6. The basic certificate of an officer whose employment is terminated for any reason will be placed on inactive status. If such a person is again employed as a full-time peace officer, the employing agency shall request that the person's basic certificate be returned to active status. If the certification of such a person is on inactive status for more than 2 consecutive years, the person must renew his basic certificate by successfully completing the state certification examination, an 80-hour course of training that is approved by the executive director and the state physical fitness examination.

Sec. 5. NAC 289.300 is hereby amended to read as follows:

289.300 1. The executive director shall certify courses of basic training presented by agencies or approved by the commission which meet the following requirements:

(a) The length of the course must meet the minimum standards for training established by the commission.

(b) Each course submitted to the executive director for certification must have a curriculum that contains the following elements:

(1) Each topic of instruction must have specifically defined objectives for the performance of the students which are based upon known work requirements;

(2) Each topic of instruction must have a detailed lesson plan that specifically describes what the student is taught; and

(3) Each topic of instruction must be assigned a specific amount of time.

(c) Each course must employ performance-oriented instructional methods that provide opportunities for each student to demonstrate achievement of the objectives.

(d) For each course there must be a system of written or practical examinations, or both, that will measure on a pass or fail basis the success of each student in achieving the objectives, including an examination at the beginning and end of each course.

(e) Each agency submitting a course for certification shall provide an instructional facility that meets the following requirements:

(1) A classroom with adequate heating, cooling, ventilation, lighting and space and an environment conducive to learning;

- (2) Comfortable chairs with tables or arms for writing;
- (3) Audiovisual equipment necessary to support the course;
- (4) Instructional films and videotapes necessary to support the course; and
- (5) A firing range adequate to train officers safely in the use of firearms.

(f) ~~Each course must include the state physical fitness examination. To pass the examination,~~

~~a student must:~~

~~—(1) Complete a vertical jump of not less than 14 inches;~~

~~—(2) Complete not less than 15 sit-ups in 1 minute;~~

~~—(3) Complete not less than 18 push-ups;~~

~~—(4) Run 300 meters in not more than 77 seconds; and~~

~~—(5) Walk or run 1.5 miles in not more than 17 minutes and 17 seconds.~~

~~(g)~~ If an agency authorizes the use of the carotid restraint or the lateral vascular neck restraint, the course must include at least 8 hours of instruction in that restraint and include presentations on the use of force, the rules of the agency relating to safety, medical implications, approved techniques, and instruction on care and control measures. The course provided by such an agency must also include a written test of at least 10 questions requiring a minimum score of 70 percent and a proficiency test requiring a minimum score of 85 percent. The agency shall maintain records of each student's performance in the course.

2. Certification of courses will be made and maintained on the basis of on-site inspections conducted by the executive director or his staff. Inspections will be conducted at the discretion of the executive director. The agency shall notify the executive director of any proposed changes regarding courses, instructors and facilities.

3. The executive director shall deny, suspend or revoke the certification of any course for failure of the agency to maintain the minimum curriculum, qualified instructors or requirements for the facility established by the commission. The executive director shall automatically suspend the certification of a course that ceases operation for 24 consecutive months.

4. An agency requesting certification of a course shall make the request in writing to the executive director at least 60 days before the course is scheduled to begin. The training course must be reviewed and the request signed by the administrator of the agency and the legal adviser. The executive director shall acknowledge receipt of the request within 5 working days. The executive director shall respond with a detailed review of the course within 30 days and rule on the request within 45 days after his receipt of the request.

Sec. 6. NAC 289.080 is hereby repealed.
