EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~[omitted material]~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§1-9 and 11, NRS 427A.070; §10, NRS 427A.165.

A REGULATION relating to services to aging persons; revising provisions relating to advocacy for residents of facilities for long-term care, including, under certain circumstances, advocacy during the process of discharging a resident from such a facility; establishing the minimum number of hours and the content of the training of advocates required to be provided by the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman; requiring each such facility to post a notice relating to the Ombudsman and advocates; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Section 1. Chapter 427A of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 10, inclusive, of this regulation.

Sec. 2. For the purposes of NRS 427A.125, the Administrator will interpret the term “family council” to mean a group of family members of residents of a facility for long-term care that is formed to discuss concerns about the facility, communicate those concerns to the staff of the facility and cooperate with the staff in developing solutions to the concerns.

Sec. 3. For the purposes of NRS 427A.125, the Administrator will interpret the term “resident council” to mean a group of residents of a facility for long-term care that is formed to discuss concerns about the facility, communicate those concerns to the staff of the facility and cooperate with the staff in developing solutions to the concerns.

Sec. 4. For the purposes of NRS 427A.145, the Administrator will interpret the phrase “person or persons designated as responsible for decisions regarding the resident” to mean a person or persons designated by a resident as able to receive information about the resident and make decisions on the resident’s behalf, including, without limitation, such a person who is a member of the resident’s family or the resident’s attorney-in-fact.

Sec. 5. For the purposes of NRS 427A.155, the Administrator will interpret the term “notify” to include verbal notification.

Sec. 6. In attempting to resolve a complaint made by or on behalf of a resident of a facility for long-term care, the Ombudsman or an advocate, upon request, may advocate for and assist a resident or a member of a resident’s family during the process of discharging the resident from a facility for long-term care, including, without limitation, any appeal from a notice of discharge given to the resident.

Sec. 7. The training of advocates provided by the Ombudsman pursuant to NRS 427A.125 will include, without limitation:

1. A minimum of 40 hours of initial training which is based on standards of the Administration on Aging of the United States Department of Health and Human Services and which includes, without limitation:

(a) An introduction to the Ombudsman Program administered by the Administration on Aging, including the history of that program and related state programs and the role and responsibilities of ombudsmen; and

(b) Instruction concerning:

(1) Federal, state and local law and policies with respect to the program established in this State by the Ombudsman to assist residents of facilities for long-term care and with respect to facilities for long-term care in this State, including laws and policies concerning confidentiality and consent;

(2) Ethics, advocacy and problem solving with respect to the program established in this State; and

(3) Investigative techniques, periodic visits to facilities for long-term care and techniques for resolving complaints with respect to the program established in this State; and

2. At least 8 hours of in-service training on an annual basis.

Sec. 8. The Ombudsman or an advocate may assist in the forming and activities of the residents' councils and family councils in any facility for long-term care.

Sec. 9. 1. A volunteer advocate may enter any facility for long-term care and any area within the facility at reasonable times with or without prior notice. Upon arrival at the facility, the volunteer advocate shall make his or her presence known to the staff of the facility and shall present appropriate identification.

2. A volunteer advocate who visits a long-term care facility shall:

(a) Meet with residents of the facility and the staff of the facility during the visit; and

(b) Report to the Ombudsman or a designee of the Ombudsman concerning the visit.

Sec. 10. 1. Each facility for long-term care shall post a notice which describes the purpose of the Ombudsman and an advocate and sets forth the procedure for making a complaint to the Ombudsman or an advocate if a resident's rights have been violated.

2. The notice described in subsection 1:

(a) Must be posted in prominent locations throughout the facility for long-term care, including, without limitation:

(1) The entry area;

(2) The dining area; and

(3) An area where residents convene for activities; and

(b) Must include, without limitation:

(1) The name of the program established in this State by the Ombudsman to assist residents of facilities for long-term care; and

(2) The address and telephone number of each office of the Aging and Disability Services Division in this State.

3. As used in this section, “resident’s rights” includes the rights of a resident of a facility for long-term care as set forth in 42 C.F.R. § 483.10.

Sec. 11. NAC 427A.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:
