

ADOPTED REGULATION OF THE PEACE OFFICERS' STANDARDS AND TRAINING COMMITTEE OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLES AND PUBLIC SAFETY

LCB File No. R173-97

Effective January 30, 1998

EXPLANATION - Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets [ ] is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §1, NRS 481.053.

Section 1. NAC 481.090 is hereby amended to read as follows:

481.090 1. An agency may apply for certification above the level of basic training for a course by submitting to the committee:

(a) A concise synopsis of the course including , without limitation, the title of the course, the intended goals of the course, and specific objectives for the students in the course;

(b) A detailed lesson plan including , without limitation, a chronological list of the major subject headings;

(c) A list of the intended instructors, including , without limitation, a brief resume of experience in the subject area and experience in instructing for each instructor;

(d) The total amount of hours of instruction; [and]

(e) A description of the written or practical examinations on the material covered by the course which is to be graded on a pass or fail basis and which measures accomplishment of the objectives by the students, including , without limitation, an examination at the beginning and end of the course [.] ; and

(f) A bibliography of all resource materials used to prepare the course.

2. The committee will award certification of a course to an agency which did not comply with the provisions of subsection 1 for a course which has been certified by another state or other comparable agency if the submitting agency presents the supporting documents concerning the subject matter and instructors.

3. A request to certify a course must be approved and signed by the administrator [.] of the agency or his designee. If the course offers training in legal issues and subjects relating to legal liability, the legal adviser of the agency must approve the course and sign the request for certification.

4. [The certification of a course expires 24 months from the date of issuance.

5.] The committee will review courses certified pursuant to this section periodically for compliance with the provisions of this section. The committee will notify an agency that provides such a course of any noncompliance.

5. The committee will revoke the certification of a course if the agency that provides the course:

(a) Requests revocation of the certification of the course;

(b) Has not provided the course during any period of 24 consecutive months; or

(c) Does not comply with the provisions of this section.

6. A training course offered by a private vendor must be sponsored by a law enforcement agency, accredited university or college.

[6.] 7. An agency whose course has been certified shall, within 15 working days after the completion of the course and on a form that has been approved by the committee, submit [a] to the committee:

(a) A roster of the peace officers who attended the course [and each] ;

(b) Each officer's results on the [examination to the committee as soon as possible after the completion of the course. The list must also include each officer's full name, social security number, employing agency, and date of hire.] examination; and

(c) An evaluation of the course by each peace officer who attended the course.

[7.] 8. An agency whose course is currently accredited by an organization, such as the National Accreditation Committee or the American Correctional Association , which:

(a) Is nationally recognized; and

(b) Gives accreditation to courses for [police] peace officers, is not required to apply to the committee for accreditation of the course. Such an agency shall, within 15 working days after the completion of a course and on a form that has been approved by the committee, submit to the committee a roster of the peace officers who attended the course and each officer's results on the examination.