NEVADA TAX COMMISSION

LCB File No. R154-10

November 17, 2010

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~[omitted material]~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §1, NRS 360.090.

A REGULATION relating to taxation; revises provisions relating to the sale of bullion; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Section 1. NAC 372.170 is hereby amended to read as follows:

372.170 1. The tax applies to sales of coins or uncanceled stamps at a premium price for purposes other than use as a medium of exchange or postage. The tax does not apply to sales of coins or uncanceled stamps, even though sold at a premium price, if the purpose of the use of the coins or stamps is as a medium of exchange or postage.

2. If the sales price exceeds the face value of the coins or stamps by 50 percent, they will be deemed to have value as collectors' items and will be taxable. If the sales price does not exceed the face value of the coins or stamps by 50 percent, they will be deemed to have value solely as a medium of exchange or postage and will not be taxable. Sales of any coins not currently accepted as money and sales of cancelled stamps or stamps not currently accepted for postage are taxable.

3. Sales of coins to gaming establishments at any price for use in gaming operations are not taxable, except that, sales of coins at a premium price to gaming establishments for purposes other than use as a medium of exchange are governed by subsection 2.

4. The tax applies to sales of bullion at a premium price for purposes other than use as a medium of exchange. The tax does not apply to sales of bullion, even though sold at a premium price, if the purpose of the use of the bullion is as a medium of exchange.
