Section 2: NAC 213.520 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 213.520 Considerations regarding granting of parole: *Risk to re-offend and [P]probability of successful completion. (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140) In determining whether to grant parole to a convicted person, the Board may consider the probability that he will complete parole successfully. ~~[In assessing that probability, the Board may consider, without limitation, the following standards:].~~ The Board shall consider the risk of the prisoner to commit a new felony if released on parole using an objective and validated risk assessment created in accordance with NRS 213.10885. The factors that may be used include:

- ~~1. The number of prior convictions sustained by the person, both as a juvenile and as an adult;~~
- ~~— 2. The number of prior criminal charges brought against the person, including any charge dismissed as the result of a plea negotiation;~~
- ~~— 3. The number of occasions, including the present offense, on which the person has been incarcerated;~~
- ~~— 4. Any previous failure by the person to complete probation or parole;~~
- ~~— 5. Whether the person has a history of drug or alcohol abuse;~~

- ~~— 6. Whether the person was a full-time student, was receiving disability benefits from the Social Security Administration, was receiving workers’ compensation or was fully employed, for at least 6 months during the year preceding the present offense;~~
- ~~— 7. The extent of injury or loss suffered by the victim of the present offense;~~
- ~~— 8. Whether a weapon was used, threatened to be used, displayed or possessed in the commission of the present offense;~~
- ~~— 9. The number of times disciplinary action was taken against the person while incarcerated and the nature and circumstances of each infraction for which disciplinary action was taken;~~
- ~~— 10. The nature and duration of any educational, occupational or other programming successfully completed by the person while incarcerated;~~
- ~~— 11. The length of time the person has been incarcerated for the present offense;~~
- ~~— 12. Whether the present offense was a sexual offense involving the use or threatened use of force or violence; and~~
- ~~— 13. Any other factors that indicate whether the person poses a threat to society or to himself.]~~
  - 1. The age at which the prisoner was first arrested and the prisoners current age;*
  - 2. Whether the prisoner has ever been revoked off parole or probation;*

1. The nature and severity of the current offense;
2. Any prior convictions sustained by the person, both as a juvenile and as an adult, and the nature and severity of the prior convictions;
3. Any prior criminal charges brought against the person, including any charge dismissed as the result of a plea negotiation;
4. Whether the person has previously been incarcerated;
5. Whether the prisoner has a history of repeatedly failing to complete probation or parole;
6. Whether the person committed a crime while incarcerated, on bail, on escape status, during parole or probation supervision, or the person eluded or attempted to elude capture during or following the commission of a crime;
7. The extent of injury or loss suffered by the victim of the present offense;
8. Whether the person has engaged in repetitive criminal conduct;
9. Whether the person has engaged in disruptive institutional behavior and whether the person has recently been housed in disciplinary segregation;
10. Whether the person has participated in rehabilitative or work programs geared toward addressing behaviors that lead to incarceration;
11. Whether the nature of the criminal record of the person is increasingly more serious;
12. Whether the person has a history of mental health treatment/medication noncompliance and/or lack of insight about their mental illness that may contribute to criminal behavior;
13. Whether the crime was targeted against a child or person at greater vulnerability because of age/disability;
14. Whether the person has a history of using/possessing a weapon during the commission of a crime;
15. Any other factors that indicate whether the person may pose a threat to society or himself;
16. Whether the person has no prior or minimal prior criminal history;
17. Whether the person has been infraction free for the most recent two years while in custody and not due to having been housed in disciplinary segregation;
18. Whether the person has had a positive adjustment to incarceration, or to halfway house or work release program;

19. Whether the person had lesser involvement in the offense compared to any co-offenders;
20. Whether the person has successfully completed prior community based parole or probation supervision other than summary or court-based supervision;
21. Whether the person has community or family support and/or stable release plans;
22. Whether the release would mitigate risk because of a hold placed by another jurisdiction;
23. Whether the crime was situational without evidence of intent to harm based on information derived from pre-sentence records;
24. Whether the case history demonstrates remorse;
25. When applicable, whether the person consistently managed their mental illness as recommended by professionals, if the mental illness may be a contributing factor to criminal behavior; and
26. Any other factor that may indicate the person or society would benefit or otherwise would not be harmed if the person were released on parole.

Chapter 213 of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as section 4 of this regulation:

Section 4: Considerations regarding granting of parole: Recommendation for release. (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140) Giving consideration to the severity of the crime for which a person has been convicted, and the risk to re-offend based on a validated risk instrument which pertains to the recidivism of released prisoners, the Board shall consider releasing an inmate on parole based on the following table:

Offense Severity	Risk Level
	High	Moderate	Low
Highest	Deny Parole	Consider Factors	Consider Factors
High	Deny Parole	Consider Factors	Parole at 1st or 2nd Hearing
Moderate	Deny Parole	Parole at 1st or 2nd Hearing	Parole at initial parole eligibility
Low Moderate	Consider Factors	Parole at 1st or 2nd Hearing	Parole at initial parole eligibility
Low	Consider Factors	Parole at initial parole eligibility	Parole at initial parole eligibility

1. The Board shall consider those factors NAC 213.520 and NAC 213.530 when considering the discretionary release of all eligible prisoners.
2. When the Risk/Severity recommendation indicates ‘Consider Factors,’ the Board shall consider the specific factors of the case to assist it in arriving at a decision to grant or deny parole.
3. The Board is not bound by the Risk/Severity recommendation. When the Board deviates from the Risk/Severity recommendation, it shall indicate its reasons for deviation on the Order granting or denying parole.
4. If the person is required to be certified pursuant to NRS 213.1214, the risk level shall be the higher of the validated statistical risk assessment, or the risk to re-offend as a sex offender pursuant to NRS 213.1214.

5. For the purpose of determining the number of hearings a prisoner has had when applying the guideline, a hearing is defined as a decision by the Board to grant or deny parole on the same sentence or group of concurrent sentences being considered.

Section 5: NAC 213.540 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 213.540 Considerations regarding granting of parole: Requests for reconsideration and appeals for re-hearing. (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140)

~~1. Any convicted person who believes that the Board has:~~

~~—(a) Miscalculated the severity of the crime for which he was convicted; or~~

~~—(b) Misapplied any factor set forth in NAC 213.520;~~

~~—may submit a request for recomputation to the Board.]~~

1. The Board will not consider a request for reconsideration based on an appeal of the crime severity level unless the Department of Corrections determines that the crime severity level was misapplied, and advises the Board of such.
2. The risk level shall be based on the static and dynamic factors applicable at the time of the parole hearing.
3. A prisoner who believes that the Board has miscalculated his risk level may submit a request for recomputation to the Board.
4. A change in status following the hearing that may impact the risk factors shall not be the basis for a recomputation.
5. If a Parole Hearing Examiner or the Executive Secretary to the Board determines that a factor was misapplied and the correction results in a change to the Risk/Severity recommendation, the prisoner shall be granted a re-hearing as soon as practicable thereafter.
6. An appeal for the reconsideration of an unfavorable decision, not related to parole standards, will not be considered unless accompanied by a request from the caseworker who supervises the prisoner or a supervisor in the caseworker's chain of command. The request made by the representative of the Department of Corrections must include an explanation detailing the reason(s) why the Board should reconsider the parole denial.
7. A request submitted pursuant to this section must be sent to the Board within ~~30~~ 45 days after its hearing of the matter. The request must be sent to: State Board of Parole Commissioners, ~~1445~~ 1677 Old Hot Springs Road, Suite ~~108-B~~ A, Carson City, Nevada ~~89711~~ 89706.

Section 6: NAC 213.560 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 213.560 Use of and deviation from standards. (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140, 213.150)

1. The standards contained in Section 1 through Section 11, inclusive, may be considered by the Board in determining whether to grant, deny, continue or revoke parole, but nothing contained in those sections shall be construed to restrict the authority of the Board to:

(a) Deny or revoke parole in any case in which application of the standards indicates that parole should be granted or continued; or

(b) Grant or continue parole in any case in which application of the standards indicates that parole should be denied or revoked,

↳ if the decision of the Board is otherwise authorized by the provisions of chapter 213 of NRS.

2. The Board may deviate from the standards contained in Section 1 through Section 11, inclusive, based upon ~~[:] any of the factors or combination thereof identified in NAC 213.530, or any other circumstance the Board deems appropriate.~~

- ~~—(a) The seriousness of the offense committed by the convicted person;~~
- ~~—(b) The prior record of criminal activity of the convicted person or the absence of such a record;~~
- ~~—(c) The conduct of the convicted person during his imprisonment;~~
- ~~—(d) Recommendations received by the Board from the judge before whom the convicted person was convicted, the prosecuting attorney, a law enforcement agency, the victim, any officer or employee of the Department of Corrections who is familiar with the convicted person or any other person who has an interest in the proceedings;~~
- ~~—(e) The history of supervision of the convicted person;~~
- ~~—(f) The factors involved in the offense committed by the convicted person, including, without limitation, the use of a weapon or the infliction of any injury or financial loss to a victim;~~
- ~~—(g) The failure of the convicted person to attain certification by a psychological screening panel;~~
- ~~—(h) The need for further evaluation of the convicted person;~~
- ~~—(i) The opinion of the Board that continued confinement of the convicted person is necessary to protect the public from further criminal activity by the convicted person;~~
- ~~—(j) Participation by the convicted person in positive programming during his imprisonment;~~
- ~~—(k) The existence of stable release plans for the convicted person;~~
- ~~—(l) The youth of the convicted person if he does not have a prior record of criminal activity as a juvenile;~~
- ~~—(m) Parole of the convicted person to another jurisdiction for prosecution or deportation; or~~
- ~~—(n) Any other circumstances the Board deems appropriate.]~~

3. For statistical purposes only, the Board will maintain a written record of any case in which its decision conflicts with the standards contained in Section 1 through Section 11, inclusive.

Chapter 213 of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 7 through 12, of this regulation.

Section 7: *Notice to prisoner of the parole decisions: Recommendations that might improve the possibility of parole at a subsequent hearing when parole is denied (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140).

- 1. Upon making a final decision concerning the parole of the prisoner, the Board shall provide written notice to the prisoner of its decision not later than 10 working days following the meeting or written delivery to the executive secretary in accordance with NRS 213.133(3).*
- 2. When parole is denied, the Board shall provide to the prisoner specific recommendations to improve the possibility of granting parole the next time the prisoner is considered for parole, if any. Such recommendations provided by the Board do not create a liberty interest when a prisoner is considered for parole at a subsequent hearing, nor are they intended to create an expectation that parole will be granted.*
- 3. Recommendations made by the Board may include, but are not limited to the following:*

- (a). The prisoner should not to engage in disciplinary misconduct during denial period;
- (b). The prisoner should participate in programs that address the behaviors that led to incarceration;
- (c). The prisoner should participate in educational or vocational programs;
- (d). The prisoner should participate in victim empathy programming; and
- (e). The prisoner should disassociate from involvement with a gang.

Section 8: Considerations regarding the granting of Mandatory Parole (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140)

1. The Board will consider eligible prisoners for release under the provisions of Mandatory Parole at least 60 days prior to their projected release, or as soon as practicable following the determination that a prisoner is eligible for release under NRS 213.1215. Such consideration shall not be made more than 150 days prior to their projected release under NRS 213.1215.
2. If, after determining that a prisoner would be released by the Board in accordance with NRS 213.1215, the Board determines that the prisoner has not been considered for discretionary parole release or may otherwise be a good candidate for discretionary parole release, the Board may consider releasing the prisoner on discretionary parole under the provisions of NRS 213.1099 on or before the mandatory parole eligibility date.
3. A prisoner who is eligible for release under NRS 213.1215 may not be released until first having served the minimum eligibility for parole set by the Court as determined by the Department of Corrections in accordance with NRS 213.130(1)(a).
2. A prisoner may not be released on Mandatory Parole until the Board has approved the release and the Division of Parole and Probation has established a program of the prisoner's activities during his parole.
3. Prior to making a final decision to grant Mandatory Parole, the Board shall consider whether there is a reasonable probability that the prisoner would be a danger to public safety if released on parole.
4. In considering whether there is a reasonable probability that the prisoner would be a danger to public safety while on parole, the Board shall consider the following:
  - (a). Whether the prisoner is a high risk to re-offend based on a validated risk assessment as specified in NAC 213.520;
  - (b). The risk of the prisoner if he has been convicted of a sex offense listed in sub-paragraph 5 of NRS 213.1214;
  - (c). Whether the prisoner has ever made any substantive statements regarding his refusal to comply with the terms of parole, or made threats to harm others;
  - (d). Whether the prisoner has a history of violent convictions;
  - (e). Whether the prisoner has engaged in any assaultive or combative institutional behavior;
  - (f). Whether the prisoner has been convicted of multiple felony offenses of Driving under the Influence;

- (g). Whether there is any history of supervision failures related to violence or whether additional crimes have been committed while on supervision;
- (h). Whether the history of criminal conduct of the prisoner has been increasing in severity;
- (i). Whether the prisoner has demonstrated pro-criminal attitude and behaviors such as active gang involvement or planning escapes or other criminal activity; and
- (j). Any other factor that would demonstrate that there is a reasonable probability that the prisoner would be a danger to public safety if released on parole.

Section 9: Notice to the prisoner of meeting to consider him for release on parole (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140).

1. The Board shall provide reasonable notice to each prisoner being considered for parole in accordance with NRS 213.130(9). If the Board determines that reasonable notice was not provided in accordance with this section it may not deny parole and may reschedule the hearing.
2. A prisoner may waive his right to reasonable notice of a parole hearing. In waiving his right to reasonable notice, a prisoner waives his right to appeal a denial of parole based on not having been provided reasonable notice of the hearing.
3. The Board may deny parole when it provides the prisoner notice of the meeting to consider him for parole as follows:
  - (a) Delivered personally to the prisoner at least 5 working days before the meeting; or
  - (b) Sent by certified mail to the institution in which the prisoner is housed at least 21 working days before the meeting.
4. Employees of the Nevada Department of Corrections and the Department of Public Safety are authorized to witness the personal delivery of notice to a prisoner, and acknowledge the same on the notice.
5. If a prisoner refuses to acknowledge the notice that is delivered personally to him, two employees of the Nevada Department of Corrections or Department of Public Safety may attest that the prisoner refused to acknowledge the notice by indicating the prisoner's refusal to acknowledge the notice, and signing and returning the notice to the Board.

Section 10: Rescission of previously granted parole (NRS 213.110, NRS 213.140)

1. The Division of Parole and Probation and the Department of Corrections are authorized to delay the impending release of a prisoner on parole in order to allow the Board to consider information that may be grounds for the rescission of parole.
2. A member of the Board is authorized to delay the impending release of a prisoner on parole in order to consider information that may be grounds for the rescission of parole.
3. Following the written notification of information that may result in a parole rescission, the Board will:

- a. Schedule a hearing as soon as practicable to consider the rescission of parole; or
- b. Upon the written concurrence of the majority of the Board, authorize the release of the prisoner on parole without a hearing.

Section 11: Delegation of the Board’s authority to hear and act upon the parole of a prisoner and other issues before the Board (NRS 213.133).

- 1. The Board may delegate its authority to act upon the parole of a prisoner and other issues before the Board to panels in accordance with NRS 213.133(1).
- 2. A hearing concerning the parole of a prisoner or any decision on an issue involving a person:
  - (a) Who committed a capital offense;
  - (b) Who is serving a sentence of imprisonment for life;
  - (c) Who has been convicted of a sexual offense involving the use or threat of use of force or violence;
  - (d) Who is a habitual criminal; or
  - (e) Whose sentence has been commuted by the State Board of Pardons Commissioners, must be conducted by at least three members of the Board.
- 3. All other issues before the Board may be delegated to a panel consisting of:
  - (a) Two or more members of the Board, two of whom constitute a quorum; or
  - (b) One member of the Board who is assisted by a case hearing representative.
- 4. The decision of a panel is subject to final approval by the affirmative action of a majority of the members appointed to the Board. Such action may be taken at a meeting of the Board, or without a meeting by the delivery of written approval to the Secretary of the Board.

Section 12: Crime severity table (NRS 213.10885, 213.110, 213.140)

In determining the severity of the crime, the Board will rely on the severity as determined by the Nevada Department of Corrections. Sentence enhancements shall be considered the same severity as the underlying crime for which the prisoner was convicted. If a specific crime severity is not listed in this table, the Board will rely on the severity as determined by the Chief of the Offender Management Division of the Department of Corrections. The following is a table of offense severities:
