeds $250,000, provides a mechanism by which a contractor who has paid certain taxes may earn a 5-percent preference in bidding on public works. (NRS 338.1389, 338.147, 338.1693, 338.1727) Sections 18-25 of this bill establish a limited preference in bidding on public works for local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans. This new preference in bidding on public works does not overlap with the existing preference in bidding on public works because the new preference is limited to public works for which the estimated cost is $100,000 or less.

Under existing law, the State of Nevada imposes an inverse preference against a person who submits a bid or proposal on a state purchasing contract if that person is a resident of a state that denies a preference to bidders or contractors who are residents of this State. (NRS 333.336) Section 31 of this bill repeals that inverse preference.

In place of the former inverse preference, sections 5-13 of this bill establish two separate new preferences in bidding on state purchasing contracts: (1) section 10 adds a 5-percent preference for local businesses; and (2) section 10 also adds a 7-percent preference for local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans. Section 14 of this bill requires advertisements for bids or proposals to include notices of these new preferences.

Section 30 of this bill directs the Office of Veterans' Services to perform certain duties with respect to gathering information and making recommendations to the Legislative Commission concerning the preferences for local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 333 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 5 to 13, inclusive, of this act.

2. The documentation or other proof that a business must submit to demonstrate that it qualifies for a preference described in section 10 of this act; and

3. Such other matters as the Purchasing Division deems relevant.

➥ In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Purchasing Division shall, to the extent practicable, cooperate and coordinate with the State Public Works Board so that any regulations adopted pursuant to this section and section 25 of this act are reasonably consistent.

AN ACT relating to offenders; requiring the preservation of certain biological evidence under certain circumstances; ~~[authorizing certain persons to be committed to the Department of Corrections for evaluation;]~~ and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 2 of this bill provides that upon the conviction of a defendant for a category A or B felony, an agency of criminal justice that possesses any biological evidence secured in connection with the investigation or prosecution of the defendant is required to preserve such evidence until the expiration of any sentence imposed on the defendant.

~~[Sections 4, 6, 7, 9 and 10 of this bill authorize a court to commit before sentencing or as a condition of probation, offenders who have never been sentenced to imprisonment for more than 6 months as adults to the Department of Corrections or a local detention center for certain periods of evaluation. Such evaluations may be completed in conjunction with the Department of Health and Human Services. Upon conclusion of the evaluation period of such an offender, the Department of Corrections is required to report its results and the recommendations of the Department of Health and Human Services to the court to assist the court in determining whether to grant probation or impose a sentence of imprisonment.]~~

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 12:50 p.m.

Mr. Speaker pro Tempore presiding.

Quorum present.

Assembly Bill No. 458.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblywomen Buckley, Smith, and Gansert.

Assemblywoman Buckley requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore. Assembly Bill 458 stabilizes funding for K-12 education in Nevada. Assembly Bill 458 will return dollars to the K-12 education budget by doing two things: first, creating a rainy day fund to cushion the budget from the harshest effects of economic downturns, and second, stopping the diversion of tax dollars from education.

I certainly don't have to tell anybody in this body the effects of our economic downturn. Our state is facing a loss of 44 percent when we compare to what is needed to fund current services. Because education comprises such a large percentage of our budget, it is hard to shield education from a severe downturn. That is why Assembly Bill 458 is needed—to create an education rainy day fund, so when times are tough, we have an avenue available to us so as to not have to cut our progress.

It seems a short time ago when we were arguing in this legislative body about how much to fund career and technical education, how much to fund full day kindergarten, how much to fund empowerment schools, how much to fund pay for performance in education, and how much to fund the innovative fund for schools. Now look at where we are. It makes no sense to fund education in good times and to take away money in bad times. The children are going to school whether the economy is good or whether the economy is bad. It makes no sense to divert tax dollars for education in order to attract businesses to come here when businesses don't want to come to Nevada because of our educational system. We need a balanced approach and that is what Assembly Bill 458 does. It looks at what is being diverted from education and says it doesn't make sense to divert money from education at a time when education funding needs more. It also looks at the money that comes back to the state when enrollments or projections are lower and says that money will be set aside for the future of education. Assembly Bill 458 will help our state in the long run. It is a long-term reform that can make sure that we are not in the same situation again. I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SMITH:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore. I rise in support of Assembly Bill 458 and appreciate the Speaker bringing this bill forward. She is absolutely right that we have seen the bust and boom with education funding. We saw the end results over the last year when we cut so much from our education budget. We worked hard to provide some funding for pay for performance in the last session—it's gone; empowerment schools, it's gone; the Remediation Trust Fund. This is something my colleagues and I worked on for the better part of the last year and will really put that education money back where it belongs—in education. I will tell you that our constituents and the taxpayers appreciate knowing that when they approve a tax increase, which they have done many times over the years in the name of education funding, they want it to stay there. This is a solid way of making that happen, and I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GANSERT:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore. I have a question. There is some concern about impairing the repayment of current debt, and so I have been looking through the bill trying to make sure that anything that is currently on the books will not be affected by this. There was some discussion about whether it was the net or the gross incremental financing.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore. To you and through you to the Minority Leader, if a redevelopment agency has a preexisting obligation and compliance with the terms of the obligation is threatened by the setoff, the redevelopment agency shall be held harmless if an opinion of bond counsel—independent of the redevelopment agency, the municipality and the assessor—explains how and for what period such compliance is threatened by the setoff. Preexisting obligations include MOUs where the MOU is executed before April 1, 2009, and where the developers expended funds to excavate, demolish, or otherwise reduce the value of the acquired property. Affecting anything that is already obligated by bond would not be permissible, as it would impair the integrity of that bond.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GANSERT:

If you have started to work on a project—so the April 1—and put some money into your project, then that potentially would be grandfathered in also?

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore. Where the MOU was executed before April 1, 2009, and where there has been an expenditure of funds with regard to the project a preexisting obligation exists. It is always tricky when you grandfather people in. On one hand, you want to allow someone who relied in good faith on the existing law to proceed where there is money out of pocket. On the other hand, we have seen examples of legislation where we passed legislation as of July 1 and everybody and his brother rushes in, when they don't even have a project. They have a dream and they try to obligate. This is a balance that we struck in discussion with many people who potentially would be affected, and this is, I believe, a fair balance to make sure that there is an existing MOU and there is an expenditure of funds. We put specific showings that need to be made to make sure it is not just a pipe dream.

Amendment No. 674.

AN ACT relating to domestic relations; providing for the registration and dissolution of domestic partnerships in the State of Nevada; setting forth the rights and responsibilities attendant to such partnerships; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill establishes a domestic partnership as a new type of civil contract recognized in the State of Nevada. Under the provisions of this bill, with certain exceptions, domestic partners have the same rights, protections, benefits, responsibilities, obligations and duties as do parties to any other civil contract created pursuant to title 11 of NRS. This bill also clarifies that a domestic partnership is not a marriage for the purposes of Section 21 of Article 1 of the Nevada Constitution.

Section 8 of this bill sets forth that no public or private employer in this State is required to provide health care benefits to or for the domestic partner of an officer or employee. Section 8 also clarifies that any public or private employer in this State may voluntarily provide health care benefits to or for the domestic partner of an officer or employee upon such terms and conditions as the affected parties may deem appropriate.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Title 11 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new chapter to consist of the provisions set forth as sections 2 to ~~[12,]~~ 13, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 2. This chapter may be cited as the Nevada Domestic Partnership Act.

Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in sections 4 and 5 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 4. "Domestic partners" means persons who:

1. Have registered a valid domestic partnership pursuant to section 6 of this act; and

2. Have not terminated that domestic partnership pursuant to section 9 of this act.

Sec. 5. "Domestic partnership" means the social contract between two persons that is described in section 6 of this act.

Sec. 6. 1. A valid domestic partnership is registered in the State of Nevada when two persons who satisfy the requirements of subsection 2:

(a) File with the Office of the Secretary of State, on a form prescribed by the Secretary of State, a signed and notarized statement declaring that both persons:

(1) Have chosen to share one another's lives in an intimate and committed relationship of mutual caring; and

(2) Desire of their own free will to enter into a domestic partnership; and

(b) Pay to the Office of the Secretary of State a reasonable filing fee established by the Secretary of State, which filing fee must not exceed the total of an amount set by the Secretary of State to estimate:

(1) The cost incurred by the Secretary of State to issue the Certificate described in subsection 3; and

(2) Any other associated administrative costs incurred by the Secretary of State.

➥ The Office of the Secretary of State shall account for the fees received pursuant to paragraph (b) separately, and use those fees, and any interest and income earned on those fees, solely to pay for expenses related to administering the registration of domestic partnerships pursuant to this chapter, including, without limitation, the cost of materials and technology necessary to process and record the filing.

2. To be eligible to register pursuant to subsection 1, two persons desiring to enter into a domestic partnership must furnish proof satisfactory to the Office of the Secretary of State that:

(a) Both persons have a common residence;

(b) ~~[Neither]~~ Except as otherwise provided in section 10 of this act, neither person is married or a member of another domestic partnership;

(c) The two persons are not related by blood in a way that would prevent them from being married to each other in this State;

(e) Both persons are competent to consent to the domestic partnership.

3. The Office of the Secretary of State shall issue a Certificate of Registered Domestic Partnership to persons who satisfy the requirements of this section.

4. As used in this section:

(a) "Common residence" means a residence shared by both domestic partners on at least a part-time basis, irrespective of whether:

(1) Ownership of the residence or the right to occupy the residence is in the name of only one of the domestic partners; and

(2) One or both of the domestic partners owns or occupies an additional residence.

(b) "Residence" means any house, room, apartment, tenement or other building, vehicle, vehicle trailer, semitrailer, house trailer or boat designed or intended for occupancy as a residence.

Sec. 7. 1. Except as otherwise provided in section 8 of this act:

(a) Domestic partners have the same rights, protections and benefits, and are subject to the same responsibilities, obligations and duties under law, whether derived from statutes, administrative regulations, court rules, government policies, common law or any other provisions or sources of law, as are granted to and imposed upon spouses.

(b) Former domestic partners have the same rights, protections and benefits, and are subject to the same responsibilities, obligations and duties under law, whether derived from statutes, administrative regulations, court rules, government policies, common law or any other provisions or sources of law, as are granted to and imposed upon former spouses.

(c) A surviving domestic partner, following the death of the other partner, has the same rights, protections and benefits, and is subject to the same responsibilities, obligations and duties under law, whether derived from statutes, administrative regulations, court rules, government policies, common law or any other provisions or sources of law, as are granted to and imposed upon a widow or a widower.

(d) The rights and obligations of domestic partners with respect to a child of either of them are the same as those of spouses. The rights and obligations of former or surviving domestic partners with respect to a child of either of them are the same as those of former or surviving spouses.

(e) To the extent that provisions of Nevada law adopt, refer to or rely upon provisions of federal law in a way that otherwise would cause domestic partners to be treated differently from spouses, domestic partners must be treated by Nevada law as if federal law recognized a domestic partnership in the same manner as Nevada law.

(f) Domestic partners have the same right to nondiscriminatory treatment as that provided to spouses.

(g) A public agency in this State shall not discriminate against any person or couple on the basis or ground that the person is a domestic partner rather than a spouse or that the couple are domestic partners rather than spouses.

(h) The provisions of this chapter do not preclude a public agency from exercising its regulatory authority to carry out laws providing rights to, or imposing responsibilities upon, domestic partners.

(i) Where necessary to protect the rights of domestic partners pursuant to this chapter, gender-specific terms referring to spouses must be construed to include domestic partners.

(j) For the purposes of the statutes, administrative regulations, court rules, government policies, common law and any other provision or source of law governing the rights, protections and benefits, and the responsibilities, obligations and duties of domestic partners in this State, as effectuated by the provisions of this chapter, with respect to:

(1) Community property;

(2) Mutual responsibility for debts to third parties;

(3) The right in particular circumstances of either partner to seek financial support from the other following the dissolution of the partnership; and

(4) Other rights and duties as between the partners concerning ownership of property,

➥ any reference to the date of a marriage shall be deemed to refer to the date of registration of the domestic partnership.

2. As used in this section, "public agency" means an agency, bureau, board, commission, department or division of the State of Nevada or a political subdivision of the State of Nevada.

Sec. 8. 1. The provisions of this chapter do not require a public or private employer in this State to provide health care benefits to or for the domestic partner of an officer or employee.

2. Subsection 1 does not prohibit any public or private employer from voluntarily providing health care benefits to or for the domestic partner of an officer or employee upon such terms and conditions as the affected parties may deem appropriate.

Sec. 9. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, domestic partners who wish to terminate a domestic partnership registered pursuant to section 6 of this act must follow the procedures set forth in chapter 125 of NRS.

2. If a domestic partnership meets the criteria specified in subsection 3, domestic partners in a domestic partnership registered pursuant to section 6 of this act may terminate the domestic partnership by:

(a) Filing with the Office of the Secretary of State, on a form prescribed by the Secretary of State, a signed and notarized statement declaring that both persons have chosen of their own free will to terminate the domestic partnership; and

(b) Paying to the Office of the Secretary of State a reasonable filing fee established by the Secretary of State, which filing fee must not exceed the total of any administrative costs incurred by the Secretary of State.

3. For a domestic partnership to qualify for the simplified termination proceedings set forth in subsection 2, all of the following conditions must exist at the time of the filing pursuant to that subsection:

(a) The domestic partnership has been registered for 5 years or less.

(b) There are no minor children of the relationship of the parties born before or during the domestic partnership or adopted by the parties during the domestic partnership and no female member of the domestic partnership, to her knowledge, is pregnant, or the parties have executed an agreement as to the custody of any children and setting forth the amount and manner of their support.

(c) There is no community or joint property or the parties have executed an agreement setting forth the division of community property and the assumption of liabilities of the community, if any, and have executed any deeds, certificates of title, bills of sale or other evidence of transfer necessary to effectuate the agreement.

(d) The parties waive any rights to support or the parties have executed an agreement setting forth the amount and manner of support.

(e) The parties waive any right to the conduct of more comprehensive proceedings pursuant to chapter 125 of NRS.

Sec. 10. A legal union of two persons, other than a marriage as recognized by the Nevada Constitution, that was validly formed in another jurisdiction, and that is substantially equivalent to a domestic partnership as defined in this chapter, must be recognized as a valid domestic partnership in this State regardless of whether the union bears the name of a domestic partnership. For a legal union that was validly formed in another jurisdiction to be recognized as a valid domestic partnership in this State, the parties desiring such recognition must comply with the provisions of section 6 of this act.

Sec. 11. A domestic partnership is not a marriage for the purposes of Section 21 of Article 1 of the Nevada Constitution.

Sec. 12. The provisions of this chapter do not require the performance of any solemnization ceremony to enter into a binding domestic partnership contract. It is left to the dictates and conscience of partners entering into a domestic partnership to determine whether to seek a ceremony or blessing over the domestic partnership and to the dictates of each religious faith to determine whether to offer or allow a ceremony or blessing of domestic partnerships. Providing recognition to partnerships through a domestic partnership system in no way interferes with the right of each religious faith to choose freely to whom to grant the religious status, sacrament or blessing of marriage under the rules or practices of that faith.

~~[Sec. 12.]~~ Sec. 13. The provisions of this chapter must be construed liberally to the effect of resolving any doubt or question in favor of finding that a domestic partnership is a valid civil contract entitled to be treated in all respects under the laws of this State as any other civil contract created pursuant to title 11 of NRS would be treated.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 602.

AN ACT relating to intoxicating liquors; revising provisions relating to alcoholic beverage awareness programs; providing for enforcement of certain provisions by peace officers; revising the distribution of civil fines paid for certain violations; requiring certain reports to be made to the Legislature; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, certain employees of certain establishments that sell alcohol must have successfully completed an alcoholic beverage awareness program. The owner of an establishment that is not in compliance must pay an administrative fine, to be imposed by the Department of Taxation. Money from the administrative fines must be divided equally into the Fund for the Compensation of Victims of Crime and the Alcoholic Beverage Awareness Program Account in the State General Fund. (NRS 369.630) Section 1 of this bill provides that peace officers may enforce the requirements of the provision relating to employees having successfully completed the program by issuing a notice of a civil infraction for violations. Section 1 also revises the provision for distribution of the money received by the Department for fines from establishments found in violation, providing that instead of depositing 50 percent of the money in the Fund for the Compensation of Victims of Crime and 50 percent of the money in the Alcoholic Beverage Awareness Program Account, 50 percent of the money must be deposited in the Account for Aid for Victims of Domestic Violence and 50 percent of the money must be deposited in the account created in the State General Fund for the support of community juvenile justice programs and must be used only to enforce laws that prohibit the purchase, consumption or possession of alcoholic beverages by persons under the age of 21 years.

Section 2 of this bill requires each recipient of money from the collection of fines for civil infractions to submit a report to the Legislature concerning the amount of money received and how the money was used. In addition, certain law enforcement agencies and the Department of Taxation are required to submit a report to the Legislature concerning the enforcement of the provisions requiring employees to participate in an alcoholic beverage awareness program.

Section 4 of this bill requires the Legislative Auditor to conduct an audit of any fines imposed pursuant to NRS 369.630 after July 1, 2007.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 669.

AN ACT relating to education; requiring the Department of Education to work in consultation with the Nevada System of Higher Education to establish a plan to ensure that high school pupils are ready for postsecondary education and the workplace; revising provisions governing the academic plans for ninth grade pupils; requiring instruction on financial responsibility in high school; authorizing the issuance of an adjusted adult diploma for certain persons; requiring peer mentoring for ninth grade pupils; requiring school districts to adopt a policy for the remediation of deficient credits ~~[,]~~ to the extent money is available; requiring school districts to adopt a policy for pupils to report unlawful activities; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill requires the Department of Education to work in consultation with the Nevada System of Higher Education to establish clearly defined goals and benchmarks for pupils enrolled in high schools to be adequately prepared for the educational requirements of postsecondary education and for success in the workplace.

Existing law requires the board of trustees of a school district to adopt a policy for each public school in the school district in which ninth grade pupils are enrolled to develop a 4-year academic plan for each of those pupils. (NRS 388.205) Section 5 of this bill requires the policy to ensure that each ninth grade pupil and his parent or legal guardian are adequately notified of certain courses and programs available to the pupil which will assist in the advancement of the education of the pupil as well as the requirements for graduation, for admission to the Nevada System of Higher Education and for receipt of a Governor Guinn Millennium Scholarship.

Section 6 of this bill requires the board of trustees of each school district and the governing body of each charter school that operates as a high school to ensure that instruction on financial responsibility is provided to pupils enrolled in the public high schools in each school district and in each charter school that operates as a high school.

Existing law provides that a pupil with a disability who does not satisfy the requirements for receipt of a standard high school diploma may receive an adjusted diploma if he satisfies the requirements set forth in his individualized education program. (NRS 389.805) Section 7 of this bill requires the State Board of Education to create an adjusted adult diploma and provides that a pupil who was identified as a pupil with a disability and who did not graduate before the age of 22 years may receive an adjusted adult diploma under certain circumstances.

Section 9 of this bill requires the board of trustees of each school district to adopt a policy for a program of peer mentoring, which may include a component of adult mentoring, designed to assist the ninth grade pupils in the transition from middle school or junior high school to high school.

Section 10 of this bill requires the board of trustees of each school district, to the extent money is available for this purpose, to adopt a policy which ensures that a pupil who is deficient in the number of credits required for promotion to the next grade or graduation from high school has sufficient opportunities to remediate his deficient credits.

Section 11 of this bill requires the board of trustees of each school district to adopt a policy that allows pupils enrolled in a school within the school district to report, anonymously if the pupils choose, any unlawful activities that are being conducted on school property, at an activity sponsored by a public school or on a school bus, commonly referred to as a "secret witness program."

Section 16 of this bill repeals NRS 392.090, 392.100 and 392.110, relating to the exemption of certain children from compulsory school attendance.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Senate Bill No. 201.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Atkinson, Gustavson, Goicoechea, Anderson, and Kirkpatrick.

Assemblyman Gustavson requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ATKINSON:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. Senate Bill 201 authorizes the Washoe County Board of County Commissioners to impose additional county taxes on motor vehicle fees and various special fuels used in motor vehicles. The taxes will cause an annual increase in the current amount of taxes imposed on such fuels based upon increases in the Product Price Index for highway and street construction, which is published by the United States Department of Labor and measures inflation in the cost of such construction. The bill is effective upon passage and approval. I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN GUSTAVSON:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in opposition to S.B 201. The language in the bill itself—the ballot question was very vague and misleading. There was nowhere in that language on the ballot question itself that mentioned the word "taxes." For many reasons, I do oppose this bill. Number one: Why are taxpayers being asked to pay more now? During 2007 portions of property taxes paid by the citizens of Washoe County were shifted to the Highway Fund to pay for more construction projects. Washoe County fuel taxes were increased due to indexing during 2003 to build and maintain roads. The RTC Board approved a 50 percent increase in the fees paid by new development during 2007. The RTC Board approved a 130 percent increase in developer fees in 2008. Nevadans already pay some of the highest fuel taxes in the nation. These taxes, fees, and spending are going up faster than the roads. This is in addition to the millions of dollars in federal stimulus money that is currently being printed up in Washington D.C. to build roads in Washoe County. If S.B. 201 passes, current revenues will disappear when truckers pass right through Washoe County and buy their fuel elsewhere. I know, as being a truck driver for many years, I would buy fuel where I could pay less money. When you fill up a truck full of diesel fuel, you are talking about up to 500 gallons, and this adds up very quickly. For these reasons I oppose S.B. 201.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOICOECHEA:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of this bill. It is enabling legislation only. It allows the board of county commissioners to impose the tax increase if they want to, and the voters in my portion of Washoe County did approve the measure.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I think my colleague from eastern Nevada clearly articulated the primary point that the voters of Washoe County did, after much debate and public disclosure, vote in support of this issue. I appreciate the fact that we do pay an inordinately high tax on fuels in the State of Nevada. However, the reality is that there is a great need because of dedicated dollars in a very dramatically growing county. This is an important measure and approved by the voters. I believe that this bill should be strongly supported, in support of the voters in Washoe County.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN KIRKPATRICK:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of S.B. 201. I think as a Clark County person, I have to look and count on my colleagues from Washoe County. These are their constituents and their businesses, and I think, being from Clark County, that we should absolutely support our folks from Washoe County. I urge your support.

Assemblyman Cobb requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I want to put some remarks on the record concerning S.B. 207.

In my opinion, Nevada is a state that has always honored personal freedom, and this bill affirms that Nevada not only has this reputation but now has the laws to confirm this. The kind of discrimination prohibited by S.B. 207 hurts tourism and hurts our economy. Senate Bill 207 ensures that the visitors and citizens of Nevada experience an open and welcome environment where everyone is able to enjoy the personal freedoms that this state has always valued. Nevada markets itself as a tourist destination and invites everyone to come and enjoy what Nevada has to offer. Through passage of S.B. 207, we affirm that everyone can expect to take advantage of our state without fear of discrimination. I urge its passage.

Remarks by Assemblymen Segerblom, Cobb, Spiegel, Settelmeyer, and Leslie.

Assemblyman Conklin requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. Senate Bill 283 provides for the registration and dissolution of domestic partnerships. The bill states that a domestic partnership is not a marriage for purposes of the Nevada Constitution. It also provides that public and private employers are not required to provide health care benefits to a domestic partner of an officer or employee, but those employers are not precluded from offering such benefits. Each of you has on your desks a legal opinion from LCB which states this is not a marriage. I know you see a lot of emails to that effect, but this is not a marriage. This does not impact marriage. You also need to know that both major newspapers in the State of Nevada have endorsed this bill, both the Las Vegas Review Journal and the Reno Gazette- Journal. It is very timely and needed legislation. Finally, I want to point out that this is not just a gay rights issue; this is a human rights issue. This deals with any relationship in the State of Nevada. Our problem in this country is not the fact that we have too many marriages or too many committed relationships, it's that we do not have enough. Anything that this body can do to encourage relationships, to foster them, and to strengthen them, I believe, is very important. So for that I urge you all to support Senate Bill 283. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN COBB:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 283. I agree with my colleague from the south in that the language of this bill does not directly conflict with the constitutional provision that was put in place in 2002 by the voters. But I do believe it directly conflicts with the intent and the will of the people from that 2002 passage. The reason I feel this is that this bill assigns the same privileges, rights, and responsibilities that our society has given to marriages—as defined by the will of the voters as that being between a man and a woman—to other relationships. These don't just include some of the issues that we all can agree upon, like end-of-life decisions, rights of inheritance, which you can contract for right now privately, but also certain privileges such as the spousal privilege exemption from the evidentiary rules, exemption from the real estate transfer tax, and things like that. Again, as a society, we have said these things will only be reserved for those who are in a solemnized marriage. I think this goes beyond just the concept of allowing people to privately contract, which I believe is already in the law and can already be handled. I do not think that we should go against the will of the voters—especially the intent of the will of the voters in 2002—and enact this legislation.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SPIEGEL:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I would like to rise in support of Senate Bill 283 and just let everyone know that this bill is not something that is limited to the gay community. I have two very personal stories that I would like to share with you. Some of you have heard these stories already.

A number of years ago before my husband Bill was my husband, there was another man in my life named Elliott, and Elliot passed away the day before his fortieth birthday. I came home from work that night and I found him. When I called the police, they came over to the house. It was obvious that I lived there, with my clothes all over the place. I had the key to the house. I had the alarm code. You know, it was quite obvious that I lived there. The police said to me that because we weren't married, I didn't have any rights and that I should get my toothbrush and leave out food and water for the cats, because they were going to have to padlock the house. I was thrown out of the house the very night he passed away. My nearest family was 40 miles away. His nearest family was 60 miles away. And it was just because I had no rights in the relationship.

Years later, when I met Bill and we were engaged and we were planning our wedding, I got a notice from my landlord that said that my rent was going to go up by $1,000 a month. You would think that the logical thing would have been to have moved in with Bill. Of course, I was a little hesitant because of my prior experience, but aside from that, there was also in a clause in Bill's lease that said that he couldn't have a nonmarried partner move into his apartment without the express written permission of the landlord. We knew that the landlord wouldn't give permission and that by my moving in—just moving in with a person who I loved, who I was planning on spending the rest of my life with—that we could get evicted for no other reason than for just moving in together. But that apartment was in Santa Monica and Santa Monica, California, had a domestic partnership ordinance. So we went down and filed paperwork—an affidavit of domestic partnership. That allowed me the right to move in, knowing that we couldn't get evicted for my moving in and that, God forbid, if something should happen to Bill, I wouldn't have been thrown out into the street once again.

This bill is for the rights of every Nevadan, whether you are a senior who is looking to live with someone, whether you are a young single person, or whether you are same sex or different sex—it doesn't matter. This is for all Nevadans. I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN SETTELMEYER:

I appreciate the comments of my colleague from Assembly District 9 about the legal opinion. In my opinion, though, this is so substantially similar to what our voters voted on in 2000 and 2002 that I think this bill should have been sent back to the people to allow them to vote on something that is so similar. I urge you to vote no on this bill. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN LESLIE:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of Senate Bill 283. I represent an older section of Reno, which is in old southwest Reno, for those of you from the north and from the south. It is affectionately known in the gay community as the "gayborhood," because it is full of gay and lesbian couples, and straight couples, too, and every other kind of family you might imagine. It is a neighborhood of wide streets, and houses with porches, where people know their neighbors' dogs and they know their neighbors' children. People talk all the time. And I think of the street that I live on and the gay couples that live on that street and the topic of conversation that we've had in the past few months over this bill, in the dog park and in the bars and restaurants in our neighborhood. I know that a yes vote is right for my constituents. It is also a very personal bill, for me.

Two of my very best friends are a gay couple who live in my district. They own a home, but they have no rights. They could hire a lawyer, but why should they have to hire a lawyer? Why should they? Why can't they have the rights that the rest of us have—to have somebody there at the end of their life making decisions, visiting them in the hospital, inheriting assets, planning a funeral? One of them is the father of my daughter. So this is a very important bill for my family, and I know a yes vote is the right vote for them.

Finally, I see this bill a little differently. I see it as a bill in the great tradition of Nevada libertarianism. I am not a libertarian in most ways, but I do share the Nevada libertarian spirit of live and let live. I have always thought that should be our state's motto. Instead of "Battle Born," it should be "Live and Let Live." Nevadans do not want government interfering in their personal lives. Since when do we want government deciding where we live, who we live with, and who we should love? Have we ever wanted that? So why would we stand in the way of others' rights to do that? These are intensely personal decisions. This is personal freedom. These are our decisions, and government should stay out of it. No one is asking you to change your personal beliefs today. No one. All we are asking is that you think very clearly and carefully about standing in the way of the personal freedom of any other Nevadan, to let them live their life as they want to. I urge your support. Thank you.

Senate Bill No. 283 having received a constitutional majority, Madam Speaker declared it passed, as amended.

Bill ordered transmitted to the Senate.

Assembly Bill No. 227.

Bill read third time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 671.

AN ACT relating to public welfare; ~~[requiring]~~ providing for the licensure of certain foster care agencies that provide services relating to the placement of children in foster care; requiring licensure of specialized foster homes; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 4-7 of this bill ~~[require persons who wish to]~~ provide for licensing of persons who operate a foster care agency that assists an agency which provides child welfare services in placing or arranging for the placement of children in foster care. ~~[to obtain a license from the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services.]~~ Section 4 requires the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services to adopt regulations regarding the placement of children in foster care, including, without limitation, regulations establishing the minimum standards for foster care agencies and regarding the issuance and renewal of a license to operate a foster care agency. Section 5 authorizes a licensing authority, which is an agency which provides child welfare services, to license foster care agencies within its jurisdiction in accordance with the regulations adopted by the Division. If a licensing authority licenses foster care agencies, then all foster care agencies within the jurisdiction of the licensing authority will be required to obtain a license. Section 5 further authorizes a licensing authority to impose a fee for the licensing and renewal of a license to operate a foster care agency up to a specific amount that must not exceed the actual cost incurred by the authority for providing or renewing the license. Section 6 provides that a license to operate a foster care agency is valid for 2 years. Section 7.5 of this bill authorizes an agency which provides child welfare services to determine the services that a foster care agency may provide on behalf of the agency which provides child welfare services. Section 18 of this bill requires the Division to adopt the necessary regulations on or before July 1, 2010.

Existing law requires persons who operate a family foster home or group foster home to obtain a license from the appropriate licensing authority. (Chapter 424 of NRS) The Division of Child and Family Services has adopted regulations for family and group foster homes pursuant to this chapter and has also adopted similar standards for treatment homes, which are a specialized type of foster home. (NAC 424.075, 424.650-424.705) Section 3 of this bill defines what constitutes a "specialized foster home" and sections 8-14 of this bill set forth in statute the requirement that persons who operate a specialized foster home obtain a license from the appropriate licensing authority. (NRS 424.010, 424.014, 424.020, 424.030, 424.0365, 424.040, 424.085) Section 19 of this bill makes the licensing provisions included in this bill effective on January 1, 2011, so that a license to operate a foster care agency and a license to operate a specialized foster home may not be required before that date.

2. A person who is licensed pursuant to NRS 424.030 to conduct a family foster home , a specialized foster home or a group foster home is liable pursuant to subsection 1 for a child in his foster care only if the person has received notice of the truancy of the child as provided in NRS 392.130 and 392.140, and negligently fails to prevent the subsequent truancy of the child within that school year.

Sec. 17. NRS 477.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:

SUMMARY— [Provides for the issuance of an apprentice hunting license.] Makes various changes relating to hunting. (BDR 45-512)

AN ACT relating to wildlife; providing for the issuance of an apprentice hunting license; prohibiting an apprentice hunter from hunting in this State unless he is accompanied and directly supervised by a mentor hunter; providing an exception from requirements concerning the completion of a course in the responsibilities of hunters; requiring the Board of Wildlife Commissioners to establish a program for the issuance of additional big game tags to be known as "Dream Tags"; authorizing the Board to establish an additional kind of drawing for the existing allotment of big game tags and wild turkey tags; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes the Department of Wildlife to issue licenses to hunt and fish in Nevada. (Chapter 502 of NRS) Section [1] 3 of this bill provides for the issuance of an apprentice hunting license to a person who: (1) is 12 years of age or older; (2) has not previously been issued a hunting license in this State, another state or a Canadian province; and (3) except for the requirement of completing a course of instruction in the responsibilities of hunters, is otherwise qualified to obtain a hunting license. Section [1] 3 prohibits the Department from imposing a fee for the issuance of an apprentice hunting license but requires the applicant or mentor hunter to pay any service fees required by a license agent pursuant to NRS 502.040, the habitat conservation fee required by NRS 502.242 and any transaction fee if he conducts an online transaction with the Department. Section ~~[1]~~ 3 also provides that it is unlawful for an apprentice hunter to hunt in this State unless he is accompanied and directly supervised by a mentor hunter who is 18 years of age or older and licensed to hunt in this State. A violation of this provision is a misdemeanor. (NRS 501.385) In addition, section ~~[1]~~ 3 provides that the mentor hunter must: (1) ensure that the apprentice hunter safely handles and operates his firearm or weapon and complies with all applicable laws and regulations regarding hunting and the use of firearms; and (2) maintain close visual and verbal contact with, provide adequate direction to and maintain the ability readily to assume control of any firearm or weapon from the apprentice hunter.

Existing law requires a person to complete a course of instruction in the responsibilities of hunters before obtaining a hunting license in this State. (NRS 502.330) ~~[Section]~~ Sections 3 and 11 of this bill ~~[provides]~~ provide an exception from this requirement for a person who applies for an apprentice hunting license.

Under existing law, the Board of Wildlife Commissioners is authorized to provide for the issuance of big game tags for the hunting of big game mammals in this State. (Chapter 502 of NRS) Section 4 of this bill requires the Commission to establish a program for the issuance of additional big game tags each year to be known as "Dream Tags." A tax-exempt nonprofit organization established through the Community Foundation of Western Nevada which has as its principal purpose the preservation, protection, management or restoration of wildlife and its habitat may purchase such Dream Tags from the Department as are authorized by the Commission at prices established by the Commission. The nonprofit organization must agree to award the tags by raffle through a private entity acting as its agent that is approved by the Department. All money received by the Department for Dream Tags must be deposited with the State Treasurer for credit to the Wildlife Account in the State General Fund. All money received by the nonprofit organization from the proceeds of the Dream Tag raffle, less certain costs, must be used for the preservation, protection, management or restoration of wildlife and its habitat, as determined by the Advisory Board on Dream Tags which is created by section 6 of this bill. Section 5 of this bill requires that a person must purchase a resource enhancement stamp to be eligible to participate in the Dream Tag raffle.

Section 7 of this bill provides that the provisions of chapter 462 of NRS, which provides for the administration of charitable lotteries by the State Gaming Control Board and the Nevada Gaming Commission, do not apply to the distribution of any tags issued pursuant to chapter 502 of NRS, regardless of the manner in which the tags are distributed or the entity that distributes the tags.

Existing law authorizes the Board of Wildlife Commissioners to accept sealed bids for or auction not more than 15 big game tags and not more than 5 wild turkey tags each year. (NRS 502.250) Section 10 of this bill authorizes the Commission to award all or a portion of those tags through a Silver State Tag Drawing. Section 10 provides that the amount of the fee for processing an application for a Silver State Tag must not be less than $15 or more than $50, as determined by regulations adopted by the Commission. Section 10 also provides that any money received from the application fee for the drawing, except for a certain amount of money for the costs of administering the drawing and the return of fees, must be deposited into the Wildlife Heritage Trust Account in the State General Fund.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 259.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 578.

AN ACT relating to criminal offenders; revising provisions relating to the residential confinement of certain offenders; authorizing a court to provide for the forfeiture of credits for good behavior of a probationer under certain circumstances; revising provisions concerning certain credits to be applied to a period of probation or parole; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that an offender who has been convicted of a category B felony is not eligible for residential confinement. Section 1 of this bill requires the standards adopted by the Director of the Department of Corrections concerning eligibility for residential confinement to provide that an offender who has been convicted of a category B felony is eligible for residential confinement if: (1) the offender is not otherwise ineligible for residential confinement; and (2) the Director makes a written finding that assigning the offender to residential confinement is not likely to pose a threat to the safety of the public. (NRS 209.392)

Existing law authorizes the State Board of Parole Commissioners to provide for the forfeiture of credits for good behavior of a parolee who violates a condition of his parole and, as appropriate, for the restoration of such credits. Section 4 of this bill authorizes a court to provide for the forfeiture of credits for good behavior of a probationer who violates a condition of his probation and, as appropriate, for the restoration of such credits.

Existing law provides that an offender who is sentenced to serve a period of probation for a felony and who demonstrates certain good behavior must be allowed certain deductions from his period of probation. Section 5 of this bill amends existing law to provide generally that a person who is sentenced to a period of probation for a felony or a gross misdemeanor must be allowed a deduction from his period of probation of: (1) ten days for each month he serves and is current on any fee to defray the cost of his supervision and on any fines, fees and restitution ordered by the court; and (2) an additional 10 days for each month he serves and is actively involved in employment or enrolled in certain programs. (NRS 176A.500)

Existing law authorizes a court to order a probationer who violates a condition of his probation to a term of residential confinement and to direct the person to be confined, for not more than 6 months, to a community correctional center, conservation camp, facility of minimum security or other place of confinement operated by the Department of Corrections for the custody, care or training of offenders, other than a prison designed to house 125 or more offenders within a secure perimeter. Section 6 of this bill authorizes a court to direct such a person who was placed on probation for a felony conviction to be confined to any of those facilities and institutions, including a prison designed to house 125 or more offenders within a secure perimeter. Further, section 6 of this bill authorizes the Department of Corrections to select the facility or institution in which to place the person. (NRS 176A.660)

Section 3 of this bill amends chapter 213 of NRS, which governs parolees in a manner similar to section 6 of this bill. Section 3 provides that a parolee who is returned to confinement in a facility or institution of the Department of Corrections is authorized to earn credits to reduce his sentence pursuant to chapter 209 of NRS, with the exception of certain credits which are earned by an offender who is released on parole. (NRS 213.152)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 209.392 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2. Upon receiving a request to serve a term of residential confinement from an eligible offender, the Director shall notify the Division of Parole and Probation. If any victim of a crime committed by the offender has, pursuant to subsection 4 of NRS 213.130, requested to be notified of the consideration of a prisoner for parole and has provided a current address, the Division of Parole and Probation shall notify the victim of the offender's request and advise the victim that he may submit documents regarding the request to the Division of Parole and Probation. If a current address has not been provided as required by subsection 4 of NRS 213.130, the Division of Parole and Probation must not be held responsible if such notification is not received by the victim. All personal information, including, but not limited to, a current or former address, which pertains to a victim and which is received by the Division of Parole and Probation pursuant to this subsection is confidential.

3. The Director, after consulting with the Division of Parole and Probation, shall adopt, by regulation, standards providing which offenders are eligible for residential confinement. The standards adopted by the Director must provide that an offender who:

(b) The Director makes a written finding that such an assignment of the offender is not likely to pose a threat to the safety of the public.

(a) The Division of Parole and Probation may, pursuant to the procedure set forth in NRS 213.410, return the offender to the custody of the Department.

(b) The offender forfeits all or part of the credits for good behavior earned by him before the escape or violation, as determined by the Director. The Director may provide for a forfeiture of credits pursuant to this paragraph only after proof of the offense and notice to the offender and may restore credits forfeited for such reasons as he considers proper. The decision of the Director regarding such a forfeiture is final.

~~[~~5.~~]~~ 6. The assignment of an offender to the custody of the Division of Parole and Probation pursuant to this section shall be deemed:

Assemblyman Horne moved that the Assembly do not concur in the Senate amendment to Assembly Bill No. 259.

Remarks by Assemblyman Horne.

Bill ordered transmitted to the Senate.

Assembly Bill No. 177.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 568.

AN ACT relating to motor vehicles; revising provisions governing the liability of a short-term lessee of a passenger car for physical damage or loss of use of the car under certain circumstances; authorizing a short-term lessor to exclude from a waiver of damages losses resulting from the theft of a leased car if the theft is committed by an authorized driver or by a person aided or abetted by an authorized driver; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides that a short-term lessor and a short-term lessee of a passenger car may agree that the lessee will be responsible for certain damage to or loss of use of the car. (NRS 482.31535) Section 4.5 of this bill increases from $500 to $2,500 the amount for which the lessee may be responsible for physical damage or loss of use of the car which occurs as a result of vandalism not related to the theft of the car and not caused by the lessee.

Under existing law governing the business of short-term leases of passenger cars, a short-term lessor may offer the lessee of a passenger car the opportunity to purchase a "waiver of damages" that relieves the lessee from financial responsibility for certain kinds of damage to the car. (NRS 482.3153, 482.3155-482.31565) Section 5 of this bill authorizes a lessor to exclude from such a waiver any damages or loss attributable to the theft of the leased car if the theft is committed by the lessee or other authorized driver or by a person aided or abetted by such a driver.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 2. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 3. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 4. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 4.5. NRS 482.31535 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.31535 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 482.3154, a short-term lessor and a short-term lessee of a passenger car may agree that the lessee will be responsible for:

(a) Physical damage to the car, up to and including its fair market value, regardless of the cause of the damage.

(b) Mechanical damage to the car, up to and including its fair market value, resulting from:

(1) A collision;

(2) An impact; or

(3) Any other type of incident,

(c) Loss resulting from theft of the car, up to and including its fair market value, except that the lessee is presumed to have no liability for any loss resulting from theft if an authorized driver:

(1) Has possession of the ignition key furnished by the lessor or establishes that the ignition key furnished by the lessor was not in the car at the time of the theft; and

(2) Files an official report of the theft with an appropriate law enforcement agency within 24 hours after learning of the theft and cooperates with the lessor and the law enforcement agency in providing information concerning the theft.

➥ The lessor may rebut the presumption set forth in this paragraph by establishing that an authorized driver committed or aided and abetted the commission of the theft.

(d) Physical damage to the car, up to and including its fair market value, resulting from vandalism occurring after or in connection with the theft of the car, except that the lessee has no liability for any damage resulting from vandalism if the lessee has no liability for theft pursuant to paragraph (c).

(e) Physical damage to the car and loss of use of the car, up to ~~[$500,]~~ $2,500, resulting from vandalism not related to the theft of the car and not caused by the lessee.

(f) Loss of use of the car if the lessee is liable for damage or loss.

(g) Actual charges for towing and storage and impound fees paid by the lessor if the lessee is liable for damage or loss.

(h) An administrative charge that includes the cost of appraisal and other costs incident to the damage, loss, loss of use, repair or replacement of the car.

2. For the purposes of this section, the fair market value must be determined in the customary market for the sale of the leased passenger car.

Sec. 5. NRS 482.31555 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.31555 A short-term lessor may provide in a lease of a passenger car that a waiver of damages does not apply in the following circumstances:

1. Damage or loss resulting from an authorized driver's:

(a) Intentional, willful, wanton or reckless conduct.

(b) Operation of the car in violation of NRS 484.379.

(c) Towing or pushing with the car.

(d) Operation of the car on an unpaved road if the damage or loss is a direct result of the road or driving conditions.

2. Damage or loss occurring when the passenger car is:

(a) Used for hire.

(b) Used in connection with conduct that constitutes a felony.

(c) Involved in a speed test or contest or in driver training activity.

(d) Operated by a person other than an authorized driver.

(e) Operated in a foreign country or outside of the States of Nevada, Arizona, California, Idaho, Oregon and Utah, unless the lease expressly provides that the passenger car may be operated in other locations.

3. An authorized driver providing:

(a) Fraudulent information to the short-term lessor.

(b) False information to the lessor and the lessor would not have leased the passenger car if he had received true information.

4. Damage or loss resulting from the theft of the passenger car if committed by an authorized driver or a person aided or abetted by an authorized driver. A theft is presumed to have been committed by a person other than an authorized driver or a person aided or abetted by an authorized driver if the short-term lessee of the car:

(a) Has possession of the ignition key furnished by the lessor or establishes that the ignition key furnished by the lessor was not in the car at the time of the theft; and

(b) Files an official report of the theft with an appropriate law enforcement agency within 24 hours after learning of the theft and cooperates with the lessor and the law enforcement agency in providing information concerning the theft.

➥ The lessor may rebut the presumption set forth in this subsection by establishing that an authorized driver committed or aided and abetted another person in the commission of the theft.

Sec. 6. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2009.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Madam Speaker appointed Assemblymen Kihuen, Segerblom, and Gustavson as a Conference Committee to meet with a like committee of the Senate for the further consideration of Senate Bill No. 45.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 425.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 616.

AN ACT relating to education; authorizing the Superintendent of Public Instruction to issue an additional license to teach elementary education, middle school or junior high school education or secondary education to certain licensed teachers; revising provisions governing the reciprocal licensure of teachers and other educational personnel; requiring the Commission on Professional Standards in Education to conduct a review of the regulations of the Commission governing the licensure and endorsement of special education teachers; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes the Superintendent of Public Instruction to issue a license to teach elementary education, middle school or junior high school education or secondary education to an applicant pursuant to regulations adopted by the Commission on Professional Standards in Education. (NRS 391.031, 391.033) Existing regulations of the Commission require a teacher licensed in this State to apply for and meet the requirements for an initial license to teach elementary education, middle school or junior high school education or secondary education, including participation in a program of student teaching or supervised teaching in the designated grade level, if he is applying for a license outside the grade level he is licensed to teach. (NAC 391.025, 391.095, 391.111, 391.120) Section 1 of this bill authorizes the Superintendent to issue to a licensed teacher an additional license to teach elementary education, middle school or junior high school education or secondary education, other than for the teaching pupils with disabilities, which is outside his grade level of experience if he meets the course work requirements and qualifications for the license. A licensed teacher must not be required to participate in a program of student teaching or supervised teaching as a condition for the issuance of the additional license if he has 3 years of verified teaching experience.

Existing law authorizes the Commission to adopt regulations that exempt an applicant from the examinations required for initial licensure of teachers and other educational personnel if the applicant has previous teaching experience or has performed other educational functions in another state. (NRS 391.021, 391.032) Sections 4 and 5 of this bill remove the requirement that an applicant have previous experience and authorizes the exemption if the Commission determines that the examinations required for initial licensure in the other state are comparable to the examinations required for initial licensure in this State.

Section 6 of this bill requires the Commission to conduct a review of the regulations of the Commission governing the licensure and endorsement of special education teachers to improve and enhance the reciprocal licensure in this State of special education teachers from other states.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 391 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Amendment No. 742.

SUMMARY—Revises certain provisions governing ~~[certain]~~ fees charged ~~[by]~~ and ~~[certain]~~ duties performed by constables. ~~[.]~~ and revises certain provisions relating to motor vehicle registration. (BDR 20-846)

AN ACT relating to ~~[constables;]~~ motor vehicles; specifically authorizing constables to issue citations for failure to register vehicles that are required to be registered in this State; increasing the fee to which constables are entitled for removing or causing the removal of abandoned vehicles from public property; revising the penalties for failure to register certain motor vehicles; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill specifically authorizes constables to issue citations for the failure to register a vehicle that is required by existing law to be registered in this State and requires constables to charge and collect a fee from the person to whom the citation is issued. The citation is to be issued to the owner of the vehicle or the driver if the driver is not the owner but is the party responsible for registering the vehicle pursuant to existing law. (NRS 258.070) Sections 3 and 4 of this bill clarify that constables are entitled to demand and to view the certificate of registration and to request information to determine whether the vehicle is required to be registered in this State. (NRS 482.255, 482.385)

Section 2 of this bill increases the fee to which constables are entitled for their services of removing or causing the removal of an abandoned vehicle from public property from $50 to $100. Section 2 also increases the amount the constable may collect when collecting all sums on execution or writ charged against a defendant from 2 percent of the first $3,500 to 2 percent of the first $10,000. (NRS 258.125)

Existing law requires a person, within 60 days of becoming a resident of this State or at the time he obtains his driver's license, to apply for registration for each vehicle he owns which is operated in this State. (NRS 482.385) Section 4 of this bill increases the fine for failing to comply with that requirement from a minimum of $250 and a maximum of $500 to a $1,000 fine, and provides that the fine may be reduced to not less than $200 if the person provides proof of registration of the vehicle in Nevada at the time of his hearing.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

5. As used in this section, "line-make vehicles" means those vehicles which are offered for sale, lease or distribution under the same name, trademark, service mark or brand of the manufacturer of the vehicles.

Sec. 8.2. NRS 482.36366 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.36366 1. Each witness, other than an officer or employee of the State or of a political subdivision of the State or an expert witness, who appears by order of the Director in a hearing pursuant to NRS 482.36311 to 482.36425, inclusive, and sections 2, 3 and 4 of this act is entitled to receive for his attendance the same fees allowed by law to witnesses in civil cases. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the amount must be paid by the party at whose request the witness is ordered to appear.

2. The Director may assess other costs against the parties as he deems appropriate. After any hearing on a protest filed pursuant to NRS 482.36352, 482.36354 or 482.36357, if the Director determines that the manufacturer or distributor has failed to establish that there is good cause to terminate, refuse to continue, modify or replace a franchise, or to establish an additional dealership or relocate an existing dealership, the Director shall award to the dealer his attorney's fees and costs.

3. For the purposes of this section, "costs" includes:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), any applicable cost set forth in NRS 18.005; and

(b) The actual amount of any fees paid by a dealer to an expert witness in connection with the hearing.

Sec. 8.4. NRS 482.3638 is hereby amended to read as follows:

482.3638 It is an unfair act or practice for any manufacturer, distributor or factory branch, directly or through any representative, to:

Require a dealer to agree to a release, assignment, novation, waiver or estoppel which purports to relieve any person from liability imposed by this chapter, or require any controversy between a dealer and a manufacturer, distributor or representative to be referred to any person or agency except as set forth in this chapter if that referral would be binding on the dealer, except that this section does not prevent the parties from mutually agreeing to arbitration pursuant to law.

2. Require a dealer to agree to the jurisdiction, venue or tribunal in which a controversy arising under the provisions of the franchise agreement may or may not be submitted for resolution, or prohibit a dealer from bringing an action in any forum allowed by Nevada law.

3. Require a dealer to agree to a term or condition of a franchise agreement which violates any provision of NRS 482.36311 to 482.36425, inclusive ~~[.]~~ , and sections 2, 3 and 4 of this act.

4. Require a dealer to waive a trial by jury in actions involving the manufacturer, distributor or factory branch.

5. Increase prices of new vehicles which the dealer had ordered for private retail consumers before his receipt of the written official notification of a price increase. A sales contract signed by a retail consumer constitutes evidence of each order. Price changes applicable to new models or series of vehicles at the time of the introduction of the new models or series shall not be deemed a price increase. Price changes caused by:

(a) The addition to a vehicle of equipment formerly optional as standard or required equipment pursuant to state or federal law;

(b) Revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-made vehicles; or

(c) Transportation cost increases,

7. Modify unilaterally, replace, enter into, relocate, terminate or refuse to renew a franchise in violation of law.

8. Terminate or refuse to approve a transfer of a franchise for a dealership, or honor the right of succession set forth in a franchise agreement or refuse to approve the transfer of a controlling interest in a dealership because the dealer has, before October 1, 1997, established an additional franchise to sell or service another line or make of new vehicles in the same facility as the existing dealership.

9. Prevent a dealer from establishing, on or after October 1, 1997, an additional franchise to sell or service another line or make of new vehicles in the same facility as the existing dealership if the dealer:

(a) Submits a written request for approval of the additional franchise to the manufacturer, distributor or factory branch of the existing dealership;

(b) Complies with the reasonable requirements for approval set forth in the franchise of the existing dealership; and

(c) Obtains the approval of the manufacturer, distributor or factory branch of the existing dealership.

➥ The manufacturer, distributor or factory branch shall notify the dealer in writing of its decision to approve or deny the request within 90 days after receipt of the request. The manufacturer, distributor or factory branch shall not unreasonably withhold its approval. If the request is denied, the material reasons for the denial must be stated. The amount of pecuniary loss sustained by a dealer, pursuant to subsection 7 of NRS 482.3638, is the fair market value of the franchised dealership at the time of notification of termination, refusal to continue or unilateral modification of a franchise.

3. Any artificial person created and existing under the laws of any other state, territory, foreign government or the government of the United States, or any person residing outside the State, who grants a franchise to any dealer in this State may be served with any legal process in any action for injunctive relief or civil damages in the following manner:

Whenever it appears that a manufacturer or distributor has violated, is violating or is threatening to violate any provision of NRS 482.36311 to 482.36425, inclusive, and sections 2, 3 and 4 of this act, the Attorney General may institute a civil suit in any district court of this State for injunctive relief to restrain the violation or threat of violation or, if the violation or threat is willful, for the assessment and recovery of the civil penalty, or both.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Education:

Amendment No. 760.

AN ACT relating to education; revising provisions governing public schools that are designated as demonstrating need for improvement; revising other provisions related to the accountability of public schools; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, a "Title I school" is a public school that receives money pursuant to the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, 20 U.S.C. §§ 6301 et seq., and is obligated to comply with the provisions of that federal law. (NRS 385.3746) Existing law requires each public school to be designated annually as demonstrating exemplary achievement, high achievement, adequate achievement or need for improvement. (NRS 385.3263, 385.3266) Under existing law, if a school is designated as demonstrating need for improvement for 2 or more consecutive years, increasingly progressive actions must be taken to improve the achievement of pupils enrolled at the school. (NRS 385.3455-385.391)

Under existing law, if a school is designated as demonstrating need for improvement for 3 or more consecutive years, a support team must be established for the school. (NRS 385.3721, 385.3745) This bill eliminates the requirement for the Department of Education to establish a support team for a school, and section 6 of this bill authorizes the Department, if deemed necessary, to establish a support team for such a school. (NRS 385.361)

Section 10 of this bill requires the board of trustees of a school district or the governing body of a charter school to conduct a comprehensive audit for a school that is designated as demonstrating need for improvement for 3 consecutive years, including an audit of the curriculum implemented at the school. (NRS 385.3721)

Section 16 of this bill eliminates the requirement that the Department develop and carry out a new curriculum for certain schools that have demonstrated need for improvement for 3 consecutive years. (NRS 385.3744)

Section 18 of this bill requires the development of a turnaround plan for each school that is not a Title I school that has demonstrated need for improvement for 4 consecutive years. (NRS 385.3745)

Section 19 of this bill maintains the requirement that a restructuring plan must be developed if a Title 1 school has demonstrated need for improvement for 4 consecutive years and prescribes the requirements for such plans. (NRS 385.3746)

Sections 2 and 3 of this bill require the implementation of the turnaround plan for each school that is not a Title I school if the school demonstrates need for improvement 5 or more consecutive years and requires the Department to monitor the implementation of that plan.

Section 3.5 of this bill requires the implementation of a restructuring plan for each Title I school if the school demonstrates need for improvement for 5 or more consecutive years.

Senate Bill No. 194.

Bill read third time.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblyman Anderson:

Amendment No. 747.

AN ACT relating to certain public officials; making the district attorney of Humboldt County the ex officio public administrator of Humboldt County; revising certain provisions regarding the administration of certain estates; revising certain provisions regarding the appointment of public guardians; repealing certain provisions relating to public administrators; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill amends a number of provisions governing public administrators who are public officials that administer the estates of decedents having no qualified person willing and able to do so. Sections 2 and 9 of this bill provide for the district attorney of Humboldt County to serve, ex officio, as the public administrator of the county, as the district attorneys for Lander, Lincoln and White Pine counties do currently. (NRS 253.010, 253.050) Section 2 also authorizes the board of county commissioners in any county with an elected public administrator to appoint the public administrator if the office becomes vacant.

Under existing law, a public administrator may secure the property of a decedent if the public administrator finds that the decedent has no relatives able to protect the property and that failure to do so could endanger the property. (NRS 253.0405) Section 3 of this bill authorizes a public administrator to secure the property of a decedent if either, not both, of those conditions exist. Section 4 of this bill revises the notice requirements before a public administrator may donate or destroy certain property. (NRS 253.0407) Sections 5 and 6 of this bill require and authorize a public administrator to conduct certain investigations. (NRS 253.0415, 253.042) Section 7 of this bill increases the maximum value of an estate that may be set aside without administration. (NRS 253.0425)

Under existing law, certain powers and duties of public administrators are limited so as to be applicable only to public administrators in counties whose population is 100,000 or more (currently Clark and Washoe Counties). (NRS 253.041, 253.0415-253.0435) Section 14 of this bill repeals NRS 253.041 so that the powers and duties set forth in NRS 253.0415 to 253.0435, inclusive, apply to public administrators in all counties. Conversely, existing law also sets forth that certain powers and duties of public administrators are limited so as to be applicable only to public administrators in counties whose population is less than 100,000 (currently counties other than Clark and Washoe Counties). (NRS 253.044, 253.0445, 253.045) Section 14 repeals those provisions.

This bill also amends provisions governing public guardians. Section 10 of this bill requires a public guardian to retain records relating to guardianships for at least 7 years. (NRS 253.190) Section 11 of this bill revises the requirements for a resident of Nevada to be eligible to have a county public guardian appointed as his permanent or general individual guardian. Further, section 11 provides that a county is not liable on any written or oral contract entered into by a public guardian of the county for or on behalf of the ward. (NRS 253.200)

Currently, a public guardian may demand certain information from a proposed ward—a person for whom proceedings for the appointment of a guardian have begun—or from the spouse, parent, child or other kindred of a proposed ward, but not from a person for whom a guardian has been appointed. (NRS 253.220) Section 12 of this bill revises that provision so that the information can be demanded from or about a ward but not a proposed ward.

Finally, section 12.5 of this bill authorizes a court to terminate the appointment of a public guardian as an individual guardian of a person or estate if the public guardian, after exercising due diligence, is unable to identify a source to pay for the care of the ward [.] and, as a consequence, continuation of the guardianship would confer no benefit upon the ward.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 410.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 575.

AN ACT relating to industrial insurance; allowing the provisions of certain collective bargaining agreements to supersede various statutory provisions relating to industrial insurance; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill allows the provisions of collective bargaining agreements between certain employers ~~[in certain construction-related businesses]~~ and the labor organizations that represent their employees to supersede various statutory provisions relating to industrial insurance. Such collective bargaining agreements may include provisions which establish processes for alternative dispute resolution, lists of medical evaluators and providers of medical treatment, joint safety committees, programs for light-duty or modified job responsibilities and programs for vocational rehabilitation.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 616A of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, notwithstanding any provisions of chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS to the contrary, the Division and the courts of this State shall recognize as valid and binding , ~~[any provision]~~ in a collective bargaining agreement between a private employer or a group of private employers ~~[engaged in construction, construction maintenance or activities limited to rock, sand, gravel, cement and asphalt operations, heavy duty mechanics, surveying and construction inspection,]~~ and a labor organization that represents the employees of such employers , any provision which establishes:

(a) A process for alternative dispute resolution, including, without limitation, mediation and arbitration, which governs disputes between employees and employers or their insurers and which supplements or replaces all or part of the dispute resolution processes contained in chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS. Any such process for alternative dispute resolution must provide that a finding of fact, award, order or decision of an arbitrator or board of arbitration:

(1) Has the same force and effect as a finding of fact, award, order or decision of a hearing officer or the Administrator, as applicable; and

(2) Is subject to review by an appeals officer in the same manner, and using the same procedures, as provided for review of a finding of fact, award, order or decision made by a hearing officer or the Administrator, as applicable ; ~~[.]~~

(b) The use of a specified list of providers of medical treatment who may be the exclusive source of all medical treatment provided under chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS ; ~~[.]~~

(c) The use of a specified list of medical evaluators who may be the exclusive source of all medical evaluations under chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS ; ~~[.]~~

(d) A joint committee for safety involving both the employer and the labor organization ; ~~[.]~~

(e) A program for light-duty employment or employment that is modified according to limitations or restrictions imposed by a physician or chiropractor ~~[.]~~ ; or

(f) A program for vocational rehabilitation utilizing a specified list of providers of vocational rehabilitation services who may be the exclusive source of all vocational rehabilitation services under chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS.

2. Nothing in this section:

(a) Authorizes any provision of a collective bargaining agreement to reduce the entitlement of an employee to compensation for temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, permanent partial disability, vocational rehabilitation services or medical treatment fully paid for by the employer, as otherwise provided in chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS. Any provision of a collective bargaining agreement which purports to so reduce the entitlement of an employee to any such compensation is void.

(b) Prohibits an employer and a labor organization from negotiating any aspect of the delivery of medical benefits or the delivery of compensation for disability to employees of the employer or group of employers who are eligible for group health benefits and disability benefits through their employer other than those provided in chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS.

3. As used in this section, "labor organization" means any organization of any kind, or any agency or employee representation committee or plan, in which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment or conditions of work.

Assembly Bill No. 415.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 583.

AN ACT relating to counties; authorizing certain smaller counties to combine or separate certain county offices after approval by a vote of the residents of the county; ~~[making the County Clerk the ex officio County Treasurer in White Pine County except in certain circumstances;]~~ and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law grants to the Nevada Legislature the power to increase, diminish, consolidate or abolish the offices of county clerk, county recorder, auditor, sheriff, district attorney and public administrator. (Nev. Const., Art. 4, § 32) As interpreted by the Nevada Supreme Court, Nev. Const., Art. 4, § 32, does not set forth an exhaustive list of all the county offices that the Legislature may increase, diminish, consolidate or abolish but, instead, clarifies that although the offices of county clerk, county recorder, auditor, sheriff, district attorney and public administrator are constitutional offices, the Legislature may nonetheless increase, diminish, consolidate or abolish those offices. (Harvey v. Second Judicial Dist. Court, 117 Nev. 754, 764-66 (2001)) The Court has further determined that the Legislature may either exercise or delegate the authority set forth in Nev. Const., Art. 4, § 32. (Cawley v. Pershing County, 50 Nev. 237, 247 (1927))

This bill, in counties whose population is less than 40,000 (currently counties other than Clark, Douglas, Elko and Washoe Counties and Carson City), authorizes the governing body of the county, after making certain findings and after approval of the residents of the county pursuant to an advisory ballot question (NRS 293.482), to combine or separate any county offices, except for constitutional county offices that are not listed in Nev. Const., Art. 4, § 32. Thus, this bill does not authorize the governing body of a county to combine or separate such offices as county commissioner or district judge. (Nev. Const., Art. 4, § 26, Art. 6, § 5)

~~[Existing law makes the county clerk of certain counties the ex officio county treasurer for their respective counties. (NRS 249.010) Section 4 of this bill adds White Pine County to the list of such counties making the County Clerk the ex officio County Treasurer of that County, unless the governing body alters this using the new mechanism for combining or separating county offices.]~~

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 244 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

(2) A situation in which the powers and duties assigned to a county office are incompatible with the proper performance of that office in the public interest;

(c) The board submits to the residents of the county, in the form of an advisory ballot question pursuant to NRS 293.482, a proposal to combine or separate the applicable county offices; and

3. If the combining or separating of county offices pursuant to this section will result in the elimination of one or more county offices, the combining or separating of offices must not become effective until the earlier of the date on which:

(a) The normal term of office of the person whose office will be eliminated expires; or

(b) The person whose office will be eliminated resigns.

4. THE ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), May 18, 2009

Assembly called to order at 11:55 a.m.

Madam Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Rabbi Jonathan Freirich.

Thank you for the honor of providing some opening words today. The Jewish calendar and that of the Legislature correspond in an interesting way right now. Just as each day of the legislative session is counted, so do Jewish people count the days between Passover, in early April this year, and the Feast of Weeks, or Shavuout, at the end of May. These days are called Omer, and according to the Five Books of Moses, the ancient Israelites counted the seven weeks following Passover in order to arrive at the day of the following holiday—so Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks, was a holiday without an official date on the calendar.

The habit of counting days transforms our notion of the passage of time. Whether we count the days of a legislative session that may carry on longer than we planned, or count the days until our winter grain harvest ripens on the stalk without being damaged by difficult spring weather (which may be one of the agricultural sources of the counting on the Jewish calendar), we find out consciousness of the time increases. The focus on knowing the date and number of each day, as opposed to going through the motions and losing track of which day of the week it may be, creates a greater mindfulness of the special nature of each day, and perhaps each moment.

As we all continue our different methods of counting time, may we allow ourselves to take away a greater sense of the importance of all moments, even when we may not count them so diligently.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Conklin moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

WHEREAS, The members of the Nevada Legislature were deeply saddened to learn of the recent passing of Arthur "Art" Judson Palmer, Jr., former Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, on February 14, 2009; and

WHEREAS, Born in New Jersey on December 10, 1919, Art Palmer drove to Reno in 1939, in his air-cooled Franklin, to attend the University of Nevada where he received his bachelor of science degree from the College of Agriculture in 1943 and later, his master of arts degree in political geography from Columbia University in New York in 1950; and

WHEREAS, Art Palmer worked for the Legislative Counsel Bureau under contract as early as 1948 and began full-time work with the Bureau on December 30, 1960, serving as Research Assistant, then Research Director and eventually as Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau from March 1, 1972, until his retirement on October 30, 1984; and

WHEREAS, Under the leadership of Arthur J. Palmer, the Legislative Counsel Bureau was modernized into five independent divisions, which continue to the present as the Administrative, Audit, Fiscal Analysis, Legal and Research Divisions, and through the hiring of top-quality attorneys, auditors, fiscal and research analysts, and support staff, the Legislative Counsel Bureau became known as the consummate professional and independent agency for the Legislative Branch of Nevada State Government; and

WHEREAS, Art Palmer understood the benefits of affiliating with other state legislatures through the Council of State Governments and the National Conference of State Legislatures, serving with distinction on NCSL's Staff Committee, Executive Committee and Nominating Committee and as Staff Vice President, and he received the 1994 John Everhardt "Trooper" Award and the 1998 Legislative Staff Achievement Award; and

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the members of the 75th Nevada Legislature hereby recognize Arthur J. Palmer for his many years of contributions and service to this State and offer their deepest condolences to his family; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to Art and Alison's beloved daughter Cherie Garrison, her husband Bob and granddaughter Kristin Lieby.

Assemblyman Anderson moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Anderson and Madam Speaker.

Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. Assembly Concurrent Resolution 33 clearly states, on paper, of a gentleman who made the State of Nevada and the body for which we all work the institution it is today. He truly is the father of the modern day Legislative Counsel Bureau, which serves us so very well. When Art was appointed Director in 1972, the Bureau had but three divisions, a Legal Division, a Research Division, and a combined Fiscal and Auditing Division. Most administrative functions were handled at that time by the agencies of the Executive Branch. Art worked with key legislators in 1973 to make Audit into a separate division and combine Research with Fiscal. In 1977, those two functions were again divided into separate divisions. In 1979, Art again worked with the Legislature to add a fifth LCB Division, which would become known as the Administrative Division. That Division assumed the responsibility for the functions and services that had been provided by the Executive Branch for many years, including accounting and payroll, buildings and grounds, security, mailing, and communications. By the time of Art's retirement in 1984, the Bureau had evolved into an independent structure almost identical to the one we have today.

We are forever indebted to Arthur J. Palmer. Those words were not prepared by me but by Bob Erickson of the Research Division. I want to make sure I attribute these remarks to Mr. Erickson, because he was trying to make sure that we recognize what Mr. Palmer was about on the surface. In reality his contribution is far, far greater. To know and understand the man was to realize the great personal pride he took in this institution. I had the pleasure of meeting him a couple of times. Prior to being hired in December 1960, he put time in as a school teacher. In Elko he worked on the cattle trains. He also taught geography at the University of Nevada and worked with the Nevada Department of Highways and the Employment Security Department. In fact, the political history of Nevada from the Secretary's of State office, which we often rely upon, was largely his hard work. Through his diligent efforts to modernize important state records and documents, he discovered that the description of Nevada's boundaries in Nevada did not include 12,000 square miles of territory including Clark, Esmeralda, Lincoln, and Nye Counties. Thus, in the 1982 election, the Nevada Constitution finally brought our southern part of the state into the State of Nevada. Indeed, part of Art's love of geography lead him to every single county seat of government in the entire United States, including the boroughs of Alaska. Art Palmer had a great love for the people of this state and for the institutions of this state. It is fitting that we would rise to honor him and his contributions to our building and to where we are today. He is the guy who had to make it work when we moved from the old building into the new building. So everything about us is a result of this gentleman, and we mourn his passing.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

I, too, want to extend my condolences to the family. His legacy is felt every day in these halls. He really laid the foundation for what we are today. We are so grateful to you for sharing him with us for so many years. Thank you.

Resolution adopted.

Assemblyman Anderson moved that all rules be suspended and that Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 33 be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried.

Amendment No. 636.

AN ACT relating to administrative assessments; revising provisions governing the distribution of the proceeds of certain administrative assessments; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, a person who pleads or is found guilty of a misdemeanor is required to pay an administrative assessment in addition to any other penalty imposed by the judge. A portion of the proceeds of those assessments must be deposited in the State General Fund and distributed for certain prescribed uses. (NRS 176.059) This bill revises the provisions governing the distribution of those proceeds by: (1) authorizing the Court Administrator to allocate a certain percentage of the proceeds among several prescribed uses; (2) authorizing the use of such proceeds pursuant to legislative authorization for the support of programs within the Office of the Attorney General related to victims of domestic violence; and (3) providing that any proceeds deposited in the State General Fund that are not distributed must be transferred to the uncommitted balance of the State General Fund.

If bail is forfeited, the administrative assessment included in the amount posted for bail pursuant to this subsection must be disbursed in the manner set forth in subsection 5 or 6. Senate Bill No. 47.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Corrections, Parole, and Probation:

Amendment No. 724.

AN ACT relating to state personnel; authorizing the Director of the Department of Corrections to request that certain employees of the Department submit to random drug and alcohol screening tests; authorizing a state law enforcement agency to establish a substantially similar program of testing; providing that an employee's refusal to submit to such a screening test may result in his dismissal or in other disciplinary action being taken against him; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, appointing authorities at the state level are prohibited from hiring an applicant for a position of employment that affects the public safety unless the appointing authority first requires the applicant to submit to a screening test to detect the presence of a controlled substance. (NRS 284.4066) Existing law also authorizes such an appointing authority to request that an employee submit to a screening test to detect the presence of alcohol or drugs if: (1) the appointing authority reasonably believes, based upon objective facts, that the employee is under the influence of alcohol or drugs which are impairing his ability to perform his duties safely and efficiently; or (2) the employee has performed certain acts relating to the discharge of a firearm or the operation of a motor vehicle. (NRS 284.4065) The provisions of existing law do not currently authorize an appointing authority at the state level to conduct random screening tests of its employees to detect the presence of alcohol or drugs.

Section 5 of this bill authorizes the Director of the Department of Corrections to request that an employee of the Department who is in a position that may affect public safety or security in the workplace submit to a screening test to detect the presence of alcohol or drugs and allows the Director to select the employee at random for the purpose of such testing. An employee of the Department may refuse to submit to such a screening test, but the refusal may result in his dismissal or in other disciplinary action being taken against him. An employee of the Department who submits to such a screening test and who tests positive for alcohol or drugs for the first time is not subject to dismissal or other disciplinary action if he accepts a referral to an employee assistance program and successfully completes a treatment plan. The Department is required to pay the cost of such testing except for independent testing that an employee may elect to undergo at his own expense. Section 4 of this bill authorizes any state law enforcement agency to establish a program of testing that is substantially similar to the program of the Department of Corrections described in section 5.

The United States Supreme Court has held that a program which compels governmental employees to submit to drug screening tests is a "search" within the meaning of the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution (see also Nev. Const. Art. 1, § 18) because drug screening invades an employee's reasonable expectation of privacy. (National Treasury Employees Union v. Von Raab, 489 U.S. 656, 665, 109 S. Ct. 1384, 1390 (1989); Skinner v. Railway Labor Executives' Association, 489 U.S. 602, 617-18, 109 S. Ct. 1402, 1413 (1989)) However, so long as drug screening serves a special governmental interest beyond the need for law enforcement, the intrusion on an employee's right to privacy is justified without a warrant, probable cause or individualized suspicion. (Von Raab, 489 U.S. at 665-66, 109 S. Ct. at 1390-91; Skinner, 489 U.S. at 620-21, 109 S. Ct. at 1415) Various courts have upheld the random drug testing of employees which served the government's interest in preserving public and workplace safety in contexts such as the testing of employees who: (1) are correctional officers (Taylor v. O'Grady, 888 F.2d 1189 (7th Cir. 1989)); (2) work in a nuclear facility (International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 1245 v. United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission, 966 F.2d 521 (9th Cir. 1992)); or (3) are civilian workers of the Navy who had access to classified information (AFGE Local 1533 v. Cheney, 944 F.2d 503 (9th Cir. 1993)).

Amendment No. 717.

AN ACT relating to industrial insurance; revising provisions relating to the denial or acceptance of a claim for compensation; revising provisions relating to examinations and permanent partial disabilities; increasing certain death benefits; revising provisions relating to the imposition of administrative fines and benefit penalties for certain violations; establishing continuous care coverage as a line of insurance for which a producer may be licensed; revising provisions for the issuance of a certificate of registration as an administrator; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law establishes the duty of an insurer to accept or deny a claim for compensation. (NRS 616C.065) Section 2 of this bill provides that the failure of an insurer to indicate the acceptance or denial of a claim for a part of the body or condition does not constitute a denial or acceptance thereof.

~~[This]~~ Section 3 of this bill requires that the Fifth Edition, rather than the most recent edition, of the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment must be applied in all examinations for a permanent partial disability.

Section 4 of this bill revises provisions governing the denial of compensation due to discharge from employment for misconduct.

Existing law authorizes a hearing officer and appeals officer to order a medical examination of an injured employee to determine the injured employee's condition or to determine the necessity of treatment for which authorization for payment has been denied. (NRS 616C.330, 616C.360) Sections 5 and 6 of this bill authorize a hearing officer or appeals officer to consider the opinion of an examining physician or chiropractor, in addition to the opinion of an authorized treating physician or chiropractor, in determining the compensation payable to the injured employee.

Section 7 of this bill revises existing law to allow factors other than the degree of physical impairment of the whole man to be considered in calculating the entitlement to compensation for a permanent partial disability involving injury or disease caused by stress.

Section 9 of this bill increases the maximum amount of burial expenses that may be paid as a death benefit from $5,000 to $10,000, plus the cost of transporting the remains of the deceased employee.

Section 10 of this bill revises provisions governing the imposition of administrative fines for certain violations by an insurer, organization for managed care, health care provider, third-party administrator or employer.

Sections 11 and 16 of this bill define and establish continuous care coverage as a line of insurance for which a producer may be licensed. Such coverage includes health insurance and may include insurance for workers' compensation only when issued jointly with and supplemental to the policy of health insurance. Section 14 of this bill specifically provides for the imposition of an administrative fine for a violation of this limitation on the issuance of a policy of workers' compensation insurance sold by a producer of continuous care coverage.

Section 15 of this bill requires the Commissioner of Insurance to obtain final approval from the Department of Business and Industry before issuing a certificate of registration as an administrator. Section 1.5 of this bill requires the Administrator of the Division of Industrial Relations of the Department of Business and Industry to adopt regulations setting forth the qualifications needed to obtain such final approval.

2. After adopting the regulations required pursuant to subsection 1, the Division may amend those regulations as it deems necessary, except that the amendments to those regulations:

(a) Must be consistent with the ~~[edition]~~ Fifth Edition of the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment ; ~~[most recently adopted by the Division;]~~

(b) Must not incorporate any contradictory matter from any other edition of the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment; and

(c) Must not consider any factors other than the degree of physical impairment of the whole man in calculating the entitlement to compensation.

3. If the ~~[edition]~~ Fifth Edition of the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment ~~[most recently adopted by the Division]~~ contains more than one method of determining the rating of an impairment, the Administrator shall designate by regulation the method from that edition which must be used to rate an impairment pursuant to NRS 616C.490.

Sec. 4. NRS 616C.232 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.232 1. If an injured employee is discharged from his employment as a result of misconduct, an insurer may deny compensation to the injured employee because of that discharge for misconduct only if the insurer proves by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The injured employee was discharged from his employment solely for his misconduct and not for any reason relating to his claim for compensation; and

(b) It is the injured employee's discharge from his employment for misconduct, and not his injury, that is the sole cause for the injured employee's inability to return to work with the preinjury employer.

2. An insurer waives its rights under subsection 1 if the insurer does not make a determination to deny or suspend compensation to the injured employee within 70 days after the date on which the insurer learns that the injured employee has been discharged for misconduct.

3. Discharge from employment for reasons other than gross misconduct does not limit an injured employee's entitlement to receive benefits for temporary total disability.

Sec. 5. NRS 616C.330 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.330 1. The hearing officer shall:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of NRS 616C.315, within 5 days after receiving a request for a hearing, set the hearing for a date and time within 30 days after his receipt of the request at a place in Carson City, Nevada, or Las Vegas, Nevada, or upon agreement of one or more of the parties to pay all additional costs directly related to an alternative location, at any other place of convenience to the parties, at the discretion of the hearing officer;

(b) Give notice by mail or by personal service to all interested parties to the hearing at least 15 days before the date and time scheduled; and

(c) Conduct hearings expeditiously and informally.

2. The notice must include a statement that the injured employee may be represented by a private attorney or seek assistance and advice from the Nevada Attorney for Injured Workers.

3. If necessary to resolve a medical question concerning an injured employee's condition or to determine the necessity of treatment for which authorization for payment has been denied, the hearing officer may order an independent medical examination, which must not involve treatment, and refer the employee to a physician or chiropractor of his choice who has demonstrated special competence to treat the particular medical condition of the employee, whether or not the physician or chiropractor is on the insurer's panel of providers of health care. If the medical question concerns the rating of a permanent disability, the hearing officer may refer the employee to a rating physician or chiropractor. The rating physician or chiropractor must be selected in rotation from the list of qualified physicians and chiropractors maintained by the Administrator pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616C.490, unless the insurer and injured employee otherwise agree to a rating physician or chiropractor. The insurer shall pay the costs of any medical examination requested by the hearing officer.

4. The hearing officer may consider the opinion of an examining physician or chiropractor, in addition to the opinion of an authorized treating physician or chiropractor, in determining the compensation payable to the injured employee.

5. If an injured employee has requested payment for the cost of obtaining a second determination of his percentage of disability pursuant to NRS 616C.100, the hearing officer shall decide whether the determination of the higher percentage of disability made pursuant to NRS 616C.100 is appropriate and, if so, may order the insurer to pay to the employee an amount equal to the maximum allowable fee established by the Administrator pursuant to NRS 616C.260 for the type of service performed, or the usual fee of that physician or chiropractor for such service, whichever is less.

~~[5.]~~ 6. The hearing officer shall order an insurer, organization for managed care or employer who provides accident benefits for injured employees pursuant to NRS 616C.265 to pay to the appropriate person the charges of a provider of health care if the conditions of NRS 616C.138 are satisfied.

~~[6.]~~ 7. The hearing officer may allow or forbid the presence of a court reporter and the use of a tape recorder in a hearing.

~~[7.]~~ 8. The hearing officer shall render his decision within 15 days after:

(a) The hearing; or

(b) He receives a copy of the report from the medical examination he requested.

~~[8.]~~ 9. The hearing officer shall render his decision in the most efficient format developed by the Chief of the Hearings Division of the Department of Administration.

~~[9.]~~ 10. The hearing officer shall give notice of his decision to each party by mail. He shall include with the notice of his decision the necessary forms for appealing from the decision.

~~[10.]~~ 11. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616C.380, the decision of the hearing officer is not stayed if an appeal from that decision is taken unless an application for a stay is submitted by a party. If such an application is submitted, the decision is automatically stayed until a determination is made on the application. A determination on the application must be made within 30 days after the filing of the application. If, after reviewing the application, a stay is not granted by the hearing officer or an appeals officer, the decision must be complied with within 10 days after the refusal to grant a stay.

Sec. 6. NRS 616C.360 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.360 1. A stenographic or electronic record must be kept of the hearing before the appeals officer and the rules of evidence applicable to contested cases under chapter 233B of NRS apply to the hearing.

2. The appeals officer must hear any matter raised before him on its merits, including new evidence bearing on the matter.

3. If there is a medical question or dispute concerning an injured employee's condition or concerning the necessity of treatment for which authorization for payment has been denied, the appeals officer may:

(a) Order an independent medical examination and refer the employee to a physician or chiropractor of his choice who has demonstrated special competence to treat the particular medical condition of the employee, whether or not the physician or chiropractor is on the insurer's panel of providers of health care. If the medical question concerns the rating of a permanent disability, the appeals officer may refer the employee to a rating physician or chiropractor. The rating physician or chiropractor must be selected in rotation from the list of qualified physicians or chiropractors maintained by the Administrator pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 616C.490, unless the insurer and the injured employee otherwise agree to a rating physician or chiropractor. The insurer shall pay the costs of any examination requested by the appeals officer.

(b) If the medical question or dispute is relevant to an issue involved in the matter before the appeals officer and all parties agree to the submission of the matter to an external review organization, submit the matter to an external review organization in accordance with NRS 616C.363 and any regulations adopted by the Commissioner.

4. The appeals officer may consider the opinion of an examining physician or chiropractor, in addition to the opinion of an authorized treating physician or chiropractor, in determining the compensation payable to the injured employee.

5. If an injured employee has requested payment for the cost of obtaining a second determination of his percentage of disability pursuant to NRS 616C.100, the appeals officer shall decide whether the determination of the higher percentage of disability made pursuant to NRS 616C.100 is appropriate and, if so, may order the insurer to pay to the employee an amount equal to the maximum allowable fee established by the Administrator pursuant to NRS 616C.260 for the type of service performed, or the usual fee of that physician or chiropractor for such service, whichever is less.

~~[5.]~~ 6. The appeals officer shall order an insurer, organization for managed care or employer who provides accident benefits for injured employees pursuant to NRS 616C.265 to pay to the appropriate person the charges of a provider of health care if the conditions of NRS 616C.138 are satisfied.

~~[6.]~~ 7. Any party to the appeal or the appeals officer may order a transcript of the record of the hearing at any time before the seventh day after the hearing. The transcript must be filed within 30 days after the date of the order unless the appeals officer otherwise orders.

~~[7.]~~ 8. The appeals officer shall render his decision:

(a) If a transcript is ordered within 7 days after the hearing, within 30 days after the transcript is filed; or

(b) If a transcript has not been ordered, within 30 days after the date of the hearing.

~~[8.]~~ 9. The appeals officer may affirm, modify or reverse any decision made by the hearing officer and issue any necessary and proper order to give effect to his decision.

Sec. 7. NRS 616C.490 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.490 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616C.175, every employee, in the employ of an employer within the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, who is injured by an accident arising out of and in the course of employment is entitled to receive the compensation provided for permanent partial disability. As used in this section, "disability" and "impairment of the whole man" are equivalent terms.

2. Within 30 days after receiving from a physician or chiropractor a report indicating that the injured employee may have suffered a permanent disability and is stable and ratable, the insurer shall schedule an appointment with the rating physician or chiropractor selected pursuant to this subsection to determine the extent of the employee's disability. Unless the insurer and the injured employee otherwise agree to a rating physician or chiropractor:

(a) The insurer shall select the rating physician or chiropractor from the list of qualified rating physicians and chiropractors designated by the Administrator, to determine the percentage of disability in accordance with the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment as adopted and supplemented by the Division pursuant to NRS 616C.110.

(b) Rating physicians and chiropractors must be selected in rotation from the list of qualified physicians and chiropractors designated by the Administrator, according to their area of specialization and the order in which their names appear on the list unless the next physician or chiropractor is currently an employee of the insurer making the selection, in which case the insurer must select the physician or chiropractor who is next on the list and who is not currently an employee of the insurer.

3. If an insurer contacts the treating physician or chiropractor to determine whether an injured employee has suffered a permanent disability, the insurer shall deliver to the treating physician or chiropractor that portion or a summary of that portion of the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment as adopted by the Division pursuant to NRS 616C.110 that is relevant to the type of injury incurred by the employee.

4. At the request of the insurer, the injured employee shall, before an evaluation by a rating physician or chiropractor is performed, notify the insurer of:

(a) Any previous evaluations performed to determine the extent of any of the employee's disabilities; and

(b) Any previous injury, disease or condition sustained by the employee which is relevant to the evaluation performed pursuant to this section.

➥ The notice must be on a form approved by the Administrator and provided to the injured employee by the insurer at the time of the insurer's request.

5. Unless the regulations adopted pursuant to NRS 616C.110 provide otherwise, a rating evaluation must include an evaluation of the loss of motion, sensation and strength of an injured employee if the injury is of a type that might have caused such a loss. ~~[No]~~ Except in the case of claims accepted pursuant to NRS 616C.180, no factors other than the degree of physical impairment of the whole man may be considered in calculating the entitlement to compensation for a permanent partial disability.

6. The rating physician or chiropractor shall provide the insurer with his evaluation of the injured employee. After receiving the evaluation, the insurer shall, within 14 days, provide the employee with a copy of the evaluation and notify the employee:

(a) Of the compensation to which he is entitled pursuant to this section; or

(b) That he is not entitled to benefits for permanent partial disability.

7. Each 1 percent of impairment of the whole man must be compensated by a monthly payment:

(a) Of 0.5 percent of the claimant's average monthly wage for injuries sustained before July 1, 1981;

(b) Of 0.6 percent of the claimant's average monthly wage for injuries sustained on or after July 1, 1981, and before June 18, 1993;

(c) Of 0.54 percent of the claimant's average monthly wage for injuries sustained on or after June 18, 1993, and before January 1, 2000; and

(d) Of 0.6 percent of the claimant's average monthly wage for injuries sustained on or after January 1, 2000.

➥ Compensation must commence on the date of the injury or the day following the termination of temporary disability compensation, if any, whichever is later, and must continue on a monthly basis for 5 years or until the claimant is 70 years of age, whichever is later.

8. Compensation benefits may be paid annually to claimants who will be receiving less than $100 a month.

9. Where there is a previous disability, as the loss of one eye, one hand, one foot, or any other previous permanent disability, the percentage of disability for a subsequent injury must be determined by computing the percentage of the entire disability and deducting therefrom the percentage of the previous disability as it existed at the time of the subsequent injury.

10. The Division may adopt schedules for rating permanent disabilities resulting from injuries sustained before July 1, 1973, and reasonable regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.

11. The increase in compensation and benefits effected by the amendment of this section is not retroactive for accidents which occurred before July 1, 1973.

12. This section does not entitle any person to double payments for the death of an employee and a continuation of payments for a permanent partial disability, or to a greater sum in the aggregate than if the injury had been fatal.

~~[Sec. 2.]~~ Sec. 8. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 9. NRS 616C.505 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.505 If an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of employment causes the death of an employee in the employ of an employer, within the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, the compensation is known as a death benefit and is payable as follows:

1. In addition to any other compensation payable pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, burial expenses are payable in an amount not to exceed ~~[$5,000.]~~ $10,000, plus the cost of transporting the remains of the deceased employee. When the remains of the deceased employee and the person accompanying the remains are to be transported to a mortuary or mortuaries, the charge of transportation must be borne by the insurer.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 and NRS 616C.507, to the surviving spouse of the deceased employee, 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage is payable until his death or remarriage, with 2 years' compensation payable in one lump sum upon remarriage.

3. If there is a surviving spouse and any surviving children of the deceased employee who are not the children of the surviving spouse, the compensation otherwise payable pursuant to subsection 2 must be paid as follows until the entitlement of all children of the deceased employee to receive compensation pursuant to this subsection ceases:

(a) To the surviving spouse, 50 percent of the death benefit is payable until his death or remarriage, with 2 years' compensation payable in one lump sum upon remarriage; and

(b) To each child of the deceased employee, regardless of whether the child is the child of the surviving spouse, his proportionate share of 50 percent of the death benefit and, except as otherwise provided in subsection 12, if the child has a guardian, the compensation he is entitled to receive may be paid to the guardian.

4. In the event of the subsequent death of the surviving spouse:

(a) Each surviving child of the deceased employee, in addition to any amount the child may be entitled to pursuant to subsection 3, must share equally the compensation theretofore paid to the surviving spouse but not in excess thereof, and it is payable until the youngest child reaches the age of 18 years.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 12, if the children have a guardian, the compensation they are entitled to receive may be paid to the guardian.

5. Upon the remarriage of a surviving spouse with children:

(a) The surviving spouse must be paid 2 years' compensation in one lump sum and further benefits must cease; and

(b) Each child must be paid 15 percent of the average monthly wage, up to a maximum family benefit of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

➥ The provisions of this subsection do not apply to the remarriage of a surviving spouse of a deceased police officer or firefighter if the provisions of NRS 616C.507 apply to the surviving spouse.

6. If there are any surviving children of the deceased employee under the age of 18 years, but no surviving spouse, then each such child is entitled to his proportionate share of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage for his support.

7. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, if there is no surviving spouse or child under the age of 18 years, there must be paid:

(a) To a parent, if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at the time of the injury causing his death, 33 1/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

(b) To both parents, if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at the time of the injury causing his death, 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

(c) To each brother or sister until he or she reaches the age of 18 years, if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at the time of the injury causing his death, his proportionate share of 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

8. The aggregate compensation payable pursuant to subsection 7 must not exceed 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

9. In all other cases involving a question of total or partial dependency:

(a) The extent of the dependency must be determined in accordance with the facts existing at the time of the injury.

(b) If the deceased employee leaves dependents only partially dependent upon his earnings for support at the time of the injury causing his death, the monthly compensation to be paid must be equal to the same proportion of the monthly payments for the benefit of persons totally dependent as the amount contributed by the deceased employee to the partial dependents bears to the average monthly wage of the deceased employee at the time of the injury resulting in his death.

(c) The duration of compensation to partial dependents must be fixed in accordance with the facts shown, but may not exceed compensation for 100 months.

10. Compensation payable to a surviving spouse is for the use and benefit of the surviving spouse and the dependent children, and the insurer may, from time to time, apportion such compensation between them in such a way as it deems best for the interest of all dependents.

11. In the event of the death of any dependent specified in this section before the expiration of the time during which compensation is payable to him, funeral expenses are payable in an amount not to exceed ~~[$5,000.]~~ $10,000.

12. If a dependent is entitled to receive a death benefit pursuant to this section and is less than 18 years of age or incompetent, the legal representative of the dependent shall petition for a guardian to be appointed for that dependent pursuant to NRS 159.044. An insurer shall not pay any compensation in excess of $3,000, other than burial expenses, to the dependent until a guardian is appointed and legally qualified. Upon receipt of a certified letter of guardianship, the insurer shall make all payments required by this section to the guardian of the dependent until the dependent is emancipated, the guardianship terminates or the dependent reaches the age of 18 years, whichever occurs first, unless paragraph (a) of subsection 13 is applicable. The fees and costs related to the guardianship must be paid from the estate of the dependent. A guardianship established pursuant to this subsection must be administered in accordance with chapter 159 of NRS, except that after the first annual review required pursuant to NRS 159.176, a court may elect not to review the guardianship annually. The court shall review the guardianship at least once every 3 years. As used in this subsection, "incompetent" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 159.019.

13. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (a) and (b), the entitlement of any child to receive his proportionate share of compensation pursuant to this section ceases when he dies, marries or reaches the age of 18 years. A child is entitled to continue to receive compensation pursuant to this section if he is:

(a) Over 18 years of age and incapable of supporting himself, until such time as he becomes capable of supporting himself; or

(b) Over 18 years of age and enrolled as a full-time student in an accredited vocational or educational institution, until he reaches the age of 22 years.

14. As used in this section, "surviving spouse" means a surviving husband or wife who was married to the employee at the time of the employee's death.

Sec. 10. NRS 616D.120 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616D.120 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if the Administrator determines that an insurer, organization for managed care, health care provider, third-party administrator or employer has:

(a) Induced a claimant to fail to report an accidental injury or occupational disease;

(b) Without justification, persuaded a claimant to:

(1) Settle for an amount which is less than reasonable;

(2) Settle for an amount which is less than reasonable while a hearing or an appeal is pending; or

(3) Accept less than the compensation found to be due him by a hearing officer, appeals officer, court of competent jurisdiction, written settlement agreement, written stipulation or the Division when carrying out its duties pursuant to chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS;

(c) Refused to pay or unreasonably delayed payment to a claimant of compensation or other relief found to be due him by a hearing officer, appeals officer, court of competent jurisdiction, written settlement agreement, written stipulation or the Division when carrying out its duties pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS, if the refusal or delay occurs:

(1) Later than 10 days after the date of the settlement agreement or stipulation;

(2) Later than 30 days after the date of the decision of a court, hearing officer, appeals officer or the Division, unless a stay has been granted; or

(3) Later than 10 days after a stay of the decision of a court, hearing officer, appeals officer or the Division has been lifted;

(d) Refused to process a claim for compensation pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS;

(e) Made it necessary for a claimant to initiate proceedings pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS for compensation or other relief found to be due him by a hearing officer, appeals officer, court of competent jurisdiction, written settlement agreement, written stipulation or the Division when carrying out its duties pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS;

(f) Failed to comply with the Division's regulations covering the payment of an assessment relating to the funding of costs of administration of chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS;

(g) Failed to provide or unreasonably delayed payment to an injured employee or reimbursement to an insurer pursuant to NRS 616C.165; ~~[or]~~

➥ the Administrator shall impose an administrative fine of $1,500 for each initial violation, or a fine of $15,000 for a second or subsequent violation.

2. Except as otherwise provided in chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS, if the Administrator determines that an insurer, organization for managed care, health care provider, third-party administrator or employer has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or chapter 616A, 616B, 616C or 617 of NRS, or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, the Administrator may take any of the following actions:

(a) Issue a notice of correction for:

(1) A minor violation, as defined by regulations adopted by the Division; or

(2) A violation involving the payment of compensation in an amount which is greater than that required by any provision of this chapter or chapter 616A, 616B, 616C or 617 of NRS, or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto.

➥ The notice of correction must set forth with particularity the violation committed and the manner in which the violation may be corrected. The provisions of this section do not authorize the Administrator to modify or negate in any manner a determination or any portion of a determination made by a hearing officer, appeals officer or court of competent jurisdiction or a provision contained in a written settlement agreement or written stipulation.

(b) Impose an administrative fine for:

(1) A second or subsequent violation for which a notice of correction has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a); or

(2) Any other violation of this chapter or chapter 616A, 616B, 616C or 617 of NRS, or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, for which a notice of correction may not be issued pursuant to paragraph (a).

➥ The fine imposed must not be greater than $375 for an initial violation, or more than ~~[$1,500]~~ $3,000 for any second or subsequent violation.

(c) Order a plan of corrective action to be submitted to the Administrator within 30 days after the date of the order.

3. If the Administrator determines that a violation of any of the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, ~~[or]~~ (h) or (i) of subsection 1 has occurred, the Administrator shall order the insurer, organization for managed care, health care provider, third-party administrator or employer to pay to the claimant a benefit penalty:

(b) Of $3,000 if the violation involves a late payment of compensation or other relief to a claimant in an amount which is less than $500 or which is not more than 14 days late.

4. To determine the amount of the benefit penalty, the Administrator shall consider the degree of physical harm suffered by the injured employee or his dependents as a result of the violation of paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) , ~~[or]~~ (h) or (i) of subsection 1, the amount of compensation found to be due the claimant and the number of fines and benefit penalties, other than a benefit penalty described in paragraph (b) of subsection 3, previously

If the claimant is the injured employee and he dies before the benefit penalty is paid to him, the benefit penalty must be paid to his estate. Proof of the payment of the benefit penalty must be submitted to the Administrator within 10 days after the date of his determination unless an appeal is filed pursuant to NRS 616D.140. Any compensation to which the claimant may otherwise be entitled pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS must not be reduced by the amount of any benefit penalty received pursuant to this subsection. To determine the amount of the benefit penalty in cases of multiple violations occurring within a certain period of time, the Administrator shall adopt regulations which take into consideration:

(a) The number of violations within a certain number of years for which a benefit penalty was imposed; and

(b) The number of claims handled by the insurer, organization for managed care, health care provider, third-party administrator or employer in relation to the number of benefit penalties previously imposed within the period of time prescribed pursuant to paragraph (a).

5. In addition to any fine or benefit penalty imposed pursuant to this section, the Administrator may assess against an insurer who violates any regulation concerning the reporting of claims expenditures or premiums received that are used to calculate an assessment ~~[,]~~ an administrative penalty of up to twice the amount of any underpaid assessment.

6. If:

(a) The Administrator determines that a person has violated any of the provisions of NRS 616D.200, 616D.220, 616D.240, 616D.300, 616D.310 or 616D.350 to 616D.440, inclusive; and

(b) The Fraud Control Unit for Industrial Insurance of the Office of the Attorney General established pursuant to NRS 228.420 notifies the Administrator that the Unit will not prosecute the person for that violation,

➥ the Administrator shall impose an administrative fine of not more than $15,000.

7. Two or more fines of $1,000 or more imposed in 1 year for acts enumerated in subsection 1 must be considered by the Commissioner as evidence for the withdrawal of:

(a) A certificate to act as a self-insured employer.

(b) A certificate to act as an association of self-insured public or private employers.

(c) A certificate of registration as a third-party administrator.

8. The Commissioner may, without complying with the provisions of NRS 616B.327 or 616B.431, withdraw the certification of a self-insured employer, association of self-insured public or private employers or third-party administrator if, after a hearing, it is shown that the self-insured employer, association of self-insured public or private employers or third-party administrator violated any provision of subsection 1.

9. If the Administrator determines that a vocational rehabilitation counselor has violated the provisions of NRS 616C.543, the Administrator may impose an administrative fine on the vocational rehabilitation counselor of not more than $250 for a first violation, $500 for a second violation and $1,000 for a third or subsequent violation.

10. The Administrator may make a claim against the bond required pursuant to NRS 683A.0857 for the payment of any administrative fine or benefit penalty imposed for a violation of the provisions of this section.

Sec. 11. Chapter 681A of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

All materials so unloaded must be cared for by the carrier of the material and at his expense. The officer of the Nevada Highway Patrol, category I peace officer or inspector may allow the driver of the inspected vehicle to continue on his journey if any overload does not exceed by more than 5 percent the limitations prescribed by NRS 484.744 to 484.757, inclusive, but the penalties provided in NRS 484.757 must be imposed for the overload violation.

4. Any driver of a vehicle who fails or refuses to stop and submit the vehicle and load to a weighing, or who fails or refuses when directed by an officer of the Nevada Highway Patrol , a category I peace officer or an inspector upon a weighing of the vehicle to stop and otherwise comply with the provisions of NRS 484.744 to 484.757, inclusive, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 731.

AN ACT relating to common-interest communities; requiring a member of an executive board of a unit-owners' association who stands to profit personally from a matter before the executive board to disclose and abstain from voting on the matter; requiring a member of an executive board who has a member of his household or relative who stands to profit from a matter before the executive board to disclose before voting on the matter; requiring that bids for an association project be considered and opened at a meeting of the executive board; revising provisions relating to the renting or leasing of units; making provisions authorizing the transient commercial use of units in a planned community in certain circumstances applicable in all counties; revising the provisions relating to the resale package furnished to the purchaser of a unit; increasing the amount of the administrative fine for engaging in certain activity without holding the required certificate or permit; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 2 of this bill provides additional ethical requirements for members of an executive board of a unit-owners' association by requiring : (1) a member who stands to gain any personal profit or compensation from a matter before the executive board to disclose the matter to the executive board and to abstain from voting on the matter. [.] ; and (2) a member who has a member of his household or relative who stands to profit from a matter before the executive board to disclose before voting on the matter. (NRS 116.31185, 116.31187)

With some exceptions, existing law requires an executive board to hold open meetings, including meetings to consider a contract. (NRS 116.31085) Sections 3 and 5 of this bill require an association that solicits bids for association projects, including, without limitation, projects that involve maintenance, repair, replacement or restoration of any part of the common elements or which involve services provided to the association, to consider and open the bids during a meeting of the executive board of the association.

Existing law provides for remedial and disciplinary action for any violation of the provisions of chapter 116 of NRS governing common-interest communities which will apply to a violation of section 2 or 3 of this bill. (NRS 116.745-116.795)

Existing law provides that except as otherwise provided in the declaration, an association may not require a unit's owner to secure or obtain any approval from the association in order to rent or lease his unit. (NRS 116.335) Section 6 of this bill provides that unless, at the time a unit's owner purchased his unit, the declaration prohibited the unit's owner from renting or leasing his unit or required the unit's owner to secure or obtain any approval from the association in order to rent or lease his unit, the association may not: (1) prohibit the unit's owner from renting or leasing his unit; or (2) require the unit's owner to secure or obtain any approval from the association in order to rent or lease his unit. Section 6 also provides that if [, before October 1, 2009,] a declaration contains a provision establishing a maximum number or percentage of units in the common-interest community which may be rented or leased [,] : (1) that provision of the declaration may not be amended on or after October 1, 2009, to decrease that maximum number or percentage of units which may be rented or leased [.] ; (2) a unit's owner may request a waiver of such provision upon a showing of economic hardship under certain circumstances; and (3) any units owned by the declarant must not be counted or considered in determining the maximum number of units in the common-interest community that may be rented or leased.

Section 7 of this bill makes the provisions allowing the transient commercial use of units within a planned community that is restricted to residential use in certain circumstances applicable in all counties rather than just in larger counties. (NRS 116.340)

Existing law requires a unit's owner or his authorized agent to furnish to a purchaser a resale package which includes certain documents relating to the association. (NRS 116.4109) Section 8 of this bill: (1) requires the unit's owner to furnish the resale package at his own expense; and (2) requires the disclosure of any transfer fees, transaction fees or other fees associated with the resale of the unit.

Section 9 of this bill increases the amount of the administrative fine that may be imposed against a person who engages in certain activity without holding the required certificate or permit from $5,000 to $10,000. (NRS 116A.900)

(a) Cancel the contract pursuant to this subsection; or

(b) Damages, rescission or other relief based solely on the ground that the unit's owner or his authorized agent failed to furnish the resale package, or any portion thereof, as required by this section.

3. Within 10 days after receipt of a written request by a unit's owner or his authorized agent, the association shall furnish all of the following to the unit's owner or his authorized agent for inclusion in the resale package:

(a) Copies of the documents required pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (c) of subsection 1; and

(b) A certificate containing the information necessary to enable the unit's owner to comply with paragraphs (b) , ~~[and]~~ (d) and (e) of subsection 1.

4. If the association furnishes the documents and certificate pursuant to subsection 3:

(a) The unit's owner or his authorized agent shall include the documents and certificate in the resale package provided to the purchaser, and neither the unit's owner nor his authorized agent is liable to the purchaser for any erroneous information provided by the association and included in the documents and certificate.

(b) The association may charge the unit's owner a reasonable fee to cover the cost of preparing the certificate furnished pursuant to subsection 3. Such a fee must be based on the actual cost the association incurs to fulfill the requirements of this section in preparing the certificate. The Commission shall adopt regulations establishing the maximum amount of the fee that an association may charge for preparing the certificate.

(c) The association may charge the unit's owner a reasonable fee, not to exceed 25 cents per page, to cover the cost of copying the other documents furnished pursuant to subsection 3.

(d) Except for the fees allowed pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c), the association may not charge the unit's owner any other fees for preparing or furnishing the documents and certificate pursuant to subsection 3.

5. Neither a purchaser nor the purchaser's interest in a unit is liable for any unpaid assessment or fee greater than the amount set forth in the documents and certificate prepared by the association. If the association fails to furnish the documents and certificate within the 10 days allowed by this section, the seller is not liable for the delinquent assessment.

6. Upon the request of a unit's owner or his authorized agent, or upon the request of a purchaser to whom the unit's owner has provided a resale package pursuant to this section or his authorized agent, the association shall make the entire study of the reserves of the association which is required by NRS 116.31152 reasonably available for the unit's owner, purchaser or authorized agent to inspect, examine, photocopy and audit. The study must be made available at the business office of the association or some other suitable location within the county where the common-interest community is situated or, if it is situated in more than one county, within one of those counties.

Sec. 9. NRS 116A.900 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116A.900 1. In addition to any other remedy or penalty, the Commission may impose an administrative fine against any person who knowingly:

(a) Engages or offers to engage in any activity for which a certificate or permit is required pursuant to this chapter or chapter 116 or 116B of NRS, or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, if the person does not hold the required certificate or permit or has not been given the required authorization; or

(b) Assists or offers to assist another person to commit a violation described in paragraph (a).

2. If the Commission imposes an administrative fine against a person pursuant to this section, the amount of the administrative fine may not exceed the amount of any gain or economic benefit that the person derived from the violation or ~~[$5,000,]~~ $10,000, whichever amount is greater.

3. In determining the appropriate amount of the administrative fine, the Commission shall consider:

(a) The severity of the violation and the degree of any harm that the violation caused to other persons;

(b) The nature and amount of any gain or economic benefit that the person derived from the violation;

(c) The person's history or record of other violations; and

(d) Any other facts or circumstances that the Commission deems to be relevant.

4. Before the Commission may impose the administrative fine, the Commission must provide the person with notice and an opportunity to be heard.

5. The person is entitled to judicial review of the decision of the Commission in the manner provided by chapter 233B of NRS.

6. The provisions of this section do not apply to a person who engages or offers to engage in activities within the purview of this chapter or chapter 116 or 116B of NRS if:

(a) A specific statute exempts the person from complying with the provisions of this chapter or chapter 116 or 116B of NRS with regard to those activities; and

(b) The person is acting in accordance with the exemption while engaging or offering to engage in those activities.

Senate Bill No. 261.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 748.

AN ACT relating to common-interest ownership; revising the provisions governing the applicability of the Uniform Common-Interest Ownership Act; ~~[enacting certain provisions governing master-planned communities;]~~ making various other changes relating to common-interest ownership; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill makes various changes relating to common-interest ownership to: (1) incorporate certain revisions to the Uniform Common-Interest Ownership Act promulgated by the Uniform Law Commission; and (2) eliminate references to the preparation of certain plans regarding certain common-interest communities and condominium hotels.

Sections 2, 3, 6 and 9 of this bill provide that the provisions of the Uniform Act only apply to a nonresidential condominium if the declaration so provides.

Sections 4 and 7 of this bill clarify the applicability of the Uniform Act by revising the definition of "common-interest community" to: (1) reflect the revisions promulgated by the Uniform Law Commission; and (2) clarify that certain agreements to share expenses do not create a common-interest community. (NRS 116.021)

~~[Section 5 of this bill allows a declaration for a common-interest community to state that the common-interest community is a master-planned community under certain circumstances.]~~

Sections 8 and 10-26 of this bill eliminate references to the preparation of certain plans for certain common-interest communities and condominium hotels. (NRS 116.089, 116.1206, 116.2105, 116.2109, 116.211, 116.2112, 116.2113, 116.2114, 116.2117, 116.345, 116.4103, 116.4109, 116B.225, 116B.295, 116B.350, 116B.365, 116B.760)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 116 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 5, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 2. "Nonresidential condominium" means a condominium in which all units are restricted exclusively to nonresidential use.

Sec. 3. 1. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to a nonresidential condominium except to the extent that the declaration for the nonresidential condominium provides that:

(a) This entire chapter applies to the condominium;

(b) Only the provisions of NRS 116.001 to 116.2122, inclusive, and NRS 116.3116 to 116.31168, inclusive, apply to the condominium; or

(c) Only the provisions of NRS 116.3116 to 116.31168, inclusive, apply to the condominium.

2. If this entire chapter applies to a nonresidential condominium, the declaration may also require, subject to NRS 116.1112, that:

(a) Notwithstanding NRS 116.3105, any management, maintenance operations or employment contract, lease of recreational or parking areas or facilities and any other contract or lease between the association and a declarant or an affiliate of a declarant continues in force after the declarant turns over control of the association; and

(b) Notwithstanding NRS 116.1104 and subsection 2 of NRS 116.311, purchasers of units must execute proxies, powers of attorney or similar devices in favor of the declarant regarding particular matters enumerated in those instruments.

Sec. 4. 1. An agreement between the associations for two or more common-interest communities to share the costs of real estate taxes, insurance premiums, services, maintenance or improvements of real estate or other activities specified in the agreement or declarations does not create a separate common-interest community. If the declarants of the common-interest communities are affiliates, the agreement may not unreasonably allocate the costs among those common-interest communities.

2. An agreement between an association and the owner of real estate that is not part of a common-interest community to share the costs of real estate taxes, insurance premiums, services, maintenance or improvements of real estate, or other activities specified in the agreement, does not create a separate common-interest community. However, the assessments against the units in the common-interest community required by the agreement must be included in the periodic budget for the common-interest community, and the agreement must be disclosed in all public offering statements and resale certificates required by this chapter.

3. An agreement between the owners of separately owned parcels of real estate to share costs or other obligations associated with a party wall, road, driveway or well or other similar use does not create a common-interest community unless the owners otherwise agree.

4. As used in this section, "party wall" means any wall or fence constructed along the common boundary line between parcels. The term does not include any shared building structure systems, including, without limitation, foundations, walls and roof structures.

Sec. 5. ~~[1. The declaration for a common-interest community may state that it is a master-planned community if the declarant has reserved the development right to create at least 1,000 units that may be used for residential purposes and, at the time of the reservation, that the declarant owns or controls more than 500 acres on which the units may be built.~~

~~2. If the requirements of subsection 1 are satisfied, the declaration for the master-planned community need not state a maximum number of units and need not contain any of the information required pursuant to paragraphs (c) to (m), inclusive, of subsection 1 of NRS 116.2105, until the declaration is amended pursuant to subsection 3.~~

~~3. When each unit in a master-planned community is conveyed to a purchaser, the declaration must contain:~~

~~(a) A sufficient legal description of the unit and all portions of the master-planned community in which any other units have been conveyed to a purchaser; and~~

~~(b) All the information required by paragraphs (c) to (m), inclusive, of subsection 1 of NRS 116.2105 with respect to that real estate.~~

~~4. The only real estate in a master planned community which is subject to this chapter is units that have been declared or which are being offered for sale and any other real estate described pursuant to subsection 3. Other real estate that is or may become part of the master planned community is only subject to other law and to any other restrictions and limitations that appear of record.~~

~~5. If the public offering statement conspicuously identifies the fact that the community is a master planned community, the disclosure requirements contained in NRS 116.4101 to 116.412, inclusive, apply only with respect to units that have been declared or are being offered for sale in connection with the public offering statement and to the real estate described pursuant to subsection 3.~~

~~6. Limitations in this chapter on the addition of unspecified real estate do not apply to a master planned community.~~

~~7. The period of declarant control of the association for a master-planned community terminates in accordance with any conditions specified in the declaration or otherwise at the time the declarant, in a recorded instrument and after giving written notice in a record to all the units' owners, voluntarily surrenders all rights to control the activities of the association.]~~ (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 6. NRS 116.003 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.003 As used in this chapter and in the declaration and bylaws of an association, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 116.005 to 116.095, inclusive, and section 2 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 7. NRS 116.021 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.021 1. "Common-interest community" means real estate described in a declaration with respect to which a person, by virtue of ~~[this]~~ the person's ownership of a unit, is obligated to pay for a share of real estate taxes, insurance premiums, maintenance or improvement of, or services or other expenses related to, common elements, other units or other ~~[than that unit. "Ownership]~~ real estate described in that declaration.

2. The term does not include an agreement described in section 4 of this act.

3. For purposes of this section, "ownership of a unit" does not include holding a leasehold interest of less than 20 years in a unit, including options to renew.

Sec. 8. NRS 116.089 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.089 "Special declarant's rights" means rights reserved for the benefit of a declarant to:

1. Complete improvements indicated on plats ~~[and plans]~~ or in the declaration (NRS 116.2109) or, in a cooperative, to complete improvements described in the public offering statement pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 116.4103;

2. Exercise any developmental right (NRS 116.211);

3. Maintain sales offices, management offices, signs advertising the common-interest community and models (NRS 116.2115);

4. Use easements through the common elements for the purpose of making improvements within the common-interest community or within real estate which may be added to the common-interest community (NRS 116.2116);

5. Make the common-interest community subject to a master association (NRS 116.212);

6. Merge or consolidate a common-interest community with another common-interest community of the same form of ownership (NRS 116.2121); or

7. Appoint or remove any officer of the association or any master association or any member of an executive board during any period of declarant's control (NRS 116.31032).

Sec. 9. NRS 116.1201 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.1201 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 116.1203, this chapter applies to all common-interest communities created within this State.

2. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) A limited-purpose association, except that a limited-purpose association:

(1) Shall pay the fees required pursuant to NRS 116.31155;

(2) Shall register with the Ombudsman pursuant to NRS 116.31158;

(3) Shall comply with the provisions of:

(I) NRS 116.31038, 116.31083 and 116.31152; and

(II) NRS 116.31075, if the limited-purpose association is created for a rural agricultural residential common-interest community;

(4) Shall comply with the provisions of NRS 116.4101 to 116.412, inclusive, as required by the regulations adopted by the Commission pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 5; and

(5) Shall not enforce any restrictions concerning the use of units by the units' owners, unless the limited-purpose association is created for a rural agricultural residential common-interest community.

(b) A planned community in which all units are restricted exclusively to nonresidential use unless the declaration provides that this chapter or a part of this chapter does apply to that planned community ~~[.]~~ pursuant to section 3 of this act. This chapter applies to a planned community containing both units that are restricted exclusively to nonresidential use and other units that are not so restricted only if the declaration so provides or if the real estate comprising the units that may be used for residential purposes would be a planned community in the absence of the units that may not be used for residential purposes.

(c) Common-interest communities or units located outside of this State, but the provisions of NRS 116.4102 to 116.4108, inclusive, apply to all contracts for the disposition thereof signed in this State by any party unless exempt under subsection 2 of NRS 116.4101.

(d) A common-interest community that was created before January 1, 1992, is located in a county whose population is less than 50,000, and has less than 50 percent of the units within the community put to residential use, unless a majority of the units' owners otherwise elect in writing.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, time shares governed by the provisions of chapter 119A of NRS.

3. The provisions of this chapter do not:

(a) Prohibit a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, from providing for separate classes of voting for the units' owners;

(b) Require a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, to comply with the provisions of NRS 116.2101 to 116.2122, inclusive;

(c) Invalidate any assessments that were imposed on or before October 1, 1999, by a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992; or

(d) Prohibit a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, or a common-interest community described in NRS 116.31105 from providing for a representative form of government.

4. The provisions of chapters 117 and 278A of NRS do not apply to common-interest communities.

5. The Commission shall establish, by regulation:

(a) The criteria for determining whether an association, a limited-purpose association or a common-interest community satisfies the requirements for an exemption or limited exemption from any provision of this chapter; and

(b) The extent to which a limited-purpose association must comply with the provisions of NRS 116.4101 to 116.412, inclusive.

6. As used in this section, "limited-purpose association" means an association that:

(a) Is created for the limited purpose of maintaining:

(1) The landscape of the common elements of a common-interest community;

(2) Facilities for flood control; or

(3) A rural agricultural residential common-interest community; and

(b) Is not authorized by its governing documents to enforce any restrictions concerning the use of units by units' owners, unless the limited-purpose association is created for a rural agricultural residential common-interest community.

Sec. 10. NRS 116.1206 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.1206 1. Any provision contained in a declaration, bylaw or other governing document of a common-interest community that violates the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to conform with those provisions by operation of law, and any such declaration, bylaw or other governing document is not required to be amended to conform to those provisions.

2. In the case of amendments to the declaration, bylaws or plats ~~[and plans]~~ of any common-interest community created before January 1, 1992:

(a) If the result accomplished by the amendment was permitted by law before January 1, 1992, the amendment may be made either in accordance with that law, in which case that law applies to that amendment, or it may be made under this chapter; and

(b) If the result accomplished by the amendment is permitted by this chapter, and was not permitted by law before January 1, 1992, the amendment may be made under this chapter.

3. An amendment to the declaration, bylaws or plats ~~[and plans]~~ authorized by this section to be made under this chapter must be adopted in conformity with the applicable provisions of chapter 117 or 278A of NRS and with the procedures and requirements specified by those instruments. If an amendment grants to any person any rights, powers or privileges permitted by this chapter, all correlative obligations, liabilities and restrictions in this chapter also apply to that person.

Sec. 11. NRS 116.2105 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.2105 1. The declaration must contain:

(a) The names of the common-interest community and the association and a statement that the common-interest community is either a condominium, cooperative or planned community;

(b) The name of every county in which any part of the common-interest community is situated;

(c) A sufficient description of the real estate included in the common-interest community;

(d) A statement of the maximum number of units that the declarant reserves the right to create;

(e) In a condominium or planned community, a description of the boundaries of each unit created by the declaration, including the unit's identifying number or, in a cooperative, a description, which may be by plats ~~, [or plans,]~~ of each unit created by the declaration, including the unit's identifying number, its size or number of rooms, and its location within a building if it is within a building containing more than one unit;

(f) A description of any limited common elements, other than those specified in subsections 2 and 4 of NRS 116.2102, as provided in paragraph (g) of subsection 2 of NRS 116.2109 and, in a planned community, any real estate that is or must become common elements;

(g) A description of any real estate, except real estate subject to developmental rights, that may be allocated subsequently as limited common elements, other than limited common elements specified in subsections 2 and 4 of NRS 116.2102, together with a statement that they may be so allocated;

(h) A description of any developmental rights and other special declarant's rights reserved by the declarant, together with a legally sufficient description of the real estate to which each of those rights applies, and a time within which each of those rights must be exercised;

(i) If any developmental right may be exercised with respect to different parcels of real estate at different times, a statement to that effect together with:

(1) Either a statement fixing the boundaries of those portions and regulating the order in which those portions may be subjected to the exercise of each developmental right or a statement that no assurances are made in those regards; and

(2) A statement whether, if any developmental right is exercised in any portion of the real estate subject to that developmental right, that developmental right must be exercised in all or in any other portion of the remainder of that real estate;

(j) Any other conditions or limitations under which the rights described in paragraph (h) may be exercised or will lapse;

2. The declaration may contain any other matters the declarant considers appropriate.

Sec. 12. NRS 116.2109 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.2109 1. Plats ~~[and plans]~~ are a part of the declaration, and are required for all common-interest communities except cooperatives. Each plat ~~[and plan]~~ must be clear and legible and contain a certification that the plat ~~[or plan]~~ contains all information required by this section.

2. Each plat must comply with the provisions of chapter 278 of NRS and show:

(a) The name and a survey of the area which is the subject of the plat;

(b) A sufficient description of the real estate;

(c) The extent of any encroachments by or upon any portion of the property which is the subject of the plat;

(d) The location and dimensions of all easements having a specific location and dimension which serve or burden any portion of the common-interest community;

(e) The location and dimensions , with reference to an established datum, of any vertical unit boundaries and that unit's identifying number;

(f) The location with reference to an established datum of any horizontal unit boundaries not shown or projected on ~~[~~plans~~]~~ plats recorded pursuant to subsection ~~[~~4~~]~~ 3 and that unit's identifying number; and

(g) The location and dimensions of limited common elements, including porches, balconies and patios, other than parking spaces and the other limited common elements described in subsections 2 and 4 of NRS 116.2102.

3. ~~[~~To the extent not shown or projected on the~~]~~ The plats ~~[~~, plans of the units~~]~~ must show or project any units in which the declarant has reserved the right to create additional units or common elements (paragraph (h) of subsection 1 of NRS 116.2105), identified appropriately.

4. Unless the declaration provides otherwise, when the horizontal boundaries of part of a unit located outside a building have the same elevation as the horizontal boundaries of the inside part ~~[~~and~~]~~ , the elevations need not be depicted on the plats . ~~[~~and plans of the units.~~]~~

5. ~~[~~A declarant shall also provide a plan of development for the common-interest community with its initial phase of development. The declarant shall revise the plan of development with each subsequent phase. The plan of development may show the intended location and dimensions of any contemplated improvement to be constructed anywhere within the common-interest community. Any contemplated improvement shown must be labeled either "MUST BE BUILT" or "NEED NOT BE BUILT." The plan of development must also show or project:

(a) The location and dimensions of all real estate not subject to developmental rights, or subject only to the developmental right to withdraw, and the location and dimensions of all existing improvements within that real estate;

(b) A sufficient description of any real estate subject to developmental rights, labeled to identify the rights applicable to each parcel; and

(c) A sufficient description of any real estate in which the units' owners will own only an estate for years, labeled as "leasehold real estate."

6.~~]~~ Upon exercising any developmental right, the declarant shall record new or amended plats necessary to conform to the requirements of subsection 2 . ~~[~~and provide new or amended plans of the units and a new or amended plan of development or new certifications of those plans if the plans otherwise conform to the requirements of subsections 3 and 5.

7.~~]~~ 6. Each plat must be certified by ~~[~~an independent~~]~~ a professional land surveyor. ~~[~~The plans of the units must be certified by an independent professional engineer or architect. If the plan of development is not certified

~~by an independent professional land surveyor or an independent professional engineer or architect, it must be acknowledged by the declarant.~~]

Sec. 13. NRS 116.211 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.211 1. To exercise any developmental right reserved under paragraph (h) of subsection 1 of NRS 116.2105, the declarant shall prepare, execute and record an amendment to the declaration (NRS 116.2117) and in a condominium or planned community comply with NRS 116.2109. The declarant is the owner of any units thereby created. The amendment to the declaration must assign an identifying number to each new unit created, and, except in the case of subdivision or conversion of units described in subsection 2, reallocate the allocated interests among all units. The amendment must describe any common elements and any limited common elements thereby created and, in the case of limited common elements, designate the unit to which each is allocated to the extent required by NRS 116.2108.

2. Developmental rights may be reserved within any real estate added to the common-interest community if the amendment adding that real estate includes all matters required by NRS 116.2105 or 116.2106, as the case may be, and, in a condominium or planned community, the plats ~~[and plans]~~ include all matters required by NRS 116.2109. This provision does not extend the time limit on the exercise of developmental rights imposed by the declaration pursuant to paragraph (h) of subsection 1 of NRS 116.2105.

3. Whenever a declarant exercises a developmental right to subdivide or convert a unit previously created into additional units, common elements, or both:

(a) If the declarant converts the unit entirely to common elements, the amendment to the declaration must convey it to the association or reallocate all the allocated interests of that unit among the other units as if that unit had been taken by eminent domain (NRS 116.1107); and

(b) If the declarant subdivides the unit into two or more units, whether or not any part of the unit is converted into common elements, the amendment to the declaration must reallocate all the allocated interests of the unit among the units created by the subdivision in any reasonable manner prescribed by the declarant.

4. If the declaration provides, pursuant to paragraph (h) of subsection 1 of NRS 116.2105, that all or a portion of the real estate is subject to a right of withdrawal:

(a) If all the real estate is subject to withdrawal, and the declaration does not describe separate portions of real estate subject to that right, none of the real estate may be withdrawn after a unit has been conveyed to a purchaser; and

(b) If any portion is subject to withdrawal, it may not be withdrawn after a unit in that portion has been conveyed to a purchaser.

Sec. 14. NRS 116.2112 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.2112 1. Subject to the provisions of the declaration and other provisions of law, the boundaries between adjoining units may be relocated by an amendment to the declaration upon application to the association by the owners of those units. If the owners of the adjoining units have specified a reallocation between their units of their allocated interests, the application must state the proposed reallocations. Unless the executive board determines, within 30 days, that the reallocations are unreasonable, the association shall prepare an amendment that identifies the units involved and states the reallocations. The amendment must be executed by those units' owners, contain words of conveyance between them, and, on recordation, be indexed in the name of the grantor and the grantee, and in the grantee's index in the name of the association.

2. The association:

(a) In a condominium or planned community shall prepare and record plats ~~[or plans]~~ necessary to show the altered boundaries between adjoining units, and their dimensions and identifying numbers; and

(b) In a cooperative shall prepare and record amendments to the declaration ~~[, including any plans,]~~ necessary to show or describe the altered boundaries between adjoining units, and their dimensions and identifying numbers.

Sec. 15. NRS 116.2113 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.2113 1. If the declaration expressly so permits, a unit may be subdivided into 2 or more units. Subject to the provisions of the declaration and other provisions of law, upon application of the unit's owner to subdivide a unit, the association shall prepare, execute and record an amendment to the declaration, including in a condominium or planned community the plats , ~~[and plans,]~~ subdividing that unit.

2. The amendment to the declaration must be executed by the owner of the unit to be subdivided, assign an identifying number to each unit created, and reallocate the allocated interests formerly allocated to the subdivided unit to the new units in any reasonable manner prescribed by the owner of the subdivided unit.

Sec. 16. NRS 116.2114 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.2114 The existing physical boundaries of a unit or the physical boundaries of a unit reconstructed in substantial accordance with the description contained in the original declaration are its legal boundaries, rather than the boundaries derived from the description contained in the original declaration, regardless of vertical or lateral movement of the building or minor variance between those boundaries and the boundaries derived from the description contained in the original declaration. This section does not relieve a unit's owner of liability in case of his willful misconduct or relieve a declarant or any other person of liability for failure to adhere to any plats ~~[and plans]~~ or, in a cooperative, to any representation in the public offering statement.

Sec. 17. NRS 116.2117 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.2117 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 116.21175, and except in cases of amendments that may be executed by a declarant under subsection ~~[6]~~ 5 of NRS 116.2109 or NRS 116.211, or by the association under NRS 116.1107, subsection 4 of NRS 116.2106, subsection 3 of NRS 116.2108, subsection 1 of NRS 116.2112 or NRS 116.2113, or by certain units' owners under subsection 2 of NRS 116.2108, subsection 1 of NRS 116.2112, subsection 2 of NRS 116.2113 or subsection 2 of NRS 116.2118, and except as otherwise limited by subsection 4, the declaration, including any plats , ~~[and plans,]~~ may be amended only by vote or agreement of units' owners of units to which at least a majority of the votes in the association are allocated, or any larger majority the declaration specifies. The declaration may specify a smaller number only if all of the units are restricted exclusively to nonresidential use.

2. No action to challenge the validity of an amendment adopted by the association pursuant to this section may be brought more than 1 year after the amendment is recorded.

3. Every amendment to the declaration must be recorded in every county in which any portion of the common-interest community is located and is effective only upon recordation. An amendment, except an amendment pursuant to NRS 116.2112, must be indexed in the grantee's index in the name of the common-interest community and the association and in the grantor's index in the name of the parties executing the amendment.

4. Except to the extent expressly permitted or required by other provisions of this chapter, no amendment may change the boundaries of any unit, the allocated interests of a unit or the uses to which any unit is restricted, in the absence of unanimous consent of the units' owners affected and the consent of a majority of the owners of the remaining units.

5. Amendments to the declaration required by this chapter to be recorded by the association must be prepared, executed, recorded and certified on behalf of the association by any officer of the association designated for that purpose or, in the absence of designation, by the president of the association.

Sec. 18. NRS 116.345 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.345 1. An association of a planned community may not restrict, prohibit or otherwise impede the lawful residential use of any property that is within or encompassed by the boundaries of the planned community and that is not designated as part of the planned community.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, an association may not restrict the access of a person to any of his property. An association may restrict access to and from a unit within a planned community if the right to restrict such access was included in the declaration or in a separate recorded instrument at the time that the owner of the unit acquired title to the unit. The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit an association from charging the owner of the property a reasonable and nondiscriminatory fee to operate or maintain a gate or other similar device designed to control access to the planned community that would otherwise impede ingress or egress to the property.

3. An association may not expand, construct or situate a building or structure that is not part of any plat ~~[or plan]~~ of the planned community if the expansion, construction or situation of the building or structure was not previously disclosed to the units' owners of the planned community unless the association obtains the written consent of a majority of the units' owners and residents of the planned community who own property or reside within 500 feet of the proposed location of the building or structure.

4. The provisions of this section do not abrogate any easement, restrictive covenant, decision of a court, agreement of a party or any contract, governing document or declaration of covenants, conditions and restrictions, or any other decision, rule or regulation that a local governing body or other entity that makes decisions concerning land use or planning is authorized to make or enact that exists before October 1, 1999, including, without limitation, a zoning ordinance, permit or approval process or any other requirement of a local government or other entity that makes decisions concerning land use or planning.

(d) Copies of the declaration, bylaws, and any rules or regulations of the association, but a plat ~~[or plan]~~ is not required.

The budget must include, without limitation:

(j) A statement of any unsatisfied judgments or pending suits against the association, and the status of any pending suits material to the common-interest community of which a declarant has actual knowledge.

(k) Any current or expected fees or charges to be paid by units' owners for the use of the common elements and other facilities related to the common-interest community.

(l) The information statement set forth in NRS 116.41095.

2. RECENT DEVELOPMENTS REGARDING (here refer to particular provisions of NRS 116.4103 and 116.4105) MAY NOT BE REFLECTED IN THIS STATEMENT."

Sec. 20. NRS 116.4109 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.4109 1. Except in the case of a sale in which delivery of a public offering statement is required, or unless exempt under subsection 2 of NRS 116.4101, a unit's owner or his authorized agent shall furnish to a purchaser a resale package containing all of the following:

2. The purchaser may, by written notice, cancel the contract of purchase until midnight of the fifth calendar day following the date of receipt of the resale package described in subsection 1, and the contract for purchase must contain a provision to that effect. If the purchaser elects to cancel a contract pursuant to this subsection, he must hand deliver the notice of cancellation to the unit's owner or his authorized agent or mail the notice of cancellation by prepaid United States mail to the unit's owner or his authorized agent. Cancellation is without penalty, and all payments made by the purchaser before cancellation must be refunded promptly. If the purchaser has accepted a conveyance of the unit, the purchaser is not entitled to:

(c) The association may charge the unit's owner a reasonable fee, not to exceed 25 cents per page, to cover the cost of copying the other documents furnished pursuant to subsection 3.

(d) Except for the fees allowed pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c), the association may not charge the unit's owner any other fees for preparing or furnishing the documents and certificate pursuant to subsection 3.

5. Neither a purchaser nor the purchaser's interest in a unit is liable for any unpaid assessment or fee greater than the amount set forth in the documents and certificate prepared by the association. If the association fails to furnish the documents and certificate within the 10 days allowed by this section, the seller is not liable for the delinquent assessment.

6. Upon the request of a unit's owner or his authorized agent, or upon the request of a purchaser to whom the unit's owner has provided a resale package pursuant to this section or his authorized agent, the association shall make the entire study of the reserves of the association which is required by NRS 116.31152 reasonably available for the unit's owner, purchaser or authorized agent to inspect, examine, photocopy and audit. Assemblyman Segerblom moved the adoption of the amendment.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, reengrossed and to third reading.

Senate Bill No. 276.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Taxation:

Amendment No. 623.

AN ACT relating to taxation; clarifying the requirements for imposition and collection of the real property transfer tax on certain land sale installment contracts; requiring that such instruments be recorded; imposing conditions on the approval and recording of certain documents relating to the division of land; establishing certain actions relating to land sale contracts; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law imposes a tax on each deed by which lands, tenements or other realty are assigned, transferred or otherwise conveyed. (NRS 375.020) Under the existing law, payment of the transfer tax can be avoided if the instrument memorializing the transfer is not recorded pursuant to NRS 111.315.

Sections 2-9 of this bill require payment of the real property transfer tax on transfers of property evidenced by land sale installment contracts. Additionally, section 8 prohibits a county recorder from accepting for recordation ~~[certain documents relating to the division of land without proof of payment of the tax.]~~ any deed, conveyance or land sale installment contract if certain taxes have not been paid.

Sections 10-13 of this bill require submission of an affidavit regarding payment of the tax and compliance with certain requirements for land sale installment contracts as a condition to local governmental approval of certain documents relating to the division of land.

Section 14 of this bill makes the failure to make certain disclosures, record a land sale installment contract or pay the tax on such a contract a deceptive trade practice.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 375.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. NRS 375.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

375.020 1. A tax, at the rate of:

Sec. 3. NRS 375.023 is hereby amended to read as follows:

375.023 1. In addition to all other taxes imposed on transfers of real property, a tax, at the rate of $1.30 on each $500 of value or fraction thereof, is hereby imposed on each deed by which any lands, tenements or other realty is granted, assigned, transferred or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, another person, or land sale installment contract, if the consideration or value of the interest or property conveyed exceeds $100.

2. The amount of the tax must be computed on the basis of the value of the transferred property as declared pursuant to NRS 375.060.

3. The county recorder of each county shall collect the tax in the manner provided in NRS 375.030, except that the amount collected must be transmitted to the State Controller for deposit in the State General Fund within 30 days after the end of the calendar quarter during which the tax was collected.

4. The county recorder of each county may deduct and withhold from the taxes collected 1 percent of those taxes to reimburse the county for the cost of collecting the tax.

Sec. 4. NRS 375.026 is hereby amended to read as follows:

375.026 1. In addition to all other taxes imposed on transfers of real property, the board of county commissioners of a county whose population is less than 400,000 may impose a tax at the rate of up to 5 cents for each $500 of value, or fraction thereof, on each deed by which any lands, tenements or other realty is granted, assigned, transferred or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, another person, or land sale installment contract, if the consideration or value of the interest or property conveyed exceeds $100.

2. The amount of the tax must be computed on the basis of the value of the ~~[~~transferred~~]~~ real property that is the subject of the transfer or land sale installment contract as declared pursuant to NRS 375.060.

3. The county recorder shall collect the tax in the manner provided in NRS 375.030, except that he shall transmit all the proceeds from the tax imposed pursuant to this section to the State Treasurer for use in the Plant Industry Program as required by NRS 561.355.

Sec. 5. NRS 375.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:

375.030 1. If any deed evidencing a transfer of title or land sale installment contract subject to the tax imposed by NRS 375.020 and 375.023 and, if applicable, NRS 375.026 is offered for recordation, the county recorder shall compute the amount of the tax due and shall collect that amount before acceptance of the deed for recordation.

2. The buyer and seller are jointly and severally liable for the payment of the taxes imposed by NRS 375.020, 375.023 and 375.026 and any penalties and interest imposed pursuant to subsection 3. The escrow holder is not liable for the payment of the taxes imposed by NRS 375.020, 375.023 and 375.026 or any penalties or interest imposed pursuant to subsection 3.

3. If , after recordation of the deed ~~[,]~~ or land sale installment contract, the county recorder disallows an exemption that was claimed at the time the deed was recorded or through audit or otherwise determines that an additional amount of tax is due, the county recorder shall promptly notify the person who requested the recording of the deed or land sale installment contract and the buyer and seller of the additional amount of tax due. If the additional amount of tax is not paid within 30 days after the date the buyer and seller are notified, the county recorder shall impose a penalty of 10 percent of the additional amount due in addition to interest at the rate of 1 percent per month, or portion thereof, of the additional amount due calculated from the date of the original recordation of the deed or land sale installment contract on which the additional amount is due through the date on which the additional amount due, penalty and interest are paid to the county recorder.

4. This section does not prohibit a buyer and seller from agreeing by contract or otherwise that one party or the other will be responsible for the payment of the tax due pursuant to this chapter, but such an agreement does not affect the ability of the county recorder to collect the tax and any penalties and interest from either the buyer or the seller.

Sec. 6. NRS 375.060 is hereby amended to read as follows:

375.060 1. Each deed evidencing a transfer of title of real property or land sale installment contract that is presented for recordation to the county recorder must be accompanied by a declaration of value made on a form prescribed by the Nevada Tax Commission.

2. A county recorder shall not charge or collect any fees for recording the declaration of value required pursuant to this section.

Sec. 7. NRS 375.090 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Amendment No. 730.

AN ACT relating to estates; revising provisions relating to the succession of property under certain circumstances; modifying the compensation structure authorized for attorneys for personal representatives; making various other changes relating to the administration of estates of deceased persons; revising provisions governing declaratory relief for certain probate matters; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

~~[Section 1 of this bill provides that, unless a will expressly provides otherwise, the adoption of an adult person by someone other than the testator~~

~~of the will must be disregarded for purposes of identifying the devisees, who are the persons designated in the will to receive a disposition of real or personal property. Section 4 of this bill sets forth a similar provision with regard to the heirs of a person who died without a will. Section 34 of this bill sets forth a similar provision with regard to the beneficiaries of a trust that is established in a will or in a trust instrument.~~]

Existing law provides, with certain exceptions, that a will is revoked as to a person's spouse if the person married the spouse after making a will and the spouse survives him. Section 2 of this bill additionally provides that the will is not revoked if the spouse is provided for by a transfer of property outside of the will under certain circumstances. (NRS 133.110) Further, section 2 provides that if a will is revoked as to a spouse, the spouse is entitled to the same share of the property as if the person who made the will had died intestate, meaning without a will. Section 3 of this bill amends the law in a similar manner as section 2 with regard to a child who is born after his parent made a will that does not provide for the child. (NRS 133.160)

Existing law provides that if a person dies without a will and he leaves no issue, meaning children, grandchildren or more remote lineal descendents, surviving spouse, father or mother, the person's estate must be distributed in equal shares to his brothers and sisters and to the children of his deceased brother or sister in equal shares per person. Section 5 of this bill provides that under such circumstances, the person's brothers and sisters each receive a share and the lawful issue of any deceased brother or sister receive shares by right of representation, which means the lawful issue receive the same share their parents would have received. (NRS 134.060)

Section 8 of this bill generally provides for the enforcement of a no-contest clause in a will with certain exceptions, including that a devisee's share will not be reduced or eliminated if the devisee institutes legal action to invalidate a will in good faith and based on probable cause. Section 35 of this bill amends the law in a similar manner as section 8 with regard to a no-contest clause in a trust.

Existing law sets forth the qualifications for an executor of an estate, which include that a person must not have been convicted of a felony relating to the position of an executor. Section 9 of this bill gives the court discretion to determine whether a conviction for a felony should disqualify the person from serving in the position of an executor. (NRS 138.020) Existing law sets forth the qualifications for appointment as an administrator of an estate, which include that a person must not have been convicted of a felony relating to the position of an administrator. Section 10 of this bill: (1) amends the law in a similar manner as section 9 with regard to the qualifications for an administrator; and (2) revises the circumstances in which a person who is not a resident of Nevada may be qualified to serve as an administrator and in which a banking corporation not authorized to do business in Nevada may be qualified to serve as an administrator. (NRS 139.010) Existing law provides for the appointment by the court of a special administrator to collect and take charge of the estate of a decedent. Section 13 of this bill amends existing law to require a court to appoint as special administrators of an estate only those persons who satisfy the qualifications for appointment as an administrator of an estate. (NRS 140.020)

~~[Section]~~ Sections 15-18 of this bill revise certain provisions regarding the support of a decedent's family to authorize the court to make certain decisions if it is deemed advisable considering the family's needs and resources. (NRS 146.010, 146.020, 146.030, 146.050)

Existing law provides for compensation of an attorney for a personal representative. (NRS 150.060) Sections 21-24 and 27 of this bill provide for compensation of such an attorney based upon, among other things, an hourly basis, the value of the estate and a contingency fee basis. Section 21 also provides for compensation of such an attorney for extraordinary services and defines the term "extraordinary services" for that purpose.

Sections 30 and 31 of this bill provide that certain persons may seek declaratory relief under chapter 30 of NRS regarding a will, trust or certain other probate matters, but such proceedings for declaratory relief must only be commenced pursuant to titles 12 and 13 of NRS, as appropriate. (NRS 30.040, 30.060) Section 32 of this bill revises the definition of "community property" as used in various provisions throughout NRS. (NRS 41B.050, 123.220, 132.075)

4. The testimony of each witness must be reduced to writing, signed by the witness and filed, and is admissible in evidence in any contest of the will if the witness has died or permanently moved from the State.

5. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary:

(a) The production of a person's lost or destroyed will, whose primary beneficiary is a nontestamentary trust established by the person and in existence at his death, creates a rebuttable presumption that the will had not been revoked.

(b) If the proponent of a lost or destroyed will makes a prima facie showing that it was more likely than not left unrevoked by the person whose will it is claimed to be before his death, then the will must be admitted to probate in absence of an objection. If such prima facie showing has been made, the court shall accept a copy of such a will as sufficient proof of the terms thereof without requiring further evidence in the absence of any objection.

6. If the will is established, its provisions must be set forth specifically in the order admitting it to probate, or a copy of the will must be attached to the order.

Sec. 8. Chapter 137 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 4, a no-contest clause in a will must be enforced by the court.

2. A no-contest clause must be construed to carry out the testator's intent. Except to the extent the will is vague or ambiguous, extrinsic evidence is not admissible to establish the testator's intent concerning the no-contest clause. The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit such evidence from being admitted for any other purpose authorized by law.

3. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the will, a devisee's share must not be reduced or eliminated if the devisee seeks only to:

(a) Enforce the terms of the will;

(b) Enforce the devisee's legal rights in the probate proceeding; or

(c) Obtain a court ruling with respect to the construction or legal effect of the will.

4. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the will, a devisee's share must not be reduced or eliminated under a no-contest clause because the devisee institutes legal action seeking to invalidate a will if the legal action is instituted in good faith and based on probable cause that would have led a reasonable person, properly informed and advised, to conclude that there was a substantial likelihood that the will was invalid.

5. As used in this section, "no-contest clause" means one or more provisions in a will that express a directive to reduce or eliminate the share allocated to a devisee or to reduce or eliminate the distributions to be made to a devisee if the devisee takes action to frustrate or defeat the testator's intent as expressed in the will.

Sec. 9. NRS 138.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

138.020 1. No person is qualified to serve as an executor who, at the time the will is probated:

(c) Upon proof, is adjudged by the court disqualified to execute the duties of executor by reason of conflict of interest, drunkenness, improvidence or lack of integrity or understanding; or

(d) Is a bank not authorized to do business in the State of Nevada, unless it associates as coexecutor a bank authorized to do business in this State. An out-of-state bank is qualified to appoint a substitute executor, pursuant to NRS 138.045, without forming such an association, but any natural person so appointed must be a resident of this State.

2. If a disqualified person is named as the sole executor in a will, or if all persons so named are disqualified or renounce their right to act, or fail to appear and qualify, letters of administration with the will annexed must issue.

Sec. 10. NRS 139.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

139.010 No person is entitled to letters of administration ~~[who:]~~ if the person:

(b) Is named as personal representative in the will if the will is the subject of a pending petition for probate, and the court in its discretion believes it would be appropriate to make such an appointment; or

5. Is a banking corporation that is not authorized to do business in this State, unless the banking corporation:

(a) Associates as coadministrator a resident of the State of Nevada or a banking corporation authorized to do business in this State; or

(b) Is named as personal representative in the will if the will is the subject of a pending petition for probate, and the court in its discretion believes it would be appropriate to make such an appointment.

Sec. 11. NRS 139.040 is hereby amended to read as follows:

139.040 1. Administration of the intestate estate of a decedent must be granted to one or more of the persons mentioned in this section, and they are respectively entitled to priority for appointment in the following order:

(I) Associates as coadministrator a resident of the State of Nevada or a banking corporation authorized to do business in this State ~~[.]~~ ; or

(II) Is named as personal representative in the will if the will is the subject of a pending petition for probate, and the court in its discretion believes it would be appropriate to make such an appointment.

(b) To nominate a resident of the State of Nevada or a qualified banking corporation for appointment, whether or not the nominator is a resident of the State of Nevada or a qualified banking corporation. The nominee has the same priority as the nominator. That priority is independent of the residence or corporate qualification of the nominator.

3. If any heir who is otherwise entitled to appointment is a minor or an incompetent person for whom a guardian has been appointed, the court may appoint the guardian of the minor or incompetent person as administrator.

Sec. 12. NRS 139.090 is hereby amended to read as follows:

139.090 1. A petition for letters of administration must be in writing, signed by the petitioner or the attorney for the petitioner and filed with the clerk of the court, and must state:

(a) The jurisdictional facts;

(b) The names and addresses of the heirs of the decedent and their relationship to the decedent, so far as known to the petitioner, and the age of any who is a minor;

140.020 1. The appointment of a special administrator may be made at chambers or in open court, and without notice or upon such notice to such interested persons as the court deems reasonable, and must be made by entry upon the minutes of the court or by written order signed and filed, which must specify the powers to be exercised by the special administrator.

2. Upon the filing of the order, and after the person appointed has given bond if fixed by the court, the clerk shall issue special letters of administration, with a copy of the order attached.

3. In making the appointment of a special administrator, the court ~~[may]~~ ***:

(a) Must appoint a person who satisfies the qualifications set forth in NRS 139.010; and

(b) May give preference to the person or persons entitled to letters testamentary or letters of administration, but no appeal may be taken from the appointment.

Sec. 14. NRS 145.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

145.020 All proceedings taken under this chapter, whether or not the decedent left a will, must be originated by a petition for letters testamentary or letters of administration containing:

1. Jurisdictional information;

2. A description of the property of the decedent, including the character and estimated value of the property;

3. The names and residences of the heirs and devisees of the decedent and the age of any who is a minor and the relationship of each heir and devisee to the decedent, so far as known to the petitioner; and

4. A statement ~~[that]~~ indicating whether the person to be appointed as personal representative has ~~[never]~~ been convicted of a felony.

Sec. 15. NRS 146.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

146.010 Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or in NRS 125.510, if a person dies leaving a surviving spouse or a minor child or minor children, the surviving spouse, minor child or minor children are entitled to remain in possession of the homestead and of all the wearing apparel and provisions in the possession of the family, and all the household furniture, and are also entitled to a reasonable provision for their support, to be allowed by the court.

Sec. 16. NRS 146.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

146.020 Upon the filing of the inventory or at any time thereafter during the administration of the estate, the court, on its own motion or upon petition by an interested person, ~~[shall]~~ may, if deemed advisable considering the needs and resources of the surviving spouse, minor child or minor children, set apart for the use of the ~~[family]~~ surviving spouse, minor child or minor children of the decedent all of the personal property which is exempt by law from execution, and shall , in accordance with NRS 146.050, set apart the homestead, as designated by the general homestead law then in force, whether the homestead has theretofore previously been selected as required by law or not, and the property thus set apart is not subject to administration.

Sec. 17. NRS 146.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:

146.030 1. If the whole property exempt by law is set apart and is not sufficient for the support of the surviving spouse, minor child or minor children, the court ~~[shall]~~ may, if deemed advisable considering the needs and resources of the surviving spouse, minor child or minor children, make such reasonable allowance out of the estate as is necessary for the maintenance of the family according to their circumstances during the progress of the administration of the estate, which, in case of an insolvent estate, may not be longer than 1 year after granting letters of administration.

2. If the surviving spouse or any minor child has a reasonable maintenance derived from other property, and there are other persons entitled to a family allowance, the allowance must be granted only to those who do not have such maintenance, or the allowance may be apportioned in such manner as may be just.

Sec. 18. NRS 146.050 is hereby amended to read as follows:

146.050 1. If the homestead was selected by the spouses, or either of them, during their marriage, and recorded while both were living, as provided in chapter 115 of NRS, it vests, on the death of either spouse, absolutely in the survivor, unless vesting is otherwise required pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 115.060.

2. If no homestead was so selected, a homestead may be set apart by the court to the ~~[family]~~ surviving spouse, minor child or minor children of the decedent for a limited period if deemed advisable considering the needs and resources of the family and the nature, character and obligations of the estate. The duration of the homestead must be designated in the order setting it apart and may not extend beyond the lifetime of the surviving spouse or the minority of any child of the decedent, whichever is longer. A homestead so set apart then vests, subject to the setting apart:

(a) If set apart from the separate property of the decedent, in the heirs or devisees of the decedent.

(b) If set apart from community property, one-half in the surviving spouse and one-half in the devisees of the decedent, or if no disposition is made, then entirely in the surviving spouse.

3. In either case referred to in subsection 1 or 2, the homestead is not subject to the payment of any debt or liability existing against the spouses, or either of them, at the time of death of either, unless the debt or liability is secured by a mortgage or lien.

Sec. 19. NRS 148.120 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2. The federal generation-skipping transfer tax must be borne on a pro rata basis by those persons receiving the transfers that triggered the tax in the proportion that the value of the property, interest or benefit of each such person bears to the total value of the property subject to the federal generation-skipping transfer tax.

(a) "No-contest clause" means one or more provisions in a trust that express a directive to reduce or eliminate the share allocated to a beneficiary or to reduce or eliminate the distributions to be made to a beneficiary if the beneficiary takes action to frustrate or defeat the settlor's intent as expressed in the trust or in a trust-related instrument.

(b) "Trust" means the original trust instrument and each amendment made pursuant to the terms of the original trust instrument.

(c) "Trust-related instrument" means any document purporting to transfer property to or from the trust or any document made pursuant to the terms of the trust purporting to direct the distribution of trust assets or to affect the management of trust assets, including, without limitation, documents that attempt to exercise a power of appointment.

Senate Bill No. 312.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 800.

AN ACT relating to motor vehicles; revising provisions governing the verification of motor vehicle liability insurance policies by the Department of Motor Vehicles; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires every owner of a motor vehicle which is registered or required to be registered in this State to continuously provide insurance for the payment of tort liabilities arising from the maintenance or use of the motor vehicle. (NRS 485.185) Existing law also requires the Department of Motor Vehicles to create a system to verify that owners of motor vehicles, other than golf carts and larger motortrucks, truck tractors and buses, maintain the required liability insurance. (NRS 485.130, 485.313) Section 4 of this bill adds provisions: (1) requiring the Department to work in cooperation with insurers to develop the system; (2) requiring that the verification be conducted through the secure transmission and receipt of information necessary to verify that owners of motor vehicles maintain the required liability insurance; (3) authorizing the Department to contract with any person to provide services relating to the system; ~~[and]~~ (4) requiring the Director of the Department to adopt certain regulations; and (5) making the system applicable to certain vehicles that are part of a fleet and all motortrucks, truck tractors and buses.

If the Department determines that a motor vehicle is not covered by a policy of liability insurance, existing law requires the Department to send a form for verification of liability insurance to the owner of the vehicle. Section 7 of this bill amends the provisions relating to the Department's process for verifying whether the owner of the vehicle maintains liability insurance. (NRS 485.317)

Existing law provides that an owner of certain motor vehicles who provides proof of liability insurance provided by an insurance company that is not approved to do business in this State may register the motor vehicle and have 7 calendar days to provide proof of liability by an insurance company that is licensed and approved to do business in this State. (NRS 482.215) Section 2 of this bill removes the provision allowing an owner 7 calendar days to provide proof of liability insurance by an insurance company that is licensed and approved to do business in this State. Existing law further provides that the owner of a fleet of motor vehicles and certain other motor vehicles must provide evidence of liability insurance on a form that is satisfactory to the Department. (NRS 482.215) Section 2 specifies that such liability insurance must be provided by an insurance company licensed and approved to do business in this State. Section 5 of this bill deletes provisions of existing law that prescribe the specific form and content of the records of motor vehicle liability policies which insurers must provide to the Department. (NRS 485.314)

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 729.

AN ACT relating to guardianship; providing that a court may sanction certain persons who are vexatious litigants; requiring a guardian to maintain certain records for certain periods of time; adopting in part the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act; revising certain notice requirements for guardianship proceedings; revising certain procedural requirements for the appointment of a guardian; revising the authority of certain guardians in certain circumstances; making various other changes relating to guardianships; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law sets forth the procedures for the appointment of a guardian for a ward, the powers and duties of a guardian and the termination of a guardianship. (Chapter 159 of NRS) This bill: (1) amends various provisions relating to a guardianship; and (2) adopts, in part, the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act promulgated by the Uniform Law Commission.

Section 4 of this bill provides that a court may determine that a petitioner is a vexatious litigant if the petitioner files a petition that is without merit more than once, and may impose sanctions against the petitioner.

Section 5 of this bill requires a guardian to keep records related to the guardianship, including financial records, for a period of 7 years.

Section 6 of this bill provides that if a ward resides with a care provider which is an institution or facility, the care provider shall furnish itemized accountings of all financial activity pertaining to the ward on a quarterly basis and as requested by the guardian.

Sections 7-20 of this bill adopt in part the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act, which was promulgated by the Uniform Law Commission in 2007. According to the Uniform Law Commission, because of increasing population mobility, cases involving simultaneous and conflicting jurisdiction over guardianship are increasing, and even when all parties agree, steps such as transferring a guardianship to another state can require that the parties start over anew in the second state. Obtaining recognition of a guardian's authority in another state in order to sell property or to arrange for a residential placement is often impossible. The Uniform Act is intended to address those problems concerning jurisdictional issues. The Uniform Act contains five articles, which are incorporated into sections 7-20 and which address the following topics: (1) Article 1 contains definitions and provisions designed to facilitate cooperation between courts in different states; (2) Article 2 specifies which court has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian, with the objective being to locate jurisdiction in one, and only one, state except in cases of emergency or in situations where an individual owns property located in multiple states; (3) Article 3 specifies a procedure for transferring proceedings from one state to another; (4) Article 4 addresses enforcement of orders in other states; and (5) Article 5 contains boilerplate provisions common to all uniform acts. However, sections 7-20 do not contain, or revise, certain provisions of the Uniform Act.

Sections 25 and 42 of this bill revise the provisions relating to the persons who must receive notice of a guardianship petition. (NRS 159.034, 159.115) Section 29 of this bill revises the information contained in a notice for petition for guardianship to include certain findings about the ward's competence. (NRS 159.044) Sections 26-28 and 30 of this bill amend certain provisions concerning venue and jurisdiction for guardianship proceedings. (NRS 159.037, 159.039, 159.041, 159.0487) Sections 32-34 of this bill revise the requirements concerning the supporting documentation necessary for certain petitions. (NRS 159.052, 159.0523, 159.0525) Sections 37-41 and 43 of this bill revise the authority of a guardian to manage the estate and affairs of a ward. (NRS 159.0755, 159.076, 159.079, 159.0895, 159.113, 159.117) Sections 44-52 of this bill revise certain provisions concerning the sale of property of a ward. (NRS 159.123, 159.134, 159.1425, 159.1435, 159.144, 159.1455, ~~[~~159.1515,~~]~~ 159.1535, 159.154)

~~[~~ ~~Sections 53 and 54 of this bill exempt certain guardians from service as a juror. (NRS 6.020)~~]

Section 55 of this bill exempts certain guardianship property from a presumption of abandonment for the purposes of the statutory provisions relating to unclaimed property. (NRS 120A.500)

Section 57 of this bill revises the provisions relating to possession of the assets held by a guardian of a decedent. (NRS 143.030)

Section 58 of this bill revises the provisions governing responsibility for the repayment of certain expenses of a ward paid for by a county. (NRS 428.070)

Sections 61-64 of this bill revise provisions concerning the release of a ward who was involuntarily committed to provide that: (1) the facility must notify the guardian before the ward is released; (2) the guardian has discretion to determine where to release the ward; and (3) if the guardian does not determine where to release the ward within a certain period, the facility will release the ward according to its own plan. (NRS 433A.220, 433A.380-433A.400)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

2. If a court finds a person is a vexatious litigant pursuant to subsection 1, the court may impose sanctions on the petitioner in an amount sufficient to reimburse the estate of the ward for all or part of the expenses incurred by the estate of the ward to defend the petition, to respond to the petition and for any other pecuniary losses which are associated with the petition.

Sec. 5. A guardian shall maintain all records and documents for each ward whom the guardian has authority over for a period of not less than 7 years after the court terminates the guardianship and shall maintain all financial records related to the guardianship for a period of not less than 7 years after the date of the last financial transaction.

Sec. 6. If a ward resides with a care provider that is an institution or facility, the care provider shall furnish to the guardian an itemized accounting of all financial activity pertaining to the ward:

1. On a quarterly basis; and

2. At any other time, upon the request of the guardian.

Sec. 7. Sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act may be cited as the Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act.

Sec. 8. A court of this State may treat a foreign country as if it were a state for the purpose of applying sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 9. 1. A court of this State may communicate with a court of another state concerning a proceeding arising under sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act. The court may allow the parties to participate in the communication. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, the court shall make a record of the communication. The record may be limited to the fact that the communication occurred.

2. Courts may communicate concerning schedules, calendars, court records and other administrative matters without making a record.

Sec. 10. 1. In a guardianship proceeding in this State, a court of this State may request the appropriate court of another state to do any of the following:

(c) Order that an evaluation or assessment be made of the ward;

(d) Order any appropriate investigation of a person involved in a proceeding;

(g) Issue an order authorizing the release of medical, financial, criminal or other relevant information in that state relating to the ward or proposed ward, including protected health information as defined in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103.

2. If a court of another state in which a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending requests assistance of the kind provided in subsection 1, a court of this State has jurisdiction for the limited purpose of granting the request or making reasonable efforts to comply with the request.

Sec. 11. 1. In a guardianship proceeding, in addition to other procedures that may be available, testimony of a witness who is located in another state may be offered by deposition or other means allowable in this State for testimony taken in another state. The court on its own motion may order that the testimony of a witness be taken in another state and may prescribe the manner in which and the terms upon which the testimony is to be taken.

2. In a guardianship proceeding, a court of this State may permit a witness located in another state to be deposed or to testify by telephone or audiovisual or other electronic means. A court of this State shall cooperate with the court of the other state in designating an appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

3. Documentary evidence transmitted from a court of another state to a court of this State by technological means that do not produce an original writing may not be excluded from evidence on an objection based on NRS 52.235.

Sec. 12. 1. A court of this State has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian if:

(a) This State is the proposed ward's home state;

(b) The proposed ward holds property within this State and a court of the proposed ward's home state has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this State is a more appropriate forum;

(c) The proposed ward has a significant connection with this State and a court of the proposed ward's home state has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this State is a more appropriate forum; or

(d) The proposed ward does not have a home state.

2. A court of this State lacking jurisdiction under subsection 1 has special jurisdiction to appoint a temporary guardian for a ward:

(a) To facilitate transfer of the guardianship proceedings from another state pursuant to sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act.

(b) In an emergency if the ward is physically present in this State, and such temporary guardianship will be terminated at the request of a court of the ward's home state before or after the emergency appointment.

3. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a court that has appointed a guardian consistent with sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act has exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the proceedings until it is terminated by the court pursuant to NRS 159.1905 or 159.191.

Sec. 13. 1. A court of this State having jurisdiction to appoint a guardian may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if it determines at any time that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum.

2. If a court of this State declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection 1, it shall either dismiss or stay the proceedings. The court may impose any condition the court considers just and proper, including the condition that a petition for the appointment of a guardian be filed promptly in another state.

3. In determining whether it is an appropriate forum, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including, without limitation:

(a) Any expressed preference of the ward;

(b) Whether abuse, neglect or exploitation of the ward has occurred or is likely to occur and which state could best protect the ward from the abuse, neglect or exploitation;

(c) The length of time the ward was physically present in or was a legal resident of this State or another state;

(d) The distance of the ward from the court in each state;

(e) The financial circumstances of the ward's estate;

(f) The nature and location of the evidence;

(g) The ability of the court in each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the procedures necessary to present evidence;

(h) The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in the proceeding; and

(i) If an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor the conduct of the guardian.

Sec. 14. 1. If at any time a court of this State determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian because of unjustifiable conduct by the guardian or the petitioner, the court may:

(a) Decline to exercise jurisdiction;

(b) Exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning an appropriate remedy to ensure the health, safety and welfare of the ward or the protection of the ward's property or to prevent a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including staying the proceeding until a petition for the appointment of a guardian is filed in a court of another state having jurisdiction; or

(c) Continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:

(1) The extent to which the ward and all persons required to be notified of the proceedings have acquiesced in the exercise of the court's jurisdiction;

(2) Whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court of any other state; and

(3) Whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction under factual circumstance in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standard.

2. If a court of this State determines that it acquired jurisdiction to appoint a guardian because a party seeking to invoke its jurisdiction engaged in unjustifiable conduct, the court may assess against that party necessary and reasonable expenses, including, without limitation, attorney's fees, investigative fees, court costs, communication expenses, witness fees and expenses, and travel expenses.

Sec. 15. Except for a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency, if a petition for the appointment of a guardian is filed in this State and in another state and neither petition has been dismissed or withdrawn, the following rules apply:

1. If the court of this State has jurisdiction under sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act, it may proceed with the case unless a court of another state acquires jurisdiction under provisions similar to sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act before the appointment.

2. If the court of this State does not have jurisdiction under sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act, whether at the time the petition is filed or at any time before the appointment or issuance of the order, the court shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court of the other state. If the court of the other state has jurisdiction, the court of this State shall dismiss the petition unless the court of the other state determines that the court of this State is a more appropriate forum.

Sec. 16. 1. A guardian appointed in this State may petition the court to transfer the jurisdiction of the guardianship to another state. Notice of the petition must be given to the persons that would be entitled to notice of a petition in this State for the appointment of a guardian.

2. The court shall issue an order provisionally granting the petition to transfer a guardianship and shall direct the guardian or other interested party to petition for guardianship in the other state if the court finds that:

(a) The ward is physically present in, or is reasonably expected to move permanently to, the other state;

(b) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has been made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary to the interests of the ward; and

(c) The plans for care and services for the ward in the other state are reasonable and sufficient.

3. The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer and terminating the guardianship upon a petition for termination pursuant to NRS 159.1905 or 159.191 and filing of a provisional order accepting the proceeding from the court to which the proceeding is to be transferred.

Sec. 17. 1. To transfer jurisdiction of a guardianship or conservatorship to this State, the guardian, conservator or other interested party must petition the court of this State for guardianship pursuant to sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act to accept guardianship in this State. The petition must include a certified copy of the other state's provisional order of transfer and proof that the ward is physically present in, or is reasonably expected to move permanently to, this State.

2. The court shall issue a provisional order granting a petition filed under subsection 1, unless:

(a) An objection is made and the objector establishes that transfer of the proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the ward; or

(b) The guardian or petitioner is not qualified for appointment as a guardian in this State pursuant to NRS 159.059.

3. The court shall issue a final order granting guardianship upon filing of a final order issued by the other state terminating proceedings in that state and transferring the proceedings to this State.

4. Not later than 90 days after the issuance of a final order accepting transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall determine whether the guardianship or conservatorship needs to be modified to conform to the laws of this State.

5. In granting a petition under this section, the court shall recognize a guardianship or conservatorship order from the other state, including the determination of the ward's incapacity and the appointment of the guardian or conservator.

Sec. 18. If a guardian has been appointed in another state and a petition for the appointment of a guardian is not pending in this State, the guardian appointed in the other state, after giving notice to the appointing court of an intent to register and the reason for registration, may register the guardianship order in this State by filing as a foreign judgment in a court, in any appropriate county of this State:

1. Certified copies of the order and letters of office; and

2. A copy of the guardian's driver's license, passport or other valid photo identification card in a sealed envelope.

Sec. 19. 1. Upon registration of a guardianship, the guardian may exercise in this State all powers authorized in the order of appointment except as prohibited under the laws of this State, including maintaining actions and proceedings in this State and, if the guardian is not a resident of this State, subject to any conditions imposed upon nonresident parties.

2. A court of this State may grant any relief available under sections 7 to 20, inclusive, of this act and other law of this State to enforce a registered order.

(c) Any stock or other equity interest in a business association or financial organization, including a security entitlement under NRS 104.8101 to 104.8511, inclusive, 3 years after the earlier of the date of the most recent dividend, stock split or other distribution unclaimed by the apparent owner, or the date of the second mailing of a statement of account or other notification or communication that was returned as undeliverable or after the holder discontinued mailings, notifications or communications to the apparent owner;

(d) Any debt of a business association or financial organization, other than a bearer bond or an original issue discount bond, 3 years after the date of the most recent interest payment unclaimed by the apparent owner;

(e) A demand, savings or time deposit, including a deposit that is automatically renewable, 3 years after the earlier of maturity or the date of the last indication by the owner of interest in the property, but a deposit that is automatically renewable is deemed matured for purposes of this section upon its initial date of maturity, unless the owner has consented to a renewal at or about the time of the renewal and the consent is in writing or is evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the holder;

(f) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 120A.520, any money or credits owed to a customer as a result of a retail business transaction, 3 years after the obligation accrued;

(g) Any amount owed by an insurer on a life or endowment insurance policy or an annuity that has matured or terminated, 3 years after the obligation to pay arose or, in the case of a policy or annuity payable upon proof of death, 3 years after the insured has attained, or would have attained if living, the limiting age under the mortality table on which the reserve is based;

(h) Any property distributable by a business association or financial organization in a course of dissolution, 1 year after the property becomes distributable;

(i) Any property received by a court as proceeds of a class action and not distributed pursuant to the judgment, 1 year after the distribution date;

(j) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 607.170 and 703.375, any property held by a court, government, governmental subdivision, agency or instrumentality, 1 year after the property becomes distributable;

(c) The making of a deposit to or withdrawal from a bank account; and proceeds before the depletion of the cash surrender value of a policy by the application of those provisions.

5. Property is payable or distributable for purposes of this chapter notwithstanding the owner's failure to make demand or present an instrument or document otherwise required to obtain payment.

6. The following property clearly designated as such must not be presumed abandoned because of inactivity or failure to make a demand:

(a) An account or asset managed through a guardianship;

(b) An account blocked at the direction of a court;

(c) A trust account established to address a special need;

(d) A qualified income trust account;

WHEREAS, Advances in information technology enable governmental agencies to make the exchange of information from business to government, from government to business, and across governmental agencies more efficient and effective for all parties; and

WHEREAS, States that make required transactions among businesses and governmental agencies faster, easier and cheaper than other states provide a competitive advantage for businesses under their jurisdiction and thereby encourage economic development within their jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, The State of Nevada should strive to become the national leader for online interaction between business and government; and

WHEREAS, The establishment of a state business portal by the Secretary of State would provide a single, secure portal for the transaction of business and would improve efficiency, eliminate redundancy, streamline the establishment of businesses, improve accountability and enhance economic development in this State; now, therefore,

Amendment No. 825.

AN ACT relating to elections; revising the date of the primary election to the second Tuesday in June of each even-numbered year; revising the provisions governing the registration of voters by mail; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 6 of this bill changes the date of the primary election from the twelfth Tuesday before the general election of each even-numbered year to the second Tuesday in June of each even-numbered year. (NRS 293.175) To provide an example, if the provisions of this bill had been in effect in 2008, the primary election would have been held on June 10, 2008, instead of August 12, 2008.

As a result of changing the date of the primary election, sections 1-5, 7-12 and 14-17 of this bill amend various other dates relating to elections such as the date for filing declarations of candidacy.

~~[Section 13 of this bill provides that no primary election will be held for a particular office if: (1) only one major political party has candidates for that office; and (2) that major political party has not more than twice the number of candidates to be elected to that office. This restriction on holding a primary election for a particular office applies regardless of whether there is a minor political candidate or an independent candidate for that particular office. (NRS 293.260)]~~

Section 16 of this bill changes the date on which a voter's registration or correction of registration information is deemed to be effective to the earlier of the date on which the application is postmarked or received by the county clerk. (NRS 293.5235)

SUMMARY— ~~[Establishes procedures for authorizing the administration of certain medication for children in the custody of certain agencies.]~~ Makes various changes concerning the protection of children. (BDR 38-701)

AN ACT relating to children; ~~[prescribing procedures for authorizing the administration of]~~ making various changes to provisions governing the court-ordered admission of a child to a locked facility; requiring a court to provide a hearing to determine whether to include rights to visitation of siblings in a decree of adoption; requiring the development of policies concerning certain psychotropic medications given to children who are in the custody of agencies which provide child welfare services; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

~~[Existing law sets forth the circumstances under which a child may be removed from the physical custody of his parent or legal guardian and requires agencies which provide child welfare services to carry out certain~~

~~duties relating to the protection of those children. (Chapter 432B of NRS) Section 1 of this bill prescribes procedures for an agency which provides child welfare services to obtain the consent of a parent or guardian of a child in the custody of an agency which provides child welfare services before authorizing the administration of a psychotropic medication to that child. Section 1 also provides that an agency which provides child welfare services may, under certain circumstances, obtain approval of a court of competent jurisdiction if the agency believes that a psychotropic medication must be administered to the child and the parent or legal guardian denies a request for consent.~~

~~Section 2 of this bill requires the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services to review the policies and procedures relating to the prescription and administration of psychotropic medication to children in the custody of agencies which provide child welfare services in this State and to report its findings to the Legislative Committee on Health Care and the mental health consortiums.~~]

Existing law sets forth the procedure for petitioning a court to order the admission of certain children with emotional disturbances to a locked facility for treatment. (NRS 432B.607-432B.6085) Section 2.5 of this bill clarifies that as used in those provisions, "court-ordered admission of a child" includes a child for whom a petition is filed to continue placement after an emergency admission. Section 2.7 of this bill requires each agency which provides child welfare services to establish appropriate policies to ensure that children in the custody of the agency have timely access to clinically appropriate psychotropic medication. Section 11 of this bill requires the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services to adopt consistent policies with respect to access to such medication by children in division facilities.

Section 4 of this bill requires a petition for the court-ordered admission of a child with an emotional disturbance into a locked facility to be filed within 5 days after an emergency admission or the child must be released. (NRS 432B.6075) Section 5 of this bill clarifies that the court proceeding for the court-ordered admission of a child who is alleged to be a child with an emotional disturbance must include an evidentiary hearing. (NRS 432B.6076) Section 6 of this bill expands the manner in which a person is allowed to oppose a petition for the court-ordered admission of a child into a locked facility to include an opposition stated verbally in court. (NRS 432B.6077) Section 7 of this bill provides that if a court authorizes a second evaluation team to examine a child who is subject to a court-ordered admission to a locked facility, the second examination must be conducted within 5 business days by a team that is not affiliated with, employed by or otherwise connected to the facility where the child has been admitted. (NRS 432B.6078) Section 8 of this bill requires a court to apply the same standards in considering a petition to renew a court-ordered admission of a child as were applied to the original petition. (NRS 432B.608) Section 9 of this bill extends the time for developing a plan for the care, treatment and training of a child subject to a court-ordered admission to a locked facility from 5 to 10 days after the child is admitted to the facility, and removes the requirement that the plan include certain criteria which the child must satisfy before discharge. (NRS 432B.6081)

Section 10 of this bill requires a court to conduct a hearing to determine whether to grant visitation rights to a sibling as part of an adoption decree when the adoption is of a child in the custody of an agency which provides child welfare services. Section 11 further requires the agency which provides child welfare services to provide the court that is conducting the adoption proceedings with a copy of any existing order for visitation with a sibling of the child and allows certain interested parties to petition to participate in the determination as to whether to include visitation rights in the adoption decree.

Section 12 of this bill requires the Legislative Committee on Health Care to study issues relating to the use of psychotropic medications by children in the custody of agencies which provide child welfare services.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 552.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 831.

SUMMARY— ~~[Increases fee charged by State for collecting local sales and use taxes.]~~ Makes various changes regarding certain tax collection allowances and the payment of certain taxes to the State. (BDR 32-1188)

AN ACT relating to taxation; increasing the fee charged by the State for collecting certain local sales and use taxes; establishing the required time for payment to the State of certain proceeds from taxes on revenue from the rental of transient lodging; making permanent a temporary reduction in various allowances for the collection of sales and use taxes and taxes on intoxicating liquor, cigarettes and other tobacco products; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the State Controller to transfer ~~[.75]~~ 0.75 percent of ~~[all]~~ certain local sales and use taxes collected during the preceding month in each county and from out-of-state businesses to the appropriate account in the State General Fund as compensation to the State for the costs of collecting these taxes. (NRS 374.785) This bill increases the compensation rate for local sales and use taxes, other than the Local School Support Tax, to 1.75 percent.

Existing law provides that the collection allowance applicable to taxes on intoxicating liquor, cigarettes and other products made from tobacco, and sales and use taxes will increase from 0.25 percent to 0.5 percent on July 1, 2009. (Chapter 4, Statutes of Nevada 2008, 25th Special Session, pp. 18-20 and 23) Section 18 of this bill repeals the provision effecting this change, thereby maintaining the collection allowance at the rate of 0.25 percent.

Existing law requires the imposition of certain taxes on revenue from the rental of transient lodging in each county and incorporated city in this State, and the payment of all or part of the proceeds of those taxes to the State. (§§ 3, 4 and 6 of I.P. 1; NRS 244.3352, 244.3354, 268.096, 268.0962) Sections 4 and 17 of this bill require the payment of those proceeds to the State on or before the last day of the month immediately following the month for which those proceeds are collected.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. ~~[NRS 374.785 is hereby amended to read as follows:~~

~~(c) Determine for each county the amount of money equal to the fees, taxes, interest and penalties collected in the county pursuant to this chapter during the preceding month less the amount transferred pursuant to paragraph (a).~~

~~(d) Transfer the total amount of taxes collected pursuant to this chapter during the preceding month from out-of-state businesses not maintaining a fixed place of business within this State, less the amount transferred pursuant to paragraph (b) and excluding any amounts required to be remitted pursuant to NRS 360.850 and 360.855, to the State Distributive School Account in the State General Fund.~~

2. If any property within the boundaries of an improvement district for which any money is pledged pursuant to this section is also included within the boundaries of any other improvement district for which any money is pledged pursuant to this section or any tourism improvement district for which any money is pledged pursuant to NRS 271A.070, the total amount of money pledged pursuant to this section and NRS 271A.070 with respect to

Amendment No. 808.

AN ACT relating to mortgage lending; establishing provisions for the implementation of the federal Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008; increasing certain administrative fines; ~~[establishing a recovery fund for persons defrauded by mortgage brokers, mortgage agents, residential mortgage loan originators or mortgage bankers;]~~ providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill implements the federal Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008. Sections ~~[2-18 and 76-80]~~ 1.5-18, 21, 23, 24, 50.1-50.7 and 55-85 of this bill establish provisions for the licensing and registration with the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry of residential mortgage loan originators, in compliance with federal law.

Section ~~[58]~~ 55 of this bill also increases the administrative fine the Commissioner of Mortgage Lending may impose upon an applicant for or a holder of a license as a mortgage broker, mortgage agent or residential mortgage loan originator for certain violations from $10,000 to $25,000 for each violation. (NRS 645B.670)

Section 85.5 of this bill repeals provisions for the licensing of certain persons on behalf of a corporation or limited-liability company as mortgage agents. (NRS 645B.455)

~~[Sections 65-75 of this bill establish the Mortgage Education, Research and Recovery Fund for persons defrauded by mortgage brokers, mortgage agents, residential mortgage loan originators or mortgage bankers. The provisions of this bill are patterned closely after the provisions in chapter 645 of NRS which establish a recovery fund for persons defrauded by real estate brokers. (NRS 645.841-645.8494) Section 66 creates the Fund. Section 67 provides for funding for the Fund. Sections 68-70 and 72-74 provide for administration of the Fund and payment of claims against the Fund. Section 71 requires the license of a licensee to be automatically suspended until he repays to the Fund any amount paid from the Fund to settle a claim against that licensee. Section 75 provides that this bill does not limit the authority of the Division of Mortgage Lending of the Department of Business and Industry to take disciplinary action against a licensee.]~~

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblywoman Buckley requested that the following proclamation be entered in the Journal.

PROCLAMATION OF THE NEVADA STATE ASSEMBLY

WHEREAS, In Nevada, some individuals experience personal struggles that involve issues of substance abuse that lead to encounters with the judicial system requiring the expertise of specialty court programs, such as drug courts, to provide the guidance necessary for participants to succeed in reorganizing their lives; and

WHEREAS, Since the first drug court was created in Miami, Florida, in 1989, over 2,300 drug courts have been established across the United States with a mission to restore lives, reunite families, and make communities safer by reducing drug usage and crime; and

WHEREAS, In 1992, Nevada's judicial system and Judge Jack Lehman established the State's first drug court program in Clark County, the fifth drug court in the nation, to provide eligible nonviolent substance abusing offenders an alternative to incarceration, and Judge Peter I. Breen soon thereafter established a drug court in Washoe County in 1995; and

WHEREAS, With the success of the initial programs, drug courts now serve all regions of Nevada, helping participants become productive members of society by providing judicial supervision, case management, supervised drug treatment, and mandatory drug testing while holding participants accountable for their behavior; and

WHEREAS, Success of the treatment program is measured by completing the program and by reducing prison populations, decreasing recidivism rates, giving individuals confidence in making positive decisions to change their lives, and giving babies a chance to be born drug-free; and

WHEREAS, Over the last three biennia, Nevada's specialty court programs, including drug courts, graduated 4,499 participants who could have otherwise been sentenced to prison, and witnessed the birth of 388 drug-free babies which substantially reduced the unanticipated health care costs associated with drug-exposed babies; and

WHEREAS, Life is precious to us all, and during May 2009, Nevada's drug courts recognize the individual struggles that each participant overcomes by celebrating the birth of the 500th drug-free baby in Clark County whose first name, Blessed, represents a personal resolve to begin anew; and

WHEREAS, The successful operation of specialty courts, including drug courts, requires the participation of many professionals, including counselors, program coordinators, correctional officers, and the supervising judges representing the judicial, municipal, and justice courts: Judge Archie E. Blake, Judge John Tatro, Judge Jackie Glass, Judge Andrew J. Puccinelli, Judge David I. Nielsen, Judge Jennifer Elliott, Judge Barbara S. McCarthy, Judge Douglas E. Smith, Judge John S. McGroarty (Retired), Judge Ann E. Zimmerman, Judge Robert W. Lane, Judge William O. Voy, Judge Larry G. Sage (Retired), Judge Cynthia Diane Steele, Judge James Van Winkle, Judge Frank P. Sullivan, Judge Hal Albright, Judge Richard Wagner, Judge Mike Memeo, Judge John M. Iroz (Retired), Judge Kathy A. Hardcastle, Judge Max W. Bunch, Judge Ken Howard, Judge Steven Dobrescu, Judge Cedric A. Kerns, Judge George Assad, Judge Douglas Hedger, Judge Charles McGee (Retired), Judge Tony Abbatangelo, Judge Nancy C. Oesterle, Judge Cynthia S. Leung, and Judge Michael Montero; and

WHEREAS, The State of Nevada especially recognizes Assemblyman Bernie Anderson, whose tireless efforts over the years in the Assembly Committee on Judiciary helped create and fund the specialty court programs that have given a second chance to so many; now, therefore, be it PROCLAIMED, That the State of Nevada acknowledges the 20-year anniversary of establishing drug courts in the nation and recognizes the positive effects of our state's drug courts in helping individuals overcome difficult challenges to living drug-free lives in Nevada during National Drug Court Recognition Month.

DATED this 18th day of May, 2009.

BARBARA E. BUCKLEY
Speaker of the Assembly

Assemblywoman Buckley requested that her remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUCKLEY:

Thank you very much, Majority Leader Oceguera. I am pleased to stand today in support of this proclamation. What an incredible milestone and what a Nevada achievement, to recognize that there is a better way of dealing with drug addiction and a better way to create an opportunity for people to face their addictions and remove themselves from the criminal courts in a positive manner. Drug courts save the state money, but more importantly, they save people's lives. It is such an incredible milestone to reach 20 years in Nevada's drug court experience and to have our drug courts be a model for the rest of the nation. They serve as a way to show that you can do things better if you take the time to reinvent them and to study them.

I am so pleased to have with me today some of the architects of our Nevada effort. With me is Judge Breen, who I will ask to stand and be recognized. Also here are our justices of the Nevada Supreme Court: Chief Justice Jim Hardesty, Justice Mark Gibbons, Justice Mike Cherry, and Justice Nancy Saitta. I also am very pleased to have with me Deanna Ford and her baby, Blessed, who is the 500th drug-free baby born in Clark County. I am also very pleased to have here Darlene Dufault, with the Choices program, one of our many partners in the drug court program. And, of course, we have our own chairman of the Judiciary Committee, who will please rise.

Please join me in thanking these individuals for all the efforts they have made, along with their colleagues, to change the face of Nevada when it comes to the drug courts and dealing with drugs. We thank you. We appreciate you. You are a tribute to Nevada.

THE ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Tuesday), May 19, 2009

Assembly called to order at 11:34 a.m.

Madam Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblywoman Kirkpatrick, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Rabbi Jonathan Freirich.

Thank you again for the honor of providing some opening words today. I hope my words will continue to be interesting and brief—since all of you are standing. Yesterday, I mentioned the two major Jewish holidays of this season—Passover in April and Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks, soon to come at the end of May. Many of you know all about Passover already, the Jewish celebration of freedom through the commemoration of the story of the Exodus from Egypt. In the Hebrews scriptures, Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks, celebrates the successful winter harvest—as Judaism evolved through the centuries, the ancient rabbis connected the celebration of Shavuot with the Israelites receiving the Five Books of Moses at Mount Sinai.

Jewish people have traditionally connected the freedom from slavery with the acceptance of responsibility at Mount Sinai. In other words, freedom does not grant us freedom to do whatever we want, but instead the freedom to enter into responsible relationships with individuals, communities, and our concept of the mystery of the universe.

Let us all remember that freedom and responsibility always depend upon each other. Our freedom to do what we want depends on us acting responsibly to each other and to our local and national communities.

We can now say,

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Conklin moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

5. As used in this section:

(a) "Prepaid or stored value card" means any instrument or device used to access funds or monetary value represented in digital electronic format, whether or not specially encrypted, and stored or capable of storage on electronic media in such a way as to be retrievable and transferable electronically.

(b) "Proceeds" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 179.1161.

~~2. A governmental entity may require a provider of remote computing service to disclose the contents of any wire or electronic communication to which this subsection applies:~~

~~(b) With prior notice to the subscriber or customer from the governmental entity:~~

~~(1) By serving a subpoena; or~~

~~(2) By obtaining a court order for such disclosure pursuant to subsection 7, except that delayed notice may be given pursuant to subsection 11.~~

~~3. Subsection 2 applies with respect to any wire or electronic communication that is held or maintained on that remote computing service:~~

~~11. The notice to a subscriber or customer required by this section may be delayed for a period not to exceed 90 days under any of the following circumstances:~~

~~(b) If the investigator or prosecuting attorney proceeding by subpoena executes a written certification that there is reason to believe that notice to the subscriber or party may result in danger to the safety of any person, flight from prosecution, tampering with evidence, intimidation of witnesses or jeopardizing an investigation. A true copy of the certification must be retained with the subpoena.~~

~~→ If further delay of notification is necessary, an extension not to exceed 90 days may be obtained by application to the court.~~

~~12. No cause of action may lie in any court against any provider of wire or electronic communication service or remote computing service, its officers, employees, agents or other specified persons for providing information, facilities or assistance in accordance with the terms of a court order, search warrant, subpoena or other process pursuant to this section.~~

Under existing law, the Secretary of State is authorized to appoint notaries public in this State. (NRS 240.010) Sections 3-26 of this bill enact the Electronic Notary Public Authorization Act, which authorizes the Secretary of State to appoint electronic notaries public who will be authorized to notarize electronic documents.

Sections 2 and 5-10 of this bill set forth various definitions relating to electronic notarization. Section 12 of this bill requires that a person seeking appointment as an electronic notary public already be a notary public in Nevada and successfully complete a course of study on electronic notarization, enter into a bond, pay an application fee and take an oath as a public officer. Section 14 of this bill provides that the initial term of appointment for an electronic notary public is 2 years and any subsequent term of appointment is 4 years. Section 16 of this bill states that an electronic notary public may perform the same notarial acts as a notary public except for certifying copies and noting protests of a negotiable instrument, and section 17 of this bill sets forth the fees he may charge. Section 18 of this bill prohibits the electronic notarization of a will, codicil, testamentary trust or any document related to transactions governed by certain sections of the Uniform Commercial Code, as prohibited by the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, codified as chapter 719 of NRS. (NRS 719.200) Section 19 of this bill sets forth the specific requirements that distinguish the notarization of an electronic document from a nonelectronic notarization, including the use of an electronic signature and an electronic seal. Sections 21 and 22 of this bill provide that an electronic notary public must safeguard his electronic signature and any software or device used in producing that signature. Section 23 of this bill makes it a gross misdemeanor to: (1) wrongfully make or distribute software or hardware for the purpose of allowing a person to act as an electronic notary public without being appointed; or (2) wrongfully obtain, conceal, damage or destroy the software or hardware used by an electronic notary public. Section 25 of this bill authorizes the Secretary of State to promulgate regulations to carry out the provisions of the Electronic Notary Public Authorization Act. Section 26 of this bill provides that all the laws which apply to regular notaries public apply to electronic notaries public unless a provision of the Electronic Notary Public Authorization Act conflicts, in which case the latter controls.

Existing law prohibits a person who has been convicted of a crime of moral turpitude or a person who does not possess his civil rights from being appointed as a notary public. (NRS 240.010, 240.015) Section 29 of this bill authorizes the Secretary of State to appoint as a notary public a person who was convicted of ~~[a crime of moral turpitude]~~ certain crimes if: (1) more than 10 years have passed since the end of his sentence, parole or probation; (2) he has made restitution, if applicable; ~~[and]~~ (3) he has had his civil rights restored ~~[.]~~ ; and (4) the crime for which he was convicted was not one of an enumerated list of crimes involving dishonesty or identity theft.

Existing law allows a resident of an adjoining state to be appointed as a notary public in Nevada if he maintains or works for a business in Nevada. (NRS 240.015) Sections 30-32 of this bill amend the requirements for a nonresident notary public to further require a copy of a state business license and any other business license required by a local government where the business is located as proof of employment or self-employment in Nevada when applying for an appointment or the renewal of an appointment as a nonresident notary public.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Elections, Procedures, Ethics, and Constitutional Amendments:

Amendment No. 675.

SUMMARY—Makes various changes relating to ~~[comport with the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity.]~~ public officers and employees. (BDR 3-1164)

AN ACT relating to ~~[the Legislative Department of State Government;]~~ government; implementing the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity by codifying in statutory form the constitutional right of State Legislators to be protected from having to defend themselves, from being held liable and from being questioned or sanctioned in administrative or judicial proceedings for speech, debate, deliberation and other actions performed within the sphere of legitimate legislative activity; confirming that the constitutional doctrine of legislative privilege and immunity provides a testimonial privilege and an evidentiary privilege; revising provisions of the Nevada Ethics in Government Law and other provisions relating to ethics in government; making various statutory changes to comport with the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity [,] and with the constitutional provisions governing impeachment, expulsion and removal from office; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Section 1 of this bill provides that for any speech or debate in either House of the Legislature, a member of the Senate or Assembly shall not be questioned in any other place. The purpose and effect of section 1 is to implement the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity by codifying in statutory form the constitutional right of State Legislators to be protected from having to defend themselves, from being held liable and from being questioned or sanctioned in administrative or judicial proceedings for speech, debate, deliberation and other actions performed within the sphere of legitimate legislative activity.

Under case law, the constitutional doctrine of legislative privilege and immunity provides a testimonial privilege and an evidentiary privilege which protect a Legislator from having to testify or disclose documents in administrative or judicial proceedings when such acts would intrude upon, interfere with or pry into the legislative process. (Gravel v. United States, 408 U.S. 606, 92 S.Ct. 2614 (1972); United States v. Rayburn House Office Bldg., 497 F.3d 654 (D.C. Cir. 2007)). Section 2 of this bill amends the Nevada statute governing testimonial and evidentiary privileges to confirm that the constitutional doctrine of legislative privilege and immunity provides a testimonial privilege and an evidentiary privilege. (NRS 49.015)

Sections [3-9] 6, 7.4 and 9 of this bill amend provisions of the Nevada Ethics in Government Law (Ethics Law) to make those provisions comport with the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity. (Chapter 281A of NRS) In particular, section 9 amends NRS 281A.420 to clarify that the responsibility of a State Legislator to make disclosures concerning gifts, loans, interests or commitments and the responsibility of a State Legislator to abstain from voting upon or advocating the passage or failure of a matter are governed by the Standing Rules of the Legislative Department of State Government. However, other provisions of the [Nevada Ethics in Government] Ethics Law remain applicable to State Legislators so that, for example, State Legislators will continue to be required to file the same financial disclosure forms as other public officers and the provisions prohibiting misuse of office that are applicable to other public officers will continue to apply to State Legislators~~.~~ , with regard to conduct that falls outside the scope of legitimate legislative activity. Section 9 also clarifies that the provisions of NRS 281A.420 concerning disclosure, voting and abstention do not apply to State Legislators or allow the Commission on Ethics to exercise jurisdiction or authority over State Legislators with regard to disclosure, voting and abstention.

On December 22, 2008, the First Judicial District Court in and for Carson City held that the Commission on Ethics could not apply the provisions of NRS 281A.420 concerning disclosure, voting and abstention to State Legislators because under the constitutional doctrines of separation of powers and legislative privilege and immunity, the Legislator's own House is the only governmental entity that may sanction the Legislator for performing legislative actions, like voting, that fall within the sphere of legitimate legislative activity and are an essential part of the legislative function. (Warren B. Hardy II v. Commission on Ethics, Nev. First Jud. Dist. Ct. Case No. 08 OC 00381 1B (Dec. 22, 2008))
