The following information is provided pursuant to the requirements of NRS 233B.0603:

1. The need for and the purpose of the proposed regulation or amendment.

On December 12, 2006 the Governor signed an emergency regulation regarding Nevada's new constitutional minimum wage. The emergency regulations will expire by statute on April 11, 2007. These temporary regulations are needed to replace the emergency regulations.

2. Either the terms or the substance of the regulations to be adopted, amended, or repealed, or a description of the subjects and issues involved.

See the attached proposed regulations.

3. The estimated economic effect of the regulation on the businesses which it is to regulate and on the public.

- a. Adverse Effects: No adverse effects are contemplated from the regulations per se, however effects from the constitutional amendment itself are significant but cannot be quantified at this time.
- b. Beneficial Effects: As a result of the regulations there should be less confusion among employers and employees resulting from ambiguities in the text of the amendment.
- c. Immediate effects: See 3b.
- d. Long Term effects: See 3b.

4. The estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the proposed regulation.

The regulations per se should not result in any increased costs to the agency. However, the amendment itself could result in a substantial increase in the agencies enforcement work-load primarily due to related overtime enforcement issues.

5. A description of and citation to any regulations of other state or local governmental agencies which the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates and a statement explaining why the duplication or overlapping is necessary. If the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates a federal regulation, the notice must include the name of the regulating federal agency.

The proposed regulations would not duplicate the regulations of any other state or local governmental agency. The state has concurrent jurisdiction with the US Department of Labor over wages and hours issues.

6. If the regulation is required pursuant to federal law, a citation and description of the federal law.

The proposed regulations are not required pursuant to federal law.

7. If the regulation includes provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation that regulates the same activity, a summary of such provisions.

Nevada's constitutional minimum wage provisions are more stringent than federal law and these regulations reflect those higher standards. Among the provisions that are more stringent than the federal requirements are the minimum wage rates, annual adjustments, exemptions, and overtime.

8. Whether the proposed regulation establishes a new fee or increases an existing fee.

The proposed regulation does not establish a new fee nor increases an existing fee.

Persons wishing to comment upon the proposed action of Office of the Labor Commissioner may appear at the scheduled hearing or may address their comments, data, views, or arguments, in written form, to Michael Tanchek, Nevada Labor Commissioner, 675 Fairview Drive, Suite 226, Carson City, Nevada 89701. Written submissions must be received by the Labor Commissioner on or before Friday, March 2, 2007. If no person who is directly affected by the proposed action appears to request time to make an oral presentation, the Labor Commissioner may proceed immediately to act upon any written submissions.

A copy of this notice and the regulation to be adopted will be on file at the State Library, 100 Stewart Street, Carson City, Nevada, for inspection by members of the public during business hours. Additional copies of the notice and the regulation to be adopted will be available for inspection and copying by members of the public during business hours at the offices of the Labor Commissioner, located at 555 E. Washington Avenue, Suite 4100, Las Vegas, Nevada and 675 Fairview Drive, Suite 226, Carson City, Nevada, respectively, and at the main public library in all counties in which an office of the agency is not maintained. This information is also available on the Labor Commissioner's website located at www.laborcommissioner.com. This notice and the text of the proposed regulation are also available in the State of Nevada Register of Administrative Regulations, which is prepared and published monthly by the Legislative Counsel Bureau pursuant to NRS 233B.0653, and on the Internet at <http://www.leg.state.nv.us>. Copies of this notice and the proposed regulation will also be mailed to members of the public upon request. A reasonable fee may be charged for copies if it is deemed necessary.

Upon adoption of any regulation, the agency, if requested to do so by an interested person, either before adoption or within 30 days thereafter, will issue a concise statement of the principal reasons for and against its adoption and incorporate therein its reason for overruling the consideration urged against its adoption.
