The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 877.

AN ACT relating to occupations; making certain provisions concerning providers of health care applicable to audiologists and speech-language pathologists; establishing the Speech-Language Pathology, Audiology and Hearing Aid Dispensing Board by expanding the existing Board of Examiners for Audiology and Speech Pathology and abolishing the existing Board of Hearing Aid Specialists; prescribing the requirements for the licensure of audiologists, speech-language pathologists and hearing aid specialists; prescribing the requirements to engage in telepractice by an audiologist or a speech-language pathologist; prescribing the requirements for the licensure and practice of an apprentice hearing aid specialist; prescribing the requirements for the practice of a hearing aid specialist; making certain provisions applicable to hearing aid specialists; imposing certain fees; providing that certain acts are grounds for disciplinary action by the Board; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law defines "provider of health care" as a person who practices any of certain health-related professions. (NRS 629.031) Existing law imposes certain requirements upon providers of health care, including requirements for the retention of patient records, requirements for billing, standards for advertisements and criminal penalties for acquiring certain debts. (NRS 629.051, 629.071, 629.076, 629.078) Section 1 of this bill includes speech-language pathologists and audiologists in the definition of "provider of health care," which has the effect of making these requirements applicable to speech-language pathologists and audiologists. Existing law also includes the definition of "provider of health care" by reference in various other provisions. By expanding the definition, the bill expands the definition for those other provisions, thereby making those provisions include speech-language pathologists and audiologists as providers of health care. The term is referenced in provisions relating to various subjects including, without limitation, admissibility of the testimony of hypnotized witnesses, power of attorney, practice during declared emergencies, investigations conducted concerning facilities for long-term care, confidentiality of reports and referrals relating to maternal health, payments by insurance, release of the results of certain laboratory tests, drug donation programs, interpreters and realtime captioning providers and the Silver State Health Insurance Exchange. (NRS 41.141, 48.039, 162A.790, 415A.210, 427A.145, 442.395, 449.2475, chapter 453B of NRS, NRS 652.193, chapters 656A and 695I of NRS)

Existing law establishes the Board of Hearing Aid Specialists to license and oversee hearing aid specialists and the Board of Examiners for Audiology and Speech Pathology to license and oversee audiologists and speech pathologists. (Chapters 637A and 637B of NRS) Section 72 of this bill repeals provisions establishing the Board of Hearing Aid Specialists, and section 44 of this bill establishes the Speech-Language Pathology, Audiology and Hearing Aid Dispensing Board to license and oversee audiologists, speech-language pathologists and hearing aid specialists. Under sections 44 and 44.5 of this bill, the Board consists of eight members until July 1, 2017, on which date the membership of the Board will decrease to seven members. Section 45 of this bill requires the Board to elect a Chair and a Vice Chair and to comply with certain provisions of NRS governing meetings of state and local agencies. Section 46 of this bill authorizes the Board to employ certain persons and provides for compensation of the members and employees of the Board. Section 16 of this bill authorizes the Board to select certain persons as advisory members, and sections 17, 18, 25 and 28 of this bill prescribe the responsibilities of the Board.

Sections 19, 26, 47 and 48 of this bill prescribe certain requirements for applicants for licenses to engage in the practice of audiology, speech-language pathology or fitting and dispensing hearing aids. Section 20 of this bill requires a speech-language pathologist who does not have a provisional license to have a current certificate of clinical competence issued by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association or a successor organization approved by the Board. Sections 21, 22 and 50 of this bill authorize the Board to issue limited, provisional and temporary licenses to certain applicants. Section 23 of this bill prescribes requirements for an audiologist or an applicant for a license to engage in the practice of audiology to obtain an endorsement of his or her license to also engage in the practice of fitting and dispensing hearing aids.

Section 24 of this bill prescribes requirements concerning telepractice by an audiologist or a speech-language pathologist.

Sections 25-35 of this bill enact requirements for the licensing and practice of hearing aid specialists in chapter 637B of NRS, and section 72 repeals those requirements in chapter 637A of NRS. Section 27 authorizes the Board to issue an apprentice license to an applicant who has not yet completed the education or training requirements for a hearing aid specialist, and sections 29-31 prescribe requirements concerning the practice of an apprentice. Section 32 authorizes a hearing aid specialist or dispensing audiologist to make an audiogram upon request by a physician or member of a related profession specified by the Board. Section 33 requires a hearing aid specialist or apprentice to display his or her license conspicuously in each place where he or she conducts business as a hearing aid specialist or apprentice. Section 34 requires a hearing aid specialist or apprentice to update the address of his or her place of business on file with the Board within 10 days after the date on which the address changes.

Federal law prohibits a state from enacting requirements for the sale of a hearing aid that are different from or in addition to federal requirements, and federal regulations allow a person to waive a medical examination when purchasing a hearing aid. (21 U.S.C. § 360k; 21 C.F.R. § 801.421) Section 35 of this bill requires certain examinations to be performed on a person before the person purchases a hearing aid by catalog, mail or the Internet unless the person waives the examinations.

Section 43 of this bill revises exemptions from the provisions of chapter 637B of NRS for certain government employees and other persons who do not engage in the private practice of audiology, speech-language pathology or fitting and dispensing hearing aids. Section 49 of this bill authorizes the Board to issue a license without an examination to persons who hold certain certifications. Sections 48, 50, 53, 54 and 56-59 of this bill make certain provisions governing audiologists and speech-language pathologists applicable to hearing aid specialists as well. Section 51 of this bill imposes fees for certain tasks relating to licensing. Section 53 provides that certain acts are grounds for disciplinary action.

(c) Place the teacher on the schedule of salaries of the school district in a classification that is commensurate with the level of education acquired by the teacher, as set forth in the applicable negotiated agreement with the present employer.

6. A school district may give the credit required by subsection 5 for previous teaching service earned in another state if the Commission has approved the standards for licensing teachers of that state. Assemblyman Kirner moved that the Assembly concur in Senate Amendment No. 877 to Assembly Bill No. 115.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

Assembly Bill No. 126.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 830.

AN ACT relating to massage therapy; exempting a nail technologist from the requirement to be licensed as a massage therapist when performing certain activities; revising certain testing requirements for applicants for a license to practice massage therapy; limiting the period during which an inactive or expired license may be restored or renewed; ~~[deleting]~~ revising provisions establishing certain grounds for refusal to issue a license or initiate disciplinary action against licensees; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law exempts certain persons from the requirement to be licensed as a massage therapist. (NRS 640C.100) Section 1 of this bill adds licensed nail technologists to this list of exempt persons if the nail technologist is massaging the hands, feet, forearms or lower legs of a person within the permissible scope of practice for a nail technologist.

Existing law requires an applicant for a license to practice massage therapy to pass a written examination administered by a board that is accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies (NCCA) or certain other examinations. (NRS 640C.400) Section 2 of this bill deletes the requirement that the written examination be administered by a board accredited by the NCCA, and instead requires that the examination be a nationally recognized competency examination that is approved by the Board of Massage Therapists.

Existing law allows a massage therapist whose license has expired or been placed on inactive status to restore or renew his or her license by paying certain fees and meeting certain requirements. (NRS 640C.500, 640C.510) Sections 3 and 4 of this bill limit to 2 years the period during which an expired or inactive license may be restored or renewed.

Existing law authorizes the Board of Massage Therapists to refuse to issue a license to an applicant or initiate disciplinary action against the holder of a license for certain reasons, including a conviction for any crime involving moral turpitude within the immediately preceding 10 years. (NRS 640C.700) Section 5 of this bill ~~[deletes the conviction for such a crime as grounds for disciplinary action or denial of a license, leaving convictions for crimes involving sex, violence, prostitution, theft or drugs, or crimes related to massage therapy as grounds for such disciplinary action or denial of a license.]~~ removes the 10-year limitation, allowing the Board to take such action based on a conviction for any crime involving moral turpitude regardless of when the conviction occurred. Section 5 also adds the failure to report to the Board any unethical or unprofessional conduct of the holder of a license or other person relating to massage therapy as grounds for such disciplinary action or denial of a license.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Amendment No. 701.

AN ACT relating to private investigations; exempting the Private Investigator's Licensing Board from certain administrative procedures governing professional licensing boards; exempting certain professionals who provide information security from regulation as a private investigator; deleting provisions requiring a licensee or applicant for a license to maintain a principal place of business in this State; authorizing the Board to revoke the registration of a registered employee under certain circumstances; revising certain provisions relating to licensure and registration by the Board; revising provisions relating to disciplinary actions by the Board; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Private Investigator's Licensing Board to comply with certain administrative procedures governing certain professional licensing boards. (Chapter 622A of NRS) Sections 1, 4 and 5 of this bill exempt the Board from complying with such procedures.

Existing law provides that a person engaging in the business of a private investigator must be licensed ~~[by]~~ and is subject to ~~[the]~~ regulation ~~[of the Private Investigator's Licensing]~~ by the Board. (NRS 648.060) Existing law defines a private investigator to include a person who conducts an investigation through the review or analysis of computerized data not available to the public. (NRS 648.012) Section ~~[1]~~ 1.3 of this bill defines the term "information security." Section 2.5 of this bill revises the definition of "private investigator" to exclude from the definition certain professionals who provide information security. Section 3 of this bill exempts certain professionals who provide information security from the provisions of NRS governing private investigators.

Existing law prohibits a person from engaging in any business regulated by the Board or advertising such business unless the person is licensed by the Board. Existing law further prohibits the employment by a licensee of a person unless the person is a registered employee. Existing law requires the Board to assess certain administrative fines for violations of these provisions and specifies the amounts of such administrative fines. (NRS 648.060, 648.165) Section 14 of this bill authorizes rather than requires the Board to assess such administrative fines and provides the Board with discretion as to the amount of such administrative fines.

Sections 7, 8, 10 and 11 of this bill delete provisions requiring a licensee or an applicant for a license to maintain a principal place of business in Nevada.

Section 9 of this bill provides that each registered employee employed in this State by a licensee must be supervised by the licensee or his or her designated agent who is physically present in this State.

Under existing law, the Board is required to issue a registration to a person who, in addition to certain other requirements, has not been convicted of, or entered a plea of nolo contendere to, a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude or the illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon. (NRS 648.1493) Existing law provides that a licensee may employ only persons who have not been convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude or the illegal use or possession of a dangerous weapon. (NRS 648.060) Sections 6 and 12 of this bill remove this prohibition, effectively providing the Board with the discretion to issue a registration to a person who is otherwise qualified to obtain a registration but has been convicted of such crimes.

Section 1.7 of this bill authorizes the Board to revoke the registration of a registered employee under certain circumstances. Section 13 of this bill expands the authority of the Board to investigate the actions of a person holding or claiming to hold a license to include investigations of the actions of a person holding or claiming to hold a registration. Section 13.5 of this bill provides that it is grounds for the suspension or revocation of a registration or application for registration that a registered employee or applicant for a registration fails to comply with a notice of violation issued by the Board. Sections 14.5 and 15 of this bill similarly expand provisions of existing law relating to disciplinary action by the Board to include disciplinary action with regard to registered employees.

SUMMARY—Enacts and revises provisions ~~[governing persons engaged in the business of a private professional guardian.]~~ relating to guardians. (BDR 54-976)

AN ACT relating to ~~[private professional]~~ guardians; requiring licensing for certain persons engaged in the business of a private professional guardian; establishing the requirements for the licensing and operation of a private professional guardian company; amending provisions ~~[related]~~ relating to the appointment of a guardian under certain circumstances; adding provisions governing the appointment of certain preferred persons as guardians for adult wards; revising provisions relating to the appointment of a guardian for a minor; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for the court appointment of a private professional guardian to act as a fiduciary for a person or estate, but does not require the private professional guardian to be licensed. (NRS 159.0595) This bill requires the licensing of certain persons engaging in the business of a private professional guardian and authorizes the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to adopt regulations relating to the licensing of those persons.

Sections 15-17 of this bill make it unlawful for a person to act as a private professional guardian without being licensed. Section 12 of this bill provides certain exceptions to the licensing and other regulatory requirements. Sections 18-26 of this bill establish the requirements and application process to obtain a license to transact the business of a private professional guardian. Section 28 of this bill sets forth requirements relating to the change of ownership or transfer of assets of a private professional guardian company. Section 29 of this bill establishes the process for the renewal of a license. Section 30 of this bill establishes the process for surrender of a license.

Section 31 of this bill requires a licensee to keep a principal office in this State. Section 32 of this bill establishes procedures for the Commissioner to approve an out-of-state office of a private professional guardian company. Section 33 of this bill requires a licensee to maintain certain types and levels of bonds and insurance.

Section 35 of this bill establishes the rights and authority of a licensee. Section 36 of this bill prohibits certain activities by a licensee. Sections 37-41 of this bill establish requirements for accounting, reporting and auditing of a private professional guardian company and authorize the Commissioner or a designee to inspect certain records of a private professional guardian company.

Sections 42-46 of this bill establish procedures for the Commissioner to take administrative action against licensees. Sections 47 and 48 of this bill establish procedures for handling a complaint against a private professional guardian company. Sections 49 and 50 of this bill provide administrative and criminal penalties for violating certain provisions of this bill.

Existing law ~~[requires that, subject to certain exceptions, a person must be a resident of this State to be appointed as a guardian. (NRS 159.059) Existing law also requires a court to appoint as guardian for an incompetent the qualified person who is most suitable and is willing to serve as a guardian. (NRS 159.061) Sections 50.5 and 51.5 of this bill require a court to appoint as guardian for an incompetent a person who, regardless of whether the person is a resident of this State, has been requested to be appointed as guardian in a written instrument executed by the incompetent while he or she was competent, if that person is willing to serve and is otherwise determined to be qualified and suitable.]~~ provides for the appointment, qualifications and duties of guardians for certain minor and adult wards. (Chapter 159 of NRS) Existing law prohibits a nonresident of Nevada from being appointed as a guardian for a minor or adult ward unless the person has associated a co-guardian who is a resident of Nevada or a banking corporation whose principal place of business is in Nevada. (NRS 159.059) Existing law also gives preference to certain persons to be appointed as a guardian for a minor ward but does not give preference to any persons to be appointed as a guardian for an adult ward. (NRS 159.061)

Sections 50.2 and 52.7 of this bill revise the circumstances under which a court is authorized to appoint a nonresident as a guardian for an adult ward. Section 52.5 eliminates existing limitations on the authority of a court to appoint a nonresident as a guardian for a minor ward. Section 50.2 also requires the court to give preference in appointing a guardian for an adult ward to the following persons in the following order, whether or not the person is a nonresident: (1) a nominated person, who is a person the adult ward specifically nominated or requested as a guardian in a will, trust or other written document executed by the adult ward while competent; or (2) a relative. If two or more nominated persons are qualified and suitable to be appointed as a guardian, section 50.2 authorizes the court to appoint two or more co-guardians or generally requires the court to give preference to the nominated person named in a will, trust or other written document that is part of the adult's established estate plan, but there are certain exceptions for extraordinary circumstances.

In selecting a guardian, section 50.2 does not allow the court to give preference to a resident over a nonresident if the court determines that the nonresident would be a more qualified and suitable guardian and the adult would receive continuing care and supervision under the guardianship of the nonresident. If the court selects a nonresident guardian, section 50.2 requires the court to order the nonresident guardian to designate a registered agent in this State.

Section 51.5 of this bill revises the existing list of persons who are preferred for appointment as a guardian to a minor to include any person recommended by: (1) an agency which provides child welfare services, an agency which provides child protective services or a similar agency; or (2) a guardian ad litem or court appointed special advocate who represents the minor.

Sections 51-51.9 and 52.5 of this bill make conforming changes to reflect the changes made by the other sections of this bill.

Sec. 34. 1. The Commissioner shall revoke the license of a private professional guardian company [:

1. If] if the [private professional guardian] company [fails] :

(a) Have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, in any business transaction or activity with the guardianship.

(b) Acquire an ownership, possessory, security or other pecuniary interest adverse to the ward.

(c) Be knowingly designated as a beneficiary on any life insurance policy, pension or benefit plan of the ward unless such designation was validly made by the ward before the adjudication of the person's incapacity.

The private professional guardian is subject to removal and to imposition of personal liability through a proceeding for discharge, in addition to any other remedies otherwise available.

4. A court shall not appoint a private professional guardian that is not licensed pursuant to this chapter as the guardian of a person or estate. The court must review each guardianship involving a private professional guardian on the anniversary date of the appointment of the private professional guardian. If a private professional guardian does not hold a current license, the court must replace the guardian until such time as the private professional guardian obtains the necessary license.

5. The provisions of NRS 159.076 regarding summary administration do not apply to a private professional guardian.

6. A licensee shall file any report required by the court in a timely manner.

Sec. 37. 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 159.076, a licensee shall maintain a separate guardianship account for each ward into which all money received for the benefit of the ward must be deposited. Each guardianship account must be maintained in an insured bank or credit union located in this State, be held in a name which is sufficient to distinguish it from the personal or general checking account of the licensee and be designated as a guardianship account. Each guardianship account must at all times account for all money received for the benefit of the ward and account for all money dispersed for the benefit of the ward, and no disbursement may be made from the account except as authorized under chapter 159 of NRS or as authorized by court order.

2. Each licensee shall keep a record of all money deposited in each guardianship account maintained for a ward, which must clearly indicate the date and from whom the money was received, the date the money was deposited, the dates of withdrawals of money and other pertinent information concerning the transactions. Records kept pursuant to this subsection must be maintained for at least 6 years after the completion of the last transaction concerning the account. The records must be maintained at the premises in this State at which the licensee is authorized to conduct business.

3. The Commissioner or his or her designee may conduct an examination of the guardianship accounts and records relating to wards of each private professional guardian company licensed pursuant to this chapter at any time to ensure compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

4. During the first year a private professional guardian is licensed in this State, the Commissioner or his or her designee may conduct any examinations deemed necessary to ensure compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

5. If there is evidence that a private professional guardian company has violated a provision of this chapter, the Commissioner or his or her designee may conduct additional examinations to determine whether a violation has occurred.

6. Each licensee shall authorize the Commissioner or his or her designee to examine all books, records, papers and effects of the private professional guardian company.

7. If the Commissioner determines that the records of a licensee are not maintained in accordance with subsections 1 and 2, the Commissioner may require the licensee to submit, within 60 days, an audited financial statement prepared from the records of the licensee by a certified public accountant who holds a certificate to engage in the practice of public accounting in this State. The Commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time for the submission of the financial statement if an extension is requested before the statement is due.

8. Upon the request of the Division, a licensee must provide to the Division copies of any documents reviewed during an examination conducted by the Commissioner or his or her designee pursuant to subsection 4, 5 or 6. If the copies are not provided, the Commissioner may subpoena the documents.

For each examination of the books, papers, records and effects of a private professional guardian company that is required or authorized pursuant to this chapter, the Commissioner shall charge and collect from the private professional guardian company a fee for conducting the examination and preparing a report of the examination based upon the rate established by regulation pursuant to NRS 658.101. Failure to pay the fee within 30 days after receipt of the bill is grounds for revoking the license of the private professional guardian company.

10. All money collected under this section must be deposited in the State Treasury pursuant to the provisions of NRS 658.091.

Sec. 38. 1. After an examination is conducted pursuant to section 37 of this act, the person who conducted the examination shall prepare a written report of the results of the examination which must be signed by the Commissioner or his or her designee.

2. The written report must contain a true and detailed statement of the financial condition of the private professional guardian company and, if applicable, a full statement of any violations of the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 39. 1. The Commissioner shall provide a copy of a report prepared pursuant to section 38 of this act to the president or secretary of the board of directors of the private professional guardian company if the company is a corporation, or to a manager or owner of the private professional guardian company if the company is not a corporation, and may make a copy available to each member of the board of directors or each manager or owner, as applicable. If, in the judgment of the Commissioner, the report discloses any violation of the provisions of this chapter committed by the private professional guardian company, or if it appears from the report that there are certain conditions existing which should be corrected by the private professional guardian company, the Commissioner may, in writing, call the matter to the attention of each member of the board of directors or each manager or owner, with instructions to correct the condition.

2. Upon the preparation of the report as provided in section 38 of this act, the Commissioner shall also serve a copy thereof to the court having jurisdiction of each ward of the private professional guardian company.

Sec. 40. 1. The Commissioner may require a licensee to submit an annual financial statement or an audited financial statement prepared by an independent certified public accountant licensed to do business in this State, dependent upon the size and complexity of the private professional guardian company.

2. If applicable, on or before the fourth Monday in January of each year, each licensee shall submit to the Commissioner the stock ledger of stockholders of the corporation required to be maintained pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection 1 of NRS 78.105 or the list of each member and manager required to be maintained pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 1 of NRS 86.241, verified by the president or a manager, as appropriate.

3. A list of each member and manager submitted pursuant to subsection 2 must include the percentage of each member's interest in the company, in addition to the requirements set forth in NRS 86.241.

4. If a licensee fails to submit the ledger or list required pursuant to this section within the prescribed period, the Commissioner may impose and collect a fee of not more than $10 for each day the report is late.

5. The Commissioner shall adopt regulations establishing the amount of the fee that may be imposed pursuant to this section.

Sec. 41. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 239.0115, any application and personal or financial records submitted to the Division pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and any personal or financial records or other documents obtained by the Division pursuant to an examination conducted by the Commissioner or his or her designee or in response to a subpoena are confidential and may be disclosed only to:

1. The Division, any authorized employee or representative of the Division and any state or federal agency investigating the activities covered under the provisions of this chapter; and

2. Any person if the Commissioner, in his or her discretion, determines that the interests of the public that would be protected by disclosure outweigh the interest of any person in the confidential information not being disclosed.

Sec. 42. 1. The Commissioner may require the immediate removal from office of any officer, director, manager or employee of any private professional guardian company doing business under this chapter who is found to be dishonest, incompetent or reckless in the management of the affairs of the private professional guardian company, or who persistently violates the laws of this State or the lawful orders, instructions and regulations issued by the Commissioner.

2. An officer, director, manager or employee of a private professional guardian company who is required to be removed from office pursuant to subsection 1 may appeal his or her removal by filing a written request for a hearing with the Commissioner within 10 days after the effective date of his or her removal. The Commissioner shall conduct the hearing after providing at least 5 days' written notice to the private professional guardian company and the officer, director, manager or employee who is appealing his or her removal from office. Within 5 days after the conclusion of the hearing, the Commissioner shall enter an order affirming or disaffirming the removal of the person from office. An order of the Commissioner entered pursuant to this subsection is final for the purposes of judicial review.

Sec. 43. 1. The Commissioner may take administrative action against a licensee, including, without limitation, revoking or suspending the license, or initiate proceedings as provided in section 46 of this act if the company:

(a) Has violated this chapter or any other state or federal laws applicable to the business of a private professional guardian.

(b) Is conducting the business in an unauthorized or unsafe manner.

(c) Is in an unsafe or unsound condition to transact business.

(d) Has an impairment of the surety bonds held by the company.

(e) Has an impairment of the fidelity bonds held by the company.

(f) Has become insolvent.

(g) Has neglected or refused to comply with the terms of a lawful order of the Commissioner.

(h) Has refused, upon proper demand, to submit its records, affairs and concerns for inspection and examination of an appointed or authorized examiner of the Commissioner.

(i) Has refused to provide copies to the Division upon request, and in cooperation with any investigation, inspection or examination, of any and all documents reviewed by the Division during any such investigation, inspection or examination.

(j) Has failed to pay any state or local taxes as required.

(k) Has materially and willfully breached its fiduciary duties to a ward.

(l) Has failed to properly disclose all fees, interest and other charges to the court and the public.

(m) Has willfully engaged in material conflicts of interest regarding a ward.

(n) Has made intentional material misrepresentations regarding any aspect of the services performed or proposed to be performed by the private professional guardian company.

2. The Commissioner also may initiate such proceedings to take possession of the business and property of any private professional guardian company if an officer, partner, member or sole proprietor of the private professional guardian company refuses to be examined upon oath regarding its affairs.

Sec. 44. 1. If the Commissioner has reason to believe that grounds for the revocation or suspension of a license exist, the Commissioner shall give at least 20 days' written notice to the licensee stating the contemplated action and, in general, the grounds therefor and set a date for a hearing.

2. At the conclusion of a hearing, the Commissioner shall:

(a) Enter a written order dismissing the charges, revoking the license or suspending the license for a period of not more than 60 days, which period must include any prior temporary suspension. The Commissioner shall send a copy of the order to the licensee by registered or certified mail.

(b) Impose upon the licensee an administrative fine of not more than $10,000 for each violation by the licensee of any provision of this chapter or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto.

(c) If a fine is imposed pursuant to this section, enter such order as is necessary to recover the costs of the proceeding, including investigative costs and attorney's fees.

3. The grounds for revocation or suspension of a license are that:

(a) The licensee has failed to pay the annual license fee;

(b) The licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto or any lawful order of the Commissioner;

(c) The licensee has failed to pay any applicable state or local tax as required;

(d) Any fact or condition exists which would have justified the Commissioner in denying the original application for a license pursuant to the provisions of this chapter; or

(e) The licensee:

(1) Failed to open an office for the conduct of the business authorized by his or her license within 180 days after the date the license was issued; or

(2) Has failed to remain open for the conduct of the business for a period of 30 consecutive days without good cause therefor.

4. An order suspending or revoking a license becomes effective 5 days after being entered unless the order specifies otherwise or a stay is granted.

5. If the Commissioner enters an order suspending or revoking a license pursuant to this section, the Commissioner shall send a copy of the order to each district court in this State.

Sec. 45. 1. If the Commissioner finds that probable cause for the revocation of any license exists and that the public interest requires the immediate suspension of the license pending an investigation, the Commissioner may, upon 5 days' written notice offering the opportunity for a hearing, enter an order suspending the license for a period of not more than 20 days, pending a hearing upon the revocation of the license unless the opportunity for a hearing is waived by the licensee.

2. If the Commissioner enters an order suspending a license pursuant to this section, the Commissioner shall send a copy of the order to each district court in this State.

Sec. 46. 1. If the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that any person is violating or is threatening to or intends to violate any provision of this chapter, the Commissioner may, in addition to any action provided for in this chapter and chapter 233B of NRS and without prejudice thereto, enter an order requiring the person to cease and desist or to refrain from such violation. If the Commissioner enters such an order pursuant to this subsection, the Commissioner shall send a copy of the order to each district court in this State.

2. The Commissioner may bring an action to enjoin a person from engaging in or continuing a violation or from doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof. In any such action, irreparable harm and lack of an adequate remedy at law will be presumed and an order or judgment may be entered awarding a preliminary or final injunction as may be deemed proper. The findings of the Commissioner shall be deemed to be prima facie evidence and sufficient grounds, in the discretion of the court, for the issuance ex parte of a temporary restraining order.

3. In addition to all other means provided by law for the enforcement of a restraining order or injunction, the court in which an action is brought may impound, and appoint a receiver for, the property and business of the person, including books, papers, documents and records pertaining thereto, or so much thereof as a court may deem reasonably necessary to prevent violations of this chapter through or by means of the use of property and business, whether such books, papers, documents and records are in the possession of the person, a registered agent acting on behalf of the person or any other person. If a receiver is appointed and qualified, the receiver has such powers and duties relating to the custody, collection, administration, winding up and liquidation of such property and business as may be conferred upon the receiver by the court.

4. If a receiver is appointed pursuant to subsection 3, the receiver shall remit to the owners, members or shareholders of the private professional guardian company any amount of equity of the private professional guardian company remaining after the discharge of the liabilities and payment of the normal, prudent and reasonable expenses of the receivership.

Sec. 47. 1. Upon the filing with the Commissioner of a verified complaint against a private professional guardian company, the Commissioner shall investigate the alleged violation of the provisions of this chapter.

2. If the Commissioner determines that a complaint filed pursuant to subsection 1 warrants further action, the Commissioner shall send a copy of the complaint and notice of the date set for an informal hearing to the subject of the complaint and the Attorney General.

3. The Commissioner may require the private professional guardian company that is the subject of a complaint to file a verified answer to the complaint within 10 days after receipt of the complaint unless, for good cause shown, the Commissioner extends the time required for filing an answer for a period not to exceed 60 days.

4. If at the hearing the complaint is not explained to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, the Commissioner may take such action against the private professional guardian company as authorized by the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 48. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 239.0115, a complaint filed with the Commissioner, all documents and other information filed with the complaint and all documents and other information compiled as a result of an investigation conducted to determine whether to initiate disciplinary action are confidential.

2. The complaint or other documents filed by the Commissioner to initiate disciplinary action and all documents and information considered by the Commissioner when determining whether to impose discipline are public records.

Sec. 49. 1. In addition to any other remedy or penalty, the Commissioner may impose an administrative fine of not more than $10,000 per violation upon a person who violates any provision of this chapter or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto.

2. The maximum total fine that the Commissioner may impose on any person pursuant to this section with respect to the same or similar actions or series of actions which constitute the violations must not exceed the greater of $250,000 or 125 percent of the monetary value of all losses incurred by the private professional guardian company and its wards as the direct or indirect result of such violations.

Sec. 50. 1. A licensee who knowingly or willfully neglects to perform any act or duty required by this chapter or other applicable law, or who knowingly or willfully fails to satisfy any material lawful requirement made by the Commissioner is guilty of a category D felony and shall be punished as provided in NRS 193.130.

2. If no other punishment is otherwise provided by law, a person who violates any provision of this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 50.2. Chapter 159 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, in a proceeding to appoint a guardian for an adult, the court shall give preference to a nominated person or relative, in that order of preference:

(a) Whether or not the nominated person or relative is a resident of this State; and

(b) If the court determines that the nominated person or relative is qualified and suitable to be appointed as guardian for the adult.

2. In determining whether any nominated person, relative or other person listed in subsection 4 is qualified and suitable to be appointed as guardian for an adult, the court shall consider, if applicable and without limitation:

(a) The ability of the nominated person, relative or other person to provide for the basic needs of the adult, including, without limitation, food, shelter, clothing and medical care;

(b) Whether the nominated person, relative or other person has engaged in the habitual use of alcohol or any controlled substance during the previous 6 months, except the use of marijuana in accordance with the provisions of chapter 453A of NRS;

(c) Whether the nominated person, relative or other person has been judicially determined to have committed abuse, neglect, exploitation, isolation or abandonment of a child, his or her spouse, his or her parent or any other adult, unless the court finds that it is in the best interests of the ward to appoint the person as guardian for the adult;

(d) Whether the nominated person, relative or other person is incompetent or has a disability; and

(e) Whether the nominated person, relative or other person has been convicted in this State or any other jurisdiction of a felony, unless the court determines that any such conviction should not disqualify the person from serving as guardian for the adult.

3. If the court finds that two or more nominated persons are qualified and suitable to be appointed as guardian for an adult, the court may appoint two or more nominated persons as co-guardians or shall give preference among them in the following order of preference:

(a) A person whom the adult nominated for the appointment as guardian for the adult in a will, trust or other written instrument that is part of the adult's established estate plan and was executed by the adult while competent.

(b) A person whom the adult requested for the appointment as guardian for the adult in a written instrument that is not part of the adult's established estate plan and was executed by the adult while competent.

4. Subject to the preferences set forth in subsections 1 and 3, the court shall appoint as guardian the qualified person who is most suitable and is willing to serve. In determining which qualified person is most suitable, the court shall, in addition to considering any applicable factors set forth in subsection 2, give consideration, among other factors, to:

(a) Any nomination or request for the appointment as guardian by the adult.

(b) Any nomination or request for the appointment as guardian by a relative.

(c) The relationship by blood, adoption, marriage or domestic partnership of the proposed guardian to the adult. In considering preferences of appointment, the court may consider relatives of the half blood equally with those of the whole blood. The court may consider any relative in the following order of preference:

(1) A spouse or domestic partner.

(2) A child.

(3) A parent.

(4) Any relative with whom the adult has resided for more than 6 months before the filing of the petition or any relative who has a power of attorney executed by the adult while competent.

(5) Any relative currently acting as agent.

(6) A sibling.

(7) A grandparent or grandchild.

(8) An uncle, aunt, niece, nephew or cousin.

(9) Any other person recognized to be in a familial relationship with the adult.

(d) Any recommendation made by a master of the court or special master pursuant to NRS 159.0615.

(e) Any request for the appointment of any other interested person that the court deems appropriate, including, without limitation, a person who is not a relative and who has a power of attorney executed by the adult while competent.

5. The court may appoint as guardian any nominated person, relative or other person listed in subsection 4 who is not a resident of this State. The court shall not give preference to a resident of this State over a nonresident if the court determines that:

(a) The nonresident is more qualified and suitable to serve as guardian; and

(b) The distance from the proposed guardian's place of residence and the adult's place of residence will not affect the quality of the guardianship or the ability of the proposed guardian to make decisions and respond quickly to the needs of the adult because:

(1) A person or care provider in this State is providing continuing care and supervision for the adult;

(2) The adult is in a secured residential long-term care facility in this State; or

(3) Within 30 days after the appointment of the proposed guardian, the proposed guardian will move to this State or the adult will move to the proposed guardian's state of residence.

6. If the court appoints a nonresident as guardian for the adult:

(a) The jurisdictional requirements of NRS 159.1991 to 159.2029, inclusive, must be met;

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 178.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 937.

AN ACT relating to education; ~~[removing]~~ revising the ~~[requirement for]~~ circumstances under which a school is required to deem a pupil a habitual disciplinary problem ; ~~[under certain circumstances;]~~ revising provisions governing the notice provided to a parent or legal guardian concerning a pupil who is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem and the discipline imposed on such a pupil; requiring such notice to be provided each time a pupil is suspended; revising provisions relating to a plan of behavior for a pupil; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a school to suspend or expel a pupil for at least one semester if that pupil is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem under certain circumstances, and requires the pupil to enroll in a private school, a program of independent study or be homeschooled for the period of suspension or expulsion. (NRS 392.466) Existing law further requires a school to notify the parent or legal guardian of a pupil when the pupil is suspended for fighting or commits an act that may cause the pupil to be deemed a habitual disciplinary problem. (NRS 392.4655) Section 1 of this bill instead requires a school to notify the parent or legal guardian of a pupil when the pupil is suspended for any reason. Section 1 also revises the requirements of such notice.

Existing law authorizes a school to develop a plan of behavior for a pupil who may be deemed a habitual disciplinary problem. (NRS 392.4655) Section 1 authorizes a school to develop such a plan of behavior if a pupil is suspended for any reason.

Existing law requires a principal of a school to deem a pupil enrolled in the school a habitual disciplinary problem if the pupil: (1) has threatened or extorted, or attempted to threaten or extort, another pupil or employee of the school; (2) has been suspended for initiating at least two fights on school property or in certain other circumstances; or (3) has a record of five suspensions from the school. (NRS 392.4655) Section 1 instead requires the principal of a school to designate a pupil as a habitual disciplinary problem if: (1) the pupil has threatened or extorted, or attempted to threaten or extort, another pupil or employee of the school two or more times, or the pupil has a record of five suspensions from the school; and (2) the pupil has not entered into and participated in a plan of behavior.

Section 2 of this bill removes the requirement that a pupil who is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem be suspended or expelled for at least one semester and instead authorizes the school to suspend the pupil from school for a period not to exceed one semester if the pupil is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem or expel the pupil from school under extraordinary circumstances. Section 2 further requires that a pupil enroll in a private school, a program of independent study or be homeschooled if the pupil is expelled or for the period of suspension only if the suspension is for one semester. ~~[Section 1 of this bill revises the requirements of the written notice that a school must provide to the parent or legal guardian of a pupil relating to the possibility of~~ ~~suspension or expulsion if the pupil is deemed a habitual disciplinary problem. Section 1 also makes the designation of a pupil as a habitual disciplinary problem permissive rather than mandatory when the pupil commits certain acts.]~~

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the State Board of Education to establish a statewide performance evaluation system which incorporates multiple measures to evaluate the overall performance of certain employees. Existing law requires the statewide performance evaluation system to: (1) prescribe the pupil achievement data that must be used as a part of the evaluation system; and (2) require that pupil achievement data account for at least 50 percent of the evaluation of certain employees. (NRS 391.465) ~~[Section 1]~~ Sections 10 and 16 of this bill ~~[provides]~~ remove the requirement that ~~[:]~~ pupil achievement data must be used as a part of the evaluation system for the 2015-2016 school year. Existing law requires the board of trustees of each school district to develop a policy for objective evaluations of teachers and administrators that complies with the statewide performance evaluation system established by the State Board. Existing law requires this policy to include an evaluation of counselors, librarians and other licensed personnel . ~~[, commencing with the 2015-2016 school year.]~~ (NRS 391.3123, 391.3125) ~~[; Section 22 of chapter 496, Statutes of Nevada 2013, p. 3169)]~~ Section ~~[2]~~ 4 of this bill ~~[instead delays implementation until the 2016-2017 school year. (NRS 391.3127, 391.3129) Sections 5 and 6 of this bill require a probationary teacher or administrator to instead receive one evaluation during the first school year of his or her probationary employment that must be based in part upon at least three scheduled observations of the teacher or administrator. Sections 5 and 6 also: (1) reduce the number of observations required for a probationary teacher or administrator during his or her second and third years of probationary employment whose performance is designated as highly effective or effective; and (2) require a probationary teacher or administrator whose performance is designated as minimally effective or ineffective to continue to receive three observations.

Existing law also requires each postprobationary teacher or administrator who receives an evaluation designating his or her overall performance as minimally effective or ineffective to be evaluated three times. Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Secretary of State to adopt regulations governing the conduct of primary, general, special and district elections. (NRS 293.247) Section 1 of this bill makes various changes to the types of regulations that the Secretary of State must adopt governing the conduct of elections.

Existing law provides that certain cities must hold a general city election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June in odd-numbered years. (NRS 293C.140, 293C.145; Boulder City Charter § 96; Caliente City Charter § 5.010; Henderson City Charter § 5.020; Las Vegas City Charter § 5.020; North Las Vegas City Charter § 5.010; Yerington City Charter § 5.010) Sections 1.3, 1.5, 7-13 and 15 of this bill change the date of the general city election in those cities so that it occurs 1 week later on the second Tuesday after the first Monday in June in odd-numbered years. Sections 4-6 of this bill make the same change in the election date to the second Tuesday after the first Monday in June in odd-numbered years for certain local special elections seeking voter approval of certain local taxes and debt obligations. (NRS 350.020, 354.5982, 387.3285)

During the 77th Session of the Legislature in 2013, the Legislature enacted legislation that amended the definition of the term "committee for political action" in the campaign finance laws to include certain businesses or organizations that make expenditures of a certain amount in a calendar year for the purpose of affecting the outcome of any election or question on the ballot. (NRS 294A.0055, 294A.230; chapter 259, Statutes of Nevada 2013, pp. 1149-51) In 2013, the Legislature also enacted legislation that added a definition of the term "independent expenditure" to the campaign finance laws, but this newly defined term was not incorporated into the definition of the term "committee for political action." (NRS 294A.0077; chapter 425, Statutes of Nevada 2013, p. 2379) Sections 1.7 and 2.1 of this bill harmonize the 2013 legislation by incorporating the term "independent expenditure" into the definition of the term "committee for political action."

Under existing law, a person may not contribute or commit to contribute more than $5,000 for a primary election and $5,000 for a general election to a candidate for state, district, county or township office during the period beginning 30 days before the start of the regular session of the Legislature immediately after a general election for that office and ending 30 days before the start of the regular session of the Legislature immediately following the next general election for that office. During the same period, a person is prohibited from making or committing to make a contribution to a legal defense fund of a candidate or public officer in an amount which exceeds $10,000. Existing law also prohibits a candidate or public officer, as applicable, from accepting a contribution or commitment to make a contribution in excess of those amounts. (Nev. Const. Art. 2, § 10, NRS 294A.100, 294A.287) Section 2 of this bill changes the period to which those contribution limits apply so that the period begins on January 1 immediately after a general election for an office and ends on December 31 immediately after the next general election for that office.

Existing law provides that a violation of the contribution limits to a candidate or a legal defense fund is a category E felony. (NRS 294A.100, 294A.287) Section 14 of this bill provides that certain contributions made or committed to be made under existing law at the end of the contribution periods in early January 2011, 2013 or 2015 shall be deemed to have been made or committed to be made on December 31, 2010, 2012 or 2014, respectively, so that no person is guilty retrospectively of committing a crime as a result of the changes made by section 2.

Existing law requires a committee for the recall of a public officer to report certain contributions received and expenditures made by the committee during its recall efforts. Existing law also requires such a committee to comply with the reporting requirements when it does not submit a legally sufficient recall petition to the filing officer before the expiration of the period for circulating the petition for signatures. (NRS 294A.270, 294A.280) Sections 2.3 and 2.5 of this bill clarify that such a committee must comply with the reporting requirements if it: (1) fails to submit the petition to the filing officer; (2) submits the petition to the filing officer without any valid signatures or with fewer than the necessary number of valid signatures; or (3) otherwise submits a legally insufficient petition or suspends or ceases its efforts to obtain the necessary number of valid signatures.

Finally, in Strickland v. Waymire, 126 Nev. 230, 240 (2010), the Nevada Supreme Court held that Section 9 of Article 2 of the Nevada Constitution provides that, "[w]hile all registered voters can vote at a special recall election, only voters who voted at the relevant baseline election can qualify a recall petition" by signing a petition for the recall. Section 3 of this bill conforms existing law to this ruling. (NRS 306.020)

A public officer who is appointed to an elective office is subject to recall in the same manner as provided for an officer who is elected to that office.

2. The petition to recall a public officer may be signed by any registered voter of the State or of the county, district, municipality or portion thereof that the public officer represents ~~[, regardless of whether the registered voter cast a ballot]~~ who actually voted in the election at which the public officer was elected.

Sec. 4. NRS 350.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

350.020 1. Except as otherwise provided by subsections 3 and 4, if a municipality proposes to issue or incur general obligations, the proposal must be submitted to the electors of the municipality at a special election called for that purpose or the next general municipal election or general state election.

2. Such a special election may be held:

(a) At any time, including, without limitation, on the date of a primary municipal election or a primary state election, if the governing body of the municipality determines, by a unanimous vote, that an emergency exists; or

(b) On the ~~[first]~~ second Tuesday after the first Monday in June of an odd-numbered year, whether or not the municipality also holds a general municipal election on that date,

➥ except that the governing body shall not determine that an emergency exists if the special election is for the purpose of submitting to the electors a proposal to refund bonds. The determination made by the governing body is conclusive unless it is shown that the governing body acted with fraud, a gross abuse of discretion or in violation of the provisions of this subsection. An action to challenge the determination made by the governing body must be commenced within 15 days after the governing body's determination is final. As used in this subsection, "emergency" means any occurrence or combination of occurrences which requires immediate action by the governing body of the municipality to prevent or mitigate a substantial financial loss to the municipality or to enable the governing body to provide an essential service to the residents of the municipality.

3. If payment of a general obligation of the municipality is additionally secured by a pledge of gross or net revenue of a project to be financed by its issue, and the governing body determines, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the governing body, that the pledged revenue will at least equal the amount required in each year for the payment of interest and principal, without regard to any option reserved by the municipality for early redemption, the municipality may, after a public hearing, incur this general obligation without an election unless, within 90 days after publication of a resolution of intent to issue the bonds, a petition is presented to the governing body signed by not less than 5 percent of the registered voters of the municipality. Any member elected to the governing body whose authority to vote is limited by charter, statute or otherwise may vote on the determination required to be made by the governing body pursuant to this subsection. The determination by the governing body becomes conclusive on the last day for filing the petition. For the purpose of this subsection, the number of registered voters must be determined as of the close of registration for the last preceding general election. The resolution of intent need not be published in full, but the publication must include the amount of the obligation and the purpose for which it is to be incurred. Notice of the public hearing must be published at least 10 days before the day of the hearing. The publications must be made once in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality. When published, the notice of the public hearing must be at least as large as 5 inches high by 4 inches wide.

4. The board of trustees of a school district may issue general obligation bonds which are not expected to result in an increase in the existing property tax levy for the payment of bonds of the school district without holding an election for each issuance of the bonds if the qualified electors approve a question submitted by the board of trustees that authorizes issuance of bonds for a period of 10 years after the date of approval by the voters. If the question is approved, the board of trustees of the school district may issue the bonds for a period of 10 years after the date of approval by the voters, after obtaining the approval of the debt management commission in the county in which the school district is located and, in a county whose population is 100,000 or more, the approval of the oversight panel for school facilities established pursuant to NRS 393.092 in that county, if the board of trustees of the school district finds that the existing tax for debt service will at least equal the amount required to pay the principal and interest on the outstanding general obligations of the school district and the general obligations proposed to be issued. The finding made by the board of trustees is conclusive in the absence of fraud or gross abuse of discretion. As used in this subsection, "general obligations" does not include medium-term obligations issued pursuant to NRS 350.087 to 350.095, inclusive.

5. At the time of issuance of bonds authorized pursuant to subsection 4, the board of trustees shall establish a reserve account in its debt service fund for payment of the outstanding bonds of the school district. The reserve account must be established and maintained in an amount at least equal to the lesser of:

(a) For a school district located in a county whose population is 100,000 or more, 25 percent; and

(b) For a school district located in a county whose population is less than 100,000, 50 percent,

➥ of the amount of principal and interest payments due on all of the outstanding bonds of the school district in the next fiscal year or 10 percent of the outstanding principal amount of the outstanding bonds of the school district.

6. If the amount in the reserve account falls below the amount required by subsection 5:

(a) The board of trustees shall not issue additional bonds pursuant to subsection 4 until the reserve account is restored to the level required by subsection 5; and

(b) The board of trustees shall apply all of the taxes levied by the school district for payment of bonds of the school district that are not needed for payment of the principal and interest on bonds of the school district in the current fiscal year to restore the reserve account to the level required pursuant to subsection 5.

7. A question presented to the voters pursuant to subsection 4 may authorize all or a portion of the revenue generated by the debt rate which is in excess of the amount required:

(a) For debt service in the current fiscal year;

(b) For other purposes related to the bonds by the instrument pursuant to which the bonds were issued; and

(c) To maintain the reserve account required pursuant to subsection 5,

➥ to be transferred to the county school district's fund for capital projects established pursuant to NRS 387.328 and used to pay the cost of capital projects which can lawfully be paid from that fund. Any such transfer must not limit the ability of the school district to issue bonds during the period of voter authorization if the findings and approvals required by subsection 4 are obtained.

8. A municipality may issue special or medium-term obligations without an election.

Sec. 5. NRS 354.5982 is hereby amended to read as follows:

354.5982 1. The local government may exceed the limit imposed by NRS 354.59811 upon the calculated receipts from taxes ad valorem only if its governing body proposes to its registered voters an additional property tax, and the proposal is approved by a majority of the voters voting on the question at a general election, a general city election or a special election called for that purpose. The question submitted to the voters must contain the rate of the proposed additional property tax stated in dollars and cents per $100 assessed valuation, the purpose of the proposed additional property tax, the duration of the proposed additional property tax and an estimate established by the governing body of the increase in the amount of property taxes that an owner of a new home with a fair market value of $100,000 will pay per year as a result of the passage of the question. The governing body may discontinue the levy before it expires and may not thereafter reimpose it in whole or in part without following the procedure required for its original imposition.

2. A special election may be held:

An action to challenge the determination made by the governing body must be commenced within 15 days after the governing body's determination is final. As used in this subsection, "emergency" means any unexpected occurrence or combination of occurrences which requires immediate action by the governing body of the local government to prevent or mitigate a substantial financial loss to the local government or to enable the governing body to provide an essential service to the residents of the local government.

4. To the allowed revenue from taxes ad valorem determined pursuant to NRS 354.59811 for a local government, the Executive Director of the Department of Taxation shall add any amount approved by the Legislature for the cost to that local government of any substantial program or expense required by legislative enactment.

The question submitted to the registered voters must contain the rate of the proposed additional property tax, stated in dollars and cents per $100 assessed valuation, the purpose of the proposed additional property tax, the duration of the proposed additional property tax and an estimate established by the board of trustees of the increase in the amount of property taxes that an owner of a new home with a fair market value of $100,000 will pay per year as a result of the passage of the question. The duration may not exceed 20 years.

3. Any money collected pursuant to this section must be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the fund for capital projects to be held and, except as otherwise provided in NRS 387.3287, to be expended in the same manner as other money deposited in that fund.

4. A special election may be held:

(a) At any time, including, without limitation, on the date of a primary city election or a primary state election if the board of trustees of the school district determines, by a unanimous vote, that an emergency exists; or

(b) On the ~~[first]~~ second Tuesday after the first Monday in June of an odd-numbered year ~~[.]~~ , whether or not any local government also holds a general city election on that date.

5. The determination made by the board of trustees pursuant to subsection 4 that an emergency exists is conclusive unless it is shown that the board of trustees acted with fraud or a gross abuse of discretion. An action to challenge the determination made by the board of trustees must be commenced within 15 days after the determination made by board of trustees is final. As used in this subsection, "emergency" means an unexpected occurrence or combination of occurrences that requires immediate action by the board of trustees of the school district to prevent or mitigate a substantial financial loss to the school district or to enable the board of trustees to provide an essential service.

Under existing law, there are several different types of preelection court actions that may be brought to challenge a candidate on grounds that the candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office, including actions for a declaratory judgment or a writ of mandamus. (NRS 281.050, 293.182, 293C.186; DeStefano v. Berkus, 121 Nev. 627, 628-31 (2005); Child v. Lomax, 124 Nev. 600, 604-05 (2008)) Section 1 of this bill provides that in any preelection action where the court finds that a candidate fails to meet any qualification required for the office: (1) the candidate is disqualified from taking office; and (2) the court may order the candidate to pay the attorney's fees and costs of the party who brought the action, including the Attorney General or a district attorney or city attorney.

Existing law: (1) requires a candidate to file a declaration or acceptance of candidacy before his or her name may appear on a ballot; and (2) provides that a candidate who knowingly and willfully files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy which contains a false statement regarding residency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. (NRS 293.1755, 293.177, 293C.185, 293C.200) Existing law also requires a candidate for election to the Legislature to file a declaration of residency with his or her declaration or acceptance of candidacy. (NRS 293.181) Sections 1.5, 2, 3, 5 and 7 of this bill provide that a candidate who knowingly and willfully files a declaration of candidacy, acceptance of candidacy or declaration of residency which contains a false statement is guilty of a ~~[category E felony.]~~ gross misdemeanor.

Existing law specifies the forms for a declaration or acceptance of candidacy and a declaration of residency and requires certain information to be included on the forms. Existing law also requires a candidate to present the filing officer with one type of acceptable identification or documentation as proof of the candidate's identity and residency when the candidate files a declaration or acceptance of candidacy. (NRS 293.177, 293.181, 293C.185)

Sections 2, 3 and 5 revise the forms for a declaration or acceptance of candidacy and a declaration of residency to include a statement that the candidate understands that knowingly and willfully filing such a document which contains a false statement is a crime punishable as a ~~[category E felony]~~ gross misdemeanor and also subjects the candidate to a civil action disqualifying the candidate from taking office and making the candidate liable upon order of the court to pay the attorney's fees and costs of the party who brings the action. Sections 2 and 5 also require the candidate to present the filing officer with two types of acceptable identification and documentation as proof of the candidate's identity and residency.

Existing law defines the term "actual residence" to mean the place where a candidate is legally domiciled and maintains a permanent habitation, and when a candidate maintains more than one place of permanent habitation, the place designated by the candidate as his or her principal permanent habitation is deemed to be the candidate's actual residence. (NRS 281.050) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the place designated by the candidate as his or her principal permanent habitation must be the place where the candidate actually resides and is legally domiciled in order for the candidate to be eligible to the office. (Williams v. Clark County Dist. Att'y, 118 Nev. 473, 484-86 (2002); Chachas v. Miller, 120 Nev. 51, 53-56 (2004)) Section 8 of this bill amends existing law to reflect the Supreme Court's holding.

The terms "election board register" and "roster" are defined terms that are used interchangeably throughout the provisions of law relating to elections. (NRS 293.040, 293.053, 293.095, 293.250, 293.273, 293.275, 293.277, 293.283, 293.285, 293.287, 293.303, 293.3082, 293.333, 293.3585, 293.3604, 293.363, 293.373, 293.391, 293.510, 293.511, 293.524, 293.525, 293.533, 293.541, 293.547, 293.548, 293.563, 293C.267, 293C.270, 293C.272, 293C.275, 293C.277, 293C.292, 293C.332, 293C.3585, 293C.3604, 293C.362, 293C.375, 293C.525, 293C.535) Section 75 of this bill repeals the term "election board register," and sections 13-16, 18, 29, 31-39, 46-48, 50, 61, 62 and 64 of this bill replace the term "election board register" with "roster."

Existing law requires an election precinct to have a maximum of 1,500 registered voters. (NRS 293.207) Section 6 of this bill increases the maximum number to 3,000 registered voters.

Existing law provides that ~~[the]~~ each county or city clerk ~~[of each county]~~ shall appoint election board officers for the various precincts and districts in the county ~~[.]~~ or city, as applicable. (NRS 293.217, 293C.220) ~~[Section]~~ Sections 7 and 43 of this bill ~~[clarifies]~~ clarify that election board officers are appointed for the polling places in the county ~~[.]~~ and the polling places and precincts in each city. Sections 1, 8, 9, 12, 13, 19-23, 27, 30, 39, ~~[43-45,]~~ 44, 45, 51-55, 59 and 66 of this bill make corresponding changes.

Existing law requires a county clerk to publish a copy of the full text of any proposed constitution, constitutional amendment, statewide measure, including a state referendum, and county referendum along with its condensation, explanation, arguments, rebuttals and fiscal note three times in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. (NRS 293.253, 295.045, 295.160) Sections 10, 67 and 68 of this bill eliminate the requirements to publish the full text of a statewide measure three times, including a statewide referendum, and a county referendum.

Existing law provides for the ballots for a general election to include the name of an independent candidate for a partisan office followed by the word "independent" or the abbreviation "IND." (NRS 293.267) Section 11 of this bill provides for the use of the words "no political party" or the abbreviation "NPP" to follow the name of an independent candidate instead.

Existing law requires an election board officer in charge of the roster to announce the name of a voter applying to vote and take the voter's signature to verify that it matches the signature or facsimile thereof in the original application. (NRS 293.285, 293.3585, 293C.275, 293C.3585) Existing law also provides that if the voter is unable to sign his or her name, the voter must be identified by answering questions covering the personal data from the original application. (NRS 293.283, 293C.272) Sections 14.5, 15, 24, 46.5, 47 and ~~[57]~~ 56 of this bill provide that if the voter is unable to sign his or her name or the voter's signature does not match, the voter must ~~[provide]~~ be identified by: (1) answering questions covering the personal data from the application; (2) providing the election board officer, orally or in writing, with other personal data which verifies the identity of the voter; or (3) providing certain proof of identification . ~~[and]~~ If the voter's signature has changed in comparison to the signature on the application, the voter must update his or her signature.

Existing law requires an alphabetical listing of all registered voters for each precinct to be posted in a public area of each polling place in a county and city and for an election board officer to identify at certain times the names of each voter who has voted. (NRS 293.301, 293C.290) Sections 17 and 49 of this bill authorize the county or city clerk of each county or city to: (1) require an election board officer to post the alphabetical listing at each precinct; or (2) publish on the Internet website of the county or city clerk, as applicable, the alphabetical listing of all registered voters for each precinct in the county or city, respectively. Regardless of which option is selected by the county or city clerk, sections 17 and 49 require the alphabetical listings to be updated during the election.

Existing law provides that a voter's precinct or voting district number must be included in certain documents used during early voting. (NRS 293.3585, 293.3604, 293C.3585, 293C.3604) Sections 24-26 and 56-58 of this bill clarify that during early voting, the precinct or voting district number must be included on the roster and the voting receipt if that information is available. The statements prepared by the election board and the ballots do not require the precinct or voting district number and are not required to be sorted by precinct or voting district at the close of early voting.

Existing law requires each county and city clerk to mail a sample ballot to each registered voter in the applicable county or city. (NRS 293.565, 293C.530) Sections 40 and 63 of this bill authorize each county and city clerk to establish a system to distribute a sample ballot by electronic means to each registered voter who elects to receive sample ballots in that manner. Such a system ~~[must be approved by the Secretary of State and]~~ may include, without limitation, electronic mail or electronic access through an Internet website. Sections 3, 41 ~~[, 63]~~ and 69-74 of this bill make conforming changes.

Existing law provides that certain information relating to a registered voter is confidential and that a registered voter may submit a written request to the county clerk to have his or her address and telephone number withheld from the public. Existing law provides for the chair and at least one other member of the election board to deliver the ballots and election materials to a receiving center or central counting place. (NRS 293B.335, 293C.635) Sections 42 and 65 of this bill revise this provision to require at least two board members to deliver the ballots and election materials.

Section 4 of this bill enacts provisions prohibiting the trafficking of children. Section 4 provides that a person shall not recruit, transport, transfer, harbor, provide, obtain, maintain or solicit a child in furtherance of a transaction, or advertise or facilitate a transaction, pursuant to which a parent of a child or a person with custody of a child places the child in the physical custody of another person who is not related to the child, for the purpose of permanently avoiding or divesting himself or herself of responsibility for the child. Section 4 further provides that certain placements of a child are not prohibited, including, without limitation, the placement of a child with a relative or stepparent, the placement of a child with or by a licensed child-placing agency or agency which provides child welfare services and the placement of a child with a person that is approved by a court of competent jurisdiction. Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 1-6.5 of this bill establish the crime of unlawful dissemination of an intimate image of a person. Section 3 defines the term "intimate image" generally as a photograph, film, videotape or other recorded image, or any reproduction thereof, which depicts: (1) the fully exposed nipple of the female breast of another person; or (2) one or more persons engaged in sexual conduct. Section 3 also provides that an image which would otherwise constitute an intimate image is not an intimate image if the person depicted in the image: (1) is not clearly identifiable; (2) voluntarily exposed himself or herself in a public or commercial setting; or (3) is a public figure.

Section 5 provides that a person commits the crime of unlawful dissemination of an intimate image and is guilty of a category D felony when, with the intent to harass, harm or terrorize another person, the person electronically disseminates or sells an intimate image which depicts the other person and the other person: (1) did not give prior consent to the electronic dissemination or sale; (2) had a reasonable expectation that the intimate image would be kept private and would not be made visible to the public; and (3) was at least 18 years of age when the intimate image was created. Section 5 also sets forth certain exceptions regarding when an intimate image may be lawfully electronically disseminated. Under section 6, a person is guilty of a category D felony if he or she demands payment of money, property, services or anything else of value from a person in exchange for removing an intimate image from public view. Section 6.5 provides that the provisions of sections 1-6 must not be construed to impose liability on an interactive computer service, as that term is defined in federal law, for any content provided by another person.

Existing law provides that a person who forces another person under certain circumstances to make a sexual penetration on himself or herself or another, or on a beast, is guilty of sexual assault. (NRS 200.366) Section 8 of this bill additionally provides that a person who commits a sexual penetration upon a child under the age of 14 years or causes a child under the age of 14 years to make a sexual penetration on himself or herself or another, or on a beast, is guilty of sexual assault. Section 8 further provides that, except in certain circumstances, such provisions do not apply to a person who commits any such act upon a child under the age of 14 years if the person committing the act is less than 18 years of age and is not more than 2 years older than the person upon whom the act is committed.

Existing law also provides that a person who commits any act of open or gross lewdness or who makes any open and indecent or obscene exposure of his or her person, or of the person of another, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor for the first offense and a category D felony for any subsequent offense. (NRS 201.210, 201.220) Under sections 13 and 14 of this bill, if a person commits any such offense and he or she has previously been convicted of a sexual offense, or if the person commits any such offense in the presence of a child under the age of 18 years or a vulnerable person, the person is guilty of a category D felony.

Additionally, under existing law, a person who commits certain acts with a child under the age of 14 years is guilty of lewdness with a child and is guilty of a category A felony. (NRS 201.230) Section 15 of this bill ~~[increases that age to 16 years and]~~ provides that a person is guilty of lewdness with a child if the person: (1) is 18 years of age or older and commits certain acts with a child under the age of 16 years; or (2) is under the age of 18 years and commits certain acts with a child under the age of 14 years. Section 15 also provides that if a person commits lewdness with: (1) a child under the age of 14, he or she is guilty of a category A felony; and (2) a child who is 14 or 15, he or she is guilty of a category B felony. ~~[Section 15 also provides that, except in certain circumstances, such provisions do not apply to a person who commits any such act if the person is less than 18 years of age and is not more than 2 years older than the person upon whom the act is committed.]~~

Section 7 of this bill revises the definition of the term "statutory sexual seduction," and section 8.5 of this bill revises the penalties imposed for the crime of statutory sexual seduction. ~~[Section 15 provides that an act which constitutes the crime of statutory sexual seduction does not constitute lewdness with a child.]~~

Section 10 of this bill provides that certain persons are guilty of a category A felony if they willfully cause, permit or allow a child to suffer unjustifiable physical pain or mental suffering as a result of abuse or neglect or to be placed in a situation where the child may suffer physical pain or mental suffering as the result of abuse or neglect, and substantial bodily or mental harm results to the child which includes certain severe injuries.

Sections 18 and 19 of this bill revise the punishment imposed for: (1) certain employees of or volunteers at a school who engage in sexual conduct with certain pupils; and (2) certain employees of a college or university who engage in sexual conduct with certain students.

Sections 12, 23 and 24 of this bill revise various provisions relating to the admissibility of expert testimony and evidence in certain criminal and juvenile delinquency cases. Section 12 provides that in a prosecution for pandering or sex trafficking, certain expert testimony that is offered by the prosecution or defense is admissible for any relevant purpose, but certain other expert testimony cannot be offered against the defendant to prove the occurrence of an act which forms the basis of a criminal charge against the defendant. Under section 23, expert testimony offered by the prosecution or defense which concerns the behavior of a defendant in preparing a child under the age of 18 or a vulnerable person for sexual abuse by the defendant is admissible for any purpose. Section 24 prohibits a court in a criminal or juvenile delinquency action relating to the commission of a sexual offense from ordering a victim of or witness to a sexual offense to take or submit to a psychological or psychiatric examination. Section 24 also authorizes the court to exclude the testimony of a licensed psychologist, psychiatrist or clinical worker who performed a psychological or psychiatric examination on a victim or witness in certain circumstances.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 1-6.5 of this bill establish the crime of unlawful dissemination of an intimate image of a person. Section 3 defines the term "intimate image" generally as a photograph, film, videotape or other recorded image, or any reproduction thereof, which depicts: (1) the fully exposed nipple of the female breast of another person; or (2) one or more persons engaged in sexual conduct. Section 3 also provides that an image which would otherwise constitute an intimate image is not an intimate image if the person depicted in the image: (1) is not clearly identifiable; (2) voluntarily exposed himself or herself in a public or commercial setting; or (3) is a public figure.

Section 5 provides that a person commits the crime of unlawful dissemination of an intimate image and is guilty of a category D felony when, with the intent to harass, harm or terrorize another person, the person electronically disseminates or sells an intimate image which depicts the other person and the other person: (1) did not give prior consent to the electronic dissemination or sale; (2) had a reasonable expectation that the intimate image would be kept private and would not be made visible to the public; and (3) was at least 18 years of age when the intimate image was created. Section 5 also sets forth certain exceptions regarding when an intimate image may be lawfully electronically disseminated. Under section 6, a person is guilty of a category D felony if he or she demands payment of money, property, services or anything else of value from a person in exchange for removing an intimate image from public view. Section 6.5 provides that the provisions of sections 1-6 must not be construed to impose liability on an interactive computer service, as that term is defined in federal law, for any content provided by another person.

Existing law provides that a person who forces another person under certain circumstances to make a sexual penetration on himself or herself or another, or on a beast, is guilty of sexual assault. (NRS 200.366) Section 8 of this bill additionally provides that a person who commits a sexual penetration upon a child under the age of 14 years or causes a child under the age of 14 years to make a sexual penetration on himself or herself or another, or on a beast, is guilty of sexual assault. Section 8 further provides that, except in certain circumstances, such provisions do not apply to a person who commits any such act upon a child under the age of 14 years if the person committing the act is less than 18 years of age and is not more than 2 years older than the person upon whom the act is committed.

Existing law also provides that a person who commits any act of open or gross lewdness or who makes any open and indecent or obscene exposure of his or her person, or of the person of another, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor for the first offense and a category D felony for any subsequent offense. (NRS 201.210, 201.220) Under sections 13 and 14 of this bill, if a person commits any such offense and he or she has previously been convicted of a sexual offense, or if the person commits any such offense in the presence of a child under the age of 18 years or a vulnerable person, the person is guilty of a category D felony.

Additionally, under existing law, a person who commits certain acts with a child under the age of 14 years is guilty of lewdness with a child and is guilty of a category A felony. (NRS 201.230) Section 15 of this bill provides that a person is guilty of lewdness with a child if the person: (1) is 18 years of age or older and commits certain acts with a child under the age of 16 years; or (2) is under the age of 18 years and commits certain acts with a child under the age of 14 years. Section 15 also provides that if a person commits lewdness with: (1) a child under the age of 14, he or she is guilty of a category A felony; and (2) a child who is 14 or 15, he or she is guilty of a category B felony.

Section 7 of this bill revises the definition of the term "statutory sexual seduction," and section 8.5 of this bill revises the penalties imposed for the crime of statutory sexual seduction.

Section 10 of this bill provides that certain persons are guilty of a category A felony if they willfully cause, permit or allow a child to suffer unjustifiable physical pain or mental suffering as a result of abuse or neglect or to be placed in a situation where the child may suffer physical pain or mental suffering as the result of abuse or neglect, and substantial bodily or mental harm results to the child which includes certain severe injuries.

~~[ Sections 18 and 19 of this bill revise the punishment imposed for: (1) certain employees of or volunteers at a school who engage in sexual conduct with certain pupils; and (2) certain employees of a college or university who engage in sexual conduct with certain students.]~~

Sections 12, 23 and 24 of this bill revise various provisions relating to the admissibility of expert testimony and evidence in certain criminal and juvenile delinquency cases. Section 12 provides that in a prosecution for pandering or sex trafficking, certain expert testimony that is offered by the prosecution or defense is admissible for any relevant purpose, but certain other expert testimony cannot be offered against the defendant to prove the occurrence of an act which forms the basis of a criminal charge against the defendant. Under section 23, expert testimony offered by the prosecution or defense which concerns the behavior of a defendant in preparing a child under the age of 18 or a vulnerable person for sexual abuse by the defendant is admissible for any purpose. Section 24 prohibits a court in a criminal or juvenile delinquency action relating to the commission of a sexual offense from ordering a victim of or witness to a sexual offense to take or submit to a psychological or psychiatric examination. Section 24 also authorizes the court to exclude the testimony of a licensed psychologist, psychiatrist or clinical worker who performed a psychological or psychiatric examination on a victim or witness in certain circumstances.

Amendment No. 964.

AN ACT relating to crimes; establishing the crime of unlawful dissemination of an intimate image of a person; prohibiting certain acts relating to an intimate image of another person; revising provisions relating to sexual assault and the abuse of a child; setting forth provisions relating to expert testimony in a prosecution for pandering or sex trafficking; revising provisions concerning acts of open or gross lewdness, open and indecent or obscene exposure, lewdness with a child and statutory sexual seduction; setting forth various provisions relating to the admissibility of evidence and expert testimony in criminal and juvenile delinquency actions; prohibiting a court from ordering the victim of or a witness to a sexual offense to take or submit to a psychological or psychiatric examination in certain criminal or juvenile delinquency actions; authorizing the court to exclude in certain circumstances the testimony of a licensed psychologist, psychiatrist or clinical worker; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 1-6.5 of this bill establish the crime of unlawful dissemination of an intimate image of a person. Section 3 defines the term "intimate image" generally as a photograph, film, videotape or other recorded image, or any reproduction thereof, which depicts: (1) the fully exposed nipple of the female breast of another person; or (2) one or more persons engaged in sexual conduct. Section 3 also provides that an image which would otherwise constitute an intimate image is not an intimate image if the person depicted in the image: (1) is not clearly identifiable; (2) voluntarily exposed himself or herself in a public or commercial setting; or (3) is a public figure.

Section 5 provides that a person commits the crime of unlawful dissemination of an intimate image and is guilty of a category D felony when, with the intent to harass, harm or terrorize another person, the person electronically disseminates or sells an intimate image which depicts the other person and the other person: (1) did not give prior consent to the electronic dissemination or sale; (2) had a reasonable expectation that the intimate image would be kept private and would not be made visible to the public; and (3) was at least 18 years of age when the intimate image was created. Section 5 also sets forth certain exceptions regarding when an intimate image may be lawfully electronically disseminated. Under section 6, a person is guilty of a category D felony if he or she demands payment of money, property, services or anything else of value from a person in exchange for removing an intimate image from public view. Section 6.5 provides that the provisions of sections 1-6 must not be construed to impose liability on an interactive computer service, as that term is defined in federal law, for any content provided by another person.

Existing law provides that a person who forces another person under certain circumstances to make a sexual penetration on himself or herself or another, or on a beast, is guilty of sexual assault. (NRS 200.366) Section 8 of this bill additionally provides that a person who commits a sexual penetration upon a child under the age of 14 years or causes a child under the age of 14 years to make a sexual penetration on himself or herself or another, or on a beast, is guilty of sexual assault. Section 8 further provides that, except in certain circumstances, such provisions do not apply to a person who commits any such act upon a child under the age of 14 years if the person committing the act is less than 18 years of age and is not more than 2 years older than the person upon whom the act is committed.

Existing law also provides that a person who commits any act of open or gross lewdness or who makes any open and indecent or obscene exposure of his or her person, or of the person of another, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor for the first offense and a category D felony for any subsequent offense. (NRS 201.210, 201.220) Under sections 13 and 14 of this bill, if a person commits any such offense and he or she has previously been convicted of a sexual offense, or if the person commits any such offense in the presence of a child under the age of 18 years or a vulnerable person, the person is guilty of a category D felony.

Additionally, under existing law, a person who commits certain acts with a child under the age of 14 years is guilty of lewdness with a child and is guilty of a category A felony. Sections 12, 23 and 24 of this bill revise various provisions relating to the admissibility of expert testimony and evidence in certain criminal and juvenile delinquency cases. Section 12 provides that in a prosecution for pandering or sex trafficking, certain expert testimony that is offered by the prosecution or defense is admissible for any relevant purpose, but certain other expert testimony cannot be offered against the defendant to prove the occurrence of an act which forms the basis of a criminal charge against the defendant. Under section 23, expert testimony offered by the prosecution or defense which concerns the behavior of a defendant in preparing a child under the age of 18 or a vulnerable person for sexual abuse by the defendant is admissible for any purpose. Section 24 prohibits a court in a criminal or juvenile delinquency action relating to the commission of a sexual offense from ordering a victim of or witness to a sexual offense to take or submit to a psychological or psychiatric examination. Section 24 also authorizes the court to exclude the testimony of a licensed psychologist, psychiatrist or clinical worker who performed a psychological or psychiatric examination on a victim or witness in certain circumstances.

Assemblyman Hansen moved that the Assembly concur in Senate Amendment No. 964 to Assembly Bill No. 49.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

Assembly Bill No. 50.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 729.

AN ACT relating to solicitation of contributions; requiring certain charitable organizations to register with the Secretary of State before soliciting charitable contributions in this State; requiring the Secretary of State to provide to the public certain information concerning such registered charitable organizations; revising provisions governing the enforcement of certain requirements imposed on certain nonprofit and charitable organizations; revising provisions governing the disclosure of certain information in a solicitation for contributions for or on behalf of a nonprofit or charitable organization; authorizing the imposition of penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law governs the solicitation of charitable contributions within the State by nonprofit corporations. (NRS 82.382-82.417) Section 27 of this bill repeals those provisions of existing law. Sections 2-22 of this bill reenact and revise those repealed sections to provide governance of the solicitation of charitable and other contributions by all charitable organizations and nonprofit organizations in this State.

Section 14 requires every charitable organization that intends to solicit tax-deductible charitable contributions in this State, other than certain types of charitable organizations exempted by section 15, to register with the Secretary of State by filing certain information and a financial report with the Secretary of State before the charitable organization first solicits a charitable contribution in this State or has a charitable contribution solicited in this State on its behalf by another person and annually thereafter. In certain circumstances, section 14 authorizes a charitable organization to submit a copy of its Form 990 as filed with the Internal Revenue Service for the most recent fiscal year as its financial report. Section 18 requires the Secretary of State to make available the information and financial report on the Secretary of State's Internet website.

Section 19 provides that if a charitable organization fails to file the information and financial report as required for registration on or before the due date, the Secretary of State will impose a $50 penalty and notify the organization. If the charitable organization fails to file the information and financial report and pay the penalty within 90 days after receiving notice, section 19 further authorizes the Secretary of State to impose a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 and issue a cease and desist order prohibiting any further solicitation of contributions by the organization. If the charitable organization fails to pay the penalty or comply with the cease and desist order, section 19 authorizes the Secretary of State to: (1) forfeit the right of the charitable organization to transact business in this State; and (2) refer the matter to the Attorney General for a determination of whether to institute the appropriate proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 20 requires the Secretary of State to provide written notice to a person who is alleged to have violated certain provisions of law governing the solicitation of charitable contributions if the Secretary of State believes such a violation has occurred. Section 20 further authorizes the Secretary of State to refer a violation of certain provisions of law governing the solicitation of charitable contributions to the Attorney General for a determination of whether to institute the appropriate proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction. Under section 20, in such a proceeding, in addition to any other penalty imposed by law, the Attorney General may seek an injunction or other equitable relief and a civil penalty of not more than $1,000. If the Attorney General prevails in the proceeding, the Attorney General is entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding, including, without limitation, investigation costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Existing law requires a person soliciting a contribution for or on behalf of a charitable organization or nonprofit corporation to make certain disclosures, and provides that under certain circumstances, a failure to make such disclosures is a deceptive trade practice. (NRS 598.1305) Sections 16 and 17 revise the types of charitable and nonprofit organizations to which this requirement applies and exempt certain solicitations from this requirement. Sections 16 and 25 further provide that a failure to make the required disclosures is no longer a deceptive trade practice, and transfer primary jurisdiction for enforcing the disclosure requirement from the Attorney General to the Secretary of State.

Assembly Bill No. 51.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 844.

AN ACT relating to securities; requiring broker-dealers and investment advisers to provide training to certain persons concerning identifying the suspected exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person; requiring certain persons who work for broker-dealers and investment advisers to report the suspected or known exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person; authorizing the Administrator of the Securities Division of the Office of the Secretary of State to adopt regulations relating to the federal Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law establishes the Uniform Securities Act which sets forth provisions governing the sale and purchase of securities in this State in a manner consistent with federal laws and regulations. (Chapter 90 of NRS) Sections 9.2-9.9 of this bill require broker-dealers and investment advisers to provide training to certain persons concerning the identification and reporting of suspected exploitation of older persons and vulnerable persons. "Older person" is defined in existing law as a person who is 60 years of age or older. "Vulnerable person" is defined in existing law as a person who is 18 years of age or older who: (1) suffers from a condition of physical or mental incapacitation because of a developmental disability, organic brain damage or mental illness; or (2) has one or more physical or mental limitations that restrict the ability of the person to perform the normal activities of daily living. (NRS 200.5092) Section 9.8 specifies which sales representatives, representatives of an investment adviser and officers and employees of broker-dealers or investment advisers must receive the training, when the training must be provided and the content of the training. Section 9.8 further requires those persons to report incidents that reasonably appear to be exploitation of an older person or vulnerable person. Section 9.9 requires each broker-dealer and investment adviser to designate a person to whom such reports must be made. The person so designated is then responsible for determining when a formal report must be reported to the appropriate agency.

Existing law authorizes the imposition or granting of certain actions and penalties against a person who has violated any provision of state law or a regulation or order of the Administrator of the Securities Division of the Office of the Secretary of State relating to securities, including civil penalties, restitution and costs of investigation and prosecution of such a violation. (NRS 90.630, 90.640, 90.650) Sections 11-13 of this bill revise those provisions to include, if the violation was committed against an older person or vulnerable person, the imposition or granting of civil penalties, restitution and costs of investigation and prosecution in amounts equal to twice the amounts that would otherwise have been imposed or granted.

Section 10 of this bill authorizes the Administrator to adopt regulations consistent with the federal Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act (Pub. L. No. 112-106), including regulations relating to the creation and oversight of funding portals for the purchase of securities.

Sec. 11. NRS 90.630 is hereby amended to read as follows:

90.630 1. If the Administrator reasonably believes, whether or not based upon an investigation conducted under NRS 90.620, that:

(b) A person is acting as a broker-dealer or investment adviser in violation of NRS 90.310 or 90.330,

➥ the Administrator, in addition to any specific power granted under this chapter and subject to compliance with the requirements of NRS 90.820, may issue, without a prior hearing, a summary order against the person engaged in the prohibited activities, directing the person to desist and refrain from further activity until the security is registered or the person is licensed under this chapter. The summary order to cease and desist must state the section of this chapter or regulation or order of the Administrator under this chapter which the Administrator reasonably believes has been or is being violated.

2. If the Administrator reasonably believes, whether or not based upon an investigation conducted under NRS 90.620, that a person has violated this chapter or a regulation or order of the Administrator under this chapter, the Administrator, in addition to any specific power granted under this chapter, after giving notice by registered or certified mail and conducting a hearing in an administrative proceeding, unless the right to notice and hearing is waived by the person against whom the sanction is imposed, may:

(a) If the Administrator revokes the license of a broker-dealer, sales representative, investment adviser or representative of an investment adviser or bars a person from association with a licensed broker-dealer or investment adviser under this section or NRS 90.420, the imposition of that sanction precludes imposition of a civil penalty under subsection 2; and

(b) The imposition by the Administrator of one or more sanctions under subsection 2 with respect to a specific violation precludes the Administrator from later imposing any other sanctions under paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of subsection 2 with respect to the violation.

5. For the purposes of determining any sanction to be imposed pursuant to paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of subsection 2, the Administrator shall consider, among other factors, the frequency and persistence of the conduct constituting a violation of this chapter, or a regulation or order of the Administrator under this chapter, the number of persons adversely affected by the conduct and the resources of the person committing the violation.

6. If a sanction is imposed pursuant to this section, reimbursement for the costs of the proceeding, including investigative costs and attorney's fees incurred, may be ordered and recovered by the Administrator. Sec. 14. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2015.

Assemblyman Hansen moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate Amendment No. 844 to Assembly Bill No. 51.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

Assembly Bill No. 67.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 728.

AN ACT relating to public safety; revising provisions governing the admission into evidence of certain affidavits and declarations in certain criminal proceedings; specifying certain conditions under which a person is deemed not to be in actual physical control of a vehicle; revising provisions governing the administration of certain tests for the presence of alcohol, controlled substances and prohibited substances; revising provisions concerning the revocation of a license, permit or privilege to drive; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law makes it unlawful for a person to drive, operate or be in actual physical control of a vehicle or vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or both. (NRS 484C.110, 484C.120, 488.410) Sections 9.3 and 20 of this bill define the term "under the influence" for the purposes of existing law relating to driving, operating or being in actual physical control of a vehicle or vessel while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or both. Section 9.5 of this bill provides that a person shall be deemed not to be in actual physical control of a vehicle if: (1) the person is asleep inside the vehicle; ~~[and]~~ (2) the person is not in the driver's seat of the vehicle; (3) the engine of the vehicle is not running; (4) the vehicle is lawfully parked ~~[.]~~ ; and (5) under the facts presented, it is evident that the person could not have driven the vehicle to the location while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, a controlled substance or a prohibited substance.

Existing law allows the affidavits and declarations of certain persons to be admitted as evidence during a criminal proceeding to prove certain facts relating to the testing of the blood, breath or urine of a defendant to determine the presence or concentration of alcohol or certain other substances. In a felony trial, if the defendant objects in writing to the admission of such affidavits or declarations, the court must not admit the affidavit or declaration into evidence and the prosecution may cause the witness to testify at trial concerning the information contained in the affidavit or declaration. A defendant in a misdemeanor trial, however, must also establish that: (1) there is a substantial and bona fide dispute between the prosecution and the defense regarding the facts in the declaration; and (2) it is in the best interests of justice that the witness who signed the affidavit or declaration be cross-examined. (NRS 50.315) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the additional requirements imposed on a misdemeanor defendant under existing law violate a defendant's constitutional right to confront the witnesses against him or her and are therefore unconstitutional. (City of Reno v. Howard, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 12, 318 P.3d 1063 (2014))

Section 1 of this bill eliminates the constitutional defect identified by the Nevada Supreme Court and provides instead that an affidavit or declaration must not be admitted as evidence during a misdemeanor trial to prove certain facts relating to the testing of the blood, breath or urine of a defendant to determine the presence or concentration of alcohol or certain other substances if, not later than 10 days before the date set for trial or such shorter time before the date set for trial as authorized by the court, the defendant objects in writing to the admission of the affidavit or declaration. Under section 1, if the affidavit or declaration is not admitted into evidence, the prosecution may produce the witness to provide testimony at trial concerning the information contained in the affidavit or declaration at trial.

Under existing law, a person who drives a vehicle in this State is deemed to have given his or her consent to an evidentiary test of his or her blood, urine, breath or other bodily substance to determine the concentration of alcohol in his or her blood or breath or to determine whether a controlled substance, chemical, poison, organic solvent or another prohibited substance is present. If a person who has thus given his or her "implied consent" to an evidentiary test refuses to submit to the test when directed to do so by a police officer who has reason to believe that the person was driving a vehicle or operating a vessel while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, existing law authorizes the police officer to direct that reasonable force be used to obtain a sample of blood from the person to be tested. (NRS 484C.160) The Nevada Supreme Court has held that the consent implied by a person's decision to drive in this State is not voluntary consent to an evidentiary blood test and, thus, existing laws that allow a police officer to obtain a blood sample from a person without a warrant and without voluntary consent are unconstitutional. (Byars v. State, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. No. 85, 336 P.3d 939 (2014))

Sections 12 and 14 of this bill eliminate the constitutional defect identified by the Nevada Supreme Court and provide instead that if a person refuses to submit to an evidentiary blood test at the request of a police officer: (1) the officer may apply for a warrant or other court order directing the use of reasonable force to obtain the blood sample; and (2) the person's driver's license must be revoked for a certain period. Section 14 further authorizes the revocation of a person's license, permit or privilege to drive if an evidentiary test reveals the presence of a detectable amount of a controlled substance or prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine for which he or she did not have a valid prescription or hold a valid registry identification card. Sections 15 and 16 of this bill make corresponding revisions to provisions of existing law which establish the procedure for effecting such a revocation and provide for an administrative hearing to challenge such a revocation. Section 25 of this bill makes comparable changes to existing law concerning the evidentiary tests of persons who operate or exercise actual physical control over vessels on the waters of this State. Section 5 of this bill makes comparable changes to existing law concerning evidentiary tests of persons who have actual physical possession of a firearm.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 50.315 is hereby amended to read as follows:

50.315 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 6 and 7, the affidavit or declaration of a person is admissible in evidence in any criminal or administrative proceeding to prove:

(a) That the affiant or declarant has been certified by the Director of the Department of Public Safety as being competent to operate devices of a type certified by the Committee on Testing for Intoxication as accurate and reliable for testing a person's breath to determine the concentration of alcohol in his or her breath;

(b) The identity of a person from whom the affiant or declarant obtained a sample of breath; and

(c) That the affiant or declarant tested the sample using a device of a type so certified and that the device was functioning properly.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 6 and 7, the affidavit or declaration of a person who has examined a prepared chemical solution or gas that has been used in calibrating, or verifying the calibration of, a device for testing another's breath to determine the concentration of alcohol in his or her breath is admissible in evidence in any criminal or administrative proceeding to prove:

(a) The occupation of the affiant or declarant; and

(b) That the solution or gas has the chemical composition necessary for use in accurately calibrating, or verifying the calibration of, the device.

3. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 6 and 7, the affidavit or declaration of a person who calibrates a device for testing another's breath to determine the concentration of alcohol in his or her breath is admissible in evidence in any criminal or administrative proceeding to prove:

(a) The occupation of the affiant or declarant;

(b) That on a specified date the affiant or declarant calibrated the device at a named law enforcement agency by using the procedures and equipment prescribed in the regulations of the Committee on Testing for Intoxication;

(c) That the calibration was performed within the period required by the Committee's regulations; and

(d) Upon completing the calibration of the device, it was operating properly.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 6 and 7, the affidavit or declaration made under the penalty of perjury of a person who withdraws a sample of blood from another for analysis by an expert as set forth in NRS 50.320 is admissible in any criminal or administrative proceeding to prove:

(a) The occupation of the affiant or declarant;

(b) The identity of the person from whom the affiant or declarant withdrew the sample;

(c) The fact that the affiant or declarant kept the sample in his or her sole custody or control and in substantially the same condition as when he or she first obtained it until delivering it to another; and

(d) The identity of the person to whom the affiant or declarant delivered it.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 6 and 7, the affidavit or declaration of a person who receives from another a sample of blood or urine or other tangible evidence that is alleged to contain alcohol or a controlled substance, chemical, poison, organic solvent or another prohibited substance may be admitted in any criminal or civil or administrative proceeding to prove:

(a) The occupation of the affiant or declarant;

(b) The fact that the affiant or declarant received a sample or other evidence from another person and kept it in his or her sole custody or control in substantially the same condition as when he or she first received it until delivering it to another; and

(c) The identity of the person to whom the affiant or declarant delivered it.

6. If, ~~[~~at or before the time of trial,~~]~~ not later than 10 days before the date set for trial or such shorter time before the date set for trial as authorized by the court, the defendant ~~[~~establishes that:

~~(a) There is a substantial and bona fide dispute regarding the facts in the affidavit or declaration; and~~

~~(b) It is in the best interests of justice that the witness who signed the affidavit or declaration be cross-examined,~~] objects in writing to admitting into evidence the affidavit or declaration,

[~~➥~~] the court shall not admit the affidavit or declaration into evidence and may order the prosecution to produce the witness and may continue the trial for any time the court deems reasonably necessary to receive such testimony. The time within which a trial is required is extended by the time of the continuance.

7. During any trial in which the defendant has been accused of committing a felony, the defendant may object in writing to admitting into evidence an affidavit or declaration described in this section. If the defendant makes such an objection, the court shall not admit the affidavit or declaration into evidence and the prosecution may cause the person to testify to any information contained in the affidavit or declaration.

8. The Committee on Testing for Intoxication shall adopt regulations prescribing the form of the affidavits and declarations described in this section.

(b) Is under the influence of any controlled substance, or is under the combined influence of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, or any person who inhales, ingests, applies or otherwise uses any chemical, poison or organic solvent, or any compound or combination of any of these, to a degree which renders him or her incapable of safely exercising actual physical control of a firearm,

If a person to be tested fails to submit to a required test as [~~directed~~] requested by a police officer, the officer may [~~direct~~] apply for a warrant or court order directing that reasonable force be used to the extent necessary to obtain the samples of blood from the person to be tested, if the officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person to be tested was in violation of this section.

3. Any person who violates the provisions of subsection 1 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

4. A firearm is subject to forfeiture pursuant to NRS 179.1156 to 179.119, inclusive, only if, during the violation of subsection 1, the firearm is brandished, aimed or otherwise handled by the person in a manner which endangered others.

Sec. 13. NRS 484C.200 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484C.200 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an evidentiary test of breath to determine the concentration of alcohol in a person's breath may be used to establish that concentration only if two consecutive samples of the person's breath are taken and:

(a) The difference between the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath indicated by the two samples is less than or equal to 0.02;

(b) If the provisions of paragraph (a) do not apply, a third evidentiary test of breath is administered and the difference between the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath indicated by the third sample and one of the first two samples is less than or equal to 0.02; or

(c) If the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply, a fourth evidentiary test is administered. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 484C.160, the fourth evidentiary test must be a blood test.

2. If the person fails to provide the second or third consecutive sample, or to submit to the fourth evidentiary test, the results of the first test may be used alone as evidence of the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath. If for some other reason a second, third or fourth sample is not obtained, the results of the first test may be used with all other evidence presented to establish the concentration.

3. If a person refuses or otherwise fails to provide a second or third consecutive sample or submit to a fourth evidentiary test, ~~[a police officer may direct that reasonable force be used to obtain a sample or conduct a test pursuant to]~~ such refusal or failure constitutes a failure to submit to a required test as provided in NRS 484C.160.

Sec. 14. NRS 484C.210 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484C.210 1. If a person fails to submit to an evidentiary test as requested by a police officer pursuant to NRS 484C.160, the license, permit or privilege to drive of the person must be revoked as provided in NRS 484C.220, and the person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive for a period of:

(a) One year; or

(b) Three years, if the license, permit or privilege to drive of the person has been revoked during the immediately preceding 7 years for failure to submit to an evidentiary test.

2. If the result of a test given under NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160 shows that a person had a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or a detectable amount of a controlled substance or prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine for which he or she did not have a valid prescription, as defined in NRS 453.128, or hold a valid registry identification card, as defined in NRS 453A.140, at the time of the test, the license, permit or privilege of the person to drive must be revoked as provided in NRS 484C.220 and the person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege for a period of 90 days.

~~[2.]~~ 3. If a revocation of a person's license, permit or privilege to drive under NRS 62E.640 or 483.460 follows a revocation under subsection ~~[1]~~ 2 which was based on the person having a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath, the Department shall cancel the revocation under that subsection and give the person credit for any period during which the person was not eligible for a license, permit or privilege.

~~[3.]~~ 4. Periods of ineligibility for a license, permit or privilege to drive which are imposed pursuant to this section must run consecutively.

Sec. 15. NRS 484C.220 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484C.220 1. As agent for the Department, the officer who requested that a test be given pursuant to NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160 or who obtained the result of a test given pursuant to NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160 shall immediately serve an order of revocation of the license, permit or privilege to drive on a person who failed to submit to a test requested by the police officer pursuant to NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160 or who has a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or has a detectable amount of a controlled substance or prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine ~~[,]~~ for which he or she did not have a valid prescription, as defined in NRS 453.128, or hold a valid registry identification card, as defined in NRS 453A.140, if that person is present, and shall seize the license or permit to drive of the person. The officer shall then , unless the information is expressly set forth in the order of revocation, advise the person of his or her right to administrative and judicial review of the revocation pursuant to NRS 484C.230 and, except as otherwise provided in this subsection, that the person has a right to request a temporary license. If the person currently is driving with a temporary license that was issued pursuant to this section or NRS 484C.230, the person is not entitled to request an additional temporary license pursuant to this section or NRS 484C.230, and the order of revocation issued by the officer must revoke the temporary license that was previously issued. If the person is entitled to request a temporary license, the officer shall issue the person a temporary license on a form approved by the Department if the person requests one, which is effective for only 7 days including the date of issuance. The officer shall immediately transmit the person's license or permit to the Department along with the written certificate required by subsection 2.

2. When a police officer has served an order of revocation of a driver's license, permit or privilege on a person pursuant to subsection 1, or later receives the result of an evidentiary test which indicates that a person, not then present, had a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or had a detectable amount of a controlled substance or prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine ~~[,]~~ for which he or she did not have a valid prescription, as defined in NRS 453.128, or hold a valid registry identification card, as defined in NRS 453A.140, the officer shall immediately prepare and transmit to the Department, together with the seized license or permit and a copy of the result of the test, if any, a written certificate that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had been driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle ~~[with]~~ ***:

(a) With a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or with a detectable amount of a controlled substance or prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine ~~[.]~~ for which he or she did not have a valid prescription, as defined in NRS 453.128, or hold a valid registry identification card, as defined in NRS 453A.140, as determined by a chemical test ~~[.]~~ ; or

(b) While under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance or with a prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine and the person refused to submit to a required evidentiary test.

➥ The certificate must also indicate whether the officer served an order of revocation on the person and whether the officer issued the person a temporary license.

3. The Department, upon receipt of such a certificate for which an order of revocation has not been served, after examining the certificate and copy of the result of the chemical test, if any, and finding that revocation is proper, shall issue an order revoking the person's license, permit or privilege to drive by mailing the order to the person at the person's last known address. The order must indicate the grounds for the revocation and the period during which the person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive and state that the person has a right to administrative and judicial review of the revocation and to have a temporary license. The order of revocation becomes effective 5 days after mailing.

4. Notice of an order of revocation and notice of the affirmation of a prior order of revocation or the cancellation of a temporary license provided in NRS 484C.230 is sufficient if it is mailed to the person's last known address as shown by any application for a license. The date of mailing may be proved by the certificate of any officer or employee of the Department, specifying the time of mailing the notice. The notice is presumed to have been received upon the expiration of 5 days after it is deposited, postage prepaid, in the United States mail.

Sec. 16. NRS 484C.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484C.230 1. At any time while a person is not eligible for a license, permit or privilege to drive following an order of revocation issued pursuant to NRS 484C.220, the person may request in writing a hearing by the Department to review the order of revocation, but the person is only entitled to one hearing. The hearing must be conducted ~~[within 15 days after receipt of the request, or]~~ as soon ~~[thereafter]~~ as is practicable ~~[, in the county where the requester resides unless the parties agree otherwise.]~~ at any location, if the hearing officer permits each party and witness to attend the hearing by telephone, videoconference or other electronic means. The Director or agent of the Director may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers and may require a reexamination of the requester. Unless the person is ineligible for a temporary license pursuant to NRS 484C.220, the Department shall issue an additional temporary license for a period which is sufficient to complete the administrative review.

2. The scope of the hearing must be limited to the issue of whether the person ~~[, at]~~ ***:

(a) Failed to submit to a required test provided for in NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160; or

(b) At the time of the test, had a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or more in his or her blood or breath or a detectable amount of a controlled substance or prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine ~~[.]~~ for which he or she did not have a valid prescription, as defined in NRS 453.128, or hold a valid registry identification card, as defined in NRS 453A.140.

➥ Upon an affirmative finding on ~~[this]~~ either issue, the Department shall affirm the order of revocation. Otherwise, the order of revocation must be rescinded.

3. If, after the hearing, the order of revocation is affirmed, the person whose license, privilege or permit has been revoked is entitled to a review of the same issues in district court in the same manner as provided by chapter 233B of NRS. The court shall notify the Department upon the issuance of a stay, and the Department shall issue an additional temporary license for a period which is sufficient to complete the review.

4. If a hearing officer grants a continuance of a hearing at the request of the person whose license was revoked, or a court does so after issuing a stay of the revocation, the officer or court shall notify the Department, and the Department shall cancel the temporary license and notify the holder by mailing the order of cancellation to the person's last known address.

Sec. 17. NRS 484C.240 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484C.240 1. If a person refuses to submit to a required chemical test provided for in NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160, evidence of that refusal is admissible in any criminal or administrative action arising out of acts alleged to have been committed while the person was:

(a) Driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance ~~[;]~~ or with a prohibited substance in his or her blood or urine; or

(b) Engaging in any other conduct prohibited by NRS 484C.110, 484C.120, 484C.130 or 484C.430.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of NRS 484C.150, a court or hearing officer may not exclude evidence of a required test or failure to submit to such a test if the police officer or other person substantially complied with the provisions of NRS 484C.150 to 484C.250, inclusive, and 484C.600 to 484C.640, inclusive.

3. If a person submits to a chemical test provided for in NRS 484C.150 or 484C.160, full information concerning that test must be made available, upon request of the person, to the person or his or her attorney.

4. Evidence of a required test is not admissible in a criminal or administrative proceeding unless it is shown by documentary or other evidence that the law enforcement agency calibrated the breath-testing device and otherwise maintained it as required by the regulations of the Committee on Testing for Intoxication.

Sec. 18. NRS 484C.250 is hereby amended to read as follows:

484C.250 1. Assembly Bill No. 69.

Amendment No. 748.

AN ACT relating to courts; revising provisions governing the recycling of paper and paper products by courts; revising provisions governing the duties of court clerks and justices of the peace in relation to the fees charged by those officials; revising provisions governing the collection and reporting of certain statistical information by district courts, justice courts and municipal courts; changing the term "county clerk" to "clerk of the court" in certain statutes relating to the fees charged by clerks of the district courts; removing provisions requiring courts to provide to the Court Administrator certain orders relating to bail forfeitures; repealing provisions governing an offer of judgment; repealing the requirement that the Nevada Supreme Court decide an appeal from a judgment imposing the death penalty within a certain period; repealing provisions governing the selection of panels of jurors by boards of county commissioners; revising various other provisions relating to court administration; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires courts, the Legislative Counsel Bureau, state agencies, school districts and the Nevada System of Higher Education to recycle paper and paper products unless a waiver is granted because the cost of recycling is unreasonable or would place an undue burden on the entity. (NRS 1.115, 218F.310, 232.007, 386.4159, 396.437) To obtain such a waiver: (1) the Nevada Supreme Court must apply to the Interim Finance Committee; (2) a district court or justice court must apply to the board of county commissioners of the county in which the court is located; and (3) a municipal court must apply to the governing body of the city in which it is located. (NRS 1.115) Section 1 of this bill removes existing provisions regarding a waiver of the requirement for courts to recycle and, instead, requires courts to recycle to the extent reasonably possible.

Existing law requires the Clerk of the Supreme Court to post in a conspicuous place in his or her office a table of the fees charged by the Clerk. (NRS 2.250) Section 2 of this bill requires the table of fees to be posted by conventional or electronic means and requires the table of fees to be posted on the Internet website of the Clerk.

Existing law requires district courts, justice courts and municipal courts to submit to the Court Administrator a report of statistical information concerning the workload of those courts. (NRS 3.243, 4.175, 5.045) Existing law further requires the clerk of a district court to obtain and file certain information concerning the nature of each criminal and civil case filed with the court. (NRS 3.275) Sections 3, 4, 8 and 10 of this bill amend these provisions to require district courts, justice courts and municipal courts to submit a report of statistical information to the Court Administrator pursuant to the uniform system for collecting and compiling statistical information concerning the State Court System which is prescribed by the Supreme Court.

Existing law requires each justice of the peace to charge and collect certain fees and to pay those fees to the county treasurer not later than the first Monday of each month. (NRS 4.063, 4.065, 4.071) Sections 4.2, 4.4 and 4.6 of this bill require that the fees be paid on or before the fifth day of the month. Under existing law, a justice of the peace is required to pay to the county treasurer the amount of each fine that is paid or bail that is forfeited within 30 days after such payment or forfeiture. (NRS 176.285) Section 35.5 of this bill requires such payments to be made on or before the fifth day of the month immediately following the month in which the fine is paid or the bail forfeited.

Existing law contains various provisions governing the fees charged by justices of the peace and clerks of the district court and imposes certain penalties for the failure to comply with these provisions. (NRS 4.080-4.140, 19.040-19.110) Sections 5 and 31 of this bill specifically authorize justices of the peace and clerks of the district courts to maintain in electronic format the fee book required by existing law. Sections 6 and 32 of this bill require justices of the peace and clerks of the district courts to submit to the county official designated by the board of county commissioners a monthly financial statement of the fees collected by them rather than a quarterly financial statement. Sections 7 and 27 of this bill require justices of the peace and clerks of the district courts to post tables of fees: (1) by conventional or electronic means in their offices; and (2) on their Internet websites. Section 9 of this bill specifically authorizes a justice of the peace to keep his or her docket in written or electronic format.

Existing law authorizes jurors to be selected by a jury commissioner designated by the district court or, in counties where there is no jury commissioner, by the board of county commissioners. (NRS 6.045-6.090) Sections 11 and 41 of this bill remove provisions relating to the selection of jurors by a board of county commissioners.

Under existing law, county clerks are ex officio clerks of the district court in and for their counties. (Nev. Const. Art. 4, § 32; NRS 3.250, 246.060) The Nevada Supreme Court has ruled that "[a] district court may exercise control over the court clerk's office either directly, by assuming all or part of the court clerk's functions, or indirectly, by supervising the county clerk in the performance of his or her duties as the ex officio court clerk." (State ex rel. Harvey v. Second Jud. Dist. Ct., 117 Nev. 754, 772 (2001)) Sections 12-33 and 35 of this bill change the term "county clerk" to "clerk of the court" in various statutes relating to the fees charged for the filing of certain documents in the district court and other services provided by the clerk of a district court.

Under existing law, a person may register an order for protection against domestic violence issued by a court in another state by presenting a certified copy of the order to the clerk of the court in a judicial district in which the person believes that enforcement may be necessary. (NRS 33.090) Section 34 of this bill: (1) provides that such an order may be registered in a court of competent jurisdiction in the judicial district in which the person believes that enforcement may be necessary; and (2) authorizes a copy of such an order to be forwarded by conventional or electronic means to the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Existing law requires a court, upon entering an order of probation or suspension of sentence, to direct the clerk of the court to certify a copy of the records in the case and deliver a copy of the records in the case to the Chief Parole and Probation Officer. (NRS 176A.220) Section 36 of this bill removes the requirement that the clerk certify a copy of the records and authorizes the clerk to deliver the records to the Chief in writing, by electronic means or by affording the Chief access to an electronic system necessary to retrieve the records.

Sections 37-40 of this bill remove provisions of existing law which require a court to provide to the Court Administrator a copy of: (1) an order of bail forfeiture; (2) an order exonerating a surety of a bail bond; and (3) an order setting aside a bail forfeiture. (NRS 178.508, 178.509, 178.512, 178.514)

Section 41 removes certain provisions of existing law, including provisions: (1) requiring the Clerk of the Supreme Court to publish a list of certain cases in a newspaper; (2) governing an offer of judgment; (3) establishing penalties for justices of the peace and county clerks who fail to perform certain duties; ~~[(3)]~~ (4) requiring justices of the peace to keep records of certain traffic violations; and ~~[(4)]~~ (5) requiring the Nevada Supreme Court to decide an appeal from a judgment imposing the death penalty within a certain period.

Assemblyman Hansen moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate Amendment No. 748 to Assembly Bill No. 69.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

Assembly Bill No. 113.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 709.

AN ACT relating to juvenile justice; revising provisions governing the sealing of juvenile records; setting forth factors that the juvenile court may consider in determining whether a child has been rehabilitated to the satisfaction of the juvenile court; providing that certain portions of juvenile records relating to certain civil judgments must not be sealed until the judgment is satisfied or expires; including the Chief of the Youth Parole Bureau of the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services as a person entitled to notification of the filing of a petition for the sealing of juvenile records and authorized to testify at a hearing on the petition if the circumstances warrant; revising the circumstances in which the juvenile court may order the inspection of sealed juvenile records; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, if a child is less than 21 years of age, the child or a probation officer on behalf of the child may petition the juvenile court for an order sealing all records relating to the child. (NRS 62H.130) Section 1 of this bill revises the requirements for such a petition to be filed. Existing law also provides that the juvenile court shall enter an order sealing all records relating to a child if the juvenile court finds that: (1) during the previous 3 years, the child has not been convicted of a felony or of any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; and (2) the child has been rehabilitated to the satisfaction of the juvenile court. (NRS 62H.130) Section 1 instead provides that if the juvenile court makes such findings, then the juvenile court: (1) may enter an order sealing all records relating to the child if the child is less than 18 years of age; and (2) shall enter an order sealing all records relating to the child if the child is 18 years of age or older. Section 1 also: (1) sets forth various factors that the juvenile court may consider in determining whether a child has been rehabilitated to the satisfaction of the juvenile court; and (2) provides that if the juvenile court retains jurisdiction over a civil judgment and a person against whom the civil judgment was entered, the case caption, case number and order entering the civil judgment must not be sealed until the civil judgment is satisfied or expires.

Existing law requires the juvenile court to notify the district attorney and, in certain circumstances, the chief probation officer, if a petition is filed to seal juvenile records. Additionally, the district attorney and the chief probation officer, any of their deputies or any other person who has evidence that is relevant to consideration of the petition is authorized to testify at the hearing on the petition. (NRS 62H.130, 62H.150) Sections 1 and 3 of this bill include the Chief of the Youth Parole Bureau of the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services as a person who, if the circumstances warrant, is entitled to notification of the filing of a petition for the sealing of juvenile records and is authorized to testify at a hearing on the petition.

Existing law further provides that the juvenile court may order the inspection of juvenile records that are sealed in certain circumstances, including if the juvenile court determines that the inspection of the records is necessary to perform bona fide outcome and recidivism studies. (NRS 62H.170) Section 4 of this bill: (1) adds to these circumstances the situation in which the person who is the subject of the records has committed an act which subjects the person to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and which may form the basis of a civil action and a person who, in good faith, intends to bring or has brought the civil action, or any other person who is a party to the civil action, petitions the juvenile court to permit inspection of the records to obtain information relating to the person who is the subject of the records; and (2) specifies that performing bona fide outcome and recidivism studies may include using personal identifying information from sealed juvenile records to perform criminal background checks on persons who were adjudicated pursuant to title 5 of NRS.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill enacts a juvenile competency standard. Section 3 of this bill provides that any time after a petition is filed and before the final disposition of a case, if doubt arises as to whether a child is competent, the juvenile court is required to suspend the case until the question of competence is determined. Section 4 of this bill requires a person who makes a motion for the evaluation of a child for the purpose of determining whether the child is competent to: (1) certify that the motion is being made in good faith and is based on reasonable grounds to believe that the child is incompetent; and (2) specify facts that support the motion. Section 5 of this bill provides that if the juvenile court suspends a case to determine whether a child is competent, the juvenile court must appoint one or more able and qualified experts, at least one of whom is a psychologist or psychiatrist, to evaluate the child and provide a written report on the competence of the child. Section 6 of this bill sets forth certain considerations an expert must take into account as part of his or her evaluation, as well as certain other considerations an expert must take into account if appropriate, and section 7 of this bill sets forth certain requirements relating to the written report of an expert.

Section 8 of this bill requires the juvenile court to hold an expedited hearing to determine whether a child is competent upon receipt of the required written reports from all experts appointed by the juvenile court. Section 9 of this bill authorizes the juvenile court to consider information relevant to the determination of the competence of a child and information elicited from the child only for certain purposes. Section 9 also provides that any statement made by a child during the course of an evaluation by an expert appointed by the juvenile court is not admissible as evidence: (1) on the issue of guilt in a delinquency proceeding, unless the child introduces the statement as evidence on the issue of guilt first; or (2) in any criminal proceeding, unless the child introduces the statement as evidence first. Under section 10 of this bill, after the juvenile court considers the written reports of the appointed experts, any additional written reports, and testimony and other evidence presented at the hearing, the juvenile court must determine whether the child is competent. If the juvenile court determines that the child is incompetent, the juvenile court is required to make certain additional determinations and issue all necessary and appropriate recommendations and orders.

Section 11 of this bill requires that if the juvenile court determines that a child is incompetent, the juvenile court must conduct a periodic review to determine whether the child has attained competence. After a periodic review is conducted, if the juvenile court determines that the child: (1) has attained competence, the juvenile court is required to proceed with the case; (2) has not attained competence, the juvenile court is required to order appropriate treatment; and (3) has not attained competence and will be unable to attain competence in the foreseeable future, the juvenile court is required to hold a hearing to consider the best interests of the child and the safety of the community and determine whether to dismiss any petitions pending before the juvenile court and terminate its jurisdiction.

Section 12 of this bill provides that if the juvenile court determines that a child is incompetent, the child may not, during the period that the child remains incompetent, be: (1) adjudicated a delinquent child or a child in need of supervision; or (2) placed under the supervision of the juvenile court.

~~[Section 13 of this bill provides that any evidence that is introduced for the purpose of assisting the juvenile court in making a determination as to whether a child is competent is not admissible in any criminal proceeding.]~~

2. Understand the nature and purpose of the court proceedings; or

3. Aid and assist the child's counsel in the defense at any time during the proceedings with a reasonable degree of rational understanding.

Sec. 3. 1. Any time after a petition is filed and before the final disposition of a case, if doubt arises as to the competence of a child, the juvenile court shall suspend the case until the question of competence is determined.

2. During the period when the competence of a child is being determined, the juvenile court shall consider the appropriate placement of the child and any services or other care to be provided to the child that are necessary for the well-being of the child or for public safety, and may issue any necessary orders.

3. The period in which the juvenile court is required to make its final disposition of a case, as set forth in NRS 62D.310, is tolled during the period when the competence of a child is being determined.

(b) The licensure or professional certification of the expert; and

(c) Any other factor the juvenile court deems appropriate in making the appointment.

(b) Prepare and provide a written report to the juvenile court and the parties not later than 14 days after the juvenile court enters an order appointing the expert, unless the juvenile court provides an extension for good cause shown.

4. Any such expert witness must be allowed to evaluate the child and examine all relevant records and documents.

Sec. 6. 1. An expert who is appointed by the juvenile court pursuant to section 5 of this act shall evaluate the child as specified in the court order appointing the expert.

5. During the hearing, the parties may:

(a) Determining whether the child is incompetent; and

(b) Making a disposition of the case in juvenile court.

2. The provisions of subsection 1 do not apply if a child whose competence is being determined presents any information to the juvenile court for a purpose other than those set forth in subsection 1.

3. Any statement made by a child during the course of an evaluation by an expert who is appointed by the juvenile court pursuant to section 5 of this act, regardless of whether the child consented to the evaluation, is not admissible as evidence:

(a) On the issue of guilt in a delinquency proceeding, unless the child introduces the statement as evidence on the issue of guilt first; or

(b) In any criminal proceeding, unless the child introduces the statement as evidence first.

Sec. 10. 1. After the juvenile court considers the written reports of all the experts appointed by the juvenile court, any additional written reports, and testimony and other evidence presented at the hearing, the juvenile court shall determine whether the child is incompetent.

2. If the juvenile court determines that the child is competent, the juvenile court shall proceed with the case.

5. Any treatment ordered by the juvenile court must provide the level of care, guidance and control that will be conducive to the child's welfare and the best interests of this State.

Sec. 11. *1. 2. Before a periodic review is conducted pursuant to subsection 1, any person ordered by the juvenile court to provide services to a child pursuant to section 10 of this act must provide a written report to the juvenile court, the parties, and the department of juvenile services or Youth Parole Bureau, as applicable.

3. After a periodic review is conducted pursuant to subsection 1, if the juvenile court determines that the child:

(c) Has not attained competence and will be unable to attain competence in the foreseeable future, the juvenile court shall hold a hearing to consider the best interests of the child and the safety of the community and determine whether to dismiss any petitions pending before the juvenile court and terminate the jurisdiction of the juvenile court. In determining whether to dismiss a petition and terminate its jurisdiction pursuant to this paragraph, the juvenile court shall consider:

SUMMARY—~~[Makes various changes to]~~ Revises provisions relating to the solicitation of bids for a homeowners' association~~[.]~~ project. (BDR 10-808)

AN ACT relating to common-interest communities; ~~[revising provisions authorizing a homeowners' association to direct the removal of vehicles from property owned or leased by the association; revising provisions governing eligibility to be a member of the executive board or an officer of a homeowners' association;]~~ revising provisions relating to the solicitation of bids for a homeowners' association project; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

~~[Existing law establishes the Uniform Common Interest Ownership Act, which governs common interest communities. (Chapter 116 of NRS) Under existing law, a homeowners' association is authorized, under certain circumstances, to direct the removal of a vehicle improperly parked on property owned or leased by the association. Unless a vehicle is blocking a certain area of the association property or the vehicle poses a threat to the~~ ~~health, safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents, an association must provide certain written or oral notice to the owner or operator of a vehicle at least 48 hours before the association may direct the removal of the vehicle. (NRS 116.3102) Section 1 of this bill removes these requirements. Existing law also provides that unless a person is appointed by the declarant, a person may not be a member of the executive board or an officer of a homeowners' association if the person or certain other persons perform the duties of a community manager for that association. (NRS 116.31034) Section 1.5 of this bill additionally excludes a person, other than a person appointed by the declarant, from eligibility as a candidate for, or as a member of, the executive board or an officer of a homeowners' association if: (1) except under certain circumstances, the person resides with, is married to or is related within the third degree of consanguinity to a member of the board or an officer of the association; (2) the person stands to gain any personal profit or compensation from a matter before the board; or (3) the person is a business associate of, or a co-owner of a business co-owned by, a person who is a member of the executive board or is an officer of the association or who performs the duties of a community manager for that association. Additionally, section 1.5 provides that if a person is not eligible to be a candidate for, or a member of, an executive board or an officer of the association, the association: (1) must not place the name of the person on any ballot as a candidate; and (2) must prohibit the person from serving as a member of the executive board or as an officer of the association.~~

~~— Existing]~~ Under existing law , [~~also requires]~~ a homeowners' association is required to open and consider bids for an association project at a meeting of its executive board. (NRS 116.31086) [~~Section 2 of this]~~ This bill requires an association to solicit, whenever reasonably possible, at least three bids if the association project is expected to cost: (1) in a common-interest community that consists of less than 1,000 units, [~~$2,500]~~ 3 percent or more [~~;]~~ of the annual budget of the association; or (2) in a common-interest community that consists of 1,000 or more units, [~~$5,000]~~ 1 percent or more [~~. Section 2]~~ of the annual budget of the association. This bill further specifies that the contents of bids which are opened at a meeting of the executive board must be read aloud.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. [~~NRS 116.3102 is hereby amended to read as follows:~~

~~— 116.3102 — 1. — Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and subject to the provisions of the declaration, the association:~~

~~(c) May hire and discharge managing agents and other employees, agents and independent contractors.~~

~~(d) May institute, defend or intervene in litigation or in arbitration, mediation or administrative proceedings in its own name on behalf of itself or two or more units' owners on matters affecting the common interest community.~~

~~(e) May make contracts and incur liabilities. Any contract between the association and a private entity for the furnishing of goods or services must not include a provision granting the private entity the right of first refusal with respect to extension or renewal of the contract.~~

~~(f) May regulate the use, maintenance, repair, replacement and modification of common elements.~~

~~(g) May cause additional improvements to be made as a part of the common elements.~~

~~(h) May acquire, hold, encumber and convey in its own name any right, title or interest to real estate or personal property, but:~~

~~(1) Common elements in a condominium or planned community may be conveyed or subjected to a security interest only pursuant to NRS 116.3112; and~~

~~(2) Part of a cooperative may be conveyed, or all or part of a cooperative may be subjected to a security interest, only pursuant to NRS 116.3112.~~

~~(i) May grant easements, leases, licenses and concessions through or over the common elements.~~

~~(j) May impose and receive any payments, fees or charges for the use, rental or operation of the common elements, other than limited common elements described in subsections 2 and 4 of NRS 116.2102, and for services provided to the units' owners, including, without limitation, any services provided pursuant to NRS 116.310312.~~

~~(k) May impose charges for late payment of assessments pursuant to NRS 116.3115.~~

~~(l) May impose construction penalties when authorized pursuant to NRS 116.310305.~~

~~(m) May impose reasonable fines for violations of the governing documents of the association only if the association complies with the requirements set forth in NRS 116.31031.~~

~~(n) May impose reasonable charges for the preparation and recordation of any amendments to the declaration or any statements of unpaid assessments, and impose reasonable fees, not to exceed the amounts authorized by NRS 116.4109, for preparing and furnishing the documents and certificate required by that section.~~

~~(o) May provide for the indemnification of its officers and executive board and maintain directors and officers liability insurance.~~

~~(p) May assign its right to future income, including the right to receive assessments for common expenses, but only to the extent the declaration expressly so provides.~~

~~(q) May exercise any other powers conferred by the declaration or bylaws.~~

~~(r) May exercise all other powers that may be exercised in this State by legal entities of the same type as the association.~~

~~(s) May direct the removal of vehicles improperly parked on property owned or leased by the association, as authorized pursuant to NRS 487.038, or improperly parked on any road, street, alley or other thoroughfare within the common-interest community in violation of the governing documents. [In addition to complying with the requirements of NRS 487.038 and any requirements in the governing documents, if a vehicle is improperly parked as described in this paragraph, the association must post written notice in a conspicuous place on the vehicle or provide oral or written notice to the owner or operator of the vehicle at least 48 hours before the association may direct the removal of the vehicle, unless the vehicle:~~

~~(1) Is blocking a fire hydrant, fire lane or parking space designated for the handicapped; or~~

~~(2) Poses an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units' owners or residents of the common-interest community.]~~

~~(t) May exercise any other powers necessary and proper for the governance and operation of the association.~~

~~2. The declaration may not limit the power of the association to deal with the declarant if the limit is more restrictive than the limit imposed on the power of the association to deal with other persons.~~

~~3. The executive board may determine whether to take enforcement action by exercising the association's power to impose sanctions or commence an action for a violation of the declaration, bylaws or rules, including whether to compromise any claim for unpaid assessments or other claim made by or against it. The executive board does not have a duty to take enforcement action if it determines that, under the facts and circumstances presented:~~

~~(a) The association's legal position does not justify taking any or further enforcement action;~~

~~(b) The covenant, restriction or rule being enforced is, or is likely to be construed as, inconsistent with current law;~~

~~(c) Although a violation may exist or may have occurred, it is not so material as to be objectionable to a reasonable person or to justify expending the association's resources; or~~

~~(d) It is not in the association's best interests to pursue an enforcement action.~~

~~4. The executive board's decision under subsection 3 not to pursue enforcement under one set of circumstances does not prevent the executive board from taking enforcement action under another set of circumstances, but~~

~~the executive board may not be arbitrary or capricious in taking enforcement action.~~

~~5. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter or the governing documents to the contrary, an association may not impose any assessment pursuant to this chapter or the governing documents on the owner of any property in the common-interest community that is exempt from taxation pursuant to NRS 361.125. For the purposes of this subsection, "assessment" does not include any charge for any utility services, including, without limitation, telecommunications, broadband communications, cable television, electricity, natural gas, sewer services, garbage collection, water or for any other service which is delivered to and used or consumed directly by the property in the common-interest community that is exempt from taxation pursuant to NRS 361.125.~~] (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 1.5. [~~NRS 116.31034 is hereby amended to read as follows:~~

~~116.31034 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 of NRS 116.212, not later than the termination of any period of declarant's control, the units' owners shall elect an executive board of at least three members, all of whom must be units' owners. The executive board shall elect the officers of the association. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, the officers of the association are not required to be units' owners. The members of the executive board and the officers of the association shall take office upon election.~~

~~2. The term of office of a member of the executive board may not exceed 3 years, except for members who are appointed by the declarant. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, there is no limitation on the number of terms that a person may serve as a member of the executive board.~~

~~3. The governing documents of the association must provide for terms of office that are staggered in such a manner that, to the extent possible, an equal number of members of the executive board are elected at each election. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:~~

~~(a) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the declarant; and~~

~~(b) Members of the executive board who serve a term of 1 year or less.~~

~~4. Not less than 30 days before the preparation of a ballot for the election of members of the executive board, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause notice to be given to each unit's owner of the unit's owner's eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board. Each unit's owner who is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may have his or her name placed on the ballot along with the names of the nominees selected by the members of the executive board or a nominating committee established by the association.~~

~~5. Before the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association causes notice to be given to each unit's owner of his or her eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board pursuant to subsection 4, the executive board may determine that if, at the closing of the prescribed~~

~~period for nominations for membership on the executive board, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is equal to or less than the number of members to be elected to the executive board at the election, then the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association will cause notice to be given to each unit's owner informing each unit's owner that:~~

~~(a) The association will not prepare or mail any ballots to units' owners pursuant to this section and the nominated candidates shall be deemed to be duly elected to the executive board unless:~~

~~(1) A unit's owner who is qualified to serve on the executive board nominates himself or herself for membership on the executive board by submitting a nomination to the executive board within 30 days after the notice provided by this subsection; and~~

~~(2) The number of units' owners who submit such a nomination causes the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board to be greater than the number of members to be elected to the executive board.~~

~~(b) Each unit's owner who is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may nominate himself or herself for membership on the executive board by submitting a nomination to the executive board within 30 days after the notice provided by this subsection.~~

~~6. If the notice described in subsection 5 is given and if, at the closing of the prescribed period for nominations for membership on the executive board described in subsection 5, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is equal to or less than the number of members to be elected to the executive board, then:~~

~~(a) The association will not prepare or mail any ballots to units' owners pursuant to this section;~~

~~(b) The nominated candidates shall be deemed to be duly elected to the executive board not later than 30 days after the date of the closing of the period for nominations described in subsection 5; and~~

~~(c) The association shall send to each unit's owner notification that the candidates nominated have been elected to the executive board.~~

~~7. If the notice described in subsection 5 is given and if, at the closing of the prescribed period for nominations for membership on the executive board described in subsection 5, the number of candidates nominated for membership on the executive board is greater than the number of members to be elected to the executive board, then the association shall:~~

~~(a) Prepare and mail ballots to the units' owners pursuant to this section; and~~

~~(b) Conduct an election for membership on the executive board pursuant to this section.~~

~~8. Each person who is nominated as a candidate for membership on the executive board pursuant to subsection 4 or 5 must:~~

~~(a) Make a good faith effort to disclose any financial, business, professional or personal relationship or interest that would result or would appear to a~~

~~reasonable person to result in a potential conflict of interest for the candidate if the candidate were to be elected to serve as a member of the executive board; and~~

~~(b) Disclose whether the candidate is a member in good standing. For the purposes of this paragraph, a candidate shall not be deemed to be in "good standing" if the candidate has any unpaid and past due assessments or construction penalties that are required to be paid to the association.~~

~~"~~ ~~The candidate must make all disclosures required pursuant to this subsection in writing to the association with his or her candidacy information. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the association shall distribute the disclosures, on behalf of the candidate, to each member of the association with the ballot or, in the event ballots are not prepared and mailed pursuant to subsection 6, in the next regular mailing of the association. The association is not obligated to distribute any disclosure pursuant to this subsection if the disclosure contains information that is believed to be defamatory, libelous or profane.~~

~~9. Unless a person is appointed by the declarant:~~

Existing law provides for the regulation of aeronautics, including the operation of aircraft, in this State. (Title 44 of NRS) This bill revises the definition of "aircraft" to include unmanned aerial vehicles for the purpose of regulating unmanned aerial vehicles. This bill generally regulates the operators of unmanned aerial vehicles in this State in a manner similar to that of traditional aircraft by: (1) establishing the right to operate an unmanned aerial vehicle in this State, with certain exceptions; (2) clarifying that the provisions of this bill are not to be interpreted in a manner inconsistent with federal law or apply to unmanned aerial vehicles owned or operated by the Federal Government; (3) clarifying the applicability of state law to torts and crimes resulting from the operation of unmanned aerial vehicles; and (4) prohibiting a person from operating or using an unmanned aerial vehicle under certain circumstances or for certain purposes.

Section 18 of this bill prohibits a person from weaponizing an unmanned aerial vehicle. Section 18.5 of this bill prohibits a person from operating an unmanned aerial vehicle within a certain distance from critical facilities or an airport except under certain circumstances in which the person obtains the consent of the owner of a critical facility or the airport authority of an airport or authorization from the Federal Aviation Administration. Section 19 of this bill authorizes a person who owns or lawfully occupies real property to bring an action for trespass against the owner or operator of an unmanned aerial vehicle under certain circumstances and provides ~~[an exception]~~ certain exceptions to bringing such an action . ~~[against an operator lawfully operating an unmanned aerial vehicle within the scope of a business or for the purposes of surveying land.]~~ Sections 20-22 of this bill prescribe certain restrictions on the operation and use of unmanned aerial vehicles by law enforcement agencies and public agencies. Section 20 specifically prohibits, with limited exceptions, a law enforcement agency from operating an unmanned aerial vehicle for the purpose of gathering evidence or other information at any location or upon any property in this State at which a person has a reasonable expectation of privacy without first obtaining a warrant. Section 20 authorizes a law enforcement agency to operate an unmanned aerial vehicle without a warrant: (1) if exigent circumstances exist and there is probable cause to believe that a person has committed, is committing or is about to commit a crime; (2) if a person consents in writing to the activity; (3) for the purpose of conducting search and rescue operations; (4) if the law enforcement agency believes that an imminent threat exists to the life and safety of an individual person or to the public at large, including the threat of an act of terrorism; and (5) upon the declaration of a state of emergency or disaster by the Governor. Section 21 authorizes a public agency, other than a law enforcement agency, to operate an unmanned aerial vehicle for certain public purposes as prescribed by regulations adopted by the Department of Public Safety if the public agency registers the unmanned aerial vehicle with the Department. Sections 20 and 21 provide that any photograph, image, recording or other information acquired unlawfully by a law enforcement agency or public agency, or otherwise acquired in a manner inconsistent with section 20, and any evidence that is derived therefrom, is inadmissible in any judicial, administrative or other adjudicatory proceeding and may not be used to establish reasonable suspicion or probable cause as the basis for investigating or prosecuting a crime or offense. Section 22 requires the Department, to the extent that money is available for this purpose, to establish and maintain a registry of unmanned aerial vehicles that are operated by public agencies in this State and requires the Department to adopt regulations prescribing the public purposes for which an agency may operate an unmanned aerial vehicle. Section 22 further requires the Department to prepare and submit an annual report to the Legislature outlining the activities of public agencies with respect to the operation of unmanned aerial vehicles in this State. Section 24.4 of this bill revises provisions relating to the liability of the operator of an aircraft, including an unmanned aerial vehicle, with respect to the operation of the aircraft over heavily populated areas or public gatherings. Section 24.8 of this bill prohibits a person from operating an unmanned aerial vehicle while intoxicated or in a careless or reckless manner so as to endanger the life or property of another person.

Amend No. 913.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions governing ~~[liens of a unit-owners' association.]~~ common-interest communities. (BDR 10-821)

AN ACT relating to common-interest communities; requiring the establishment of an impound account for the payment of certain assessments under certain circumstances; providing for the payment of assessments for common expenses from the impound account; revising provisions relating to the nonjudicial foreclosure of a unit-owners' association's lien; authorizing a right of redemption after the foreclosure of an association's lien by sale under certain circumstances; authorizing the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels to adopt regulations to carry out the requirement for impound accounts; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, a unit-owners' association has a lien on a unit for certain amounts due to the association. Generally, the association's lien is prior to all other liens on a unit, except: (1) liens recorded before the recordation of the declaration; (2) the first security interest on the unit; and (3) liens for real estate taxes and other governmental assessments or charges against the unit. However, the association's lien is prior to the first security interest on the unit to the extent of certain maintenance and abatement charges and a certain amount of assessments for common expenses. The portion of the association's lien that is prior to the first security interest is commonly referred to as the "super-priority lien." (NRS 116.3116) Existing law authorizes a unit-owners' association to foreclose its lien through a nonjudicial foreclosure process. (NRS 116.31162-116.31168)

Under existing law, the holder of the first security interest on the unit may establish an impound account for advance contributions for the payment of assessments, if the unit's owner and the holder of the first security interest consent to the establishment of such an account. (NRS 116.3116) Section 3.5 of this bill provides that if there is an impound account established for the payment of property taxes or insurance premiums, the holder of the first security interest, if other than a credit union, is required to establish such an impound account for advance contributions for the payment of certain assessments. Section 3.5 requires payments to be made from the account for assessments for common expenses in accordance with the same due dates as apply to the payment of assessments by a unit's owner or in quarterly installments that are due on the first day of each calendar quarter. Under section 3.5, if the assessments for common expenses are paid in quarterly installments from the impound account, the due date of the assessments is deemed to be the first day of the calendar quarter. Section 3.5 provides that: (1) if payments for assessments are timely made to an impound account, the super-priority lien does not arise; and (2) if an impound account is established, the association must provide notice of delinquency in the payment of assessments to the holder of the first security interest.

Section 4.7 of this bill provides that after a sale of a unit to enforce the association's lien, the unit's owner or a holder of a security interest on the unit may redeem the unit by paying certain amounts to the purchaser within 60 days after the sale. If the unit's owner redeems the unit, the unit's owner is restored to his or her ownership of the unit. If a holder of a security interest on the unit redeems the unit, that holder is entitled to a deed without warranty which conveys to the holder all title of the unit's owner to the unit. Section 4.7 further provides that upon expiration of the redemption period, any failure to comply with the requirements of existing law for the foreclosure of the association's lien does not affect the rights of a bona fide purchaser or encumbrancer for value.

Section 7.5 of this bill authorizes the Commission for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels to adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of section 3.5 relating to impound accounts, including, without limitation, requirements for bonding, servicing costs and conflicts of interest for entities servicing such accounts.

Section 8 of this bill provides that : (1) the requirement to establish an impound account applies only to a holder of a first security interest on a unit that is recorded on or after January 1, 2016; and (2) the amendatory provisions ~~[of this bill]~~ related to the right of redemption apply only to a sale to enforce an association's lien that occurs on or after July 1, 2015.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 2. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 3. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 3.5. NRS 116.3116 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.3116 1. The association has a lien on a unit for any construction penalty that is imposed against the unit's owner pursuant to NRS 116.310305, any assessment levied against that unit or any fines imposed against the unit's owner from the time the construction penalty, assessment or fine becomes due. Unless the declaration otherwise provides, any penalties, fees, charges, late charges, fines and interest charged pursuant to paragraphs (j) to (n), inclusive, of subsection 1 of NRS 116.3102 are enforceable as assessments under this section. If an assessment is payable in installments, the full amount of the assessment is a lien from the time the first installment thereof becomes due.

2. A lien under this section is prior to all other liens and encumbrances on a unit except:

(a) Liens and encumbrances recorded before the recordation of the declaration and, in a cooperative, liens and encumbrances which the association creates, assumes or takes subject to;

(b) A first security interest on the unit recorded before the date on which the assessment sought to be enforced became delinquent or, in a cooperative, the first security interest encumbering only the unit's owner's interest and perfected before the date on which the assessment sought to be enforced became delinquent; and

(c) Liens for real estate taxes and other governmental assessments or charges against the unit or cooperative.

➥ ~~[The]~~ Unless payments for assessments described in subsection 3 are made timely to an escrow account, loan trust account or other impound account established pursuant to subsection 3, the lien is also prior to all security interests described in paragraph (b) to the extent of any charges incurred by the association on a unit pursuant to NRS 116.310312 and to the extent of the assessments for common expenses based on the periodic budget adopted by the association pursuant to NRS 116.3115 which would have become due in the absence of acceleration during the 9 months immediately preceding institution of an action to enforce the lien, unless federal regulations adopted by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation or the Federal National Mortgage Association require a shorter period of priority for the lien. If federal regulations adopted by the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation or the Federal National Mortgage Association require a shorter period of priority for the lien, the period during which the lien is prior to all security interests described in paragraph (b) must be determined in accordance with those federal regulations, except that notwithstanding the provisions of the federal regulations, the period of priority for the lien must not be less than the 6 months immediately preceding institution of an action to enforce the lien. This subsection does not affect the priority of mechanics' or materialmen's liens, or the priority of liens for other assessments made by the association.

3. ~~[The]~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, if the holder of the security interest described in paragraph (b) of subsection 2 or the holder's authorized agent ~~[may]~~ has established an escrow account, loan trust account or other impound account for advance contributions for the payment of property taxes on the unit or premiums for insurance on the unit, the holder or his or her authorized agent shall also establish an escrow account, loan trust account or other impound account for advance contributions for the payment of ~~[assessments]~~ **:

(b) Special assessments to establish adequate reserves for the association pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of NRS 116.3115; and

(c) Assessments for capital expenditures based on the periodic budget adopted by the association pursuant to NRS 116.3115.

4. The provisions of subsection 3 do not apply to a security interest held by a credit union as defined in NRS 678.070.

5. Payments from ~~[the]~~ an escrow account, loan trust account or impound account for assessments ~~[for common expenses]~~ described in subsection 3 must be made in ~~[accordance]~~ ***:

(a) Accordance with the same due dates as apply to payments of such assessments by a unit's owner ~~[.~~

(b) Quarterly installments that are due the first day of each calendar quarter. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or the governing documents to the contrary, if assessments for common expenses are paid in quarterly installments pursuant to this paragraph, the due date of the assessments is deemed to be the first day of each calendar quarter.

6. If an escrow account, loan trust account or other impound account is established pursuant to subsection 3, not later than 30 days after a payment of an assessment described in subsection 3 is delinquent, the association must provide the holder of the security interest described in paragraph (b) of subsection 2 with a notice of delinquent assessment which states the amount of the assessments which are due, a description of the unit against which the assessment is imposed and the name of the record owner of the unit.

7. Unless the declaration otherwise provides, if two or more associations have liens for assessments created at any time on the same property, those liens have equal priority.

~~[5.]~~ 8. Recording of the declaration constitutes record notice and perfection of the lien. No further recordation of any claim of lien for assessment under this section is required.

~~[6.]~~ 9. A lien for unpaid assessments is extinguished unless proceedings to enforce the lien are instituted within 3 years after the full amount of the assessments becomes due.

~~[7.]~~ 10. This section does not prohibit actions to recover sums for which subsection 1 creates a lien or prohibit an association from taking a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

~~[8.]~~ 11. A judgment or decree in any action brought under this section must include costs and reasonable attorney's fees for the prevailing party.

~~[9.]~~ 12. The association, upon written request, shall furnish to a unit's owner a statement setting forth the amount of unpaid assessments against the unit. If the interest of the unit's owner is real estate or if a lien for the unpaid assessments may be foreclosed under NRS 116.31162 to 116.31168, inclusive, the statement must be in recordable form. The statement must be furnished within 10 business days after receipt of the request and is binding on the association, the executive board and every unit's owner.

~~[10.]~~ 13. In a cooperative, upon nonpayment of an assessment on a unit, the unit's owner may be evicted in the same manner as provided by law in the case of an unlawful holdover by a commercial tenant, and:

(a) In a cooperative where the owner's interest in a unit is real estate under NRS 116.1105, the association's lien may be foreclosed under NRS 116.31162 to 116.31168, inclusive.

(b) In a cooperative where the owner's interest in a unit is personal property under NRS 116.1105, the association's lien:

(1) May be foreclosed as a security interest under NRS 104.9101 to 104.9709, inclusive; or

(2) If the declaration so provides, may be foreclosed under NRS 116.31162 to 116.31168, inclusive.

~~[11.]~~ 14. In an action by an association to collect assessments or to foreclose a lien created under this section, the court may appoint a receiver to collect all rents or other income from the unit alleged to be due and owing to a unit's owner before commencement or during pendency of the action. The receivership is governed by chapter 32 of NRS. The court may order the receiver to pay any sums held by the receiver to the association during pendency of the action to the extent of the association's common expense assessments based on a periodic budget adopted by the association pursuant to NRS 116.3115.

(b) Deliver a copy of the deed to the Ombudsman within 30 days after the deed is delivered to the person who redeemed the unit, or his or her successor or assign.

7. If no redemption is made within 60 days after the date of sale, the person conducting the sale shall:

(a) Make, execute and, if payment is made, deliver to the purchaser, or his or her successor or assign, a deed without warranty which conveys to the purchaser all title of the unit's owner to the unit; and Assemblyman Hansen moved that the Assembly do not concur in the Senate Amendment No. 913 to Assembly Bill No. 240.

Motion carried.

Bill ordered transmitted to the Senate.

Assembly Bill No. 263.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 745.

AN ACT relating to domestic relations; repealing certain provisions relating to the custody of children and enacting certain similar provisions relating to the custody of children; prohibiting a parent ~~[with]~~ who has primary or joint physical custody of a child pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court from relocating with the child outside this State or to certain locations within this State without the written consent of the noncustodial parent or the permission of the court as the circumstances require; authorizing a non-relocating parent to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs in certain circumstances; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law sets forth provisions concerning the custody of children as it relates to the dissolution of marriage. (NRS 125.450-125.520) Section 19 of this bill repeals almost all of these provisions. Sections 3-12 of this bill add such repealed provisions, with certain revisions, to chapter 125C of NRS, which concerns custody and visitation of children generally. The addition of such provisions to chapter 125C of NRS expands their applicability to the custody of all children regardless of whether they were born to parents who were married or unmarried.

Section 4 provides that absent a determination by a court regarding the custody of a child, each parent has joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the child until otherwise ordered by a court. Sections 5 and 6 provide that if a parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with a child, such a demonstration or attempted demonstration creates a presumption that joint legal and physical custody, respectively, is in the best interest of the child. Section 7 authorizes a court to award primary physical custody to a parent if the court determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of a child, and sets forth circumstances in which an award of joint physical custody is presumed not to be in the best interest of a child. Section 7 also sets forth the circumstances in which a court may award primary physical custody to a mother or father of a child born out of wedlock.

Existing law requires a parent with primary physical custody of a child who intends to move outside this State with the child to: (1) obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent; or (2) if the noncustodial parent refuses to give such consent, petition the court for permission to move with the child.

(NRS 125C.200) Section 16 of this bill additionally requires a parent with primary physical custody of a child to take such actions if the parent intends to relocate to a place within this State that is ~~[more than 100 miles from the place of his or her residence at the time the existing custody arrangement was established.]~~ at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child. Section 13 of this bill requires a parent who has joint physical custody of a child pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and wants to relocate outside this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child to petition the court for primary physical custody of the child for the purpose of relocating.

Section 14 of this bill requires a parent who files a petition for permission to relocate with a child to demonstrate to the court certain reasons and benefits relating to the relocation. Section 14 also requires the court to consider certain factors in determining whether to allow a parent to relocate with a child. Under section 18 of this bill, a parent who relocates with a child without the required written consent of the noncustodial parent or the permission of the court or before the court enters an order granting the parent primary physical custody of the child and permission to relocate with the child, as applicable, is guilty of a category D felony unless the parent: (1) demonstrates a compelling excuse for the relocation; or (2) relocated to protect the child or the parent from danger. Additionally, section 15 of this bill provides that if a parent relocates with a child in violation of section 18: (1) the court cannot consider any post-relocation facts or circumstances regarding the welfare of the child or the relocating parent in making any determination; and (2) the non-relocating parent can recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred as a result of the relocating parent's violation.

Section 18 further provides that a parent who, pursuant to section 4, has joint legal and physical custody of a child because a court has not made a determination regarding the custody of the child is prohibited from willfully concealing or removing the child from the custody of the other parent with the specific intent to frustrate the efforts of the other parent to establish or maintain a meaningful relationship with the child. Unless a parent who takes such actions can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that he or she was protecting the child or himself or herself from an act that constitutes domestic violence, the parent is guilty of a category D felony.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 125.040 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125.040 1. In any suit for divorce the court may, in its discretion, upon application by either party and notice to the other party, require either party to pay moneys necessary to assist the other party in accomplishing one or more of the following:

(a) To provide temporary maintenance for the other party;

(b) To provide temporary support for children of the parties; or

(c) To enable the other party to carry on or defend such suit.

2. The court may make any order affecting property of the parties, or either of them, which it may deem necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this section. Such orders shall be made by the court only after taking into consideration the financial situation of each of the parties.

3. The court may make orders pursuant to this section concurrently with orders pursuant to ~~[NRS 125.470.]~~ section 12 of this act.

Sec. 2. Chapter 125C of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 3 to 15, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 3. The Legislature declares that it is the policy of this State:

1. To ensure that minor children have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with both parents after the parents have ended their relationship, become separated or dissolved their marriage;

2. To encourage such parents to share the rights and responsibilities of child rearing; and

3. To establish that such parents have an equivalent duty to provide their minor children with necessary maintenance, health care, education and financial support. As used in this subsection, "equivalent" must not be construed to mean that both parents are responsible for providing the same amount of financial support to their children.

Sec. 4. 1. The parent and child relationship extends equally to every child and to every parent, regardless of the marital status of the parents.

2. If a court has not made a determination regarding the custody of a child, each parent has joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the child until otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. 1. When a court is making a determination regarding the legal custody of a child, there is a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that joint legal custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if:

(a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint legal custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the legal custody of the minor child; or

(b) A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

2. The court may award joint legal custody without awarding joint physical custody.

Sec. 6. 1. When a court is making a determination regarding the physical custody of a child, there is a preference that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if:

(a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint physical custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the physical custody of the minor child; or

(b) A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

2. For assistance in determining whether an award of joint physical custody is appropriate, the court may direct that an investigation be conducted.

Sec. 7. 1. A court may award primary physical custody to a parent if the court determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of a child. An award of joint physical custody is presumed not to be in the best interest of the child if:

(a) The court determines by substantial evidence that a parent is unable to adequately care for a minor child for at least 146 days of the year;

(b) A child is born out of wedlock and the provisions of subsection 2 are applicable; or

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 of section 8 of this act or NRS 125C.210, there has been a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that a parent has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child. The presumption created by this paragraph is a rebuttable presumption.

2. A court may award primary physical custody of a child born out of wedlock to:

(a) The mother of the child if:

(1) The mother has not married the father of the child;

(2) A judgment or order of a court, or a judgment or order entered pursuant to an expedited process, determining the paternity of the child has not been entered; and

(3) The father of the child:

(I) Is not subject to any presumption of paternity under NRS 126.051;

(II) Has never acknowledged paternity pursuant to NRS 126.053; or

(III) Has had actual knowledge of his paternity but has abandoned the child.

(b) The father of the child if:

(1) The mother has abandoned the child; and

(2) The father has provided sole care and custody of the child in her absence.

3. As used in this section:

(a) "Abandoned" means that a mother or father has:

(1) Failed, for a continuous period of not less than 6 months, to provide substantial personal and economic support to the child; or

(2) Knowingly declined, for a continuous period of not less than 6 months, to have any meaningful relationship with the child.

(b) "Expedited process" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 126.161.

Sec. 8. 1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor child, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the child. If it appears to the court that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

3. The court shall award physical custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires otherwise:

(a) To both parents jointly pursuant to section 6 of this act or to either parent pursuant to section 7 of this act. If the court does not enter an order awarding joint physical custody of a child after either parent has applied for joint physical custody, the court shall state in its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's application.

(b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been living and where the child has had a wholesome and stable environment.

(c) To any person related within the fifth degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child, regardless of whether the relative resides within this State.

(d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

(a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.

(b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

(c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

(d) The level of conflict between the parents.

(e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

(f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

(i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

(k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.

(l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 or NRS 125C.210, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint physical custody of the child by the perpetrator of the domestic violence is not in the best interest of the child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

6. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 5 the court determines that each party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it shall, if possible, then determine which person was the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving either party;

(b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

(c) The likelihood of future injury;

(d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self-defense; and

(e) Any other factors which the court deems relevant to the determination.

➥ In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies to both parties. If it is possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical aggressor.

7. A determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child by the perpetrator of the abduction is not in the best interest of the child. If the parent or other person seeking physical custody does not rebut the presumption, the court shall not enter an order for sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child by the perpetrator and the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of abduction occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other person from whom the child was abducted.

8. For the purposes of subsection 7, any of the following acts constitute conclusive evidence that an act of abduction occurred:

(a) A conviction of the defendant of any violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct;

(b) A plea of guilty or nolo contendere by the defendant to any violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct; or

(c) An admission by the defendant to the court of the facts contained in the charging document alleging a violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

9. If, after a court enters a final order concerning physical custody of the child, a magistrate determines there is probable cause to believe that an act of abduction has been committed against the child or any other child and that a person who has been awarded sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child has committed the act, the court shall, upon a motion to modify the order concerning physical custody, reconsider the previous order concerning physical custody pursuant to subsections 7 and 8.

10. As used in this section:

(a) "Abduction" means the commission of an act described in NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

(b) "Domestic violence" means the commission of any act described in NRS 33.018.

Sec. 9. 1. Before the court makes an order awarding custody to any person other than a parent, without the consent of the parents, it shall make a finding that an award of custody to a parent would be detrimental to the child and the award to a nonparent is required to serve the best interest of the child.

2. No allegation that parental custody would be detrimental to the child, other than a statement of that ultimate fact, may appear in the pleadings.

3. The court may exclude the public from any hearing on this issue.

Sec. 10. 1. In any action for determining the custody of a minor child, the court may, except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and chapter 130 of NRS:

(a) During the pendency of the action, at the final hearing or at any time thereafter during the minority of the child, make such an order for the custody, care, education, maintenance and support of the minor child as appears in his or her best interest; and

(b) At any time modify or vacate its order, even if custody was determined pursuant to an action for divorce and the divorce was obtained by default without an appearance in the action by one of the parties.

➥ The party seeking such an order shall submit to the jurisdiction of the court for the purposes of this subsection. The court may make such an order upon the application of one of the parties or the legal guardian of the minor.

2. Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated by the court upon the petition of one or both parents or on the court's own motion if it is shown that the best interest of the child requires the modification or termination. The court shall state in its decision the reasons for the order of modification or termination if either parent opposes it.

3. Any order for custody of a minor child entered by a court of another state may, subject to the provisions of NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and to the jurisdictional requirements in chapter 125A of NRS, be modified at any time to an order of joint custody.

4. A party may proceed pursuant to this section without counsel.

5. Any order awarding a party a limited right of custody to a child must define that right with sufficient particularity to ensure that the rights of the parties can be properly enforced and that the best interest of the child is achieved. The order must include all specific times and other terms of the limited right of custody. As used in this subsection, "sufficient particularity" means a statement of the rights in absolute terms and not by the use of the term "reasonable" or other similar term which is susceptible to different interpretations by the parties.

6. All orders authorized by this section must be made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 125A of NRS and NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and must contain the following language:

> PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

7. In addition to the language required pursuant to subsection 6, all orders authorized by this section must specify that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country.

8. If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

(a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

9. Except where a contract providing otherwise has been executed pursuant to NRS 123.080, the obligation for care, education, maintenance and support of any minor child created by any order entered pursuant to this section ceases:

(a) Upon the death of the person to whom the order was directed; or

(b) When the child reaches 18 years of age if the child is no longer enrolled in high school, otherwise, when the child reaches 19 years of age.

10. As used in this section, a parent has "significant commitments in a foreign country" if the parent:

(a) Is a citizen of a foreign country;

(b) Possesses a passport in his or her name from a foreign country;

(c) Became a citizen of the United States after marrying the other parent of the child; or

(d) Frequently travels to a foreign country.

Sec. 11. 1. The court may, when appropriate, require the parents to submit to the court a plan for carrying out the court's order concerning custody.

2. Access to records and other information pertaining to a minor child, including, without limitation, medical, dental and school records, must not be denied to a parent for the reason that the parent is not the child's custodial parent.

Sec. 12. 1. If, during any action for determining the custody of a minor child, either before or after the entry of a final order concerning the custody of a minor child, it appears to the court that any minor child of either party has been, or is likely to be, taken or removed out of this State or concealed within this State, the court shall forthwith order such child to be produced before it and make such disposition of the child's custody as appears most advantageous to and in the best interest of the child and most likely to secure to him or her the benefit of the final order or the modification or termination of the final order to be made in his or her behalf.

2. If, during any action for determining the custody of a minor child, either before or after the entry of a final order concerning the custody of a minor child, the court finds that it would be in the best interest of the minor child, the court may enter an order providing that a party may, with the assistance of the appropriate law enforcement agency, obtain physical custody of the child from the party having physical custody of the child. The order must provide that if the party obtains physical custody of the child, the child must be produced before the court as soon as practicable to allow the court to make such disposition of the child's custody as appears most advantageous to and in the best interest of the child and most likely to secure to him or her the benefit of the final order or the modification or termination of the final order to be made in his or her behalf.

3. If the court enters an order pursuant to subsection 2 providing that a party may obtain physical custody of a child, the court shall order that party to give the party having physical custody of the child notice at least 24 hours before the time at which he or she intends to obtain physical custody of the child, unless the court deems that requiring the notice would likely defeat the purpose of the order.

4. All orders for a party to appear with a child issued pursuant to this section may be enforced by issuing a warrant of arrest against that party to secure his or her appearance with the child.

5. A proceeding under this section must be given priority on the court calendar.

Sec. 13. 1. If joint physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court ~~[or section 4 of this act or by operation of law]~~ and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent shall petition the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

2. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section before the court enters an order granting the parent primary physical custody of the child and permission to relocate with the child is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

Sec. 14. 1. In every instance of a petition for permission to relocate with a child that is filed pursuant to NRS 125C.200 or section 13 of this act, the relocating parent must demonstrate to the court that:

(a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her parenting time;

(b) The best interests of the child are substantially better served by allowing the relocating parent to relocate;

(c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual advantage that currently exists or is certain to exist before the time of the relocation; and

(d) If the parents currently share joint custody of the child, the child will do substantially better in the new location than the child would if he or she remained in this State with the non-relocating parent.

2. If a relocating parent demonstrates to the court the provisions set forth in subsection 1, the court must then weigh the following factors and the impact of each on the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent, including, without limitation, the extent to which the compelling interests of the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent are accommodated:

(a) The extent to which the relocation is likely to improve the quality of life for the child and the relocating parent;

(b) Whether the motives of the relocating parent are honorable and not designed to frustrate or defeat any visitation rights accorded to the non-relocating parent;

(c) Whether the relocating parent will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court if permission to relocate is granted;

(d) Whether the motives of the non-relocating parent are honorable in resisting the petition for permission to relocate or to what extent any opposition to the petition for permission to relocate is intended to secure a financial advantage in the form of ongoing support obligations or otherwise;

(e) Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the non-relocating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted; and

(f) Any other factor necessary to assist the court in determining whether to grant permission to relocate.

3. A parent who desires to relocate with a child pursuant to NRS 125C.200 or section 13 of this act has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child.

Sec. 15. If a parent with primary physical custody or joint physical custody relocates with a child in violation of NRS 200.359:

1. The court shall not consider any post-relocation facts or circumstances regarding the welfare of the child or the relocating parent in making any determination.

2. If the non-relocating parent files an action in response to the violation, the non-relocating parent is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred as a result of the violation.

Sec. 16. NRS 125C.200 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 18. NRS 200.359 is hereby amended to read as follows:

5. A parent who has primary physical custody of a child pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court shall not relocate with the child pursuant to NRS 125C.200 without the written consent of the non-relocating parent or the permission of the court. 6. Before an arrest warrant may be issued for a violation of this section, the court must find that:

(a) This is the home state of the child, as defined in NRS 125A.085; and

(b) There is cause to believe that the entry of a court order in a civil proceeding brought pursuant to chapter 125, 125A or 125C of NRS will not be effective to enforce the rights of the parties and would not be in the best interests of the child.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

Amendment No. 958.

AN ACT relating to domestic relations; repealing certain provisions relating to the custody of children and enacting certain similar provisions relating to the custody of children; prohibiting a parent who has primary or joint physical custody of a child pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court from relocating with the child outside this State or to certain locations within this State without the written consent of the ~~[noncustodial]~~ other parent or the permission of the court as the circumstances require; authorizing ~~[a non-~~

~~relocating parent to recover]~~ an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs to a parent in certain circumstances; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law sets forth provisions concerning the custody of children as it relates to the dissolution of marriage. (NRS 125.450-125.520) Section 19 of this bill repeals almost all of these provisions. Sections 3-12 of this bill add such repealed provisions, with certain revisions, to chapter 125C of NRS, which concerns custody and visitation of children generally. The addition of such provisions to chapter 125C of NRS expands their applicability to the custody of all children regardless of whether they were born to parents who were married or unmarried.

Section 4 provides that absent a determination by a court regarding the custody of a child, each parent has joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the child until otherwise ordered by a court. Sections 5 and 6 provide that if a parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with a child, such a demonstration or attempted demonstration creates a presumption that joint legal and physical custody, respectively, is in the best interest of the child. Section 7 authorizes a court to award primary physical custody to a parent if the court determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of a child, and sets forth circumstances in which an award of joint physical custody is presumed not to be in the best interest of a child. Section 7 also sets forth the circumstances in which a court may award primary physical custody to a mother or father of a child born out of wedlock.

Existing law requires a parent with primary physical custody of a child who intends to move outside this State with the child to: (1) obtain the written consent of the noncustodial parent; or (2) if the noncustodial parent refuses to give such consent, petition the court for permission to move with the child. (NRS 125C.200) Section 16 of this bill additionally requires a parent with primary physical custody of a child to take such actions if the parent intends to relocate to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child. Section 13 of this bill requires a parent who has joint physical custody of a child pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and wants to relocate outside this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child to : (1) obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent; or (2) if the non-relocating parent refuses to give such consent, petition the court for primary physical custody of the child for the purpose of relocating. Sections 13 and 16 also authorize the court to award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to a relocating parent or custodial parent, respectively, if the non-relocating parent or noncustodial parent refused to give consent to the relocation:

(1) without having reasonable grounds for such refusal; or (2) for the purpose of harassing the relocating or custodial parent.

Section 14 of this bill requires a parent who files a petition for permission to relocate with a child to demonstrate to the court certain reasons and benefits relating to the relocation. Section 14 also requires the court to consider certain factors in determining whether to allow a parent to relocate with a child. Under section 18 of this bill, a parent who relocates with a child without the ~~[required]~~ written consent of the ~~[noncustodial]~~ other parent or the permission of the court or before the court enters an order granting the parent primary physical custody of the child and permission to relocate with the child, as applicable, is guilty of a category D felony unless the parent: (1) demonstrates a compelling excuse for the relocation; or (2) relocated to protect the child or the parent from danger. Additionally, section 15 of this bill provides that if a parent relocates with a child in violation of section 18: (1) the court cannot consider any post-relocation facts or circumstances regarding the welfare of the child or the relocating parent in making any determination; and (2) the non-relocating parent can recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred as a result of the relocating parent's violation.

Section 18 further provides that a parent who, pursuant to section 4, has joint legal and physical custody of a child because a court has not made a determination regarding the custody of the child is prohibited from willfully concealing or removing the child from the custody of the other parent with the specific intent to frustrate the efforts of the other parent to establish or maintain a meaningful relationship with the child. Unless a parent who takes such actions can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court that he or she was protecting the child or himself or herself from an act that constitutes domestic violence, the parent is guilty of a category D felony.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 125.040 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125.040 1. In any suit for divorce the court may, in its discretion, upon application by either party and notice to the other party, require either party to pay moneys necessary to assist the other party in accomplishing one or more of the following:

(a) To provide temporary maintenance for the other party;

(b) To provide temporary support for children of the parties; or

(c) To enable the other party to carry on or defend such suit.

2. The court may make any order affecting property of the parties, or either of them, which it may deem necessary or desirable to accomplish the purposes of this section. Such orders shall be made by the court only after taking into consideration the financial situation of each of the parties.

3. The court may make orders pursuant to this section concurrently with orders pursuant to ~~[NRS 125.470.]~~ section 12 of this act.

Sec. 2. Chapter 125C of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 3 to 15, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 3. The Legislature declares that it is the policy of this State:

1. To ensure that minor children have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with both parents after the parents have ended their relationship, become separated or dissolved their marriage;

2. To encourage such parents to share the rights and responsibilities of child rearing; and

3. To establish that such parents have an equivalent duty to provide their minor children with necessary maintenance, health care, education and financial support. As used in this subsection, "equivalent" must not be construed to mean that both parents are responsible for providing the same amount of financial support to their children.

Sec. 4. 1. The parent and child relationship extends equally to every child and to every parent, regardless of the marital status of the parents.

2. If a court has not made a determination regarding the custody of a child, each parent has joint legal custody and joint physical custody of the child until otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. 1. When a court is making a determination regarding the legal custody of a child, there is a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that joint legal custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if:

(a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint legal custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the legal custody of the minor child; or

(b) A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

2. The court may award joint legal custody without awarding joint physical custody.

Sec. 6. 1. When a court is making a determination regarding the physical custody of a child, there is a preference that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of a minor child if:

(a) The parents have agreed to an award of joint physical custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the physical custody of the minor child; or

(b) A parent has demonstrated, or has attempted to demonstrate but has had his or her efforts frustrated by the other parent, an intent to establish a meaningful relationship with the minor child.

2. For assistance in determining whether an award of joint physical custody is appropriate, the court may direct that an investigation be conducted.

Sec. 7. 1. A court may award primary physical custody to a parent if the court determines that joint physical custody is not in the best interest of a child. An award of joint physical custody is presumed not to be in the best interest of the child if:

(a) The court determines by substantial evidence that a parent is unable to adequately care for a minor child for at least 146 days of the year;

(b) A child is born out of wedlock and the provisions of subsection 2 are applicable; or

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 of section 8 of this act or NRS 125C.210, there has been a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that a parent has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child. The presumption created by this paragraph is a rebuttable presumption.

2. A court may award primary physical custody of a child born out of wedlock to:

(a) The mother of the child if:

(1) The mother has not married the father of the child;

(2) A judgment or order of a court, or a judgment or order entered pursuant to an expedited process, determining the paternity of the child has not been entered; and

(3) The father of the child:

(I) Is not subject to any presumption of paternity under NRS 126.051;

(II) Has never acknowledged paternity pursuant to NRS 126.053; or

(III) Has had actual knowledge of his paternity but has abandoned the child.

(b) The father of the child if:

(1) The mother has abandoned the child; and

(2) The father has provided sole care and custody of the child in her absence.

3. As used in this section:

(a) "Abandoned" means that a mother or father has:

(1) Failed, for a continuous period of not less than 6 months, to provide substantial personal and economic support to the child; or

(2) Knowingly declined, for a continuous period of not less than 6 months, to have any meaningful relationship with the child.

(b) "Expedited process" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 126.161.

Sec. 8. 1. In any action for determining physical custody of a minor child, the sole consideration of the court is the best interest of the child. If it appears to the court that joint physical custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

3. The court shall award physical custody in the following order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the child requires otherwise:

(a) To both parents jointly pursuant to section 6 of this act or to either parent pursuant to section 7 of this act. If the court does not enter an order awarding joint physical custody of a child after either parent has applied for joint physical custody, the court shall state in its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's application.

(b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been living and where the child has had a wholesome and stable environment.

(c) To any person related within the fifth degree of consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child, regardless of whether the relative resides within this State.

(d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other things:

(a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical custody.

(b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

(c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the noncustodial parent.

(d) The level of conflict between the parents.

(e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of the child.

(f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

(g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the child.

(h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

(i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any sibling.

(j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a sibling of the child.

(k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child.

(l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 or NRS 125C.210, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint physical custody of the child by the perpetrator of the domestic violence is not in the best interest of the child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

6. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 5 the court determines that each party has engaged in acts of domestic violence, it shall, if possible, then determine which person was the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court shall consider:

(a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving either party;

(b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

(c) The likelihood of future injury;

(d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in self-defense; and

(e) Any other factors which the court deems relevant to the determination.

➥ In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies to both parties. If it is possible for the court to determine which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary physical aggressor.

7. A determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any other child creates a rebuttable presumption that sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child by the perpetrator of the abduction is not in the best interest of the child. If the parent or other person seeking physical custody does not rebut the presumption, the court shall not enter an order for sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child by the perpetrator and the court shall set forth:

(a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or more acts of abduction occurred; and

(b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other person from whom the child was abducted.

8. For the purposes of subsection 7, any of the following acts constitute conclusive evidence that an act of abduction occurred:

(a) A conviction of the defendant of any violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct;

(b) A plea of guilty or nolo contendere by the defendant to any violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct; or

(c) An admission by the defendant to the court of the facts contained in the charging document alleging a violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

9. If, after a court enters a final order concerning physical custody of the child, a magistrate determines there is probable cause to believe that an act of abduction has been committed against the child or any other child and that a person who has been awarded sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child has committed the act, the court shall, upon a motion to modify the order concerning physical custody, reconsider the previous order concerning physical custody pursuant to subsections 7 and 8.

10. As used in this section:

(a) "Abduction" means the commission of an act described in NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

(b) "Domestic violence" means the commission of any act described in NRS 33.018.

Sec. 9. 1. Before the court makes an order awarding custody to any person other than a parent, without the consent of the parents, it shall make a finding that an award of custody to a parent would be detrimental to the child and the award to a nonparent is required to serve the best interest of the child.

2. No allegation that parental custody would be detrimental to the child, other than a statement of that ultimate fact, may appear in the pleadings.

3. The court may exclude the public from any hearing on this issue.

Sec. 10. 1. In any action for determining the custody of a minor child, the court may, except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and chapter 130 of NRS:

(a) During the pendency of the action, at the final hearing or at any time thereafter during the minority of the child, make such an order for the custody, care, education, maintenance and support of the minor child as appears in his or her best interest; and

(b) At any time modify or vacate its order, even if custody was determined pursuant to an action for divorce and the divorce was obtained by default without an appearance in the action by one of the parties.

➥ The party seeking such an order shall submit to the jurisdiction of the court for the purposes of this subsection. The court may make such an order upon the application of one of the parties or the legal guardian of the minor.

2. Any order for joint custody may be modified or terminated by the court upon the petition of one or both parents or on the court's own motion if it is shown that the best interest of the child requires the modification or termination. The court shall state in its decision the reasons for the order of modification or termination if either parent opposes it.

3. Any order for custody of a minor child entered by a court of another state may, subject to the provisions of NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and to the jurisdictional requirements in chapter 125A of NRS, be modified at any time to an order of joint custody.

4. A party may proceed pursuant to this section without counsel.

5. Any order awarding a party a limited right of custody to a child must define that right with sufficient particularity to ensure that the rights of the parties can be properly enforced and that the best interest of the child is achieved. The order must include all specific times and other terms of the limited right of custody. As used in this subsection, "sufficient particularity" means a statement of the rights in absolute terms and not by the use of the term "reasonable" or other similar term which is susceptible to different interpretations by the parties.

6. All orders authorized by this section must be made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 125A of NRS and NRS 125C.0601 to 125C.0693, inclusive, and must contain the following language:

> PENALTY FOR VIOLATION OF ORDER: THE ABDUCTION, CONCEALMENT OR DETENTION OF A CHILD IN VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS PUNISHABLE AS A CATEGORY D FELONY AS PROVIDED IN NRS 193.130. NRS 200.359 provides that every person having a limited right of custody to a child or any parent having no right of custody to the child who willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child in violation of an order of this court, or removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

7. In addition to the language required pursuant to subsection 6, all orders authorized by this section must specify that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country.

8. If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

(a) The parties may agree, and the court shall include in the order for custody of the child, that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in subsection 7.

(b) Upon motion of one of the parties, the court may order the parent to post a bond if the court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning the child to his or her habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child.

9. Except where a contract providing otherwise has been executed pursuant to NRS 123.080, the obligation for care, education, maintenance and support of any minor child created by any order entered pursuant to this section ceases:

(a) Upon the death of the person to whom the order was directed; or

(b) When the child reaches 18 years of age if the child is no longer enrolled in high school, otherwise, when the child reaches 19 years of age.

10. As used in this section, a parent has "significant commitments in a foreign country" if the parent:

(a) Is a citizen of a foreign country;

(b) Possesses a passport in his or her name from a foreign country;

(c) Became a citizen of the United States after marrying the other parent of the child; or

(d) Frequently travels to a foreign country.

Sec. 11. 1. The court may, when appropriate, require the parents to submit to the court a plan for carrying out the court's order concerning custody.

2. Access to records and other information pertaining to a minor child, including, without limitation, medical, dental and school records, must not be denied to a parent for the reason that the parent is not the child's custodial parent.

Sec. 12. 1. If, during any action for determining the custody of a minor child, either before or after the entry of a final order concerning the custody of a minor child, it appears to the court that any minor child of either party has been, or is likely to be, taken or removed out of this State or concealed within this State, the court shall forthwith order such child to be produced before it and make such disposition of the child's custody as appears most advantageous to and in the best interest of the child and most likely to secure to him or her the benefit of the final order or the modification or termination of the final order to be made in his or her behalf.

2. If, during any action for determining the custody of a minor child, either before or after the entry of a final order concerning the custody of a minor child, the court finds that it would be in the best interest of the minor child, the court may enter an order providing that a party may, with the assistance of the appropriate law enforcement agency, obtain physical custody of the child from the party having physical custody of the child. The order must provide that if the party obtains physical custody of the child, the child must be produced before the court as soon as practicable to allow the court to make such disposition of the child's custody as appears most advantageous to and in the best interest of the child and most likely to secure to him or her the benefit of the final order or the modification or termination of the final order to be made in his or her behalf.

3. If the court enters an order pursuant to subsection 2 providing that a party may obtain physical custody of a child, the court shall order that party to give the party having physical custody of the child notice at least 24 hours before the time at which he or she intends to obtain physical custody of the child, unless the court deems that requiring the notice would likely defeat the purpose of the order.

4. All orders for a party to appear with a child issued pursuant to this section may be enforced by issuing a warrant of arrest against that party to secure his or her appearance with the child.

5. A proceeding under this section must be given priority on the court calendar.

Sec. 13. 1. If joint physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and one parent intends to relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the relocating parent desires to take the child with him or her, the relocating parent shall , before relocating:

(a) Attempt to obtain the written consent of the non-relocating parent to relocate with the child; and

(b) If the non-relocating parent refuses to give that consent, petition the court for primary physical custody for the purpose of relocating.

2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the relocating parent if the court finds that the non-relocating parent refused to consent to the relocating parent's relocation with the child:

(a) Without having reasonable grounds for such refusal; or

(b) For the purpose of harassing the relocating parent.

3. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section before the court enters an order granting the parent primary physical custody of the child and permission to relocate with the child is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

Sec. 14. 1. In every instance of a petition for permission to relocate with a child that is filed pursuant to NRS 125C.200 or section 13 of this act, the relocating parent must demonstrate to the court that:

(a) There exists a sensible, good-faith reason for the move, and the move is not intended to deprive the non-relocating parent of his or her parenting time;

(b) The best interests of the child are ~~[substantially better]~~ served by allowing the relocating parent to relocate ~~[,]~~ with the child; and

(c) The child and the relocating parent will benefit from an actual advantage ~~[that currently exists or is certain to exist before the time]~~ as a result of the relocation . ~~[; and~~

~~(d) If the parents currently share joint custody of the child, the child will do substantially better in the new location than the child would if he or she remained in this State with the non-relocating parent.]~~

2. If a relocating parent demonstrates to the court the provisions set forth in subsection 1, the court must then weigh the following factors and the impact of each on the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent, including, without limitation, the extent to which the compelling interests of the child, the relocating parent and the non-relocating parent are accommodated:

(a) The extent to which the relocation is likely to improve the quality of life for the child and the relocating parent;

(b) Whether the motives of the relocating parent are honorable and not designed to frustrate or defeat any visitation rights accorded to the non-relocating parent;

(c) Whether the relocating parent will comply with any substitute visitation orders issued by the court if permission to relocate is granted;

(d) Whether the motives of the non-relocating parent are honorable in resisting the petition for permission to relocate or to what extent any opposition to the petition for permission to relocate is intended to secure a financial advantage in the form of ongoing support obligations or otherwise;

(e) Whether there will be a realistic opportunity for the non-relocating parent to maintain a visitation schedule that will adequately foster and preserve the parental relationship between the child and the non-relocating parent if permission to relocate is granted; and

(f) Any other factor necessary to assist the court in determining whether to grant permission to relocate.

3. A parent who desires to relocate with a child pursuant to NRS 125C.200 or section 13 of this act has the burden of proving that relocating with the child is in the best interest of the child.

Sec. 15. If a parent with primary physical custody or joint physical custody relocates with a child in violation of NRS 200.359:

1. The court shall not consider any post-relocation facts or circumstances regarding the welfare of the child or the relocating parent in making any determination.

2. If the non-relocating parent files an action in response to the violation, the non-relocating parent is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred as a result of the violation.

Sec. 16. NRS 125C.200 is hereby amended to read as follows:

125C.200 1. If primary physical custody has been established pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of a court and the custodial parent intends to ~~[move]~~ relocate his or her residence to a place outside of this State or to a place within this State that is at such a distance that would substantially impair the ability of the other parent to maintain a meaningful relationship with the child, and the custodial parent desires to take the child with him or her, the custodial parent ~~[must, as soon as possible and before the planned move, attempt]~~ shall ~~[:]~~ , before relocating:

~~with the provisions of this section may be considered as a factor if a change of custody is requested by the noncustodial parent.]~~

2. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the custodial parent if the court finds that the noncustodial parent refused to consent to the custodial parent's relocation with the child:

(a) Without having reasonable grounds for such refusal; or

(b) For the purpose of harassing the custodial parent.

3. A parent who relocates with a child pursuant to this section without the written consent of the noncustodial parent or the permission of the court is subject to the provisions of NRS 200.359.

Sec. 17. NRS 146.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

146.010 Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or in ~~[NRS 125.510,]~~ section 10 of this act, if a person dies leaving a surviving spouse or a minor child or minor children, the surviving spouse, minor child or minor children are entitled to remain in possession of the homestead and of all the wearing apparel and provisions in the possession of the family, and all the household furniture, and are also entitled to a reasonable provision for their support, to be allowed by the court.

Sec. 18. NRS 200.359 is hereby amended to read as follows:

200.359 1. A person having a limited right of custody to a child by operation of law or pursuant to an order, judgment or decree of any court, including a judgment or decree which grants another person rights to custody or visitation of the child, or any parent having no right of custody to the child, who:

(a) In violation of an order, judgment or decree of any court willfully detains, conceals or removes the child from a parent, guardian or other person having lawful custody or a right of visitation of the child; or

(b) In the case of an order, judgment or decree of any court that does not specify when the right to physical custody or visitation is to be exercised, removes the child from the jurisdiction of the court without the consent of either the court or all persons who have the right to custody or visitation,

2. ~~[A]~~ Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a parent who has joint legal and physical custody of a child pursuant to ~~[NRS 125.465]~~ section 4 of this act shall not willfully conceal or remove the child from the custody of the other parent with the specific intent to ~~[deprive]~~ frustrate the efforts of the other parent ~~[of the parent and child]~~ to establish or maintain a meaningful relationship ~~[.]~~ with the child. A person who violates this subsection shall be punished as provided in subsection 1 ~~[.]~~ unless the person demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court that he or she violated this subsection to protect the child or himself or herself from an act that constitutes domestic violence pursuant to NRS 33.018.

6. Before an arrest warrant may be issued for a violation of this section, the court must find that:

(a) This is the home state of the child, as defined in NRS 125A.085; and

(b) There is cause to believe that the entry of a court order in a civil proceeding brought pursuant to chapter 125, 125A or 125C of NRS will not be effective to enforce the rights of the parties and would not be in the best interests of the child.

Assemblyman Hansen moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate Amendment No. 958 to Assembly Bill No. 263.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

Assembly Bill No. 386.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 712.

AN ACT relating to real property; establishing supplemental procedures for the retaking of a dwelling subject to housebreaking or unlawful entry; establishing procedures for the retaking of a dwelling subject to forcible entry or forcible detainer; revising provisions relating to unlawful detainer; revising the procedures for removing a tenant who is guilty of an unlawful detainer; establishing the criminal offenses of housebreaking, unlawful entry and unlawful reentry; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law sets forth procedures for the removal of a person who is guilty of forcible entry, forcible detainer or unlawful detainer. (NRS 40.230, 40.240, 40.280-40.420) Section 23 of this bill revises provisions governing the service of a notice to surrender by: (1) providing for different posting and mailing requirements; (2) eliminating the requirement that a witness be present for service if notice is served by a sheriff, constable or licensed process server; and (3) revising the contents of proof of service that must be filed with a court.

Existing law authorizes and sets forth a summary procedure for eviction of a tenant of certain types of properties who is guilty of unlawful detainer for: (1) continuing in possession of real property after the expiration of a specific term; (2) continuing in possession after expiration of a notice to surrender; (3) waste, nuisance, violation of certain lease terms and committing certain unlawful activities; and (4) failure to perform lease or agreement conditions or covenants. (NRS 40.254) Section 20 of this bill revises this summary procedure as it relates to the contents of certain notices served upon a tenant and the commencement and conduct of court proceedings in contested cases.

Existing law provides that a tenant's neglect or failure to perform any condition or covenant of the lease or agreement under which property is held constitutes unlawful detainer and warrants the commencement of proceedings to remove the tenant. (NRS 40.2516) Section 17 of this bill revises the types of property to which these provisions apply and specifies the regular and summary procedures, if applicable, by which a landlord may remove a tenant from the property.

Existing law describes conduct which constitutes forcible entry and forcible detainer. (NRS 40.230, 40.240) Sections 11 and 12 of this bill revise the definitions of "forcible entry" and "forcible detainer," establish requirements relating to a notice to surrender that must be served upon a person who commits forcible entry or forcible detainer and authorize the entry of judgment for three times the amount of actual damages for such offenses under certain circumstances. Section 2 of this bill establishes a procedure by which an owner of a dwelling that is the object of a housebreaking or unlawful occupancy may retake possession of and change the locks on the dwelling. Section 4 of this bill establishes a procedure by which an occupant who has been locked out of a dwelling may seek to recover possession of the dwelling.

Sections 45-48 of this bill set forth the acts which constitute the criminal offenses of housebreaking, unlawful occupancy and unlawful reentry and the penalties that attach upon conviction. Section 3 of this bill establishes a procedure by which the owner of a dwelling that was subject to forcible entry or forcible detainer may seek to recover possession of the dwelling.

Such a hearing must be held within 7 judicial days after the filing of the affidavit of complaint.

(d) Upon review of the affidavits of any party or upon hearing, the court determines that:

(1) There is a legal defense as to the alleged forcible entry or forcible detainer, the court must refuse to grant either party any relief and, except as otherwise provided in this subsection, must require that any further proceedings be conducted pursuant to NRS 40.290 to 40.420, inclusive, and sections 2, 3 and 4 of this act.

This period may not exceed 20 days.

7. The owner of the real property, an authorized representative of the owner or the occupant who is authorized by the owner to be in possession of the real property may, without incurring any civil or criminal liability, dispose of personal property abandoned on the real property by an unlawful or unauthorized occupant who is ordered removed by this section in the following manner:

(a) The owner of the real property, an authorized representative of the owner or the occupant who is authorized by the owner to be in possession of the real property shall reasonably provide for the safe storage of the abandoned personal property for 21 calendar days after the removal of the unlawful or unauthorized occupant or the surrender of the real property in compliance with a written notice to surrender, whichever comes first, and may charge and collect the reasonable and actual costs of inventory, moving and storage before releasing the abandoned personal property to the unlawful or unauthorized occupant or his or her authorized representative rightfully claiming the property within that period. The owner or the occupant is liable to the unlawful or unauthorized occupant only for negligent or wrongful acts in storing the abandoned personal property.

(b) After the expiration of the 21-day period, the owner of the real property, an authorized representative of the owner or the occupant who is authorized by the owner to be in possession of the real property may dispose of the abandoned personal property and recover his or her reasonable costs out of the personal property or the value thereof.

(c) Vehicles must be disposed of in the manner provided in chapter 487 of NRS for abandoned vehicles.

(d) Any dispute relating to the amount of the costs claimed by the owner of the real property, an authorized representative of the owner or the occupant who is authorized by the owner to be in possession of the real property pursuant to paragraph (a) may be resolved by the court pursuant to a motion filed by the unlawful or unauthorized occupant and the payment of the appropriate fees relating to the filing and service of the motion. The motion must be filed within 14 calendar days after the removal of the unlawful or unauthorized occupant or the surrender of the real property in compliance with a written notice to surrender, whichever comes first. Upon the filing of a motion by the unlawful or unauthorized occupant pursuant to this paragraph, the court shall schedule a hearing on the motion. The hearing must be held within 10 judicial days after the filing of the motion. The court shall affix the date of the hearing to the motion and mail a copy to the owner, an authorized representative of the owner or the occupant at the address on file with the court.

3. The court shall, after notice to both parties, hold a trial on the occupant's verified complaint for reentry not later than 10 judicial days after the date on which the occupant files the verified complaint for reentry.

4. If the court finds that an unjustified lockout has occurred, the court must issue a writ of restitution, restoring possession of the dwelling to the occupant.

5. A party may appeal from the court's judgment at the trial on the verified complaint for reentry in the same manner as a party may appeal a judgment in an action for forcible detainer.

6. If the owner of the dwelling or the person on whom a writ of restitution is served fails to immediately comply with the writ or later disobeys the writ, the failure is grounds for contempt of court against the owner or the person on whom the writ was served, under chapter 22 of NRS.

7. This section does not affect:

(a) The right of any party to pursue a separate cause of action under this chapter or chapter 118A of NRS if the court finds that a landlord and tenant relationship exists between the parties; or

(b) The rights of an owner or occupant in a forcible detainer, unlawful detainer or forcible entry and detainer action.

4. The posting of a notice required by this section must be completed by a process server licensed pursuant to chapter 648 of NRS or any constable or sheriff of the county in which the property is located.

5. As used in this section, "residential foreclosure" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 107.080.

Sec. 33. NRS 116.4112 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.4112 1. A declarant of a common-interest community containing converted buildings, and any dealer who intends to offer units in such a common-interest community, shall give each of the residential tenants and any residential subtenant in possession of a portion of a converted building notice of the conversion and provide those persons with the public offering statement no later than 120 days before the tenants and any subtenant in possession are required to vacate. The notice must set forth generally the rights of tenants and subtenants under this section and must be hand-delivered to the unit or mailed by prepaid United States mail to the tenant and subtenant at the address of the unit or any other mailing address provided by a tenant. No tenant or subtenant may be required to vacate upon less than 120 days' notice, except by reason of nonpayment of rent, waste or conduct that disturbs other tenants' peaceful enjoyment of the premises, and the terms of the tenancy may not be altered during that period. Failure to give notice as required by this section is a defense to an action for possession. If, during the 6-month period before the recording of a declaration, a majority of the tenants or any subtenants in possession of any portion of the property described in such declaration has been required to vacate for reasons other than nonpayment of rent, waste or conduct that disturbs other tenants' peaceful enjoyment of the premises, a rebuttable presumption is created that the owner of such property intended to offer the vacated premises as units in a common-interest community at all times during that 6-month period.

2. For 60 days after delivery or mailing of the notice described in subsection 1, the person required to give the notice shall offer to convey each unit or proposed unit occupied for residential use to the tenant who leases that unit. If a tenant fails to purchase the unit during that 60-day period, the offeror may not offer to dispose of an interest in that unit during the following 180 days at a price or on terms more favorable to the offeree than the price or terms offered to the tenant. This subsection does not apply to any unit in a converted building if that unit will be restricted exclusively to nonresidential use or the boundaries of the converted unit do not substantially conform to the dimensions of the residential unit before conversion.

3. If a seller, in violation of subsection 2, conveys a unit to a purchaser for value who has no knowledge of the violation, the recordation of the deed conveying the unit or, in a cooperative, the conveyance of the unit, extinguishes any right a tenant may have under subsection 2 to purchase that unit if the deed states that the seller has complied with subsection 2, but the conveyance does not affect the right of a tenant to recover damages from the seller for a violation of subsection 2.

4. If a notice of conversion specifies a date by which a unit or proposed unit must be vacated and otherwise complies with the provisions of NRS 40.251 and 40.280, the notice also constitutes a notice to ~~[vacate]~~ surrender specified by those sections.

5. This section does not permit termination of a lease by a declarant in violation of its terms.

Sec. 34. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 35. NRS 118A.180 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 40. NRS 118B.190 is hereby amended to read as follows:

118B.190 1. A written agreement between a landlord and tenant for the rental or lease of a manufactured home lot in a manufactured home park in this State, or for the rental or lease of a lot for a recreational vehicle in an area of a manufactured home park in this State other than an area designated as a recreational vehicle lot pursuant to the provisions of subsection ~~[6]~~ 8 of NRS 40.215, must not be terminated by the landlord except upon notice in writing to the tenant served in the manner provided in NRS 40.280:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), 5 days in advance if the termination is because the conduct of the tenant constitutes a nuisance as defined in NRS 40.140 or violates a state law or local ordinance.

(b) Three days in advance upon the issuance of temporary writ of restitution pursuant to NRS 40.300 on the grounds that a nuisance as defined in NRS 40.140 has occurred in the park by the act of a tenant or any guest, visitor or other member of a tenant's household consisting of any of the following specific activities:

(1) Discharge of a weapon.

(2) Prostitution.

(3) Illegal drug manufacture or use.

(4) Child molestation or abuse.

(5) Property damage as a result of vandalism.

(6) Operating a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or any other controlled substance.

(7) Elder molestation or abuse.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, 10 days in advance if the termination is because of failure of the tenant to pay rent, utility charges or reasonable service fees.

(d) One hundred eighty days in advance if the termination is because of a change in the use of the land by the landlord pursuant to NRS 118B.180.

(e) Forty-five days in advance if the termination is for any other reason.

2. The landlord shall specify in the notice the reason for the termination of the agreement. The reason relied upon for the termination must be set forth with specific facts so that the date, place and circumstances concerning the reason for the termination can be determined. The termination must be in accordance with the provisions of NRS 118B.200 and reference alone to a provision of that section does not constitute sufficient specificity pursuant to this subsection.

3. The service of such a notice does not enhance the landlord's right, if any, to enter the tenant's manufactured home. Except in an emergency, the landlord shall not enter the manufactured home of the tenant served with such a notice without the tenant's permission or a court order allowing the entry.

4. If a tenant remains in possession of the manufactured home lot after expiration of the term of the rental agreement, the tenancy is from week to week in the case of a tenant who pays weekly rent, and in all other cases the tenancy is from month to month. The tenant's continued occupancy is on the same terms and conditions as were contained in the rental agreement unless specifically agreed otherwise in writing.

5. The landlord and tenant may agree to a specific date for termination of the agreement. If any provision of this chapter specifies a period of notice which is longer than the period of a particular tenancy, the required length of the period of notice is controlling.

6. Notwithstanding any provision of NRS 40.215 to 40.425, inclusive, and sections 2 to 7, inclusive, of this act, if a tenant who is not a natural person has received three notices for nonpayment of rent in accordance with subsection 1, the landlord is not required to give the tenant a further 10-day notice in advance of termination if the termination is because of failure to pay rent, utility charges or reasonable service fees.

Sec. 41. NRS 118B.200 is hereby amended to read as follows:

118B.200 1. Notwithstanding the expiration of a period of a tenancy or service of a notice pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 118B.190, the rental agreement described in NRS 118B.190 may not be terminated except on one or more of the following grounds:

(a) Failure of the tenant to pay rent, utility charges or reasonable service fees within 10 days after written notice of delinquency served upon the tenant in the manner provided in NRS 40.280;

(b) Failure of the tenant to correct any noncompliance with a law, ordinance or governmental regulation pertaining to manufactured homes or recreational vehicles or a valid rule or regulation established pursuant to NRS 118B.100 or to cure any violation of the rental agreement within a reasonable time after receiving written notification of noncompliance or violation;

(c) Conduct of the tenant in the manufactured home park which constitutes an annoyance to other tenants;

(d) Violation of valid rules of conduct, occupancy or use of park facilities after written notice of the violation is served upon the tenant in the manner provided in NRS 40.280;

(e) A change in the use of the land by the landlord pursuant to NRS 118B.180;

(f) Conduct of the tenant which constitutes a nuisance as defined in NRS 40.140 or which violates a state law or local ordinance, specifically including, without limitation:

(1) Discharge of a weapon;

(2) Prostitution;

(3) Illegal drug manufacture or use;

(4) Child molestation or abuse;

(5) Elder molestation or abuse;

(6) Property damage as a result of vandalism; and

(7) Operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or any other controlled substance; or

(g) In a manufactured home park that is owned by a nonprofit organization or housing authority, failure of the tenant to meet qualifications relating to age or income which:

(1) Are set forth in the lease signed by the tenant; and

(2) Comply with federal, state and local law.

2. A tenant who is not a natural person and who has received three or more 10-day notices to ~~[quit]~~ surrender for failure to pay rent in the preceding 12-month period may have his or her tenancy terminated by the landlord for habitual failure to pay timely rent.

Amendment No. 863.

SUMMARY—Provides for the administration and enforcement of ~~[excise taxes on]~~ various provisions relating to medical marijuana. (BDR 32-322)

AN ACT relating to ~~[taxation;]~~ medical marijuana; providing for the administration and enforcement of taxes on the sale of marijuana, edible marijuana products and marijuana-infused products by medical marijuana establishments; eliminating certain duties of the Department of Taxation relating to the rates of such taxes; providing for the collection of a fee by an agency of a local government from a medical marijuana establishment for certain costs of the agency; authorizing an independent contractor to provide labor to a medical marijuana establishment in certain circumstances; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law imposes taxes on: (1) the sale of controlled substances, which are defined to exclude marijuana, edible marijuana products and marijuana-infused products; and (2) the wholesale and retail sales of marijuana, edible marijuana products and marijuana-infused products by medical marijuana establishments. (NRS 372A.070, 372A.075) Sections 4-21 of this bill generally provide for the administration and enforcement of the taxes imposed on sales by medical marijuana establishments. Section 10 adopts by reference provisions of general applicability relating to the payment, collection, administration and enforcement of taxes. Sections 11 and 12 require that a taxpayer maintain certain records and provide for the inspection of those records by the Department of Taxation or its authorized representative. Sections 1 and 2 of this bill and sections 13-15 adopt provisions governing penalties for failure to pay, claims for refunds and credits, and the payment of interest on any overpayment of the tax on medical marijuana. Section 16 sets forth the procedure by which the denial of a claim for a refund or credit may be appealed to the Nevada Tax Commission and provides that the Commission's final decision on an appeal is a final decision for the purposes of judicial review pursuant to the Nevada Administrative Procedure Act. Section 17 denies standing to commence or maintain a proceeding for judicial review to anyone other than the person who made the disputed payment. If judgment is rendered for the claimant in such a proceeding, section 18 provides for the allowance and computation of interest on the amount found to have been erroneously or illegally collected. Section 19 prohibits proceedings to prevent or enjoin the collection of the tax and requires that a timely claim for a refund or credit be made as a prerequisite to any proceeding for the recovery of a refund. Section 20 makes it a gross misdemeanor for any person to file a false or fraudulent return or engage in other conduct with intent to defraud the State or evade payment of the tax. Section 21 provides that the remedies of the State relating to the administration of the tax are cumulative, meaning that the pursuit of one remedy by the Department or the Attorney General does not preclude the pursuit of any other authorized remedy.

Under existing law, the Department is required regularly to review the rates of the taxes imposed on sales by medical marijuana establishments and make recommendations to the Legislature regarding adjustments of those rates. (NRS 372A.075) Section 23 of this bill eliminates that requirement. With that exception, sections 22-28 of this bill reflect a reorganization of the provisions of chapter 372A of NRS, but make no substantive changes.

Under existing law, an applicant for the issuance or renewal of a medical marijuana establishment registration certificate must submit proof that it has complied with the zoning restrictions and applicable building requirements of the local governmental authority for the place it will be located. (NRS 453A.322) Additionally, in a local governmental jurisdiction that issues business licenses, the issuance of a medical marijuana establishment registration certificate is provisional until the establishment complies with all applicable local governmental ordinances or rules and receives a business license. (NRS 453A.326) Section 29 of this bill requires an agency of a local government that performs inspections, reviews or other tasks related to ensuring that a medical marijuana establishment complies with all applicable local governmental ordinances or rules to maintain records of: (1) the hours its employees spend on these inspections, reviews and tasks; (2) the rate of pay of such employees; and (3) the share of any costs for equipment for the agency attributable to the establishment. Section 29 requires the agency to provide these records to the establishment within 30 days after performing such inspections, reviews or tasks and requires the establishment to pay a fee to the agency equal to the actual costs of the agency to perform the inspections, reviews and tasks. Section 29 requires that the proceeds of such a fee be expended only to pay the costs to perform such inspections, reviews and tasks and prohibits the proceeds from supplanting other support for the agency.

Under existing law, a person must register with the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services as a medical marijuana establishment agent before volunteering or working at a medical marijuana establishment. (NRS 453A.332) Sections 30, 31 and 33 of this bill allow an independent contractor and its employees to register as medical marijuana establishment agents and provide labor to a medical marijuana establishment.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

The amount of any penalty imposed must be based on a graduated schedule adopted by the Nevada Tax Commission which takes into consideration the length of time the tax or fee remained unpaid.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 686.

AN ACT relating to taxation; revising provisions relating to the imposition by certain counties of additional taxes on fuels for motor vehicles; providing that the boards of county commissioners of certain larger counties may continue the imposition of certain additional taxes on fuels for motor vehicles if a ballot question authorizing such additional taxes is approved by a majority of the voters in the county; providing for the imposition by the boards of county commissioners of certain counties of additional taxes on fuels for motor vehicles if a ballot question authorizing such additional taxes is approved by a majority of the voters in the county; requiring the approval by voters of additional ballot measures to continue the imposition of the additional taxes; providing that money collected from certain of the additional taxes must be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of the State Highway Fund, accounted for separately in the State Highway Fund and used by the Department of Transportation only to finance projects for the construction, maintenance and repair of state highways in the county in which the tax is collected; repealing certain provisions relating to a ballot question providing for the imposition by the State of certain additional taxes on fuels for motor vehicles; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes counties to impose certain taxes on motor vehicle fuels and special fuels used in motor vehicles. (Chapter 373 of NRS) Existing law authorizes the board of county commissioners of a county whose population is 700,000 or more and in which a regional transportation commission has been created and a county tax is imposed on motor vehicle fuel (currently Clark County) to impose, upon approval by a two-thirds majority of the members of the board, additional taxes on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles. Existing law also authorizes the board of county commissioners to provide for annual increases in these taxes, for the period beginning on January 1, 2014, and ending on December 31, 2016. Existing law provides that for the period beginning on January 1, 2017: (1) the board of county commissioners must not impose any additional increases in certain taxes authorized by that provision of existing law; and (2) increases in the remainder of the taxes authorized by that provision may not be effectuated unless a majority of the voters in the county at the general election in November 2016 authorize the board of county commissioners to continue to provide for the annual increases. (NRS 373.0663) Section 2 of this bill removes the prohibition on the continued imposition of additional increases in certain taxes, subject to the existing provisions which provide that the additional increases may not be effectuated unless a majority of the voters in the county at the general election in November 2016 authorize the board of county commissioners to continue to provide for the annual increases. Section 2 additionally provides that for the period beginning on January 1, 2027, additional annual increases in the taxes on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles may not be effectuated unless a majority of the voters in the county at the general election in November 2026 authorize the board of county commissioners to continue to provide for the annual increases. If the voters in the county at the general election in November 2016 authorize the board of county commissioners to continue to provide for the annual increases, section 1 of this bill provides that any money collected from certain additional taxes imposed on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles after November 8, 2016, must be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of the State Highway Fund, accounted for separately in the State Highway Fund and used by the Department of Transportation only to finance projects for the construction, maintenance and repair of state highways in the county in which the tax is collected. Sections 4, 7, 9 and 12 of this bill make conforming changes.

Upon approval by a majority of the voters in any county, other than Clark or Washoe County, at the general election in November 2016, existing law requires the board of county commissioners of the county to impose additional county taxes on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles. Existing law also authorizes the board of county commissioners to provide for annual increases in these taxes, for the period beginning on January 1, 2017, and ending on December 31, 2026. Additionally, existing law provides that, for the period beginning on January 1, 2027, the increases in these taxes may not be effectuated unless a majority of the voters in the county at the general election in November 2026 authorize the board of county commissioners to continue to provide for the annual increases. (NRS 373.0667) Existing law also provides for a statewide ballot measure, approval of which by a majority of the voters in the State at the general election in November 2016 would require the State to impose additional state taxes on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles and to impose annual increases on those taxes. (Section 12 of chapter 540, Statutes of Nevada 2013, p. 3586) Section 18 of this bill repeals the provisions of existing law relating to the statewide ballot measure concerning the imposition by the State of additional state taxes on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles. Sections 3 and 17 of this bill instead require the board of county commissioners of a county other than Clark or Washoe County, upon approval by a majority of the voters in the county at the general election in November 2016, to impose such additional taxes on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles in the same manner as the board is required under existing law to impose the additional county taxes on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles. Sections 14.5 and 15 of this bill provide that money collected from certain additional taxes imposed on motor vehicle fuel and various special fuels used in motor vehicles on or after January 1, 2017, must be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of the State Highway Fund, accounted for separately in the State Highway Fund and used by the Department of Transportation only to finance projects for the construction, maintenance and repair of state highways in the county in which the tax is collected. Sections 4.5, 5, 6, 7.5, 8, 9.5, 10, 11, 12.5, 13, 14 and 18 of this bill make conforming changes.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 373 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

If the question is approved by a majority of such voters, no further action by the Legislature is necessary to effectuate the annual increases in the taxes imposed by this section. If the question is not approved by a majority of such voters, the Legislature shall not impose any additional annual increases in the taxes imposed by this section after November 3, 2026, but any annual increases in the taxes imposed by this section in effect on or before November 3, 2026, are not affected, amended, reduced or eliminated and must be continued for any period during which bonds are outstanding that are secured by the taxes imposed by this section.

(e) "Special fuel" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 366.060.

373.165 Pledge of continuing increases in taxes imposed pursuant to NRS 373.0665.

2. At any time after bonds are issued or other obligations incurred with a pledge of the taxes imposed pursuant to NRS 373.0665, the Legislature may, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of subsection 3 of NRS 373.0665:

(a) Continue the pledge of the increase in taxes imposed pursuant to NRS 373.0665 beyond June 30 of the fiscal year that is 5 full fiscal years after bonds or other obligations secured by the taxes imposed pursuant to NRS 373.0665 are issued or incurred, but not beyond June 30 of the fiscal year that is 5 full fiscal years after the action by the Legislature authorized by this paragraph. The process set forth in this paragraph may be repeated until all bonds or other obligations secured by the taxes imposed pursuant to NRS 373.0665 have been paid in full.

(b) Specify a different applicable percentage, including an applicable percentage of zero, but:

3. As used in this section, "applicable percentage" has the meaning ascribed to it in paragraph (b) of subsection 5 of NRS 373.0665.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 34.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 719.

AN ACT relating to fire safety; repealing provisions governing certain fire protection districts; reenacting certain of those provisions relating to fire safety; revising the circumstances under which a person, firm, association or agency that caused a fire or other emergency that threatens human life would be charged for the expenses incurred to extinguish the fire or meet the emergency; authorizing a municipal agency to collect those expenses; providing for the issuance of an annual permit to engage in certain activities; authorizing the State Land Registrar to transfer title to certain real property owned by the State of Nevada to certain local fire protection districts and counties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for the creation of certain fire protection districts by petition to the State Forester Firewarden. (Chapter 473 of NRS) The functions of those districts are currently being transferred to other local government entities. Accordingly, section 15 of this bill repeals the provisions of chapter 473 of NRS. Certain provisions of that chapter relating to fire safety are reenacted in chapter 472 of NRS by sections 2, 3 and 5 of this bill. Sections 6-10 of this bill make conforming changes.

Existing law provides that within the boundaries of certain fire protection districts, any person, firm, association or agency responsible for causing any fire or other emergency which threatens human life may, in certain circumstances, be charged with the expenses incurred in extinguishing the fire or meeting the emergency, together with the cost of necessary patrol. (NRS 473.080, 474.550) Section 4 of this bill reenacts NRS 473.080 but : (1) removes the boundary limitation ~~[and]~~ ; (2) revises the circumstances under which a person, firm, association or agency would be required to pay those expenses ~~[.]~~ ; and (3) authorizes a municipal agency to collect those expenses. Section 8.5 of this bill makes a similar change concerning those expenses with respect to county fire protection districts.

Existing law provides that it is unlawful within the boundaries of certain fire protection districts for any person, firm, association, corporation or agency to burn, or cause to be burned, any brush, grass, logs or any other inflammable material, or blast with dynamite, powder or other explosive, or set off fireworks, or operate a welding torch, tarpot or any other device that may cause a fire in forest, grass or brush, either on the land of the person, firm, association, corporation or agency or on the land of another, or on public land, unless such burning or act is done under a written permit from the State Forester Firewarden or the State Forester Firewarden's duly authorized agent and in strict accordance with the terms of the permit. Existing law also clarifies that this prohibition does not prevent the issuance of an annual permit to any public utility covering its usual and emergency operation and maintenance work within the district. (NRS 473.090) Section 5: (1) provides that this prohibition also does not prevent the issuance of an annual permit to a person who engages in agricultural production; and (2) defines the term "agricultural production."

Existing law authorizes the State Land Registrar to transfer any interest in land owned by the State of Nevada. (NRS 321.003) Sections 11-13 of this bill authorize the State Land Registrar to transfer title to certain real property owned by the State, with certain restrictions, to certain local fire protection districts and counties as the result of the dissolution of the fire protection districts created pursuant to chapter 473 of NRS.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 472 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 5, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 2. 1. The State Forester Firewarden may prohibit or restrict the following activities on any lands within the jurisdiction of the State Forester Firewarden when a danger to public safety or natural resources exists because of conditions which create a high risk of fire:

(a) The operation in an area of timber, brush or grass of a motor vehicle or other item of equipment powered by a motor:

(1) If the motor does not have a spark arrestor as required by law; or

(2) If the operator does not have in his or her possession an ax, shovel and at least 1 gallon of water;

(b) The operation in an area of timber, brush or grass of a motor vehicle off an existing paved, gravel or dirt road;

(c) The smoking of tobacco or other substances in any place other than a motor vehicle or an area cleared of flammable vegetation;

(d) Setting an open fire in any place other than in a fireplace located in an established picnic area or campground; or

(e) Other activities, if specified in regulations adopted by the State Forester Firewarden and the prohibition or restriction is related to reducing a high risk of fire,

➥ but these prohibitions and restrictions do not apply in established campgrounds or picnic areas, beaches or places of habitation or to travel on state or federal highways.

2. The State Forester Firewarden shall make a public announcement and post signs in any area where the State Forester Firewarden has prohibited or restricted any activities.

3. The State Forester Firewarden shall, upon finding that a danger to public safety or to natural resources no longer exists, make known to the public the end of any prohibition or restriction in that area.

4. The provisions of this section apply only to specified prohibitions or restrictions and do not confer upon the State Forester Firewarden the power to prohibit access to land.

5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 527.126, any person, firm, association or agency which, personally or through another, willfully, negligently or in violation of the law:

1. Sets fire to the property, whether privately or publicly owned, of another;

2. Allows fire to be set to the property, whether privately or publicly owned, of another; or

3. Allows a fire kindled or attended by the person, firm, association or agency to escape to the property, whether privately or publicly owned, of another,

➥ is liable to the owner of the property for the damages caused by the fire.

Sec. 4. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section or by specific statute, if the State Forester Firewarden determines that a person, firm, association or agency is responsible for willfully or negligently causing any fire or other emergency which threatens human life, the person, firm, association or agency may be charged with the expenses incurred in extinguishing the fire or meeting the emergency, together with the cost of necessary patrol. This charge constitutes a debt of the person, firm, association or agency charged and is collectible by the federal, state , ~~[or]~~ county or municipal agency incurring such expenses in the same manner as in the case of an obligation under a contract, express or implied.

2. If the State Forester Firewarden determines that the fire or other emergency which threatens human life was the result of an unavoidable accident, the State Forester Firewarden shall not charge the person, firm, association or agency that caused the fire or emergency the expenses incurred in extinguishing the fire or meeting the emergency.

Sec. 5. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and NRS 527.126, it is unlawful for any person, firm, association, corporation or agency to burn, or cause to be burned, any brush, grass, logs or any other inflammable material, or blast with dynamite, powder or other explosive, or set off fireworks, or operate a welding torch, tarpot or any other device that may cause a fire in forest, grass or brush, either on the land of the person, firm, association, corporation or agency or on the land of another, or on public land, unless the burning or act is done under a written permit from the State Forester Firewarden or the State Forester Firewarden's duly authorized agent and in strict accordance with the terms of the permit.

2. Written permission is not necessary:

(a) At any time during the year when the State Forester Firewarden determines that no fire hazard exists.

(b) To burn materials in screened, safe incinerators, or in incinerators approved by the local governmental jurisdiction, the State Forester Firewarden or the State Forester Firewarden's duly authorized agent, or in small heaps or piles, where the fire is set on a public road, corrals, gardens or ploughed fields, and at a distance not less than 100 feet from any woodland, timber or brush-covered land or field containing dry grass or other inflammable material with at least one adult person in actual attendance at the fire at all times during its burning.

3. This section does not prevent the issuance of an annual permit to any ~~[public]~~ :

(a) Public utility covering its usual and emergency operation and maintenance work.

(b) Person who engages in agricultural production.

4. This section does not prevent the building of necessary controlled small camp and branding fires if caution is taken to make certain that the fire is extinguished before leaving. In any case where the fire escapes and does injury to the property of another, the escape and injury are prima facie evidence of a violation of this section.

5. The provisions of this section apply only to areas of land that are outside of incorporated cities and towns.

6. Any person, firm, association, corporation or agency violating any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

7. As used in this section:

(a) "Agricultural production" means an activity associated with the production of agricultural products for food, fiber, fuel or any other lawful use, including every process and step necessary and incident to the preparation, production and storage of agricultural products for human or animal consumption. 350.020 1. A general obligation issued or incurred pursuant to this section must be used only for the stated purpose for which the general obligation was originally issued or incurred and not for any other purpose. Except as otherwise provided by subsections 3 and 4, if a municipality proposes to issue or incur general obligations, the proposal must be submitted to the electors of the municipality at a special election called for that purpose or the next general municipal election or general state election.

2. Such a special election may be held:

(a) At any time, including, without limitation, on the date of a primary municipal election or a primary state election, if the governing body of the municipality determines, by a unanimous vote, that an emergency exists; or

(b) On the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June of an odd-numbered year, ➥ except that the governing body shall not determine that an emergency exists if the special election is for the purpose of submitting to the electors a proposal to refund bonds. The determination made by the governing body is conclusive unless it is shown that the governing body acted with fraud, a gross abuse of discretion or in violation of the provisions of this subsection. An action to challenge the determination made by the governing body must be commenced within 15 days after the governing body's determination is final. As used in this subsection, "emergency" means any occurrence or combination of occurrences which requires immediate action by the governing body of the municipality to prevent or mitigate a substantial financial loss to the municipality or to enable the governing body to provide an essential service to the residents of the municipality.

3. If payment of a general obligation of the municipality is additionally secured by a pledge of gross or net revenue of a project to be financed by its issue, and the governing body determines, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the governing body, that the pledged revenue will at least equal the amount required in each year for the payment of interest and principal, without regard to any option reserved by the municipality for early redemption, the municipality may, after a public hearing, incur this general obligation without an election unless, within 90 days after publication of a resolution of intent to issue the bonds, a petition is presented to the governing body signed by not less than 5 percent of the registered voters of the municipality. Any member elected to the governing body whose authority to vote is limited by charter, statute or otherwise may vote on the determination required to be made by the governing body pursuant to this subsection. The determination by the governing body becomes conclusive on the last day for filing the petition. For the purpose of this subsection, the number of registered voters must be determined as of the close of registration for the last preceding general election. The resolution of intent need not be published in full, but the publication must include the amount of the obligation , ~~[and]~~ the purpose for which it is to be incurred ~~[.]~~ , the date by which the registered voters of the municipality must file a petition with the governing body to ~~[reject]~~ hold an election on the issuance of the obligation, the location at which the petition must be filed with the governing body and the location at which a person may obtain additional information regarding the contents of and filing requirements for the petition. Notice of the public hearing must be published at least ~~[10 days before the day of the hearing. The publications must be made]~~ three times, once each week for three consecutive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality. The third publication of the notice required by this subsection must be made at least 10 days before the date of the hearing. When published, the notice of the public hearing must be at least as large as 5 inches high by 4 inches wide.

4. The board of trustees of a school district may issue general obligation bonds which are not expected to result in an increase in the existing property tax levy for the payment of bonds of the school district without holding an election for each issuance of the bonds if the qualified electors approve a question submitted by the board of trustees that authorizes issuance of bonds for a period of 10 years after the date of approval by the voters. If the question is approved, the board of trustees of the school district may issue the bonds for a period of 10 years after the date of approval by the voters, after obtaining the approval of the debt management commission in the county in which the school district is located and, in a county whose population is 100,000 or more, the approval of the oversight panel for school facilities established pursuant to NRS 393.092 in that county, if the board of trustees of the school district finds that the existing tax for debt service will at least equal the amount required to pay the principal and interest on the outstanding general obligations of the school district and the general obligations proposed to be issued. The finding made by the board of trustees is conclusive in the absence of fraud or gross abuse of discretion. As used in this subsection, "general obligations" does not include medium-term obligations issued pursuant to NRS 350.087 to 350.095, inclusive.

5. At the time of issuance of bonds authorized pursuant to subsection 4, the board of trustees shall establish a reserve account in its debt service fund for payment of the outstanding bonds of the school district. The reserve account must be established and maintained in an amount at least equal to the lesser of:

(a) For a school district located in a county whose population is 100,000 or more, 25 percent; and

(b) For a school district located in a county whose population is less than 100,000, 50 percent,

➥ of the amount of principal and interest payments due on all of the outstanding bonds of the school district in the next fiscal year or 10 percent of the outstanding principal amount of the outstanding bonds of the school district.

6. If the amount in the reserve account falls below the amount required by subsection 5:

(a) The board of trustees shall not issue additional bonds pursuant to subsection 4 until the reserve account is restored to the level required by subsection 5; and

(b) The board of trustees shall apply all of the taxes levied by the school district for payment of bonds of the school district that are not needed for payment of the principal and interest on bonds of the school district in the current fiscal year to restore the reserve account to the level required pursuant to subsection 5.

7. A question presented to the voters pursuant to subsection 4 may authorize all or a portion of the revenue generated by the debt rate which is in excess of the amount required:

(a) For debt service in the current fiscal year;

(b) For other purposes related to the bonds by the instrument pursuant to which the bonds were issued; and

(c) To maintain the reserve account required pursuant to subsection 5,

➥ to be transferred to the county school district's fund for capital projects established pursuant to NRS 387.328 and used to pay the cost of capital projects which can lawfully be paid from that fund. Any such transfer must not limit the ability of the school district to issue bonds during the period of voter authorization if the findings and approvals required by subsection 4 are obtained.

8. A municipality may issue special or medium-term obligations without an election.

Assembly Bill No. 293.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 716.

AN ACT relating to public administrators; setting forth certain qualifications for deputy public administrators; authorizing the board of county commissioners in smaller counties to impose certain duties on the public administrators of the county; revising the circumstances under which a public administrator may secure the property of a deceased person; authorizing a board of county commissioners to take certain action concerning complaints received by the board against the public administrator; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a public administrator to meet certain qualifications for office. (NRS 253.010) Existing law also authorizes a public administrator to appoint as many deputy public administrators as he or she deems necessary and authorizes a deputy public administrator to perform all duties required of the public administrator. (NRS 253.025) Section 1 of this bill requires a deputy public administrator, like a public administrator, to: (1) be a qualified elector of the county; (2) be 21 years of age or older; (3) not have been convicted of a felony for which his or her civil rights have not been restored by a court of competent jurisdiction; and (4) not have been found liable in a civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, material omission, misappropriation, theft or conversion.

Existing law authorizes a public administrator, without procuring letters of administration and upon filing with the court an affidavit of his or her right to do so, to administer an estate in which the gross value of the decedent's property does not exceed $20,000. (NRS 253.0403) Section 1.5 of this bill increases this threshold amount to $25,000.

Under existing law, a public administrator may secure the property of a deceased person before the issuance of letters of administration for the estate of the decedent, before filing an affidavit to administer the estate or before petitioning to have the estate set aside without administration if the public administrator finds that there are no relatives of the decedent who are able to protect the property or that the failure to secure the property could endanger the property. (NRS 253.0405) Section 1.7 of this bill instead authorizes a public administrator to act on behalf of the estate of a deceased person to identify and secure all tangible and intangible assets of the estate before the issuance of letters of administration, before filing the affidavit, before petitioning to have the estate set aside without administration and without giving notice to next of kin if the public administrator finds that there are no relatives of the decedent who are able to protect the property or that the failure to secure the property could endanger the property.

Section 1.7 also prohibits a public administrator from distributing, liquidating or otherwise administering the assets of an estate before a court has issued letters of administration for the estate or otherwise authorized the public administrator to act as administrator of the estate. Additionally, section 1.7 authorizes a public administrator who has identified and secured the assets of an estate to authorize a relative of the decedent, a named executor or trustee of the estate or an attorney or other natural person designated by the next of kin of the decedent to access the real and personal property of the estate.

Existing law sets forth the duties of a public administrator in administering the estate of an intestate decedent. (NRS 253.0415) Section 2 of this bill authorizes the board of county commissioners, in a county whose population is less than 100,000, to require by ordinance, the public administrator, if he or she has been made an administrator of the estate of an intestate decedent who resides in the county, to notify or obtain permission from the board before taking any property belonging to the decedent out of the county.

Existing law authorizes a board of county commissioners to investigate any complaint received by the board against the public administrator. (NRS 253.091) Section 3 of this bill authorizes the board to take any appropriate action that it deems is necessary to resolve such a complaint. Section 3 also authorizes the board of county commissioners, in a county whose population is less than 100,000, to require, by ordinance, a public administrator to submit an independent audit report to the board on an annual basis, which covers the records and office of the public administrator.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 253.025 is hereby amended to read as follows:

253.025 1. A public administrator may appoint as many deputies as the public administrator deems necessary to perform fully the duties of his or her office. A deputy so appointed may perform all duties required of the public administrator and has the corresponding powers and responsibilities. Before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties each deputy must take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office. The appointment of a deputy must not be construed to confer upon that deputy policymaking authority for the office of the county public administrator or the county by which the deputy is employed.

2. Each appointment must be in writing and recorded with the oath of office of that deputy in the office of the county recorder. Any revocation or resignation of an appointment must be recorded in the office of the county recorder.

3. The public administrator is responsible on his or her official bond for any official malfeasance or nonfeasance of his or her deputies and may require a bond for the faithful performance of the official duties of his or her deputies.

4. Every deputy appointed pursuant to this section must:

2. The affidavit must provide:

(a) The public administrator's name and address, and his or her attestation that he or she is entitled by law to administer the estate;

(i) That all debts of the decedent, including funeral and burial expenses, have been paid or provided for; and

(j) The name of each person to whom the affiant intends to distribute the decedent's property.

3. Before filing the affidavit with the court, the public administrator shall take reasonable steps to ascertain whether any of the decedent's heirs or next of kin exist. If the administrator determines that heirs or next of kin exist, the administrator shall serve each of them with a copy of the affidavit. Service must be made personally or by certified mail.

4. If the affiant:

(a) Submits an affidavit which does not meet the requirements of subsection 2 or which contains statements which are not entirely true, any money or property the affiant receives or distributes is subject to all debts of the decedent, based on the priority for payment of debts and charges specified in NRS 147.195.

(b) Fails to give notice to heirs or next of kin as required by subsection 3, any money or property the affiant holds or distributes to others shall be deemed to be held in trust for those heirs and next of kin who did not receive notice and have an interest in the property.

5. A person who receives an affidavit containing the information required by subsection 2 is entitled to rely upon such information, and if the person relies in good faith, he or she is immune from civil liability for actions based on that reliance.

6. Upon receiving proof of the death of the decedent, an affidavit containing the information required by this section and the written approval of the public administrator to do so:

(a) A transfer agent of any security shall change the registered ownership of the security claimed from the decedent to the person claiming to succeed to ownership of that security.

(b) A governmental agency required to issue certificates of title, ownership or registration to personal property shall issue a new certificate of title, ownership or registration to the person claiming to succeed to ownership of the property.

Sec. 2. NRS 253.0415 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 253.0403 and 253.0425, petition the court for letters of administration of the estate of an intestate decedent if, after investigation, the public administrator finds that there is no other qualified person having a prior right who is willing and able to serve.

(c) Upon court order, act as administrator of the estate of an intestate decedent, regardless of the amount of assets in the estate of the decedent if no other qualified person is willing and able to serve.

2. The public administrator shall not administer any estate:

3. In a county whose population is less than 100,000, the board of county commissioners may, by ordinance, require the public administrator to notify or obtain approval from the board of county commissioners before transporting outside the county any property of a decedent for whose estate the public administrator serves as administrator.

4. As used in this section, "intestate decedent" means a person who has died without leaving a valid will, trust or other estate plan.

Sec. 3. NRS 253.091 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Assembly Bill No. 364.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 765.

AN ACT relating to business; declaring certain records to be confidential; revising provisions governing the state business portal; revising provisions governing applications for certain authorizations to conduct a business in this State issued by state and local agencies and health districts; requiring the Secretary of State to assign a unique business identification number to certain entities and persons under certain circumstances; revising provisions governing the issuance of certain licenses by the Office of the Secretary of State; requiring the Secretary of State to suspend a state business license under certain circumstances; removing the prohibition against a county clerk refusing to accept for filing certain business certificates in certain circumstances; revising provisions governing the disclosure of certain information by the Employment Security Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation; repealing certain provisions relating to the collection of information from certain businesses ~~[seeking certain authorizations to conduct business]~~ in this State; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, the Secretary of State is required to establish the state business portal to facilitate interaction among businesses and governmental agencies in this State by allowing businesses to conduct necessary transactions with governmental agencies in this State through the state business portal. (NRS 75A.100) Section 4 of this bill requires the Secretary of State to: (1) establish common business registration information that may be used by state and local agencies and health districts to conduct necessary transactions with businesses in this State; and (2) cause the state business portal to exchange the common business registration information among certain state and local agencies and health districts that conduct necessary transactions with businesses in this State. Section 4 authorizes state and local agencies and health districts to: (1) integrate their electronic applications processes into the state business portal; (2) use the state business portal to accept and disseminate common business registration information that is needed by the state or local agency or health district to issue a license, certificate, registration, permit or similar type of authorization to conduct a business in this State or to engage in an occupation or profession in this State; (3) make available on the Internet applications for a license, certificate, registration, permit or similar type of authorization to conduct a business in this State or to engage in an occupation or profession in this State and to integrate such applications into the state business portal; and (4) perform certain other actions related to participation in the state business portal. Section 4 also specifies that a state or local agency or health district is not required to disseminate or release information if such action would result in the state or local agency or health district violating any provision of state or federal law relating to the confidentiality of information. Section 3 of this bill deems that the records and files collected as common business registration information by the Secretary of State are confidential and privileged unless an exception applies.

Section 7 of this bill requires the Secretary of State to assign a unique business identification number to each business entity organized in this State and to each person who is issued a state business license or who claims to be excluded or exempt from the requirement to obtain a state business license. Under section 4: (1) the Secretary of State must cause the state business portal to interface with the system used by the Secretary of State to assign business identification numbers; and (2) state and local agencies and health districts that issue licenses, certificates, registration, permits or similar types of authorization to conduct a business in this State or to engage in an occupation or profession in this State may require an applicant for such a license, certificate, registration or permit to include the applicant's business identification number on the application.

Existing law also requires an applicant for a city or county business license to sign an affidavit or electronically submit an attestation affirming that the business satisfies certain insurance requirements. (NRS 244.33505, 268.0955) Sections 9.5 and 10.5 of this bill provide that if an applicant submits such an attestation electronically via the state business portal, access to certain information regarding industrial insurance must be provided through the state business portal.

Existing law ~~[requires certain applicants for the issuance or renewal of certain licenses, certificates or permits by a county, city or town to]~~ provides that if certain local governments require a person to obtain a license, permit or certificate to practice a profession or occupation, an applicant for the issuance or renewal of such a license, certificate or permit must submit a statement indicating whether the applicant is subject to a court order for the support of a child and whether he or she is in compliance with that order or a plan for the repayment of the money owed pursuant to the order. (NRS 244.33506, 266.358, 266.368, 269.171) ~~[Section 15 repeals this requirement and section 5.3 of this bill instead requires certain applicants for the issuance or renewal of a state business license to submit such statement with the application for the issuance or renewal of a state business license.]~~ Sections 9.6-9.9, 10.6 and 10.7 of this bill provide that an applicant for a general business license issued by a local government is not required to submit such a statement.

Existing law provides that if a local government which issues professional or occupational licenses, certificates or permits receives a copy of a court order suspending all such licenses, certificates or permits for failure to comply with certain child support requirements, the governmental entity must suspend the license, certificate or permit. (NRS 244.33508, 266.362, 269.172) Section 5.7 of this bill requires the Secretary of State to suspend the state business license of a sole proprietor if the Secretary of State receives a copy of a court order providing for the suspension of the professional and occupational licenses issued to the sole proprietor because the sole proprietor has not complied with certain child support requirements and the sole proprietor does not comply with certain requirements within 30 days. Sections 10.8 and 10.9 of this bill make conforming changes.

Section 11 of this bill removes the provision from existing law which prohibits a county clerk, in certain circumstances, from refusing to accept for filing a certificate or renewal certificate concerning persons doing business in this State under an assumed or fictitious name that is filed by a foreign artificial person or persons. Section 12 of this bill authorizes the Employment Security Division of the Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation to make certain information available to the Secretary of State for certain purposes related to operating and maintaining the state business portal.

Remarks by Assemblyman Paul Anderson.

ASSEMBLYMAN PAUL ANDERSON:

Assembly Bill 475, as amended, changes the real estate licensing terms for real estate brokers and salespersons from two years to one year for initial licensure and from four years to two years for subsequent licensure. The legislation also reduces the licensing fees outlined in the bill to align with the new licensing renewal period and provides that existing licenses issued by the Real Estate Division before July 1, 2015, do not require renewal until the expiration date indicated on the license.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:
Section 4 of this bill requires the Director of the Office for a Safe and Respectful Learning Environment appointed pursuant to section 4 of Senate Bill No. 504 of this Session to establish the Safe-to-Tell Program within the Office. The Safe-to-Tell Program must enable any person to anonymously report any dangerous, violent or unlawful activity which is being conducted or threatened to be conducted on the property of a public school, at an activity sponsored by a public school or on a school bus of a public school. Section 4 provides that any information received by the Program is confidential and further provides that the Program must include methods and procedures to ensure that: (1) information reported to the Program is promptly forwarded to appropriate public safety agencies and appropriate public school administrators; and (2) the identity of a person who reports information to the Program is not known by persons operating the Program and is not disclosed to any person. Additionally, section 4 authorizes the Director of the Office to enter into agreements with organizations to operate a hotline or call center to receive initial reports made to the Program and forward the information contained in the reports in the required manner. Section 4 provides that the identity of a person who reports information to the Program must remain unknown to persons employed by, contracting with, volunteering with or otherwise assisting such organizations in operating any such hotline or call center.

Under section 5 of this bill, a person must not be compelled to produce or disclose any record or information provided to the Program except upon the motion of a defendant in a criminal action or as authorized pursuant to section 4. Section 5 requires that the identity of any person who made a report to the Program be redacted from any record or information subsequently provided to the defendant, and provides that the court may subject the record or information to a protective order further redacting or otherwise limiting the use of the record or information.

Section 6 of this bill provides that the willful disclosure of a record or information of the Safe-to-Tell Program, or the willful neglect or refusal to obey a court order relating to the Program, is punishable as criminal contempt.

Section 6.5 of this bill creates the Safe-to-Tell Program Account in the State General Fund. The Account must be administered by the Director and money in the Account may be used only to implement and operate the Safe-to-Tell Program. Section 6.5 also requires the Director to: (1) post on the Internet website maintained by the Department of Education a list of each gift or donation received for deposit to the Account and the name of each donor; (2) update the list annually; and (3) transmit the list to the next regular session of the Legislature or the Legislative Committee on Education, as applicable.

Section 7.5 of this bill establishes the Safe-to-Tell Program Advisory Committee within the Office. The Committee is required to submit a report to the Governor and the Legislature which includes information regarding the number of reports received by the Safe-to-Tell Program and any recommendations for the improvement of the Program. Section 8 of this bill provides for the dissolution of the Committee on December 31, 2016.

Bill read second time.

Amendment No. 933.

AN ACT relating to education; providing for the distribution of money to public schools designated as Victory schools because they have high numbers of pupils living in poverty and received a rating indicating underperformance; requiring an assessment of the needs of the pupils at such schools; requiring Victory schools to use the money received to offer certain programs and services; authorizing the State Board of Education to withhold money if a Victory school demonstrates unsatisfactory pupil achievement and school performance; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

This bill provides for the distribution of money to schools that have high numbers of pupils living in poverty and have received one of the two lowest possible ratings indicating underperformance of a public school, as determined by the Department of Education pursuant to the statewide system of accountability for public schools, for the preceding school year, which are designated as Victory schools. This bill requires each school district in which a Victory school is designated and the governing body of each charter school that is designated as a Victory school to conduct an assessment of the needs of pupils at such schools and submit a comprehensive plan for meeting those needs ~~[.]~~ by a certain date. This bill allows a comprehensive plan to be submitted at a later date if the school district or governing body submits to the Department a letter of intent to meet the educational needs of pupils enrolled in each Victory school operated by the school district or governing body, as applicable. A Victory school is required to use the money distributed to the school to provide certain programs and services.

Existing law requires the principal of each school to prepare a plan to improve the achievement of the pupils enrolled in the school and submit the plan to various entities, including the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Department of Education. (NRS 385.357) This bill requires the principal of a Victory school to include in such a plan a description of how the money distributed to the school is being used to meet the needs of the pupils at the school. This bill also requires the board of trustees of each school district in which a Victory school is designated and the governing body of each charter school which is designated as a Victory school to submit a report concerning the programs and services provided using the money distributed to the school.

This bill requires the Department of Education to contract with an independent evaluator to evaluate the effectiveness of programs and services provided pursuant to this bill and authorizes the State Board of Education to require a Victory school that demonstrates unsatisfactory pupil achievement and school performance to take corrective action. The State Board is also authorized to direct the Department of Education to withhold money if unsatisfactory pupil achievement and school performance continues.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

1. It is the public policy of this State to provide each pupil enrolled in a public school with high-quality instruction.

2. Pupils who live in poverty benefit from attending a school that has a sustained focus on improving pupil achievement using methods that take into account a variety of factors that influence pupil achievement.

3. Pupils who live in poverty should be provided with services and instruction that is designed to address the needs of such pupils so that each such pupil:

(a) Reads at or above the level of the average pupil in third grade before the pupil completes third grade;

(b) Is prepared to engage in a rigorous high school curriculum upon completion of eighth grade; and

(c) Graduates from high school with the skills and attributes necessary to immediately succeed in college or a career.

4. The cost of providing additional services to pupils who live in poverty will continue to be studied with the purpose of updating the formula for funding schools as necessary.

Sec. 2. 1. The Department of Education shall designate a public school as a Victory school if, relative to other public schools, including charter schools, that are located in the school district in which the school is also located:

After receiving money from the Account pursuant to this subsection:

(a) A school district shall distribute the money to each Victory school in the school district on a per pupil basis.

(b) A sponsor of a charter school shall distribute the money to each Victory school that it sponsors on a per pupil basis.

4. The board of trustees of each school district in which a Victory school is located and the governing body of each charter school that is designated as a Victory school shall, as soon as practicable after the school is designated as a Victory school, conduct an assessment of the needs of pupils that attend the school. The assessment must include soliciting input from the community served by the Victory school and identify any barriers to improving pupil achievement and school performance and strategies to meet the needs of pupils at the school.

5. ~~[On]~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, on or before August 15, 2015, the board of trustees of each school district in which a Victory school is designated for the 2015-2016 Fiscal Year and the governing body of each charter school that is designated as a Victory school for the 2015-2016 Fiscal Year shall submit to the Department a comprehensive plan for meeting the educational needs of pupils enrolled in each Victory school. The board of trustees of each school district in which a Victory school is designated and the governing body of each charter school that is designated as a Victory school shall select at least one person who is familiar with the public schools in the school district or with the charter school, respectively, to assist with the development of the plan. The plan must:

(e) Include a description of the manner in which the school district or governing body will collaborate with ~~[other]~~ selected entities ~~[that offer programs and services in the community]~~ so that ~~[those]~~ academic programs and services and nonacademic programs and services, including, without limitation, transportation services, may be offered without charge to support pupils and their families within the region in which the school is located;

~~[(d)]~~ (f) Take into account the number and types of pupils who attend the school and the locations where such pupils reside;

~~[(e) Coordinate]~~

(g) Provide for the coordination of the existing or planned engagement of other persons who provide services in the region in which the school is located;

~~[(f) Consider and coordinate]~~

(k) Identify the person or persons selected pursuant to this subsection who assisted with the development of the plan.

6. The Department shall review each plan submitted pursuant to subsection 5 to determine whether, or the extent to which, the plan complies with the requirements of this section and either approve or request revisions to the plan.

7. If the board of trustees of a school district in which a Victory school is designated or the governing body of a charter school that is designated as a Victory school does not submit a comprehensive plan for meeting the educational needs of pupils enrolled in each Victory school on or before August 15, 2015, as required pursuant to subsection 5, the board of trustees of the school district or the governing body of the charter school, as applicable, may submit to the Department a letter of intent to meet the educational needs of pupils enrolled in each Victory school. The letter must include, without limitation:

Bill read second time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Transportation:

Amendment No. 1010.

AN ACT relating to the Department of Transportation; authorizing the Director of the Department to issue an encroachment permit for certain discharges onto a state highway, within a right-of-way or into, onto or by way of a conveyance system; providing civil penalties for an unauthorized discharge onto a state highway, within a right-of-way or into, onto or by way of a conveyance system or for a violation of an encroachment permit issued by the Director; creating and setting forth the duties of the Advisory Committee on Transportational Storm Water Management; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a person to obtain from the Director of the Department of Transportation a permit before disturbing or digging up, or performing certain similar acts with respect to, a state highway or right-of-way. (NRS 408.423) Section 4 of this bill prohibits a person from discharging onto a state highway, within a right-of-way or into, onto or by way of a conveyance system unless: (1) the discharge is allowed by a valid National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit or a valid encroachment permit issued by the Director for the discharge; (2) the discharge is carried out in compliance with the terms of the applicable permit; and (3) the discharge is carried out in accordance with any applicable conditions, rules and regulations prescribed by the Director. In addition, section 4 requires that if a person carries out such a discharge without adhering to the three preceding requirements, the person must, upon receipt of an order for compliance issued pursuant to section 7 of this bill, abate, remove or remediate the discharge in a timely manner. If the person fails to abate, remove or remediate the discharge, the Director may exercise several powers of enforcement, as set forth in sections 5-10 of this bill.

Sections 5-10 of this bill provide certain enforcement powers to the Director relating to section 4 and authorize the Director to: (1) enter upon any premises to investigate the source of a discharge; (2) issue orders for compliance to enforce the provisions of section 4; (3) seek injunctive relief in a court of competent jurisdiction to prevent the continuance or occurrence of any act which violates or may violate the provisions of section 4; (4) impose a civil penalty of up to $25,000 per day for violations of the provisions of section 4; (5) request that the Attorney General institute a criminal prosecution for a violation of the provisions of section 4; and (6) conduct an independent investigation of any act which violates or may violate the provisions of section 4. Section 10.3 of this bill creates and sets forth the functions and duties of the Advisory Committee on Transportational Storm Water Management, an advisory body which expires by limitation on June 30, 2021.

Amendment No. 1011.

AN ACT relating to the Department of Transportation; authorizing the Director of the Department to issue an encroachment permit for certain discharges onto a state highway, within a right-of-way or into, onto or by way of a conveyance system; providing civil penalties for an unauthorized discharge onto a state highway, within a right-of-way or into, onto or by way of a conveyance system or for a violation of an encroachment permit issued by the Director; revising the qualifications of the Director; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a person to obtain from the Director of the Department of Transportation a permit before disturbing or digging up, or performing certain similar acts with respect to, a state highway or right-of-way. (NRS 408.423) Section 4 of this bill prohibits a person from discharging onto a state highway, within a right-of-way or into, onto or by way of a conveyance system unless: (1) the discharge is allowed by a valid National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit or a valid encroachment permit issued by the Director for the discharge; (2) the discharge is carried out in compliance with the terms of the applicable permit; and (3) the discharge is carried out in accordance with any applicable conditions, rules and regulations prescribed by the Director. In addition, section 4 requires that if a person carries out such a discharge without adhering to the three preceding requirements, the person must, upon receipt of an order for compliance issued pursuant to section 7 of this bill, abate, remove or remediate the discharge in a timely manner. If the person fails to abate, remove or remediate the discharge, the Director may exercise several powers of enforcement, as set forth in sections 5-10 of this bill.

Sections 5-10 of this bill provide certain enforcement powers to the Director relating to section 4 and authorize the Director to: (1) enter upon any premises to investigate the source of a discharge; (2) issue orders for compliance to enforce the provisions of section 4; (3) seek injunctive relief in a court of competent jurisdiction to prevent the continuance or occurrence of any act which violates or may violate the provisions of section 4; (4) impose a civil penalty of up to $25,000 per day for violations of the provisions of section 4; (5) request that the Attorney General institute a criminal prosecution for a violation of the provisions of section 4; and (6) conduct an independent investigation of any act which violates or may violate the provisions of section 4.

Section 11.5 of this bill removes the requirement that the Director be a licensed professional engineer in this State.

2. The Commission shall determine the fee for the annual registration of an off-highway vehicle pursuant to NRS 490.082 or 490.0825, but such fee must not be less than $20 or more than $30. Money received from the payment of the fees described in this subsection must be ~~[distributed as follows:~~

Sec. 5. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2015.

Assemblyman Wheeler moved the adoption of the amendment.

ASSEMBLYMAN WHEELER:

Amendment 1005 to Senate Bill 492 removes provisions in the bill that would have required the DMV [Department of Motor Vehicles] to charge an annual fee of $12 for each special license plate issued upon request from an off-highway vehicle [OHV] dealer, long-term or short-term lessor, or manufacturer for use on certain OHVs for the purpose of display, demonstration, maintenance, sale, or exchange. It also should remove the two-thirds requirement of the bill.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

When I first read this, I was a little confused. Thank you for clarifying what this actually does. Removing the cost of the sticker—this is a self-sustaining fund; they cannot access State Highway funds. It is not allowed. How is this fund going to survive if we are not paying for stickers?

ASSEMBLYMAN WHEELER:

To my colleague from Las Vegas, the number of stickers for dealers in this particular industry was quoted in the committee at about 60. We were looking at a very small amount of money here, and it was able to be absorbed.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

Once again, this was a self-sustaining fund. It was everyone paying their fair share. We heard another bill in Ways and Means about how we can get more people to buy stickers. I am just concerned that if they do not have the resources they need, Clark County or another county will end up having to subsidize them again in the future. Hopefully, that will not happen.

ASSEMBLYMAN WHEELER:

This is actually not part of the sticker program but is an actual license plate for dealers. It goes through the DMV. I think we are talking apples and oranges here.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, reengrossed and to the Concurrent Committee on Ways and Means.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Assemblyman Paul Anderson moved that Assembly Bill No. 487 be taken from its position on the General File and placed at the top of the General File.

Motion carried.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Assembly Bill No. 487.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Trowbridge, Joiner, Fiore, Araujo, Hansen, Seaman, and Wheeler.

ASSEMBLYMAN TROWBRIDGE:

Assembly Bill 487 provides that a person who has a permit to carry a concealed firearm may possess a concealed firearm inside a motor vehicle while on the property of the Nevada System of Higher Education [NSHE], a private or public school, or a child care facility if the motor vehicle is occupied or if the motor vehicle is unoccupied, the motor vehicle is locked, and the firearm is securely stored in a locked container attached to the motor vehicle.

The bill also requires the Board of Regents to prescribe rules that allow a permittee to carry a concealed firearm on NSHE property without having to obtain permission from the president of the educational institution. Any rules prescribed by the Board before, on, or after July 1, 2015, that are inconsistent with this provision are void.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN JOINER:

I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 487. It is extremely disappointing to me that we have to continue to vote on this issue of campus carry. For me, this is a very personal vote, but it is also one that affects my constituents greatly. The University of Nevada, Reno is in my district, and I am going to take the cue from everyone on that campus who has taken a position in opposition on this issue. I am referring to the student government, the graduate student government, the Faculty Senate, the Nevada Student Alliance, and the Nevada System of Higher Education. Consistently, the folks who are affected by this law have voted no. The students of the University of Nevada, Reno have voted through their representatives, and I am going to respect their opinion and also vote no on this measure.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN FIORE:

I rise in support of Assembly Bill 487. We have had a great deal of debate on the issues covered by Assembly Bill 487, and it is now time to act. This bill safeguards both our students and their constitutional rights, and I urge all my colleagues to vote yes.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARAUJO:

I rise in opposition to Assembly Bill 487. This is the third time that we will be voting on this measure in this building. Earlier this week in committee, it was so disappointing to see so many young faces in our audience, both in southern Nevada and northern Nevada, and have administrators show up just for them not to be allowed to testify regarding this bill. We owe it to our constituents to allow them to have a say in this process. They elect us, and they have every right to share their views. For them not to be allowed to put their remarks on the record is extremely disappointing.

I hope that this body truly takes into consideration the fact that students have mobilized against this measure and have pleaded with us not to approve a measure that is going to impact them. This is not about us; it is about them. The folks who will be directly impacted by this legislation are telling us that they do not want this measure in their institutions. The educators, the professionals, are telling us they do not want this, so why are we going to force this upon them? I urge this body to please take that into consideration. Our students matter, our education professionals matter, and we have got to start listening to our constituents.

ASSEMBLYMAN HANSEN:

I rise in strong support of Assembly Bill 487. For the record, I want to make it very clear that we gave a full and fair hearing to Assembly Bill 487 the first time this came around. Both sides had exactly equal time. I worked with both the proponents and opponents to make sure that everyone had the list of speakers that they wanted. This was thoroughly and fully vetted by our committee. Rather than have a totally redundant hearing, we simply moved it.

More importantly, Mr. Speaker, the reason we should all be supporting this is our United States Supreme Court said it is a constitutional right for people to carry firearms in the United States. Normally, the universities are the ones who are the biggest and most powerful proponents of pushing our Bill of Rights. But somehow, in this case, we are supposed to say your constitutional rights end at the border of a government institution. That is one thing.

Another thing is, all the horror stories that we heard in the hearings were entirely based on hyperbole and the idea that these things could potentially happen. The campuses in the state of Utah and the state of Colorado have, in fact, had campus carry for, in one case, a decade and the horror stories we were told are going to happen on our campuses about drunk frat boys shooting up the place and so forth have not occurred. Not a single case.

I would urge my colleagues, rather than listen to the rhetoric of some uninformed young people who ought to do their homework in the other states where they have allowed this law for a long time, to see what the real results are of allowing people the right to protect themselves. I would also point out that in our audience right now is Mr. Tom Collins, whose daughter had a CCW [concealed carry weapon] permit and was not allowed to carry it on the campus and then was brutally raped. The fact is that in so many cases, firearms have been shown to deter crime. Is it just coincidental that all these horrible mass shootings that have occurred in the United States have almost all occurred in places where guns are not allowed—post offices, school campuses, universities, Virginia Tech?

I have sat through those hearings as chairman, and as chairman I have pretty much done my very best not to express my opinion, to try to be fair and unbiased, so that both sides get a fair and equal opportunity to present their case. But this is my time, here and now, to say this is the right thing to do. It is time in the state of Nevada we recognize that people who are 21 years old, who have passed the test to carry these guns, and have been shown by all sorts of studies to be safer than even the policemen who carry the firearms on the campuses now—that we allow that right for our citizens here in the state. I would urge my colleagues to stand up, quit being intimidated by theoretical probabilities or possibilities when the evidence is overwhelming that concealed weapons reduce crime, allow protections of young ladies, and is simply an individual constitutional right that we should all support. I urge this body to vote yes on Assembly Bill 487.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SEAMAN:

I rise in strong support of Assembly Bill 487. I just want to ditto the sentiments of my colleague from the north on campus carry and say thank you for those who will support our constitutional Second Amendment right to protect ourselves, no matter where we are, if we choose to carry a weapon to protect ourselves against rape and murder anywhere that we are. Thank you for supporting this.

ASSEMBLYMAN WHEELER:

I rise in strong support of Assembly Bill 487. I want to thank my colleague from District 32 for his passionate speech, and I agree. My colleague from District 3 says that he is only getting transmissions from students who are against this. I am thinking that maybe we are getting different transmissions, different emails, and different phone calls. Mine are overwhelmingly in support from students, from some faculty, and especially the phone calls I am getting from constituents. I know that as a 61-year-old man who happens to be able to carry a gun, I cannot walk on that campus. I cannot go pick up my kids. Look at me. Do you think I am going to shoot somebody?

This is the right thing to do for our rights. This is where our Bill of Rights really comes in. I urge your support for this.

Remarks by Assemblyman Kirner.

ASSEMBLYMAN KIRNER:

Assembly Bill 221, as amended, revises provisions governing the collection, maintenance, use, and security of data collected concerning public school pupils. The bill requires the Department of Education to adopt any policies and procedures necessary to ensure the privacy of student data under state and federal law and to review these policies at least once each biennium and revise them as needed. The Department is further required to post on its website a list of all third-party service providers, organizations, and agencies that have access to data concerning individual pupils. For any contract that involves personally identifiable data about pupils, the Department, public school boards of trustees, and governing bodies are required to include contract provisions that meet certain privacy and security requirements, including prohibiting the sale of personally identifiable information and providing penalties for noncompliance.

This bill is one that we worked on during the interim. It has involved Clark County, Washoe County, and all the data people from those two organizations. It involved Infinite Campus. It involved a ton of lawyers as we worked on this thing. It involved outside organizations that have anything to do with schools. This is a composite of all that work. I think it is a very good bill, and I urge my colleagues to support it.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 974.

AN ACT relating to public works; prohibiting a public body from entering into certain contracts for public works which allow for purchase by the public body of the construction materials or goods to be used in the public work; providing that the Attorney General shall enforce the prohibition against such a contract for a public work; directing the Department of Taxation to withhold certain money payable to a public body which violates such a prohibition in a contract for a public work; revising provisions relating to certain construction projects of the Nevada System of Higher Education; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Under existing law, the sale of any tangible personal property to a governmental entity including the State, its unincorporated agencies and instrumentalities or a county, city, district or other political subdivision of this State, is exempted from the imposition of sales and use taxes. (NRS 372.325, 372.345) A contractor who buys tangible personal property or stores, uses or otherwise consumes tangible personal property for such a governmental entity must pay such taxes unless the contractor is a constituent part of that entity. (NRS 372.340) Section 1 of this bill prohibits any public body including the State, its local governments, school districts, and any public agency thereof which sponsors or finances a public work from entering into an express or implied contract for a public work which provides that any construction materials or goods to be used on the public work be purchased or otherwise supplied by: (1) the public body; (2) a contractor who is a constituent part of the public body; or (3) a contractor who is not a constituent part of the public body acting on behalf of the public body. A public body may, however, enter into such a contract for a public work provided that the contract requires the payment of any state or local taxes that would otherwise have been due for the purchase and use of such construction materials or goods if they had been purchased and used by an entity not exempted from the payment of such taxes. Section 1 also provides that: (1) an express or implied contract entered into in violation of this prohibition is void; (2) a person who enters into such a contract is guilty of a gross misdemeanor; and (3) the right to enforce the provisions of this prohibition vests exclusively in the Attorney General. Section 1 further provides that, if a contract is entered into in violation of this prohibition, the Attorney General must forward to the Department of Taxation a list of the construction materials or goods purchased under the contract. The Department is then required to calculate the amount of applicable state and local taxes that should have been collected on the construction materials or goods, and deduct from the money otherwise payable from the proceeds of any tax distribution due to the public body either twice the amount of the applicable taxes or the sum of $250,000, whichever is greater. In addition, section 1 exempts from the new prohibition express or implied contracts for public works that use certain construction materials or goods that are: (1) purchased pursuant to governmental procurement rules, needed on a recurring basis and used to protect the health, safety or welfare of the public; or (2) specialized, project-specific components.

Under existing law, the laws of this State pertaining to public works apply to any project which is financed in whole or in part from public money for the new construction, repair or reconstruction of publicly owned works and properties, except that such laws only apply to a building for the Nevada System of Higher Education if 25 percent or more of the costs of the building as a whole are paid from money appropriated by this State or from federal money. (NRS 338.010) Section 2 of this bill removes that exemption from the application of public works laws for ~~[such a building for the System. However, section 2.5 of this bill exempts]~~ a building of the System if less than 25 percent of the costs of the building are paid from money appropriated by this State or federal money , but section 2.5 of this bill exempts such a building from certain provisions requiring that a public body use the services of the State Public Works Division of the Department of Administration for certain services relating to planning, maintenance and construction of state buildings. (NRS 341.141-341.148) Section 2.5 also specifically requires the System to use the services of the Division as building official for the construction of any building for the System. Section 4 of this bill repeals certain sections for conformity with the amendments made in section 2.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 338 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a public body shall not enter into an express or implied contract for a public work which provides that any construction materials or goods to be used on the public work will be purchased or otherwise supplied by:

(a) The public body or a contractor who is a constituent part of the public body; or

(b) A contractor who is not a constituent part of the public body but is acting on behalf of the public body.

2. A public body may enter into an express or implied contract for a public work which provides that any construction materials or goods to be used in the public work will be purchased or supplied by the public body, a contractor who is a constituent part of the public body or a contractor who is not a constituent part of the public body but is acting on behalf of the public body if:

(a) The contract requires the payment of any state or local taxes that would otherwise have been due for the purchase and use of the construction materials or goods if the construction materials or goods had been purchased and used by a contractor who was not a constituent part of the public body and who was not otherwise exempt from the taxes pursuant to state or local law; and

(b) The public body sends an itemized list of the construction materials or goods to be purchased or otherwise provided by the public body or a contractor who is a constituent part of the public body, to the Department of Taxation. The itemized list must include the amount paid for each item.

3. An express or implied contract entered into in violation of subsection 1 is void.

4. A person who enters into an express or implied contract that violates the provisions of subsection 1 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

5. The right to enforce the provisions of this section vests exclusively in the Attorney General, who shall institute and prosecute the appropriate proceedings to enforce the provisions of this section.

If an express or implied contract for a public work is entered into in violation of subsection 1, the Attorney General shall forward to the Department of Taxation a list of construction materials or goods purchased in violation of this section by the public body or the contractor who is a constituent part of the public body. The Department shall calculate the applicable state and local taxes on the purchase and use of the construction materials or goods which would have been due but for the tax exemption of the public body or the contractor who is a constituent part of the public body, and shall deduct that amount from the money otherwise payable from the proceeds of any tax distribution to the public body:

(a) Twice the amount of the applicable taxes; or

(b) The sum of $250,000,

➥ whichever is greater.

7. The provisions of this section do not apply to an express or implied contract for a public work for which the construction materials or goods purchased by the public body are:

(a) Devices, equipment or hardware purchased in compliance with chapter 332 or 333 of NRS which are needed on a recurring basis and used to protect the health, safety or welfare of the public, including, without limitation, official traffic control devices; or

(b) Specialized components purchased in compliance with chapter 332 or 333 of NRS which are specific to a particular project and are not commonly used in public works projects.

➥ If a public body enters into such a contract, the public body must provide annually to the Department of Taxation an itemized list of the construction materials or goods purchased pursuant to the contract and the amount paid for each item.

8. As used in this section, "construction materials or goods" means all materials, equipment or supplies which are intended to be used in a public work and includes, without limitation, the following, as well as related components or other materials intended for similar use:

(a) Structural or reinforcing steel.

(b) Aggregates, including, without limitation, base, barrow, concrete, asphalt, treated base, fill, topsoil and decorative aggregate.

(c) Interior finishing materials, including, without limitation, drywall, metal studs, acoustical ceiling material, paint, sealants, compounds and wall coverings.

(d) Flooring, including, without limitation, carpet, tile, wood, vinyl and laminates.

(e) Wood and wood products, including, without limitation, plywood, lumber, form systems, sheeting and decking.

(f) Utility materials, including, without limitation, piping, conduit, fiber optics, cables and cabling, power generators and pumps.

(g) Electrical materials, including, without limitation, conduit, wire, cables and cabling, electrical panels, lighting fixtures, outlets and switches.

(h) Plumbing materials, including, without limitation, pipes and piping, fixtures, drains, pumps, toilets, sinks, tubs and water heaters.

(i) Heating, ventilation and air conditioning materials, including, without limitation, ducts, vents, sheet metal, air conditioning units, furnaces and fans.

(j) Equipment and devices, whether purchased or rented, including, without limitation, heavy construction equipment, forklifts, scissor lifts, boom lifts, cranes and traffic control devices.

(k) Miscellaneous materials, including, without limitation, materials used for fencing, irrigation, masonry, cabinetry, doors, windows, traffic signals and signs, landscaping, roofing and elevators.
