May 16, 2014

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~(omitted material)~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§1-3, NRS 648.030.

A REGULATION relating to the Private Investigator's Licensing Board; interpreting the meaning of "principal place of business" for licensees of the Board; prohibiting the use of a home as a principal place of business in certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes the Private Investigator's Licensing Board to adopt regulations to enable it to carry out the provisions of chapter 648 of NRS. (NRS 648.030)

Section 2 of this regulation interprets the term "principal place of business" as used in NRS 648.080, 648.142 and 648.148 to include, without limitation: (1) a home used to conduct a business for which a license or certificate from the Board is required; and (2) an office space which is shared with other persons, including, without limitation, other licensees. Section 3 of this regulation prohibits the use of a home as a principal place of business if such a use is contrary to local ordinance.

Section 1. Chapter 648 of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 and 3 of this regulation.

Sec. 2. As used in NRS 648.080, 648.142 and 648.148, the Board will interpret "principal place of business" to include, without limitation:

1. The home of a licensee if the home is used by the licensee to conduct a business for which a license or certificate issued pursuant to this chapter and chapter 648 of NRS is required; and

2. An office space which is shared with one or more other persons, including, without limitation, other licensees.

Sec. 3. A licensee shall not use a home as a principal place of business if any local ordinance prohibits such a use.
