ASSEMBLYMAN PICKARD:

Senate Bill 132 requires the board of trustees of each school district, and allows the governing body of a charter school that operates as a high school and is in good standing, to adopt a policy authorizing the establishment of individual graduation plans for high school students who are not likely to graduate on time, have scored poorly on the college and career readiness assessment, or have attended or will attend school in another country as a foreign exchange student.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction must establish certain eligibility requirements for a plan that allows a student to remain enrolled in high school for up to three semesters after he or she was otherwise scheduled to graduate. An individual graduation plan may be withdrawn if the student is not making adequate progress or for other good cause. In addition, this bill sets out the manner in which a student with a plan is counted in graduation statistics.

Senate Bill 132 also revises procedures and requirements related to four-year academic plans. These plans, which are developed for all high school students, must be provided at the beginning of each student's ninth grade year. A policy regarding the plans must, to the extent practicable, ensure that students and parents are provided with certain information related to high school and postsecondary education. Additionally, a school counselor must establish and annually revise specific educational goals for each student in consultation with the student and his or her parent or legal guardian.

ASSEMBLYMAN PICKARD:

Senate Bill 229 revises provisions related to guardianships. Specifically, the bill creates a process and model form that a person may use to nominate another person, whether that person is a resident of Nevada or not, to be appointed as his or her guardian. The form must be signed by the person and two impartial adult witnesses and be notarized.

The Office of the Secretary of State is required to make the form available on the Office's Internet website. Such requests are to be included in the Nevada Lockbox, which is the online registry for wills and other documents authorized to be established and maintained on the Secretary of State's Internet website.

If two or more guardian designations exist, the measure establishes the process for a court to designate the valid guardianship. Finally, the measure allows a person to gift, grant, bequest, or contribute to support the maintenance and operation of a specific lockbox, including the guardianship lockbox.

This bill is effective upon passage and approval for the purpose of adopting regulations or performing necessary administrative tasks and on January 1, 2018, for all other purposes.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Carlton.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

Senate Bill 303, as amended, requires the Department of Education to develop and carry out a plan to audit the assessment tools and examinations used to monitor the performance of pupils and schools. The bill further requires the Department's audit plan to meet the prerequisites for receiving a grant under the federal Every Student Succeeds Act. The bill also requires the Department to execute a plan to improve and streamline the assessment system. The plan must examine the models from other states who are streamlining student assessments, make recommendations for improving and streamlining the measurement of students' assessments based on the examination of the models from other states, and use data collected since the enactment of the federal Every Student Succeeds Act.

Senate Bill 303, as amended, appropriates $100,000 from the State General Fund to the Department to complete the audit and plan. The bill requires the Department to submit a copy of the results of the audit and its plan to improve the assessment system no later than December 1, 2017, to the State Board of Education, the Legislative Committee on Education, and the Interim Finance Committee.

Senate Bill 303, as amended, is effective upon passage and approval.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

The Majority Leader in the Senate worked very hard with a lot of stakeholders to work on a pilot program where inmates would be allowed very limited access to a small group of inmate telecommunications devices for educational purposes. There was tremendous testimony in support in front of your Committee on Corrections, Parole, and Probation. I believe this is a very positive step forward. I urge its support.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARAUJO:

Senate Bill 306, as amended, provides for the creation of a pilot program, directed by the Board of State Prison Commissioners in consultation with the College of Southern Nevada, for 50 male and 50 female offenders who meet certain criteria to enhance educational and vocational programs for offenders who will soon be released from prison.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN KRASNER:

I rise today in opposition to S.B. 306—iPads for inmates. Convicted felons are in prison to serve time for a punishment, not to get special privileges. This legislation, while well intentioned, does nothing to ensure that these offenders are rehabilitated, but instead serves them with an opportunity that many hard-working, law-abiding citizens cannot give to their children. Giving free iPads and tablets to prisoners to keep in their cells with them is dangerous. Many of these criminals are masters at hacking and can hack a kid's Gameboy and turn it into a telecommunication device. They can then communicate amongst themselves and plan an overthrow of the guards and the prison or communicate with the outside world and put a hit on the witness that put them behind bars.

Additionally, while I am in favor of giving inmates opportunities to earn their high school diploma or GED, I am not in favor of giving inmates a free college degree paid for at taxpayer expense. For these reasons, I will be voting no on Senate Bill 306.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

In response to the comments from my colleague from Washoe County, during the hearing we had testimony from Director Dzurenda of the Nevada Department of Corrections, and he was very specific that in this limited pilot program, these electronic devices would have no ability to access the outside. They would be used internally for educational purposes. He pointed to the Colorado model where something like this has proven beneficial to inmates.

If anyone has looked around at anyone with an employment sign in the window, any one I have seen lately point to a website that the person needs to go to in order to apply for that job. The days of being able to fill out a paper application like when we were growing up are long gone. We all benefit as a society when inmates who are released land on their feet and try to become gainfully employed, when they try to work towards improving their education and their ability to support their families. I believe this is a positive step. I believe there are many safeguards in place as was shown in your Committee on Corrections, Parole, and Probation. I urge its support.

ASSEMBLYMAN ELLIOT ANDERSON:

I think my colleague, the chairman of Corrections, Parole, and Probation, talked about a lot, but there are a couple of things he left out. The members of the pilot program are all going to be low-risk security cases specifically selected just for the program. I think that will make the risk minimal. But I think we also need to think longer term about the amount of money we are spending on corrections. We have all just seen these budget bills, and they are the single biggest item in a lot of cases, except for education. We really need to think about how we are going to reduce recidivism. Giving people the tools to get back to work ensures that we are not spending money on these folks when we can rehabilitate them.

With that, Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to adopt what has been a successful program in Colorado. The risks are minimal and I feel passionately that we need to start looking at corrections a different way.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 422.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1115.

AN ACT relating to marijuana; revising various provisions relating to the medical use of marijuana; transferring responsibility for the regulation of medical marijuana establishments from the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services to the Department of Taxation; revising provisions relating to registry identification cards and letters of approval; revising provisions relating to the authorization of nonresidents to engage in the medical use of marijuana; prohibiting the Department of Taxation from requiring a medical marijuana dispensary to determine whether a person has exceeded the legal limits for possession of marijuana for medical use; revising provisions relating to medical marijuana establishment agents; prohibiting the use of a vending machine to dispense marijuana; requiring each marijuana establishment and medical marijuana establishment to submit to the Department of Taxation a report of information concerning the production and sale of marijuana; establishing limitations on the regulation and taxation of a marijuana establishment or medical marijuana establishment by a city, town or county; revising the distribution of excise taxes on sales of marijuana for medical purposes; providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law exempts a person who holds a valid registry identification card or letter of approval from state prosecution for the use, possession, delivery and production of marijuana. (NRS 453A.200, 453A.205) Existing law also exempts a person who holds a valid medical marijuana establishment registration certificate or medical marijuana establishment agent registration card from state prosecution for possession, delivery and production of marijuana and provides for the registration and regulation of such persons and establishments. (NRS 453A.200, 453A.320-453A.370) Sections 2, 8, 9, 11, 13-15, 27-42, 44-48, 51 and 66-68 of this bill transfer the responsibility for the regulation of medical marijuana establishments from the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services to the Department of Taxation. Section 38 of this bill prohibits a medical marijuana establishment from dispensing or otherwise selling marijuana using a vending machine. Section 56.7 of this bill establishes a similar prohibition for recreational marijuana establishments after January 1, 2020.

Existing law requires a person who wishes to engage in the medical use of marijuana to apply to the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services for a registry identification card or letter of approval, as applicable, and grants the holder of such a card or letter an exemption from state prosecution for certain crimes relating to marijuana. (NRS 453A.200, 453A.205) Existing law requires such an application to be accompanied by valid, written documentation from the applicant's attending physician. (NRS 453A.210) Section 19 of this bill instead requires the applicant's attending ~~[physician]~~ provider of health care to: (1) maintain such written documentation and make such written documentation available to the Division upon request; and (2) sign the application to affirm that the requirements of such written documentation have been met. Section 20 of this bill provides that such written documentation may be valid for either 1 year or 2 years and that a registry identification card or letter of approval based on such written documentation is valid for the same period of time. Section 55 of this bill reduces the maximum fee that the Division may charge for issuing a registry identification card or letter of approval from $75 per year to $50 per year.

Existing law requires a medical marijuana establishment that wishes to retain as a volunteer or employ or contract with a person to provide labor to the medical marijuana establishment to submit an application to register the person as a medical marijuana establishment agent. (NRS 453A.332) Section 31 of this bill allows such a person to submit an application for registration as a medical marijuana establishment agent on his or her own behalf. Section 31 also provides for the temporary registration of a person as a medical marijuana establishment agent upon submission of a complete application for registration or renewal of registration. Finally, section 31 allows an independent contractor or employee of an independent contractor who is registered as a medical marijuana establishment agent to provide labor to any medical marijuana establishment and any other person who is registered as a medical marijuana establishment agent to work or volunteer at any medical marijuana establishment for which the category of the person's medical marijuana establishment agent card is valid.

Existing law limits the exemption from state prosecution for the medical use of marijuana to the possession of not more than 2.5 ounces of usable marijuana in a 14-day period, 12 marijuana plants and a quantity of edible marijuana products and marijuana-infused products established by regulation. (NRS 453A.200) Existing law also prohibits a medical marijuana dispensary from selling marijuana in excess of these limits to a person. (NRS 453A.358) Section 41 of this bill instead: (1) prohibits a medical marijuana dispensary from selling more than 1 ounce of marijuana in a transaction; and (2) prohibits the Department of Taxation from requiring a medical marijuana dispensary to track the purchases of a person or determine whether a person has exceeded the legal limits for possession of marijuana for medical use. Section 41 further provides that only persons who are 21 years of age or more or hold a registry identification card or letter of approval are allowed to enter a medical marijuana dispensary.

Existing law allows a medical marijuana dispensary to recognize a nonresident card for the purpose of dispensing marijuana for medical use if the nonresident card meets certain requirements that make it the functional equivalent of a registry identification card. Existing law also requires, as of April 1, 2018, a nonresident card to be verified by the use of certain databases. (NRS 453A.364) Section 43 of this bill instead: (1) deems a nonresident who is authorized to engage in the medical use of marijuana under the laws of his or her state or jurisdiction of residence to be listed in the medical marijuana registry for the purpose of exemption from state prosecution, if the person abides by the legal limits on the possession, delivery and production of marijuana in this State; and (2) authorizes a medical marijuana dispensary to dispense marijuana to such a person if the person presents a document which is valid proof of exemption under the laws of the state or jurisdiction of which the person is a resident. Section 69 of this bill eliminates the prospective requirement to verify a nonresident authorization by the use of certain databases.

Sections 65.6-65.85 of this bill limit the regulations and license taxes that a city, town or county may impose on a marijuana establishment or medical marijuana establishment.

Section 65.95 of this bill requires each marijuana establishment and medical marijuana establishment to submit a report to the Department of Taxation that includes certain information concerning the production and sale of marijuana by the establishment.

Existing law distributes 75 percent of the proceeds of the excise taxes on medical marijuana establishments to the State Distributive School Account in the State General Fund and 25 percent to pay the costs of the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services in carrying out the laws of this State relating to medical marijuana establishments. (NRS 372A.290) Section 65.98 of this bill, consistent with sections 2, 8, 9, 11, 13-15, 27-42, 44-48, 51 and 66-68 of this bill which transfer the responsibility for the regulation of medical marijuana establishments from the Division to the Department of Taxation, directs 25 percent of the proceeds of such excise taxes to the Department of Taxation.

Continuing disclosure may be so authorized under an agreement with the Department of Taxation or the Secretary of State for the exchange of information concerning taxpayers.

9. The powers conferred by this section are in addition and supplemental to, and not in substitution for, and the limitations imposed by this section do not affect the powers conferred by, any other law. Assemblyman Sprinkle moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate Amendment No. 1115 to Assembly Bill No. 422.

Remarks by Assemblymen Sprinkle and Ohrenschall.

Potential conflict of interest declared by Assemblyman Ohrenschall.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPRINKLE:

This amendment changes "attending physician" to "attending provider of health care." It requires that an independent testing laboratory must be accredited pursuant to standards developed by the International Organization for Standardization. It prohibits a local government from enacting or enforcing any ordinance that is more restrictive than state law relating to the packaging, testing, dosage, types of products to be sold, use of pesticides, tracking, or transportation of products. It authorizes the use of excess program funds to be used by the Nevada System of Higher Education. It redirects funds from the Division of Public and Behavioral Health to the Department of Taxation to cover the cost of administering the program and repeals portions of NRS 453A.200 concerning the ability of a valid medical marijuana registry card holder to cultivate marijuana.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

I have a disclosure to make. Because we are considering Assembly Bill 422 which proposes to make changes relating to medical marijuana and marijuana establishments, I would like to advise this Chamber that my wife is employed as the executive director of the Nevada Dispensary Association, a trade association consisting of medical marijuana dispensaries and medical marijuana cultivators which actively lobbies the Legislature and other governmental entities on issues affecting its members. I have sought the advice of our Legislative Counsel, and although Assembly Bill 422 does not affect the members of the trade association that my wife is employed with any differently than other medical marijuana dispensary owners and medical marijuana cultivators, I am making this disclosure and I am abstaining from voting on Assembly Bill 422 out of an abundance of caution.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 1151.

AN ACT relating to marijuana; revising various provisions relating to the medical use of marijuana; transferring responsibility for the regulation of medical marijuana establishments from the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services to the Department of Taxation; revising provisions relating to registry identification cards and letters of approval; revising provisions relating to the authorization of nonresidents to engage in the medical use of marijuana; prohibiting the Department of Taxation from requiring a medical marijuana dispensary to determine whether a person has exceeded the legal limits for possession of marijuana for medical use; revising provisions relating to medical marijuana establishment agents; prohibiting the use of a vending machine to dispense marijuana; requiring each marijuana establishment and medical marijuana establishment to submit to the Department of Taxation a report of information concerning the production and sale of marijuana; establishing limitations on the regulation and taxation of a marijuana establishment or medical marijuana establishment by a city, town or county; ~~[revising the distribution of excise taxes on sales of marijuana for medical purposes;]~~ providing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law exempts a person who holds a valid registry identification card or letter of approval from state prosecution for the use, possession, delivery and production of marijuana. (NRS 453A.200, 453A.205) Existing law also exempts a person who holds a valid medical marijuana establishment registration certificate or medical marijuana establishment agent registration card from state prosecution for possession, delivery and production of marijuana and provides for the registration and regulation of such persons and establishments. (NRS 453A.200, 453A.320-453A.370) Sections 2, 8, 9, 11, 13-15, 27-42, 44-48, 51 and 66-68 of this bill transfer the responsibility for the regulation of medical marijuana establishments from the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services to the Department of Taxation. Section 38 of this bill prohibits a medical marijuana establishment from dispensing or otherwise selling marijuana using a vending machine. Section 56.7 of this bill establishes a similar prohibition for recreational marijuana establishments after January 1, 2020.

Existing law requires a person who wishes to engage in the medical use of marijuana to apply to the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services for a registry identification card or letter of approval, as applicable, and grants the holder of such a card or letter an exemption from state prosecution for certain crimes relating to marijuana. (NRS 453A.200, 453A.205) Existing law requires such an application to be accompanied by valid, written documentation from the applicant's attending physician. (NRS 453A.210) Section 19 of this bill instead requires the applicant's attending provider of health care to: (1) maintain such written documentation and make such written documentation available to the Division upon request; and (2) sign the application to affirm that the requirements of such written documentation have been met. Section 20 of this bill provides that such written documentation may be valid for either 1 year or 2 years and that a registry identification card or letter of approval based on such written documentation is valid for the same period of time. Section 55 of this bill reduces the maximum fee that the Division may charge for issuing a registry identification card or letter of approval from $75 per year to $50 per year.

Existing law requires a medical marijuana establishment that wishes to retain as a volunteer or employ or contract with a person to provide labor to the medical marijuana establishment to submit an application to register the person as a medical marijuana establishment agent. (NRS 453A.332) Section 31 of this bill allows such a person to submit an application for registration as a medical marijuana establishment agent on his or her own behalf. Section 31 also provides for the temporary registration of a person as a medical marijuana establishment agent upon submission of a complete application for registration or renewal of registration. Finally, section 31 allows an independent contractor or employee of an independent contractor who is registered as a medical marijuana establishment agent to provide labor to any medical marijuana establishment and any other person who is registered as a medical marijuana establishment agent to work or volunteer at any medical marijuana establishment for which the category of the person's medical marijuana establishment agent card is valid.

Existing law limits the exemption from state prosecution for the medical use of marijuana to the possession of not more than 2.5 ounces of usable marijuana in a 14-day period, 12 marijuana plants and a quantity of edible marijuana products and marijuana-infused products established by regulation. (NRS 453A.200) Existing law also prohibits a medical marijuana dispensary from selling marijuana in excess of these limits to a person. (NRS 453A.358) Section 41 of this bill instead: (1) prohibits a medical marijuana dispensary from selling more than 1 ounce of marijuana in a transaction; and (2) prohibits the Department of Taxation from requiring a medical marijuana dispensary to track the purchases of a person or determine whether a person has exceeded the legal limits for possession of marijuana for medical use. Section 41 further provides that only persons who are 21 years of age or more or hold a registry identification card or letter of approval are allowed to enter a medical marijuana dispensary.

Existing law allows a medical marijuana dispensary to recognize a nonresident card for the purpose of dispensing marijuana for medical use if the nonresident card meets certain requirements that make it the functional equivalent of a registry identification card. Existing law also requires, as of April 1, 2018, a nonresident card to be verified by the use of certain databases. (NRS 453A.364) Section 43 of this bill instead: (1) deems a nonresident who is authorized to engage in the medical use of marijuana under the laws of his or her state or jurisdiction of residence to be listed in the medical marijuana registry for the purpose of exemption from state prosecution, if the person abides by the legal limits on the possession, delivery and production of marijuana in this State; and (2) authorizes a medical marijuana dispensary to dispense marijuana to such a person if the person presents a document which is valid proof of exemption under the laws of the state or jurisdiction of which the person is a resident. Section 69 of this bill eliminates the prospective requirement to verify a nonresident authorization by the use of certain databases.

Sections 65.6-65.85 of this bill limit the regulations and license taxes that a city, town or county may impose on a marijuana establishment or medical marijuana establishment.

Section 65.95 of this bill requires each marijuana establishment and medical marijuana establishment to submit a report to the Department of Taxation that includes certain information concerning the production and sale of marijuana by the establishment.

~~[Existing law distributes 75 percent of the proceeds of the excise taxes on medical marijuana establishments to the State Distributive School Account in the State General Fund and 25 percent to pay the costs of the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services in carrying out the laws of this State relating to medical marijuana establishments. (NRS 372A.290) Section 65.98 of this bill, consistent with sections 2, 8, 9, 11, 13-15, 27-42, 44-48, 51 and 66-68 of this bill which transfer the responsibility for the regulation of medical marijuana~~

~~establishments from the Division to the Department of Taxation, directs 25 percent of the proceeds of such excise taxes to the Department of Taxation.~~]

Assemblyman Sprinkle moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate Amendment No. 1151 to Assembly Bill No. 422.

Remarks by Assemblymen Sprinkle and Ohrenschall.

Potential conflict of interest declared by Assemblyman Ohrenschall.

ASSEMBLYMAN SPRINKLE:

This amendment removes provisions that directed 25 percent of the proceeds of an excise tax on a medical marijuana establishment to the Department of Taxation. Although this provision was removed, the funding to support the administration of the program by the Department of Taxation was authorized in section 9 of Senate Bill 487.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:

Under Order of Business 15, I have a disclosure to make. Because we are considering Assembly Bill 422 which proposes to make changes relating to medical marijuana and marijuana establishments, I would like to advise this Chamber that my wife is employed as the executive director of the Nevada Dispensary Association, a trade association consisting of medical marijuana dispensaries and medical marijuana cultivators, which actively lobbies the Legislature and other governmental entities on issues affecting its members. I have sought the advice of our Legislative Counsel, and although Assembly Bill 422 does not affect the members of the trade association that my wife is employed with any differently than other medical marijuana dispensary owners and medical marijuana cultivators, I am making this disclosure and I am abstaining from voting on Assembly Bill 422 out of an abundance of caution.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

Bill ordered to enrollment.

Mr. Speaker announced if there were no objections, the Assembly would recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 1157.

AN ACT relating to community colleges; ~~[requiring]~~ authorizing community colleges in the Nevada System of Higher Education to award a scholarship to certain students who are enrolled in such colleges; requiring that a plan to improve the achievement of pupils include strategies to provide certain persons with information concerning the availability of such scholarships; making an appropriation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Community colleges in this State are a part of the Nevada System of Higher Education and are administered under the direction of the Board of Regents of the University of Nevada. (NRS 396.020) Section 9 of this bill requires each community college in the System to determine whether it will award Nevada Promise Scholarships . ~~[and]~~ Section 9 also requires each participating community college to allow a student to appeal adverse decisions relating to such scholarships. Section 8 of this bill establishes the Nevada Promise Scholarship Account in the State General Fund to pay for the scholarships.

Sections 9 and 10 of this bill require a participating community college to perform certain duties, including holding introductory meetings for scholarship applicants and establishing a mentoring program, or to enter into an agreement with a nonprofit organization or governmental entity to perform those duties. Section 11 of this bill sets forth the requirements to serve as a volunteer mentor in such a mentoring program. Sections 12 and 13 of this bill set forth the requirements for a student to be eligible to receive or renew a Nevada Promise Scholarship. The requirements to receive or renew a scholarship include a requirement that an applicant complete community service. Section 14 of this bill: (1) provides that an applicant who knowingly submits false information to a participating community college is ineligible to receive a scholarship; and (2) prescribes additional requirements governing deadlines and community service.

Section 16 of this bill prescribes: (1) the process for determining the eligibility of scholarship applicants and awarding scholarships; and (2) the amount of a scholarship for a recipient. If there is insufficient money available to award a full scholarship to all eligible students, section 16 sets forth the manner in which money in the Account will be disbursed. Section 16 additionally requires, under such circumstances, the State Treasurer to notify the Legislature and the board of trustees of each school district and the governing body of each charter school, who are then required to notify pupils who are on schedule to graduate from a public high school of that fact. Section 17 of this bill requires the Board of Regents to annually review all scholarships awarded for the previous year and report certain information to the Legislature. Section 17 also: (1) requires a participating community college to maintain certain records; and (2) authorizes the Board of Regents and the State Treasurer to audit a participating community college or a nonprofit organization or governmental entity with which a participating community college has entered into an agreement to carry out certain duties relating to the scholarship program. Section 18.3 of this bill makes an appropriation for the purpose of awarding Nevada Promise Scholarships.

Existing law requires the plan to improve the achievement of pupils adopted by the State Board of Education to include strategies designed to provide to pupils enrolled in middle school, junior high school and high school and certain other persons information concerning the availability of Governor Guinn Millennium Scholarships. (NRS 385.112) Section 1 of this bill requires that the plan also include strategies to provide such persons with information concerning the availability of Nevada Promise Scholarships.

Sec. 17. 1. On or before August 1 of each year, the Board of Regents shall:

Those records are otherwise confidential and are not public records.

5. Senate Bill No. 539.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Carlton, Titus, and Edwards.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN CARLTON:

I rise in support of Senate Bill 539. This bill was brought to us today, and it was processed through Ways and Means. The description at the front that we just heard is very comprehensive. I will just highlight a couple of the sections. A number of these sections would be familiar to this body because we did pass Senate Bill 265 earlier this session.

In section 4.9, the bill requires a nonprofit organization that advocates for patients or funds medical research in this state to post on its Internet website, or, if it does not maintain an Internet website, to submit to the Department certain information concerning payments, donations, and anything else of value that the organization receives from manufacturers of prescription drugs, certain third parties or pharmacy benefit managers, or trade or advocacy groups for such entities. It also requires that any pharmacy benefit manager has a fiduciary duty to an insurer with which the pharmacy benefit manager has entered into a contract to manage prescription drug coverage. The bill prohibits a pharmacy benefit manager from engaging in certain trade practices. I would be happy to stand for any questions on Senate Bill 539.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN TITUS:

I must speak in opposition to Senate Bill 539. I understand why it was presented. I understand that the intent of this was to help patients with diabetes and other concerns and medications. I am extremely concerned that this bill will have unintended consequences of actually increasing drug costs to all Nevadans. Nevada will be the first state that has this kind of a program, and I am very concerned that there will be drug companies that have a hard time doing business here in the state of Nevada, and I urge my colleagues from all over the state to vote no on this bill.

ASSEMBLYMAN EDWARDS:

First, I would like to compliment the sponsors of the bill and those who are supporting it for working so diligently, not just this session, but frankly, for many others before. In the committee hearings, they brought up some very good points—that there are a lot of stakeholders and interested parties in this, because it is a very complex issue. It was also brought to light that we are really just not sure if we had the balance in the first version. Looking at the second version, I am afraid I just do not think we have the correct balance to achieve the purpose of this goal. I am going to have to stand in opposition out of concern that we could very well do much more damage than anything we could possibly help with this bill.

Section 15 of this bill requires a reseller to make certain disclosures to a ticket purchaser before completing the resale, including: (1) the amount to be paid by the ticket purchaser for the ticket; (2) the location of any seat associated with the ticket; and (3) the right of the purchaser to a refund if an athletic contest or live entertainment event is cancelled and not rescheduled. Section 15 further authorizes a reseller to only resell tickets at his or her registered office, established place of business or Internet website and prohibits a reseller from reselling tickets to an athletic contest or live entertainment event before the date for such contest or event has been officially announced, except in certain circumstances. Section 15 prohibits a reseller from reselling a ticket unless the ticket is in the actual possession of the reseller and is immediately available for delivery to the ticket purchaser, except in certain circumstances. Section 15 also places various other restrictions on the sale of tickets by a reseller. Section 15.5 of this bill prohibits a local government or political subdivision from further regulating the sale of tickets, except that a local government or political subdivision may require licensure, collect fees, limit the location of sales and provide for private enforcement.

(b) An action against an officer, or officer de facto for money paid to the officer under protest, or seized by the officer in his or her official capacity, as a collector of taxes, and which, it is claimed, ought to be refunded.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblyman Yeager.

ASSEMBLYMAN YEAGER:

Senate Bill 235 revises existing deceptive trade laws to include resellers of tickets to an athletic contest or entertainment event. The Internet website of a secondary ticket exchange or any affiliate of a reseller or secondary ticket exchange is prohibited from doing the following: (1) displaying a trademarked or copyrighted URL, image, mark, or other symbol without the written consent of the trademark or copyright holder; and (2) using any combination of text, images, web designs, or Internet addresses that are substantially similar to the Internet website of an entertainment facility, athletic contest, or live entertainment event without permission.

In addition, the measure prohibits a reseller from reselling more than one copy of the same ticket or employing another person to wait in line to purchase tickets for the purpose of reselling the tickets if the practice is prohibited. The use of Internet robots or disguising the identity of the ticket purchaser is also prohibited.

A person injured by a violation has civil remedies, and a person who willfully and knowingly violates the provisions of the bill is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN COHEN:

Senate Bill 488 establishes the crime of facilitating sex trafficking and provides that a person is guilty of such a crime if he or she facilitates, arranges, provides, or pays for the transportation of a person to or within Nevada with the intent of inducing that person to engage in unlawful sexual conduct or prostitution, or if that person is a child, engaging in certain acts relating to pornography involving minors. Such a crime is punishable as a category B felony, and a person found guilty of such a crime is subject to certain minimum and maximum terms of imprisonment depending on whether the victim is an adult or a child. If a person who is 18 years of age or less commits the crime of facilitating sex trafficking and is prosecuted in a criminal proceeding as an adult, there is a rebuttable presumption that the person acted under duress.

If passed, Senate Bill 488 will make Nevada the gold standard for other states to follow according to Shared Hope International, which is the leading organization on domestic minor sex trafficking policy in the country. I urge this body's support.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Speaker:

Your Committee on Ways and Means, to which was referred Senate Bill No. 49, has had the same under consideration, and begs leave to report the same back with the recommendation: Amend, and do pass as amended.

MAGGIE CARLTON, Chair

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Senate Bill No. 49.

Bill read third time.

The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Ways and Means:

Amendment No. 1162.

AN ACT relating to education; requiring an additional apportionment of money from the State Distributive School Account in the State General Fund to certain school districts and charter schools for pupils with disabilities; revising provisions governing the reimbursement of certain hospitals and other facilities for educational services provided to certain children; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for a basic support guarantee to be provided for each pupil who attends public school in this State. The money is paid from the State Distributive School Account in the State General Fund. The amount of the basic support guarantee is established for each school district for each school year according to a formula. Existing law further provides for a statewide multiplier to be applied for pupils with disabilities so that additional funding is provided for such pupils from the Account. However, that additional funding is limited to not more than 13 percent of the total pupil enrollment in the school district or charter school, except in limited circumstances. (NRS 387.122) If a school district or charter school has reported an enrollment of pupils with disabilities exceeding 13 percent of total pupil enrollment, section 1 of this bill generally requires that an additional apportionment be made from the Account to the school district or charter school, for each such pupil in an amount equal to one-half of the statewide multiplier then in effect for pupils with disabilities.

Under existing law, certain hospitals and other facilities that provide residential treatment to children and also operate a licensed private school are authorized to request reimbursement from the Department of Education for the cost of providing educational services to a child who is verified to be a patient of the hospital or facility and attends the private school for more than 7 school days. Upon receiving such a request, the Department is required to determine the amount of reimbursement as a percentage of the basic support guarantee per pupil and withhold that amount from the school district or charter school where the child would attend school if the child were not in the hospital or facility. (NRS 387.1225) If such a child is a pupil with a disability, section 1.2 of this bill provides that the hospital or facility is also entitled to a corresponding percentage of the statewide multiplier included in the basic support guarantee per pupil. ~~[and any other money that would otherwise be apportioned for the child to the school district or charter school.]~~

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 387.122 is hereby amended to read as follows:

387.122 1. For making the apportionments of the State Distributive School Account in the State General Fund required by the provisions of this title, the basic support guarantee per pupil for each school district is established by law for each school year. The formula for calculating the basic support guarantee may be expressed as an estimated weighted average per pupil, based on the total expenditures for public education in the immediately preceding even-numbered fiscal year, plus any legislative appropriations for the immediately succeeding biennium, minus those local funds not guaranteed by the State pursuant to NRS 387.163.

2. The estimated weighted average per pupil for the State must be calculated as a basic support guarantee for each school district through an equity allocation model that incorporates:

(a) Factors relating to wealth in the school district;

(b) Salary costs;

(c) Transportation; and

(d) Any other factor determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction after consultation with the school districts and the State Public Charter School Authority.

3. The basic support guarantee per pupil must include a statewide multiplier for pupils with disabilities. Except as otherwise provided in this ~~[subsection,]~~ section, the funding provided to each school district and charter school through the multiplier for pupils with disabilities is limited to the actual number of pupils with disabilities enrolled in the school district or charter school, not to exceed 13 percent of total pupil enrollment for the school district or charter school. ~~[If]~~

4. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if a school district or charter school has reported an enrollment of pupils with disabilities equal to more than 13 percent of total pupil enrollment, the school district or charter school must receive , for each such additional pupil, an amount of money ~~[necessary to satisfy the requirements for maintenance of effort under federal law.~~

~~4.]~~ equal to one-half of the statewide multiplier then in effect for pupils with disabilities. An apportionment made to a school district or charter school pursuant to this subsection is subject to change from year to year in accordance with the number of pupils with disabilities enrolled in the school district or charter school. If the money available for apportionment pursuant to this subsection is insufficient to make the apportionment otherwise required by this subsection, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall proportionately reduce the amount so apportioned to each school district and charter school. The Department shall account separately for any money apportioned pursuant to this subsection.

5. Not later than July 1 of each even-numbered year, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall review and, if necessary, revise the factors used for the equity allocation model adopted for the previous biennium and present the review and any revisions at a meeting of the Legislative Committee on Education for consideration and recommendations by the Committee. After the meeting, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall consider any recommendations of the Legislative Committee on Education, determine whether to include those recommendations in the equity allocation model and adopt the model. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall submit the equity allocation model to the:

(a) Governor for inclusion in the proposed executive budget.

(b) Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmittal to the next regular session of the Legislature.

~~[5.]~~ 6. The Department shall make available updated information regarding the equity allocation model on the Internet website maintained by the Department.

Sec. 1.2. NRS 387.1225 is hereby amended to read as follows:

387.1225 1. A hospital or other facility which is licensed by the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services that provides residential treatment to children and which operates a private school licensed pursuant to chapter 394 of NRS may request reimbursement from the Department for the cost of providing educational services to a child who:

(a) The Department verifies is a patient or resident of the hospital or facility; and

(b) Attends the private school for more than 7 school days.

2. Upon receiving a request for reimbursement, the Department shall determine the amount of reimbursement to which the hospital or facility is entitled as a percentage of the basic support guarantee per pupil and withhold that amount from the ~~[county]~~ school district or charter school where the child would attend school if the child were not placed in the hospital or facility. If the child is a pupil with a disability, the hospital or facility is also entitled to a corresponding percentage of the statewide multiplier included in the basic support guarantee per pupil pursuant to NRS 387.122 . ~~[and any other money that would otherwise be apportioned for the child to the school district or charter school.]~~ The Department shall distribute the money withheld from the ~~[county]~~ school district or charter school to the hospital or facility.

3. For the purposes of subsection 2, the amount of reimbursement to which the hospital or facility is entitled must be calculated on the basis of the number of school days the child is a patient or resident of the hospital or facility and attends the private school, ~~[including]~~ excluding the 7 school days prescribed in paragraph (b) of subsection 1, in proportion to the number of days of instruction scheduled for that school year by the board of trustees of the school district or the charter school, as applicable.

4. The Department shall adopt any regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

~~[4.]~~ 5. As used in this section:

(a) "Hospital" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 449.012.

(b) "Private school" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 394.103.

Sec. 1.5. NRS 388.429 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Amendment No. 1135.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN BUSTAMANTE ADAMS

JOINT SPONSORS: SENATORS HAMMOND AND MANENDO

AN ACT relating to transportation; establishing the Nevada State Infrastructure Bank; providing for the governance of the Bank by a Board of Directors; establishing the powers and duties of the Board of Directors; providing for the administration of the Bank by an Executive Director to the extent that certain money is available; establishing the powers and duties of the Executive Director; establishing the Nevada State Infrastructure Bank Fund; authorizing the Bank to perform certain acts in connection with the financing of certain transportation facilities and utility infrastructure; providing civil immunity for certain persons for certain official actions; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 2-36.5 of this bill establish the Nevada State Infrastructure Bank. The purpose of the Bank is to provide loans and other financial assistance to various units of state and local government for the development, construction, repair, improvement, maintenance, decommissioning, operation and ownership of certain transportation facilities and utility infrastructure. Sections 20 and 37.1 of this bill create the Bank within the Department of Transportation and provide for its governance by a Board of Directors. Section 21 of this bill establishes certain powers and duties of the Board of Directors. Section 21 further authorizes the Board of Directors to issue bonds or other securities to raise money to carry out its statutory purposes and powers. Section 21 also requires the Board of Directors to act in a commercially reasonable manner and authorizes the Board of Directors to rely on certain information if it is prepared or presented by certain people or entities. Section 22 of this bill requires the Governor, to the extent that money is available from public or private sources for administrative costs, to appoint an Executive Director to administer, manage and conduct the affairs of the Bank and establishes the powers and duties of the Executive Director. Section 22 also requires that the Executive Director and any employees hired be paid from money allocated to the Bank and appropriated or authorized by the Legislature or the Interim Finance Committee. Section 23 of this bill creates the Nevada State Infrastructure Bank Fund to be administered by the Board of Directors and used exclusively to capitalize and carry out the statutory powers and purpose of the Bank.

Section 24 of this bill establishes certain procedures relating to: (1) applications for a loan or other financial assistance from the Bank in connection with a project to develop, construct, repair, improve, operate, maintain, decommission or own a transportation facility or utility infrastructure; (2) the determination by the Executive Director of eligible projects; and (3) selection by the Board of Directors of projects that qualify to obtain such a loan or assistance. Section 25 of this bill requires a borrower whose project is qualified to receive a loan or other financial assistance to enter into a financing agreement with the Bank and, in case of a loan, to issue some kind of security to the Bank that evidences the borrower's obligation to repay the loan.

Section 26 of this bill authorizes the Bank to act as an insurer or reinsurer in connection with a loan or satisfaction of a related obligation made by the Bank. Section 27 of this bill authorizes the Bank to provide security for any revenue bonds issued by the Bank.

Section 28 of this bill provides that any debt or obligation issued by the Bank is not a debt, liability or obligation of this State or of any political subdivision thereof, or a pledge of the faith and credit of this State or a political subdivision, other than the Bank itself.

If a borrower who has received a loan from the Bank fails to make a payment of any money owed to the Bank, section 29 of this bill authorizes the Bank, under certain circumstances, to require other state agencies that are in possession of money of the State or other money that is allotted or appropriated to the borrower to withhold that money from that borrower and remit it to the Bank to use the money to make the necessary payment to the Bank.

Section 30 of this bill provides a grant of immunity from civil liability to the Board of Directors of the Bank or the officers and employees of the Bank for certain official acts under certain circumstances. Section 31 of this bill exempts the Bank from certain procedural prerequisites that would otherwise be applicable to its actions. Section 32 of this bill exempts the property of the Bank and its income from taxation. Section 33 of this bill exempts the bonds and other securities issued by the Bank from most forms of taxation.

Section 34 of this bill provides that any authority given to a governmental borrower to issue bonds by this bill is supplemental to, and not in lieu of, any existing authority to issue bonds.

Section 35 of this bill also provides that the provisions of this bill are intended to supplement, not supplant, other existing laws concerning the development, construction, repair, improvement, maintenance, decommissioning, operation and ownership of transportation facilities and utility infrastructure and the issuance of bonds and other securities by this State and political subdivisions thereof. However, section 35 also provides that if there is a conflict between those laws and this bill, the provisions of this bill control. Section 35 also provides that a contract for construction on a qualified project funded in whole or in part by a loan or other financial assistance from the Bank is subject to the prevailing wage requirement.

Section 36 of this bill requires the Bank to submit an annual report concerning its activities to the Governor and the Legislature. Section 36.5 of this bill authorizes the divisions of the Department of Transportation, to the extent that money is available for that purpose, to provide technical advice, support and assistance to the Bank.

AN ACT relating to [transportation;] public works; establishing the Nevada State Infrastructure Bank; providing for the governance of the Bank by a Board of Directors; establishing the powers and duties of the Board of Directors; providing for the administration of the Bank by an Executive Director to the extent that certain money is available; establishing the powers and duties of the Executive Director; establishing the Nevada State Infrastructure Bank Fund; authorizing the Bank to perform certain acts in connection with the financing of certain transportation facilities and utility infrastructure; providing civil immunity for certain persons for certain official actions; revising provisions governing revenues pledged for the payment of bonds to finance the renovation or expansion of the Las Vegas Convention Center; revising provisions governing audits of the use of such revenues; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Sections 2-36.5 of this bill establish the Nevada State Infrastructure Bank. The purpose of the Bank is to provide loans and other financial assistance to various units of state and local government for the development, construction, repair, improvement, maintenance, decommissioning, operation and ownership of certain transportation facilities and utility infrastructure. Sections 20 and 37.1 of this bill create the Bank within the Department of Transportation and provide for its governance by a Board of Directors. Section 21 of this bill establishes certain powers and duties of the Board of Directors. Section 21 further authorizes the Board of Directors to issue bonds or other securities to raise money to carry out its statutory purposes and powers. Section 21 also requires the Board of Directors to act in a commercially reasonable manner and authorizes the Board of Directors to rely on certain information if it is prepared or presented by certain people or entities. Section 22 of this bill requires the Governor, to the extent that money is available from public or private sources for administrative costs, to appoint an Executive Director to administer, manage and conduct the affairs of the Bank and establishes the powers and duties of the Executive Director. Section 22 also requires that the Executive Director and any employees hired be paid from money allocated to the Bank and appropriated or authorized by the Legislature or the Interim Finance Committee. Section 23 of this bill creates the Nevada State Infrastructure Bank Fund to be administered by the Board of Directors and used exclusively to capitalize and carry out the statutory powers and purpose of the Bank.

Section 24 of this bill establishes certain procedures relating to: (1) applications for a loan or other financial assistance from the Bank in connection with a project to develop, construct, repair, improve, operate, maintain, decommission or own a transportation facility or utility infrastructure; (2) the determination by the Executive Director of eligible projects; and (3) selection by the Board of Directors of projects that qualify to obtain such a loan or assistance. Section 25 of this bill requires a borrower whose project is qualified to receive a loan or other financial assistance to enter into a financing agreement with the Bank and, in case of a loan, to issue some kind of security to the Bank that evidences the borrower's obligation to repay the loan.

Section 26 of this bill authorizes the Bank to act as an insurer or reinsurer in connection with a loan or satisfaction of a related obligation made by the Bank. Section 27 of this bill authorizes the Bank to provide security for any revenue bonds issued by the Bank.

Section 28 of this bill provides that any debt or obligation issued by the Bank is not a debt, liability or obligation of this State or of any political subdivision thereof, or a pledge of the faith and credit of this State or a political subdivision, other than the Bank itself.

If a borrower who has received a loan from the Bank fails to make a payment of any money owed to the Bank, section 29 of this bill authorizes the Bank, under certain circumstances, to require other state agencies that are in possession of money of the State or other money that is allotted or appropriated to the borrower to withhold that money from that borrower and remit it to the Bank to use the money to make the necessary payment to the Bank.

Section 30 of this bill provides a grant of immunity from civil liability to the Board of Directors of the Bank or the officers and employees of the Bank for certain official acts under certain circumstances. Section 31 of this bill exempts the Bank from certain procedural prerequisites that would otherwise be applicable to its actions. Section 32 of this bill exempts the property of the Bank and its income from taxation. Section 33 of this bill exempts the bonds and other securities issued by the Bank from most forms of taxation.

Section 34 of this bill provides that any authority given to a governmental borrower to issue bonds by this bill is supplemental to, and not in lieu of, any existing authority to issue bonds.

Section 35 of this bill also provides that the provisions of this bill are intended to supplement, not supplant, other existing laws concerning the development, construction, repair, improvement, maintenance, decommissioning, operation and ownership of transportation facilities and utility infrastructure and the issuance of bonds and other securities by this State and political subdivisions thereof. However, section 35 also provides that if there is a conflict between those laws and this bill, the provisions of this bill control. Section 35 also provides that a contract for construction on a qualified project funded in whole or in part by a loan or other financial assistance from the Bank is subject to the prevailing wage requirement.

Section 36 of this bill requires the Bank to submit an annual report concerning its activities to the Governor and the Legislature. Section 36.5 of this bill authorizes the divisions of the Department of Transportation, to the extent that money is available for that purpose, to provide technical advice, support and assistance to the Bank.

Existing law creates the Oversight Panel for Convention Facilities to perform certain functions related to the oversight of the renovation or expansion of the Las Vegas Convention Center. (Section 53 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 2016, 30th Special Session, p. 54) Under existing law, the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority is required to submit to the Oversight Panel an annual third-party audit of the use of certain revenues for the expansion or renovation of the Convention Center. This audit must be submitted to the Oversight Panel on or before August 31 of each year. (Section 54 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 2016, 30th Special Session, p. 55) Section 37.8 of this bill revises the due date for the audit so that the audit must be submitted to the Oversight Panel not later than 5 months after the end of the fiscal year for which the audit is performed.

Existing law requires certain taxes on the rental of transient lodging and certain other revenue to be pledged for the payment of bonds issued to defray the cost of the renovation or expansion of the Las Vegas Convention Center. (Sections 56-58 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 2016, 30th Special Session, pp. 56-57) Under existing law, if the proceeds of certain taxes on the rental of transient lodging which must be pledged to the payment of such bonds will generate sufficient revenue to meet or exceed a debt service coverage ratio of 1.5 times the anticipated annual debt service for the term of the bonds, the bonds must be issued in accordance with certain provisions of existing law. (Section 61 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 2016, 30th Special Session, p. 58) Section 37.9 of this bill provides that the revenue pledged for the payment of such bonds include available proceeds from other taxes imposed on the rental of transient lodging that will be pledged to the payment of such bonds and certain other revenues that will be pledged for the payment of such bonds. (Section 56 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 2016, 30th Special Session, p. 56)

Existing law establishes the Electronic Notary Public Authorization Act pursuant to which an electronic notary public appointed by the Secretary of State is authorized to perform electronic notarial acts. (NRS 240.181-240.206) Section 39 of this bill renames the act as the Electronic Notarization Enabling Act and section 45 of this bill requires electronic notaries public to register with, instead of be appointed by, the Secretary of State. Section 35 of this bill: (1) authorizes an electronic notary public to perform authorized electronic notarial acts remotely using audio-video communication, which section 30 of this bill generally defines as communication by which a person is able to see, hear and communicate with another person in real time using electronic means; and (2) sets forth certain requirements relating to such electronic notarial acts. Section 36 of this bill authorizes an electronic notary public to perform an electronic notarial act using audio-video communication for a person located: (1) in this State; (2) outside this State but within the United States; or (3) in certain circumstances, outside the United States.

Section 37 of this bill requires an electronic notary public to arrange for a recording to be made of each electronic notarial act performed using audio-video communication and to give all participating persons advance notice of the recording. Section 37 also requires the recording to be kept for not less than 7 years. Section 51 of this bill requires an electronic notary public to keep an electronic journal of each notarial act which he or she performs and to maintain and protect the electronic journal at all times. Section 51 also provides that, except as otherwise provided by law, an electronic notary public is required to keep all required notarial records for a period of 7 years after the termination of the registration of the electronic notary public.

Section 38 of this bill establishes provisions relating to the confirmation of the identity of a person for whom an electronic notarial act is performed using audio-video communication. Section 50 of this bill requires an electronic notary public to render an electronic document that is the subject of an electronic notarial act tamper-evident.

Section 38.3 of this bill establishes provisions concerning electronic documents relating to real property located in this State.

Section 46.5 of this bill authorizes the Secretary of State to require a notary public who registers with the Secretary of State as an electronic notary public to complete an online course of study on electronic notarization.

Section 38.7 of this bill establishes provisions relating to the completion of such a course of study.

Section 48 of this bill increases the amount of fees which an electronic notary public may charge for performing certain electronic notarial acts and authorizes an electronic notary public to charge a reasonable fee to recover any cost of providing a copy of an entry or a recording of an audio-video communication in the electronic journal maintained by the electronic notary public. Section 48 also prohibits an electronic notary public who is an officer or employee of the State or a local government from charging a fee for an electronic notarial act that the electronic notary public performs within the scope of such employment.

Sections 56-60 of this bill delete certain provisions of Assembly Bill No. 476 of this session that are replaced with the provisions of sections 45, 46, 46.5, 51 and 52 of this bill, and section 61 of this bill provides that the provisions of this bill are intended to supersede any provisions of Assembly Bill No. 476 that conflict with the provisions of this bill.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTION

240.193 Requirements for bond; notification of exhaustion of penal sum; release of surety; suspension of appointment; reinstatement of appointment.

1. The bond required to be filed pursuant to NRS 240.192 must be executed by the person applying to become an electronic notary public as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this State. The bond must be made payable to the State of Nevada and be conditioned to provide indemnification to a person determined to have suffered damage as a result of an act by the electronic notary public which violates a provision of NRS 240.001 to 240.206, inclusive. The surety company shall pay a final, nonappealable judgment of a court of this State that has jurisdiction, upon receipt of written notice of final judgment. The bond may be continuous, but regardless of the duration of the bond, the aggregate liability of the surety does not exceed the penal sum of the bond.

2. If the penal sum of the bond is exhausted, the surety company shall notify the Secretary of State in writing within 30 days after its exhaustion.

3. The surety bond must cover the period of the appointment of the electronic notary public, except when a surety is released.

4. A surety on a bond filed pursuant to NRS 240.192 may be released after the surety gives 30 days' written notice to the Secretary of State and the electronic notary public, but the release does not discharge or otherwise affect a claim filed by a person for damage resulting from an act of the electronic notary public which is alleged to have occurred while the bond was in effect.

5. The appointment of an electronic notary public is suspended by operation of law when the electronic notary public is no longer covered by a surety bond as required by this section and NRS 240.192 or the penal sum of the bond is exhausted. If the Secretary of State receives notice pursuant to subsection 4 that the bond will be released or pursuant to subsection 2 that the penal sum of the bond is exhausted, the Secretary of State shall immediately notify the electronic notary public in writing that his or her appointment will be suspended by operation of law until another surety bond is filed in the same manner and amount as the bond being terminated.

6. The Secretary of State may reinstate the appointment of an electronic notary public whose appointment has been suspended pursuant to subsection 5 if the electronic notary public, before his or her current term of appointment expires:

(a) Submits to the Secretary of State:

(1) An application for an amended certificate of appointment as an electronic notary public; and

(2) A certificate issued by the clerk of the county in which the applicant resides or, if the applicant is a resident of an adjoining state, the county in this State in which the applicant maintains a place of business or is employed, which indicates that the applicant filed a new surety bond with the clerk; and

(b) Pays to the Secretary of State a fee of $10.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTION

240.193 Requirements for bond; notification of exhaustion of penal sum; release of surety; suspension of appointment; reinstatement of appointment.

1. The bond required to be filed pursuant to NRS 240.192 must be executed by the person applying to become an electronic notary public as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this State. The bond must be made payable to the State of Nevada and be conditioned to provide indemnification to a person determined to have suffered damage as a result of an act by the electronic notary public which violates a provision of NRS 240.001 to 240.206, inclusive. The surety company shall pay a final, nonappealable judgment of a court of this State that has jurisdiction, upon receipt of written notice of final judgment. The bond may be continuous, but regardless of the duration of the bond, the aggregate liability of the surety does not exceed the penal sum of the bond.

2. If the penal sum of the bond is exhausted, the surety company shall notify the Secretary of State in writing within 30 days after its exhaustion.

3. The surety bond must cover the period of the appointment of the electronic notary public, except when a surety is released.

4. A surety on a bond filed pursuant to NRS 240.192 may be released after the surety gives 30 days' written notice to the Secretary of State and the electronic notary public, but the release does not discharge or otherwise affect a claim filed by a person for damage resulting from an act of the electronic notary public which is alleged to have occurred while the bond was in effect.

5. The appointment of an electronic notary public is suspended by operation of law when the electronic notary public is no longer covered by a surety bond as required by this section and NRS 240.192 or the penal sum of the bond is exhausted. If the Secretary of State receives notice pursuant to subsection 4 that the bond will be released or pursuant to subsection 2 that the penal sum of the bond is exhausted, the Secretary of State shall immediately notify the electronic notary public in writing that his or her appointment will be suspended by operation of law until another surety bond is filed in the same manner and amount as the bond being terminated.

6. The Secretary of State may reinstate the appointment of an electronic notary public whose appointment has been suspended pursuant to subsection 5 if the electronic notary public, before his or her current term of appointment expires:

(a) Submits to the Secretary of State:

(1) An application for an amended certificate of appointment as an electronic notary public; and

(2) A certificate issued by the clerk of the county in which the applicant resides or, if the applicant is a resident of an adjoining state, the county in this State in which the applicant maintains a place of business or is employed, which indicates that the applicant filed a new surety bond with the clerk; and

Amendment No. CA7.

SUMMARY—Makes various changes to provisions relating to ~~[accountants.]~~ professions. (BDR 54-109)

AN ACT relating to ~~[accountants;]~~ professions; revising provisions relating to the qualifications and appointment of members of the Nevada State Board of Accountancy; revising provisions relating to the adoption or amendment of rules of professional conduct by the Board; revising the qualifications for a certificate of certified public accountant; revising certain educational and work experience requirements for a certificate of certified public accountant; ~~[eliminating the requirement that an accounting firm which performs attest services but which does not have an office in this State must register with the Board; providing that such an accounting firm may perform attest services under the same conditions as it practices and performs nonattest services;]~~ authorizing the issuance of a cease and desist order to a person believed to be engaged in the unlawful practice of accounting; repealing provisions relating to the registration of public accountants and business entities formed by public accountants; exempting certain professionals who hold a valid and unrestricted license to practice in another jurisdiction from provisions governing the practice of those professions for certain purposes relating to athletics; increasing a penalty; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law generally provides for the regulation of accountants in this State. (Chapter 628 of NRS) Sections 1, 3 and 4 of this bill revise definitions relating to services to be performed by accountants to conform with the seventh edition of the Uniform Accountancy Act, published by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy.

Section 9 of this bill requires the Nevada State Board of Accountancy to provide notice of proposed new rules of professional conduct or amendments to rules of professional conduct to permit holders by electronic mail rather than by delivery by the United States Postal Service. Section 10 of this bill removes the requirement that to qualify for a certificate of certified public accountant, the applicant must either be a resident of this State or designate an agent in this State to receive service of process for the applicant. Sections 11-13 of this bill revise certain educational, work experience and examination requirements for a certificate of certified public accountant.

~~[Section 14.2 of this bill eliminates the requirement that a partnership, corporation, limited-liability company or sole proprietorship must register with the Board in order to perform attest services for a client having his or her home office in this State. (NRS 628.335) Section 14.2 additionally authorizes such a partnership, corporation, limited-liability company or sole proprietorship to perform attest services for a client having his or her home office in this State without registering only if the partnership, corporation, limited-liability company or sole proprietorship meets the existing criteria for~~

~~nonattest services. Sections 13.5, 14.4-14.8 and 31.5 of this bill make conforming changes necessitated by the revisions to section 14.2.]~~

Section 28 of this bill authorizes the Board to provide another licensing board or agency with otherwise confidential and privileged records relating to a complaint if the Board is cooperating in an investigation by that board or agency. Section 39 of this bill authorizes the Board to issue a cease and desist order to a person the Board believes to be engaging in certain unlawful acts relating to accounting. Section 40 of this bill increases the penalty for committing certain unlawful acts relating to accounting from a misdemeanor to a gross misdemeanor.

Section 45 of this bill repeals provisions relating to the registration and regulation of registered public accountants and business entities formed by public accountants. Sections 5, 6, 8, 14, 15-27, 29-31, 32-38 and 41-44 of this bill make conforming changes.

Under existing law, the Nevada Society of Certified Public Accountants is required to submit to the Governor the names of at least three persons qualified for membership on the Board for each position on the Board to be filled by a certified public accountant. (NRS 628.075) Section 7 of this bill authorizes the Nevada Society of Certified Public Accountants to recommend to the Governor the reappointment of a current Board member who is eligible for reappointment without submitting other names for consideration.

Existing law requires a person to be licensed by the Board of Medical Examiners, State Board of Osteopathic Medicine, Chiropractic Physicians' Board of Nevada, State Board of Oriental Medicine, State Board of Physical Therapy Examiners or Board of Athletic Trainers before practicing the profession regulated by the applicable board in this State. (NRS 630.160, 633.741, 634.227, 634A.230, 640.169, 640B.700) Sections 41.1, 41.25, 41.35, 41.5, 41.65 and 41.8 of this bill provide for a temporary exemption from this requirement for a professional who holds a valid and unrestricted license to practice in another jurisdiction and is practicing his or her profession for certain purposes relating to athletic competition or training. Such an exemption lasts for 10 days, but may be extended for not more than 20 additional days upon application to the applicable board. A professional who is practicing under such an exemption is prohibited from: (1) practicing at a medical facility; (2) providing services to persons outside the scope of the exemption; or (3) practicing his or her profession under such an exemption for more than 60 days in a calendar year. Sections 41.2, 41.3, 41.4, 41.6, 41.7 and 41.9 of this bill provide that a person practicing his or her profession under such an exemption is not subject to regulation under chapter 630, 633, 634, 634A, 640 or 640B of NRS while practicing within the scope of the exemption

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENTS

Assembly Bill No. 259.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 787.

AN ACT relating to criminal procedure; providing for the vacating of certain judgments of conviction and sealing of certain records relating to marijuana; authorizing a court to depart from prescribed minimum terms of imprisonment for the possession of controlled substances in certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes a court to grant a motion to vacate a judgment of conviction in certain circumstances. (NRS 176.515) Existing law also establishes a process for sealing certain records of criminal proceedings. (NRS 179.245-179.301) With certain limited exceptions, if the court orders a person's record of criminal history sealed, all proceedings recounted in the record are deemed never to have occurred. (NRS 179.285)

Section 1.2 of this bill provides that if a person is convicted of a misdemeanor for: (1) the possession of 1 ounce or less of marijuana; or (2) a violation of any provision of law concerning certain offenses involving marijuana and the act constituting the offense is a lawful act in this State on or after January 1, 2017, the person may petition the court to vacate the judgment and seal all documents relating to the case. Section 1.2 establishes the circumstances in which the court is required or authorized to grant such a petition. If granting such a petition is within the discretion of the court, the petitioner is required to notify the office of the prosecuting attorney who prosecuted the petitioner for the crime and the prosecuting attorney must be allowed to testify and present evidence before the court decides whether to grant the petition. Section 1.2 also authorizes a court to enter an ~~[interim]~~ order to vacate a judgment of conviction if the petitioner satisfies all requirements necessary for the judgment to be vacated but the petition is deficient with respect to the sealing of the petitioner's record. Section 1.2 provides that if the court enters such an ~~[interim]~~ order, the court is also required to order sealed the records of the petitioner which relate to the judgment being vacated. Sections 1.3-1.7 of this bill make conforming changes.

Existing law generally prohibits a person from knowingly or intentionally possessing a controlled substance and sets forth the penalties for violating such a provision. The severity of the penalty generally depends on the type of controlled substance the person possessed and the number of times the person has committed the offense. (NRS 453.336) Section 2 of this bill provides that if a person is convicted of knowingly or intentionally possessing a controlled substance and the penalty for such possession requires that the person serve a minimum term of imprisonment, the court is authorized to depart from the prescribed minimum term of imprisonment in certain specified circumstances.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Amendment No. CA4.

AN ACT relating to criminal offenders; revising provisions relating to certain allowable deductions from the period of probation or sentence of a person; authorizing the Governor to grant certain deductions from the period of the sentence of a person under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires that a person who is sentenced to serve a period of probation for a felony or gross misdemeanor be allowed for the period of probation a deduction of a certain number of days from that period for each month the person serves if he or she is in compliance with the terms and conditions of the probation and is: (1) current with any fee to defray the costs of the person's supervision and any fines, fees and restitution ordered by the court; and (2) actively involved in employment or enrolled in a program of education, rehabilitation or another program approved by the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department of Public Safety. (NRS 176A.500) Existing law similarly requires that certain persons who are on parole or released on parole be allowed for the period the person is on parole a deduction of a certain number of days from the person's sentence for each month served if the person is current with any fee to defray the costs of his or her supervision and any payment of restitution required by the State Board of Parole Commissioners. (NRS 209.4475)

Section 1 of this bill revises the requirements that a probationer must satisfy to be allowed a deduction from his or her period of probation. Section 1 removes the requirements that the probationer be in compliance with the terms and conditions of the probation and be current on the payment of fines and fees ordered by the court, thereby making the requirements for probationers to be allowed a deduction more similar to the existing requirements imposed on parolees. Section 1 also removes the requirement that a probationer, to be allowed a deduction, must be both: (1) current with any fee to defray the costs of his or her supervision and any payment of restitution; and (2) actively involved in employment or enrolled in a program approved by the Division, and instead provides that a probationer is allowed a separate deduction for satisfying each such requirement.

Existing law provides that under certain circumstances an offender may earn credits to reduce his or her sentence of imprisonment for each month the offender serves. (NRS 209.4465) Section 1.5 of this bill authorizes the Governor, by executive order, if the Governor determines it is necessary, to grant additional credits to reduce an offender's sentence by not more than 5 days for each month an offender serves.

Sections 1 and 2 of this bill, respectively, provide that for the purpose of determining whether a probationer is allowed a deduction from his or her period of probation for being current with any fee to defray the costs of his or her supervision and any payment of restitution or whether a parolee is allowed a deduction from his or her sentence, the probationer or parolee shall be deemed to be current with any fee to defray the costs of his or her supervision and any payment of restitution for any given month if, during that month, the probationer or parolee makes at least the minimum monthly payment established by the court, the Division or the Board, as applicable.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 176A.500 is hereby amended to read as follows:

176A.500 1. The period of probation or suspension of sentence may be indeterminate or may be fixed by the court and may at any time be extended or terminated by the court, but the period, including any extensions thereof, must not be more than:

(a) Three years for a:

(1) Gross misdemeanor; or

(2) Suspension of sentence pursuant to NRS 176A.260, 176A.290 or 453.3363; or

(b) Five years for a felony.

2. At any time during probation or suspension of sentence, the court may issue a warrant for violating any of the conditions of probation or suspension of sentence and cause the defendant to be arrested. Except for the purpose of giving a dishonorable discharge from probation, and except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the time during which a warrant for violating any of the conditions of probation is in effect is not part of the period of probation. If the warrant is cancelled or probation is reinstated, the court may include any amount of that time as part of the period of probation.

3. Any parole and probation officer or any peace officer with power to arrest may arrest a probationer without a warrant, or may deputize any other officer with power to arrest to do so by giving the probationer a written statement setting forth that the probationer has, in the judgment of the parole and probation officer, violated the conditions of probation. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, the parole and probation officer or the peace officer, after making an arrest, shall present to the detaining authorities, if any, a statement of the charges against the probationer. The parole and probation officer shall at once notify the court which granted probation of the arrest and detention or residential confinement of the probationer and shall submit a report in writing showing in what manner the probationer has violated the conditions of probation.

4. A parole and probation officer or a peace officer may immediately release from custody without any further proceedings any person the officer arrests without a warrant for violating a condition of probation if the parole and probation officer or peace officer determines that there is no probable cause to believe that the person violated the condition of probation.

5. A person who is sentenced to serve a period of probation for a felony or a gross misdemeanor [~~must be allowed for the period of the probation a~~

~~deduction as set forth in subsection 6 if the offender is in compliance with the terms and conditions of the probation as determined by the Division and is:~~

~~(a) Current with any fee to defray the cost of the supervision charged pursuant to NRS 213.1076 and with any fines, fees and restitution ordered by the court, including, without limitation, any payment of restitution required pursuant to NRS 176A.430; and~~

A person shall be deemed to be current with any such fee and payment of restitution for any given month if, during that month, the person makes at least the minimum monthly payment established by the court or, if the court does not establish a minimum monthly payment, by the Division.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, ~~[an additional]~~ 10 days from that period for each month the person serves and is actively involved in employment or enrolled in a program of education, rehabilitation or any other program approved by the Division.

6. A person must be allowed a deduction pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection 5 regardless of whether the person has satisfied the requirements of the other paragraph and must be allowed a deduction pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection 5 if the person has satisfied the requirements of both paragraphs of that subsection.

7. A person who is sentenced to serve a period of probation for a felony or a gross misdemeanor and who is a participant in a specialty court program must be allowed a deduction from the period of probation for being actively involved in employment or enrolled in a program of education, rehabilitation or any other program approved by the Division only if the person successfully completes the specialty court program. Such a deduction must not exceed the length of time remaining on the person's period of probation.

8. As used in this section, "specialty court program" means a program established by a court to facilitate testing, treatment and oversight of certain persons over whom the court has jurisdiction and who the court has determined suffer from mental illnesses or abuse alcohol or drugs. Such a program includes, without limitation, a program established pursuant to NRS 176A.250 or 453.580.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions ~~[governing state agencies, boards and commissions that regulate occupations and professions.]~~ relating to state government. (BDR 54-229)

AN ACT relating to ~~[regulatory bodies;]~~ state government; requiring certain regulatory bodies to adopt regulations governing the issuance of a license by endorsement to a natural person who holds a comparable license issued by the District of Columbia or any state or territory of the United States and meets certain other requirements; prohibiting the appointment as a member of a regulatory body of a person who has served as a member for 12 years or more under certain circumstances; ~~[prohibiting regulatory bodies from entering into an agreement for]~~ revising provisions relating to the payment of fees for legal services on a contingent basis; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law provides for the regulation of certain occupations and professions in this State. (Title 54 of NRS) The various state agencies, boards and commissions that are authorized to license and regulate particular occupations or professions are generally referred to as "regulatory bodies." (NRS 622.060)

Section 3 of this bill requires a regulatory body that is not otherwise authorized or required by specific statute to issue a license to engage in an occupation or profession in this State to a natural person who has been issued a comparable license by another jurisdiction to adopt regulations providing for the issuance of a license by endorsement to engage in an occupation or profession in this State to a natural person who: (1) holds a corresponding valid and unrestricted license to engage in that occupation or profession in the District of Columbia or any state or territory of the United States; (2) possesses qualifications that are substantially similar to the qualifications required for issuance of a license to engage in that occupation or profession in this State; and (3) satisfies certain other requirements.

Section 4 of this bill establishes term limits for members of regulatory bodies. Specifically, section 4 provides that a person may not be appointed as a member of a regulatory body if the person has served as a member of that regulatory body, or at the expiration of his or her current term if he or she is so serving will have served, 12 years or more at the time of his or her appointment, unless the person is serving as a member of a regulatory body with less than 250 licensees.

Existing law establishes specific requirements that must be satisfied before certain state agencies or officials may enter into a contingent fee contract with an attorney or law firm ~~.~~ and sets certain limitations on the amount of the fee that may be paid to an attorney or law firm retained in any matter that is the subject of a contingent fee contract. (NRS 228.111-228.1118) Section 5 of this bill prohibits any regulatory body from entering into such a contract. Section 8 of this bill makes a conforming change. Section 8.5 of this bill revises the limitations on the amount of the fee that attorneys or law firms retained in any matter that is the subject of a contingent fee contract may be paid.

Existing law requires each regulatory body to submit a quarterly report to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau that includes certain information concerning the disciplinary actions taken and the number of licenses issued by the regulatory body during the immediately preceding calendar quarter. (NRS 622.100) Section 7 of this bill requires the regulatory body also to include in the report: (1) the total number of applications for licensure received by the regulatory body; (2) the number of applications rejected by the regulatory body as incomplete; (3) the average number of days between the date of rejection of an application as incomplete and the resubmission by the applicant of a complete application; (4) a list of each reason given by the regulatory body for the denial of an application and the number of applications denied by the regulatory body for each such reason; and (5) the number of applications reviewed on an individual basis by the regulatory body or the executive head of the regulatory body.

Section 18 of Senate Bill No. 516 of this session creates the Office of Workforce Innovation in the Office of the Governor. Section 19 of Senate Bill No. 516 of this session requires the Governor to appoint the Executive Director of the Office of Workforce Innovation. Section 9.5 of this bill requires the Executive Director of the Office of Workforce Innovation, on or before January 1 of each year, to submit to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau a written report that includes: (1) the number of persons in this State who are engaged in an occupation or profession that is regulated by a regulatory body; and (2) the demand for the services of such persons engaged in such a regulated occupation or profession.

Amendment No. CA10.

AN ACT relating to insurance; authorizing the Commissioner of Insurance to accept an independent audit in lieu of an examination of a nonprofit organization of surplus lines brokers; limiting when a surplus lines broker may charge a fee; authorizing the Commissioner to adopt regulations for the charging and collection of certain fees for the purchase of individual or group life or health insurance or an individual or group annuity; authorizing an employee or authorized representative of a vendor to receive certain compensation relating to offering portable electronics insurance; revising provisions relating to the termination of the membership of a member of an association of self-insured public or private employers; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Commissioner of Insurance to make an examination of the affairs, transactions, accounts, records and assets of a nonprofit organization of surplus lines brokers. (NRS 685A.075) Section 7 of this bill authorizes the Commissioner to accept the report of an independent audit in lieu of an examination if the Commissioner deems an independent audit to be in the best interest of the residents of this State.

Existing law authorizes a surplus lines broker to charge a fee for procuring surplus lines coverage. (NRS 685A.155) Section 8 of this bill limits existing law by only authorizing a broker who places any insurance coverage with an authorized insurer to charge a fee for procuring surplus lines coverage.

Existing law authorizes the Commissioner to adopt regulations to allow for the charging and collection of a fee by an insurance broker, consultant or financial planner for consultation or related advice on the purchase of life or health insurance or an annuity. (NRS 686A.230) Section 11 of this bill clarifies existing law by authorizing the Commissioner to adopt regulations to allow for the charging and collection of a fee by an insurance broker, consultant or financial planner for consultation or related advice on the purchase of individual or group life or health insurance or an individual or group annuity.

Section 12 of this bill authorizes an employee or authorized representative of a vendor to receive from the vendor certain incidental compensation relating to offering coverage and enrolling a customer under a policy of portable electronics insurance. Section 6 of this bill makes conforming changes.

Existing law authorizes the Commissioner, with the approval of the State Board of Examiners, to enter into a multi-state agreement to preserve the ability of this State to collect premium tax on multi-state risks. (NRS 685A.185) Section 13 of this bill repeals this provision. Sections 9 and 10 of this bill make conforming changes.

Existing law sets forth that an employer who is a member of an association of self-insured public or private employers may terminate his or her membership at any time, as long as the member submits to the association a notice of intent to withdraw from the association at least 120 days before the effective date of withdrawal. Existing law further requires this notice of intent to withdraw to include a statement indicating that the member has replaced his or her membership in the association with a certain other type of insurance. (NRS 616B.386) Section 12.5 of this bill amends existing law by requiring that the notice of intent to withdraw be deemed rescinded if the member does not provide to the association before the expiration of the 120-day period proof that the member has replaced his or her membership in the association with a certain other type of insurance.

Senators Ford, Atkinson, Cancela, Cannizzaro, Denis, Farley, Manendo, Parks, Ratti, Segerblom, Spearman and Woodhouse:

Amendment No. 1164.

SUMMARY—~~[Revises provisions relating to criminal procedure.]~~ Provides for compensation of state employees. (BDR ~~[14-113)]~~ S-113)

AN ACT relating to ~~[criminal procedure; establishing requirements concerning certain motions to suppress evidence; providing for the return and inadmissibility as evidence of property which is seized as a result of certain unlawful stops or seizures and subsequent arrests and searches;]~~ public employees; making appropriations from the State General Fund and State Highway Fund for increases in the salaries of certain employees of the State; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

~~[Generally, the exclusionary rule requires courts to exclude evidence that law enforcement obtains in violation of the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution, which bars unreasonable searches and seizures. The United States Supreme Court and the Nevada Supreme Court recognized an exception to the exclusionary rule under the "attenuation doctrine," holding that "when a constitutional violation is far enough removed from the acquisition of the evidence, the violation is sufficiently 'attenuated so as to dissipate the taint' of the illegality and the evidence may be admitted." (Torres v. State, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 2, 341 P.3d 652 (2015), citing Wong Sun~~

~~v. United States, 171 U.S. 471, 491 (1993)) However, the Nevada Supreme Court in Torres held that the discovery of a warrant of arrest does not purge the taint from an illegal seizure and that the attenuation doctrine does not apply under such circumstances. See Torres, 131 Nev. Adv. Op. 2, at 11, 341 P.3d at 658.~~

~~In 2016, the United States Supreme Court extended the attenuation doctrine to admit evidence seized in situations in which a law enforcement officer makes an unconstitutional investigatory stop, discovers during the stop that the person stopped is the subject of an outstanding arrest warrant, arrests the person and seizes evidence in a search conducted incident to the arrest. (Utah v. Strieff, 579 U.S. ___, 136 S.Ct. 2056 (2016)) Pursuant to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in Strieff, the judgment of the Nevada Supreme Court in Torres was vacated and the attenuation doctrine was extended to allow the admissibility of evidence seized under such circumstances. (State v. Torres, 136 S.Ct. 2505 (2016)) Section 1.5 of this bill provides that the attenuation doctrine is not extended to permit the admissibility of evidence seized under such circumstances.~~

~~Section 1 of this bill requires that a motion to suppress evidence: (1) generally be in writing; and (2) if submitted in writing, comply with all applicable provisions of law and court rules governing the procedure for filing such a motion. However, section 1 authorizes a motion to suppress evidence which is made in justice court to be made orally unless a party requests that the motion be submitted in writing.~~]

SUMMARY—Revises provisions relating to ~~[certain agreements between heir finders and apparent heirs.]~~ gaming. (BDR ~~[12-480)]~~ 41-480)

AN ACT relating to ~~[estates;]~~ gaming; revising provisions relating to ~~[certain agreements between heir finders and apparent heirs;]~~ the confidentiality of certain information and data provided by gaming applicants and licensees to state agencies that regulate gaming; clarifying the privileged nature of such information and data; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

(NRS 463.120) Sections 1.4, 1.7 and 2 of this bill clarify the privileged nature of such information and data when it is provided by gaming applicants and licensees to those state agencies in connection with their regulatory, investigative or enforcement authority. However, section 2.5 of this bill also clarifies that the provisions of this bill do not affect any occupation, profession, business or industry other than the gaming industry regulated pursuant to the Nevada Gaming Control Act. June 5, 2017

THE HONORABLE JASON FRIERSON, SPEAKER OF THE NEVADA ASSEMBLY, 401 South Carson Street, Carson City, NV 89701

RE: Assembly Bill 290 of the 79th Legislative Session

DEAR SPEAKER FRIERSON:

I am herewith forwarding to you, for filing within the constitutional time limit and without my approval, Assembly Bill 290 ("AB 290"), which is entitled:

> AN ACT relating to collective bargaining by local governments; revising certain provisions relating to employee leave; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

AB 290 is a rollback of important, comprise legislation from the 2015 Legislative Session, and it is comparable in intent and effect to two other bills that have recently been vetoed. Assembly Bill 271 was vetoed on May 25th, 2017, and Senate Bill 356 was vetoed on June 1, 2017. Like AB 290, both of those vetoed bills also contained similar rollbacks of reasonable 2015 reforms. There is no justification for treating the proposals in AB 290 any differently than those that have already been considered and rejected, and I incorporate by reference the two prior veto statements in AB 271 and SB 356.

For these reasons, I veto Assembly Bill 290 and return it without my signature or approval.

Sincere regards,
BRIAN SANDOVAL
Governor

By Assemblyman Frierson and Senator Ford (Emergency Request of Speaker of the Assembly):

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 12—Amending the Joint Standing Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 79th Session of the Legislature.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That Rule No. 20 of the Joint Standing Rules of the Senate and Assembly as adopted by the 79th Session of the Legislature is hereby amended to read as follows:

Rule No. 20. Maintenance of Working Environment; Procedure for Filing, Investigating and Taking Remedial Action on Complaints.

1. The Legislature hereby declares that it is the policy of the Legislature to prohibit any conduct, whether intentional or unintentional, which results in sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment based upon any other protected category. The Legislature intends to maintain a working environment which is free from sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment. Each Legislator is responsible to conduct himself or herself in a manner which will ensure that others are able to work in such an environment.

2. In accordance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq., for the purposes of this Rule, "sexual harassment" means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(a) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person's employment;

(b) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the person; or

(c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

3. Each Legislator must exercise his or her own good judgment to avoid engaging in conduct that may be perceived by others as sexual harassment. The following noninclusive list provides illustrations of conduct that the Legislature deems to be inappropriate:

(a) Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments;

(b) Visual conduct such as derogatory posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures;

(c) Physical conduct such as unwanted touching, blocking normal movement or interfering with the work directed at a person because of his or her sex; and

(d) Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests to keep a person's job or avoid some other loss, and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors.

4. In addition to other prohibited conduct, a complaint may be brought pursuant to this Rule for engaging in conduct prohibited by Rule No. 37 when the prohibited conduct is based on or because of the gender or other protected category of the person.

5. Retaliation against a person for engaging in protected activity is prohibited. Retaliation occurs when an adverse action is taken against a person which is reasonably likely to deter the person from engaging in the protected activity. Protected activity includes, without limitation:

(a) Opposing conduct that the person reasonably believes constitutes sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment;

(b) Filing a complaint about the conduct; or

(c) Testifying, assisting or participating in any manner in an investigation or other proceeding related to a complaint of sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment.

~~[5.]~~ 6. A Legislator who encounters conduct that the Legislator believes is sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or otherwise inconsistent with this policy may file a written complaint with:

(a) The Speaker of the Assembly;

(b) The Majority Leader of the Senate; ~~[or]~~

(c) The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, if the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate ~~[.]~~ ; or

(d) The reporting system established pursuant to subsection 11.

➥ The complaint must include the details of the incident or incidents, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses.

~~[6.]~~ 7. The Speaker of the Assembly, the Majority Leader of the Senate or the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, as appropriate, shall cause a discreet and impartial investigation to be conducted and may, when deemed necessary and appropriate, assign the complaint to a committee consisting of Legislators of the appropriate House.

~~[7.]~~ 8. If the investigation reveals that sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or other conduct in violation of this policy has occurred, appropriate disciplinary or remedial action, or both, will be taken. The appropriate persons will be informed when any such action is taken. The Legislature will also take any action necessary to deter any future harassment.

~~[8.]~~ 9. The Legislature encourages a Legislator to report any incident of sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or other conduct inconsistent with this policy immediately so that the complaint can be quickly and fairly resolved.

~~[9.]~~ 10. All Legislators are responsible for adhering to the provisions of this policy. The prohibitions against engaging in sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment which are set forth in this Rule also apply to employees, Legislators, lobbyists, vendors, contractors, customers and any other visitors to the Legislature.

~~[10.]~~ 11. The Legislative Counsel Bureau shall establish a reporting system which allows a person to submit a complaint of a violation of this Rule with or without identifying himself or herself. Such a complaint must provide enough details of the incident or incidents alleged, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses to allow an appropriate inquiry to occur.

12. This policy does not create any enforceable legal rights in any person.

And be it further

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the Joint Standing Rules of the Senate and the Assembly as adopted by the 79th Session of the Legislature are hereby amended by adding thereto a new rule, designated Rule No. 20.5, following Rule No. 20, to read as follows:

Rule No. 20.5. Lobbyists to Maintain Appropriate Working Environment; Procedure for Filing, Investigating and Taking Remedial Action on Complaints.

1. A lobbyist shall not engage in any conduct with a Legislator or any other person working in the Legislature which is prohibited by a Legislator under Rule No. 20. Each lobbyist is responsible to conduct himself or herself in a manner which will ensure that others who work in the Legislature are able to work in an environment free from sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment.

2. Each lobbyist must exercise his or her own good judgment to avoid engaging in conduct that may be perceived by others as sexual harassment as described in Rule No. 20.

3. A lobbyist who encounters conduct that he or she believes is sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or otherwise inconsistent with this policy may file a written complaint with:

(a) The Speaker of the Assembly;

(b) The Majority Leader of the Senate;

(c) The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau; or

(d) The reporting system established pursuant to subsection 11 of Rule No. 20.

➥ Such a complaint must include the details of the incident or incidents alleged, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses.

4. If a person encounters conduct by a lobbyist which he or she believes is sexual harassment, or other unlawful harassment, retaliation or otherwise inconsistent with this policy, the person may file a complaint in the manner listed in subsection 3, or may submit a complaint in accordance with the reporting system established pursuant to subsection 11 of Rule No. 20.

5. If a complaint made against a lobbyist pursuant to this Rule is substantiated, appropriate disciplinary action may be brought against the lobbyist which may include, without limitation, having his or her registration as a lobbyist suspended.

6. This policy does not create any enforceable legal rights in any person.

And be it further

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the Joint Standing Rules of the Senate and Assembly as adopted by the 79th Session of the Legislature are hereby amended by adding thereto new rules, designated Rules Nos. 23 to 39, inclusive, following Rule No. 22, to read as follows:

Rule No. 23. Reserved.

Rule No. 24. Reserved.

Rule No. 25. Reserved.

Rule No. 27. Reserved.

Rule No. 28. Reserved.

Rule No. 29. Reserved.

LEGISLATIVE CODE OF ETHICAL STANDARDS

Rule No. 30. Short Title; Applicability; Relation to Other Ethical Standards.

1. Rules Nos. 30 to 39, inclusive, may be cited as the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards.

2. The Legislative Code of Ethical Standards applies to:

(a) All Legislators at all times.

(b) All members of legislative staff when performing or exercising their legislative assignments, tasks, duties, responsibilities or powers.

(c) All lobbyists when they:

(1) Appear in person in the Legislative Building or any other building in which the Legislature or any of its legislative committees hold meetings during a regular or special session or the interim between sessions, including, without limitation, any building in which a meeting is held by teleconference or videoconference; or

3. The Legislative Code of Ethical Standards remains in full force and effect throughout the interim between regular sessions of the Legislature and until new Joint Standing Rules of the Senate and Assembly are adopted as part of the organization of a newly-constituted Legislature at the commencement of a session, unless a conflict exists with a joint rule adopted by the Senate and Assembly for a special session occurring between regular sessions.

4. The Legislative Code of Ethical Standards is intended to supplement all other ethical standards recognized by rules and laws governing ethics and does not limit the application of such other ethical standards but is cumulative thereto, so that the application or attempted application of any one of the ethical standards does not bar the application or attempted application of any other, except in circumstances where Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers.

Rule No. 31. Purpose and Construction.

1. The purpose of the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards is to:

(a) Establish the highest standards of ethical behavior founded upon principles of dignity, decorum, civility and respect;

(b) Prohibit any conduct that creates the appearance of impropriety; and

(c) Prohibit any improper, inappropriate or dishonorable conduct that is unbecoming to the legislative process or is inconsistent with or undermines the people's faith, trust and confidence in the integrity of the legislative process.

2. The Legislative Code of Ethical Standards must be construed:

(a) Liberally to carry out and achieve its purposes; and

(b) Strictly against any person alleging that his or her conduct is not subject to its provisions, so that any doubt or uncertainty as to the application of its provisions must be resolved against such a person and in favor of removing unethical behavior from the legislative process.

Rule No. 32. Definitions.

As used in the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in Rules Nos. 33 to 36, inclusive, have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Rule No. 33. "Legislative Committee" Defined.

1. "Legislative committee" means any legislative committee or commission appointed to conduct or perform legislative business during a regular or special session or the interim between sessions.

2. The term includes, without limitation:

2. The term includes, without limitation, a client that is a government, governmental agency or political subdivision of a government.

Rule No. 35. "Lobbyist" Defined.

1. "Lobbyist" means a person who:

(a) Is required to register as a lobbyist during a regular or special session pursuant to chapter 218H of NRS, regardless of whether the person properly registers or fails to register as a lobbyist as required by that chapter; or

(b) Represents the interests of any lobbying client to a Legislator or a member of legislative staff, regardless of whether such representation occurs during a regular or special session or the interim between sessions and regardless of the location where such representation occurs or the means of communication used to provide such representation.

2. The term does not include a person who is excluded from the term "lobbyist" as defined in NRS 218H.080.

Rule No. 36. "Member of Legislative Staff" Defined.

1. "Member of legislative staff" means any member of a Legislator's staff or any officer, employee, assistant or other person employed with reference to the legislative duties of a Legislator or the Legislative Branch, regardless of whether they are paid or otherwise compensated to serve in their positions.

2. The term includes, without limitation, any officers, employees, attaches, interns or other staff of:

(a) The Legislature or either House;

(b) Any legislative committee;

(c) Any legislative office or caucus;

(d) Any division of the Legislative Counsel Bureau; or

(e) Any other agency, body, office, organization or unit of the Legislative Branch.

Rule No. 37. Ethical Standards; Prohibited Conduct.

1. The people of the State of Nevada have the right to expect and demand that each Legislator, member of legislative staff or lobbyist adheres to the highest standards of ethical behavior founded upon principles of dignity, decorum, civility and respect because such ethical standards are essential to ensure and enhance the people's faith, trust and confidence in the integrity of the legislative process.

2. Each Legislator, member of legislative staff or lobbyist has a solemn and unerring responsibility and duty to do everything in his or her power to:

(a) Behave properly, appropriately and honorably with each other and with members of the public who participate in the legislative process; and

(b) Encourage, promote and secure an atmosphere in which ethical behavior is the highest priority and is practiced unceasingly and without fail.

3. Each Legislator, member of legislative staff or lobbyist shall not engage in or attempt, offer, agree, assist or induce another person to engage in:

(a) Any conduct that creates the appearance of impropriety; or

(b) Any improper, inappropriate or dishonorable conduct that is unbecoming to the legislative process or is inconsistent with or undermines the people's faith, trust and confidence in the integrity of the legislative process.

4. The conduct prohibited by this Rule includes, without limitation, any conduct that:

(a) Is intended to threaten, harass, intimidate or improperly influence another person who is participating in the legislative process.

(b) Creates a hostile work environment for another person who is participating in the legislative process.

(c) Causes harm or serious emotional distress, or the reasonable apprehension thereof, to another person who is participating in the legislative process.

(d) Involves impolite, disrespectful or disorderly behavior that results in unreasonable or harmful interference with another person who is participating in the legislative process.

(e) Involves false or misleading accusations or allegations against another person who is participating in the legislative process.

(f) Involves dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation.

(g) Is intended to assist or induce another person to violate or attempt to violate the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards.

Rule No. 38. Complaints.

1. A person may file a complaint alleging a breach of the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards in accordance with the Standing Rules of each House, except that a person may not file a complaint alleging the same or substantially similar conduct with more than one House.

2. If the complaint alleges an ethical breach by or against a Legislator or the ethical breach otherwise involves a particular Legislator, the complaint must be filed with the Legislator's House, even if the complaint also alleges an ethical breach against a member of legislative staff or a lobbyist.

Rule No. 39. Authority of Senate and Assembly to Adopt Ethical Standards and Prohibit and Sanction Ethical Breaches.

1. The Senate and Assembly hereby find and declare that:

(a) Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management, expressly providing that: "Each House shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, choose its own officers (except the President of the Senate), determine the rules of its proceedings and may punish its members for disorderly conduct, and with the concurrence of two thirds of all the members elected, expel a member." (Heller v. Legislature, 120 Nev. 456 (2004); Commission on Ethics v. Hardy, 125 Nev. 285 (2009); Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure §§ 2-3 and 560-564 (2010) (Mason's Manual))

(b) Section 7 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers to govern, control and regulate any person who is not a member but who is guilty of disrespect to the House by disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence, and each House also has inherent powers, according to the common parliamentary law, to prohibit and sanction all offensive behavior committed against it by any person who is not a member. (Mason's Manual §§ 805-806; Luther S. Cushing, Elements of the Law & Practice of Legislative Assemblies §§ 690-695 (1856) (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies))

(c) In addition to its other powers, each House possesses certain inherent powers of institutional self-protection and self-preservation to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management. (In re Chapman, 166 U.S. 661, 668 (1897); Mason's Manual § 2; Cushing's Legislative Assemblies § 533 (1856))

(d) The inherent powers of each House are considered "so essential to the authority of a legislative assembly, that it cannot well exist without them; and they are consequently entitled to be regarded as belonging to every such assembly as a necessary incident." (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies § 533)

(e) The inherent powers of each House authorize it to take all necessary and proper institutional actions that are "recognized by the common parliamentary law." (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies § 684)

(f) Thus, it is well established that each House is "vested with all the powers and privileges which are necessary and incidental to a free and unobstructed exercise of its appropriate functions. These powers and privileges are derived not from the Constitution; on the contrary, they arise from the very creation of a legislative body, and are founded upon the principle of self-preservation." (Ex parte McCarthy, 29 Cal. 395, 403 (1866))

2. The Senate and Assembly hereby exercise their constitutional and inherent powers and privileges and adopt the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards in the Joint Standing Rules to:

(a) Establish ethical standards to regulate the behavior and conduct of persons who participate in the legislative process; and

(b) Prohibit and sanction ethical breaches.

Assemblywoman Benitez-Thompson moved the adoption of the resolution.

Resolution adopted and ordered transmitted to the Senate.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Mr. Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

I am going to take a moment of personal liberty to thank everyone for your hard work these last 120 days. When I say everyone, I mean not only legislators but also our wonderful staff who stay here, not only with us, but hours after us to get their work done so that we can come back the next day to continue our work.

I also want to acknowledge our spouses that tolerate our absence, both physically and mentally, while we are here to do the work of the state of Nevada. I thank you all for your patience and understanding. I believe that we have had a historic session in a lot of ways. I think we have been able to get past barriers that have halted work in other states. We were able to work together to get to a point where we could go home with a good pile of work that all of us can be proud of and all of us can have something to go home and talk about.

I thank you all for your patience, for your support, and for your work and advocacy, because at the end of the day, we are trying to pass measures that make Nevada better. So for all of us that are working for hard-working Nevada families, we know that this is what we are charged to do. I am proud of you all. Thank you.

II. SESSIONS AND MEETINGS

Rule No. 10. Time of Meeting.

The Assembly shall meet each day at 11:30 a.m., unless the Assembly adjourns to some other hour.

[Statutes of Nevada 1975, 1857; A 2013, 3899]

Rule No. 11. Open Meetings.

All meetings of the Assembly and its committees must be open to the public.

[Statutes of Nevada 1975, 1907; A 1999, 3835; 2001, 3296]

Rule No. 12. Convening of the Assembly between Legislative Sessions.

1. The Assembly may be convened at any time between sessions of the Legislature upon a petition signed by a majority of the members elected to the Assembly to consider and take action on any matter that is solely and exclusively within the constitutional or inherent powers of the Assembly, including, without limitation, any matter that may be considered and acted on by the Assembly pursuant to its plenary and exclusive constitutional powers under Article 4, Section 6 of the Nevada Constitution or pursuant to its inherent powers of institutional self-protection and self-preservation to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management.

2. A petition convening the Assembly pursuant to this Rule must specify the matter that will be considered or acted on by the Assembly, indicate a date for the Assembly to convene and be transmitted to the Chief Clerk of the Assembly. Upon receipt of one or more substantially similar petitions signed, in the aggregate, by a majority of the members elected to the Assembly, the Chief Clerk shall notify all members of the Assembly that the Assembly will be convened pursuant to this Rule and the date on which the Assembly will be convened.

3. The Assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The Nevada Constitution invests each House of the Legislature with certain plenary and exclusive constitutional powers which may be exercised only by that House and which cannot be usurped, infringed or impaired by the other House or by any other branch of Nevada's State Government. (Heller v. Legislature, 120 Nev. 456 (2004); Commission on Ethics v. Hardy, 125 Nev. 285 (2009); Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure §§ 2-3 & 560-564 (2010) (Mason's Manual))

(b) Article 4, Section 6 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management, expressly providing that: "Each House shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, choose its own officers (except the President of the Senate), determine the rules of its proceedings and may punish its members for disorderly conduct, and with the concurrence of two thirds of all the members elected, expel a member."

(c) In addition to its plenary and exclusive constitutional powers, each House possesses certain inherent powers of institutional self-protection and self-preservation to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management. (In re Chapman, 166 U.S. 661, 668 (1897); Mason's Manual § 2; Luther S. Cushing, Elements of the Law & Practice of Legislative Assemblies § 533 (1856) (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies))

(d) The inherent powers of each House are considered "so essential to the authority of a legislative assembly, that it cannot well exist without them; and they are consequently entitled to be regarded as belonging to every such assembly as a necessary incident." (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies § 533)

(e) The inherent powers of each House authorize it to take all necessary and proper institutional actions that are "recognized by the common parliamentary law." (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies § 684)

(f) Thus, it is well established that each House is "vested with all the powers and privileges which are necessary and incidental to a free and unobstructed exercise of its appropriate functions. These powers and privileges are derived not from the Constitution; on the contrary, they arise from the very creation of a legislative body, and are founded upon the principle of self-preservation." (Ex parte McCarthy, 29 Cal. 395, 403 (1866))

If the point of order be sustained by the presiding officer, the member shall not be allowed to proceed; but if it be not sustained, then the member shall be permitted to go on. Every such decision from the presiding officer shall be subject to an appeal to the House; but no discussion of the question of order shall be allowed unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the presiding officer.

1. The Select Committee on Ethics consists of:

(a) Two members of the Assembly appointed by the Speaker from the majority political party;

(b) One member of the Assembly appointed by the Minority Leader from the minority political party; and

(c) Three qualified electors of the State, two of whom are appointed by the Speaker and one who is appointed by the Minority Leader, and none of whom is a present member of the Legislature or employed by the State of Nevada.

2. The Speaker shall appoint the Chair and Vice Chair of the Committee. The Vice Chair shall serve as the acting Chair if the Chair is unable to serve for any reason during the consideration of a specific question.

3. The Speaker shall appoint an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (a) of subsection 1 and an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 1. The Minority Leader shall appoint an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection 1 and an alternate member with the qualifications set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 1. If a member of the Committee is unable to serve for any reason during the consideration of a specific question, the alternate appointed with the qualifications from the same paragraph in subsection 1 shall serve as a member of the Committee during the consideration of the specific question.

4. A member of the Committee is disqualified to serve during the consideration of a specific question if:

(a) The member is the requester of advice concerning the question of ethics or conflict of interest, or the member is the subject of the complaint concerning the specific question; or

(b) A reasonable person in the member's situation could not exercise independent judgment on the matter in question.

5. The members of the Committee shall perform any duty required in the period between the time of their appointment after the general election and the organization of the next succeeding regular session, or until the Speaker or the Speaker Designate or the Minority Leader or Minority Leader Designate appoint new members to the Committee, whichever occurs first.

6. The tenure of the members of the Committee shall extend during the interim between regular sessions of the Legislature.

7. The Committee:

(a) May hear requests brought by members of the Assembly for advice on specific questions of potential breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest; and

(b) Shall hear complaints brought by members of the Assembly and others on specific questions of alleged breaches of ethics and conflicts of interest.

8. All proceedings held to consider the character, alleged misconduct, professional competence or physical or mental health of any person by the Committee on matters of ethics or conflicts of interest are confidential unless a Legislator:

(a) Against whom a complaint is brought requests a public hearing;

(b) Discloses the content of an opinion of the Committee at any time after his or her hearing; or

(c) Discloses the content of an advisory opinion issued to him or her by the Committee.

9. A complaint which alleges a breach of ethics or a conflict of interest must be:

(a) Made in writing on a form provided by the Chief Clerk of the Assembly;

(b) Signed and verified under penalty of perjury by the person making the allegation; and

(c) Filed with the Chair of the Committee or, if the Chair is the subject of the complaint, with the Vice Chair. The Chair or Vice Chair, as appropriate, shall send a copy of the complaint, within 24 hours after receiving it, to the Legislator against whom the complaint is brought.

10. In determining whether a Legislator has a conflict of interest, the Legislator should consider whether the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in his or her situation upon the matter in question would be materially affected by the Legislator's:

(a) Acceptance of a gift or loan;

(b) Private economic interest; or

(c) Commitment to a member of his or her household or immediate family.

➥ In interpreting and applying the provisions of this subsection, it must be presumed that the independence of judgment of a reasonable person in the Legislator's situation would not be materially affected by the Legislator's private economic interest or the Legislator's commitment to a member of his or her household or immediate family where the resulting benefit or detriment accruing to the Legislator, or if the Legislator has a commitment to a member of his or her household or immediate family, accruing to those other persons, is not greater than that accruing to any other member of the general business, profession, occupation or group that is affected by the matter.

11. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 12, if a Legislator knows he or she has a conflict of interest pursuant to subsection 10, the Legislator shall make a general disclosure of the conflict of interest on the record in a meeting of a committee or on the floor of the Assembly, as applicable. Such a disclosure must be entered:

(a) If the Legislator makes the disclosure in a meeting of a committee, in the minutes for that meeting.

(b) If the Legislator makes the disclosure on the floor of the Assembly, in the Journal.

12. If, on one or more prior occasions during the current session of the Legislature, a Legislator has made a general disclosure of a conflict of interest on the record in a meeting of a committee or on the floor of the Assembly, the Legislator is not required to make that general disclosure at length again regarding the same conflict of interest if, when the matter in question arises on subsequent occasions, the Legislator makes a reference on the record to the previous disclosure.

13. In determining whether to abstain from voting upon, advocating or opposing a matter concerning which a Legislator has a conflict of interest pursuant to subsection 10, the Legislator should consider whether:

(a) The conflict impedes his or her independence of judgment; and

(b) His or her interest is greater than the interests of an entire class of persons similarly situated.

14. The provisions of this Rule do not under any circumstances and regardless of any conflict of interest:

(a) Prohibit a Legislator from requesting or introducing a legislative measure; or

(b) Require a Legislator to take any particular action before or while requesting or introducing a legislative measure.

15. If a Legislator who is a member of a committee declares on the record when a vote is to be taken by the committee that he or she will abstain from voting because of the requirements of this Rule, the necessary quorum to act upon and the number of votes necessary to act upon the matter is reduced as though the Legislator abstaining were not a member of the committee.

16. The standards and procedures set forth in this Rule which govern whether and to what extent a member of the Assembly has a conflict of interest, should disclose a conflict of interest or should abstain from voting upon, advocating or opposing a matter concerning which the member has a conflict of interest pursuant to subsection 10:

(a) Are exclusive and are the only standards and procedures that apply to members of the Assembly with regard to such matters; and

(b) Supersede and preempt all other standards and procedures with regard to such matters.

17. For purposes of this Rule, "immediate family" means a person who is related to the Legislator by blood, adoption or marriage within the first degree of consanguinity or affinity.

The next rule is 30.

2. The presiding officer shall call for yeas and nays by a division or by a roll call, either electronic or oral.

3. When taking the yeas and nays on any question, the electronic roll call system may be used, and when so used shall have the force and effect of any roll call under these rules.

Rule No. 115. Reconsideration of Vote on Bill.

1. A motion to reconsider a final vote on a bill or resolution shall be in order only on the day on which the final vote is taken, and the vote on such a motion to reconsider must be taken on the same day. The motion to reconsider can be made only by a member who voted with the prevailing side.

2. A motion to reconsider a vote on an amendment to a pending question must be made at once and can be made only by a member who voted with the prevailing side.

3. A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, including a motion to adjourn, if the motion is to reconsider a final vote on a bill or resolution. If the motion to reconsider is for any other action, the motion has precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn or to fix the time to adjourn; and when the Assembly adjourns while a motion to reconsider is pending, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue to the next day of sitting.

2. When the message is received, or if made a special order, when the special order is called, the said message or statement must be read together with the bill or bills so disapproved or vetoed. The message and bill must be read by the Chief Clerk without interruption, consecutively, one following the other, and not upon separate occasions. Rule No. 1. Procedure Concerning.

1. In every case of an amendment of a bill, or joint or concurrent resolution, agreed to in one House, dissented from in the other, and not receded from by the one making the amendment, each House may appoint a committee to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the other; and, if appointed, the committee shall meet publicly at a convenient hour to be agreed upon by their respective chairs and announced publicly, and shall confer upon the differences between the two Houses as indicated by the amendments made in one and rejected in the other and report as early as convenient the result of their conference to their respective Houses.

2. The report shall be made available to all members of both Houses. The whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be considered by the committee, and it may recommend recession by either House, new amendments, a new bill or resolution, or other changes as it sees fit. A new bill or resolution so reported shall be treated as amendments unless the bill or resolution is composed entirely of original matter, in which case it shall receive the treatment required in the respective Houses for original bills, or resolutions, as the case may be. A conference committee shall not recommend any action which would cause the creation of more than one reprint or more than one bill or resolution.

3. The report of a conference committee may be adopted by acclamation. The report is not subject to amendment.

4. There shall be but one conference committee on any bill or resolution. A majority of the members of a conference committee from each House must be members who voted for the passage of the bill or resolution.

4. Each of the redistricting committees shall fully utilize available videoconferencing capabilities and shall, either jointly or separately, hold at least one hearing in the southern portion of the State and at least one hearing in a rural portion of the State to allow residents throughout the State an opportunity to participate in the deliberations relating to the reapportionment and redistricting activities.

5. The Legislative Counsel Bureau shall make available to the public copies of the validated 2010 census database for the cost of reproducing the database.

1. The Legislature hereby declares that it is the policy of the Legislature to prohibit any conduct, whether intentional or unintentional, which results in sexual harassment or other unlawful harassment based upon any other protected category. The Legislature intends to maintain a working environment which is free from sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment. Each Legislator is responsible to conduct himself or herself in a manner which will ensure that others are able to work in such an environment.

2. In accordance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e et seq., for the purposes of this Rule, "sexual harassment" means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(b) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the person; or

(c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

3. Each Legislator must exercise his or her own good judgment to avoid engaging in conduct that may be perceived by others as sexual harassment. The following noninclusive list provides illustrations of conduct that the Legislature deems to be inappropriate:

8. If the investigation reveals that sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or other conduct in violation of this policy has occurred, appropriate disciplinary or remedial action, or both, will be taken. The appropriate persons will be informed when any such action is taken. The Legislature will also take any action necessary to deter any future harassment.

9. The Legislature encourages a Legislator to report any incident of sexual harassment, other unlawful harassment, retaliation or other conduct inconsistent with this policy immediately so that the complaint can be quickly and fairly resolved.

10. All Legislators are responsible for adhering to the provisions of this policy. The prohibitions against engaging in sexual harassment and other unlawful harassment which are set forth in this Rule also apply to employees, Legislators, lobbyists, vendors, contractors, customers and any other visitors to the Legislature.

11. The Legislative Counsel Bureau shall establish a reporting system which allows a person to submit a complaint of a violation of this Rule with or without identifying himself or herself. Such a complaint must provide enough details of the incident or incidents alleged, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses to allow an appropriate inquiry to occur.

Rule No. 39. Authority of Senate and Assembly to Adopt Ethical Standards and Prohibit and Sanction Ethical Breaches.

1. The Senate and Assembly hereby find and declare that:

(a) Section 6 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management, expressly providing that: "Each House shall judge of the qualifications, elections and returns of its own members, choose its own officers (except the President of the Senate), determine the rules of its proceedings and may punish its members for disorderly conduct, and with the concurrence of two thirds of all the members elected, expel a member." (Heller v. Legislature, 120 Nev. 456 (2004); Commission on Ethics v. Hardy, 125 Nev. 285 (2009); Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure §§ 2-3 and 560-564 (2010) (Mason's Manual))

(b) Section 7 of Article 4 of the Nevada Constitution invests each House with plenary and exclusive constitutional powers to govern, control and regulate any person who is not a member but who is guilty of disrespect to the House by disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence, and each House also has inherent powers, according to the common parliamentary law, to prohibit and sanction all offensive behavior committed against it by any person who is not a member. (Mason's Manual §§ 805-806; Luther S. Cushing, Elements of the Law & Practice of Legislative Assemblies §§ 690-695 (1856) (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies))

(c) In addition to its other powers, each House possesses certain inherent powers of institutional self-protection and self-preservation to govern, control and regulate its membership and its internal organization, affairs and management. (In re Chapman, 166 U.S. 661, 668 (1897); Mason's Manual § 2; Cushing's Legislative Assemblies § 533 (1856))

(d) The inherent powers of each House are considered "so essential to the authority of a legislative assembly, that it cannot well exist without them; and they are consequently entitled to be regarded as belonging to every such assembly as a necessary incident." (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies § 533)

(e) The inherent powers of each House authorize it to take all necessary and proper institutional actions that are "recognized by the common parliamentary law." (Cushing's Legislative Assemblies § 684)

(f) Thus, it is well established that each House is "vested with all the powers and privileges which are necessary and incidental to a free and unobstructed exercise of its appropriate functions. These powers and privileges are derived not from the Constitution; on the contrary, they arise from the very creation of a legislative body, and are founded upon the principle of self-preservation." (Ex parte McCarthy, 29 Cal. 395, 403 (1866))

2. The Senate and Assembly hereby exercise their constitutional and inherent powers and privileges and adopt the Legislative Code of Ethical Standards in the Joint Standing Rules to:
