

PROPOSED REGULATION OF THE CHIROPRACTIC PHYSICIANS' BOARD OF NEVADA

LCB File No. R014-10

March 8, 2010

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~[omitted material]~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§1, 3 and 4, NRS 634.030; §2, NRS 634.030 and 634.130.

A REGULATION relating to chiropractic; revising provisions relating to chiropractor's assistant trainees; revising provisions relating to continuing education of licensees; revising provisions relating to health care records; revising provisions relating to advertisement of fees; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Section 1. NAC 634.305 is hereby amended to read as follows:

634.305 1. At least once each year , the Board will administer an examination to applicants for a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant.

2. The examination will consist of the following subjects, including, without limitation:

- (a) Radiographic technology, protection, quality control and positioning of the patient;
- (b) Ancillary procedures and applications relating to chiropractic; and
- (c) The provisions of NRS and NAC that are related to the practice of chiropractic.

3. An applicant who receives a score of at least 75 percent on the examination is entitled to a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant.

4. If an applicant fails to receive a score of at least 75 percent on the examination the first time he takes the examination, he may retake the examination within 1 year without payment of an additional fee.

5. If an applicant who receives training and employment as a chiropractor's assistant trainee pursuant to subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of subsection 2 of NAC 634.355 fails to receive a score of at least 75 percent on the examination after two attempts and wishes to continue working as a chiropractor's assistant trainee, the supervising licensee must, within 30 days after the date of the notice from the Board of the results of the examination, submit a plan for additional training to the Board. ~~[At its next meeting, the Board]~~ The chairman of the test committee will:

- (a) Approve or deny the plan; and
- (b) Determine whether the chiropractor's assistant trainee may continue working as a chiropractor's assistant trainee.

6. If, pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 5, the chairman of the test committee determines that a chiropractor's assistant trainee may continue working as a chiropractor's assistant trainee, the chiropractor's assistant trainee may continue working as a chiropractor's assistant trainee if the chiropractor's assistant trainee:

- (a) Pursuant to NAC 634.350, submits a new application for a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant and pays the required fee; and*
- (b) Attends an educational course in a subject described in subsection 2.*

7. If a chiropractor's assistant trainee who has submitted an application pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection 6 fails to pass any portion of the examination after two attempts, he may not:

- (a) Work as a chiropractor's assistant trainee; or*
- (b) Submit a new application for examination for 1 year after the date of the most recent examination of which the chiropractor's assistant trainee failed to pass a portion.*

8. An applicant for a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant who fails on two occasions to appear for an examination that he has been scheduled to take:

(a) Shall be deemed to have withdrawn his application;

(b) Forfeits any application fees paid to the Board; and

(c) Must, if he has been receiving training and employment as a chiropractor's assistant trainee pursuant to subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of subsection 2 of NAC 634.355, cease working as a chiropractor's assistant trainee.

↪ If the applicant applies thereafter for a certificate, the applicant must establish his eligibility for the certificate in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 634 of NRS.

9. As used in this section, "chairman of the test committee" means the member of the Board who is assigned by the President of the Board to serve as the chairman of the committee that is created by the President to administer an examination to applicants for a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant.

Sec. 2. NAC 634.385 is hereby amended to read as follows:

634.385 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the Board may approve or endorse an educational class or a seminar if it is designed to advance the professional skills and knowledge of the chiropractic physicians licensed in this State for the purpose of ensuring an optimum quality of chiropractic health care.

2. The Board may approve or endorse the attendance of licensees at an educational seminar or seminars, or the participation of licensees in an online educational seminar or seminars, if:

(a) The syllabus and curriculum of the instructors of the seminar or seminars and the required fee are submitted to the Board;

(b) The seminar or seminars provide instruction in conformity with subsection 3 of NRS 634.130;

(c) The seminar or seminars concern the clinical aspects of a practice or another topic that the Board determines to be in the best interest of the public;

(d) The sponsor of the seminar or seminars ensures that each licensee who requests credit for continuing education to satisfy the requirement set forth in subsection 3 of NRS 634.130 attends at least 50 minutes of each hour of instruction;

(e) The seminar or seminars are sponsored by:

(1) A chiropractic college which has been accredited by:

(I) The Council on Chiropractic Education; or

(II) Another educational entity that has been approved by the Board;

(2) A state chiropractic board or association; or

(3) The American Chiropractic Association, the International Chiropractors Association or the successor of either; and

(f) An original or a copy of a certificate of attendance at the seminar or seminars is provided directly to the Board by the sponsor or licensee on or before January 1 of each odd-numbered year before the issuance of a renewal certificate.

3. The sponsor of the seminar or seminars shall ensure that each licensee attending that seminar is in attendance in a timely manner at the start of each lecture. If the sponsor fails to maintain the proper monitoring procedure, such failure may constitute grounds for the Board to withdraw its approval of a current or future seminar or seminars hosted or arranged by that sponsor.

4. The sponsor of a seminar shall allow any representative of the Board to attend all or part of the seminar in order to monitor the content of the course or lecture and the procedures for taking attendance. A representative who is taking the seminar to satisfy the requirements of subsection 3 of NRS 634.130 shall pay the full registration fee.

5. The sponsor of a seminar which has received the approval of the Board shall report to the Board all changes in the seminar as soon as possible.

6. The Board will not award credit for continuing education to a licensee for an educational class or seminar that is of a nonclinical nature, including, without limitation, an educational class or seminar regarding ~~the~~

~~—(a) The~~ the building or management of a chiropractic practice ~~the or~~

~~—(b)]~~ . The provisions of this subsection do not apply to an educational class or seminar regarding the billing of insurance.

7. The Board will not award credit for continuing education to an instructor of an educational class or seminar unless the instructor obtained from the Board approval for such credit before teaching the educational class or seminar.

8. Continuing education hours earned through completing a specific course may be counted only once during a calendar year toward the hours of continuing education required by section 3 of NRS 634130, even if the licensee completes that course more than once during that calendar year.

Sec. 3. NAC 634.435 is hereby amended to read as follows:

634.435 1. In addition to the requirements set forth in chapter 629 of NRS, a licensee shall ensure that the health care records of his patients:

(a) Document treatment of, or information exchanged with, a patient within 72 hours after that treatment or exchange;

(b) Are clear, legible, complete and accurate;

~~[(b)]~~ (c) Remain confidential, where such confidentiality is required by law; and

~~[(e)]~~ (d) Contain the following information:

(1) A description of the chief complaint for which the patient sought treatment from the licensee;

(2) Documentation of any significant event that affects the chief complaint of the patient or the general history of the health of the patient; and

(3) An accurate record of the diagnostic and therapeutic procedures that the licensee has employed in providing chiropractic services to the patient, including, without limitation:

(I) Examinations and the results of those examinations;

(II) Diagnoses;

(III) Plans for treatment of the patient, including, without limitation, any changes in those plans and the reasons for those changes;

(IV) Areas of the body of the patient on which the licensee has performed chiropractic adjustments;

(V) Dates on which the licensee provided chiropractic services to the patient; and

(VI) A record of the response of the patient to treatment.

2. A licensee who obtains the records of a patient of another licensee because of a change in the ownership of a practice shall:

(a) Report to the Board the transfer of the records; and

(b) Inform the Board, in writing, of the physical location of those records within 15 days after the change in ownership of the practice.

3. A licensee who retires, moves to another state or changes the status of his license from active to inactive shall inform the Board of the location at which the records of his patients may be obtained.

4. The administrator of the estate of a licensee who is deceased shall inform the Board of the location at which the records of the patients of the deceased licensee will be retained.

5. As used in this section, “patient” includes:

(a) A member of the licensee’s family;

(b) A relative of the licensee; and

(c) A member of the licensee’s staff,

↳ to whom the licensee provides chiropractic services.

Sec. 4. NAC 634.556 is hereby amended to read as follows:

634.556 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a licensee who advertises a specific fee or range of fees shall honor the advertised fee or range of fees for at least 90 days after the last date that the advertisement is broadcast or disseminated, unless the advertisement specifies a shorter period. If a specific fee or range of fees is advertised in a telephone directory or other type of media which is not published more frequently than annually, the licensee shall honor that fee or range of fees for at least 1 year after the publication of the telephone directory or other type of media.

2. If an advertisement states that a chiropractic service is being offered free of charge or at a discounted rate:

(a) The service must be provided at the advertised rate regardless of whether the service is to be paid for by the patient or a third party, such as an insurer.

(b) ~~The advertisement must state the price that the licensee ordinarily charges to provide the service, including, if applicable, that the licensee ordinarily provides the service free of charge.~~

~~(c)~~ The licensee who advertises the service shall ensure that:

(1) A patient to whom the service is provided receives and signs a statement of disclosure which sets forth:

(I) A detailed description of the service that will be provided free of charge or at a discounted rate.

(II) The amount that will be charged for any additional services that will be provided.

(III) If the offer to provide a service free of charge or at a discounted rate is valid for a limited time, the date on which that offer will end.

(2) A statement of disclosure that is required pursuant to subparagraph (1) is placed and maintained in the record of a patient to whom a service is provided free of charge or at a discounted rate.

3. If a licensee provides diagnostic services, including, without limitation, examinations and X rays, free of charge or at a discounted rate pursuant to an advertisement, the licensee shall provide those services in a sufficiently complete and thorough manner so as to allow the licensee to make a proper diagnosis.

4. No separate charge may be made for the professional evaluation of diagnostic tests or procedures which are provided free of charge or at a discount, regardless of whether the professional evaluation is made at the time of the initial office visit or at a later time.
