SMALL BUSINESS IMPACT STATEMENT
PURSUANT TO NRS 233B.0608

Date: October 25, 2017

Re: Proposed Adoption/Amendments/Repeal of Regulations/NAC Chapter 391 regarding the definition of "moral turpitude" for the purpose of implementing NRS 391.033

I, Steve Canavero, being the duly appointed Interim Superintendent of Public Instruction, do hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge or belief:

1. The proposed changes to regulations to define "moral turpitude" as it applies to licensing educators in the State of Nevada pursuant to NRS 391.033 are not likely to (a) impose a direct or significant economic burden upon a small business, or (b) directly restrict the formation, operation or expansion of a small business. The proposed regulations deal only with educator licensure.
2. A concerted effort was made to determine any economic burden. The Department of Education has relied on the expert knowledge of Department staff; the impact is solely on persons seeking to obtain an educator license in the State of Nevada.
3. All relevant materials were reviewed and the Department considered its history with implementing similar regulations; the proposed changes are within the historic scope of the Department's activities and present no new cost of enforcement.
4. Comment has not been solicited from small businesses, and no summary of their response is provided, because small businesses are not impacted by this regulation and thus no burden or economic impact can be assessed.
5. The revisions of this regulation after its initial drafting were made to define "moral turpitude" for the purpose of implementation of NRS 391.033 and have no effect on small businesses.

I hereby further certify that, to the best of my knowledge or belief, a concerted effort was made to determine the impact of the regulation on small businesses and that the information contained in this statement was prepared properly and is accurate.

Respectfully submitted,
