

LCB File No. R166-06

PROPOSED REGULATION OF THE PRIVATE INVESTIGATOR'S LICENSING BOARD

NAC 648.360 Approved instruments. (NRS 648.030, 648.185) The following types of polygraphic instruments ~~[both analog and computerized models]~~, when adjusted properly, are approved for use in conducting polygraphic examinations:

1. The Keeler Polygraph;
2. The Associated Research Polygraph
3. The "Pentograph", "Statesman", "Diplomat", "Ambassador", and "Factfinder" models of polygraphic instruments ~~[to include newer computerized models]~~ produced by the Lafayette Instrument Company; and
4. The "Deceptograph", "Interrograph", "Executive", "Emotional Stress Monitor", "Polyscribe", "Executive Polycrife", and "Ultrascribe" models of polygraph instruments ~~[to include newer computerized models]~~ produced by the Stoelting Company; and
5. The Axciton Systems Inc.; and
6. Limestone Technologies.

Note: Lafayette and Stoelting currently manufacture both analog and newer computerized polygraph instruments. Axciton Systems and Limestone Technologies are the best known manufacturers of newer, computerized polygraph instruments. Keeler and Associated Research are recognized historical manufacturers of analog polygraph instruments which may or may not be currently producing instruments. All of the above listed polygraph instruments comply with the requirement set out in NRS 648.185 Each instrument used to conduct a polygraph examination must be of a type...which (b) Visually, permanently and simultaneously record on a moving graph, physiological effects, including cardiovascular activity, respiratory activity and changes in skin resistance...