Assembly Bill No. 50.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 532.

AN ACT relating to solicitation of contributions; requiring certain charitable organizations to register with the Secretary of State before soliciting charitable contributions in this State; requiring the Secretary of State to provide to the public certain information concerning such registered charitable organizations; revising provisions governing the enforcement of certain requirements imposed on certain nonprofit and charitable organizations; revising provisions governing the disclosure of certain information in a solicitation for contributions for or on behalf of a nonprofit or charitable organization; authorizing the imposition of penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law governs the solicitation of charitable contributions within the State by nonprofit corporations. (NRS 82.382-82.417) Section 27 of this bill repeals those provisions of existing law. Sections 2-22 of this bill reenact and revise those repealed sections to provide governance of the solicitation of charitable and other contributions by all charitable organizations and nonprofit organizations in this State.

Section 14 requires every charitable organization that intends to solicit tax-deductible charitable contributions in this State, other than certain types of charitable organizations exempted by section 15, to register with the Secretary of State by filing certain information and a financial report with the Secretary of State before the charitable organization first solicits a charitable contribution in this State or has a charitable contribution solicited in this State on its behalf by another person and annually thereafter. In certain circumstances, section 14 authorizes a charitable organization to submit a copy of its Form 990 as filed with the Internal Revenue Service for the most recent fiscal year as its financial report. Section 18 requires the Secretary of State to make available the information and financial report on the Secretary of State's Internet website.

Section 19 provides that if a charitable organization fails to file the information and financial report as required for registration on or before the due date, the Secretary of State will impose a $50 penalty and notify the organization. If the charitable organization fails to file the information and financial report and pay the penalty within 90 days after receiving notice, section 19 further authorizes the Secretary of State to impose a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 and issue a cease and desist order prohibiting any further solicitation of contributions by the organization. If the charitable organization fails to pay the penalty or comply with the cease and desist order, section 19 authorizes the Secretary of State to: (1) forfeit the right of the charitable organization to transact business in this State; and (2) refer the matter to the Attorney General for a determination of whether to institute the appropriate proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 20 requires the Secretary of State to provide written notice to a person who is alleged to have violated certain provisions of law governing the solicitation of charitable contributions if the Secretary of State believes such a violation has occurred. Section 20 further authorizes the Secretary of State to refer a violation of certain provisions of law governing the solicitation of charitable contributions to the Attorney General for a determination of whether to institute the appropriate proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction. Under section 20, in such a proceeding, in addition to any other penalty imposed by law, the Attorney General may seek an injunction or other equitable relief and a civil penalty of not more than $1,000. If the Attorney General prevails in the proceeding, the Attorney General is entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding, including, without limitation, investigation costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Existing law requires a person soliciting a contribution for or on behalf of a charitable organization or nonprofit corporation to make certain disclosures, and provides that under certain circumstances, a failure to make such disclosures is a deceptive trade practice. (NRS 598.1305) Sections 16 and 17 revise the types of charitable and nonprofit organizations to which this requirement applies and exempt certain solicitations from this requirement. Sections 16 and 25 further provide that a failure to make the required disclosures is no longer a deceptive trade practice, and transfer primary jurisdiction for enforcing the disclosure requirement from the Attorney General to the Secretary of State.

The same requirements are imposed upon a justice of the peace in a township whose population is 250,000 or more in a county whose population is less than 700,000 (currently all counties other than Clark County). (NRS 4.010) ~~[~~ ~~]~~ Section 1 of this bill revises these provisions and provides that the requirements apply to a justice of the peace in a township whose population is 100,000 or more in a county whose population is 100,000 or more (currently Clark and Washoe Counties).

Existing law also provides that justice courts have jurisdiction over certain civil actions, including: (1) certain actions in which the amount at issue does not exceed $10,000; and (2) small claims for the recovery of money only in which the amount claimed does not exceed $7,500. (NRS 4.370, 73.010) Sections 2.2 and 2.4 of this bill increase such amounts to $15,000 and $10,000, respectively. Sections 2.6 and 2.8 of this bill make conforming changes.

Existing law requires each justice of the peace to charge and collect certain fees for various civil actions, proceedings and filings in the justice court. For actions and proceedings other than small claims, the amount of the fees charged and collected is based upon the sum claimed in the action or proceeding. (NRS 4.060) Section 1.3 of this bill provides that for the preparation and filing of an affidavit and order in a small claims action, if the sum claimed exceeds $7,500 but does not exceed $10,000, a justice of the peace is required to charge and collect a fee of $175. Section 1.7 of this bill provides that on the commencement of any action or proceeding other than a small claims action, if the sum claimed exceeds $10,000 but does not exceed $15,000, a justice of the peace is required to charge and collect a fee of $250.

Section 5 of this bill provides that the provisions of this bill relating to the qualifications of justices of the peace in certain townships and civil actions in justice court concerning small claims become effective on October 1, 2015. The provisions of this bill relating to civil actions in justice court other than small claims become effective on January 1, 2017.

Assembly Bill No. 146.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Transportation:

Amendment No. 422.

AN ACT relating to air pollution; revising provisions governing the ~~[~~frequency of~~]~~ required inspections of the emissions of certain motor vehicles; ~~[~~increasing fees charged by the Department of Motor Vehicles for certain forms;~~]~~ and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law ~~[~~requires~~]~~ authorizes the State Environmental Commission, in cooperation with the Department of Motor Vehicles ~~[~~and any local air pollution control agency,~~]~~ to adopt regulations ~~[~~for the control of~~]~~ to prescribe standards for emissions from motor vehicles . ~~[~~in areas designated by the Commission. (NRS 445B.770) Existing law also imposes certain limitations on compulsory inspection programs established by the Commission. (NRS 445B.795)~~]~~ (NRS 445B.760)

Section ~~[~~1~~]~~ 2.3 of this bill ~~[~~further limits the authority of~~]~~ requires the Commission ~~[~~by specifying that the regulations adopted by the Commission require: (1) the initial inspection of a new passenger car or new light-duty motor vehicle 4 years after the initial registration of the vehicle; and (2) the subsequent inspection of a passenger car or light-duty motor vehicle not more often than every 2 years.~~]~~ to exempt from those standards any motor vehicle manufactured before 1996.

Existing law requires the Department of Motor Vehicles to charge a fee for the forms distributed to certify emission control compliance in the amount of $6 per form and $150 per set of forms. (NRS 445B.830) Section 2 of this bill raises the fees to $12 per form and $300 per set of forms so that the change in the required frequency of emissions inspections from every year to every other year prescribed by section 1 does not affect the funding of the Pollution Control Account.

However, existing law also requires the Department of Motor Vehicles, for the initial issuance of license plates for certain "Old Timer" antique vehicles, "Street Rods," "Classic Rods" and "Classic Vehicles," to charge an additional fee that is equal in amount to the fee charged for a form distributed to certify emission control compliance ~~[.]~~ if the vehicle for which such a license plate is issued is exempted from emissions testing. (NRS 482.381, 482.3812, 482.3814, 482.3816) ~~[~~To prevent an increase in this additional fee for the initial issuance of these license plates, sections 3-6 of this bill fix this additional fee at the existing amount of $6.~~]~~ Sections 3-6 of this bill remove the requirement for the fee as to vehicles with those certain license plates. Section 2.5 of this bill requires the Department to charge a fee that is equal to the amount of the fee for a form certifying emission control compliance at the initial issuance of license plates for any motor vehicle which is exempt from emissions testing by section 2.3. Section 2.5 also requires that the fees must be accounted for in the Pollution Control Account, to reduce the effect on the Account of the new exemption provided in section 2.3.

Section 6.3 of this bill clarifies that if the owner of a motor vehicle that was registered with "Old Timer," "Street Rod," "Classic Rod" or "Classic Vehicle" plates before July 1, 2015, has already, in connection with that vehicle, paid the special fee that is equal to the amount of the fee for a form certifying emission control compliance, such a person is not required to pay that same fee again for the same vehicle pursuant to section 2.5.

Assemblyman Wheeler moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Wheeler.

ASSEMBLYMAN WHEELER:

Amendment 422 to Assembly Bill 146 removes all of the current provisions in Assembly Bill 146 and replaces it with language exempting vehicles manufactured before 1996 from emission inspections. The amendment requires the Department of Motor Vehicles to charge a fee equal to the amount of the fee for a form certifying emission control compliance at the initial issuance of license plates for any motor vehicle exempt from emissions testing. The amendment also requires that the fees must be accounted for in the Pollution Control Account to reduce the effect on the Account of the new exemption. Finally, the amendment clarifies that if the owner of a motor vehicle that was registered with "Old Timer," "Street Rod," "Classic Rod," or "Classic Vehicle" plates before July 1, 2015, has already, in connection with that vehicle, paid the fee, such a person is not required to pay that same fee again for the same vehicle.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 350.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

350.020 1. A general obligation issued or incurred pursuant to this section must be used only for the stated purpose for which the general obligation was originally issued or incurred and not for any other purpose. Except as otherwise provided by subsections 3 and 4, if a municipality proposes to issue or incur general obligations, the proposal must be submitted to the electors of the municipality at a special election called for that purpose or the next general municipal election or general state election.

2. Such a special election may be held:

(a) At any time, including, without limitation, on the date of a primary municipal election or a primary state election, if the governing body of the municipality determines, by a unanimous vote, that an emergency exists; or

(b) On the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June of an odd-numbered year, ➥ except that the governing body shall not determine that an emergency exists if the special election is for the purpose of submitting to the electors a proposal to refund bonds. The determination made by the governing body is conclusive unless it is shown that the governing body acted with fraud, a gross abuse of discretion or in violation of the provisions of this subsection. An action to challenge the determination made by the governing body must be commenced within 15 days after the governing body's determination is final. As used in this subsection, "emergency" means any occurrence or combination of occurrences which requires immediate action by the governing body of the municipality to prevent or mitigate a substantial financial loss to the municipality or to enable the governing body to provide an essential service to the residents of the municipality.

3. If ~~[Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if]~~ payment of a general obligation of the municipality is additionally secured by a pledge of gross or net revenue of a project to be financed by its issue, and the governing body determines, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the governing body, that the pledged revenue ~~[of the project to be financed]~~ will at least equal the amount required in each year for the payment of interest and principal, without regard to any option reserved by the municipality for early redemption, the municipality may, after a public hearing, incur this general obligation without an election unless, within 90 days after publication of a resolution of intent to issue the bonds, a petition is presented to the governing body signed by not less than 5 percent of the registered voters of the municipality. Any member elected to the governing body whose authority to vote is limited by charter, statute or otherwise may vote on the determination required to be made by the governing body pursuant to this subsection. The determination by the governing body becomes conclusive on the last day for filing the petition. For the purpose of this subsection, the number of registered voters must be determined as of the close of registration for the last preceding general election. The resolution of intent need not be published in full, but the publication must include the amount of the obligation , ~~[~~and~~]~~ the purpose for which it is to be incurred ~~[. and a description of the manner]~~ , the date by which the registered voters of the municipality ~~[may]~~ must file a petition with the governing body to reject the issuance of the obligation ~~[.]~~ , the location at which the petition must be filed with the governing body and the location at which a person may obtain additional information regarding the contents of and filing requirements for the petition. Notice of the public hearing must be published at least ~~[~~10 days before the day of the hearing. The publications must be made~~]~~ three times, once each week for three consecutive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality. The third publication of the notice required by this ~~[section]~~ subsection must be made at least 10 days before the date of the hearing. When published, the notice of the public hearing must be at least as large as 5 inches high by 4 inches wide. ~~[A governing body shall not issue or incur any general obligation in the manner authorized by this subsection in an amount greater than $2,500,000 in a county whose population is less than 100,000, or $5,000,000 in a county whose population is 100,000 or more.]~~

4. The board of trustees of a school district may issue general obligation bonds which are not expected to result in an increase in the existing property tax levy for the payment of bonds of the school district without holding an election for each issuance of the bonds if the qualified electors approve a question submitted by the board of trustees that authorizes issuance of bonds for a period of 10 years after the date of approval by the voters. If the question is approved, the board of trustees of the school district may issue the bonds for a period of 10 years after the date of approval by the voters, after obtaining the approval of the debt management commission in the county in which the school district is located and, in a county whose population is 100,000 or more, the approval of the oversight panel for school facilities established pursuant to NRS 393.092 in that county, if the board of trustees of the school district finds that the existing tax for debt service will at least equal the amount required to pay the principal and interest on the outstanding general obligations of the school district and the general obligations proposed to be issued. The finding made by the board of trustees is conclusive in the absence of fraud or gross abuse of discretion. As used in this subsection, "general obligations" does not include medium-term obligations issued pursuant to NRS 350.087 to 350.095, inclusive.

5. At the time of issuance of bonds authorized pursuant to subsection 4, the board of trustees shall establish a reserve account in its debt service fund for payment of the outstanding bonds of the school district. The reserve account must be established and maintained in an amount at least equal to the lesser of:

(a) For a school district located in a county whose population is 100,000 or more, 25 percent; and

(b) For a school district located in a county whose population is less than 100,000, 50 percent, ➥ of the amount of principal and interest payments due on all of the outstanding bonds of the school district in the next fiscal year or 10 percent of the outstanding principal amount of the outstanding bonds of the school district.

6. If the amount in the reserve account falls below the amount required by subsection 5:

(a) The board of trustees shall not issue additional bonds pursuant to subsection 4 until the reserve account is restored to the level required by subsection 5; and

(b) The board of trustees shall apply all of the taxes levied by the school district for payment of bonds of the school district that are not needed for payment of the principal and interest on bonds of the school district in the current fiscal year to restore the reserve account to the level required pursuant to subsection 5.

7. A question presented to the voters pursuant to subsection 4 may authorize all or a portion of the revenue generated by the debt rate which is in excess of the amount required:

(a) For debt service in the current fiscal year;

(b) For other purposes related to the bonds by the instrument pursuant to which the bonds were issued; and

(c) To maintain the reserve account required pursuant to subsection 5,

➥ to be transferred to the county school district's fund for capital projects established pursuant to NRS 387.328 and used to pay the cost of capital projects which can lawfully be paid from that fund. Any such transfer must not limit the ability of the school district to issue bonds during the period of voter authorization if the findings and approvals required by subsection 4 are obtained.

8. A municipality may issue special or medium-term obligations without an election.

The amendment requires the RTC of Southern Nevada to coordinate with other regional transportation commissions in the state regarding the design, implementation, and funding of the program. Finally, the amendment removes the possibility that the state would have to provide money for the administration of this program.

Assembly Bill No. 178.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Education:

Amendment No. 249.

AN ACT relating to education; removing the requirement for a school to deem a pupil a habitual disciplinary problem under certain circumstances; revising provisions governing the notice provided to a parent or legal guardian concerning a pupil who is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem and the discipline imposed on such a pupil; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a school to suspend or expel a pupil for at least one semester if that pupil is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem under certain circumstances, and requires the pupil to enroll in a private school, a program of independent study or be homeschooled for the period of suspension or expulsion. (NRS 392.466) Existing law further requires a school to notify the parent or legal guardian of a pupil when the pupil is suspended for fighting or commits an act that may cause the pupil to be deemed a habitual disciplinary problem. (NRS 392.4655)

Section 2 of this bill removes the requirement that a pupil who is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem be suspended or expelled for at least one semester and instead authorizes the school to suspend the pupil from school for a period not to exceed one semester if the pupil is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem~~.~~ ~~[.]~~ or expel the pupil from school under extraordinary circumstances. Section 2 further requires that a pupil enroll in a private school, a program of independent study or be homeschooled if the pupil is expelled or for the period of suspension only if the suspension is for one semester. Section 1 of this bill revises the requirements of the written notice that a school must provide to the parent or legal guardian of a pupil relating to the possibility of suspension or expulsion if the pupil is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem. Section 1 also makes the designation of a pupil as a habitual disciplinary problem permissive rather than mandatory when the pupil commits certain acts.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 392.4655 is hereby amended to read as follows:

392.4655 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a principal of a school ~~[~~~~shall~~~~]~~ may deem a pupil enrolled in the school a habitual disciplinary problem if the school has written evidence which documents that in 1 school year:

(a) The pupil has threatened or extorted, or attempted to threaten or extort, another pupil or a teacher or other personnel employed by the school;

(b) The pupil has been suspended for initiating at least two fights on school property, at an activity sponsored by a public school, on a school bus or, if the fight occurs within 1 hour of the beginning or end of a school day, on the pupil's way to or from school; or

(c) The pupil has a record of five suspensions from the school for any reason.

2. At least one teacher of a pupil who is enrolled in elementary school and at least two teachers of a pupil who is enrolled in junior high, middle school or high school may request that the principal of the school deem a pupil a habitual disciplinary problem. Upon such a request, the principal of the school shall meet with each teacher who made the request to review the pupil's record of discipline. If, after the review, the principal of the school determines that the provisions of subsection 1 do not apply to the pupil, a teacher who submitted a request pursuant to this subsection may appeal that determination to the board of trustees of the school district. Upon receipt of such a request, the board of trustees shall review the initial request and determination pursuant to the procedure established by the board of trustees for such matters.

3. If a pupil is suspended for initiating a fight described in paragraph (b) of subsection 1 and the fight is the first such fight that the pupil has initiated during that school year, or if a pupil receives one suspension on the pupil's record, the school in which the pupil is enrolled shall provide written notice to the parent or legal guardian of the pupil that contains:

(a) A description of the acts committed by the pupil and the dates on which those acts were committed;

(b) An explanation that if the pupil is suspended for initiating one additional fight or if the pupil receives five suspensions on his or her record during the current school year, the pupil will be deemed a habitual disciplinary problem;

(c) An explanation that, pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 392.466, a pupil who is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem ~~[must]~~ may be ~~[suspended or expelled]~~ **:

(1) Suspended from school for a period ~~[equal to at least one school semester;]~~ not to exceed one school semester as determined by the seriousness of the acts which were the basis for the discipline; or

(2) Expelled from school under extraordinary circumstances as determined by the principal of the school;

(d) If the pupil has a disability and is participating in a program of special education pursuant to NRS 388.520, an explanation of the effect of subsection ~~[6]~~ 7 of NRS 392.466, including, without limitation, that if it is determined in accordance with 20 U.S.C. § 1415 that the pupil's behavior is not a manifestation of the pupil's disability, he or she may be suspended or expelled from school in the same manner as a pupil without a disability; and

(e) If applicable, a summary of the provisions of subsection 4.

➥ A school shall provide the notice required by this subsection for each suspension on the record of a pupil during a school year. A school may include the notice required by this subsection with notice that is otherwise provided to the parent or legal guardian of a pupil which informs the parent or legal guardian of the act committed by the pupil.

4. If a pupil is suspended for initiating a fight described in paragraph (b) of subsection 1 and the fight is the first such fight that the pupil has initiated during that school year, or if a pupil receives four suspensions on the pupil's record within 1 school year, the school in which the pupil is enrolled may develop, in consultation with the pupil and the parent or legal guardian of the pupil, a plan of behavior for the pupil. Such a plan must be designed to prevent the pupil from being deemed a habitual disciplinary problem and may include, without limitation, a voluntary agreement by:

(a) The parent or legal guardian to attend school with his or her child.

(b) The pupil and the pupil's parent or legal guardian to attend counseling, programs or services available in the school district or community.

(c) The pupil and the pupil's parent or legal guardian that the pupil will attend summer school, intersession school or school on Saturday, if any of those alternatives are offered by the school district.

➥ If the pupil commits the same act for which notice was provided pursuant to subsection 3 after he or she enters into a plan of behavior, the pupil ~~[shall]~~ may be deemed a habitual disciplinary problem.

5. If a pupil commits an act the commission of which qualifies the pupil to be deemed a habitual disciplinary problem pursuant to subsection 1, the school shall provide written notice to the parent or legal guardian of the pupil that contains:

(a) A description of the qualifying act and any previous such acts committed by the pupil and the dates on which those acts were committed;

(b) An explanation that pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 392.466, a pupil who is a habitual disciplinary problem ~~[must]~~ may be ~~[suspended or expelled]~~ ***:

(1) Suspended from that school for a period ~~[equal to at least one school semester;]~~ not to exceed one school semester as determined by the seriousness of the acts which were the basis for the discipline; or

(2) Expelled from school under extraordinary circumstances as determined by the principal of the school;

(c) If the pupil has a disability and is participating in a program of special education pursuant to NRS 388.520, an explanation of the effect of subsection ~~[6]~~ 7 of NRS 392.466, including, without limitation, that if it is determined in accordance with 20 U.S.C. § 1415 that the pupil's behavior is not a manifestation of the pupil's disability, he or she may be suspended or expelled from that school in the same manner as a pupil without a disability; and

(d) If applicable, a summary of the provisions of subsection 6.

➥ The school shall provide the notice at least 7 days before the school deems the pupil a habitual disciplinary problem. A school may include the notice required by this subsection with notice that is otherwise provided to the parent or legal guardian of a pupil which informs the parent or legal guardian of the act committed by the pupil.

6. Before a school deems a pupil a habitual disciplinary problem and suspends or expels the pupil, the school may develop, in consultation with the pupil and the parent or legal guardian of the pupil, a plan of behavior for the pupil. Such a plan must be designed to prevent the pupil from being deemed a habitual disciplinary problem and may include, without limitation, a voluntary agreement by:

(a) The parent or legal guardian to attend that school with his or her child.

(b) The pupil and the pupil's parent or legal guardian to attend counseling, programs or services available in the school district or community.

(c) The pupil and the pupil's parent or legal guardian that the pupil will attend summer school, intersession school or school on Saturday, if any of those alternatives are offered by the school district.

➥ If the pupil violates the conditions of the plan or commits the same act for which notice was provided pursuant to subsection 5 after he or she enters into a plan of behavior, the pupil ~~[shall]~~ may be deemed a habitual disciplinary problem.

7. A pupil may, pursuant to the provisions of this section, enter into one plan of behavior per school year.

8. The parent or legal guardian of a pupil who has entered into a plan of behavior with a school pursuant to this section may appeal to the board of trustees of the school district a determination made by the school concerning the contents of the plan of behavior or action taken by the school pursuant to the plan of behavior. Upon receipt of such a request, the board of trustees of the school district shall review the determination in accordance with the procedure established by the board of trustees for such matters.

Sec. 2. NRS 392.466 is hereby amended to read as follows:

392.466 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, any pupil who commits a battery which results in the bodily injury of an employee of the school or who sells or distributes any controlled substance while on the premises of any public school, at an activity sponsored by a public school or on any school bus must, for the first occurrence, be suspended or expelled from that school, although the pupil may be placed in another kind of school, for at least a period equal to one semester for that school. ASSEMBLYMAN STEWART:

Amendment 323 to Assembly Bill 221 clarifies that the Department of Education make available on its website third-party service providers, organizations, and agencies that have access to data concerning individual pupils, rather than all entities. It prohibits the use of personally identifiable information for any purpose other than specified under contract, and prohibits the sale of personally identifiable information, except information that includes only aggregated data and may be used to demonstrate the effectiveness of the product or service. It includes, without limitation, provisions for termination of the contract and for the payment of monetary damages for any breach of the terms of the contract. It clarifies that only significant changes to data collection be reported under the bill as a whole. It also deletes requirements for reporting every piece of data collected by the districts, but not included in the state accountability database.

Amendment No. 534.

AN ACT relating to domestic relations; repealing certain provisions relating to the custody of children and enacting certain similar provisions relating to the custody of children; prohibiting a parent with primary or joint physical custody of a child from relocating with the child outside this State or to certain locations within this State without the written consent of the noncustodial parent or the permission of the court as the circumstances require; authorizing a non-relocating parent to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs in certain circumstances; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law sets forth provisions concerning the custody of children as it relates to the dissolution of marriage. (NRS 125.450-125.520) Section 19 of this bill repeals almost all of these provisions. Sections 3-12 of this bill add such repealed provisions, with certain revisions, to chapter 125C of NRS, which concerns custody and visitation of children generally. The addition of such provisions to chapter 125C of NRS expands their applicability to the custody of all children regardless of whether they were born to parents who were married or unmarried.

Section 4 provides that absent a determination by a court regarding the custody of a child, each parent has joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the child until otherwise ordered by a court. Sections 5 and 6 provide that if ~~[parents cohabit together with their child for a period of 1 year or more before the filing of an action for legal or physical custody, such cohabitation]~~ a parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with a child, such a demonstration or attempted demonstration creates a presumption that joint legal and physical custody, respectively, is in the best interest of the child. Section 7 authorizes a court to award primary physical custody to a parent if the court determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of a child, and sets forth circumstances in which an award of joint physical custody is presumed not to be in the best interest of a child. Section 7 also sets forth the circumstances in which a court may award primary physical custody to a mother or father of a child born out of wedlock.

Existing law requires a parent with primary physical custody of a child who intends to move outside this State with the child to: (1) obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent; or (2) if the noncustodial parent refuses to give such consent, petition the court for permission to move with the child. (NRS 125C.200) Section 16 of this bill additionally requires a parent with primary physical custody of a child to take such actions if the parent intends to relocate to a place within this State that is more than 100 miles from the place of his or her residence at the time the existing custody arrangement was established. Section 13 of this bill requires a parent who has joint physical custody of a child and wants to ~~[make such a relocation within this State or]~~ relocate outside this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child to petition the court for primary physical custody of the child for the purpose of relocating.

Section 14 of this bill requires a parent who files a petition for permission to relocate with a child to demonstrate to the court certain reasons and benefits relating to the relocation. Section 14 also requires the court to consider certain factors in determining whether to allow a parent to relocate with a child. Under section 18 of this bill, a parent who relocates with a child without the written consent of the noncustodial parent or the permission of the court or before the court enters an order granting the parent primary physical custody of the child and permission to relocate with the child, as applicable, is guilty of a category D felony unless the parent: (1) demonstrates a compelling excuse for the relocation; or (2) relocated to protect the child or the parent from danger. Additionally, section 15 of this bill provides that if a parent relocates with a child in violation of section 18: (1) the court cannot consider any post-relocation facts or circumstances regarding the welfare of the child or the relocating parent in making any determination; and (2) the non-relocating parent can recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred as a result of the relocating parent's violation.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 125.040 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125.040 1. In any suit for divorce the court may, in its discretion, upon application by either party and notice to the other party, require either party to pay moneys necessary to assist the other party in accomplishing one or more of the following:

(a) To provide temporary maintenance for the other party;

(b) To provide temporary support for children of the parties; or

(c) To enable the other party to carry on or defend such suit.

2. The court may make any order affecting property of the parties, or either of them, which it may deem necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this section. Such orders shall be made by the court only after taking into consideration the financial situation of each of the parties.

3. The court may make orders pursuant to this section concurrently with orders pursuant to ~~[~~NRS 125.470.~~]~~ section 12 of this act.

Sec. 2. Chapter 125C of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 3 to 15, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 3. The Legislature declares that it is the policy of this State:

1. To ensure that minor children have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with both parents after the parents have ended their relationship, become separated or dissolved their marriage;

2. To encourage such parents to share the rights and responsibilities of child rearing; and

3. To establish that such parents have an equivalent duty to provide their minor children with necessary maintenance, health care, education and financial support. As used in this subsection, "equivalent" must not be construed to mean that both parents are responsible for providing the same amount of financial support to their children.

Sec. 4. 1. The parent and child relationship extends equally to every child and to every parent, regardless of the marital status of the parents.

2. If a court has not made a determination regarding the custody of a child, each parent has joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the child until otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. 1. When a court is making a determination regarding the legal custody of a child, there is a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that joint legal custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if : ~~[the parents:]~~

(a) ~~[Have]~~ The parents have agreed to an award of joint legal custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the legal custody of the minor child; or

(b) ~~[Cohabited together with the minor child for a period of 1 year or more before the filing of an action for legal custody.]~~ A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

2. The court may award joint legal custody without awarding joint physical custody.

Sec. 6. 1. When a court is making a determination regarding the physical custody of a child, there is a preference that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if : ~~[the parents:]~~

(a) ~~[Have]~~ The parents have agreed to an award of joint physical custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the physical custody of the minor child; or

(b) ~~[Cohabited together with the minor child for a period of 1 year or more before the filing of an action for physical custody.]~~ A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

2. For assistance in determining whether an award of joint physical custody is appropriate, the court may direct that an investigation be conducted.

Sec. 7. 1. A court may award primary physical custody to a parent if the court determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of a child. An award of joint physical custody is presumed not to be in the best interest of the child if:

(a) The court determines by substantial evidence that a parent is unable to adequately care for a minor child for at least 146 days of the year; ~~[or]~~

(b) A child is born out of wedlock and the provisions of subsection 2 are applicable ~~[.]~~ ; or

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 of section 8 of this act or NRS 125C.210, there has been a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that a parent has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child. The presumption created by this paragraph is a rebuttable presumption.

2. A court may award primary physical custody of a child born out of wedlock to:

(a) The mother of the child if:

(1) The mother has not married the father of the child;

(2) A judgment or order of a court, or a judgment or order entered pursuant to an expedited process, determining the paternity of the child has not been entered; and

(3) The father of the child:

(I) Is not subject to any presumption of paternity under NRS 126.051;

(II) Has never acknowledged paternity pursuant to NRS 126.053; or

(III) Has had actual knowledge of his paternity but has abandoned the child.

(b) The father of the child if:

(1) The mother has abandoned the child; and

(2) The father has provided sole care and custody of the child in her absence.

3. As used in this section:

(a) "Abandoned" means that a mother or father has:

(1) Failed, for a continuous period of not less than 6 months, to provide substantial personal and economic support to the child; or

(2) Knowingly declined, for a continuous period of not less than 6 months, to have any meaningful relationship with the child.

(b) "Expedited process" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 126.161.

Sec. 8. 1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor child, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the child. If it appears to the court that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

3. The court shall award physical custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires otherwise:

(a) To both parents jointly pursuant to section 6 of this act or to either parent pursuant to section 7 of this act. If the court does not enter an order awarding joint physical custody of a child after either parent has applied for joint physical custody, the court shall state in its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's application.

(b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been living and where the child has had a wholesome and stable environment.

(c) To any person related within the fifth degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child, regardless of whether the relative resides within this State.

(d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

(a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.

(b) Any nomination ~~[by a parent or]~~ of a guardian for the child ~~[.]~~ by a parent.

(c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

(d) The level of conflict between the parents.

(e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

(f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

(i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

(k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.

(l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 or NRS 125C.210, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint physical custody of the child by the perpetrator of the domestic violence is not in the best interest of the child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

6. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 5 the court determines that each party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it shall, if possible, then determine which person was the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving either party;

(b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

(c) The likelihood of future injury;

(d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self-defense; and

(e) Any other factors which the court deems relevant to the determination.

➥ In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies to both parties. If it is possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical aggressor.

7. A determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child by the perpetrator of the abduction is not in the best interest of the child. If the parent or other person seeking physical custody does not rebut the presumption, the court shall not enter an order for sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child by the perpetrator and the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of abduction occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other person from whom the child was abducted.

8. For the purposes of subsection 7, any of the following acts constitute conclusive evidence that an act of abduction occurred:

(a) A conviction of the defendant of any violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct;

(b) A plea of guilty or nolo contendere by the defendant to any violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct; or

(c) An admission by the defendant to the court of the facts contained in the charging document alleging a violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

9. If, after a court enters a final order concerning physical custody of the child, a magistrate determines there is probable cause to believe that an act of abduction has been committed against the child or any other child and that a person who has been awarded sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child has committed the act, the court shall, upon a motion to modify the order concerning physical custody, reconsider the previous order concerning physical custody pursuant to subsections 7 and 8.

10. As used in this section:

(a) "Abduction" means the commission of an act described in NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

(b) "Domestic violence" means the commission of any act described in NRS 33.018.

Sec. 9. 1. Before the court makes an order awarding custody to any person other than a parent, without the consent of the parents, it shall make a finding that an award of custody to a parent would be detrimental to the child and the award to a nonparent is required to serve the best interest of the child.

2. No allegation that parental custody would be detrimental to the child, other than a statement of that ultimate fact, may appear in the pleadings.

3. The court may exclude the public from any hearing on this issue.

Sec. 10. 1. In any action for determining the custody of a minor child, the court may, except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and chapter 130 of NRS:

(a) During the pendency of the action, at the final hearing or at any time thereafter during the minority of the child, make such an order for the custody, care, education, maintenance and support of the minor child as appears in his or her best interest; and

(b) At any time modify or vacate its order, even if custody was determined pursuant to an action for divorce and the divorce was obtained by default without an appearance in the action by one of the parties.

➥ The party seeking such an order shall submit to the jurisdiction of the court for the purposes of this subsection. The court may make such an order upon the application of one of the parties or the legal guardian of the minor.

2. Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated by the court upon the petition of one or both parents or on the court's own motion if it is shown that the best interest of the child requires the modification or termination. The court shall state in its decision the reasons for the order of modification or termination if either parent opposes it.

3. Any order for custody of a minor child entered by a court of another state may, subject to the provisions of NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and to the jurisdictional requirements in chapter 125A of NRS, be modified at any time to an order of joint custody.

4. A party may proceed pursuant to this section without counsel.

5. Any order awarding a party a limited right of custody to a child must define that right with sufficient particularity to ensure that the rights of the parties can be properly enforced and that the best interest of the child is achieved. The order must include all specific times and other terms of the limited right of custody. As used in this subsection, "sufficient particularity" means a statement of the rights in absolute terms and not by the use of the term "reasonable" or other similar term which is susceptible to different interpretations by the parties.

6. All orders authorized by this section must be made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 125A of NRS and NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and must contain the following language:

> PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

7. In addition to the language required pursuant to subsection 6, all orders authorized by this section must specify that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country.

8. If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

(a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

9. Except where a contract providing otherwise has been executed pursuant to NRS 123.080, the obligation for care, education, maintenance and support of any minor child created by any order entered pursuant to this section ceases:

(a) Upon the death of the person to whom the order was directed; or

(b) When the child reaches 18 years of age if the child is no longer enrolled in high school, otherwise, when the child reaches 19 years of age.

10. As used in this section, a parent has "significant commitments in a foreign country" if the parent:

(a) Is a citizen of a foreign country;

(b) Possesses a passport in his or her name from a foreign country;

(c) Became a citizen of the United States after marrying the other parent of the child; or

(d) Frequently travels to a foreign country.

Sec. 11. 1. The court may, when appropriate, require the parents to submit to the court a plan for carrying out the court's order concerning custody.

2. Access to records and other information pertaining to a minor child, including, without limitation, medical, dental and school records, must not be denied to a parent for the reason that the parent is not the child's custodial parent.

Sec. 12. 1. If, during any action for determining the custody of a minor child, either before or after the entry of a final order concerning the custody of a minor child, it appears to the court that any minor child of either party has been, or is likely to be, taken or removed out of this State or concealed within this State, the court shall forthwith order such child to be produced before it and make such disposition of the child's custody as appears most advantageous to and in the best interest of the child and most likely to secure to him or her the benefit of the final order or the modification or termination of the final order to be made in his or her behalf.

2. If, during any action for determining the custody of a minor child, either before or after the entry of a final order concerning the custody of a minor child, the court finds that it would be in the best interest of the minor child, the court may enter an order providing that a party may, with the assistance of the appropriate law enforcement agency, obtain physical custody of the child from the party having physical custody of the child. The order must provide that if the party obtains physical custody of the child, the child must be produced before the court as soon as practicable to allow the court to make such disposition of the child's custody as appears most advantageous to and in the best interest of the child and most likely to secure to him or her the benefit of the final order or the modification or termination of the final order to be made in his or her behalf.

3. If the court enters an order pursuant to subsection 2 providing that a party may obtain physical custody of a child, the court shall order that party to give the party having physical custody of the child notice at least 24 hours before the time at which he or she intends to obtain physical custody of the child, unless the court deems that requiring the notice would likely defeat the purpose of the order.

4. All orders for a party to appear with a child issued pursuant to this section may be enforced by issuing a warrant of arrest against that party to secure his or her appearance with the child.

5. A proceeding under this section must be given priority on the court calendar.

Sec. 13. 1. If joint physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court or section 4 of this act or by operation of law and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is ~~[more than 100 miles from the place of his or her residence at the time the existing custody arrangement was established,]~~ at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent shall petition the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

2. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section before the court enters an order granting the parent primary physical custody of the child and permission to relocate with the child is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

Sec. 14. 1. In every instance of a petition for permission to relocate with a child that is filed pursuant to NRS 125C.200 or section 13 of this act, the relocating parent must demonstrate to the court that:

(a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her parenting time;

(b) The best interests of the child are substantially better served by allowing the relocating parent to relocate;

(c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual advantage that currently exists or is certain to exist before the time of the relocation; and

(d) If the parents currently share joint custody of the child, the child will do substantially better in the new location than the child would if he or she remained in this State with the non-relocating parent.

2. If a relocating parent demonstrates to the court the provisions set forth in subsection 1, the court must then weigh the following factors and the impact of each on the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent, including, without limitation, the extent to which the compelling interests of the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent are accommodated:

(a) The extent to which the relocation is likely to improve the quality of life for the child and the relocating parent;

(b) Whether the motives of the relocating parent are honorable and not designed to frustrate or defeat any visitation rights accorded to the non-relocating parent;

(c) Whether the relocating parent will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court if permission to relocate is granted;

(d) Whether the motives of the non-relocating parent are honorable in resisting the petition for permission to relocate or to what extent any opposition to the petition for permission to relocate is intended to secure a financial advantage in the form of ongoing support obligations or otherwise;

(e) Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the non-relocating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted; and

(f) Any other factor necessary to assist the court in determining whether to grant permission to relocate.

3. A parent who desires to relocate with a child pursuant to NRS 125C.200 or section 13 of this act has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child.

Sec. 15. If a parent with primary physical custody or joint physical custody relocates with a child in violation of NRS 200.359:

1. The court shall not consider any post-relocation facts or circumstances regarding the welfare of the child or the relocating parent in making any determination.

2. If the non-relocating parent files an action in response to the violation, the non-relocating parent is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred as a result of the violation.

Sec. 16. NRS 125C.200 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Remarks by Assemblyman Hansen.

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

Amendment 534 to Assembly Bill 263 creates a presumption that joint custody is in the best interests of a child if a parent has shown an intent to have a meaningful relationship with the child, but has been blocked by the other parent. It eliminates the presumption created by cohabitation prior to filing a custody action; it creates a rebuttable presumption against primary physical custody if the parent has engaged in any acts of domestic violence against the child, the other parent or any other person living in the household; and it deletes the "100 mile" standard and substitutes a standard based on a distance that would "substantially impair the maintenance of a meaningful relationship" for a parent with joint physical custody who wishes to relocate.

Amendment No. 335.

Assemblymen Hambrick, Hickey, Paul Anderson; Elliot Anderson, Araujo, Diaz, Ohrenschall, O'Neill, Seaman, and Titus:

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law prohibits a sentence of death from being imposed or inflicted upon any person convicted of certain crimes who was less than 18 years of age at the time the crime was committed. The maximum punishment that may be imposed upon such a person is life imprisonment without the possibility of parole. Existing law also prohibits a sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of parole from being imposed or inflicted upon any person convicted of a non-homicide crime who was less than 18 years of age at the time the crime was committed. The maximum punishment that may be imposed upon such a person is life imprisonment with the possibility of parole. (NRS 176.025)

Section 2 of this bill eliminates the imposition of a sentence of life without the possibility of parole upon a person convicted of certain crimes who was less than 18 years of age at the time the crime was committed, thereby making life imprisonment with the possibility of parole the maximum punishment that may be imposed upon a person convicted of any crime who was less than 18 years of age at the time the crime was committed.

Section 1 of this bill ~~[sets forth certain mitigating factors that]~~ requires a court ~~[must]~~ to consider the differences between juvenile and adult offenders in determining an appropriate sentence to be imposed upon a person who is convicted as an adult for an offense that was committed when he or she was less than 18 years of age.

Section 3 of this bill ~~[provides that]~~ establishes certain minimum periods of incarceration which must be served by a prisoner who was sentenced as an adult for ~~[an offense]~~ certain offenses that ~~[was]~~ were committed when he or she was less than 18 years of age before the prisoner is eligible for parole . ~~[after the prisoner has served 15 years of his or her sentence. Section 3 also sets forth certain mitigating factors that the State Board of Parole Commissioners must consider when determining whether to grant parole to such a prisoner.]~~

Assemblyman Hansen moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen Hansen and Carlton.

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

Amendment 335 to Assembly Bill 267 eliminates, in section 1, certain mitigating factors a court must consider in determining an appropriate sentence to be imposed upon a person who is convicted as an adult for an offense that was committed when he or she was less than 18 years of age, and replaces it with a requirement that the court consider the differences between juvenile and adult offenders in determining an appropriate sentence to be imposed upon a person who is convicted as an adult for an offense that was committed when he or she was less than 18 years of age. It also establishes, in Section 3 of the bill, certain minimum periods of incarceration which must be served by a prisoner who was sentenced as an adult for certain offenses that were committed when he or she was less than 18 years of age before the prisoner is eligible for parole.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

To the chair of Judiciary, if I could ask a question. I know there is a good time credit system that is built into how we calculate time. Will these hard dates affect that good time system?

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

I do not know the answer to that. My understanding is that the hard date would be the date of the crime and the date the individual turns 18. Is that what you are looking for, specific dates?

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

The hard dates of time served—if it is a 15-year sentence, will the good time credit still be able to be applied? Those tend to make prisoners a little more compliant and they have something to work for to get out early. If you take that away you can sometimes put our officers in harm's way. That is the question.

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

I will look into that. I do not know the answer in relation to that so I will get a hold of legal and we will get a definition for you and we will hold the amendment.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

Mr. Speaker, I will be happy to support the amendment today and if I can get the answer tomorrow. I would not want to slow down the process. The clock is ticking—I can hear the alligator with the clock in his stomach, so let us just keep moving forward.

Amendment adopted.

Assembly Bill No. 270.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Commerce and Labor:

Amendment No. 293.

AN ACT relating to ~~[manufactured homes;]~~ real estate; revising the manner in which the fair market value of certain manufactured homes is determined; revising the definition of "dealer" for certain purposes to exclude a manufactured home park or an owner or agent of a manufactured home park; revising provisions relating to the issuance of limited lien resale licenses and permits authorizing a landlord or manager to sell a used mobile home; revising the circumstances under which a natural person who only offers or negotiates the terms of a residential mortgage loan is exempt from certain provisions governing mortgage brokers and mortgage agents; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law defines a "dealer" of a manufactured home to include a person who sells, leases or rents a manufactured home or mobile home and requires a dealer to hold a license issued by the Manufactured Housing Division of the Department of Business and Industry. (NRS 489.076, 489.311) Section 2 of this bill amends the definition of "dealer" to exclude a manufactured home park or its owner or agent while renting or leasing manufactured or mobile homes located within and owned by the park.

Existing law also requires that if a manufactured home park converts to a park for older residents only, or a park for older residents converts to an unrestricted residency park, certain tenants who are unable to remove their manufactured or mobile homes must be reimbursed for the fair market value of their property, as determined by a licensed dealer or an appraiser. (NRS 118B.130) Section 1 of this bill deletes the requirement that the fair market value of the property be assessed by a dealer or appraiser and requires the landlord to determine the fair market value using certain published guidelines. Section 1 also allows a tenant who has received such a determination to request a second determination conducted by a certified appraiser or licensed dealer at the landlord's expense.

Existing law requires the Division to adopt regulations for the issuance of limited lien resale licenses or permits authorizing a landlord or manager to sell a used mobile home located within a mobile home park that was obtained through a lien sale. (NRS 489.336) Section 2.3 of this bill adds to this provision a mobile home that the landlord or manager obtained through a voluntary surrender by the owner.

Existing law sets forth the requirements for a person to engage in activities as a mortgage broker or mortgage agent, including the requirements for licensure. (Chapter 645B of NRS) Existing law also sets forth an exemption from those requirements for a natural person who only offers or negotiates the terms of a residential mortgage loan: (1) with or on behalf of an immediate family member; or (2) which is secured by a certain type of dwelling. (NRS 645B.015) Section 2.7 of this bill expands the exemption for such a natural person when: (1) the residential mortgage loan is for a manufactured home; (2) the residential mortgage loan is financed by the seller; and (3) the seller has not engaged in a certain number of those loans.

Remarks by Assemblyman Kirner.

ASSEMBLYMAN KIRNER:

Amendment 293 to Assembly Bill 270 allows a manufactured home tenant to request the Administrator of the Manufactured Housing Division to appoint a dealer or certified appraiser to make a second assessment of a home's fair market value under certain circumstances. The amendment also clarifies that, in order for a park owner or agent to be exempt from regulation as a dealer, the homes being rented or leased must be titled in the name of the manufactured home park or in an entity controlled by the owner of a manufactured home park. It requires the Division to adopt regulations for the issuance of limited lien resale licenses and permits authorizing a landlord or manager to sell a used mobile home if the landlord or manager acquired the mobile home by tenant voluntary surrender. Finally, the amendment exempts manufactured home sellers who engage in five or fewer seller financed credit sale transactions per year, under certain circumstances, from regulation as a mortgage broker or mortgage agent.

ASSEMBLYMAN KIRNER:

Amendment 318 to Assembly Bill 275 moves the new language in the bill from Chapter 669, Trust Companies, to Chapter 163, Trusts, of Nevada Revised Statutes. It requires a fiduciary or excluded fiduciary to obtain the written authorization of beneficiaries prior to delegating a duty. It removes provisions related to an excluded fiduciary's liability while conducting trust company business. It restores the deleted language in NRS 669.045, which includes servicers and administrators of IRAs in the definition of "fiduciary." Finally, it ensures the amendatory provisions of the bill cannot be construed to apply retroactively to causes of action that arose prior to the passage of the bill.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 542.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions ~~[governing]~~ relating to law enforcement . ~~[powers on certain lands.]~~ (BDR 14-397)

AN ACT relating to ~~[criminal procedure;]~~ law enforcement; establishing the circumstances under which state and local law enforcement agencies may recognize the exercise of law enforcement authority by certain federal employees; authorizing state and local law enforcement agencies to enter into agreements with federal agencies concerning the enforcement of federal, state and local laws under certain circumstances; prohibiting state and local governmental agencies from allowing a federal agency to access or use certain correctional and communication facilities and equipment without the express written consent of the appropriate responsible official; requiring a county sheriff to review the duties and activities of federal agencies that have law enforcement responsibilities within his or her jurisdiction; prohibiting a person from impersonating a federal officer; designating the county sheriff as the primary law enforcement officer in certain areas of a county; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, on land owned by the United States, the Federal Government has: (1) exclusive jurisdiction; (2) concurrent jurisdiction; or (3) proprietary jurisdiction. On land over which the Federal Government has acquired exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction, the State has ceded all or part of its jurisdiction, and the Federal Government has criminal jurisdiction in the area. (United States v. Unzueta, 281 U.S. 138 (1930); Paul v. United States, 371 U.S. 245, 264 (1963)) When the State has not ceded jurisdiction to the Federal Government, the Federal Government has proprietary jurisdiction and may enact laws governing conduct on those lands pursuant to the Property Clause of the United States Constitution. (U.S. Const. Art. IV, § 3, cl. 2; Kleppe v. New Mexico, 426 U.S. 529 (1976); United States v. Bohn, 622 F.3d 1129 (2010)) This bill establishes the circumstances under which a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize a federal employee's exercise of law enforcement power on federal lands.

Sections 3-7 of this bill define terms to establish the lands and agencies to which the provisions of this bill apply. Section 5 of this bill excludes from the provisions of this bill the exercise of law enforcement authority by: (1) a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; (2) a special agent of the United States Secret Service; (3) a special agent of the United States Drug Enforcement Administration; (4) a United States Postal Inspector; or (5) an officer or agent of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Section 8 of this bill sets forth the circumstances under which a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize the enforcement of federal law by certain federal employees. Under section 8, a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize a federal employee's exercise of law enforcement authority if the federal employee is enforcing a federal law other than the Assimilative Crimes Act, which is a federal law providing that a violation of a state criminal law on federal enclaves where the Federal Government exercises exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction is a violation of federal law. (18 U.S.C. § 13) However, section 8 provides that: (1) on federal enclaves where the Federal Government exercises exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction, a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize the exercise of law enforcement authority by a federal employee who is enforcing any federal law, including, without limitation, the Assimilative Crimes Act; and (2) if a federal employee is enforcing a provision of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. §§ 1701 et seq., on federal land that is not a federal enclave, a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize such an exercise of law enforcement authority if the federal employee is enforcing a federal statute other than the Assimilative Crimes Act or a federal regulation that is necessary to implement the provisions of the Act with respect to the management, use and protection of the public lands and property located on those lands.

Section 9 of this bill authorizes a state or local law enforcement agency to assist a federal agency with the enforcement of federal law on land managed by the Federal Government pursuant to the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. 1701 et seq., if the agreement requires the payment of fair compensation for such assistance.

Section 10 of this bill prohibits a state or local law enforcement officer from recognizing a federal employee's exercise of law enforcement authority if the federal employee is enforcing state or local law, except that a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize such an exercise of law enforcement authority: (1) under certain emergency circumstances; and (2) if the county sheriff or a state law enforcement agency, with the consent of the county sheriff, has entered into an agreement with the relevant federal agency authorizing specific federal employees to enforce state and local laws. Under section 10: (1) an agreement with a federal agency which authorizes specific federal employees to enforce state or local laws must be for a term of not more than 2 years; and (2) the federal employees granted authority to enforce state or local laws are required to successfully complete ~~[a 40-hour course focusing on criminal law and procedure in Nevada]~~ an 80-hour online training course approved by the Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission.

Section 11 of this bill prohibits a state or local governmental agency from authorizing a federal agency to access or use the correctional and communication facilities and equipment of any state or local law enforcement agency without the express written consent of the appropriate responsible official of the state or local law enforcement agency.

Section 12 of this bill requires a county sheriff to review the duties and activities of federal agencies that have law enforcement responsibilities and that are acting within his or her jurisdiction to determine whether the federal agencies are acting consistently with the provisions of this bill.

Existing law prohibits a person from impersonating a public officer, a police officer or a person having special authority by law to perform an act affecting the rights or interests of another person. (NRS 199.430) For the purposes of that prohibition, the term "public officer" is defined to include only state and local officers, not federal officers. (NRS 193.019) Section 12.5 of this bill expands the scope of existing law to prohibit the impersonation of a federal officer.

Section 13 of this bill specifically states that the sheriff of a county and his or her deputies are the primary law enforcement officers in the unincorporated areas of their county. If a county has a metropolitan police department, section 13 provides that the sheriff and his or her deputies are the primary law enforcement officers in the unincorporated areas of that county and in any incorporated city over which the department has jurisdiction.

Sec. 14. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2015.

Assemblyman Hansen moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Hansen.

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

Amendment 542 to Assembly Bill 283 clarifies the definition of "federally managed land." It requires federal officers granted authority to enforce state or local laws to successfully complete an 80-hour online training course. The completion of such a course must not be construed as constituting certification of a federal officer as a peace officer in this state. It also prohibits the impersonation of a federal officer. A person who falsely personates is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. The term "public officer" is defined to include only state and local officers, not federal officers.

Amendment No. 321.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions relating to the self-administration of certain medications by pupils in public schools. (BDR 34-812)

AN ACT relating to pupils; allowing pupils to self-administer prescribed medications for diabetes under certain circumstances; requiring a public school to establish protocols for containing blood-borne pathogens and the handling and disposal of needles, medical devices and other medical waste; providing immunity from liability to certain school administrators and employees for certain harm as a result of the self-administration of medication by a pupil; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law allows the parent or legal guardian of a pupil who has asthma or anaphylaxis to request authorization from the principal or, if applicable, the school nurse of the public school in which the pupil is enrolled to allow the pupil to self-administer medication for the treatment of asthma or anaphylaxis while the pupil is on the grounds of a public school, at an activity sponsored by the public school or on a school bus. Existing law provides that if the request contains certain specified information, the principal or, if applicable, the school nurse is required to approve the request. (NRS 392.425) This bill similarly allows the parent or legal guardian of a pupil who has diabetes to request an authorization to self-administer medication for the treatment of diabetes and requires the principal or, if applicable, school nurse to approve the request if the request contains certain information. This bill also requires a public school to: (1) establish protocols for containing blood-borne pathogens and the handling and disposal of needles, medical devices and other medical waste; and (2) provide a copy of these protocols to the parent or legal guardian of a pupil who requests permission to allow the pupil to self-administer medication.

Existing law provides that the board of trustees of a school district, a school district and a public school and any employee or agent thereof are immune from liability for the injury to or death of a pupil as a result of the self-administration of medication. (NRS 392.425) This bill extends that immunity from liability to those persons for any injury or death caused by exposure to certain medical devices or medical waste from the self-administration of medication by a pupil.

Assemblyman Stewart moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Stewart.

ASSEMBLYMAN STEWART:

Amendment 321 to Assembly Bill 285 includes "diabetic episode" as one of the conditions for which a written treatment plan may be prepared. It requires a public school to establish protocols for containing blood-borne pathogens; the handling and disposal of needles, medical devices, and other medical waste; and provide a copy of these protocols and procedures to the parent or guardian of a pupil who requests permission to self-administer medication as provided for in the bill. It requires an acknowledgement from the parent or legal guardian that a copy of the protocols has been received and explained to the pupil, who has agreed to comply with the protocols and that failure to do so may result in the revocation of the authorization to self-administer medication. It requires that the procedures for handling and disposal of needles, medical devices, and medical waste are included in the written authorization prepared by the school principal or school nurse. Finally, the amendment includes a provision that the school district, board of trustees, or any employee or agent of the school is immune from liability as a result of exposure to or injury caused by needles, medical devices, or other medical waste from the self-administration of medication.

Assembly Bill No. 305.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Health and Human Services:

Amendment No. 302.

AN ACT relating to public health; ~~[providing for an endorsement on]~~ authorizing the holder of a permit ~~[of]~~ to operate an ambulance service, air ambulance service or fire-fighting agency to obtain an endorsement on the permit to allow ~~[them]~~ certain employees and volunteers to provide community paramedicine services ; ~~[in certain cases; authorizing certain providers of emergency medical services employed by such an ambulance service, air ambulance service or fire-fighting agency to provide community paramedicine services;]~~ requiring certain health authorities to prepare an annual report ~~[to be prepared]~~ concerning the provision of community paramedicine services; repealing a provision which prohibited certain fire-fighting agencies from obtaining a permit to provide intermediate or advanced medical care; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the operator of an ambulance or air ambulance or a fire-fighting agency that operates vehicles at the scene of an emergency to obtain a permit. (NRS 450B.200, 450B.240, 450B.265) Section 4 of this bill requires the State Board of Health in a county whose population is less than 700,000 (currently all counties except for Clark County) and the district board of health in a county whose population is 700,000 or more (currently Clark County) to adopt regulations to provide for an endorsement to be placed on the permit to operate those vehicles that allows the holder to provide community paramedicine services. Section 2 of this bill defines the term "community paramedicine services" as health care services provided to certain patients ~~[outside of a hospital using mobile equipment]~~ who do not require emergency medical transportation in a manner that is integrated with the local and regional health care and social services systems. Section 4 requires such regulations to prescribe the training and qualifications necessary for an emergency medical technician, advanced emergency medical technician or paramedic who is employed by or serves as a volunteer for the holder of such an endorsement ~~[to have to be able]~~ to provide community paramedicine services and to prescribe the scope of the community paramedicine services that may be provided.

Section 9 of this bill prohibits a person or governmental entity from providing community paramedicine services without a currently valid permit with an endorsement which authorizes the provision of such services and makes a violation ~~[of this]~~ a misdemeanor. (NRS 450B.900) Section 10 of this bill prohibits an emergency medical technician, advanced emergency medical technician or paramedic from providing community paramedicine services unless the person meets certain requirements and makes a violation a misdemeanor. (NRS 450B.900)

Section 5 of this bill requires each holder of a permit with an endorsement to provide community paramedicine services to submit to the ~~[State Board of Health]~~ Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services or district board of health, as applicable, (health authority) a quarterly report concerning the effect of providing community paramedicine services. Section 5 also requires the ~~[Board]~~ Division and the district board of health to submit to the Legislature an annual report that summarizes the quarterly reports it receives.

Existing law prohibits an agency other than the district board of health in a county whose population is 700,000 or more (currently only Clark County) from issuing a permit authorizing a fire-fighting agency to provide the level of care provided by an advanced medical technician or paramedic to sick or injured persons while transporting those persons to a medical facility. (NRS 450B.1985) Section 13 of this bill repeals this provision so that a fire-fighting agency located anywhere in this State may obtain such a permit and provide the level of care provided by an advanced medical technician or paramedic to patients being transported to a medical facility on an emergency basis or, if the agency holds an endorsement to provide community paramedicine services, a non-emergency basis.

Sections 3 and 6~~-~~ ~~[8]~~ 8.5 make conforming changes.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 450B of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 5, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 4. *1. (f) ~~[Any fee for the issuance and renewal of the endorsement, which must not exceed the actual cost to the board; and~~

4. An emergency medical provider may provide community paramedicine services only as an employee of or volunteer for the holder of a permit who has obtained an endorsement and only if the emergency medical provider possesses the training and qualifications required by the board. Any services provided must not exceed the scope of practice of the emergency medical provider.

Sec. 5. 1. Assemblyman Oscarson moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Oscarson.

ASSEMBLYMAN OSCARSON:

Amendment 302 to Assembly Bill 305 revises the definition of "community paramedicine" to clarify that such services are provided to patients who do not require emergency transport, and removes references to the location where services may be provided and type of equipment used. It clarifies that no additional fee may be charged for a community paramedicine endorsement on a permit. It allows a person who serves as a volunteer for the holder of the permit to receive an endorsement to provide community paramedicine services and requires permit holders to report to the health authority that issued the endorsement rather than the State Board of Health.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law in NRS 442.250 regulates the medical conditions under which abortions may be performed in this State. Because NRS 442.250 was submitted to and approved by a referendum of the voters at the 1990 general election, Section 1 of Article 19 of the Nevada Constitution dictates that the provisions of NRS 442.250 may not be amended, annulled, repealed, set aside, suspended or in any way made inoperative except by the direct vote of the people. In addition to the provisions of NRS 442.250, Nevada's abortion laws contain certain parental notification requirements that apply only to abortions performed upon pregnant minors. (NRS 442.255, 442.2555, 442.268) Because the parental notification requirements were not part of the referendum in 1990, they may be amended or repealed by the Legislature without being approved by the direct vote of the people.

This bill repeals the existing parental notification requirements for pregnant minors and enacts new notification requirements that apply to pregnant minors and to pregnant wards, regardless of their age, for whom a legal guardian or conservator has been appointed. This bill conforms with Section 1 of Article 19 of the Nevada Constitution because this bill does not amend, annul, repeal, set aside, suspend or in any way make inoperative the provisions of NRS 442.250. Instead, this bill serves a different governmental purpose than the provisions of NRS 442.250 and enacts new laws that are separate and complete by themselves and are not amendatory of the provisions of NRS 442.250. (Matthews v. State ex rel. Nev. Tax Comm'n, 83 Nev. 266, 267-69 (1967))

In 1985, the Legislature enacted the existing parental notification requirements for pregnant minors which prohibit a physician, with certain exceptions, from knowingly performing an abortion upon a pregnant minor unless: (1) a custodial parent or guardian of the minor is notified in the statutorily-prescribed manner before the abortion; or (2) upon the request of the minor, the district court authorizes the abortion without parental notification when the minor meets certain criteria. (Chapter 681, Statutes of Nevada 1985, pp. 2306-09 (codified in NRS 442.255, 442.2555, 442.268)) Before the requirements became effective in 1985, Nevada's federal district court enjoined their implementation on grounds that they unconstitutionally burden a woman's fundamental right to make the highly personal choice of whether to have an abortion, thereby violating the woman's interests in personal liberty protected by the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. (Glick v. McKay, 616 F. Supp. 322, 323-28 (D. Nev. 1985))

In 1991, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit affirmed the federal district court's decision in Glick v. McKay, 937 F.2d 434, 437-42 (9th Cir. 1991). The Ninth Circuit relied upon two reasons for invalidating Nevada's existing parental notification requirements: (1) the requirements impermissibly narrowed the criteria under which the district court could give judicial authorization for an abortion without parental notification when the abortion would be in the minor's best interests; and (2) the requirements did not place any time limit on the period within which the district court must rule upon a request for judicial authorization and therefore they did not facially ensure that the minor's interests would be protected by expedited judicial review. (Glick v. McKay, 937 F.2d 434, 437-42 (9th Cir. 1991))

In 1997, when the United States Supreme Court reversed a different Ninth Circuit decision that struck down Montana's parental notification requirements, the United States Supreme Court disapproved the first reason relied upon by the Ninth Circuit in the Glick decision to strike down Nevada's parental notification requirements. (Lambert v. Wicklund, 520 U.S. 292, 294-99 (1997)) However, the United States Supreme Court did not address the second reason relied upon by the Ninth Circuit in the Glick decision to strike down Nevada's parental notification requirements. As a result, based upon the second reason, the Ninth Circuit's Glick decision is still in effect in Nevada, which means that Nevada's existing parental notification requirements remain unconstitutional because they do not place any time limit on the period within which the district court must rule upon a request for judicial authorization and therefore they do not facially ensure that the minor's interests will be protected by expedited judicial review. (Glick v. McKay, 937 F.2d 434, 440-42 (9th Cir. 1991); Planned Parenthood of S. Ariz. v. Lawall (Lawall I), 180 F.3d 1022, 1029 n.9 (9th Cir. 1999) ("Nothing in Wicklund, however, affects Glick's holding regarding [the failure of Nevada's law to facially comply with] Bellotti II's expediency requirement."), amended on denial of reh'g, 193 F.3d 1042, 1043 (9th Cir. 1999))

Section 27 of this bill repeals Nevada's existing parental notification requirements, and sections 10-18 of this bill enact new notification requirements that apply to pregnant minors and wards. The new notification requirements are modeled, in part, on portions of Minnesota's parental notification requirements that were upheld by the United States Supreme Court in Hodgson v. Minnesota, 497 U.S. 417, 422-23 (1990) (plurality opinion) (upholding portions of Minn. Stat. § 144.343). However, the new notification requirements also take into account additional constitutional considerations addressed in other decisions of the United States Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit regarding parental notification or consent statutes. (Ayotte v. Planned Parenthood of N. New Eng., 546 U.S. 320, 323-28 (2006); Lambert v. Wicklund, 520 U.S. 292, 294-99 (1997); Planned Parenthood of Se. Pa. v. Casey, 505 U.S. 833, 899-901 (1992); Ohio v. Akron Ctr. for Reproductive Health (Akron II), 497 U.S. 502, 510-19 (1990) (plurality opinion); Bellotti v. Baird (Bellotti II), 443 U.S. 622, 646-51 (1979) (plurality opinion); Planned Parenthood of Idaho v. Wasden, 376 F.3d 908, 924-35 (9th Cir. 2004); Planned Parenthood of S. Ariz. v. Lawall (Lawall II), 307 F.3d 783, 786-89 (9th Cir. 2002); Planned Parenthood of S. Ariz. v. Lawall (Lawall I), 180 F.3d

To carry out the new notification requirements, section 6 of this bill defines the term "minor" to mean a person who is less than 18 years of age, unmarried and unemancipated. To be considered emancipated and not a minor, the person must offer reasonable proof of a court order declaring the person to be emancipated under Nevada law or the law of any other state, territory or possession of the United States or the District of Columbia. Section 9 of this bill defines the term "ward" to mean a person for whom a legal guardian or conservator has been appointed because of a court finding of mental or intellectual incompetency, incapacity or insanity.

Section 10 of this bill states that the new notification requirements are intended to assist minors and wards in making a knowing, intelligent and deliberate decision to give informed consent concerning a proposed abortion by requiring, with certain exceptions, notification of a parent or guardian of the minor or ward, followed by a waiting period of 48 hours, before a physician may perform an abortion upon the minor or ward. Sections 10-18 do not require a parent or guardian to consent to the abortion before it is performed and do not prohibit a physician from performing the abortion after notification has been provided and the waiting period has expired.

Section 12 prohibits, with certain exceptions, a physician from knowingly performing an abortion on a minor or ward unless: (1) written notice of the proposed abortion is delivered to at least one parent or guardian in the statutorily-required manner; and (2) a period of not less than 48 hours has elapsed after the time of delivery of the written notice. However, section 12 also provides that no parent or guardian must be notified if: (1) the physician certifies in writing in the medical record of the minor or ward that a medical emergency exists which necessitates an immediate abortion; (2) a parent or guardian of the minor or ward certifies in writing that he or she has been notified regarding the abortion; or (3) upon a petition filed by the minor or ward, the district court or the appellate court gives judicial authorization for a physician to perform the abortion without notification of a parent or guardian.

Sections 13-17 establish rules, standards and procedures for filing petitions seeking judicial authorization and for conducting expedited proceedings in the district court and the appellate court, with express mandates setting forth specific time limits within which the district court and the appellate court must rule upon petitions and any appeals therefrom. Sections 14 and 15: (1) protect the identity and anonymity of the minor or ward and require confidentiality at all stages of the proceedings; (2) provide the minor or ward with the right to request a court appointed attorney for legal representation that is a charge against the county; and (3) permit the appointment of a guardian ad litem or court appointed special advocate when necessary to protect the best interests of the minor or ward.

Section 16 requires the district court to grant judicial authorization if it finds that: (1) the pregnant woman is sufficiently mature and well-informed and, if a ward, competent, to be capable, in consultation with a physician, of making a knowing, intelligent and deliberate decision to give informed consent concerning a proposed abortion without notification of a parent or guardian; or (2) regardless of whether the pregnant woman is sufficiently mature and well-informed and, if a ward, competent, it otherwise is or would be in the best interests of the pregnant woman to authorize a physician to perform the proposed abortion without notification of a parent or guardian.

Section 18 provides that a person who knowingly performs an abortion upon a minor or ward in violation of the new notification requirements is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a civil action brought by any parent or guardian improperly denied notification. However, section 18 also provides immunity from criminal prosecution and civil liability under certain circumstances.

~~[Finally, existing law requires the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services to adopt a system for reporting certain information concerning abortions to the Division. (NRS 442.260) Section 19 of this bill requires a physician to submit an annual report to the Division that contains statistical data relating to the notification requirements and the number of abortions performed by the physician. Section 19 also requires the Division to impose administrative penalties against a physician whose report is overdue and authorizes the Division to commence a civil action if any report is more than 1 year overdue.~~

~~Section 20 of this bill requires the Administrative Office of the Courts to compile and submit annually to the Division certain statistical data relating to cases in which a minor or ward seeks judicial authorization for an abortion without notification of a parent or guardian. Section 21 of this bill requires the Division to compile the data it receives from the physicians and the Administrative Office of the Courts in order to issue an annual report, to be made available to the public, containing statistical data about the effect of the notification requirements on the rate of abortions in this State. If the Division fails to issue the annual report, section 22 of this bill authorizes a civil action against the Administrator of the Division seeking to compel the issuance of the report with penalties for contempt.]~~

the assistance of a parent or guardian, to make a knowing, intelligent and deliberate decision to give informed consent concerning a proposed abortion, which usually presents a difficult, stressful and often overwhelming decision involving potentially significant short-term and long-term physical, emotional and psychological consequences.

2. The provisions of sections 10 to 18, inclusive, of this act are intended to assist a pregnant woman who is a minor or a ward in making a knowing, intelligent and deliberate decision to give informed consent concerning a proposed abortion by requiring, with certain exceptions, notification of a parent or guardian of the pregnant woman, followed by a waiting period of 48 hours, before a physician may perform an abortion upon the pregnant woman in order to:

2. Must not be interpreted to amend, annul, repeal, set aside, suspend or in any way make inoperative the provisions of NRS 442.250 which were submitted to and approved by a referendum of the voters pursuant to Section 1 of Article 19 of the Nevada Constitution.

3. Must not be interpreted to require a physician, or a designated agent of the physician, to notify more than one parent or guardian of a pregnant woman who is a minor or a ward.

Sec. 12. *1. The time of delivery of the written notice shall be deemed to be 12 p.m. on the next day on which regular mail delivery takes place after the day on which the written notice is mailed. As used in this paragraph, "restricted delivery" means a postal employee is required to deliver the certified mail only to an authorized addressee.

3. No parent or guardian of the pregnant woman must be notified pursuant to this section before a physician performs an abortion upon the pregnant woman if:

(a) The physician certifies in writing in the medical record of the pregnant woman that a medical emergency exists which necessitates that an immediate abortion must be performed upon the pregnant woman;

(b) A parent or guardian of the pregnant woman certifies in writing that he or she has been notified regarding the abortion to be performed upon the pregnant woman; or

(c) A court has given judicial authorization for a physician to perform the abortion upon the pregnant woman pursuant to sections 10 to 18, inclusive, of this act without notification of a parent or guardian of the pregnant woman.

(c) Must not be made available to or accessible by the public at any stage of the proceedings, including, without limitation, any appeal.

2. The district court and appellate court shall take the necessary steps to ensure, preserve and protect the confidentiality of the petition and the proceedings, except that the district court or appellate court may allow a properly restricted and limited disclosure of the petition or the proceedings to the extent necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 10 to 18, inclusive, of this act, but the district court or appellate court shall take the necessary steps to protect the anonymity of the pregnant woman in any such disclosure.

3. The confidentiality required by this section includes, without limitation, all files, documents and records relating to the proceedings.

4. If the district court or appellate court needs to identify the petition or the proceedings for docketing, scheduling or other administrative purposes in any files, documents or records that are available to the public, including, without limitation, any index, calendar, docket, register, minutes or case management system, such identification must contain only the initials of the pregnant woman to identify the petitioner and must not contain any information that identifies or could lead to the identification of the pregnant woman.

5. If any officer, employee or contractor of this State or a political subdivision of this State, including, without limitation, any officer, employee or contractor of the district court or appellate court or any attorney, guardian ad litem, court appointed special advocate or member of support staff, acquires information concerning the petition or the proceedings regarding the petition in the course of performing the person's duties, the person shall take the necessary steps to ensure, preserve and protect the confidentiality of the information and shall not disclose the information without appropriate authorization.

6. A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 15. 1. If a pregnant woman who is a minor or a ward files a petition, the district court shall:

(a) Advise her that she is entitled to be represented by a court-appointed attorney; and

(b) Upon her request, appoint such an attorney to represent her at all stages of the proceedings, including, without limitation, any appeal.

2. If the pregnant woman does not request to be represented by a court-appointed attorney, the pregnant woman may participate in the proceedings on her own behalf, except that the district court may appoint an attorney to represent her if the district court determines that such representation would be in her best interests.

3. Whether or not the pregnant woman is represented by a court-appointed attorney, the district court may appoint a guardian ad litem or a court appointed special advocate to represent the pregnant woman if the district court determines that such representation would be in her best interests.

4. If the pregnant woman is represented by a court-appointed attorney, the district court shall set the compensation and expenses of the attorney in a manner that is consistent with the compensation and expenses provided in NRS 7.125 and 7.135 for similar legal work, and the compensation and expenses of the attorney are a charge against the county.

Sec. 16. 1. After a pregnant woman who is a minor or a ward files a petition, the district court shall:

(a) Give the petition and the proceedings priority over other pending matters and expedite the proceedings in order to serve the best interests of the pregnant woman as soon as possible and without delay; and

(b) As soon as possible but not later than 5 judicial days after the date on which the petition is filed, hold an expedited hearing on the record regarding the merits of the petition, unless the pregnant woman requests the district court to continue the date of the hearing.

2. At the hearing regarding the merits of the petition, the district court shall take evidence on the record that may be relevant and helpful in determining whether:

(a) The pregnant woman is sufficiently mature and well-informed and, if a ward, competent, to be capable, in consultation with a physician, of making a knowing, intelligent and deliberate decision to give informed consent concerning a proposed abortion without notification of a parent or guardian pursuant to section 12 of this act; or

(b) Regardless of whether the pregnant woman is sufficiently mature and well-informed and, if a ward, competent, it otherwise is or would be in the best interests of the pregnant woman to authorize a physician to perform the proposed abortion without notification of a parent or guardian pursuant to section 12 of this act.

3. The district court may take evidence on the record of any other facts or circumstances that may be relevant and helpful in determining whether to authorize a physician to perform the proposed abortion without notification of a parent or guardian pursuant to section 12 of this act.

4. The district court shall order a confidential record of the evidence to be maintained.

5. As soon as possible but not later than 2 judicial days after the date of the hearing regarding the merits of the petition, the district court shall:

(a) Issue a written order granting or denying the petition which must contain specific findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting the decision of the district court; and

(b) File the written order under seal of confidentiality with the district court clerk and serve the pregnant woman with the written order by the most expeditious manner of service feasible under the circumstances.

6. The district court shall grant the petition if, based on the evidence taken on the record at the hearing, the district court finds that:

(a) The pregnant woman is sufficiently mature and well-informed and, if a ward, competent, to be capable, in consultation with a physician, of making a knowing, intelligent and deliberate decision to give informed consent concerning a proposed abortion without notification of a parent or guardian pursuant to section 12 of this act; or

(b) Regardless of whether the pregnant woman is sufficiently mature and well-informed and, if a ward, competent, it otherwise is or would be in the best interests of the pregnant woman to authorize a physician to perform the proposed abortion without notification of a parent or guardian pursuant to section 12 of this act.

7. If the district court grants the petition:

(a) The district court shall, in its written order, give judicial authorization to permit a physician to perform an abortion upon the pregnant woman in accordance with the provisions of NRS 442.240 to 442.270, inclusive, and without notification of a parent or guardian pursuant to section 12 of this act; and

(b) The district court's written order and its judicial authorization are not subject to an appeal, and no person has standing to take such an appeal.

8. If the district court denies the petition, the pregnant woman may appeal the district court's written order pursuant to section 17 of this act.

Sec. 17. 1. If the district court denies a petition of a pregnant woman who is a minor or a ward, the pregnant woman may appeal the district court's written order to the appellate court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to the rules fixed by the Supreme Court pursuant to Section 4 of Article 6 of the Nevada Constitution.

2. To take such an appeal, the pregnant woman must file a notice of appeal with the district court clerk not later than 5 judicial days after the date on which the pregnant woman is served with the district court's written order pursuant to section 16 of this act.

3. Not later than 1 judicial day after the date on which the pregnant woman files the notice of appeal with the district court clerk, the pregnant woman shall file a request for expedited relief with the Clerk of the Supreme Court pursuant to the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure or any applicable rule or order of the appellate court.

4. The record on appeal must be perfected and transmitted to the appellate court not later than 5 judicial days after the date on which the pregnant woman files the notice of appeal or within such earlier time as may be required by any applicable rule or order of the appellate court.

5. The appellate court shall:

(a) Give the appeal priority over other pending matters and expedite the appeal in order to serve the best interests of the pregnant woman as soon as possible and without delay; and

(b) As soon as possible but not later than 5 judicial days after the date on which the record on appeal is transmitted to the appellate court, issue a written order resolving the appeal.

Sec. 18. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if a person knowingly performs an abortion upon a pregnant woman who is a minor or a ward in violation of section 12 of this act, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor.

2. In addition to any other remedy or penalty provided by law, but except as otherwise provided in this section, if a person knowingly performs an abortion upon a pregnant woman who is a minor or a ward in violation of section 12 of this act and no parent or guardian of the pregnant woman was properly notified because of the violation, any parent or guardian of the pregnant woman may bring a civil action against the person who performed the abortion for:

(a) Actual and consequential damages;

(b) Punitive damages, which are subject to the provisions of NRS 42.005;

(c) Reasonable attorney's fees and costs; and

(d) Any other legal or equitable relief that the court deems appropriate.

3. A person is immune from criminal prosecution and civil liability pursuant to this section and no parent or guardian of the pregnant woman is entitled to any relief against the person pursuant to this section if the person establishes by written evidence that, before performing the abortion upon the pregnant woman:

(a) A court gave judicial authorization to perform the abortion upon the pregnant woman pursuant to sections 10 to 18, inclusive, of this act without notification of a parent or guardian; or

(b) The person, or the designated agent of the person:

(1) Attempted with reasonable diligence to deliver the notice required by section 12 of this act to at least one parent or guardian of the pregnant woman but was unable to do so; or

(2) Relied upon evidence which would be sufficient to convince a careful and prudent person that the representations of the pregnant woman regarding information necessary to comply with section 12 of this act were bona fide and true.

4. Any immunity provided by this section extends to the performance of the abortion and any necessary accompanying services which are performed in a competent manner.

Sec. 19. ~~[1. On or before February 28 of each year, on a form prescribed by the Division, each physician shall submit to the Division a complete and accurate report of the following statistical data regarding the application of sections 10 to 18, inclusive, of this act on proposed abortions and abortions involving a pregnant woman who is a minor or a ward:~~

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTIONS

442.255 Notice to custodial parent or guardian; request for authorization for abortion; rules of civil procedure inapplicable.

1. Unless in the judgment of the attending physician an abortion is immediately necessary to preserve the patient's life or health or an abortion is authorized pursuant to subsection 2 or NRS 442.2555, a physician shall not knowingly perform or induce an abortion upon an unmarried and unemancipated woman who is under the age of 18 years unless a custodial parent or guardian of the woman is personally notified before the abortion. If the custodial parent or guardian cannot be so notified after a reasonable effort, the physician shall delay performing the abortion until the physician has notified the parent or guardian by certified mail at the last known address of the parent or guardian.

2. An unmarried or unemancipated woman who is under the age of 18 years may request a district court to issue an order authorizing an abortion. If so requested, the court shall interview the woman at the earliest practicable time, which must be not more than 2 judicial days after the request is made. If the court determines, from any information provided by the woman and any other evidence that the court may require, that:

(a) She is mature enough to make an intelligent and informed decision concerning the abortion;

(b) She is financially independent or is emancipated; or

(c) The notice required by subsection 1 would be detrimental to her best interests,

➥ the court shall issue an order within 1 judicial day after the interview authorizing a physician to perform the abortion in accordance with the provisions of NRS 442.240 to 442.270, inclusive.

3. If the court does not find sufficient grounds to authorize a physician to perform the abortion, it shall enter an order to that effect within 1 judicial day after the interview. If the court does not enter an order either authorizing or denying the performance of the abortion within 1 judicial day after the interview, authorization shall be deemed to have been granted.

4. The court shall take the necessary steps to ensure that the interview and any other proceedings held pursuant to this subsection or NRS 442.2555 are confidential. The rules of civil procedure do not apply to any action taken pursuant to this subsection.

442.2555 Procedure if district court denies request for authorization for abortion: Petition; hearing on merits; appeal.

1. If the order is denied pursuant to NRS 442.255, the court shall, upon request by the minor if it appears that she is unable to employ counsel, appoint an attorney to represent her in the preparation of a petition, a hearing on the merits of the petition, and on an appeal, if necessary. The compensation and expenses of the attorney are a charge against the county as provided in the following schedule:

(a) For consultation, research and other time reasonably spent on the matter, except court appearances, $20 per hour.

(b) For court appearances, $30 per hour.

2. The petition must set forth the initials of the minor, the age of the minor, the estimated number of weeks elapsed from the probable time of conception, and whether maturity, emancipation, notification detrimental to the minor's best interests or a combination thereof are relied upon in avoidance of the notification required by NRS 442.255. The petition must be initialed by the minor.

3. A hearing on the merits of the petition, on the record, must be held as soon as possible and within 5 judicial days after the filing of the petition. At the hearing the court shall hear evidence relating to:

(a) The minor's emotional development, maturity, intellect and understanding;

(b) The minor's degree of financial independence and degree of emancipation from parental authority;

(c) The minor's best interests relative to parental involvement in the decision whether to undergo an abortion; and

(d) Any other evidence that the court may find useful in determining whether the minor is entitled to avoid parental notification.

4. In the decree, the court shall, for good cause:

(a) Grant the petition, and give judicial authorization to permit a physician to perform an abortion without the notification required in NRS 442.255; or

(b) Deny the petition, setting forth the grounds on which the petition is denied.

5. An appeal from an order issued under subsection 4 may be taken to the appellate court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to the rules fixed by the Supreme Court pursuant to Section 4 of Article 6 of the Nevada Constitution, which shall suspend the Nevada Rules of Appellate Procedure pursuant to NRAP 2 to provide for an expedited appeal. The notice of intent to appeal must be given within 1 judicial day after the issuance of the order. The record on appeal must be perfected within 5 judicial days after the filing of the notice of appeal and transmitted to the appellate court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to the rules fixed by the Supreme Court. The appellate court of competent jurisdiction, shall, by court order or rule, provide for a confidential and expedited appellate review of cases appealed under this section.

442.268 Civil immunity of person performing judicially authorized abortion in accordance with provisions of NRS 442.240 to 442.270, inclusive. If an abortion is judicially authorized and the provisions of NRS 442.240 to 442.270, inclusive, are complied with, an action by the parents or guardian of the minor against persons performing the abortion is barred. This civil immunity extends to the performance of the abortion and any necessary accompanying services which are performed in a competent manner. The costs of the action, if brought, must be borne by the parties respectively.

Amendment No. 571.

AN ACT relating to veterans; establishing "Veterans Day at the Legislature" as a day of observance; revising provisions relating to preferences in state purchasing and state public works for a business owned and operated by a veteran with a service-connected disability; authorizing the Governor to require the naming of a state building, park, highway or other property after a deceased member of the Armed Forces of the United States under certain circumstances; requiring certain state agencies and regulatory bodies to report certain information to the Interagency Council on Veterans Affairs; requiring the Council to report such information to the Legislature; requiring the Director of the Department of Veterans Services to compile in digital form certain information relating to state laws that affect veterans; requiring the Director to provide such information electronically to certain veterans for whom the Department has an electronic mail address of record; requiring the Director to maintain such information on its Internet website; authorizing xeriscaping in the area immediately above and surrounding the interred remains of a veteran at a veterans' cemetery under certain circumstances; providing for the disposition of the unclaimed remains of a veteran by certain county agencies; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law sets forth certain days of observance in this State to commemorate certain persons or occasions or to publicize information regarding certain important topics. (Chapter 236 of NRS) Section 1 of this bill establishes the third Wednesday of March during each regular session of the Legislature as "Veterans Day at the Legislature," which is a day of observance and not a legal holiday.

Under existing law, a bid or proposal for a state purchasing contract for which the estimated cost exceeds $50,000 that is submitted by a local business owned by a veteran with a service-connected disability of at least zero percent and who is a responsive and responsible bidder is deemed to be 5 percent lower than the bid or proposal actually submitted. (NRS 333.300, 333.3365, 333.3366) Section 15 of this bill provides that this 5-percent preference applies with respect to bids or proposals by local businesses owned and operated by such veterans for state purchasing contracts for which the estimated cost is more than $50,000 but not more than $250,000. For state purchasing contracts for which the estimated cost is more than $250,000 but less than $500,000, section 15 makes only a local business owned and operated by a veteran with a service-connected disability of 50 percent or more eligible for the 5-percent preference.

Under existing law, a bid submitted by a local business owned by a veteran with a service-connected disability of at least zero percent for a contract for a state public work for which the estimated cost is $100,000 or less is deemed to be 5 percent lower than the bid or proposal actually submitted. (NRS 338.13843, 338.13844) Section 19 of this bill provides a similar 5-percent preference to a local business owned and operated by a veteran with a service-connected disability of 50 percent or more for a contract for a state public work for which the estimated cost is more than $100,000 but less than $250,000.

~~[ Section 18.5 of this bill revises the ownership qualifications for eligibility of a local business owned by a veteran with a service-connected disability for the 5-percent preference on state purchasing and state public works contracts from one or more veterans with service-connected disabilities to not more than five veterans with service-connected disabilities. (NRS 333.3362, 338.13841)]~~

Under existing law, the Purchasing Division and the State Public Works Division of the Department of Administration are required to provide a biannual report to the Legislature, if it is in session, or to the Interim Finance Committee, if the Legislature is not in session, regarding bids or proposals submitted by local businesses owned by a veteran with a service-connected disability for state purchasing and state public works contracts and any such contracts awarded to those businesses. (NRS 333.3368, 338.13846) Sections 16 and 20 of this bill require those Divisions to also submit such reports to the Legislative Committee on Senior Citizens, Veterans and Adults with Special Needs when the Legislature is not in session.

Sections 9, 22, 24, 26, 27 and 31 of this bill provide for the naming by the Governor of a state building, park, monument, bridge, road or other property constructed, acquired, leased or opened on or after July 1, 2015, after deceased members of the Armed Forces of the United States who were residents of this State and killed in action.

Existing law provides for the creation, powers and duties of the Department of Veterans Services and the Interagency Council on Veterans Affairs. (NRS 417.0191-417.105) Section 28 of this bill requires certain state agencies and regulatory bodies to report to the Council certain information relating to veterans and requires the Council to report such information annually to the Legislature or, if the Legislature is not in session, to the Legislative Commission. Section 29 of this bill requires the Director of the Department to prepare a digital copy of certain information relating to state laws that affect veterans and services for veterans and to provide the information in digital form to each veteran in this State for whom the Department has an electronic mail address of record. Section 29 further requires the Director to publish such information on the Department's Internet website.

Existing law provides for the establishment, operation and maintenance of veterans' cemeteries in this State, and further requires a cemetery superintendent to ensure that the area immediately above and surrounding the interred remains of veterans in each veterans' cemetery is landscaped with natural grass. (NRS 417.200-417.230) Sections 32 and 33 of this bill require a cemetery superintendent to ensure that the area is landscaped with natural grass only if a veteran does not indicate by testamentary instrument or on an application for interment at the cemetery his or her desire to have the area landscaped with xeriscaping.

Section 34.5 of this bill provides for the reporting and disposition of the unclaimed remains of a veteran by the agency in a county that is responsible for interring or cremating the remains of indigent persons.

Sec. 38. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 39. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2015.

Assemblywoman Kirkpatrick moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Kirkpatrick.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN KIRKPATRICK:

I worked with the Chairman of this committee as well as some of the other members of the committee to further clarify a section of this bill that was put in during the committee. Section 18.5 is now deleted, and we have a little more clarity regarding who is considered the veteran with the disability. So the business is owned and operated now, which you will see throughout the bill.

This is my original bill from 2009 so I wanted to ensure the integrity of the bill and to clarify the legislative intent. I also wanted to make sure that more veterans could participate in the process.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, reengrossed and to third reading.

Assembly Bill No. 16.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblyman O'Neill.

ASSEMBLYMAN O'NEILL:

Assembly Bill 16 provides that an employee of or a contractor or volunteer for a prison commits unauthorized custodial conduct if he or she voluntarily engages or attempts to engage in certain sexual acts with a prisoner. Acts that constitute unauthorized custodial conduct are listed in the bill. The penalty provided for unauthorized custodial conduct is a gross misdemeanor or a misdemeanor, unless a greater penalty is provided. The bill clarifies that unauthorized custodial conduct does not include acts of an employee of or a contractor or volunteer for the prison that are performed to carry out official duties.

Further, the measure provides that an employee of or contractor or volunteer for a prison commits sexual abuse of a prisoner if he or she attempts to engage in certain sexual acts, as listed in the bill, whether or not the prisoner consents to a sexual act. The employee, contractor, or volunteer who commits sexual abuse of a prisoner is guilty of a category D felony. This bill also provides that a prisoner who voluntarily engages in sexual conduct with a person who is not an employee of or a contractor or volunteer for a prison is guilty of a category D felony. This bill is effective on October 1, 2015.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Dickman.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DICKMAN:

Assembly Bill 32 makes various changes relating to taxes imposed by the Department of Motor Vehicles [DMV] on the sale of special fuels, including expanding the definition of "special fuel dealer" to include a person who sells liquefied natural gas and who delivers that fuel into the fuel tank of a motor vehicle not owned or controlled by that person; reducing the rate on the sale or use of liquefied petroleum gas from 21 cents per gallon to 6.4 cents per gallon; changing the conversion rate on liquefied petroleum gas from 125 cubic feet per gallon to 36.3 cubic feet or 4.2 pounds per gallon; establishing a conversion rate for liquefied natural gas equal to 6.06 pounds per gallon; and requiring that special fuel dealers report all quantities of special fuel sold in gallons when the tax return is filed. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2015.

This Assembly bill corrects technical issues discovered during the interim regarding the conversion of special fuels to gallons and the application of the tax rate to the converted gallons of special fuel between the DMV and the special fuel taxpayers. The provisions of this bill related to the conversion of compressed natural gas and maintaining the current statutory 21 cent per gallon tax rate require a two-thirds vote to rectify the issue discovered during the interim.

ASSEMBLYMAN FLORES:

Assembly Bill 65 makes various changes relating to the regulation of notaries public and document preparation services. The bill clarifies that criminal convictions based on a plea of nolo contendere, or no contest, can result in the suspension or revocation of the appointment of notaries public. The bill also clarifies that a person whose appointment as a notary public has expired or been suspended or revoked shall not represent him or herself as a notary public or face a potential civil penalty for such a violation.

The bill prohibits the Secretary of State from appointing as a notary public or registering as a document preparation service any person who previously served as a notary public or a document preparation service in this state or another state whose appointment or registration has been revoked for cause. The measure allows a person who holds employment authorization from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services to register a document preparation service. Finally, the bill authorizes the Secretary of State to inspect the documents required to be maintained by a document preparation service to ensure compliance with the law. This bill is effective on July 1, 2015.

Assembly Bill 81 revises the definition of a "treatment provider" to include a licensed or certified psychologist; marriage and family therapist; social worker; or alcohol, drug, and gambling counselor. If a court orders an offender to complete a treatment program for alcoholism or drug abuse, the treatment provider must be approved by the court. A court is authorized to allow a person to complete any remaining treatment under the supervision of a treatment provider in another jurisdiction who holds a license, certificate, or other credential issued by a regulatory agency of that jurisdiction.

The bill also revises the duties of the court when offering a treatment program to an offender. If a person chooses to participate in a treatment program and the court has a specialty court for the supervision and monitoring of the person, then the treatment provider must comply with the requirements of the specialty court.

Additionally, A.B. 86 removes the restriction against appointing a person to the Board who is affiliated in any way with a health insurer; however, it limits the number of voting members of the Board that may represent any particular area of expertise or experience. ASSEMBLYWOMAN TITUS:

Assembly Bill 164 authorizes a manufacturer to provide, or make available, an investigational drug, biological product, or device to a patient diagnosed with a terminal condition that, without the administration of life-sustaining treatment, will result in death within one year, if a physician prescribes or recommends such drugs, products, or devices after certain conditions are met. An investigational drug, biological product, or device is defined as one that: (a) has successfully completed Phase 1 of a clinical trial; (b) has not been approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration [FDA]; and (c) is currently being tested in a clinical trial approved by the FDA. An informed written consent must be signed by the patient that contains certain information on the potential consequences of the use of this investigational drug, product, or devices. A physician or professional nurse is not subject to disciplinary action for prescribing or recommending such drugs, products, or devices when authorized to do so. The bill exempts a physician or any person or governmental entity from the misdemeanor penalty otherwise imposed against a person who engages in certain acts related to investigational drugs or biological products. Also, the bill makes it a misdemeanor for any officer, employee, or agent of the state to prevent a patient from accessing an investigational drug, biological product, or device if certain requirements are met. This bill is effective upon passage and approval.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN FIORE:

I am really excited about Assembly Bill 164. My colleague in Assembly District 12 and I have worked hard on this bill, and I would really appreciate all of your support. This is the Right to Try bill that, once you are diagnosed with a terminal illness, you can try several things. I want to thank my colleague for working together on this bill. Thank you for your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 164. "My father loves life," she said. "He wants to live." We heard this from Elayna Youchah, a daughter from Las Vegas who dearly loves her dad. That was back on March 6 in front of your Committee on Health and Human Services. She was testifying in support of Assembly Bill 164. Elayna's father is terminally ill with a very painful form of cancer called multiple myeloma. Elayna's dad has exhausted all treatment options available to him currently except for an experimental medication that has not made it through the Food and Drug Administration [FDA] trial process yet but is considered very promising. This experimental medication is available to some terminally ill patients through clinical trials. Unfortunately, none of those clinical trials are here in our state. Elayna's father is very frail, very ill; it is difficult for him to get around the block much less for him to travel out of state. Elayna supported this bill because it could potentially save her father's life as well as the lives of many other people who have come forward to express their support for the right to try experimental medications that have passed through Phase 1 of the FDA's clinical trials but do not yet have final FDA approval.

I want to remind you that final FDA approval can take between 10 and 15 years, and for many terminally ill patients, that is a lethal pace. It is a pace we should not expect our constituents to have to wait for. Assembly Bill 164 is a small step toward cutting some of the red tape to allow someone to make the choice to try a medication that could save their life. Fortunately, most of us will never feel the frustration of knowing that there is a medication out there that could save a loved one's life but is off-limits because it does not yet have the FDA official stamp of approval.

Assembly Bill 164 is about allowing an adult to make the decision to move forward with a medication after that first phase of testing but before final approval which could take an additional ten years and could come too late. Fourteen states have passed very similar legislation. Thirteen of those states have acted through state legislative action. One state, Arizona, passed it at the ballot with over 80 percent of the vote.

Currently, for patients like Elayna's dad, there are two options in terms of trying to get a medication that has not made it through the FDA process. Clinical trials are available if you are lucky enough to have one in your home state. Or if you are well enough and have the resources, you could travel to a medical center where it is being tried. There is also something called the FDA's compassionate use exception. This came about back in the 1980s when many of our brothers and sisters were sick with the AIDS Virus. An organization called Act Up got very involved and urged the FDA to try to offer a compassionate use exception. And they did. They let people with HIV try these new medications that had not made it through the process. It is wonderful that we have that compassionate use exception offered by the Food and Drug Administration. In 2014 the FDA granted 6,000 compassionate use exceptions. That is according to The New York Times. According to the American Cancer Society, in 2014 there were 1,665,540 new cancer diagnoses in the United States and in 2014, 585,720 cancer deaths. I would argue that those statistics are unacceptable, and asking our constituents to have only those two options just will not cut it.

You may ask how a bill can change policy like this. In response to the Right to Try legislation that is sweeping across the nation, the FDA has in the last couple of months streamlined the compassionate use exception application process, which used to be very laborious in terms of the amount of paperwork that a dying patient had to fill out. It has gone from about 100 hours of paperwork—I kid you not, 100 hours, that is from the Government Accounting Office as to what they estimate it took to fill out the Compassionate Use paperwork—to about 45 minutes. So the legislation has not only changed things at the state level, but it has helped influence federal policy. I hope the body will look favorably on this legislation.

I do want to thank my colleague from Assembly District 4. She was the sponsor of Assembly Bill 358, and I think we took the best parts of both bills and put them together. I want to thank the Chairman of the Committee on Health and Human Services who worked very hard on this bill. Thank you to my colleagues from Districts 39, 36, 27, 30, 38, and the good doctor from Smith Valley who led the working group and my colleague from Sparks who was also in the working group. I think it is about time we passed this bill.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

There has been some confusion on the amendment that was proposed, and I think I need to put some intent on the record. The amendment was eliminating the hospice provision that could possibly be negotiated, and I wanted to make sure that depending upon how the hospice is dealt with in each individual person's case, this does not give them the right or take the right away, it merely deals with the issue of it being taken away through the informed consent process that is there. If there are any other questions, I would be happy to answer them.

Assembly Bill No. 189.
Bill read third time.
Remarks by Assemblymen Wheeler and Dooling.

ASSEMBLYMAN WHEELER:

Assembly Bill 189 makes various changes relating to special license plates. The bill requires an application by a charitable organization for a special license plate to include a budget prepared by or for the organization if it is not a governmental entity whose budget is included in the Executive Budget. This bill further requires that organization to provide the Commission on Special License Plates annually with a report on the organization's budget detailing how the special plate fees have been expended and a copy of its most recent federal tax return, if any. The measure also requires the organization to annually publish the tax return on its website or in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the organization is based.

This bill further authorizes the Commission to request the Legislative Commission to direct the Legislative Auditor to perform an audit of any charitable organization receiving fees from the sale of special license plates if the Commission has reasonable cause to believe or has received a credible complaint that the organization has filed with the Commission or the Department forms or records that are inadequate or inaccurate; committed improper practices of financial administration; or failed to use adequate methods and procedures to ensure that all money received by the organization from special license plates is appropriately expended.

Finally, A.B. 189 provides that all records related to the receipt or use of money from the sale of special license plates are public records and are available for public inspection.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DOOLING:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 189. To paraphrase Justice Brandeis, sunlight is the best disinfectant. I doubt many, if any, of the charitable organizations subject to the audit created by this bill will fail. But I would not be a responsible steward of public funds if I did not push for transparency and accountability from private recipients of those funds. This bill provides needed oversight, and I am very proud to support it.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPRINKLE:

Assembly Bill 214 authorizes a limited portion of the money in the Contingency Account for Victims of Human Trafficking to be used for fundraising for the direct benefit of the Contingency Account. The bill eliminates the requirements of review and recommendation by the Grants Management Advisory Committee of the Department of Health and Human Services if the Director determines that an emergency exists and an allocation of money from the Contingency Account is needed immediately.

The bill increases the penalty for soliciting a child for prostitution from a category E felony to a category E felony for a first offense, a category D felony for a second offense, and a category C felony for a third and subsequent offense. Lastly, the bill prohibits the court granting probation to, or suspending the sentence of, a person convicted of a third or subsequent offense of soliciting a child for prostitution. This bill is effective upon passage and approval.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Diaz.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DIAZ:

Assembly Bill 219 revises provisions governing the program established by the Court Administrator for the certification of court interpreters for persons with language barriers. Specifically, this bill changes terms referring to "certification" with terms referring to "credentialing" and replaces references to "language barriers" with references to "limited English proficiency." In addition, the bill requires an interpreter to be appointed at public expense for a person with limited English proficiency who is a party or witness in a civil proceeding. This bill is effective on October 1, 2015.

I know there are certain members of this body who were confused about limited English proficiency, and I wanted to let you know that the bill is not intended to cover considerations regarding individuals with sensory impairments such as visual or hearing losses as those are addressed under the disability rights sections of our law. Another part of our statute already addresses their access.

I also want to clarify that if we do not adopt civil cases along with criminal cases, Nevada could be in clear violation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. I want to leave in your mind that when we are talking about these civil cases, we are talking about child custody, child support cases, landlord-tenant cases, and also temporary or extended protective orders. It is my belief that if we clear these barriers in our courts and we are actually interpreting what is happening for defendants in the language they understand, we are going to be more effective. People will understand what they are held accountable to, what they need to follow through with, and we will avoid this merry-go-round with people not satisfying the requirements because they did not understand what was asked of them.

Assembly Bill No. 223.

Remarks by Assemblyman O'Neill.

ASSEMBLYMAN O'NEILL:

Assembly Bill 223 revises provisions concerning the abuse, neglect, exploitation, and isolation of older and vulnerable persons. "Abandonment" is defined as the desertion of an older person or vulnerable person in an unsafe manner by a caretaker or other person with a legal duty of care or withdrawal of necessary assistance owed to an older person or vulnerable person by a caretaker or other person with an obligation to provide services to the person. References to the term "abandonment" are added to provisions of existing law. Other terms are clarified, including the term "abuse" to mean the infliction of psychological or emotional anguish, pain, or distress on an older person or vulnerable person through any act and permitting such acts to be committed, and the term "isolation" to include permitting acts that constitute isolation to be committed against an older person or vulnerable person.

The bill removes from current law the option for a person who knows or has reasonable cause to believe that an older person has been subjected to certain acts to report such information to the county's office for protective services. Finally, A.B. 223 provides that if data or information concerning the confidential reports and investigations of the abuse, neglect, exploitation, isolation, or abandonment is made available, the name and any other identifying information of the person who made the report must be redacted before the data or information is made available. This bill is effective on October 1, 2015.

This bill further authorizes a state agency to designate an employee as a public engagement specialist to implement the agency's policy on public engagement and to the extent feasible, provide training on public engagement to other employees of the agency. The bill further encourages a state agency to engage in a town hall meeting in a county whose population is 100,000 or less if the agency intends to propose a major change to an existing policy of the agency. Remarks by Assemblymen Moore, Thompson, Fiore, Stewart, Ohrenschall, Dickman, Carlton, and Hickey.

ASSEMBLYMAN MOORE:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 252. This is a commonsense bill that will assist this body in drawing maps that we are mandated to draw. This is simply an advisory group that will ensure the Legislature is looking at proposals that are fair, constitutional, and reasonable. I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN THOMPSON:

I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 252. The Legislature knows how to do its job on redistricting. The confidence was entrusted to this body by the framers of the state constitution, and we should not just give that up. Additionally, I have concerns about public comment and engagement. I really do not feel comfortable with the language and where it is lightly referenced in the bill. We must ensure that we take the time to engage people from various communities. It should be an inclusive, well thought out, and transparent process.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN FIORE:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 252. This is a great bill that will help this body through a very complicated and controversial redistricting process. This bill will help ensure the 2011 Session does not repeat itself, and the Legislature will fulfill our constitutional duties to redistrict. I urge your support.

ASSEMBLYMAN STEWART:

All this bill does is to prepare for what is coming. The last redistricting—a few of us were here, and we had a real struggle. It went on for some time. This bill prepares us by having this commission set up a program where we have a group of people get together and plan for the redistricting. They prepare three maps, they provide the personnel to get ready, and their proposals are ready after the census has been taken and the 2021 Session is underway. They will have a head start for getting things done as far as redistricting is concerned.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

I rise in opposition to A.B. 252. In response to the comments from your Chairman of Legislative Operations and Elections, we have a group of people tasked to redraw the districts after the decennial census—the Nevada Legislature. That authority is vested in this body and in the other Chamber by the Nevada Constitution. I am troubled by the bill. I am troubled by the fact that the commission can meet throughout the interim, will have subpoena powers during the interim. These are powers that belong to the Legislature and should not be delegated to a commission that is not composed of us.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DICKMAN:

I rise in support of A.B. 252. I am hearing all these comments that it is the Legislature's job, but as I recall, they did not get it done last time. I think it is great to have a head start, and I am in support of the bill.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 252. Being one of the few people in this body who has been through redistricting twice, I understand the complications of doing it. This body did do its job last time. We passed two bills. They did not make it, but we did our jobs. We spent many Saturdays talking to constituents, going over maps, driving around our districts meeting with folks making sure their voices were heard in the process. The first time I did this, it was an ugly process. It is an ugly process. It is a political process. The second time we did it, it was the same. And the next time we do it, it is going to be the same. You cannot abdicate your responsibilities to do your job under the constitution. That is what this bill does.

ASSEMBLYMAN HICKEY:

I rise in support of this bill. I, too, have witnessed the process, and while we may have gotten input from constituents, the fact is the Legislature punted the last time. All this bill does, as my colleague from Henderson said, is to give us a head start, to begin compiling the information and having the discussions. It will not take away from our legislatively mandated duties to make that decision and vote on a plan. The last vote that we took in the previous round of things did not reflect any real discussion between the two parties. I was on that committee, and for that reason, I think this helps us do our job. It does not take away from us doing it.

A person who makes such a call with the intent to initiate an emergency response is guilty of a category E felony if the emergency response results in the death or serious bodily injury of another. In addition, a person who is convicted of a category E felony for such an offense is liable for any costs incurred by any governmental entity as a result of his or her conduct. ASSEMBLYMAN ELLIOT ANDERSON:

Assembly Bill 447 revises existing provisions relating to the statewide performance evaluation system for educators. The bill requires that the 50 percent pupil achievement data used in evaluating an employee's overall performance be comprised of 25 percent from statewide examinations and assessments and 25 percent from assessments approved by both the school district board of trustees and the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The measure also delays until the 2016 2017 school year implementation of the statewide performance evaluation system for counselors, librarians, and other licensed educational personnel.

There is a lot going on with our statewide evaluation system now. This bill is an attempt to get it right. We need to get it right because other states have gone through problems, and so we are delaying it a little while to ensure that we are not getting sued and that we are fair to our teachers and our other personnel.

ASSEMBLYMAN SILBERKRAUS:

Assembly Bill 449 provides for the issuance of a special license plate supporting the Boy Scouts of America. Fees from these license plates are to be used to assist boys from low income families with the costs of participating in Boy Scouts and promote the Boy Scouts of America in schools. The bill also provides for the issuance of a special license plate recognizing a person who has achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. Fees from these plates are to be used to assist boys with the costs of participating in local area camps sponsored by the Boy Scouts of America.

Similarly, A.B. 449 provides for the issuance of special license plates recognizing a person who has been awarded the Girl Scout Gold Award by the Girl Scouts of America. Fees from these license plates are to be used to assist girls from low-income families with the costs of participating in Girl Scouts, and promote the Girl Scouts of America in schools.

Finally, the bill provides that special license plates recognizing a person who has achieved the rank of Eagle Scout in the Boy Scouts of America or has been awarded the Girl Scout Gold Award by the Girl Scouts of America are exempt from the requirements that a special license plate generally must be approved by the Department of Motor Vehicles based on a recommendation from the Commission on Special License Plates; is subject to a limitation on the number of separate designs of special license plates that the Department may issue at any one time; and may not be designed, prepared, or issued by the Department unless a certain minimum number of applications for the license plate is received.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I truly do support this bill, but I have some concerns about it circumventing the Commission on Special License Plates that was established in 2003. I have some questions to the sponsor. If this is totally going around the Commission, is it outside of the caps for Tier 1 and Tier 2 license plates?

ASSEMBLYMAN SILBERKRAUS:

Thank you to my distinguished colleague. As far as the first plate, the one supporting general scouting for Boy Scouts, that one would go through the Commission and would be in the queue and would not be moving ahead. For the plates recognizing Eagle Scouts and Girls Scout Gold Award recipients, as restricted plates, only individuals who have received those awards would be eligible for them. They would go around that 30 cap as we do with other recognition awards, be they veterans, public servants, or hall of fame athletes.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I did not see in the legislation where the Boy Scout or Girl Scout plate would be in the queue. It says that the Department will design, implement, accept the bond, but it did not say—and if you can point it out to me, I would love to be corrected because I would love to vote for this. I am the wife of an Eagle Scout, and I was a Girl Scout for 25 years and a Girl Scout leader just as long. I just want to make sure if they are in the queue, which tier they fall in. If they are going to bump the autism folks, or the conservation folks, or the food bank, or the Olympic committee; if they are going to bump Keep Memory Alive or the Women's Resource Medical Center, I would like to know where they are going to be in the queue.

ASSEMBLYMAN SILBERKRAUS:

I appreciate your comments and no, they would not bump them. The Boy Scouts are more than happy to wait in the queue, just like everybody else. I believe if you go through the bill, the exemption is placed behind the Eagle Scout section and behind the Girl Scout Gold Award section. It is not behind the Boy Scout section, so they would not be exempt from those provisions.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I am sorry, it is late in the day and I am confused. We have not had a piece of legislation that has addressed license plates in this building since 2003 when former Speaker Perkins put the bill in. We had two license plates attached to that, and those are the last two plates that have come out of this building, and I know that because I brokered the deal. I am not sure what is going to happen with this Boy Scout plate. I will support this today, but I have serious concerns about bringing plates to this body. Sooner or later, we are going to have to tell somebody no. It is easy to tell everybody yes. But sooner or later, we need to tell them to get in line with everyone else who has been waiting for five to ten years.

ASSEMBLYMAN SILBERKRAUS:

I appreciate your comments. I appreciate your support, and I believe the boys and the girls and the adults who support the Boys Scouts and the Girls Scouts of America appreciate your support as well.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 8.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Dickman, Elliot Anderson, Ohrenschall, Hickey, Armstrong, Carlton, and Wheeler.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DICKMAN:

Assembly Joint Resolution 8 proposes to amend the Nevada Constitution to require an affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the voters voting on any measure that increases revenue through a tax, fee, assessment, or rate. This requirement applies to any measure resulting from an initiative petition or a referendum from the Legislature. If approved in identical form during the 2017 Legislative Session, the proposal will be submitted to the voters for final approval or disapproval at the 2018 General Election.

We all remember the Gibbons tax restrain initiative that was passed overwhelmingly in the nineties, and I just think that the people should have an opportunity to decide if we should have that same restriction on ballot initiatives.

ASSEMBLYMAN ELLIOT ANDERSON:

I respectfully rise in opposition to Assembly Joint Resolution 8. I guess my opposition comes from two different avenues on this measure. I regret that two-thirds is the new 50 percent. We are talking here about a basic power of government. Taxing and spending are basic powers. We are not talking about impeachment. We are not taking about overriding a veto. We are not talking about something structural like that. I am opposed to two-thirds being the new 50 percent for regular powers of government.

Secondly, what this really does is take away power from the people. It makes it harder for the people to exercise their will. As long as we have had a republic, we have held sacrosanct 50 percent plus one. If you have one more vote than the next person, the majority rules, and this takes us farther away from that standard. I urge the body to reject A.J.R. 8.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

I, too, rise in opposition to A.J.R. 8. Nevada has always prided itself on being a progressive state. We have initiative, referendum, and recall—things that came from folks like Senator Robert M. LaFollette, a good Republican senator from Wisconsin. We adopted these things. We value our state legislative process, but we also want our citizens to be able to enact policy through direct action.

My concern with how broadly A.J.R. 8 is written is that it basically nullifies the initiative process. It is not limited to a simple tax increase. It affects anything that might have any kind of a fee. I look at very popular initiatives that have passed in history—the Pistol Initiative after the Kelo vs. New London decision. People were mad when the U.S. Supreme Court said you could take private property for redevelopment purposes and for private use, not a public use as we traditionally understood. People supported Pistol. It got 60.81 percent of the vote. It is next to impossible to reach that two-thirds majority. I have looked back and so far, I have not found an initiative that surpassed that two-thirds majority. I am concerned that we are nullifying the citizens' right to enact policy through the initiative process. If we are going to do that, then I think we should just go to the Constitution and be honest with our voters and take that out.

ASSEMBLYMAN HICKEY:

I rise in support of A.J.R. 8. I agree with the opponents to a certain degree about the voice of the people in these matters with regards to initiatives. I probably would not support this would it not be going to a vote of the people. The people themselves can decide that. One of the reasons why this is worthy of their consideration, along with ours, is that we have said for a long time that budgeting should not be done by the ballot box. That is putting the onus on us. We are going to be looking at budget matters and taxing matters this session, and we are going to take votes and take heat for those who may disagree with it. This is a good measure, and I am voting for it because it will go to a vote of the people and they can weigh in on it.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARMSTRONG:

I rise in support of A.J.R. 8. I want to address my colleague from Assembly District 12. We do not have to look that far to see that we had a petition that had a two-thirds vote. Last November we saw a vote that received two-thirds of a total against a ballot initiative. I would like to remind people that we have to work together for the state and to collaborate for the best possible message. We are asking the people to decide if they want to have the same restraints as we do as a body. That would force people to come to measures they support in a bi-partisan way. I do not see that as a bad thing—asking the people that question.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I have concerns about A.J.R. 8. I rise in opposition. It seems a bit ironic to me that it is going to take a basic majority of voters to pass a two-thirds initiative. I think giving that much power to a small minority of people does not serve the whole the best way it can. If we truly believe this is the way we want to go, then A.J.R. 8 should be a two-thirds vote also.

ASSEMBLYMAN WHEELER:

I rise in support of A.J.R. 8. It is obvious to me that we should send this question to the people to see if they want to change the Constitution to make this happen. That is all we are doing with this vote. We are not approving a two-thirds vote, we are not approving any type of constitutional change other than the fact that we send it to the people if it passes this house twice.

Senate Bill No. 109.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Shelton.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SHELTON:

Senate Bill 109 authorizes a board of county commissioners to initiate proceedings to sell or lease a county-owned telephone system by adopting a resolution to evaluate the propriety of receiving offers for the sale or lease of the system without the requirement of holding a primary or general election or obtaining approval of the registered voters of the county. The bill requires a board of county commissioners that adopts such a resolution to receive offers to sell a county-owned telephone system to contract with an expert to market and sell or lease the telephone system in a commercially reasonable manner, removing the requirement for newspaper advertisements. The board is not required to accept the highest bid but must consider other factors, including the return on investment to the county, the preservation of jobs, future revenue, and local control of the telephone system. Finally, the bill requires that at least three days before the board votes to accept or reject a proposed sale or lease, a notice must be published at least once in a local newspaper. This measure is effective on July 1, 2015.

SUMMARY— ~~[~~Clarifies~~]~~ Revises the authority ~~[~~and expands the jurisdiction~~]~~ of the Administrator of the State Public Works Division of the Department of Administration regarding leases for certain office rooms for state agencies, boards and commissions. (BDR 27-299)

AN ACT relating to the Department of Administration; ~~[~~expanding the jurisdiction of~~]~~ revising the authority of the Administrator of the State Public Works Division of the Department of Administration ~~[.]~~ with respect to the leasing of certain office rooms; requiring the Administrator to consider regulations adopted by the State Public Works Division when entering into such real property leases; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

~~[~~Existing law establishes the jurisdiction of the Administrator of the State Public Works Division of the Department of Administration over all state buildings, grounds and property owned or leased by this State, except for buildings and grounds owned or leased by certain state-established boards. (NRS 331.070) Section 1 of this bill eliminates the exception for state-established boards and provides the Administrator with jurisdiction over all buildings, grounds and property owned or leased by this State without exception.~~]~~

Existing law ~~[also]~~ grants the Administrator of the State Public Works Division of the Department of Administration the authority to lease office space to house state officers, departments, agencies, ~~[board]~~ boards or commissions whenever sufficient space cannot be provided within state buildings. (NRS 331.110) ~~[Section 2 of this]~~ This bill ~~[changes the permissive language granting this authority to mandatory language. In addition, section 2]~~ makes it mandatory for the Administrator to lease and equip office rooms outside of state buildings for the use of state officers, departments, agencies, boards and commissions whenever sufficient space cannot be provided within state buildings except state officers and employees of boards that are exempt from the provisions of chapter 353 of NRS. This bill authorizes those exempt boards to request the Administrator to lease office rooms for them. This bill also requires the Administrator, when considering entering into a lease for office rooms, to take into consideration the ~~[buildings and grounds]~~ regulations ~~[adopted by]~~ governing the ~~[State Public Works Division.]~~ duties of the Buildings and Grounds Section of the Division, as well as the reasonableness of the applicable agreement and the availability of sufficient space within state buildings.

~~[Section 3 of this bill makes a conforming revision to maintain consistency with the change to existing law in section 2.]~~

(b) If the contract is entered into on or after May 28, 2009, shall, to the extent practicable as determined by the Administrator, comply with the program.

➥ If an owner chooses not to comply with the program pursuant to paragraph (a), a state or local agency shall not, after May 28, 2009, enter into a contract for occupancy of a building owned by the owner, except that the Administrator may authorize a state or local agency to enter into a contract for the occupancy of a building owned by an owner who does not comply with the program if the Administrator determines that it is impracticable for the owner to comply with the program.

~~[8.]~~ 9. As used in this section, "program" means the program established pursuant to NRS 701.218.

Sec. 3. ~~[NRS 331.120 is hereby amended to read as follows:~~

~~2. Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill amends various provisions of the Charter of the City of Reno. Section 1 of this bill adopts certain definitions applicable to the Charter as a whole.

Existing law provides for the appointment of members to the Charter Committee. (Reno City Charter § 1.140) The members of the Senate and Assembly delegations representing residents of the City and belonging to the majority and minority parties of the respective Houses appoint certain members to the Committee. Section 10 of this bill provides that the Majority Leader or Minority Leader of the Senate or the Speaker or Minority Leader of the Assembly shall appoint those members to the Charter Committee if there are no members of the respective Houses representing the residents of the City that belong to the majority or minority party, as applicable.

~~[Existing law provides that the duties of the Charter Committee include recommending necessary amendments to the Charter as one of the bill draft requests that the City Council is authorized to request at each regular legislative session. (Reno City Charter § 1.150) Sections 2 and 11 of this bill authorize the Charter Committee to request the drafting of one legislative measure that proposes amendments to the Charter without obtaining the approval of the City Council.]~~

Section 6 of this bill clarifies the procedures for filling a vacancy in an elective office by special election or appointment.

Section 7 of this bill sets forth who is an appointive officer or an appointive employee of the City. Section 7 also limits the number of ~~[appointive offices and]~~ appointive positions that may be created by the City Council. Further, section 7 requires the City Manager to file annually with the City Clerk a document that sets forth the organization of every department ~~[, division]~~ or other office of the City.

Sections 12-14 of this bill clarify the appointive officers, appointive employees and other staff that may be appointed by the City Manager, City Clerk and City Attorney, respectively. Section 12 requires the City Manager to be an actual, as opposed to constructive, resident of the State. Section 12 also requires a person who is appointed as the City Manager to become an actual resident of the State not later than 6 months after the date of his or her appointment.

Section 15 of this bill authorizes the City Council to retain the services of special legal counsel rather than employ such counsel.

Section 17 of this bill clarifies which employees are exempted from the City's Civil Service System.

Existing law authorizes the City Manager to adopt and revise specifications for the classes of positions in the Civil Service System. (Reno City Charter § 9.180) Section 21 of this bill requires the City Manager to instead: (1) prepare, maintain and, as necessary, revise a classification plan for positions in the Civil Service; and (2) allocate each position in the Civil Service to a class set forth in the classification plan. Section 21 also sets forth a process for an employee to request that the Civil Service Commission review the allocation or reallocation of his or her position. Section 18 of this bill requires the Commission to adopt rules setting forth the procedures for the Commission to review the allocation or reallocation of an employee's position by the City Manager.

Section 19 of this bill eliminates the authority of the Commission to require medical examinations of employees covered under the Civil Service System.

Section 20 of this bill revises provisions relating to employment positions that are moved into the Civil Service System.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 1 and 2 of this bill set forth new provisions relating to the employment of veterans. Section 1 requires the Administrator of the Employment Security Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation to gather ~~[and report]~~ aggregate unemployment data concerning veterans and report such data to the Interagency Council on Veterans Affairs on a ~~[monthly]~~ quarterly basis. Section 2 authorizes a private employer to adopt an employment policy that gives preference in hiring to a veteran or the spouse of a veteran. Existing law generally provides for preferential employment in public employment and the construction of public works for certain veterans. (NRS 281.060, 284.260, 338.130)

Under existing law, before a person can be issued a commercial driver's license by this State, the person is required, among other things, to pass a driving skills test for driving a commercial motor vehicle. (NRS 483.928) Section 5 of this bill provides an exemption to this requirement for certain persons who have experience driving a commercial motor vehicle because of their service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

Existing law also generally provides for the regulation of professions in this State. (Title 54 of NRS) Section 9 of this bill authorizes certain qualified professionals who are licensed in another state or territory of the United States and who are active members of, or the spouse of an active member of, the Armed Forces of the United States, a veteran or the surviving spouse of a veteran to apply for and receive a license by endorsement to practice their respective profession in this State. Section 9 also provides that a person who meets such requirements and receives a license by endorsement in certain professions is entitled to at least a 50 percent reduction in the fee for an examination required as a prerequisite to licensure or for initial issuance of a license. Section 10 of this bill requires a regulatory body to develop opportunities for reciprocity of licensure for such persons who hold a professional license that is not recognized by this State. Section 11 of this bill requires a regulatory body in certain circumstances to prepare and submit to the Interagency Council on Veterans Affairs an annual report providing information on the number of veterans who have applied for a license, have been issued a license or have renewed a license.

Section 12 of this bill authorizes certain regulatory bodies of this State to enter into a reciprocal agreement with the corresponding regulatory authority of another state or territory of the United States for the purposes of authorizing and regulating the practice of certain professions concurrently in this State and another jurisdiction. Sections 13, ~~[20]~~ 30.5 and 33 of this bill authorize certain qualified physicians and certain qualified podiatrists to obtain ~~[a]~~ an expedited license by endorsement to practice in this State if the physician or podiatrist meets certain requirements. ~~[Section 4 of this bill authorizes a medical facility to employ or contract with a physician to provide health care to a patient of the medical facility.]~~ Section 14 of this bill authorizes the Board of Medical Examiners to issue a license to practice medicine to certain persons who receive postgraduate education in certain approved residency programs in Canada.

Sections 20-27 of this bill revise various provisions relating to dentists and dental hygienists. Section 22.5 authorizes the Executive Director of the Board of Dental Examiners of Nevada to issue a license to a qualified applicant without further review of the Board under certain circumstances. Sections 23 and 25 revise provisions relating to the licensing requirements for dentists and dental hygienists, and section 27 establishes a fee for the inspection of a facility required by the Board ~~[of Dental Examiners of Nevada]~~ to ensure compliance with infection control guidelines.

Additionally, existing law authorizes the Board of Examiners for Social Workers to grant a license without examination to a person who holds a current license to engage in the practice of social work in a state whose licensing requirements at the time the license was issued are deemed by the Board to be substantially equivalent to the requirements set forth in the statutory provisions governing social workers in this State. (NRS 641B.270) Section 36 of this bill authorizes the Board to grant a provisional license to engage in social work as an independent social worker or a clinical social worker to an active member of or the spouse of an active member of the Armed Forces of the United States who applied for such a license if the Board deems that the other state's licensing requirements are not substantially equivalent to the requirements set forth in the statutory provisions governing social workers in this State. ~~[Section 37 of this bill increases the application and licensing fees charged and collected by the Board, and establishes a fee for an application to provide a course of continuing education.]~~ Section 3 of this bill adds the Board to the list of persons and governmental entities to whom records of criminal history must be disseminated by an agency of criminal justice upon request.

It changes the reporting requirements in section 1 of the bill from monthly to quarterly, and allows the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board of Dental Examiners of Nevada to accept or reject certain applications submitted to the Board under certain circumstances.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 1 and 2 of this bill set forth new provisions relating to the employment of veterans. Section 1 requires the Administrator of the Employment Security Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation to gather and report aggregate unemployment data concerning veterans to the Interagency Council on Veterans Affairs on a monthly basis. Section 2 authorizes a private employer to adopt an employment policy that gives preference in hiring to a veteran or the spouse of a veteran. Section 2 also authorizes the Nevada Equal Rights Commission to review the uniform application of such an employment policy upon receiving a written complaint from a prospective employee of the employer and requires the employer, upon a finding by the Commission that the policy has not been applied uniformly, to revise his or her employment policy in accordance with the recommendations of the Commission. Existing law generally provides for preferential employment in public employment and the construction of public works for certain veterans. (NRS 281.060, 284.260, 338.130)

Under existing law, before a person can be issued a commercial driver's license by this State, the person is required, among other things, to pass a driving skills test for driving a commercial motor vehicle. (NRS 483.928) Section 5 of this bill provides an exemption to this requirement for certain persons who have experience driving a commercial motor vehicle because of their service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

Existing law also generally provides for the regulation of professions in this State. (Title 54 of NRS) Section 9 of this bill authorizes certain qualified professionals who are licensed in another state or territory of the United States and who are active members of, or the spouse of an active member of, the Armed Forces of the United States, a veteran or the surviving spouse of a veteran to apply for and receive a license by endorsement to practice their respective profession in this State. Section 9 also provides that a person who meets such requirements and receives a license by endorsement in certain professions is entitled to at least a 50 percent reduction in the fee for an examination required as a prerequisite to licensure or for initial issuance of a license. Section 10 of this bill requires a regulatory body to develop opportunities for reciprocity of licensure for such persons who hold a professional license that is not recognized by this State. Section 11 of this bill requires a regulatory body in certain circumstances to prepare and submit to the Interagency Council on Veterans Affairs an annual report providing information on the number of veterans who have applied for a license, have been issued a license or have renewed a license.

Section 12 of this bill authorizes certain regulatory bodies of this State to enter into a reciprocal agreement with the corresponding regulatory authority of another state or territory of the United States for the purposes of authorizing and regulating the practice of certain professions concurrently in this State and another jurisdiction. Section 12 provides that such a reciprocal agreement must not authorize a person to practice his or her profession concurrently in this State unless the person meets certain credentialing requirements. Sections 13, 28 and 33 of this bill authorize certain qualified physicians and certain qualified podiatrists to obtain a license by endorsement to practice in this State if the physician or podiatrist meets certain requirements. Section 4 of this bill authorizes a medical facility to employ or contract with a physician to provide health care to a patient of the medical facility.

Sections 20-27 of this bill revise various provisions relating to dentists and dental hygienists. Sections 23 and 25 revise provisions relating to the licensing requirements for dentists and dental hygienists, and section 27 establishes a fee for the inspection of a facility required by the Board of Dental Examiners of Nevada to ensure compliance with infection control guidelines.

Additionally, existing law authorizes the Board of Examiners for Social Workers to grant a license without examination to a person who holds a current license to engage in the practice of social work in a state whose licensing requirements at the time the license was issued are deemed by the Board to be substantially equivalent to the requirements set forth in the statutory provisions governing social workers in this State. (NRS 641B.270) Section 36 of this bill authorizes the Board to grant a provisional license to engage in social work as an independent social worker or a clinical social worker to an active member of or the spouse of an active member of the Armed Forces of the United States who applied for such a license if the Board deems that the other state's licensing requirements are not substantially equivalent to the requirements set forth in the statutory provisions governing social workers in this State. Section 37 of this bill increases the application and licensing fees charged and collected by the Board, and establishes a fee for an application to provide a course of continuing education. Section 3 of this bill adds the Board to the list of persons and governmental entities to whom records of criminal history must be disseminated by an agency of criminal justice upon request.

(NRS 433A.160) Section ~~[1]~~ 1.5 of this bill expands the list of persons who are authorized to file such an application to include a physician assistant.

Existing law requires a person to be examined by a physician, physician assistant or advanced practice registered nurse before being admitted to a mental health facility on an emergency basis. (NRS 433A.165) Section 1.6 of this bill authorizes a paramedic to conduct such an examination.

With certain exceptions, existing law requires an application for the emergency admission of a person alleged to be a person with a mental illness to be accompanied by a certificate of a psychiatrist or licensed psychologist or, if neither is available, a physician, stating that the person has a mental illness and, because of the mental illness, is likely to harm himself or herself or others if not admitted to certain facilities or programs. (NRS 433A.170, 433A.200) Under existing law, a licensed physician on the medical staff of certain facilities may release a person alleged to be a person with mental illness who has been admitted on an emergency basis if a licensed physician on the medical staff of the facility completes a certificate stating that the person admitted is not a person with a mental illness. (NRS 433A.195) Sections 1, 1.7, 2 , ~~[and]~~ 3 and 4 of this bill authorize a physician assistant ~~[,]~~ under the supervision of a psychiatrist, a psychologist, a clinical social worker ~~[or]~~ with certain psychiatric training and experience, an advanced practice registered nurse with certain psychiatric training and experience or an accredited agent of the Department of Health and Human Services to complete such a certificate while still requiring a licensed physician on the medical staff of the facility to release the person. Sections 4.2 and 4.7 of this bill require the State Board of Nursing and the Board of Examiners for Social Workers to adopt regulations prescribing the psychiatric training and experience necessary before an advanced practice registered nurse or clinical social worker, as applicable, may complete such a certificate.

Existing law prohibits a person who is related by blood or marriage within the first degree of consanguinity or affinity from completing: (1) an application for the emergency admission of such a person to a mental health facility; (2) a certificate stating that a person has a mental illness, is likely to harm himself or herself or others if not admitted to a mental health facility on an emergency basis; or (3) a certificate stating that a person is not a person with a mental illness. (NRS 433A.197) Section 3 also prohibits a person who is related by blood or marriage within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity to a person alleged to be a person with mental illness from completing such an application or certificate.

Existing law authorizes the spouse or a parent, adult child or legal guardian of a person and certain other persons to file a petition for the involuntary court-ordered admission of a person alleged to be a person with mental illness to a mental health facility or to a program of community-based or outpatient services. (NRS 433A.200) Section 4 ~~[of this bill]~~ further authorizes a physician assistant to file such a petition.

For pupils at a charter school or a university school for profoundly gifted pupils, section 3 authorizes pupils to allege a violation to the administrative head of the school and then to the governing body of the school. Section 3 also provides a right of action to any pupil whose rights have allegedly been violated and who has exhausted the grievance process described above.~~] express themselves in a manner consistent with the rights guaranteed by the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, provided that such expression does not disrupt instruction at a public school, is not used to bully or intimidate any person and is not organized, broadcast or endorsed by the public school. Section 2 also requires the board of trustees of each school district and the governing body of each charter school and university school for profoundly gifted pupils to adopt a grievance policy prescribing procedures for the resolution of a complaint that the rights described in section 2 have been violated.

Assemblyman Stewart moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Stewart.

ASSEMBLYMAN STEWART:

This amendment simplifies the bill by providing a statement that a pupil in a public school may express himself or herself in a manner consistent with religious rights guaranteed under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution as long as such expressions are not disruptive of instructional time or used for bullying or to intimidate. It requires the school district to have an antidiscrimination grievance policy in place for pupils to register complaints concerning restrictions upon such expressions that may be in conflict with the provisions set forth in the bill.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 125 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 and 3 of this act.

Sec. 2. Unless the action is contrary to a premarital agreement between the parties which is enforceable pursuant to chapter 123A of NRS, in making a disposition of the community property of the parties and any property held in joint tenancy by the parties, and in making an award of alimony, the court shall not:

Sec. 4. NRS 125.150 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125.150 Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.155 and sections 2 and 3 of this act and unless the action is contrary to a premarital agreement between the parties which is enforceable pursuant to chapter 123A of NRS:

1. In granting a divorce, the court:

(a) May award such alimony to the wife or to the husband, in a specified principal sum or as specified periodic payments, as appears just and equitable; and

(b) Shall, to the extent practicable, make an equal disposition of the community property of the parties, except that the court may make an unequal disposition of the community property in such proportions as it deems just if the court finds a compelling reason to do so and sets forth in writing the reasons for making the unequal disposition.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, in granting a divorce, the court shall dispose of any property held in joint tenancy in the manner set forth in subsection 1 for the disposition of community property. If a party has made a contribution of separate property to the acquisition or improvement of property held in joint tenancy, the court may provide for the reimbursement of that party for his or her contribution. The amount of reimbursement must not exceed the amount of the contribution of separate property that can be traced to the acquisition or improvement of property held in joint tenancy, without interest or any adjustment because of an increase in the value of the property held in joint tenancy. The amount of reimbursement must not exceed the value, at the time of the disposition, of the property held in joint tenancy for which the contribution of separate property was made. In determining whether to provide for the reimbursement, in whole or in part, of a party who has contributed separate property, the court shall consider:

(a) The intention of the parties in placing the property in joint tenancy;

(b) The length of the marriage; and

(c) Any other factor which the court deems relevant in making a just and equitable disposition of that property.

➥ As used in this subsection, "contribution" includes, without limitation, a down payment, a payment for the acquisition or improvement of property, and a payment reducing the principal of a loan used to finance the purchase or improvement of property. The term does not include a payment of interest on a loan used to finance the purchase or improvement of property, or a payment made for maintenance, insurance or taxes on property.

3. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.141, whether or not application for suit money has been made under the provisions of NRS 125.040, the court may award a reasonable attorney's fee to either party to an action for divorce.

4. In granting a divorce, the court may also set apart such portion of the husband's separate property for the wife's support, the wife's separate property for the husband's support or the separate property of either spouse for the support of their children as is deemed just and equitable.

5. In the event of the death of either party or the subsequent remarriage of the spouse to whom specified periodic payments were to be made, all the payments required by the decree must cease, unless it was otherwise ordered by the court.

6. If the court adjudicates the property rights of the parties, or an agreement by the parties settling their property rights has been approved by the court, whether or not the court has retained jurisdiction to modify them, the adjudication of property rights, and the agreements settling property rights, may nevertheless at any time thereafter be modified by the court upon written stipulation signed and acknowledged by the parties to the action, and in accordance with the terms thereof.

7. If a decree of divorce, or an agreement between the parties which was ratified, adopted or approved in a decree of divorce, provides for specified periodic payments of alimony, the decree or agreement is not subject to modification by the court as to accrued payments. Payments pursuant to a decree entered on or after July 1, 1975, which have not accrued at the time a motion for modification is filed may be modified upon a showing of changed circumstances, whether or not the court has expressly retained jurisdiction for the modification. In addition to any other factors the court considers relevant in determining whether to modify the order, the court shall consider whether the income of the spouse who is ordered to pay alimony, as indicated on the spouse's federal income tax return for the preceding calendar year, has been reduced to such a level that the spouse is financially unable to pay the amount of alimony the spouse has been ordered to pay.

8. In addition to any other factors the court considers relevant in determining whether to award alimony and the amount of such an award, the court shall consider:

(a) The financial condition of each spouse;

(b) The nature and value of the respective property of each spouse;

(c) The contribution of each spouse to any property held by the spouses pursuant to NRS 123.030;

(d) The duration of the marriage;

(e) The income, earning capacity, age and health of each spouse;

(f) The standard of living during the marriage;

(g) The career before the marriage of the spouse who would receive the alimony;

(h) The existence of specialized education or training or the level of marketable skills attained by each spouse during the marriage;

(i) The contribution of either spouse as homemaker;

(j) The award of property granted by the court in the divorce, other than child support and alimony, to the spouse who would receive the alimony; and

(2) The governmental services tax imposed pursuant to chapter 371 of NRS on the vehicles used in the operation of his or her business in this State of not less than $5,000 for each consecutive 12-month period for 60 months immediately preceding the submission of the affidavit from the certified public accountant; or

(3) Any combination of such sales and use taxes and governmental services tax; or

(a) Paid directly, on his or her own behalf:

(1) The sales and use taxes pursuant to chapters 372, 374 and 377 of NRS on materials used for construction in this State, including, without limitation, construction that is undertaken or carried out on land within the boundaries of this State that is managed by the Federal Government or is on an Indian reservation or Indian colony, of not less than $5,000 for each consecutive 12-month period for 60 months immediately preceding the submission of the affidavit from the certified public accountant;

(2) The governmental services tax imposed pursuant to chapter 371 of NRS on the vehicles used in the operation of his or her business in this State of not less than $5,000 for each consecutive 12-month period for 60 months immediately preceding the submission of the affidavit from the certified public accountant; or

(3) Any combination of such sales and use taxes and governmental services tax; or

(b) Acquired, by purchase, inheritance, gift or transfer through a stock option plan, all the assets and liabilities of a viable, operating construction firm that possesses a:

(1) License as a specialty contractor pursuant to the provisions of chapter 624 of NRS; and

(2) Certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works.

5. For the purposes of complying with the requirements set forth in paragraph (a) of subsection 3 and paragraph (a) of subsection 4, a contractor shall be deemed to have paid:

(a) Sales and use taxes and governmental services taxes that were paid in this State by an affiliate or parent company of the contractor, if the affiliate or parent company is also a general contractor or specialty contractor, as applicable; and

8. If a contractor holds more than one contractor's license, the contractor must submit a separate application for each license pursuant to which the contractor wishes to qualify for a preference in bidding. 9. If a contractor who applies to the State Contractors' Board for a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works:

(a) Submits false information to the Board regarding the required payment of taxes, the contractor is not eligible to receive a preference in bidding on public works for a period of 5 years after the date on which the Board becomes aware of the submission of the false information; or

(b) Is found by the Board to have, within the preceding 5 years, materially breached a contract for a public work for which the cost exceeds $5,000,000, the contractor is not eligible to receive a preference in bidding on public works.

10. If any federal statute or regulation precludes the granting of federal assistance or reduces the amount of that assistance for a particular public work because of the provisions of subsection 2, those provisions do not apply insofar as their application would preclude or reduce federal assistance for that work.

11. If a bid is submitted by two or more contractors as a joint venture or by one of them as a joint venturer, the bid may receive a preference in bidding only if both or all of the joint venturers separately meet the requirements of subsection 2.

12. The State Contractors' Board shall adopt regulations and may assess reasonable fees relating to the certification of contractors for a preference in bidding on public works.

13. A person who submitted a bid on the public work or an entity who believes that the contractor who was awarded the contract for the public work wrongfully holds a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works may challenge the validity of the certificate by filing a written objection with the public body to which the contractor has submitted a bid on a contract for the construction of a public work. A written objection authorized pursuant to this subsection must:

(a) Set forth proof or substantiating evidence to support the belief of the person or entity that the contractor wrongfully holds a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works; and

(b) Be filed with the public body not later than 3 business days after the opening of the bids by the public body or its authorized representative.

14. If a public body receives a written objection pursuant to subsection 13, the public body shall determine whether the objection is accompanied by the proof or substantiating evidence required pursuant to paragraph (a) of that subsection. If the public body determines that the objection is not accompanied by the required proof or substantiating evidence, the public body shall dismiss the objection and the public body or its authorized representative may proceed immediately to award the contract. If the public body determines that the objection is accompanied by the required proof or substantiating evidence, the public body shall determine whether the contractor qualifies for the certificate pursuant to the provisions of this section and the public body or its authorized representative may proceed to award the contract accordingly.

Sec. 3.5. NRS 338.147 is hereby amended to read as follows:

338.147 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 10 and NRS 338.143, 338.1442 and 338.1446, a local government or its authorized representative shall award a contract for a public work for which the estimated cost exceeds $250,000 to the contractor who submits the best bid.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 10 or limited by subsection 11, the lowest bid that is:

(a) Submitted by a contractor who:

(1) Has been found to be a responsible and responsive contractor by the local government or its authorized representative;

(2) At the time the contractor submits his or her bid, provides a valid certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works issued to the contractor by the State Contractors' Board pursuant to subsection 3 or 4; and

(3) Within 2 hours after the completion of the opening of the bids by the local government or its authorized representative, submits a signed affidavit that meets the requirements of subsection 1 of NRS 338.0117; and

(b) Not more than ~~[5]~~ 7.5 percent higher than the bid submitted by the lowest responsive and responsible bidder who:

(1) Does not provide, at the time he or she submits the bid, a valid certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works issued to him or her by the State Contractors' Board pursuant to subsection 3 or 4; or

(2) Does not submit, within 2 hours after the completion of the opening of the bids by the public body or its authorized representative, a signed affidavit certifying that he or she will comply with the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of subsection 1 of NRS 338.0117 for the duration of the contract,

➥ shall be deemed to be the best bid for the purposes of this section.

3. The State Contractors' Board shall issue a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works to a general contractor who is licensed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 624 of NRS and submits to the Board an affidavit from a certified public accountant setting forth that the general contractor has, while licensed as a general contractor in this State:

(a) Paid directly, on his or her own behalf:

(1) The sales and use taxes imposed pursuant to chapters 372, 374 and 377 of NRS on materials used for construction in this State, including, without limitation, construction that is undertaken or carried out on land within the boundaries of this State that is managed by the Federal Government or is on an Indian reservation or Indian colony, of not less than $5,000 for each consecutive 12-month period for 60 months immediately preceding the submission of the affidavit from the certified public accountant;

(2) The governmental services tax imposed pursuant to chapter 371 of NRS on the vehicles used in the operation of his or her business in this State of not less than $5,000 for each consecutive 12-month period for 60 months immediately preceding the submission of the affidavit from the certified public accountant; or

(3) Any combination of such sales and use taxes and governmental services tax; or

(b) Acquired, by purchase, inheritance, gift or transfer through a stock option plan, all the assets and liabilities of a viable, operating construction firm that possesses a:

(1) License as a general contractor pursuant to the provisions of chapter 624 of NRS; and

(2) Certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works.

4. The State Contractors' Board shall issue a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works to a specialty contractor who is licensed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 624 of NRS and submits to the Board an affidavit from a certified public accountant setting forth that the specialty contractor has, while licensed as a specialty contractor in this State:

(a) Paid directly, on his or her own behalf:

(1) The sales and use taxes pursuant to chapters 372, 374 and 377 of NRS on materials used for construction in this State, including, without limitation, construction that is undertaken or carried out on land within the boundaries of this State that is managed by the Federal Government or is on an Indian reservation or Indian colony, of not less than $5,000 for each consecutive 12-month period for 60 months immediately preceding the submission of the affidavit from the certified public accountant;

(2) The governmental services tax imposed pursuant to chapter 371 of NRS on the vehicles used in the operation of his or her business in this State of not less than $5,000 for each consecutive 12-month period for 60 months immediately preceding the submission of the affidavit from the certified public accountant; or

(3) Any combination of such sales and use taxes and governmental services tax; or

(b) Acquired, by purchase, inheritance, gift or transfer through a stock option plan, all the assets and liabilities of a viable, operating construction firm that possesses a:

(1) License as a specialty contractor pursuant to the provisions of chapter 624 of NRS; and

(2) Certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works.

5. For the purposes of complying with the requirements set forth in paragraph (a) of subsection 3 and paragraph (a) of subsection 4, a contractor shall be deemed to have paid:

(a) Sales and use taxes and governmental services taxes paid in this State by an affiliate or parent company of the contractor, if the affiliate or parent company is also a general contractor or specialty contractor, as applicable; and

(b) Sales and use taxes paid in this State by a joint venture in which the contractor is a participant, in proportion to the amount of interest the contractor has in the joint venture.

6. A contractor who has received a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works from the State Contractors' Board pursuant to subsection 3 or 4 shall, at the time for the renewal of his or her contractor's license pursuant to NRS 624.283, submit to the Board an affidavit from a certified public accountant setting forth that the contractor has, during the immediately preceding 12 months, paid the taxes required pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 3 or paragraph (a) of subsection 4, as applicable, to maintain eligibility to hold such a certificate.

7. A contractor who fails to submit an affidavit to the Board pursuant to subsection 6 ceases to be eligible to receive a preference in bidding on public works unless the contractor reapplies for and receives a certificate of eligibility pursuant to subsection 3 or 4, as applicable.

8. If a contractor holds more than one contractor's license, the contractor must submit a separate application for each license pursuant to which the contractor wishes to qualify for a preference in bidding. Upon issuance, the certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works becomes part of the contractor's license for which the contractor submitted the application.

9. If a contractor who applies to the State Contractors' Board for a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works:

(a) Submits false information to the Board regarding the required payment of taxes, the contractor is not eligible to receive a preference in bidding on public works for a period of 5 years after the date on which the Board becomes aware of the submission of the false information; or

(b) Is found by the Board to have, within the preceding 5 years, materially breached a contract for a public work for which the cost exceeds $5,000,000, the contractor is not eligible to receive a preference in bidding on public works.

10. If any federal statute or regulation precludes the granting of federal assistance or reduces the amount of that assistance for a particular public work because of the provisions of subsection 2, those provisions do not apply insofar as their application would preclude or reduce federal assistance for that work.

11. If a bid is submitted by two or more contractors as a joint venture or by one of them as a joint venturer, the bid may receive a preference in bidding only if both or all of the joint venturers separately meet the requirements of subsection 2.

12. The State Contractors' Board shall adopt regulations and may assess reasonable fees relating to the certification of contractors for a preference in bidding on public works.

13. A person who submitted a bid on the public work or an entity who believes that the contractor who was awarded the contract for the public work wrongfully holds a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works may challenge the validity of the certificate by filing a written objection with the local government to which the contractor has submitted a bid on a contract for the construction of a public work. A written objection authorized pursuant to this subsection must:

(a) Set forth proof or substantiating evidence to support the belief of the person or entity that the contractor wrongfully holds a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works; and

(b) Be filed with the local government not later than 3 business days after the opening of the bids by the local government or its authorized representative.

14. If a local government receives a written objection pursuant to subsection 13, the local government shall determine whether the objection is accompanied by the proof or substantiating evidence required pursuant to paragraph (a) of that subsection. If the local government determines that the objection is not accompanied by the required proof or substantiating evidence, the local government shall dismiss the objection and the local government or its authorized representative may proceed immediately to award the contract. If the local government determines that the objection is accompanied by the required proof or substantiating evidence, the local government shall determine whether the contractor qualifies for the certificate pursuant to the provisions of this section and the local government or its authorized representative may proceed to award the contract accordingly.

Sec. 3.6. NRS 338.1693 is hereby amended to read as follows:

338.1693 1. The public body or its authorized representative shall appoint a panel consisting of at least three but not more than seven members, a majority of whom must have experience in the construction industry, to rank the proposals submitted to the public body by evaluating the proposals as required pursuant to subsections 2 and 3.

2. The panel appointed pursuant to subsection 1 shall rank the proposals by:

(a) Verifying that each applicant satisfies the requirements of NRS 338.1691; and

(b) Evaluating and assigning a score to each of the proposals received by the public body based on the factors and relative weight assigned to each factor that the public body specified in the request for proposals.

3. When ranking the proposals, the panel appointed pursuant to subsection 1 shall assign a relative weight of ~~[5]~~ 7.5 percent to the applicant's possession of a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works if the applicant submits a signed affidavit that meets the requirements of subsection 1 of NRS 338.0117. If any federal statute or regulation precludes the granting of federal assistance or reduces the amount of that assistance for a particular public work because of the provisions of this subsection, those provisions of this subsection do not apply insofar as their application would preclude or reduce federal assistance for that work.

4. After the panel appointed pursuant to subsection 1 ranks the proposals, the public body or its authorized representative shall, except as otherwise provided in subsection 8, select at least the two but not more than the five applicants whose proposals received the highest scores for interviews.

5. The public body or its authorized representative may appoint a separate panel to interview and rank the applicants selected pursuant to subsection 4. If a separate panel is appointed pursuant to this subsection, the panel must consist of at least three but not more than seven members, a majority of whom must have experience in the construction industry.

6. During the interview process, the panel conducting the interview may require the applicants to submit a preliminary proposed amount of compensation for managing the preconstruction and construction of the public work, but in no event shall the proposed amount of compensation exceed 20 percent of the scoring for the selection of the most qualified applicant. All presentations made at any interview conducted pursuant to this subsection or subsection 5 may be made only by key personnel employed by the applicant, as determined by the applicant, and the employees of the applicant who will be directly responsible for managing the preconstruction and construction of the public work.

7. After conducting such interviews, the panel that conducted the interviews shall rank the applicants by using a ranking process that is separate from the process used to rank the applicants pursuant to subsection 2 and is based only on information submitted during the interview process. The score to be given for the proposed amount of compensation, if any, must be calculated by dividing the lowest of all the proposed amounts of compensation by the applicant's proposed amount of compensation multiplied by the total possible points available to each applicant. When ranking the applicants, the panel that conducted the interviews shall assign a relative weight of ~~[5]~~ 7.5 percent to the applicant's possession of a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works if the applicant submits a signed affidavit that meets the requirements of subsection 1 of NRS 338.0117. If any federal statute or regulation precludes the granting of federal assistance or reduces the amount of that assistance for a particular public work because of the provisions of this subsection, those provisions of this subsection do not apply insofar as their application would preclude or reduce federal assistance for that work.

8. If the public body did not receive at least two proposals, the public body may not contract with a construction manager at risk.

9. Upon receipt of the final rankings of the applicants from the panel that conducted the interviews, the public body or its authorized representative shall enter into negotiations with the most qualified applicant determined pursuant to the provisions of this section for a contract for preconstruction services, unless the public body required the submission of a proposed amount of compensation, in which case the proposed amount of compensation submitted by the applicant must be the amount offered for the contract. If the public body or its authorized representative is unable to negotiate a contract with the most qualified applicant for an amount of compensation that the public body or its authorized representative and the most qualified applicant determine to be fair and reasonable, the public body or its authorized representative shall terminate negotiations with that applicant. The public body or its authorized representative may then undertake negotiations with the next most qualified applicant in sequence until an agreement is reached and, if the negotiation is undertaken by an authorized representative of the public body, approved by the public body or until a determination is made by the public body to reject all applicants.

10. The public body or its authorized representative shall make available to all applicants and the public the final rankings of the applicants, as determined by the panel that conducted the interviews, and shall provide, upon request, an explanation to any unsuccessful applicant of the reasons why the applicant was unsuccessful.

Sec. 3.7. NRS 338.1725 is hereby amended to read as follows:

338.1725 1. The public body shall select at least two but not more than four finalists from among the design-build teams that submitted preliminary proposals. If the public body does not receive at least two preliminary proposals from design-build teams that the public body determines to be qualified pursuant to this section and NRS 338.1721, the public body may not contract with a design-build team for the design and construction of the public work.

2. The public body shall select finalists pursuant to subsection 1 by:

(a) Verifying that each design-build team which submitted a preliminary proposal satisfies the requirements of NRS 338.1721;

(b) Conducting an evaluation of the qualifications of each design-build team that submitted a preliminary proposal, including, without limitation, an evaluation of:

(1) The professional qualifications and experience of the members of the design-build team;

(2) The performance history of the members of the design-build team concerning other recent, similar projects completed by those members, if any;

(3) The safety programs established and the safety records accumulated by the members of the design-build team; and

(4) The proposed plan of the design-build team to manage the design and construction of the public work that sets forth in detail the ability of the design-build team to design and construct the public work; and

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, assigning, without limitation, a relative weight of ~~[5]~~ 7.5 percent to the possession of both a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works by all contractors on the design-build team and a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference when competing for public works by all design professionals on the design-build team. If any federal statute or regulation precludes the granting of federal assistance or reduces the amount of that assistance for a particular public work because of the provisions of this paragraph relating to a preference in bidding on public works or a preference when competing for public works, those provisions of this paragraph do not apply insofar as their application would preclude or reduce federal assistance for that public work.

3. After the selection of finalists pursuant to this section, the public body shall make available to the public the results of the evaluations of preliminary proposals conducted pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 and identify which of the finalists, if any, received an assignment of ~~[5]~~ 7.5 percent pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection 2.

Sec. 3.8. NRS 338.1727 is hereby amended to read as follows:

338.1727 1. After selecting the finalists pursuant to NRS 338.1725, the public body shall provide to each finalist a request for final proposals for the public work. The request for final proposals must:

(a) Set forth the factors that the public body will use to select a design-build team to design and construct the public work, including the relative weight to be assigned to each factor; and

(b) Set forth the date by which final proposals must be submitted to the public body.

2. If one or more of the finalists selected pursuant to NRS 338.1725 is disqualified or withdraws, the public body may select a design-build team from the remaining finalist or finalists.

3. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, in assigning the relative weight to each factor for selecting a design-build team pursuant to subsection 1, the public body shall assign, without limitation, a relative weight of ~~[5]~~ 7.5 percent to the possession of both a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works by all contractors on the design-build team if the contractors submit signed affidavits that meet the requirements of subsection 1 of NRS 338.0117, and a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference when competing for public works by all design professionals on the design-build team, and a relative weight of at least 30 percent to the proposed cost of design and construction of the public work. If any federal statute or regulation precludes the granting of federal assistance or reduces the amount of that assistance for a particular public work because of the provisions of this subsection relating to a preference in bidding on public works, or a preference when competing for public works, those provisions of this subsection do not apply insofar as their application would preclude or reduce federal assistance for that public work.

4. A final proposal submitted by a design-build team pursuant to this section must be prepared thoroughly and be responsive to the criteria that the public body will use to select a design-build team to design and construct the public work described in subsection 1. A design-build team that submits a final proposal which is not responsive shall not be awarded the contract and shall not be eligible for the partial reimbursement of costs provided for in subsection 7.

5. A final proposal is exempt from the requirements of NRS 338.141.

6. After receiving and evaluating the final proposals for the public work, the public body or its authorized representative shall enter into negotiations with the most qualified applicant, as determined pursuant to the criteria set forth pursuant to subsections 1 and 3, and award the design-build contract to the design-build team whose proposal is selected. If the public body or its authorized representative is unable to negotiate with the most qualified applicant a contract that is determined by the parties to be fair and reasonable, the public body may terminate negotiations with that applicant. The public body or its authorized representative may then undertake negotiations with the next most qualified applicant in sequence until an agreement is reached and, if the negotiation is undertaken by an authorized representative of the public body, approved by the public body or until a determination is made by the public body to reject all applicants.

7. If a public body selects a final proposal and awards a design-build contract pursuant to subsection 6, the public body shall:

(a) Partially reimburse the unsuccessful finalists if partial reimbursement was provided for in the request for preliminary proposals pursuant to paragraph (j) of subsection 2 of NRS 338.1723. The amount of reimbursement must not exceed, for each unsuccessful finalist, 3 percent of the total amount to be paid to the design-build team as set forth in the design-build contract.

(b) Make available to the public the results of the evaluation of final proposals that was conducted and the ranking of the design-build teams who submitted final proposals. The public body shall not release to a third party, or otherwise make public, financial or proprietary information submitted by a design-build team.

8. A contract awarded pursuant to this section:

(a) Must comply with the provisions of NRS 338.020 to 338.090, inclusive.

(b) Must specify:

(1) An amount that is the maximum amount that the public body will pay for the performance of all the work required by the contract, excluding any amount related to costs that may be incurred as a result of unexpected conditions or occurrences as authorized by the contract;

(2) An amount that is the maximum amount that the public body will pay for the performance of the professional services required by the contract; and

(3) A date by which performance of the work required by the contract must be completed.

(c) May set forth the terms by which the design-build team agrees to name the public body, at the cost of the public body, as an additional insured in an insurance policy held by the design-build team.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (e), must not require the design professional to defend, indemnify or hold harmless the public body or the employees, officers or agents of that public body from any liability, damage, loss, claim, action or proceeding caused by the negligence, errors, omissions, recklessness or intentional misconduct of the employees, officers and agents of the public body.

(e) May require the design-build team to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the public body, and the employees, officers and agents of the public body from any liabilities, damages, losses, claims, actions or proceedings, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, that are caused by the negligence, errors, omissions, recklessness or intentional misconduct of the design-build team or the employees or agents of the design-build team in the performance of the contract.

(f) Must require that the design-build team to whom a contract is awarded assume overall responsibility for ensuring that the design and construction of the public work is completed in a satisfactory manner.

9. Upon award of the design-build contract, the public body shall make available to the public copies of all preliminary and final proposals received.

Sec. 4. NRS 279.500 is hereby amended to read as follows:

279.500 1. The provisions of NRS 338.010 to 338.090, inclusive, apply to any contract for new construction, repair or reconstruction which is awarded on or after October 1, 1991, by an agency for work to be done in a project.

2. If an agency:

(a) Provides property for development at less than the fair market value of the property;

(b) Provides a loan to a small business pursuant to NRS 279.700 to 279.740, inclusive; or

(c) Provides financial incentives to a developer with a value of ~~[more than $100,000, $5,000,000]~~ $350,000 or more,

➥ regardless of whether the project is publicly or privately owned, the agency must provide in the loan agreement with the small business or the agreement with the developer, as applicable, that the development project is subject to the provisions of NRS 338.010 to 338.090, inclusive, to the same extent as if the agency had awarded the contract for the project. This subsection applies only to the project covered by the loan agreement between the agency and the small business or the agreement between the agency and the developer, as applicable. This subsection does not apply to future development of the property unless an additional loan, or additional financial incentives with a value of ~~[more than $100,000, $5,000,000]~~ $350,000 or more, are provided to the small business or developer, as applicable.

3. The Labor Commissioner shall, on or before January 1, 2020, and every 5 years thereafter, adjust the amount set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 to reflect inflation, as measured by the average percentage of increase or decrease in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers of the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, for the preceding 5 years. The Labor Commissioner shall determine the amount of the increase or decrease required by this subsection and establish the adjusted amounts to take effect on January 1 of that year.

Sec. 4.5. NRS 408.3886 is hereby amended to read as follows:

408.3886 1. After selecting the finalists pursuant to NRS 408.3885, the Department shall provide to each finalist a request for final proposals for the project. The request for final proposals must:

(a) Set forth the factors that the Department will use to select a design-build team to design and construct the project, including the relative weight to be assigned to each factor; and

(b) Set forth the date by which final proposals must be submitted to the Department.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, in assigning the relative weight to each factor for selecting a design-build team pursuant to subsection 1, the Department shall assign, without limitation, a relative weight of ~~[5]~~ 7.5 percent to the design-build team's possession of both a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference in bidding on public works by the prime contractor on the design-build team, if the design-build team submits a signed affidavit that meets the requirements of subsection 1 of NRS 338.0117, and a certificate of eligibility to receive a preference when competing for public works by all persons who hold a certificate of registration to practice architecture or a license as a professional engineer on the design-build team, and a relative weight of at least 30 percent for the proposed cost of design and construction of the project. If any federal statute or regulation precludes the granting of federal assistance or reduces the amount of that assistance for a particular project because of the provisions of this subsection relating to a preference in bidding on public works or a preference when competing for public works, those provisions of this subsection do not apply insofar as their application would preclude or reduce federal assistance for that project.

3. A final proposal submitted by a design-build team pursuant to this section must be prepared thoroughly, be responsive to the criteria that the Department will use to select a design-build team to design and construct the project described in subsection 1 and comply with the provisions of NRS 338.141.

4. After receiving the final proposals for the project, the Department shall:

(a) Select the most cost-effective and responsive final proposal, using the criteria set forth pursuant to subsections 1 and 2;

(b) Reject all the final proposals; or

(c) Request best and final offers from all finalists in accordance with subsection 5.

5. If the Department determines that no final proposal received is cost-effective or responsive and the Department further determines that requesting best and final offers pursuant to this subsection will likely result in the submission of a satisfactory offer, the Department may prepare and provide to each finalist a request for best and final offers for the project. In conjunction with preparing a request for best and final offers pursuant to this subsection, the Department may alter the scope of the project, revise the estimates of the costs of designing and constructing the project, and revise the selection factors and relative weights described in paragraph (a) of subsection 1. A request for best and final offers prepared pursuant to this subsection must set forth the date by which best and final offers must be submitted to the Department. After receiving the best and final offers, the Department shall:

(a) Select the most cost-effective and responsive best and final offer, using the criteria set forth in the request for best and final offers; or

(b) Reject all the best and final offers.

6. If the Department selects a final proposal pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 4 or selects a best and final offer pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 5, the Department shall hold a public meeting to:

(a) Review and ratify the selection.

(b) Partially reimburse the unsuccessful finalists if partial reimbursement was provided for in the request for preliminary proposals pursuant to paragraph (f) of subsection 3 of NRS 408.3883. The amount of reimbursement must not exceed, for each unsuccessful finalist, 3 percent of the total amount to be paid to the design-build team as set forth in the design-build contract.

(c) Make available to the public a summary setting forth the factors used by the Department to select the successful design-build team and the ranking of the design-build teams who submitted final proposals and, if applicable, best and final offers. The Department shall not release to a third party, or otherwise make public, financial or proprietary information submitted by a design-build team.

7. A contract awarded pursuant to this section:

(a) Must comply with the provisions of NRS 338.020 to 338.090, inclusive; and

(b) Must specify:

(1) An amount that is the maximum amount that the Department will pay for the performance of all the work required by the contract, excluding any amount related to costs that may be incurred as a result of unexpected conditions or occurrences as authorized by the contract;

(2) An amount that is the maximum amount that the Department will pay for the performance of the professional services required by the contract; and

(3) A date by which performance of the work required by the contract must be completed.

8. A design-build team to whom a contract is awarded pursuant to this section shall:

(a) Assume overall responsibility for ensuring that the design and construction of the project is completed in a satisfactory manner; and

(b) Use the workforce of the prime contractor on the design-build team to construct at least 15 percent of the project.

Sec. 5. 1. The amendatory provisions of ~~[sections 3 and 4 of]~~ this act do not apply to a public work or other project of construction, repair or reconstruction that is awarded before July 1, 2015.

2. As used in this section, "public work" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 338.010.

Sec. 6. ~~[~~NRS 338.075 is hereby repealed.~~]~~ (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 7. ~~[1.]~~ This ~~[section and sections 3 to 6, inclusive, of this]~~ act ~~[become]~~ becomes effective on July 1, 2015.

Remarks by Assemblyman Kirner.

ASSEMBLYMAN KIRNER:

Amendment 246 to Assembly Bill 173 removes the definition of "information security professional" from the bill and inserts a reference to federal law to define the phrase "information security." The amendment also deletes language inserted in section 648.012 of Nevada Revised Statutes in 2013 related to the use of computerized data not available to the public and restates the intent to regulate private investigators' use of nonpublic records in another way at the end of the section. It also excludes from the definition of "private investigator" those persons who provide information security.

Assembly Bill No. 182.

Amendment No. 368.

AN ACT relating to local governments; ~~[prohibiting]~~ authorizing a local government employer ~~[from entering]~~ to enter into an agreement to pay dues to an employee organization through deductions from compensation; prohibiting such an employer from providing paid leave or paying compensation or benefits for time spent by an employee in providing services to an employee organization; authorizing the Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board to appoint a Deputy Commissioner; declaring the right of a local government employee to resign from an employee organization at any time; prohibiting the inclusion of certain employees in a bargaining unit; revising provisions relating to a reduction in force; providing that a collective bargaining agreement between a local government employer and a recognized employee organization expires for certain purposes at the end of the term stated in the agreement; requiring public notice of certain offers made in collective bargaining; eliminating final and binding fact-finding except upon the election of the governing body; removing a portion of the budgeted ending fund balance of certain governmental funds from the scope of collective bargaining and from consideration by a fact finder; eliminating statutory impasse arbitration for firefighters, police officers, teachers and educational support personnel; making an appropriation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law does not prohibit a local government employer from providing for the payment of dues to an employee organization through deductions from the compensation of employees, and such deductions are a mandatory subject of collective bargaining. (NRS 288.150) Section 1 of this bill ~~[prohibits]~~ provides that such an arrangement ~~[and]~~ is lawful pursuant to an agreement that recognizes the right of every employee to resign from the employee organization at any time, free of any obligation to pay dues. Section 1 also bars a local government employer from providing paid leave or paying any compensation or monetary benefits to an employee for time spent by the employee in performing duties or providing services to an employee organization.

The Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board has been created to administer the provisions governing labor relations between local government employers and employee organizations. (NRS 288.080, 288.110) The Board is authorized by existing law to appoint a Commissioner, who serves in the unclassified service of the State.

(NRS 288.090) Section 2.5 of this bill additionally authorizes the Board to appoint a Deputy Commissioner and section 13.5 of this bill makes an appropriation for that purpose.

Existing law establishes the right of every local government employee to join or refrain from joining an employee organization. (NRS 288.140) Section 3 of this bill provides that a local government employee is also free to resign from an employee organization at any time, without any obligation to pay dues accruing before, on or after the date of the resignation.

Existing law excludes certain local government employees from membership in a bargaining unit and requires employees in certain supervisory and administrative positions to be members of a different bargaining unit from the employees they supervise. (NRS 288.140, 288.170) Sections 2, 3 and 7 of this bill consolidate those provisions and exclude certain school administrators , firefighters and police officers, and other employees in supervisory and administrative positions from membership in any bargaining unit. Existing law also excludes confidential employees from membership in a bargaining unit. (NRS 288.170) Section 7 also expands the definition of "confidential employee" to include any employee whose duties entail access to proprietary or confidential information.

Under existing law, a local government employer is entitled, without bargaining, to effectuate a reduction in force or layoff because of a lack of work or lack of money. (NRS 288.150) Section 4 of this bill revises those provisions to authorize a reduction in force or layoff because of a reduction or elimination of services, budgetary reallocation of expenditures or loss of revenues ~~[.]~~ , or whenever the local government employer determines that such action is in the best interest of the local government employer. If a local government employer ~~[eliminates or reduces any service provided by its employees,]~~ determines that a reduction in force or layoff is appropriate, section 5 of this bill ~~[authorizes the employer to effectuate a layoff or reduction in force directed to those employees on the basis of any factors it deems appropriate, without regard to the seniority of those employees.]~~ sets forth various factors that the local government employer may consider in determining whether to lay off a given employee.

Section 6 of this bill is directed to "evergreen" language in a collective bargaining agreement, pursuant to which the agreement remains in effect beyond the end of its stated term until a successor agreement becomes effective. Notwithstanding any such provision, section 6 generally provides that upon the end of the term stated in a collective bargaining agreement, and until a successor agreement becomes effective, a local government employer shall not increase any compensation or monetary benefits paid to or on behalf of employees in the affected bargaining unit.

If an impasse is reached in collective bargaining negotiations, existing law establishes a process of fact-finding. Under existing law, the findings and recommendations of the fact finder are final and binding if the parties so agree or a statutory panel determines that the findings and recommendations are to be final and binding as to some or all of the issues in dispute. (NRS 288.200-288.203) Sections 10 and 15 of this bill eliminate the panel. Section 10 also : (1) provides that the findings and recommendations are not final and binding unless the governing body or chief executive officer of the local government employer so elects before the submission of the dispute to fact-finding [.] ; and (2) requires the governing body or chief executive officer, before submission of the dispute to fact-finding, to determine whether the fact finder will issue a decision on the basis of a single final offer by each party for all unresolved issues or a separate final offer by each party for each such issue. Sections 8-10 of this bill require public notice of the final offers made by each party during collective bargaining negotiations, mediation and fact-finding.

Existing law limits the extent to which money in certain governmental funds may be expended by a local government employer pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or considered by a fact finder or arbitrator in determining the financial ability of the local government employer to pay monetary benefits. (NRS 288.200, 288.215, 288.217, 354.6241) Section 13 of this bill provides that a budgeted ending fund balance for certain governmental funds of not more than [16.6] 25 percent of the total budgeted expenditures, less capital outlay: (1) is not subject to collective bargaining negotiations; and (2) must not be considered by a fact finder in resolving issues of financial ability to pay.

Under existing law, an impasse in collective bargaining negotiations involving firefighters, police officers, teachers or educational support personnel may be submitted to an arbitrator, whose decision is final and binding. (NRS 288.215, 288.217) Section 15 repeals those provisions, eliminating the statutory right to arbitration as a means of impasse resolution.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 288 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

(w) ~~[(v)]~~ Procedures and requirements for the reopening of collective bargaining agreements that exceed 1 year in duration for additional, further, new or supplementary negotiations during periods of fiscal emergency. The requirements for the reopening of a collective bargaining agreement must include, without limitation, measures of revenue shortfalls or reductions relative to economic indicators such as the Consumer Price Index, as agreed upon by both parties.

3. Those subject matters which are not within the scope of mandatory bargaining and which are reserved to the local government employer without negotiation include:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (u) ~~[(t)]~~ of subsection 2, the right to hire, direct, assign or transfer an employee, but excluding the right to assign or transfer an employee as a form of discipline.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement negotiated pursuant to this chapter, a local government employer is entitled to take whatever actions may be necessary to carry out its responsibilities in situations of emergency such as a riot, military action, natural disaster or civil disorder. Those actions may include the suspension of any collective bargaining agreement for the duration of the emergency. Any action taken under the provisions of this subsection must not be construed as a failure to negotiate in good faith.

5. The provisions of this chapter, including without limitation the provisions of this section, recognize and declare the ultimate right and responsibility of the local government employer to manage its operation in the most efficient manner consistent with the best interests of all its citizens, its taxpayers and its employees.

6. This section does not preclude, but this chapter does not require, the local government employer to negotiate subject matters enumerated in subsection 3 which are outside the scope of mandatory bargaining. The local government employer shall discuss subject matters outside the scope of mandatory bargaining but it is not required to negotiate those matters.

7. Contract provisions presently existing in signed and ratified agreements as of May 15, 1975, at 12 p.m. remain negotiable.

~~[2.]~~ (b) Whether the teacher or administrator has received a national board certification;

Sec. 7. NRS 288.170 is hereby amended to read as follows:

288.170 1. Each local government employer which has recognized one or more employee organizations shall determine, after consultation with the recognized organization or organizations, which group or groups of its employees constitute an appropriate unit or units for negotiating. The primary

4. If any employee organization is aggrieved by the determination of a bargaining unit, it may appeal to the Board. Subject to judicial review, the decision of the Board is binding upon the local government employer and employee organizations involved. Sec. 8. NRS 288.180 is hereby amended to read as follows:

288.180 1. Whenever an employee organization desires to negotiate concerning any matter which is subject to negotiation pursuant to this chapter, it shall give written notice of that desire to the local government employer. If the subject of negotiation requires the budgeting of money by the local government employer, the employee organization shall give notice on or before February 1.

2. Following the notification provided for in subsection 1, the employee organization or the local government employer may request reasonable information concerning any subject matter included in the scope of mandatory bargaining which it deems necessary for and relevant to the negotiations. The information requested must be furnished without unnecessary delay. The information must be accurate, and must be presented in a form responsive to the request and in the format in which the records containing it are ordinarily kept. If the employee organization requests financial information concerning a metropolitan police department, the local government employers which form that department shall furnish the information to the employee organization.

3. The parties shall promptly commence negotiations. As the first step, the parties shall discuss the procedures to be followed if they are unable to agree on one or more issues.

The mediator shall bring the parties together as soon as possible and, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties, attempt to settle the dispute within 30 days after being notified of the mediator's selection as mediator. The mediator may establish the times and dates for meetings and compel the parties to attend but has no power to compel the parties to agree.

4. The local government employer and employee organization each shall pay one-half of the cost of mediation. Each party shall pay its own costs of preparation and presentation of its case in mediation.

5. If the parties reach agreement through mediation during the term of an existing contract between the parties, the new contract must become effective upon the expiration of the existing contract. If the parties are unable to agree upon which arbitration service should be used, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service must be used. Within 5 days after receiving a list from the applicable arbitration service, the parties shall select their fact finder from this list by alternately striking one name until the name of only one fact finder remains, who will be the fact finder to hear the dispute in question. Assemblyman Kirner moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Kirner.

Amendment 368 to Assembly Bill 182 allows a local government to agree to deduct dues from employees' paychecks if the employee is free to resign from the labor organization, explicitly allows a local government employee to resign from an employee organization at any time, reinstates deduction of dues in the scope of mandatory bargaining, and defines the term "loss of revenues" for purposes of rights to reduce in force or lay off employees. It revises the considerations a local government employer is required to make in determining whether to lay off an employee, and modifies the employees who may not be members of a bargaining unit.

Further, the amendment allows the parties of an agreement to agree to include or exclude certain terms or conditions of employment and make any such terms effective prospectively or retroactively, and it makes changes to the final offers submitted to fact-finding and allows a fact finder to consider the compensation of employees in private employment in certain circumstances. It increases the percentage of ending fund balance for certain governmental funds from 16.6 percent to 25 percent of the total budgeted expenditures, less capital outlay and clarifies the application of the bill to existing agreements. Finally, it authorizes the Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board to appoint a Deputy Commissioner and provides an appropriation to fund the position.

Remarks by Assemblyman Hansen.

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

This amendment clarifies that the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History needs a complete set of ten fingerprints for purposes such as booking a person into the city or county jail or detention facility. It clarifies that one or more of the person's fingerprints are needed for the purposes of mobile identification by a criminal justice agency. Other biometric identifiers may be required for the purposes of arrest or criminal investigation. The definition of "biometric identifiers" is revised to include a palm print, scar, bodily mark, or tattoo. "Mobile identification" is defined. Finally, the Central Repository is required to adopt regulations governing biometric identifiers.

Assemblyman Kirner moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Kirner.

ASSEMBLYMAN KIRNER:

Amendment 578 to Assembly Bill 228 makes it a deceptive trade practice for a creditor to install or use electronic tracking technology in a motor vehicle unless the creditor provides certain disclosures. A consumer must be allowed to cancel the tracking technology without affecting the vehicle financing, and the agreement to use the tracking technology must be optional and not a condition of financing.

The amendment also makes a creditor's installation or use of starter interrupt technology to disable a motor vehicle a deceptive trade practice unless the consumer is provided with certain disclosures. Under the proposal, starter interrupt technology is prohibited if: (1) a motor vehicle can be disabled while the engine is running; (2) the technology causes an audible warning that lasts longer than 20 seconds; and (3) the consumer's payment is unpaid for less than ten days for the first instance of late payment or less than five days for any subsequent payment or default under the contract. The amendment would cap statutory damages at $1,000 for violations. Finally, the amendment specifies that the provisions of this bill do not apply in business-to-business transactions.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, engrossed and to third reading.

(NRS 38.310) This bill provides in skeleton form for the repeal of existing law governing common-interest communities, which in turn provides for the enforcement of matters relating to common-interest communities through private civil action.]~~ creates the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels within the Real Estate Division of the Department of Business and Industry to investigate and resolve disputes between certain parties in common-interest communities and condominium hotels. (NRS 116.625, 116.765) Sections 2 and 6 of this bill transfer the Office of the Ombudsman from the Real Estate Division to the Office of the Attorney General. Sections 3, 4, 11 and 12 of this bill make conforming changes to certain required forms. Section 7 of this bill provides that any costs or expenses of the Office of the Ombudsman may be paid from the Account for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels. Sections 8, 9, 15 and 16 of this bill provide for the continuing jurisdiction and protection from liability of the transferred Office of the Ombudsman. (2) The name of the person served or, if the notice was not served on a person, a description of the location where the notice was posted on the unit.

BEFORE YOU PURCHASE PROPERTY IN A COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY
DID YOU KNOW . . .

1. YOU GENERALLY HAVE 5 DAYS TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT?

When you enter into a purchase agreement to buy a home or unit in a common-interest community, in most cases you should receive either a public offering statement, if you are the original purchaser of the home or unit, or a resale package, if you are not the original purchaser. The law generally provides for a 5-day period in which you have the right to cancel the purchase agreement. The 5-day period begins on different starting dates, depending on whether you receive a public offering statement or a resale package. Upon receiving a public offering statement or a resale package, you should make sure you are informed of the deadline for exercising your right to cancel. In order to exercise your right to cancel, the law generally requires that you hand deliver the notice of cancellation to the seller within the 5-day period, or mail the notice of cancellation to the seller by prepaid United States mail within the 5-day period. For more information regarding your right to cancel, see Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4108, if you received a public offering statement, or Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4109, if you received a resale package.

2. YOU ARE AGREEING TO RESTRICTIONS ON HOW YOU CAN USE YOUR PROPERTY?

These restrictions are contained in a document known as the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions. The CC&Rs become a part of the title to your property. They bind you and every future owner of the property whether or not you have read them or had them explained to you. The CC&Rs, together with other "governing documents" (such as association bylaws and rules and regulations), are intended to preserve the character and value of properties in the community, but may also restrict what you can do to improve or change your property and limit how you use and enjoy your property. By purchasing a property encumbered by

CC&Rs, you are agreeing to limitations that could affect your lifestyle and freedom of choice. You should review the CC&Rs, and other governing documents before purchasing to make sure that these limitations and controls are acceptable to you. Certain provisions in the CC&Rs and other governing documents may be superseded by contrary provisions of chapter 116 of the Nevada Revised Statutes. The Nevada Revised Statutes are available at the Internet address http://www.leg.state.nv.us/nrs/.

3. YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS FOR AS LONG AS YOU OWN YOUR PROPERTY?

As an owner in a common-interest community, you are responsible for paying your share of expenses relating to the common elements, such as landscaping, shared amenities and the operation of any homeowners' association. The obligation to pay these assessments binds you and every future owner of the property. Owners' fees are usually assessed by the homeowners' association and due monthly. You have to pay dues whether or not you agree with the way the association is managing the property or spending the assessments. The executive board of the association may have the power to change and increase the amount of the assessment and to levy special assessments against your property to meet extraordinary expenses. In some communities, major components of the common elements of the community such as roofs and private roads must be maintained and replaced by the association. If the association is not well managed or fails to provide adequate funding for reserves to repair, replace and restore common elements, you may be required to pay large, special assessments to accomplish these tasks.

4. IF YOU FAIL TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME?

If you do not pay these assessments when due, the association usually has the power to collect them by selling your property in a nonjudicial foreclosure sale. If fees become delinquent, you may also be required to pay penalties and the association's costs and attorney's fees to become current. If you dispute the obligation or its amount, your only remedy to avoid the loss of your home may be to file a lawsuit and ask a court to intervene in the dispute.

5. YOU MAY BECOME A MEMBER OF A HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION THAT HAS THE POWER TO AFFECT HOW YOU USE AND ENJOY YOUR PROPERTY?

Many common-interest communities have a homeowners' association. In a new development, the association will usually be controlled by the developer until a certain number of units have been sold. After the period of developer control, the association may be controlled by property owners like yourself who are elected by homeowners to sit on an executive board and other boards and committees formed by the association. The association, and its executive board, are responsible for assessing homeowners for the cost of operating the association and the common or shared elements of the community and for the day to day operation and management of the community. Because homeowners sitting on the executive board and other boards and committees of the association may not have the experience or professional background required to understand and carry out the responsibilities of the association properly, the association may hire professional community managers to carry out these responsibilities.

Homeowners' associations operate on democratic principles. Some decisions require all homeowners to vote, some decisions are made by the executive board or other boards or committees established by the association or governing documents. Although the actions of the association and its executive board are governed by state laws, the CC&Rs and other documents that govern the common-interest community, decisions made by these persons will affect your use and enjoyment of your property, your lifestyle and freedom of choice, and your cost of living in the community. You may not agree with decisions made by the association or its governing bodies even though the decisions are ones which the association is authorized to make. Decisions may be made by a few persons on the executive board or governing bodies that do not necessarily reflect the view of the majority of homeowners in the community. If you do not agree with decisions made by the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, your remedy is typically to attempt to use the democratic processes of the association to seek the election of members of the executive board or other governing bodies that are more responsive to your needs. If you have a dispute with the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, you may be able to resolve the dispute through the complaint, investigation and intervention process administered by the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, the Nevada Real Estate Division and the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels. However, to resolve some disputes, you may have to mediate or arbitrate the dispute and, if mediation or arbitration is unsuccessful, you may have to file a lawsuit and ask a court to resolve the dispute. In addition to your personal cost in mediation or arbitration, or to prosecute a lawsuit, you may be responsible for paying your share of the association's cost in defending against your claim.

6. YOU ARE REQUIRED TO PROVIDE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS OF YOUR PROPERTY WITH INFORMATION ABOUT LIVING IN YOUR COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY?

The law requires you to provide a prospective purchaser of your property with a copy of the community's governing documents, including the CC&Rs, association bylaws, and rules and regulations, as well as a copy of this document. You are also required to provide a copy of the association's current year-to-date financial statement, including, without limitation, the most recent audited or reviewed financial statement, a copy of the association's operating budget and information regarding the amount of the monthly assessment for common expenses, including the amount set aside as reserves for the repair, replacement and restoration of common elements. You are also required to inform prospective purchasers of any outstanding judgments or lawsuits pending against the association of which you are aware. For more information regarding these requirements, see Nevada Revised Statutes 116.4109.

7. YOU HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS REGARDING OWNERSHIP IN A COMMON-INTEREST COMMUNITY THAT ARE GUARANTEED YOU BY THE STATE?

Pursuant to provisions of chapter 116 of Nevada Revised Statutes, you have the right:

(a) To be notified of all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in cases of emergency.

(b) To attend and speak at all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in some cases where the executive board is authorized to meet in closed, executive session.

(c) To request a special meeting of the association upon petition of at least 10 percent of the homeowners.

(d) To inspect, examine, photocopy and audit financial and other records of the association.

(e) To be notified of all changes in the community's rules and regulations and other actions by the association or board that affect you.

8. QUESTIONS?

Although they may be voluminous, you should take the time to read and understand the documents that will control your ownership of a property in a common-interest community. You may wish to ask your real estate professional, lawyer or other person with experience to explain anything you do not understand. You may also request assistance from the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, ~~[Nevada Real Estate Division,]~~ Office of the Attorney General, at (telephone number ~~).~~ designated by the Office of the Ombudsman).

Sec. 12. NRS 116B.765 is hereby amended to read as follows:

BEFORE YOU PURCHASE PROPERTY IN A CONDOMINIUM HOTEL
DID YOU KNOW...

1. YOU GENERALLY HAVE 5 DAYS TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT?

When you enter into a purchase agreement to buy a home or unit in a condominium hotel, in most cases you should receive either a public offering statement, if you are the original purchaser of the home or unit, or a resale package, if you are not the original purchaser. The law generally provides for a 5-day period in which you have the right to cancel the purchase agreement. The 5-day period begins on different starting dates, depending on whether you receive a public offering statement or a resale package. Upon receiving a public offering statement or a resale package, you should make sure you are informed of the deadline for exercising your right to cancel. In order to exercise your right to cancel, the law generally requires that you hand deliver the notice of cancellation to the seller within the 5-day period, or mail the notice of cancellation to the seller by prepaid United States mail within the 5-day period. For more information regarding your right to cancel, see NRS 116B.755, if you received a public offering statement, or NRS 116B.760, if you received a resale package.

2. YOU ARE AGREEING TO RESTRICTIONS ON HOW YOU CAN USE YOUR PROPERTY?

These restrictions are contained in a document known as the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions. The CC&Rs become a part of the title to your property. They bind you and every future owner of the property whether or not you have read them or had them explained to you. The CC&Rs, together with other "governing documents" (such as association bylaws and rules and regulations), are intended to preserve the character and value of properties in the condominium hotel, but may also restrict what you can do to improve or change your property and limit how you use and enjoy your property. By purchasing a property encumbered by CC&Rs, you are agreeing to limitations that could affect your lifestyle and freedom of choice. You should review the CC&Rs, and other governing documents before purchasing to make sure that these limitations and controls are acceptable to you.

3. YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS AND CHARGES FOR AS LONG AS YOU OWN YOUR PROPERTY?

As an owner in a condominium hotel, you are responsible for paying your share of expenses relating to the common elements and shared components. The obligation to pay these expenses binds you and every future owner of the property. Owners' fees are usually assessed for these expenses monthly. You have to pay dues whether or not you agree with the way the association or the hotel unit owner is managing the property or spending the assessments or charges. The hotel unit owner executive board of the association may have the power to change and increase the amount of the assessment or charges and to levy special assessments or special charges against your property to meet extraordinary expenses.

4. IF YOU FAIL TO PAY OWNERS' ASSESSMENTS OR CHARGES, YOU COULD LOSE YOUR HOME?

If you do not pay these assessments or charges when due, the hotel unit owner or the association usually has the power to collect them by selling your property in a nonjudicial foreclosure sale. If fees become delinquent, you may also be required to pay penalties and the association's or hotel unit owner's costs, as applicable, and attorney's fees to become current. If you dispute the obligation or its amount, your only remedy to avoid the loss of your home may be to file a lawsuit and ask a court to intervene in the dispute.

5. YOU MAY BECOME A MEMBER OF A HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION THAT HAS THE POWER TO AFFECT HOW YOU USE AND ENJOY YOUR PROPERTY?

Many condominium hotels have a homeowners' association. In a new development, the association will usually be controlled by the developer until a certain number of units have been sold. After the period of developer control, the association may be controlled by property owners like yourself who are elected by homeowners to sit on an executive board and other boards and committees formed by the association. The association, and its executive board, are responsible for assessing homeowners for the cost of operating the association and the common elements of the condominium hotel. Because homeowners sitting on the executive board and other boards and committees of the association may not have the experience or professional background required to understand and carry out the responsibilities of the association properly, the association may hire professional condominium association managers to carry out these responsibilities.

Homeowners' associations operate on democratic principles. Some decisions require all homeowners to vote, some decisions are made by the executive board or other boards or committees established by the association or governing documents. Although the actions of the association and its executive board are governed by state laws, the CC&Rs and other documents that govern the condominium hotel, decisions made by these persons will affect your use and enjoyment of your property, your lifestyle and freedom of choice, and your cost of living in the condominium hotel. You may not agree with decisions made by the association or its governing bodies even though the decisions are ones which the association is authorized to make. Decisions may be made by a few persons on the executive board or governing bodies that do not necessarily reflect the view of the majority of residential unit in the condominium hotel. If you do not agree with decisions made by the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, your remedy is typically to attempt to use the democratic processes of the association to seek the election of members of the executive board or other governing bodies that are more responsive to your needs. If you have a dispute with the association, its executive board or other governing bodies, you may be able to resolve the dispute through the complaint, investigation and intervention process administered by the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, the Nevada Real Estate Division and the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels. However, to resolve some disputes, you may have to mediate or arbitrate the dispute and, if mediation or arbitration is unsuccessful, you may have to file a lawsuit and ask a court to resolve the dispute. In addition to your personal cost in mediation or arbitration, or to prosecute a lawsuit, you may be responsible for paying your share of the association's cost in defending against your claim.

6. YOU ARE REQUIRED TO PROVIDE PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS OF YOUR PROPERTY WITH INFORMATION ABOUT LIVING IN YOUR CONDOMINIUM HOTEL?

The law requires you to provide a prospective purchaser of your property with a copy of the condominium hotel's governing documents, including the CC&Rs, association bylaws, and rules and regulations, as well as a copy of this document. You are also required to provide a copy of the association's current year-to-date financial statement, including, without limitation, the most recent audited or reviewed financial statement, a copy of the association's operating budget and information regarding the amount of the monthly assessment for common expenses, including the amount set aside as reserves for the repair, replacement and restoration of common elements. You are also required to provide a copy of the current year-to-date statement of the shared expenses charged to your unit by the declarant or hotel unit owner, as applicable. You are also required to inform prospective purchasers of any outstanding judgments or lawsuits pending against the association of which you are aware. For more information regarding these requirements, see NRS 116B.725 to 116B.795, inclusive.

7. YOU HAVE CERTAIN RIGHTS REGARDING OWNERSHIP IN A CONDOMINIUM HOTEL THAT ARE GUARANTEED YOU BY THE STATE?

Pursuant to provisions of this chapter, you have the right:

(a) To be notified of all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in cases of emergency.

(b) To attend and speak at all meetings of the association and its executive board, except in some cases where the executive board is authorized to meet in closed, executive session.

(c) To request a special meeting of the association.

(d) To inspect, examine, photocopy and audit financial and other records of the association.

(e) To be notified of all changes in the condominium hotel's rules and regulations and other actions by the association or board that affect you.

8. QUESTIONS?

Although they may be voluminous, you should take the time to read and understand the documents that will control your ownership of a property in a condominium hotel. You may wish to ask your real estate professional, lawyer or other person with experience to explain anything you do not understand. You may also request assistance from the Office of the Ombudsman for Owners in Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, ~~[Nevada Real Estate Division,]~~ Office of the Attorney General at (telephone number ~~[).]~~ designated by the Office of the Ombudsman).

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law establishes the Uniform Common-Interest Ownership Act, which governs common-interest communities. (Chapter 116 of NRS) Under existing law, unless a person is appointed by the declarant, a person may not be a member of the executive board or an officer of a homeowners' association if the person or certain other persons perform the duties of a community manager for that association. association if: (1) the person resides with, is married to or is related within the third degree of consanguinity to a member of the board or an officer of the association; (2) the person stands to gain any personal profit or compensation from a matter before the board; or (3) the person ~~[owns more than one unit in the]~~ is a business associate of, or a co-owner of a business co-owned by, a person who is a member of the executive board or is an officer of the association or who performs the duties of a community manager for that association.

Existing law also requires a homeowners' association to open and consider bids for an association project at a meeting of its executive board. (NRS 116.31086) Section 2 of this bill requires an association to solicit, whenever reasonably possible, at least three bids if the association project is expected to cost ~~[$ 500]~~ : (1) in a common-interest community that consists of less than 1,000 units, $2,500 or more; or (2) in a common-interest community that consists of 1,000 or more units, $5,000 or more. Section 2 further : (1) specifies that the contents of bids which are opened at a meeting of the executive board must ~~[also]~~ be read aloud in summary form; (2) requires such contents to be posted on the Internet website of the association, if one exists; (3) authorizes the inclusion of such contents in an official newsletter or other similar publication that is circulated to each unit's owner; and (4) requires the members of the executive board to vote on the acceptance of a bid in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 116.31034 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31034 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 of NRS 116.212, not later than the termination of any period of declarant's control, the units' owners shall elect an executive board of at least three members, all of whom must be units' owners. The executive board shall elect the officers of the association. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, the officers of the association are not required to be units' owners. The members of the executive board and the officers of the association shall take office upon election.

2. The term of office of a member of the executive board may not exceed 3 years, except for members who are appointed by the declarant. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, there is no limitation on the number of terms that a person may serve as a member of the executive board.

3. The governing documents of the association must provide for terms of office that are staggered in such a manner that, to the extent possible, an equal number of members of the executive board are elected at each election. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

(a) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the declarant; and

(b) Members of the executive board who serve a term of 1 year or less.

4. Not less than 30 days before the preparation of a ballot for the election of members of the executive board, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause notice to be given to each unit's owner of the unit's owner's eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board. Each unit's owner who is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may have his or her name placed on the ballot along with the names of the nominees selected by the members of the executive board or a nominating committee established by the association.

5. Before the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association causes notice to be given to each unit's owner of his or her eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board pursuant to subsection 4, the executive board may determine that if, at the closing of the prescribed period for nominations for membership on the executive board, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is equal to or less than the number of members to be elected to the executive board at the election, then the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association will cause notice to be given to each unit's owner informing each unit's owner that:

(a) The association will not prepare or mail any ballots to units' owners pursuant to this section and the nominated candidates shall be deemed to be duly elected to the executive board unless:

(1) A unit's owner who is qualified to serve on the executive board nominates himself or herself for membership on the executive board by submitting a nomination to the executive board within 30 days after the notice provided by this subsection; and

(2) The number of units' owners who submit such a nomination causes the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board to be greater than the number of members to be elected to the executive board.

(b) Each unit's owner who is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may nominate himself or herself for membership on the executive board by submitting a nomination to the executive board within 30 days after the notice provided by this subsection.

6. If the notice described in subsection 5 is given and if, at the closing of the prescribed period for nominations for membership on the executive board described in subsection 5, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is equal to or less than the number of members to be elected to the executive board, then:

(a) The association will not prepare or mail any ballots to units' owners pursuant to this section;

(b) The nominated candidates shall be deemed to be duly elected to the executive board not later than 30 days after the date of the closing of the period for nominations described in subsection 5; and

(c) The association shall send to each unit's owner notification that the candidates nominated have been elected to the executive board.

7. If the notice described in subsection 5 is given and if, at the closing of the prescribed period for nominations for membership on the executive board described in subsection 5, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is greater than the number of members to be elected to the executive board, then the association shall:

(a) Prepare and mail ballots to the units' owners pursuant to this section; and

(b) Conduct an election for membership on the executive board pursuant to this section.

8. Each person who is nominated as a candidate for membership on the executive board pursuant to subsection 4 or 5 must:

(b) Disclose whether the candidate is a member in good standing. For the purposes of this paragraph, a candidate shall not be deemed to be in "good standing" if the candidate has any unpaid and past due assessments or construction penalties that are required to be paid to the association.

➥ The candidate must make all disclosures required pursuant to this subsection in writing to the association with his or her candidacy information. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the association shall distribute the disclosures, on behalf of the candidate, to each member of the association with the ballot or, in the event ballots are not prepared and mailed pursuant to subsection 6, in the next regular mailing of the association. The association is not obligated to distribute any disclosure pursuant to this subsection if the disclosure contains information that is believed to be defamatory, libelous or profane.

9. Unless a person is appointed by the declarant:

(a) A person may not be a member of the executive board or an officer of the association if ~~[the]~~ ***:

(1) The person resides with another person in a unit, is married to that other person or is related by blood or adoption within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity, and if the other person is also a member of the executive board or is an officer of the association;

(3) The person ~~[owns more than one unit in the]~~ is a business associate of, or a co-owner of a business co-owned by, a person who is a member of the executive board or is an officer of the association or who performs the duties of a community manager for that association; or

(4) The person, the person's spouse or the person's parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for that association.

(b) A person may not be a member of the executive board of a master association or an officer of that master association if the person, the person's spouse or the person's parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for:

(1) That master association; or

(2) Any association that is subject to the governing documents of that master association.

10. An officer, employee, agent or director of a corporate owner of a unit, a trustee or designated beneficiary of a trust that owns a unit, a partner of a partnership that owns a unit, a member or manager of a limited-liability company that owns a unit, and a fiduciary of an estate that owns a unit may be an officer of the association or a member of the executive board. In all events where the person serving or offering to serve as an officer of the association or a member of the executive board is not the record owner, the person shall file proof in the records of the association that:

(a) The person is associated with the corporate owner, trust, partnership, limited-liability company or estate as required by this subsection; and

(b) Identifies the unit or units owned by the corporate owner, trust, partnership, limited-liability company or estate.

(a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner.

(b) Each unit's owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit's owner to return the secret written ballot to the association.

(c) A quorum is not required for the election of any member of the executive board.

(d) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be counted to determine the outcome of the election.

(e) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

(f) The incumbent members of the executive board and each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for membership on the executive board may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

12. An association shall not adopt any rule or regulation that has the effect of prohibiting or unreasonably interfering with a candidate in the candidate's campaign for election as a member of the executive board, except that the candidate's campaign may be limited to 90 days before the date that ballots are required to be returned to the association.

13. A candidate who has submitted a nomination form for election as a member of the executive board may request that the association or its agent either:

(a) Send before the date of the election and at the association's expense, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit's owner a candidate informational statement. The candidate informational statement:

(3) May be sent with the secret ballot mailed pursuant to subsection 11 or in a separate mailing; or

(b) To allow the candidate to communicate campaign material directly to the units' owners, provide to the candidate, in paper format at a cost not to exceed 25 cents per page for the first 10 pages and 10 cents per page thereafter, in the format of a compact disc at a cost of not more than $5 or by electronic mail at no cost:

(II) The voting rights of those owners are not exercised by delegates or representatives, the mailing address of the association established pursuant to NRS 119A.520. If the mailing address of the association is provided to the candidate pursuant to this sub-subparagraph, the association must send to each owner of a time share within the time share plan the campaign material provided by the candidate. If the campaign material will be sent by mail, the candidate who provides the campaign material must provide to the association a separate copy of the campaign material for each owner and must pay the actual costs of mailing before the campaign material is mailed. If the campaign material will be sent by electronic transmission, the candidate must provide to the association one copy of the campaign material in an electronic format.

➥ The information provided pursuant to this paragraph must not include the name of any unit's owner or any tenant of a unit's owner. If a candidate who makes a request for the information described in this paragraph fails or refuses to provide a written statement signed by the candidate which states that the candidate is making the request to allow the candidate to communicate campaign material directly to units' owners and that the candidate will not use the information for any other purpose, the association or its agent may refuse the request.

14. An association and its directors, officers, employees and agents are immune from criminal or civil liability for any act or omission which arises out of the publication or disclosure of any information related to any person and which occurs in the course of carrying out any duties required pursuant to subsection 13.

15. Each member of the executive board shall, within 90 days after his or her appointment or election, certify in writing to the association, on a form prescribed by the Administrator, that the member has read and understands the governing documents of the association and the provisions of this chapter to the best of his or her ability. The Administrator may require the association to submit a copy of the certification of each member of the executive board of that association at the time the association registers with the Ombudsman pursuant to NRS 116.31158.

SECOND READING AND AMENDMENT

Assembly Bill No. 316.

Bill read second time.

Amendment No. 360.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions governing the taxation of ~~[occasional sales]~~ certain deliveries and transfers of firearms. (BDR 32-918)

AN ACT relating to taxation; ~~[exempting from]~~ revising provisions governing the sales and use taxes ~~[the occasional sale]~~ imposed on the delivery or transfer of a firearm ~~[,]~~ from outside this State under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing federal law ~~[provides for the administration by the Department of Taxation of sales and use taxes in this State. (Chapters 372 and 374 of NRS) Existing law exempts from such taxes the occasional sales of tangible personal property. (NRS 372.320, 374.325)]~~ prohibits a person from transporting into or receiving in the state of his or her residence a firearm purchased or otherwise obtained by that person from outside that state, unless the person is licensed by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives of the United States Department of Justice. Thus, for a person in this State to purchase a firearm from another state, the firearm must be transferred or delivered to a person in this State who is a federally licensed firearms dealer who then transfers or delivers the firearm to the purchaser after conducting the background check required by federal law. (18 U.S.C. § 922(a)(3), (b)(3) and (t))

Existing law imposes a sales tax on the gross receipts of a retailer from the sale of tangible personal property sold at retail in this State. (NRS 372.105, 374.110) Existing law also imposes a use tax on the storage, use or other consumption in this State of tangible personal property purchased from a retailer for storage, use or other consumption in this State. (NRS 372.185, 374.190) Under existing law, if an agent of an owner or former owner of tangible personal property delivers the property to a final consumer in this State pursuant to a retail sale made by an out-of-state retailer, the delivery is a retail sale in this State by the agent making the delivery. (NRS 372.050) Because, under these circumstances, the delivery of the property by the agent is considered a retail sale by the agent, the agent is required to impose, collect and remit the sales tax to the Department of Taxation. (NRS 372.110, 374.115)

This bill ~~[requires]~~ provides that, in administering the sales and use taxes, the Department ~~[to consider the sale]~~ must not consider the delivery or transfer of a firearm ~~[, including facilitating the transfer of a firearm]~~ from out of state ~~[, to be an occasional sale and exempted from the sales and use taxes, unless]~~ by a person in this State who is a federally licensed firearms dealer to be a sale made by that federally licensed firearms dealer if: (1) the delivery or transfer is made to facilitate the transfer of the firearm from out of state in compliance with federal law; and (2) the sale involves the payment of the sales price for the firearm to a ~~[retailer or other]~~ person ~~[in this State who is a]~~ other than the federally licensed firearms dealer. Because this bill provides that the delivery or transfer must not be considered a sale by the federally licensed firearms dealer, the federally licensed firearms dealer is not required to impose, collect and remit the sales tax or collect and remit the use tax on the delivery or transfer of the firearm. However, under this bill, the purchaser of the firearm is required to remit the use tax if the purchase of the firearm constitutes a retail sale by a retailer in another state.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 372 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

In administering the provisions of this chapter, the Department shall not consider the ~~[sale]~~ delivery or transfer of a firearm ~~[, including, without limitation, facilitating the transfer of a firearm]~~ from out of state ~~[,]~~ by a person in this State who is licensed as a firearms dealer by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives of the United States Department of Justice to be [an occasional] a sale [, unless the sale is one in which the] made by that licensed firearms dealer if:

1. The delivery or transfer of the firearm is made to facilitate the transfer of the firearm from out of state in compliance with 18 U.S.C. § 922; and

2. The sales price for the firearm is paid to a [retailer or] person other [person in this State who is] than the licensed [as a] firearms dealer [by the United States Department of the Treasury.] delivering or transferring the firearm.

Sec. 2. Chapter 374 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

In administering the provisions of this chapter, the Department shall not consider the [sale] delivery or transfer of a firearm [, including, without limitation, facilitating the transfer of a firearm] from out of state [,] by a person in this State who is licensed as a firearms dealer by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives of the United States Department of Justice to be [an occasional] a sale [, unless the sale is one in which the] made by that licensed firearms dealer if:

1. The delivery or transfer of the firearm is made to facilitate the transfer of the firearm from out of state in compliance with 18 U.S.C. § 922; and

2. The sales price for the firearm is paid to a [retailer or] person other [person in this State who is] than the licensed [as a] firearms dealer [by the United States Department of the Treasury.] delivering or transferring the firearm.

Sec. 3. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2015.

Assemblyman Armstrong moved the adoption of the amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARMSTRONG:

Amendment 360 to Assembly Bill 316 specifies that for the purposes of the sales and use tax, the delivery or transfer of a firearm from out of state to a licensed firearms dealer in Nevada is not considered to be a retail sale made by that firearms dealer if the delivery or transfer of the firearm is made to facilitate the transfer from out of state in compliance with federal law and the sales price for the firearm is paid to a person other than the dealer who is delivering or transferring the firearm.

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 553.

AN ACT relating to domestic relations; authorizing a party in certain domestic relations actions to file a postjudgment motion to obtain adjudication of certain property and liabilities that were omitted from the final decree or judgment; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, in granting a divorce, a court must, to the extent practicable, make an equal disposition of the community property of the parties, unless the action is contrary to a valid premarital agreement between the parties or the court makes written findings setting forth a compelling reason for making an unequal disposition of the community property. (NRS 125.150) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that under Rule 60(b) of the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, relief from a divorce decree dividing community property between the parties may be obtained by: (1) filing within 6 months after the final decree a motion for relief or modification from the decree because of mistake, newly discovered evidence or fraud; or (2) showing exceptional circumstances justifying equitable relief in an independent civil action. (Kramer v. Kramer, 96 Nev. 759, 762 (1980); Amie v. Amie, 106 Nev. 541, 542 (1990)) In Doan v. Wilkerson, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 48, 328 P.3d 498 (2014), the Nevada Supreme Court held that exceptional circumstances justifying equitable relief do not exist when a particular item of community property was disclosed and considered in a divorce action but omitted from the divorce decree.

This bill ~~[provides that, at any time,]~~ authorizes a party in an action for divorce, separate maintenance or annulment ~~[may]~~ to file a postjudgment motion to obtain an adjudication of any community property or liability that was omitted from the final decree or judgment. This bill further provides that the court has continuing jurisdiction to hear such a motion and must make an equal disposition of the omitted community property or liability unless the court finds that certain exceptions apply.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 125.150 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125.150 Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.155 and unless the action is contrary to a premarital agreement between the parties which is enforceable pursuant to chapter 123A of NRS:

1. In granting a divorce, the court:

(a) May award such alimony to the wife or to the husband, in a specified principal sum or as specified periodic payments, as appears just and equitable; and

(b) Shall, to the extent practicable, make an equal disposition of the community property of the parties, except that the court may make an unequal disposition of the community property in such proportions as it deems just if the court finds a compelling reason to do so and sets forth in writing the reasons for making the unequal disposition.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, in granting a divorce, the court shall dispose of any property held in joint tenancy in the manner set forth in subsection 1 for the disposition of community property. If a party has made a contribution of separate property to the acquisition or improvement of property held in joint tenancy, the court may provide for the reimbursement of that party for his or her contribution. The amount of reimbursement must not exceed the amount of the contribution of separate property that can be traced to the acquisition or improvement of property held in joint tenancy, without interest or any adjustment because of an increase in the value of the property held in joint tenancy. The amount of reimbursement must not exceed the value, at the time of the disposition, of the property held in joint tenancy for which the contribution of separate property was made. In determining whether to provide for the reimbursement, in whole or in part, of a party who has contributed separate property, the court shall consider:

(a) The intention of the parties in placing the property in joint tenancy;

(b) The length of the marriage; and

(c) Any other factor which the court deems relevant in making a just and equitable disposition of that property.

➥ As used in this subsection, "contribution" includes, without limitation, a down payment, a payment for the acquisition or improvement of property, and a payment reducing the principal of a loan used to finance the purchase or improvement of property. The term does not include a payment of interest on a loan used to finance the purchase or improvement of property, or a payment made for maintenance, insurance or taxes on property.

3. A party may file a postjudgment motion in any action for divorce, annulment or separate maintenance to obtain adjudication of any community property or liability omitted from the decree or judgment. There is no limitation on the time in which a motion pursuant to this subsection may be filed ~~[.]~~ , except that if the motion is based on fraud or mistake, the motion must be filed within 3 years after the discovery by the aggrieved party of the facts constituting the fraud or mistake. The court has continuing jurisdiction to hear such a motion and shall equally divide the omitted community property or liability between the parties unless the court finds that:

(a) The community property or liability was included in a prior equal disposition of the community property of the parties or in an unequal disposition of the community property of the parties which was made pursuant to written findings of a compelling reason for making that unequal disposition; or

(b) The court determines a compelling reason in the interests of justice to make an unequal disposition of the community property or liability and sets forth in writing the reasons for making the unequal disposition.

➥ If a motion pursuant to this subsection results in a judgment dividing a defined benefit pension plan, the judgment may not be enforced against an installment payment made by the plan more than 6 years after the installment payment.

4. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125.141, whether or not application for suit money has been made under the provisions of NRS 125.040, the court may award a reasonable attorney's fee to either party to an action for divorce.

~~[4.]~~ 5. In granting a divorce, the court may also set apart such portion of the husband's separate property for the wife's support, the wife's separate property for the husband's support or the separate property of either spouse for the support of their children as is deemed just and equitable.

~~[5.]~~ 6. In the event of the death of either party or the subsequent remarriage of the spouse to whom specified periodic payments were to be made, all the payments required by the decree must cease, unless it was otherwise ordered by the court.

~~[6.]~~ 7. If the court adjudicates the property rights of the parties, or an agreement by the parties settling their property rights has been approved by the court, whether or not the court has retained jurisdiction to modify them, the adjudication of property rights, and the agreements settling property rights, may nevertheless at any time thereafter be modified by the court upon written stipulation signed and acknowledged by the parties to the action, and in accordance with the terms thereof.

~~[7.]~~ 8. If a decree of divorce, or an agreement between the parties which was ratified, adopted or approved in a decree of divorce, provides for specified periodic payments of alimony, the decree or agreement is not subject to modification by the court as to accrued payments. Payments pursuant to a decree entered on or after July 1, 1975, which have not accrued at the time a motion for modification is filed may be modified upon a showing of changed circumstances, whether or not the court has expressly retained jurisdiction for the modification. In addition to any other factors the court considers relevant in determining whether to modify the order, the court shall consider whether the income of the spouse who is ordered to pay alimony, as indicated on the spouse's federal income tax return for the preceding calendar year, has been reduced to such a level that the spouse is financially unable to pay the amount of alimony the spouse has been ordered to pay.

~~[8.]~~ 9. In addition to any other factors the court considers relevant in determining whether to award alimony and the amount of such an award, the court shall consider:

(a) The financial condition of each spouse;

(b) The nature and value of the respective property of each spouse;

(c) The contribution of each spouse to any property held by the spouses pursuant to NRS 123.030;

(d) The duration of the marriage;

(e) The income, earning capacity, age and health of each spouse;

(f) The standard of living during the marriage;

(g) The career before the marriage of the spouse who would receive the alimony;

(h) The existence of specialized education or training or the level of marketable skills attained by each spouse during the marriage;

(i) The contribution of either spouse as homemaker;

(j) The award of property granted by the court in the divorce, other than child support and alimony, to the spouse who would receive the alimony; and

(k) The physical and mental condition of each party as it relates to the financial condition, health and ability to work of that spouse.

~~[9.]~~ 10. In granting a divorce, the court shall consider the need to grant alimony to a spouse for the purpose of obtaining training or education relating to a job, career or profession. In addition to any other factors the court considers relevant in determining whether such alimony should be granted, the court shall consider:

(a) Whether the spouse who would pay such alimony has obtained greater job skills or education during the marriage; and

(b) Whether the spouse who would receive such alimony provided financial support while the other spouse obtained job skills or education.

~~[10.]~~ 11. If the court determines that alimony should be awarded pursuant to the provisions of subsection ~~[9.]~~ 10:

(a) The court, in its order, shall provide for the time within which the spouse who is the recipient of the alimony must commence the training or education relating to a job, career or profession.

(b) The spouse who is ordered to pay the alimony may, upon changed circumstances, file a motion to modify the order.

(c) The spouse who is the recipient of the alimony may be granted, in addition to any other alimony granted by the court, money to provide for:

(1) Testing of the recipient's skills relating to a job, career or profession;

(2) Evaluation of the recipient's abilities and goals relating to a job, career or profession;

(3) Guidance for the recipient in establishing a specific plan for training or education relating to a job, career or profession;

(4) Subsidization of an employer's costs incurred in training the recipient;

(5) Assisting the recipient to search for a job; or

(6) Payment of the costs of tuition, books and fees for:

(I) The equivalent of a high school diploma;

(II) College courses which are directly applicable to the recipient's goals for his or her career; or

(III) Courses of training in skills desirable for employment.

~~[11.]~~ 12. For the purposes of this section, a change of 20 percent or more in the gross monthly income of a spouse who is ordered to pay alimony shall be deemed to constitute changed circumstances requiring a review for modification of the payments of alimony. As used in this subsection, "gross monthly income" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 125B.070.

Assemblyman Hansen moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Hansen.

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

The amendment clarifies that the court has continuing jurisdiction to hear a postjudgment motion in any action for divorce, annulment, or separate maintenance to obtain adjudication of any community asset or liability omitted from the decree or judgment. Such a motion, if based on fraud or mistake, must be made within three years of the discovery by the aggrieved party of the facts constituting the fraud or mistake. In partition of benefits from a defined benefit pension plan, the judgment may not be enforced against an installment payment made by the plan more than six years after the installment payment.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Taxation:

Amendment No. 430.

AN ACT relating to insurance; establishing a tax credit for an insurer who meets certain criteria related to economic development in this State; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law establishes a 3.5 percent tax on the net direct premiums and net direct considerations of an insurer transacting business in this State. (NRS 680B.027) Existing law also provides for a tax credit of up to 80 percent against this tax for an insurer who meets certain criteria related to economic development in this State. (NRS 680B.050) Beginning January 1, 2016, the aggregate amount of the credits may not exceed $5,000,000, allocated on a pro rata basis among all insurers eligible for the credit, and the credit is scheduled to expire on January 1, 2021. (NRS 680B.050; Chapter 1, Statutes of Nevada 2014, 28th Special Session, p. 3)

Section 2 of this bill establishes a tax credit of up to 80 percent against the tax imposed by NRS 680B.027 for an insurer who meets certain criteria related to economic development. In addition, section 2 provides that an insurer who has received 10 years of credits under NRS 680B.050 is ineligible to receive the new credit and that, for all other insurers, the amount of the new credit in any given year must be reduced by the amount of any credit taken pursuant to NRS 680B.050. ~~[Further, section 2 specifies that an insurer is only eligible for the tax credit if certain tax collections have exceeded projections.]~~

Section 3 of this bill establishes the criteria an insurer must meet to qualify for the tax credit in section 2. Specifically, an insurer must execute an agreement with the Office of Economic Development providing that the insurer will: (1) have 250 or more full-time employees in this State; (2) maintain and own a principal or regional office in this State in which they have made an investment of $10,000,000 or more; (3) pay an hourly wage that is equal to or greater than the average statewide hourly wage as established by the Employment Security Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation; and (4) provide health insurance for all of its employees in this State and their dependents. In addition, section 3 provides that an insurer who fails to meet the requirements in the agreement or who ceases operations before the time specified in the agreement is required to repay the Department of Taxation the amount of any credit taken before the failure of the insurer to comply with the provisions of the agreement, plus interest. Sections 7 and 8 of this bill provide for the tax credit in section 2 to be treated like economic development tax abatements for the purposes of reporting and analysis. Sections 9-11 of this bill account for the January 1, 2021, expiration of the tax credit authorized by NRS 680B.050 while retaining statutory language necessary for the operation of the new tax credit in section 2. In particular, section 10 of this bill provides that the tax credit authorized by NRS 680B.050 will no longer be available on or after January 1, 2021.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

~~[Sections 3-9 of this bill set forth requirements for the accounting for, refund of and charges against security deposits that are advanced under a lease of commercial premises.~~

~~Section 10 of this bill prohibits a landlord from charging a tenant for rent or physical damages to commercial premises except under certain circumstances.]~~

Existing law prohibits a landlord from interfering in certain matters with a tenant's use of commercial premises. Existing law also requires a landlord or a landlord's agent who has changed the door locks of a commercial tenant who is delinquent in paying rent to place a written notice for a period of not less than 5 business days on the front door of the premises ~~[.]~~ which states information regarding how a tenant may obtain a new key. (NRS 118C.200) Section 13 of this bill eliminates this minimum posting period . ~~[and]~~ Additionally, section 13 requires a landlord to provide a tenant with written notice of delinquency in paying rent and of the landlord's intent to change the door locks by certified mail at least 3 days before changing the door locks of the tenant. Further, section 13 authorizes a tenant to terminate the lease if the landlord or the landlord's agent violates the provisions of section 13.

~~[Existing law sets forth a process for a tenant to recover possession of commercial premises from which a landlord has locked the tenant out. (NRS 118C.210) Section 14 of this bill revises these provisions to authorize a tenant to file a verified complaint for reentry in district court. Section 14 eliminates a requirement that a court issue an order requiring a tenant who is reasonably believed to have been unlawfully locked out to post a bond in an amount equal to 1 month of rent. Section 14 also extends the period after the filing of a tenant's verified complaint for reentry in which a court must hold a hearing when so requested by a landlord and provides for the rendering of a judgment for court costs against a landlord who fails to timely request such a hearing. Section 14 further provides for the punishment of a party for contempt of court. Finally, section 14 establishes the amount of the fee for filing a verified complaint for reentry and provides for the deferment and waiver of certain fees and costs under certain circumstances.~~

~~Existing law sets forth provisions that authorize a landlord to dispose of abandoned property left on commercial premises by a tenant under certain circumstances. (NRS 118C.230) Section 15 of this bill requires a landlord to take reasonable steps to determine whether the abandoned personal property is subject to a perfected lien or security interest and, if so, to notify the holder of the lien or interest of the abandonment.~~

~~Section 17 of this bill repeals provisions governing the jurisdiction of courts over certain actions relating to commercial premises and the applicability of certain judicial doctrines in such actions.~~]

(NRS 293.285, 293.3585, 293C.275, 293C.3585) Section 15, 24, 47 and 57 of this bill provide that if the voter's signature does not match, the voter must provide certain proof of identification and update his or her signature.

Existing law requires an alphabetical listing of all registered voters for each precinct to be posted in a public area of each polling place in a county and city and for an election board officer to identify at certain times the names of each voter who has voted. (NRS 293.301, 293C.290) Sections 17 and 49 of this bill authorize the county or city clerk of each county or city to: (1) require an election board officer to post the alphabetical listing at each precinct; or (2) publish on the Internet website of the county or city clerk, as applicable, the alphabetical listing of all registered voters for each precinct in the county or city, respectively. Regardless of which option is selected by the county or city clerk, sections 17 and 49 require the alphabetical listings to be updated during the election.

Existing law provides that a voter's precinct or voting district number must be included in certain documents used during early voting. (NRS 293.3585, 293.3604, 293C.3585, 293C.3604) Sections 24-26 and 56-58 of this bill clarify that during early voting, the precinct or voting district number must be included on the roster and the voting receipt if that information is available. The statements prepared by the election board and the ballots do not require the precinct or voting district number and are not required to be sorted by precinct or voting district at the close of early voting.

Existing law requires each county and city clerk to mail a sample ballot to each registered voter in the applicable county or city. (NRS 293.565, 293C.530) Sections 40 and 63 of this bill ~~[~~provide that~~]~~ authorize each county and city clerk ~~[~~may provide an option for~~]~~ to establish a system to distribute a sample ballot by electronic means to each registered ~~[~~voters to elect~~]~~ voter who elects to receive sample ballots ~~[~~by electronic means. If the county or city clerk provides such an option, a registered voter may elect to receive sample ballots by electronic means.~~]~~ in that manner. Such a system must be approved by the Secretary of State and may include, without limitation, electronic mail or electronic access through an Internet website. Sections 3, 41, 63 and 69-74 of this bill make conforming changes.

Existing law provides that a registered voter may submit a written request to the county clerk to have his or her address and telephone number withheld from the public. (NRS 293.558) Section 38.5 of this bill allows a registered voter who participates in a system to distribute sample ballots by electronic means to elect to have his or her electronic mail address withheld from the public. Sections 17, 29.5, 41 and 49 make conforming changes.

Existing law provides for the chair and at least one other member of the election board to deliver the ballots and election materials to a receiving center or central counting place. (NRS 293B.335, 293C.635) Sections 42 and 65 of this bill revise this provision to require at least two board members to deliver the ballots and election materials.

Assemblyman Gardner moved the adoption of the amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN GARDNER:

This amendment clarifies the intent of the bill, the intent of the Commission, and the timing of the initial schedules.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I have a question to the sponsor of the amendment. On page 4 it says, ". . . the Citizens' Commission on Salaries for Certain Elected Officers may provide for compensation of members of the Legislature for the performance of their duties." I see no definition of "performance of duties." I'd like to understand what that actually means because it is outside of a regular or special session. Is that for meeting days? Is that for conference days? Is that for constituent days? How does that actually work?

ASSEMBLYMAN GARDNER:

To my colleague from the south, it would include any of those. This is supposed to be allowing this Commission the flexibility to look at those things.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I want to make sure I have this correct, Mr. Speaker. To the sponsor of the amendment, we currently get paid for the first 60 days of session and then any official meeting day. This would allow the Commission to look at other days outside of the 60 days and any official meeting days and would set up the regulations and rules on what days actually can be paid for. So they are just going to study that, if I understand you.

ASSEMBLYMAN GARDNER:

No, this Commission will have the ability, as in 24 other states, to amend salaries and benefits, and they will be able to do not just the study, but to actually be able to change that. That is why it is a constitutional change—so they will be able to determine, as in other states like Arizona, about how they would like that compensation to be set.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I'm still confused, but I will work on it.

Amendment adopted.

Assembly Bill No. 295.

Bill read second time.

Amendment No. 618.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions relating to the provision of certain ~~[health care]~~ wellness services. (BDR 54-698)

AN ACT relating to healing arts; limiting the scope of services which may be performed by providers of ~~[complementary and alternative health care;]~~ wellness services; requiring certain disclosures by such providers; defining "wellness services"; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law regulates the licensing, certification and registration of various providers of health care, including, without limitation, physicians, homeopathic physicians, osteopathic physicians, chiropractic physicians, doctors of Oriental medicine and podiatric physicians. (Chapters 630, 630A, 633, 634, 643A and 635 of NRS) ~~[However, section 2 of this bill finds that there are numerous practitioners of healing arts, commonly referred to as alternative medicine, complementary medicine or natural healing, doing business in this State who are not regulated by the State.]~~ Section 3 of this bill limits the scope of ~~[these practitioners]~~ services which may be performed by a provider of wellness services, which are not regulated by this State, by prohibiting ~~[such practitioners]~~ those providers of wellness services from providing certain services which may only be provided by a licensed provider of health care. The term "wellness services" is defined in section 3 to mean certain therapies and practices and the provision of certain products based on certain complementary health treatment approaches. Section 3 also requires ~~[these practitioners]~~ providers of wellness services to make certain disclosures to their clients ~~[.]~~ and retain copies of signed disclosures for a period of not less than 5 years.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Although many complementary and alternative medicine practitioners are not licensed, registered or certified by this State, it is evident from this data, that thousands of persons are presently receiving a substantial amount of health care from such practitioners.*~~

~~2. Reports, studies and research data also show that persons from a wide variety of age, ethnic, socioeconomic and other demographic categories utilize these health services, often referred to as complementary and alternative health care practices or natural healing therapies and modalities.~~

~~3. Notwithstanding the widespread utilization of these health care services by residents of this State, the provision of such services may be in violation of the professional practice laws governing licensed providers of health care in this State.~~

~~4. As a result, a practitioner of the healing arts who is not licensed by this State as a provider of health care could be subject to fines, penalties and the restriction of his or her practice, although his or her practice may not cross the threshold of State regulatory concern for the public.]~~ (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 3. 1. ~~[Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a]~~ A person who provides ~~[health care]~~ wellness services in accordance with this section, but who is not licensed, certified or registered in this State as a provider of health care, is not in violation of any law based on the unlicensed practice of health care services or a health care profession unless the person:

2. Any person providing ~~[health care]~~ wellness services in this State who is not licensed, certified or registered in this State as a provider of health care and who is advertising or charging a fee for ~~[health care]~~ wellness services shall, before providing those services, disclose to each client in a plainly worded written statement:

Assemblyman Kirner moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Kirner.

ASSEMBLYMAN KIRNER:

Amendment 618 to Assembly Bill 295 removes the bill’s preamble and substitutes “wellness services” for all references to “health care services” in the bill. The amendment also includes several new practices in the list of prohibited acts and provides a list of various therapies, practices, and products which are considered wellness services for the purposes of this bill. Additionally, the amendment ensures the activities of the medical assistant as defined in Chapters 630 and 633 of Nevada Revised Statutes are not included in the scope of this measure.

Amendment adopted.

Assembly Bill No. 283.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblyman Hansen:

Amendment No. 621.

AN ACT relating to law enforcement; establishing the circumstances under which state and local law enforcement agencies may recognize the exercise of law enforcement authority by certain federal employees; authorizing state and local law enforcement agencies to enter into agreements with federal agencies concerning the enforcement of federal, state and local laws under certain circumstances; prohibiting state and local governmental agencies from allowing a federal agency to access or use certain correctional and communication facilities and equipment without the express written consent of the appropriate responsible official; ~~[requiring a county sheriff to review the duties and activities of federal agencies that have law enforcement responsibilities within his or her jurisdiction;]~~ prohibiting a person from impersonating a federal officer; designating the county sheriff as the primary law enforcement officer in certain areas of a county; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, on land owned by the United States, the Federal Government has: (1) exclusive jurisdiction; (2) concurrent jurisdiction; or (3) proprietary jurisdiction. On land over which the Federal Government has acquired exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction, the State has ceded all or part of its jurisdiction, and the Federal Government has criminal jurisdiction in the area. (United States v. Unzueta, 281 U.S. 138 (1930); Paul v. United States, 371 U.S. 245, 264 (1963)) When the State has not ceded jurisdiction to the Federal Government, the Federal Government has proprietary jurisdiction and may enact laws governing conduct on those lands pursuant to the Property Clause of the United States Constitution. (U.S. Const. Art. IV, § 3, cl. 2; Kleppe v. New Mexico, 426 U.S. 529 (1976); United States v. Bohn, 622 F.3d 1129 (2010)) This bill establishes the circumstances under which a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize a federal employee's exercise of law enforcement power on federal lands.

Sections 3-7 of this bill define terms to establish the lands and agencies to which the provisions of this bill apply. Section 5 of this bill excludes from the provisions of this bill the exercise of law enforcement authority by: (1) a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; (2) a special agent of the United States Secret Service; (3) a special agent of the United States Drug Enforcement Administration; (4) a United States Postal Inspector; or (5) an officer or agent of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Section 8 of this bill sets forth the circumstances under which a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize the enforcement of federal law by certain federal employees. Under section 8, a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize a federal employee's exercise of law enforcement authority if the federal employee is enforcing a federal law other than the Assimilative Crimes Act, which is a federal law providing that a violation of a state criminal law on federal enclaves where the Federal Government exercises exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction is a violation of federal law. (18 U.S.C. § 13) However, section 8 provides that: (1) on federal enclaves where the Federal Government exercises exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction, a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize the exercise of law enforcement authority by a federal employee who is enforcing any federal law, including, without limitation, the Assimilative Crimes Act; and (2) if a federal employee is enforcing a provision of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. §§ 1701 et seq., on federal land that is not a federal enclave, a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize such an exercise of law enforcement authority if the federal employee is enforcing a federal statute other than the Assimilative Crimes Act or a federal regulation that is necessary to implement the provisions of the Act with respect to the management, use and protection of the public lands and property located on those lands.

Section 9 of this bill authorizes a state or local law enforcement agency to assist a federal agency with the enforcement of federal law on land managed by the Federal Government pursuant to the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. 1701 et seq., if the agreement requires the payment of fair compensation for such assistance.

Section 10 of this bill prohibits a state or local law enforcement officer from recognizing a federal employee's exercise of law enforcement authority if the federal employee is enforcing state or local law, except that a state or local law enforcement officer may recognize such an exercise of law enforcement authority: (1) under certain emergency circumstances; and (2) if the county sheriff or a state law enforcement agency, with the consent of the county sheriff, has entered into an agreement with the relevant federal agency authorizing specific federal employees to enforce state and local laws. Under section 10: (1) an agreement with a federal agency which authorizes specific federal employees to enforce state or local laws must be for a term of not more than 2 years; and (2) the federal employees granted authority to enforce state or local laws are required to successfully complete an 80-hour online training course approved by the Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission.

Section 11 of this bill prohibits a state or local governmental agency from authorizing a federal agency to access or use the correctional and communication facilities and equipment of any state or local law enforcement agency without the express written consent of the appropriate responsible official of the state or local law enforcement agency.

~~[Section 12 of this bill requires a county sheriff to review the duties and activities of federal agencies that have law enforcement responsibilities and~~

~~that are acting within his or her jurisdiction to determine whether the federal agencies are acting consistently with the provisions of this bill.]~~

Existing law prohibits a person from impersonating a public officer, a police officer or a person having special authority by law to perform an act affecting the rights or interests of another person. (NRS 199.430) For the purposes of that prohibition, the term "public officer" is defined to include only state and local officers, not federal officers. (NRS 193.019) Section 12.5 of this bill expands the scope of existing law to prohibit the impersonation of a federal officer.

Section 13 of this bill specifically states that the sheriff of a county and his or her deputies are the primary law enforcement officers in the unincorporated areas of their county. If a county has a metropolitan police department, section 13 provides that the sheriff and his or her deputies are the primary law enforcement officers in the unincorporated areas of that county and in any incorporated city over which the department has jurisdiction.

Amendment No. 606.

AN ACT relating to securities; ~~[requiring certain persons to complete training concerning identification of the suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person; requiring broker-dealers and investment advisers to designate a person to whom a report of the suspected or known exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person may be made;]~~ authorizing the Administrator of the Securities Division of the Office of the Secretary of State to adopt regulations relating to the federal Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

~~[Existing law establishes the Uniform Securities Act which sets forth provisions governing the sale and purchase of securities in this State in a manner consistent with federal laws and regulations. (Chapter 90 of NRS) Sections 2-9 of this bill require certain persons employed by broker-dealers and investment advisers to complete training concerning the identification and reporting of suspected exploitation of older persons and vulnerable persons. "Older persons" are defined in existing law as persons who are 60 years of age or older. "Vulnerable persons" are defined in existing law as persons who are 18 years of age or older who: (1) suffer from a condition of physical or mental incapacitation because of a developmental disability, organic brain damage or mental illness; or (2) have one or more physical or mental limitations that restrict the ability of the person to perform the normal activities of daily living. (NRS 200.5092) Section 8 specifies which sales representatives, representatives of an investment adviser and officers and employees of broker-dealers or investment advisers must complete the training, when the training must be completed and the content of the training. Section 9 requires each broker-dealer and investment adviser to designate a person to whom reports of suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person may be made. The person so designated is then responsible for determining when a formal report must be reported to the appropriate agency.]~~

Sec. 11. NRS 90.630 is hereby amended to read as follows:

90.630 1. If the Administrator reasonably believes, whether or not based upon an investigation conducted under NRS 90.620, that:

(b) A person is acting as a broker-dealer or investment adviser in violation of NRS 90.310 or 90.330,

➥ the Administrator, in addition to any specific power granted under this chapter and subject to compliance with the requirements of NRS 90.820, may issue, without a prior hearing, a summary order against the person engaged in the prohibited activities, directing the person to desist and refrain from further activity until the security is registered or the person is licensed under this chapter. The summary order to cease and desist must state the section of this chapter or regulation or order of the Administrator under this chapter which the Administrator reasonably believes has been or is being violated.

2. If the Administrator reasonably believes, whether or not based upon an investigation conducted under NRS 90.620, that a person has violated this chapter or a regulation or order of the Administrator under this chapter, the Administrator, in addition to any specific power granted under this chapter, after giving notice by registered or certified mail and conducting a hearing in an administrative proceeding, unless the right to notice and hearing is waived by the person against whom the sanction is imposed, may:

The Administrator shall promptly notify the parties by registered or certified mail of the time and place set for the hearing.

(b) The imposition by the Administrator of one or more sanctions under subsection 2 with respect to a specific violation precludes the Administrator from later imposing any other sanctions under paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of subsection 2 with respect to the violation.

5. For the purposes of determining any sanction to be imposed pursuant to paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of subsection 2, the Administrator shall consider, among other factors, the frequency and persistence of the conduct constituting a violation of this chapter, or a regulation or order of the Administrator under this chapter, the number of persons adversely affected by the conduct and the resources of the person committing the violation.

6. If a sanction is imposed pursuant to this section, reimbursement for the costs of the proceeding, including investigative costs and attorney's fees incurred, may be ordered and recovered by the Administrator. Sec. 4. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.

Assemblyman Nelson moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblyman Nelson.

ASSEMBLYMAN NELSON:

The intent of this bill is to maintain existing deficiency provisions for all residential loans and for all commercial loans entered into prior to July 1, 2011. We are removing the provisions only for commercial loans entered into after that date. This specific amendment removes the word "documents," which appears twice, and substitutes the words "promissory note or guarantee" in its place.

I would like to thank the chairman of Judiciary Committee who brokered a settlement among all of the stakeholders, and my colleague from the south who will soon graduate from the Boyd School of Law with honors. He helped quite a bit on some of the technical issues and knows as much about this bill as most of the lawyers I am dealing with.

Remarks by Assemblymen Hansen, Diaz, Swank, Dickman, Spiegel, and Gardner.

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

Assembly Bill 405 repeals the existing parental notification requirements for pregnant minors and enacts new notification requirements that apply to pregnant minors and to pregnant wards, regardless of their age, for whom a legal guardian or conservator has been appointed. The bill does not require a parent or guardian to consent to the abortion before it is performed and does not prohibit a physician from performing the abortion if written notification has been provided to at least one parent or guardian of the pregnant minor or ward and a 48-hour waiting period has expired. An expedited procedure is established for petitioning a court for judicial authorization to proceed without parental notification.

This bill is effective upon passage and approval for the purpose of adopting regulations, and on October 1, 2015, for all other purposes.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DIAZ:

I respectfully rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 405. In 1998, Rebecca Bell, a young lady from the Midwest, was afraid to talk to her parents about her pregnancy. She obtained an illegal, alternative, back-alley abortion, became sick for a week, and died. Her parents stated that they would have rathered their daughter obtained a legal abortion without their consent if it meant saving her life. Spring Adams, a 13-year-old from another Mountain West state, was raped by her own father. Her father shot her when he found out she terminated a pregnancy that occurred as a result of incest. I think about the young woman who told her parents that she was pregnant. They forced her to give birth and put the child up for adoption. The young lady subsequently tried to commit suicide and was institutionalized for depression. This position is also for that young woman who was so scared that her parents would find out about her unintended pregnancy, she tried to overdose on over-the-counter medication.

A.B. 405 is a bill that endangers vulnerable young girls in our state. It requires and forces them, against their will, to make deeply personal and private decisions with other people. This bill goes against their will and their privacy to coerce them into involving parents in decisions when those parents may not be there for many other decisions in their lives. The majority of teenage women will evaluate whether they can confide in family members, and if they feel they safely can, they will. You cannot legislate good relationships. I strongly urge this body to vote no.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SWANK:

I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 405. My vote is to let professionals do what they do best. A doctor is a trained expert in the area of physical health. They counsel a patient about the risks of any health condition and any potential treatment so that when a decision is made, it is well informed and in the best interests of the patient.

Assembly Bill 405 is legislation that creates more questions and uncertainty than helps anyone. Assembly Bill 405 would slow down the process for women when making personal reproductive health choices. Based on an increased time and notification of parents or petitioning of the courts, it postpones medical procedures that are much safer when performed earlier. Performed later, they can become more complicated and have added risk.

Additionally, the way “medical emergency” is defined in this bill could put people at risk and is different than other parental consent statutes. This bill puts up far too many road blocks on a very personal and private choice and I urge this body to vote no.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DICKMAN:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 405. It is common sense that a daughter would need to notify her parent before any major procedure. This puts us in line with rulings from the U.S. Supreme Court and statutes from many other states.

I have gotten several emails from physicians who have urged me to support this bill because they have had to deal with this on many occasions. I urge your support of all the daughters in Nevada and urge your support of A.B. 405.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SPIEGEL:

I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 405. This puts impediments into people's lives on a personal and private health choice. In other states, it has been documented that pregnancy rates do not change in response to parental notification requirements. Assembly Bill 405 will not reduce teen pregnancy. It will not reduce abortion rates. It will not result in girls talking to their parents in cases where the parent-child relationship has deteriorated to the point where the girl feels she cannot talk to her parents. What it will do, at least in some cases, is force already terrified young girls into a choice of being forced to discuss their pregnancy with a parent they, for whatever reason, do not trust. Some of these girls will be so desperate to avoid that conversation and its ramifications that they will do desperate things, like seek to go out of state for an abortion or end their pregnancy without a doctor. This choice will result in grave harm for some of these girls. I urge this body to vote no.

ASSEMBLYMAN GARDNER:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 405. This is a parental rights bill. We are simply asking that the parents be notified before their daughter has an abortion. They do not have to consent to the abortion. They just need to be notified. This is the right thing to do, and this speaks to the common yearning of all parents to be involved.

Also, in recent polling, this is about an 80 percent issue. It is not a Republican or Democratic issue. Majorities of Republicans, Democrats, and Independents all think this needs to be passed. That is why the majority of states have consent laws, and I urge your support of this commonsense bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN GARDNER:

Assembly Bill 414 revises provisions authorizing the Governor to only enter into interactive gaming agreements that enable patrons in the signatory states to participate in Internet poker. The bill also defines "Internet poker" and clarifies that interactive gaming does not include any gambling game other than Internet poker.

ASSEMBLYMAN ELLIOT ANDERSON:

I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 414. To put it lightly, this bill is unnecessary. Interactive gaming is already restricted by regulation of the Gaming Commission. I think what this does is close off any future avenues that might develop when we are out of session. Let us say that a market develops. If we do this, we would have to be called into special session or have to come back and rush things to change it. There is no harm right now because it is already restricted by regulation.

The Gaming Commission is the gold standard of regulatory bodies, and we should allow them discretion under the statute. This issue can be litigated there if it is necessary, but right now there is no harm. I urge this body to reject Assembly Bill 414.

ASSEMBLYMAN WHEELER:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 414. During the last session, the Governor signed into law A.B. 114 allowing for interactive gaming that was meant to be poker only. Along with many others in this room, I was here at that time. A review of all the testimony and articles from last session shows that it was meant to be poker only. Assembly Bill 414 clarifies the intent of the 2013 law. I will be voting in favor of this bill, and I urge this body to do the same.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN KIRKPATRICK:

I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 414. Like many of my colleagues, I was here last session. Nevada is the gold standard around the world on gaming. One of the things that we talked about in the 2013 legislation was the ability for the Gaming Control Board to establish regulations so that we could be on the cutting edge at all times when it came to gaming. Currently poker is the only online game that is allowed, but we are taking away the ability for the Gaming Control Board and the Gaming Commission to adopt regulations to keep us on the cutting edge.

Over 80 percent of our budget comes from gaming and the day that we cannot be the gold standard, we put ourselves in a huge situation across the state. This is not a partisan issue. This is more about ensuring that we keep our golden goose available for the long term.

It really was a competition last session on which state was going to adopt online gaming first. The Governor gave us a challenge to see if we could beat New Jersey, because he was headed to the Western Governors Association. That is the truth of the story. The Governor said I am leaving on Friday. I need to get this done in three days. Can you guys do it? We as a southern Nevada delegation came together in a room, and we did it in four hours, even before lobbyists were signing new contracts. We passed the bill, and it was on the way to the Governor's office. There were many of us at the signing. Everybody was invited because it was an historic day around the world, for Nevada to be the first to sign on to online gaming.

I want to talk a little bit about the history and the importance of gaming in this building. I believe it was in 2007, Mr. [Bernie] Anderson was here, and we went round and round about a bill allowing a governmental agency to have gaming. I was one of six people who voted against it with many of my Republican colleagues, including Mr. Carpenter, because I felt that we were not living up to the gold standard. It has always been about being the gold standard. It has always been about being on the cutting edge. That is why we have places in Macau. That is why we are looking at Japan today. Without all the additional revenue, which is our number one source of income, we could really be at risk. I do not think it behooves this body to lock something in for two years, because a lot can change in two years. I would urge people to think about this and to not vote for it.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DICKMAN:

I rise to support Assembly Bill 414. This bill simply clarifies in statutes the intent of A.B. 360 from the 2013 Session. Currently in Nevada we have online poker, and this will do nothing to change that. It is just a simple, important bill to ensure online games in Nevada remain poker only. I urge your support of Assembly Bill 414.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Judiciary:

Amendment No. 562.

AN ACT relating to public safety; revising provisions governing the admission into evidence of certain affidavits and declarations in certain criminal proceedings; revising provisions governing the administration of certain tests for the presence of alcohol, controlled substances and prohibited substances; ~~[providing for]~~ revising provisions concerning the revocation of ~~[the]~~ a license, permit or privilege to drive ; ~~[of a person who fails to submit to certain tests for the presence of alcohol, controlled substances and prohibited substances under certain circumstances; revising provisions concerning operating or being in actual physical control of a vessel;]~~ and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law makes it unlawful for a person to drive, operate or be in actual physical control of a vehicle or vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or both. (NRS 484C.110, 484C.120, 488.410) Sections 9 and 20 of this bill define the term "under the influence" for the purposes of existing law relating to driving, operating or being in actual physical control of a vehicle or vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or both.

Existing law allows the affidavits and declarations of certain persons to be admitted as evidence during a criminal proceeding to prove certain facts relating to the testing of the blood, breath or urine of a defendant to determine the presence or concentration of alcohol or certain other substances. In a felony trial, if the defendant objects in writing to the admission of such affidavits or declarations, the court must not admit the affidavit or declaration into evidence and the prosecution may cause the witness to testify at trial concerning the information contained in the affidavit or declaration. A defendant in a misdemeanor trial, however, must also establish that: (1) there is a substantial and bona fide dispute between the prosecution and the defense regarding the facts in the declaration; and (2) it is in the best interests of justice that the witness who signed the affidavit or declaration be cross-examined. (NRS 50.315) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the additional requirements imposed on a misdemeanor defendant under existing law violate a defendant's constitutional right to confront the witnesses against him or her and are therefore unconstitutional. (City of Reno v. Howard, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 12, 318 P.3d 1063 (2014))

Section 1 of this bill eliminates the constitutional defect identified by the Nevada Supreme Court and provides instead that an affidavit or declaration must not be admitted as evidence during a misdemeanor trial to prove certain facts relating to the testing of the blood, breath or urine of a defendant to determine the presence or concentration of alcohol or certain other substances if, not later than 10 days before the date set for trial or such shorter time before the date set for trial as authorized by the court, the defendant objects in writing to the admission of the affidavit or declaration. ~~[and requests an opportunity to cross-examine the witness at trial.]~~ Under section 1, if the affidavit or declaration is not admitted into evidence, the prosecution may produce the witness to provide testimony at trial concerning the information contained in the affidavit or declaration at trial.

Under existing law, a person who drives a vehicle in this State is deemed to have given his or her consent to an evidentiary test of his or her blood, urine, breath or other bodily substance to determine the concentration of alcohol in his or her blood or breath or to determine whether a controlled substance, chemical, poison, organic solvent or another prohibited substance is present. If a person who has thus given his or her "implied consent" to an evidentiary test refuses to submit to the test when directed to do so by a police officer who has reason to believe that the person was driving a vehicle or operating a vessel while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, existing law authorizes the police officer to direct that reasonable force be used to obtain a sample of blood from the person to be tested. (NRS 484C.160) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the consent implied by a person's decision to drive in this State is not voluntary consent to an evidentiary blood test and, thus, existing laws that allow a police officer to obtain a blood sample from a person without a warrant and without voluntary consent are unconstitutional. (Byars v. State, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 85, 336 P.3d 939 (2014))

Sections 12 and 14 of this bill eliminate the constitutional defect identified by the Nevada Supreme Court and provide instead that if a person refuses to submit to an evidentiary blood test at the request of a police officer: (1) the officer may apply for a warrant or other court order directing the use of reasonable force to obtain the blood sample; and (2) the person's driver's license must be revoked for a certain period. Section 14 further authorizes the revocation of a person's license, permit or privilege to drive if an evidentiary test reveals the presence of a detectable amount of a controlled substance or prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine for which he or she did not have a valid prescription or hold a valid registry identification card. Sections 15 and 16 of this bill make corresponding revisions to provisions of existing law which establish the procedure for effecting such a revocation and provide for an administrative hearing to challenge such a revocation. Section 25 of this bill makes comparable changes to existing law concerning the evidentiary tests of persons who operate or exercise actual physical control over vessels on the waters of this State. Section 5 of this bill makes comparable changes to existing law concerning evidentiary tests of persons who have actual physical possession of a firearm. ~~[Existing law makes it unlawful for a person to operate or be in actual physical control of a vessel on the waters of this State while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance or while engaging in certain~~

~~other prohibited conduct if the vessel is "under power or sail." (NRS 488.410) Section 21 of this bill makes the operation or actual physical control of a vessel by such a person unlawful if the vessel is "under way," that is, if the vessel is adrift, making way or being propelled, and is not aground, made fast to the shore or tied or made fast to a dock or mooring. Sections 2-4, 6-8, 19, 21-25 and 27-30 of this bill make conforming changes.~~]

Sec. 15. NRS 484C.220 is hereby amended to read as follows:

If the person currently is driving with a temporary license that was issued pursuant to this section or NRS 484C.230, the person is not entitled to request an additional temporary license pursuant to this section or NRS 484C.230, and the order of revocation issued by the officer must revoke the temporary license that was previously issued. If the person is entitled to request a temporary license, the officer shall issue the person a temporary license on a form approved by the Department if the person requests one, which is effective for only 7 days including the date of issuance. The officer shall immediately transmit the person's license or permit to the Department along with the written certificate required by subsection 2.

2. When a police officer has served an order of revocation of a driver's license, permit or privilege on a person pursuant to subsection 1, or later receives the result of an evidentiary test which indicates that a person, not then present, had a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or had a detectable amount of a controlled substance or ~~[a]~~ prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine ~~[,]~~ for which he or she did not have a valid prescription, as defined in NRS 453.128, or hold a valid registry identification card, as defined in NRS 453A.140, the officer shall immediately prepare and transmit to the Department, together with the seized license or permit and a copy of the result of the test, if any, a written certificate that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had been driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle ~~[with]~~ ***:

➥ The certificate must also indicate whether the officer served an order of revocation on the person and whether the officer issued the person a temporary license.

3. The Department, upon receipt of such a certificate for which an order of revocation has not been served, after examining the certificate and copy of the result of the chemical test, if any, and finding that revocation is proper, shall issue an order revoking the person's license, permit or privilege to drive by mailing the order to the person at the person's last known address. The order must indicate the grounds for the revocation and the period during which the person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive and state that the person has a right to administrative and judicial review of the revocation and to have a temporary license. The order of revocation becomes effective 5 days after mailing.

4. Notice of an order of revocation and notice of the affirmation of a prior order of revocation or the cancellation of a temporary license provided in NRS 484C.230 is sufficient if it is mailed to the person's last known address as shown by any application for a license. The date of mailing may be proved by the certificate of any officer or employee of the Department, specifying the time of mailing the notice. The notice is presumed to have been received upon the expiration of 5 days after it is deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mail.

Sec. 16. NRS 484C.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484C.230 1. At any time while a person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive following an order of revocation issued pursuant to NRS 484C.220, the person may request in writing a hearing by the Department to review the order of revocation, but the person is only entitled to one hearing. The hearing must be conducted ~~[within 15 days after receipt of the request, or]~~ as soon ~~[thereafter]~~ as is practicable ~~[, in the county where the requester resides unless the parties agree otherwise.]~~ at any location, if the hearing officer permits each party and witness to attend the hearing by telephone, videoconference or other electronic means. The Director or agent of the Director may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers and may require a reexamination of the requester. Unless the person is ineligible for a temporary license pursuant to NRS 484C.220, the Department shall issue an additional temporary license for a period which is sufficient to complete the administrative review.

2. The scope of the hearing must be limited to the issue of whether the person ~~[, at]~~ ***:

3. If, after the hearing, the order of revocation is affirmed, the person whose license, privilege or permit has been revoked is entitled to a review of the same issues in district court in the same manner as provided by chapter 233B of NRS. The court shall notify the Department upon the issuance of a stay, and the Department shall issue an additional temporary license for a period which is sufficient to complete the review.

4. If a hearing officer grants a continuance of a hearing at the request of the person whose license was revoked, or a court does so after issuing a stay of the revocation, the officer or court shall notify the Department, and the Department shall cancel the temporary license and notify the holder by mailing the order of cancellation to the person's last known address.

488.470 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an evidentiary test of breath to determine the concentration of alcohol in a person's breath may be used to establish that concentration only if two consecutive samples of the person's breath are taken and:

(a) The difference between the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath indicated by the two samples is less than or equal to 0.02;

(b) If the provisions of paragraph (a) do not apply, a third evidentiary test of breath is administered and the difference between the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath indicated by the third sample and one of the first two samples is less than or equal to 0.02; or

(c) If the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply, a fourth evidentiary test is administered. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 488.460, the fourth evidentiary test must be a blood test.

2. If the person fails to provide the second or third consecutive sample, or to submit to the fourth evidentiary test, the results of the first test may be used alone as evidence of the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath. If for some other reason a second, third or fourth sample is not obtained, the results of the first test may be used with all other evidence presented to establish the concentration.

3. If a person refuses or otherwise fails to provide a second or third consecutive sample or submit to a fourth evidentiary test, ~~[a peace officer may direct that reasonable force be used to obtain a sample or conduct a test pursuant to]~~ such refusal or failure constitutes a failure to submit to a required evidentiary test as provided in NRS 488.460.

Assemblyman Hansen moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Carlton.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

The comments on Amendment 562 deal with the issue that I brought forth regarding a valid registry or identification card for the marijuana registry. Doctors do not actually write a prescription for marijuana. This addresses that issue, and I thank the Chair of Judiciary for addressing my concerns.

Amendment adopted.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblyman Wheeler:

Amendment No. 563.

AN ACT relating to public safety; revising provisions governing the admission into evidence of certain affidavits and declarations in certain criminal proceedings; specifying certain conditions under which a person is deemed not to be in actual physical control of a vehicle; revising provisions governing the administration of certain tests for the presence of alcohol, controlled substances and prohibited substances; providing for the revocation of the license, permit or privilege to drive of a person who fails to submit to certain tests for the presence of alcohol, controlled substances and prohibited substances under certain circumstances; revising provisions concerning operating or being in actual physical control of a vessel; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law makes it unlawful for a person to drive, operate or be in actual physical control of a vehicle or vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or both. (NRS 484C.110, 484C.120, 488.410) Sections ~~[9]~~ 9.3 and 20 of this bill define the term "under the influence" for the purposes of existing law relating to driving, operating or being in actual physical control of a vehicle or vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or both. Section 9.5 of this bill provides that a person shall be deemed not to be in actual physical control of a vehicle if: (1) the person is asleep inside the vehicle; and (2) the vehicle is lawfully parked.

Existing law allows the affidavits and declarations of certain persons to be admitted as evidence during a criminal proceeding to prove certain facts relating to the testing of the blood, breath or urine of a defendant to determine the presence or concentration of alcohol or certain other substances. In a felony trial, if the defendant objects in writing to the admission of such affidavits or declarations, the court must not admit the affidavit or declaration into evidence and the prosecution may cause the witness to testify at trial concerning the information contained in the affidavit or declaration. A defendant in a misdemeanor trial, however, must also establish that: (1) there is a substantial and bona fide dispute between the prosecution and the defense regarding the facts in the declaration; and (2) it is in the best interests of justice that the witness who signed the affidavit or declaration be cross-examined. (NRS 50.315) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the additional requirements imposed on a misdemeanor defendant under existing law violate a defendant's constitutional right to confront the witnesses against him or her and are therefore unconstitutional. (City of Reno v. Howard, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 12, 318 P.3d 1063 (2014))

Section 1 of this bill eliminates the constitutional defect identified by the Nevada Supreme Court and provides instead that an affidavit or declaration must not be admitted as evidence during a misdemeanor trial to prove certain facts relating to the testing of the blood, breath or urine of a defendant to determine the presence or concentration of alcohol or certain other substances if, not later than 10 days before the date set for trial or such shorter time before the date set for trial as authorized by the court, the defendant objects in writing to the admission of the affidavit or declaration and requests an opportunity to cross-examine the witness at trial. Under section 1, if the affidavit or declaration is not admitted into evidence, the prosecution may produce the witness to provide testimony at trial concerning the information contained in the affidavit or declaration at trial.

Under existing law, a person who drives a vehicle in this State is deemed to have given his or her consent to an evidentiary test of his or her blood, urine, breath or other bodily substance to determine the concentration of alcohol in his or her blood or breath or to determine whether a controlled substance, chemical, poison, organic solvent or another prohibited substance is present. If a person who has thus given his or her "implied consent" to an evidentiary test refuses to submit to the test when directed to do so by a police officer who has reason to believe that the person was driving a vehicle or operating a vessel while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, existing law authorizes the police officer to direct that reasonable force be used to obtain a sample of blood from the person to be tested. (NRS 484C.160) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the consent implied by a person's decision to drive in this State is not voluntary consent to an evidentiary blood test and, thus, existing laws that allow a police officer to obtain a blood sample from a person without a warrant and without voluntary consent are unconstitutional. (Byars v. State, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 85, 336 P.3d 939 (2014))

Sections 12 and 14 of this bill eliminate the constitutional defect identified by the Nevada Supreme Court and provide instead that if a person refuses to submit to an evidentiary blood test at the request of a police officer: (1) the officer may apply for a warrant or other court order directing the use of reasonable force to obtain the blood sample; and (2) the person's driver's license must be revoked for a certain period. Sections 15 and 16 of this bill make corresponding revisions to provisions of existing law which establish the procedure for effecting such a revocation and provide for an administrative hearing to challenge such a revocation. Section 25 of this bill makes comparable changes to existing law concerning the evidentiary tests of persons who operate or exercise actual physical control over vessels on the waters of this State. Section 5 of this bill makes comparable changes to existing law concerning evidentiary tests of persons who have actual physical possession of a firearm.

Existing law makes it unlawful for a person to operate or be in actual physical control of a vessel on the waters of this State while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance or while engaging in certain other prohibited conduct if the vessel is "under power or sail." (NRS 488.410) Section 21 of this bill makes the operation or actual physical control of a vessel by such a person unlawful if the vessel is "under way," that is, if the vessel is adrift, making way or being propelled, and is not aground, made fast to the shore or tied or made fast to a dock or mooring. Sections 2-4, 6-8, 19, 21-25 and 27-30 of this bill make conforming changes.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

(c) That the calibration was performed within the period required by the Committee's regulations; and

(d) Upon completing the calibration of the device, it was operating properly.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 6 and 7, the affidavit or declaration made under the penalty of perjury of a person who withdraws a sample of blood from another for analysis by an expert as set forth in NRS 50.320 is admissible in any criminal or administrative proceeding to prove:

(c) The identity of the person to whom the affiant or declarant delivered it.

6. If, ~~[at or before the time of trial,]~~ not later than 10 days before the date set for trial or such shorter time before the date set for trial as authorized by the court, the defendant : ~~[establishes that:]~~

(a) ~~[There is a substantial and bona fide dispute regarding the facts in the affidavit or declaration; and~~

~~(b) It is in the best interests of justice that the witness who signed the affidavit or declaration be cross-examined,]~~ Objects in writing to admitting into evidence the affidavit or declaration; and

(b) Requests an opportunity to cross-examine at trial the witness who signed the affidavit or declaration,

➥ the court shall not admit the affidavit or declaration into evidence and may order the prosecution to produce the witness and may continue the trial for any time the court deems reasonably necessary to receive such testimony. The time within which a trial is required is extended by the time of the continuance.

7. During any trial in which the defendant has been accused of committing a felony, the defendant may object in writing to admitting into evidence an affidavit or declaration described in this section. If the defendant makes such an objection, the court shall not admit the affidavit or declaration into evidence and the prosecution may cause the person to testify to any information contained in the affidavit or declaration.

8. The Committee on Testing for Intoxication shall adopt regulations prescribing the form of the affidavits and declarations described in this section.

Sec. 2. NRS 50.325 is hereby amended to read as follows:

A person arrested for a violation of NRS 484C.110, 484C.120, 484C.130, 484C.430, 488.410, 488.420 or 488.425 who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor must not be admitted to bail or released on the person's own recognizance unless the person has a concentration of alcohol of less than 0.04 in his or her breath. A test of the person's breath pursuant to this subsection to determine the concentration of alcohol in his or her breath as a condition of admission to bail or release is not admissible as evidence against the person.

6. A person arrested for a violation of NRS 484C.110, 484C.120, 484C.130, 484C.430, 488.410, 488.420 or 488.425 who is under the influence of a controlled substance, is under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, or inhales, ingests, applies or otherwise uses any chemical, poison or organic solvent, or any compound or combination of any of these, to a degree which renders the person incapable of safely driving or exercising actual physical control of a vehicle or vessel under ~~[power or sail]~~ way must not be admitted to bail or released on the person's own recognizance sooner than 12 hours after arrest.

7. A person arrested for a battery that constitutes domestic violence pursuant to NRS 33.018 must not be admitted to bail sooner than 12 hours after arrest. If the person is admitted to bail more than 12 hours after arrest, without appearing personally before a magistrate or without the amount of bail having been otherwise set by a magistrate or a court, the amount of bail must be:

(a) Three thousand dollars, if the person has no previous convictions of battery that constitute domestic violence pursuant to NRS 33.018 and there is no reason to believe that the battery for which the person has been arrested resulted in substantial bodily harm or was committed by strangulation;

(b) Five thousand dollars, if the person has:

(1) No previous convictions of battery that constitute domestic violence pursuant to NRS 33.018, but there is reason to believe that the battery for which the person has been arrested resulted in substantial bodily harm or was committed by strangulation; or

➥ The provisions of this subsection do not affect the authority of a magistrate or a court to set the amount of bail when the person personally appears before the magistrate or the court, or when a magistrate or a court has otherwise been contacted to set the amount of bail. For the purposes of this subsection, a person shall be deemed to have a previous conviction of battery that constitutes domestic violence pursuant to NRS 33.018 if the person has been convicted of such an offense in this State or has been convicted of violating a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

8. A person arrested for violating a temporary or extended order for protection against domestic violence issued pursuant to NRS 33.017 to 33.100, inclusive, or for violating a restraining order or injunction that is in the nature of a temporary or extended order for protection against domestic violence issued in an action or proceeding brought pursuant to title 11 of NRS, or for violating a temporary or extended order for protection against stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment issued pursuant to NRS 200.591, or for violating a temporary or extended order for protection against sexual assault pursuant to NRS 200.378 must not be admitted to bail sooner than 12 hours after arrest if:

(a) The arresting officer determines that such a violation is accompanied by a direct or indirect threat of harm;

(b) The person has previously violated a temporary or extended order for protection of the type for which the person has been arrested; or

(c) At the time of the violation or within 2 hours after the violation, the person has:

(2) An amount of a prohibited substance in the person's blood or urine that is equal to or greater than the amount set forth in subsection 3 of NRS 484C.110.

9. If a person is admitted to bail more than 12 hours after arrest, pursuant to subsection 8, without appearing personally before a magistrate or without the amount of bail having been otherwise set by a magistrate or a court, the amount of bail must be:

(a) Three thousand dollars, if the person has no previous convictions of violating a temporary or extended order for protection against domestic violence issued pursuant to NRS 33.017 to 33.100, inclusive, or of violating a restraining order or injunction that is in the nature of a temporary or extended order for protection against domestic violence issued in an action or proceeding brought pursuant to title 11 of NRS, or of violating a temporary or extended order for protection against stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment issued pursuant to NRS 200.591, or of violating a temporary or extended order for protection against sexual assault pursuant to NRS 200.378;

➥ The provisions of this subsection do not affect the authority of a magistrate or a court to set the amount of bail when the person personally appears before the magistrate or the court or when a magistrate or a court has otherwise been contacted to set the amount of bail. For the purposes of this subsection, a person shall be deemed to have a previous conviction of violating a temporary or extended order for protection against domestic violence issued pursuant to NRS 33.017 to 33.100, inclusive, or of violating a restraining order or injunction that is in the nature of a temporary or extended order for protection against domestic violence issued in an action or proceeding brought pursuant to title 11 of NRS, or of violating a temporary or extended order for protection against stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment issued pursuant to NRS 200.591, or of violating a temporary or extended order for protection against sexual assault pursuant to NRS 200.378, if the person has been convicted of such an offense in this State or has been convicted of violating a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

10. The court may, before releasing a person arrested for an offense punishable as a felony, require the surrender to the court of any passport the person possesses.

11. Before releasing a person arrested for any crime, the court may impose such reasonable conditions on the person as it deems necessary to protect the health, safety and welfare of the community and to ensure that the person will appear at all times and places ordered by the court, including, without limitation:

(a) Requiring the person to remain in this State or a certain county within this State;

(b) Prohibiting the person from contacting or attempting to contact a specific person or from causing or attempting to cause another person to contact that person on the person's behalf;

(c) Prohibiting the person from entering a certain geographic area; or

(d) Prohibiting the person from engaging in specific conduct that may be harmful to the person's own health, safety or welfare, or the health, safety or welfare of another person.

➥ In determining whether a condition is reasonable, the court shall consider the factors listed in NRS 178.4853.

12. If a person fails to comply with a condition imposed pursuant to subsection 11, the court may, after providing the person with reasonable notice and an opportunity for a hearing:

(a) Deem such conduct a contempt pursuant to NRS 22.010; or

(b) Increase the amount of bail pursuant to NRS 178.499.

13. An order issued pursuant to this section that imposes a condition on a person admitted to bail must include a provision ordering any law enforcement officer to arrest the person if the officer has probable cause to believe that the person has violated a condition of bail.

14. Before a person may be admitted to bail, the person must sign a document stating that:

(a) The person will appear at all times and places as ordered by the court releasing the person and as ordered by any court before which the charge is subsequently heard;

(b) The person will comply with the other conditions which have been imposed by the court and are stated in the document; and

(c) If the person fails to appear when so ordered and is taken into custody outside of this State, the person waives all rights relating to extradition proceedings.

➥ The signed document must be filed with the clerk of the court of competent jurisdiction as soon as practicable, but in no event later than the next business day.

15. If a person admitted to bail fails to appear as ordered by a court and the jurisdiction incurs any cost in returning the person to the jurisdiction to stand trial, the person who failed to appear is responsible for paying those costs as restitution.

16. For the purposes of subsections 8 and 9, an order or injunction is in the nature of a temporary or extended order for protection against domestic violence if it grants relief that might be given in a temporary or extended order issued pursuant to NRS 33.017 to 33.100, inclusive.

17. As used in this section, "strangulation" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 200.481.

484C.220 1. As agent for the Department, the officer who requested that a test be given pursuant to NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160 or who obtained the result of a test given pursuant to NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160 shall immediately serve an order of revocation of the license, permit or privilege to drive on a person who failed to submit to a test requested by the police officer pursuant to NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160 or who has a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or has a detectable amount of a controlled substance or prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine, if that person is present, and shall seize the license or permit to drive of the person. The officer shall then , unless the information is expressly set forth in the order of revocation, advise the person of his or her right to administrative and judicial review of the revocation pursuant to NRS 484C.230 and, except as otherwise provided in this subsection, that the person has a right to request a temporary license. If the person currently is driving with a temporary license that was issued pursuant to this section or NRS 484C.230, the person is not entitled to request an additional temporary license pursuant to this section or NRS 484C.230, and the order of revocation issued by the officer must revoke the temporary license that was previously issued. If the person is entitled to request a temporary license, the officer shall issue the person a temporary license on a form approved by the Department if the person requests one, which is effective for only 7 days including the date of issuance. The officer shall immediately transmit the person's license or permit to the Department along with the written certificate required by subsection 2.

2. When a police officer has served an order of revocation of a driver's license, permit or privilege on a person pursuant to subsection 1, or later receives the result of an evidentiary test which indicates that a person, not then present, had a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or had a detectable amount of a controlled substance or a prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine, the officer shall immediately prepare and transmit to the Department, together with the seized license or permit and a copy of the result of the test, if any, a written certificate that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had been driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle ~~[with]~~ ***:

(a) With a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or with a detectable amount of a controlled substance or a prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine, as determined by a chemical test ~~[.]~~ ; or

(b) While under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance or with a prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine and the person refused to submit to a required evidentiary test.

➥ The certificate must also indicate whether the officer served an order of revocation on the person and whether the officer issued the person a temporary license.

3. The Department, upon receipt of such a certificate for which an order of revocation has not been served, after examining the certificate and copy of the result of the chemical test, if any, and finding that revocation is proper, shall issue an order revoking the person's license, permit or privilege to drive by mailing the order to the person at the person's last known address. The order must indicate the grounds for the revocation and the period during which the person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive and state that the person has a right to administrative and judicial review of the revocation and to have a temporary license. The order of revocation becomes effective 5 days after mailing.

4. Notice of an order of revocation and notice of the affirmation of a prior order of revocation or the cancellation of a temporary license provided in NRS 484C.230 is sufficient if it is mailed to the person's last known address as shown by any application for a license. The date of mailing may be proved by the certificate of any officer or employee of the Department, specifying the time of mailing the notice. The notice is presumed to have been received upon the expiration of 5 days after it is deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mail.

Sec. 16. NRS 484C.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484C.230 1. At any time while a person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive following an order of revocation issued pursuant to NRS 484C.220, the person may request in writing a hearing by the Department to review the order of revocation, but the person is only entitled to one hearing. The hearing must be conducted within 15 days after receipt of the request, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, in the county where the requester resides unless the parties agree otherwise. The Director or agent of the Director may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers and may require a reexamination of the requester. Unless the person is ineligible for a temporary license pursuant to NRS 484C.220, the Department shall issue an additional temporary license for a period which is sufficient to complete the administrative review.

2. The scope of the hearing must be limited to the issue of whether the person ~~[, at]~~ ***:

(a) Failed to submit to a required test provided for in NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160; or

(b) At the time of the test, had a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or a detectable amount of a controlled substance or a prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine.

➥ Upon an affirmative finding on ~~[this]~~ either issue, the Department shall affirm the order of revocation. Otherwise, the order of revocation must be rescinded.

3. If, after the hearing, the order of revocation is affirmed, the person whose license, privilege or permit has been revoked is entitled to a review of the same issues in district court in the same manner as provided by chapter 233B of NRS. The court shall notify the Department upon the issuance of a stay, and the Department shall issue an additional temporary license for a period which is sufficient to complete the review.

4. If a hearing officer grants a continuance of a hearing at the request of the person whose license was revoked, or a court does so after issuing a stay of the revocation, the officer or court shall notify the Department, and the Department shall cancel the temporary license and notify the holder by mailing the order of cancellation to the person's last known address.

(c) If the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply, a fourth evidentiary test is administered. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 488.460, the fourth evidentiary test must be a blood test.

2. If the person fails to provide the second or third consecutive sample, or to submit to the fourth evidentiary test, the results of the first test may be used alone as evidence of the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath. If for some other reason a second, third or fourth sample is not obtained, the results of the first test may be used with all other evidence presented to establish the concentration.

3. If a person refuses or otherwise fails to provide a second or third consecutive sample or submit to a fourth evidentiary test, ~~[a peace officer may direct that reasonable force be used to obtain a sample or conduct a test pursuant to]~~ such refusal or failure constitutes a failure to submit to a required evidentiary test as provided in NRS 488.460.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of NRS 488.450, a court may not exclude evidence of a required test or failure to submit to such a test if the peace officer or other person substantially complied with the provisions of NRS 488.450 to 488.500, inclusive.

3. If a person submits to a chemical test provided for in NRS 488.450 or 488.460, full information concerning that test must be made available, upon request, to the person or the person's attorney.

4. Evidence of a required test is not admissible in a criminal proceeding unless it is shown by documentary or other evidence that the device for testing breath was certified pursuant to NRS 484C.610 and was calibrated, maintained and operated as provided by the regulations of the Committee on Testing for Intoxication adopted pursuant to NRS 484C.620, 484C.630 or 484C.640.

5. If the device for testing breath has been certified by the Committee on Testing for Intoxication to be accurate and reliable pursuant to NRS 484C.610, it is presumed that, as designed and manufactured, the device is accurate and reliable for the purpose of testing a person's breath to determine the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath.

6. A court shall take judicial notice of the certification by the Director of a person to operate testing devices of one of the certified types. If a test to determine the amount of alcohol in a person's breath has been performed with a certified type of device by a person who is certified pursuant to NRS 484C.630 or 484C.640, it is presumed that the person operated the device properly.

7. This section does not preclude the admission of evidence of a test of a person's breath where the:

have a qualified person of his or her own choosing administer a chemical test to determine:

(a) The concentration of alcohol in his or her blood or breath; or

(b) Whether a controlled substance, chemical, poison, organic solvent or another prohibited substance is present in his or her blood or urine.

2. The failure or inability to obtain such a test does not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the refusal to submit to a test or relating to a test taken upon the request of a peace officer.

3. A test obtained under the provisions of this section may not be substituted for or stand in lieu of the test required by NRS 488.460.

Sec. 29. NRS 488.500 is hereby amended to read as follows:

488.500 1. (b) The test was performed on whole blood, except if the sample was clotted when it was received by the laboratory, the test may be performed on blood serum or plasma.

2. The limitation contained in paragraph (a) of subsection 1 does not apply to the taking of a chemical test of the urine, breath or other bodily substance.

3. No person listed in paragraph (a) of subsection 1 incurs any civil or criminal liability as a result of the administering of a blood test when requested by a peace officer or the person to be tested to administer the test.

Sec. 30. NRS 488.520 is hereby amended to read as follows:

488.520 1. Any coroner, or other public officer performing like duties, shall in all cases in which a death has occurred as a result of an accident involving a vessel under ~~[~~power or sail~~]~~ way on the waters of this state, whether the person killed is the operator of the vessel or a passenger or other person, cause to be drawn from each decedent, within 8 hours after the accident, a blood sample to be analyzed for the presence and concentration of alcohol.

There being no objections, the Speaker and Chief Clerk signed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 7.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblywoman Bustamante Adams requested that the following remarks be entered in the journal.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUSTAMANTE ADAMS:

At the floor session held in the historic Assembly Chamber last month, our Democratic leader announced the donation of a series of historical panels to celebrate the 150th anniversary of Nevada's statehood. The panels will give visitors to our building a sense of how the Legislature has shaped the history of our state.

Today, it is my pleasure to donate the third panel in the series, this one highlighting the Taxation Committee. As you can see, the panel has a timeline that highlights tax policy in Nevada, beginning in 1864 with taxes on property and net proceeds of mines.

I would like to point out a few facts that are included in the panel. The Constitution proposed by the unauthorized 1863 Constitutional Convention included a provision that would have required the Legislature to assess and tax all real and personal property, including mines and mining property, at an equal rate. Voters rejected it, in part because of this provision.

Delegates to the 1864 Constitutional Convention, which Congress had authorized, considered several proposals to fund state government. Ultimately, they decided the Legislature would provide by law for the uniform and equal assessment and taxation of property "excepting mines and mining claims, the proceeds of which alone shall be taxed." It was left to the Legislature to decide whether the tax would be based on the net or gross proceeds of a mine.

When the Legislature passed the gasoline tax of 1923, the average price of gasoline was 21 cents per gallon. The tax was 2 cents per gallon, and 60 percent of the revenue from the state went to the State Highway Fund for building and maintenance of roads and highways.

A popular advertising campaign called One Sound State was used from the 1930s to the 1950s to attract entrepreneurs. The slogan "Nevada, one state without an income tax, a corporation tax, an inheritance tax, a gift tax, a sales tax, an intangibles tax. With cheap power, and liberal mining, corporation, taxation and other laws. Welcome to Nevada!" The first tax on retail sales—2 percent—was passed in 1955 to fund education.

In 1981 the Legislature passed three measures, collectively known as the Tax Shift, to provide tax relief to citizens and businesses. The bills reduced property taxes and increased the sales tax, making local government more reliant on sales taxes for revenue.

I hope you all enjoy learning about the contributions of legislators who served before us. Please enjoy the Taxation panel.

ASSEMBLY PROCEEDINGS 1927

THE SEVENTY-EIGHTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), April 20, 2015

Assembly called to order at 2:29 p.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Pastor Norm Milz.

Almighty God, as we come to the beginning of another week of this legislative session, we thank You for what has been accomplished for the state of Nevada. But there is so much more to do.

Give us Your guidance as we turn our focus to the financing of the legislation we have approved and passed. May we give our serious attention to the fiscal issues that beset this state. Thank You for giving us the leadership in the chamber and the Senate. May we all work together not for our own advancement, but for the advancement and welfare of all of Nevada's citizens.

All these things we bring to You knowing You hear and care for us, in Jesus' name.

AMEN.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under certain circumstances, existing law sets forth ~~[~~processes~~]~~ procedures for filling a vacancy in a nomination for a nonpartisan or partisan office ~~[~~. (NRS 293.165, 293.166, 293C.190) Under existing law,~~]~~ , except that no changes may be made to the ballot after ~~[~~the fourth Friday in June before the~~]~~ a statutorily-prescribed date preceding any general election. If, after that date, a vacancy occurs in a nomination, the nominee's name must remain on the ballot for the general election and, if that person is elected, a vacancy in the office exists. (NRS 293.165 ~~[~~)~~]~~ , 293.166, 293.368, 293C.190, 293C.370) Further, under existing law, if a candidate whose name appears on a ballot is disqualified from entering upon the duties of an office or dies after the deadline for making changes to the ballot has passed, the Secretary of State and ~~[~~county or city clerk, as applicable,~~]~~ local election officials are required to post a sign at each polling place where the person's name will appear on the ballot notifying voters of the candidate's disqualification or death. (NRS 293.184, 293.302, 293C.1865, 293C.291)

~~[~~ Section 3 of this bill prohibits the filling of a vacancy in a nomination for a nonpartisan or partisan office.~~]~~

This bill revises the legal rules, standards and procedures that apply to a person who is or becomes an ineligible candidate during an election. Section 1.5 of this bill defines the term "ineligible candidate" to mean a person who is a candidate for any office and who: (1) dies; (2) is adjudicated insane or mentally incompetent; (3) fails to meet any qualification required for the office; or (4) is found by a court to be disqualified from entering upon the duties of the office.

In the absence of a statute prescribing a different rule, the general rule under the common law is that the votes cast for a deceased, disqualified or ineligible candidate are not treated as void but are counted in determining the outcome of the election with regard to the other candidates, which renders the election nugatory and prevents the election of the candidate who receives the next highest number of votes. (Ingersoll v. Lamb, 75 Nev. 1, 4 (1959)) Sections 1.7, 15, 18.3 and 26 of this bill abrogate the common-law rule and provide that any vote cast for an ineligible candidate is a nullity and void and must not be given any legal force or effect for the purposes of determining the outcome of the election. Sections 1.8 and 17.4-17.9 of this bill also provide that an ineligible candidate may not demand or receive a recount of the vote at the election or contest the results of the election.

Sections 2 and ~~[18]~~ 18.5 of this bill provide that ~~[if, after a person files a declaration of candidacy, the person dies, is adjudicated insane or mentally incompetent, or is found not to be eligible to hold the office for which he or she is a candidate, the person's]~~ the name of an ineligible candidate must not appear on the ballot at ~~[an]~~ any election unless the ~~[county or city clerk, as applicable, determines that there is not time to remove the name of the candidate from]~~ period for making changes on the ballot . ~~[. In such a situation, the county or city clerk, as applicable,]~~ has elapsed. If the period has elapsed, local election officials must ~~[: (1) post a sign]~~ provide notice to the voters at each affected polling place , ~~[; (2) post a notice]~~ on or near each mechanical voting device ~~[at those polling places;]~~ and ~~[(3) place a sticker or other notice]~~ on or with each paper ballot and absent ballot that the ~~[person]~~ ineligible candidate is not eligible to take office and that any vote cast for ~~[that person will not be counted for purposes of determining the outcome of the election.~~

~~Sections 15 and 26 of this bill provide that a vote cast for a candidate who is not eligible to hold the office for which he or she is a candidate may not be counted in]~~ the ineligible candidate will be a nullity and void and will not be given any legal force or effect for the purposes of determining the outcome of the election.

Under existing law, there are several different types of preelection court actions that may be brought to challenge a candidate on grounds that the candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office, including actions for a declaratory judgment or a writ of mandamus. (NRS 281.050, 293.182, 293C.186; DeStefano v. Berkus, 121 Nev. 627, 628-31 (2005); Child v. Lomax, 124 Nev. 600, 604-05 (2008)) Section 2.5 of this bill provides that in any preelection action where the court finds that a candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office: (1) the candidate becomes an ineligible candidate and local election officials must take appropriate action to remove the candidate's name from the ballot or provide the required notice to voters; (2) the candidate is disqualified from taking office; and (3) the court may order the candidate to pay the attorney's fees and costs of the party who brought the action, including the Attorney General or a district attorney or city attorney.

Under existing law, certain state and local officials must issue a certificate of election to the candidate receiving the highest number of votes for an office as official recognition of the candidate's election to the office. (NRS 4.020, 218A.210, 245.010, 258.010, 267.050, 283.130, 293.034, 293.393-293.397, 293.435, 293C.387, 293C.395, 386.260, 539.157; Caliente City Charter § 5.100; Carlin City Charter § 5.090; Carson City Charter § 5.100; Elko City Charter § 5.090; Henderson City Charter § 5.100; Las Vegas City Charter § 5.100; North Las Vegas City Charter § 5.080; Reno City Charter § 5.100; Sparks City Charter § 5.100; Wells City Charter § 5.090; Yerington City Charter § 5.090) Sections 3.7, 17.1-17.3, 17.9, 28-28.4, 29.1, 29.5, 29.6, 29.8, 31, 36, 40, 46, 49, 52, 54, 58, 62, 66, 69, 72, 75 and 78 of this bill provide that if the name of an ineligible candidate could not be removed from the ballot, a certificate of election must not be issued to the ineligible candidate regardless of the number of votes cast for the ineligible candidate that are a nullity and void.

Existing law sets forth procedures for filling certain vacancies in a nomination for a nonpartisan or partisan office that occur before a statutorily-prescribed date preceding any general election. (NRS 293.165, 293.166, 293C.190) Section 3 of this bill prohibits a vacancy in a nomination for a partisan office from being filled if the vacancy occurs because the candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office or is found by a court to be disqualified from taking office, except that the prohibition does not apply to such a vacancy occurring before certain special elections. If a vacancy in a nomination for a nonpartisan or partisan office occurs for certain other reasons, sections 4, 4.5 and 22.5 of this bill allow such a vacancy to be filled in the manner provided by existing law before the statutorily-prescribed date preceding the general election.

Under existing law, the Legislature may enact statutory qualifications to be a candidate for an elective office which are in addition to any constitutional qualifications required for the office. (Mengelkamp v. List, 88 Nev. 542, 544-45 (1972); Riter v. Douglass, 32 Nev. 400, 435-36 (1910)) Such additional statutory qualifications may include residency requirements, and both the United States Supreme Court and the Nevada Supreme Court have upheld residency requirements that require a candidate to be a state resident for 2 or more years. (Clements v. Fashing, 457 U.S. 957, 967-68 (1982) (explaining that the Court upheld New Hampshire's 7-year state residency requirement for gubernatorial candidates when it summarily affirmed the lower court's decision in Chimento v. Stark, 353 F. Supp. 1211 (D.N.H. 1973), summarily aff'd, 414 U.S. 802 (1973)); Schaefer v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., No. 65361 (Nev. Apr.

14, 2014) (upholding Nevada's 2-year state residency requirement for State Controller candidates in NRS 227.010)) Existing law sets forth certain residency requirements for candidates. ~~[A]~~ In particular, a candidate must actually, as opposed to constructively, reside in the district to which the office pertains for at least 30 days preceding the date of the close of filing for candidacy. (NRS 293.1755, 293C.200) Additionally, a candidate for election or appointment to the Legislature must be an actual, as opposed to constructive, resident of this State for 1 year preceding the person's election . ~~[.]~~ or appointment. (NRS 218A.200 ) ~~[, 293.1755, 293C.200)]~~ Sections 6 and 23 of this bill provide that all candidates must be an actual resident of the district to which the office pertains for at least ~~[1 year]~~ 180 days preceding the date of the close of filing for a candidacy. Section 29 of this bill requires that a candidate for election or appointment to the Legislature be an actual resident of this State for ~~[5]~~ 2 years preceding the person's election or appointment.

Existing law: (1) requires a ~~[person]~~ candidate to file a declaration or acceptance of candidacy before his or her name may appear on a ballot; and (2) provides that ~~[it is a gross misdemeanor to]~~ a candidate who knowingly and willfully ~~[file]~~ files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy which contains a false statement . ~~[.]~~ regarding residency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. (NRS 293.1755, 293.177, 293C.185, 293C.200) ~~[Sections 7 and 20 of this bill require the filing officer to verify the accuracy of all information contained in the person's declaration or acceptance of candidacy pursuant to the procedure set forth in regulations adopted by the Secretary of State.]~~ Sections 6 , 7, 20 and 23 of this bill ~~[increase the penalty for]~~ provide that a candidate who knowingly and willfully ~~[filing]~~ files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy which contains a false statement ~~[to]~~ is guilty of a category ~~[D]~~ E felony.

Existing law requires a candidate for election or appointment to the Legislature to meet certain qualifications for the office. (NRS 218A.200) A candidate for election to the Legislature must also file a declaration of residency with his or her declaration or acceptance of candidacy . ~~[a declaration of residency.]~~ (NRS 293.181) ~~[Section]~~ Sections 8 and 29 of this bill ~~[provides]~~ provide that any ~~[person]~~ such candidate who knowingly and willfully files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy, a declaration of residency or an application for appointment which contains a false statement is guilty of a category ~~[D]~~ E felony.

Under existing law, a person who receives a certificate of election or appointment to office as a Legislator must take and subscribe to the official oath before taking office. (NRS 218A.220) Section 29.2 of this bill prohibits a person from taking and subscribing to the official oath as a Legislator if, after the person files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy and on or before the date of the general election, a court finds that the person is an ineligible candidate because the person fails to meet any qualification required for the office.

Before the Assembly meets for each regular session, existing law requires the Secretary of State to make out a roll from the election returns of the persons who received the highest number of votes to be elected as members of the Assembly, and the members whose names appear upon the roll must be allowed to participate in the organization of the Assembly. (NRS 218A.400) Section 29.4 of this bill provides that if the name of an ineligible candidate for office as a member of the Assembly could not be removed from the ballot, the Secretary of State shall not include the ineligible candidate upon the roll of the persons elected as members of the Assembly and the name of the ineligible candidate must not appear upon the roll regardless of the number of votes cast for the ineligible candidate that are a nullity and void.

Existing law authorizes an elector to file a written challenge to a ~~[person's candidacy]~~ candidate's qualifications not later than 5 working days after the last day for ~~[a person]~~ the candidate to formally withdraw his or her candidacy. Depending on the state or local office being sought by the candidate, the Attorney General or the appropriate district attorney or city attorney must review the challenge and, if he or she determines that probable cause exists to support the challenge, must bring a preelection court action challenging the candidate's qualifications within a statutorily-prescribed period. (NRS 293.182, 293C.186 ~~[.)]~~ ; Williams v. Clark County Dist. Att'y, 118 Nev. 473, 477-79 (2002) (interpreting NRS 293.182 to permit an elector to file a written challenge not later than 5 working days after the last day for the candidate to formally withdraw his or her candidacy)) Sections 9 and 21 of this bill ~~[eliminate]~~ change the deadline for ~~[filing]~~ an elector to file such a written challenge to ~~[a person's candidacy. Sections 9 and 21 also authorize, under certain circumstances, a court to order a challenged person to pay the attorney's fees and court costs of the elector who filed the challenge.]~~ the last Monday immediately preceding the first day of early voting for any general election.

Existing law defines the term "actual residence" to mean the place where a candidate is legally domiciled and maintains a permanent habitation, and when a candidate maintains more than one place of permanent habitation, the place designated by the candidate as his or her principal permanent habitation is deemed to be the candidate's actual residence. (NRS 281.050) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the place designated by the candidate as his or her principal permanent habitation must be the place where the candidate actually resides and is legally domiciled in order for the candidate to be eligible to the office. (Williams v. Clark County Dist. Att'y, 118 Nev. 473, 484-86 (2002); Chachas v. Miller, 120 Nev. 51, 53-56 (2004)) Section 30 of this bill amends existing law to reflect the Supreme Court's holding.

The remaining sections of this bill make conforming changes to carry out the revisions to existing law.

Populations must be determined by the last decennial census or special census conducted by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce. The person who receives a plurality of these votes is appointed to fill the vacancy. If no person receives a plurality of the votes, the boards of county commissioners of the respective counties shall each as a group select one candidate, and the nominee must be chosen by drawing lots among the persons so selected.

(b) The anticipated amount of such payments for that fiscal year.

➥ If the anticipated amount of payments estimated for the fiscal year exceeds the estimated amount of money available in the Account in the fiscal year for such payments, the Board of Regents may request an allocation from the Contingency Account created in the State General Fund pursuant to NRS 353.266 to cover the projected shortfall.

Assembly Bill No. 249.

Bill read second time.

Amendment No. 522.

AN ACT relating to local governments; authorizing the Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board to appoint a Deputy Commissioner; requiring that a copy of a proposed collective bargaining agreement or similar agreement of a local government employer be made available to the public before its approval by the governing body of the local government; revising the process of fact-finding and arbitration following an impasse in bargaining; removing a portion of the budgeted ending fund balance of the general fund of a local government from the scope of collective bargaining and from consideration by a fact finder or arbitrator; making an appropriation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

The Local Government Employee-Management Relations Board administers the provisions governing labor relations between local government employers and employee organizations. (NRS 288.080, 288.110) The Board is authorized by existing law to appoint a Commissioner, who serves in the unclassified service of the State. (NRS 288.090) Section 2.5 of this bill additionally authorizes the Board to appoint a Deputy Commissioner and section 8.5 of this bill makes an appropriation for that purpose.

Existing law provides that any new, extended or modified collective bargaining agreement or similar agreement between a local government employer and an employee organization must be approved at a public hearing by the governing body of the local government. At such a hearing, the chief executive officer of the local government must report on the fiscal impact of the proposed agreement. (NRS 288.153) Section 4 of this bill requires that a copy of the proposed agreement be posted on the Internet website of the local government or deposited with the county clerk not less than 21 days before the date of such a hearing. In addition, sections 1 and 4 of this bill require the chief executive officer to report whether the agreement is financially sustainable, meaning that the local government employer has the financial ability to pay compensation or monetary benefits in a given amount during the term of the agreement or for 3 years, whichever is longer, giving consideration to reserved money, nonrecurring revenue or a potential loss of revenue.

If an impasse is reached in collective bargaining negotiations, existing law establishes a process of fact-finding and arbitration. Existing law requires a fact finder to make a determination of the financial ability of the local government to grant monetary benefits. After the fact finder makes his or her report, the governing body of the local government employer must meet to consider the fiscal impact of the fact finder's findings and recommendations, based upon a report from the chief executive officer of the local government. (NRS 288.200) Section 5 of this bill requires that the fact finder make a determination of the amount of compensation and monetary benefits that is financially sustainable for the local government employer, and that the chief executive officer and governing body also report on and consider whether the fact finder's findings and recommendations are financially sustainable. Sections 6 and 7 of this bill make similar changes relating to the process of final and binding arbitration.

Existing law limits the extent to which money in certain governmental funds may be expended by a local government employer pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or considered by a fact finder or arbitrator in determining the financial ability of the local government employer to pay monetary benefits. (NRS 288.200, 288.215, 288.217, 354.6241) Sections 3 and 8 of this bill provide that a budgeted ending fund balance for the general fund of a local government of not more than 25 percent of the total budgeted expenditures from the general fund, less capital outlay: (1) is not subject to collective bargaining negotiations; and (2) must not be considered by a fact finder or arbitrator in resolving issues of ability to pay or financial sustainability. Section 8 further provides that a fact finder or arbitrator may consider certain money previously reserved by a local government employer if the governing body of the local government employer makes a finding that the continued reservation of the money is no longer necessary.

288.200 Except in cases to which NRS 288.205 and 288.215, or NRS 288.217 apply:

1. If:

(a) The parties have failed to reach an agreement after at least six meetings of negotiations; and

(b) The parties have participated in mediation and by April 1, have not reached agreement,

➥ either party to the dispute, at any time after April 1, may submit the dispute to an impartial fact finder for the findings and recommendations of the fact finder. The findings and recommendations of the fact finder are not binding on the parties except as provided in subsections 5, 6 and 11. The mediator of a dispute may also be chosen by the parties to serve as the fact finder.

2. If the parties are unable to agree on an impartial fact finder or a panel of neutral arbitrators within 5 days, either party may request from the American Arbitration Association or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service a list of seven potential fact finders. If the parties are unable to agree upon which arbitration service should be used, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service must be used. Within 5 days after receiving a list from the applicable arbitration service, the parties shall select their fact finder from this list by alternately striking one name until the name of only one fact finder remains, who will be the fact finder to hear the dispute in question. The employee organization shall strike the first name.

3. The local government employer and employee organization each shall pay one-half of the cost of fact-finding. Each party shall pay its own costs of preparation and presentation of its case in fact-finding.

4. A schedule of dates and times for the hearing must be established within 10 days after the selection of the fact finder pursuant to subsection 2, and the fact finder shall report the findings and recommendations of the fact finder to the parties to the dispute within 30 days after the conclusion of the fact-finding hearing.

5. The parties to the dispute may agree, before the submission of the dispute to fact-finding, to make the findings and recommendations on all or any specified issues final and binding on the parties.

6. If the parties do not agree on whether to make the findings and recommendations of the fact finder final and binding, either party may request the formation of a panel to determine whether the findings and recommendations of a fact finder on all or any specified issues in a particular dispute which are within the scope of subsection 11 are to be final and binding. The determination must be made upon the concurrence of at least two members of the panel and not later than the date which is 30 days after the date on which the matter is submitted to the panel, unless that date is extended by the Commissioner of the Board. Each panel shall, when making its determination, consider whether the parties have bargained in good faith and whether it believes the parties can resolve any remaining issues. Any panel may also consider the actions taken by the parties in response to any previous fact-finding between these parties, the best interests of the State and all its citizens, the potential fiscal effect both within and outside the political subdivision, and any danger to the safety of the people of the State or a political subdivision.

7. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 10, any fact finder, whether the fact finder's recommendations are to be binding or not, shall base such recommendations or award on the following criteria:

(b) ~~[Once]~~ If the fact finder ~~[has determined]~~ determines in accordance with paragraph (a) that there is a current financial ability to grant compensation and monetary benefits ~~[,]~~ and ~~[subject to the provisions of paragraph (c),]~~ the amount of compensation and monetary benefits that is financially sustainable, the fact finder shall consider, to the extent appropriate, the compensation of other government employees, both in and out of the State and use normal criteria for interest disputes regarding the terms and provisions to be included in an agreement in assessing the reasonableness of the position of each party as to each issue in dispute and the fact finder shall consider whether the Board found that either party had bargained in bad faith.

~~[(c) A consideration of funding for the current year being negotiated. If the parties mutually agree to arbitrate a multiyear contract, the fact finder must consider the ability to pay over the life of the contract being negotiated or arbitrated.]~~

10. Any sum of money which is maintained in a fund whose balance is required by law to be:

(a) Used only for a specific purpose other than the payment of compensation to the bargaining unit affected; or

(b) Carried forward to the succeeding fiscal year in any designated amount, to the extent of that amount,

➥ must not be counted in determining the financial ability of a local government employer or the amount of compensation and monetary benefits that is financially sustainable and must not be used to pay any compensation or monetary benefits recommended or awarded by the fact finder.

11. The issues which may be included in a panel's order pursuant to subsection 6 are:

(a) Those enumerated in subsection 2 of NRS 288.150 as the subjects of mandatory bargaining, unless precluded for that year by an existing collective bargaining agreement between the parties; and

(b) Those which an existing collective bargaining agreement between the parties makes subject to negotiation in that year.

Assembly Bill No. 292.

Bill read second time.

Amendment No. 372.

AN ACT relating to public health; requiring a provider of health care who provides certain services to ~~[certain]~~ patients located in this State through telehealth to have a valid license or certificate in this State; making persons who provide such services through telehealth to ~~[certain]~~ patients subject to the laws and jurisdiction of this State; requiring certain insurers to provide coverage to insureds for services provided through telehealth to the same extent as though provided in person; authorizing a hospital to provide staff privileges to certain providers of health care to provide services through telehealth; requiring the Commissioner of Insurance to consider health care services that may be provided by providers through telehealth when evaluating certain network plans; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes certain providers of health care to provide certain health care services electronically, telephonically or by fiber optics. (NRS 630.020, 630.261, 630.275, 632.237, 633.165, 639.0727, 639.235) Section 3 of this bill defines "telehealth" as the delivery of health care services from a provider of health care to a patient at a different location through the use of information and audio-visual communication technology , ~~[~~~~that transfers information electronically, telephonically or by fiber optics,~~~~]~~ not including standard telephone, facsimile or electronic mail. Section 3 also prohibits a provider of health care , except for an employee or contractor of certain nonprofit organizations that administer health programs for American Indians, from ~~[providing services through]~~ using telehealth to direct or manage care, render a diagnosis or write a treatment order or prescription for a patient located in this State without a valid license or certificate to practice his or her profession in this State. Finally, section 3 provides that any person who provides ~~[health care]~~ such services through telehealth to a patient located in this State : (1) is subject to the laws , including regulations, and jurisdiction of this State ~~.~~ ; and (2) is required to comply with all federal and state laws that would apply if the person were providing services from a location in this State. Sections 6-18 of this bill clarify that certain provisions regulating the provision of health care services electronically, telephonically or by fiber optics apply to health care services provided through telehealth. Section 44 of this bill repeals certain requirements of existing law concerning the use of telemedicine by an osteopathic physician because it is addressed by sections 3, 10 and 11.

Sections 27-32, 36-39 and 41-43 of this bill require any policy of health insurance, a policy of industrial insurance that provides benefits for injuries and the State Plan for Medicaid to include coverage for health care services provided to a covered person through telehealth to the same extent ~~[and in the same amount]~~ as though provided in person.

Existing federal regulations allow the governing body of a hospital at which patients receive services through telemedicine to have its medical staff rely upon the credentialing and privileging decisions made by the staff of a facility from which services are provided when deciding whether to extend staff privileges to a provider of health care who provides services through telemedicine from that facility. (42 C.F.R. §§ 482.12, 482.22, 485.616) Section 22 of this bill authorizes a hospital to grant staff privileges to a provider of health care who is at another location so that the provider may provide services through telehealth to patients at the hospital as prescribed in federal regulations.

Existing law requires the Commissioner of Insurance to make certain determinations concerning the adequacy of a network plan that an insurer proposes to offer and approve the network plan before the network plan is issued. Existing law also requires the Commissioner to make an annual determination concerning the availability and accessibility of the health care services of any existing network plan. (NRS 687B.490) Section 28 of this bill requires the Commissioner to consider health care services that may be provided by providers through telehealth pursuant to the network plan when making such a determination.

WHEREAS, Shortages of primary providers of health care and providers of health care who specialize in certain areas and the distances some people must travel to reach a provider of health care affects the ability of many people to obtain the health care services they need; and

WHEREAS, Parts of this State have experienced difficulty attracting and retaining providers of health care and supporting health care facilities that provide the necessary variety of health care services to persons; and

WHEREAS, Providers of health care located in underserved areas may not have access to mentors and colleagues to support them personally and professionally or information resources that may assist them in their practices; and

WHEREAS, Telehealth is a mode of delivering health care and public health services using information and audio-visual communication technology to enable diagnosis, consultation, treatment, care management and provision of information to patients from providers of health care at other locations; and

WHEREAS, Telehealth may help to address the problem of an inadequate distribution of providers of health care and develop health care systems in underserved areas of the State; and

WHEREAS, Telehealth can reduce the costs of providing health care and increase the quality of and access to health care in underserved areas of the State; and

WHEREAS, Telehealth provides economic benefits to underserved areas by reducing the need for persons to leave those areas to obtain health care services and preserving and creating jobs relating to the provision of health care in those areas; and

WHEREAS, Patients receive many benefits from telehealth, including increased access to providers of health care, the ability to receive health care services in a faster and more convenient manner, increased continuity of care, reduction of lost work time and travel costs and the ability to remain near family and friends while receiving health care services; and

WHEREAS, Without the assurance that providers of health care will be reimbursed by insurers for services provided through telehealth and the resolution of other legal barriers to the provision of services through telehealth, the full benefits of telehealth cannot be realized; now, therefore,
